Fans Rally at Tea Dance in Cafe

Urge Students to Attend Loyola Basketball Game Tonight

• In honor of the 1938 basketball squad, a tea dance will be given this afternoon from 3:30 until 5:30 in the college cafeteria. Sponsored by the rally committee, the affair will be the first of a series to be presented during the season.

Students will have to pay ten cents at the door in order to defray expenses of the floor, music and refreshments. Punch will be served during the afternoon. Mrs. Mary Ida Sands will take charge of refreshments and the coffee shop will be kept open. Following the dance, regular evening meal will be served in the dining hall.

Game Tonight

All students are urged to attend the basketball game at the Armory, where the State team will meet Loyola university tonight and tomorrow night.

A short program will be presented and in the event that no noon dances will be given this year, it is hoped that these afternoon dances will take the place of the mid-day hops. All students are invited to attend," stated Dr. Helen Sweet, rally advisor.

Legislative Council Votes Study of Publicity

• At a regular meeting of the student legislative council, held last night in Pine Hall, a recommendation that a study be made of the publicity department and associated problems, was passed. The action came upon the completion of the present contract hiring Dick Kaime as publicity director. Under the action, the student finance committee, composed of Danny D'Alfonso, Ed Cole, Tom Lindquist, Don Follett, Miss Hazel Severy and such other extra members as are needed for informational problems will study the problems of publicity, public relations and advertising. Until such time as that committee reports to the council, the publicity department will be nonexistent.

The council also voted to rescind a previous motion disempowering Harold Davis from handling student funds, and substituted a blanket provision providing that any person handling student funds be approved by the council. Other moves taken of importance included the passing of a budget of $156.40 for tennis and $180.00 for rugby. Hal Gorham will act as coach for the tennis team with Dr. John Pettus guiding the rugby sport.

The council also reported as completed, a move to give Coach "Spud" Harder and Wilton Wilton gratuity to the amounts of $500 and $250 respectively. Fred Allred, former controller of the student body, was sent a pen set for valuable services rendered, as voted by the council, President Danny D'Alfonso reported. A band award for three years participation was voted to Roland McDonald, in accordance with constitutional requirements.

Croswell Tells of Mexican Trip

• Mrs. Mary Croswell spoke yesterday in the department meeting, on the trip she and Dr. Croswell took to Mexico during the Christmas vacation.

The couple drove to Hermisillo and Guymas, returning by Arizona. In Wymas they met friends of Paxton Hayes, former Santa Barbara man who did valuable archeological work in Mexico.

Dr. and Mrs. Croswell also visited schools, and stopped at the University of Arizona.

World News

• HENDAYE, SPAIN—Jan. 6—The mystery of several months surrounding the failure of Franco to release Harold Doll, captured American aviator flying for the Loyalist government, was solved today when information was forthcoming that Doll had been sentenced to life imprisonment in some Insurgent prison.

• SAN DIEGO, CALIF., Jan. 6—The huge navy flying boat carrying seven men, reported lost off San Diego, tonight sent the aircraft carriers Lexington and Saratoga, with some fifty scouting planes aboard, off in search of the lost craft. An all-day search by surface craft revealed no trace of the Consolidated VP 7 V which it is feared may have crashed and sunk.

Stater Owns Power Boat

"Starlight" Cruiser Goes on Island Trips as Squid Home

• Star light, star bright, first star I've seen tonight,
I wish you would, I wish you might,
Grant me the wish, I wish tonight."

And if any Stater is wishing to cruise the ocean blue, that opportunity is closer than "just around the corner." Ernest Smith, a frosh from the valley city of Bakersfield is the owner of a forty foot express cruiser which rides at anchor back of the Santa Barbara breakwater when not in use.

Leaves Good Wake

"Starlight," with 20 knots of speed to leave a good wake behind it, will carry as many as 30 passengers with Captain Elmer Jeffries at the helm. The cruiser was built by the Wilmington Boat Works in 1935 and is powered with an eight cylinder Grey motor. Captain and owner both report that moonlight rides, island trips, or afternoon jaunts in the Pacific may be taken at a very reasonable price. It will accommodate ten for overnight excursions.

The boat is destined to be of much historic value to State college in that it is the home of the "Loyal Order of the Squid," a senior football organization.

Hile Presents Second Play of Series

"Hell Bent for Heaven" Goes on Production January 18

• "Hell Bent for Heaven," a modern comedy and melodrama by Hatcher Hughes, will be the next presentation of the Player's club under the direction of Frederic Hile, head of speech arts departments. The State college players will make their second debut on January 18 and 19 on the auditorium stage.

Betty Northrup, Betsy Talbott, and Tommy Hart will be in charge of ticket sales with the play tickets being distributed next week. The first performance of "Hell Bent for Heaven" was given fourteen years ago, on January 4, 1924 in New York, where it was met with immediate response. The year previous it had been chosen to receive the Pulitzer prize.

Depicts Carolinans

This drama of Carolina mountain folk takes place in the home of Matt Hunt and his wife, Meg, who are played by Lloyd Borstelman and Neita Crain. Matt's son, Sid, played by Carl Jorgenson, is just back from a year overseas with the A. E. F., and glad to return to his girl, Jude Lowry, (Mabel Forsyth). Living with the Hunt's is Rufe Pryor, played by Clyde Cadwell, who is a somewhat fanatical convert to "camp meeting religion" and plainly resentful of Sid's popularity.

Others in the cast are Eluis Womack as "Grandpap" David Hunt, cured at the Owl Drug store on and Robert Binns as Andy, Jude's brother. Tickets may also be produced State street.

L. A. Philharmonic Plays Symphony at Theatre

The Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra, under the direction of Otto Klemperer, will give a symphony concert next Tuesday evening, January 11, in the Fox Arlington theatre.

The program chosen is one of great variety, opening with Wagner's Overture to "Die Meistersinger", and closing with the famous Symphony No. 6 "Pathetic", by Tchaikowsky. Other numbers to be played are: Aria, "Bist du bei mir", by Bach, arranged by Klemperer; Serenade in D Major, by Mozart; and Scherzo from "Queen Mab" by Berlioz.

Student tickets may be secured at a reduced rate from Mrs. Helen Barnett in her office on Monday and Tuesday.

Loyola Invades Gaucha Hoop Court Tonight

Santa Barbara Opposes Loyola for First Time Since Grid Season of 1926; Play on Armory Court

• Tonight Santa Barbara will gain its first opportunity to see Loyola participate in Santa Barbara athletics since 1926 when State met the Lions in a gridiron encounter when the Loyola football team played State in the south. As Coach Wilton M. Wilton directs the Gaucha basketball team into action tonight the odds will be the stiffest of the season as the Jesuit school comes to Santa Barbara with a record of having been beaten only by U.C.L.A. out of seven games.

Starting line-up for Loyola will be made up of experienced men and will include members of the Lion grid team. However, the Gauchos have also had plenty of experience and are also using football men. The main difference will be in the Gauchos swinging into action without delay as the holiday season has not quite settled while the Loyola team has already played several of their top-notch games and did not break up over Christmas.

Loyola will start the game with the following men: Phil Woolpert, forward; Tony Quigley, forward; Vidi Kriste, center; "Scotty" McDonald, guard; Paul Kane, guard. As reserves the Lions will have Pete Newell, forward and guard; Bob Zwank, guard; Carl Hovland, forward and guard.

Of this group the danger man is "Scotty" McDonald who is known as the fastest man on the squad. Last year as a junior he was the high scorer from a forward spot. However, to build the defense he was shifted to guard. Woolpert is an accurate shot and is also a good defensive man. Leading scorer of this year is Vidi Kriste, six feet, four, and a junior.

For Santa Barbara the probable starting line up is Crow, Palmer, Howsman, Young and Bailey. With Young and Bailey supplying the weight and power at defense, Howsman at center and Crow and Palmer at forwards the Gauchos should be ready to go.

Stanford Den Challenges Conservatism in Assembly

• "Two Major Developments in Education" was the topic Dean Grayson N. Kefauver, of the Stanford college of education spoke of in a special assembly of the State college student body yesterday morning during third hour. The two major developments described were the ideas of studying the modern world rather than the past and the belief that the student rather than actual knowledge was the most important problem of education.

In opening his talk Dean Kefauver stated that the great amount of modern change had influenced all fields and that this change made it more important that education keep on its toes. Special challenge was made at the conservative schools that still looked at the past as being the only element that counted in training students in such fields as literature and art.

WANTED—AN UNKNOWN SOLDIER

● Reprinted below is an editorial from the New Mexico Lobo:
How would you like to be hero? How would you like to be picked out of a muddy ditch and placed in a flag-draped coffin? How would you like to lie in state under the rotunda of the Capitol building in Washington with a military guard at your and common people passed by to do you homage? How would head and feet, while presidents and generals and ambassadors you like to be laid in a beautiful white marble mausoleum with a military salute and the sad, sweet sound of taps for a lullaby? How would you like to have a great general place a wreath on your grave each Memorial Day, and foreign celebrities speak in hushed and trembling voices of the supreme sacrifice that you made and the glory that is yours?

The last Unknown Soldier was only a lad like you. He worked at his job, and respected his elders, and built his shining dreams of the future. And then the Great Chance came, and he grabbed it. Now he is one of the immortals. He is honored and respected; everyone speaks highly of him.

The United States Marine Corps is now accepting men for immediate enlistment. They will be transferred, an announcement states, "to San Diego for an eight weeks' training period, after which they will be eligible for duty aboard battleships or in the Orient."

Here, boys, is your chance. Give up your humdrum jobs; put away your dull books. Here is an opportunity pounding on your door. Hurry while there is still time. The band is already tuned up; the generals have their eulogies well in mind; the wreath has been prepared; the mausoleum awaits. You may be the lucky one. You too can be an unknown soldier.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor;

The students have come in for their share of the drubbings handed out for their scholastic shortcomings in the periodically ubiquitous editorials wondering what goes on in college; why don't college students know anything; and why do we pay taxes to set loose a flock of dullards at graduation. Naturally, we deny these charges in a large part.

But in this editorial we are going to lift our voices against the teachers. We demand to know why colleges do not provide courses in methods of study. Subject matter is shovelled out with commendable skill, lecture courses are brilliant and fascinating, the teacher's grasp of his subject is profound and competent, but in putting across study technique a zero must be assigned to our faculties.

Term papers are about due and a host of confused students are floundering in despair simply because they do not know how to attack the problem. The same is true of examinations. They go through all the agony ignorance, waste hours of valuable time, blacken a great deal of white paper, and produce at great cost these same term papers, examinations, et cetera that cause this chorus of groans from the faculty.

High schools should teach students how to study, but they do not, so it is up to the colleges to fill this need. Even the students feel this need and have vaguely voiced a protest in their subdued grumbling. We feel that someone might devise a course to be given in the freshman year and win the perpetual gratitude of these harrassed souls whose wails are pitiful and plentiful.

Quotable Quotes

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

● "College-trained women have tried to be objective in a field in which objectively obviously is at its minimum. They have not allowed themselves really to feel and have any emotions. We don't have to confuse mother love with smother love, and just because we have revolted from over-sentimentality, we don't have to eliminate sentiment entirely." Mrs. Sidonie M. Gruenberg, educational director of the Child Study Association of America, gives her views on mother love, prompted by the recent controversy.

● "The great mass of American girls, from the girls at the department store to the most elite, are much more beautiful than girls of foreign countries." Dr. Earl H. Bell, University of Nebraska anthropologist, is a loyal native son.

● "Only international disapproval, expressed by the peace-loving people of the world through their only weapon—an economic ban on war lord aggressors—can end the merciless conquests of the modern day." Maesine Gam, Chinese-American citizen of the second generation and a student at Wayne university, lent her support to a Japanese boycott.

Questionnaire CAMPUS CAMERA

● Having seen the current showing of "Tobacco Road," what did you think of it?

JEFF POWELL:

That is the trouble, it makes you think too much.

BARBARA BENNETT:

Well, it certainly was different from any other play I've seen, thought provoking, too.

PEG McMANUS:

I was very disappointed, I had expected more.

H. E. SWEET:

Though depressing, I believe that seeing into the lives and feeling the emotions of a far from small group of American citizens, as represented by the Lesters is necessary in the development of a democracy and that the theatre is one of the most valuable mediums of portrayal, for an adult audience, of such lives as represented in Tobacco Road.

PETIE McKINNEY:

"Tobacco Road" is so outstandingly remote from our existence that one appreciates it. The acting was good but the story was disappointing.

BILL SEARS:

Wow!

THEDA CALL:

I fail to see how a playwright could say so much about so little. However, it was different.

BOB HALFERTY:

Beer and blondes during the intermission would have put the finishing touches to a perfect production.

HAM:

"Nicotine Alley?" Woo woo

Over The Fence

The band at Fresno State has its instruments all lit up with neon lights when it parades.

The faculty at Nebraska State have been taking lessons to master the art of the big apple. They will charge the students 10 cents to see them perform.

The students at the University of Nevada pay five cents an issue for their paper. The boys also decide each year just what the girls will wear the following year and why.

It was intermission time at the Fraternity dance and every one came inside to rest.

❖ The Spicer ❖

● It has been two weeks rest for us as well as you, but we come back and ask for news and the answer is 'no, not a new.' So we must use rumors, some imagination and follow orders to fill this space without inspiration . . .

"Small cheer and great welcome make a merry feast"—Shakespeare . . . You have had the cheer. We give the welcome, for if you didn't all come back who would take those finals that are looming up?

Must pause to give recognition to a great occasion. Good luck and congratulations to you both, PETIE McKINNEY and De WITT TREWHITT . . . Now comes the grief reports . . . JEAN GORDON made a special visit to the alma mater town during vacation to have an evening with MORRIS HANNON . . . Headline from a Van Nuys paper—"Skippy Smith in Whirlwind Campus Romance," and it led to Yuma. Good luck, Kay and Tootie. Not so with BILL SEARS and BETTY PALMAYESA who just don't know each other anymore . . . They should take a lesson from the peaceful bliss between JANICE WESTWICK and FRANK MEREDITH who seem to have made good use of the recent holiday . . .

It was a good show but didn't last until midnight. FRANK ELINGS took a side glance down Nicotine Alley last Wednesday night with THEDA CALL. He says HOWIE YEAGER was still "studying" at JEAN McARTHUR'S when he went by . . . Might mention that DONK HART who whistles wedding marches to embarrass others isn't so foot loose and fancy free . . .

Some have heard and some haven't. Those two convicts who escaped from Alcatraz about three weeks ago were found on the island in a cave. They had lived on milk all the time they were there. End man's question, Where did they get the milk? They had gotten the warden's goat. End of news flash. However, if the other person exclaims, "They did!" it's time to change the subject . . . It seems the local town paper has twice credited a social news story to the Tau Omegans when all the time it was the Gamma Sigs who were active. No reason for either frat to be insulted but they pretend to be . . . Another week, a little weaker.

Dame rumor also reports that Florence Ahlman will "aisle it" in Los Angeles in the near future, but the name of the lucky man is not positively known, as yet.

Staters Name All-Time Eleven

Pick Squad of Top-Notch Players of College Grid History

At the end of 1937 four interested fans of Santa Barbara State football gathered in an effort to produce a fitting conclusion to the gridiron season of 1937. This idea of this All-Time team was finally suggested with the belief that such a team would be appropriate to the present position of Santa Barbara as a rising power in our gridiron world and to offer to those men that have contributed to the foundation of this position.

The method of selecting the team was settled by each of the four naming three teams. From a composite of these selections the final squad was made with a point basis of ten for first, five for second and three for third with a single point for any honorable mentions.

Difference arose over certain positions as it was obvious it must. In certain cases all agreed on the players named but believed that there was some other man who deserved a particular spot. As a result recognition was given to certain men out of their natural position. However, in all cases the players had proved their ability to fill the position allotted.

Among the final difficulties was the desire to place men who had not yet graduated. The decision was that all such would be omitted. One special trouble was in the first string backfield where it was the desire of the group to give mention to a fifth player because of his excellence as one of the greatest all-around players to ever play on a State eleven. Thus, after the regular positions had already been filled the position of utility man was made.

Gaucha All-Stars Play Tracy's

Gaucha's All-Star baseball men will meet Tracy's All-Stars in a grudge battle, at 2:15 Sunday, January 9 at Pershing Park. Tracy's, a semi-pro team with several pro players has long been the point at which the college men have aimed and have finally consented to a game.

Jimmy Van Meter, coach of Frosh baseball, will lead the collegians. Players are all college men.

The Gaucha team has been working out for the past week for this game. Players are Wallace, s.s.; Hallen, 2b; Busby, l.f.; Murray, c.f.; Evans, 3d; Halferty, 1b; Fugimoto, r.f.; Wilson, c; Fitzgerald, p; Smith, c.f.; Merlo, r.f.; Kinsel, p; Bestuldes, 2b.

Gaucha Rugby Men Must be Quiet

Silence is golden, golden at least to the Santa Barbara State Rugby team. Until the Staters' new campus on Leadbetter hill is completed the wearers of the green and white are forced to borrow football fields. Last football season the Gauchos secured Peabody Stadium from the high school for their night football games and citizens whose homes border the field complained bitterly about the loud speakers and cheering fans.

In negotiating for the stadium as a stage for a series of night intercollegiate Rugby games, the point was made that in Rugby there are complicated plays that need explaining over the loud speakers. Try and have the crowds "keep it to a mild roar" was the final request of Curtis Warren, city superintendent of schools.

The first game is with Compton J.C. January 15.

FROSH WIN OVER SPORT STORE HOOPSTERS

Playing a preliminary game to the New Mexico-Santa Barbara game the Frosh casaba squad scored their second win of the season when they beat Ashley Westlund 26-25 Wednesday, January 5. Under the coaching of Bill Russell the Frosh have been working hard on fundamentals in preparation for the regular season.

Against Cal Poly Frosh the Peagreeners were nosed out by a score of 32-30. Next attacking Ventura J.C. they were victorious 29-18. Later they dropped a game to Ventura 21-13.

Members of the squad are as follows: Wallace, McLaine, Lyman, Sears, Duff, Beckman, Brown, Wharton, Conrad, Rivers, Navarro, Brothers, Bookman, Dorrance, and Wood. The first blow came when the Frosh lost the services of Peterson, diminutive guard. Peterson was compelled to leave school when his family was stricken by illness.

Sig Alphs Complete Year With Dance

The annual Sigma Alpha Kappa semi-formal Christmas dance was held Saturday evening, December 14 at the Elks' Club on Carrillo street.

More than fifty couples attended the event. Dancing began at 9:00 p.m. and lasted until 12:00 o'clock. Doug Hoag's orchestra furnished the music for dancing.

The Christmas theme was carried out in the decorations which consisted of a large Christmas tree, poinsettias and other holiday ornaments. Refreshments were served at midnight.

Honored guests for the occasion included Mr. and Mrs. William Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Girvetz, Captain and Mrs. Paul Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kupfer.

Freshmen at the University of Vermont are on the average younger, heavier, and taller than the freshman class of 10 years ago.

Elks Honor State at Grid Dinner

Senior members of the Gaucha gridiron squad received traveling cases engraved with their names and numerals as rewards for their services at State following a turkey dinner given by the Elks' lodge.

Members of the high school and college football teams were the guests of the Elks. R. F. MacFarland, was toastmaster. Speakers included Raymond Eldred, exalted leader of the Elks, President Phelps, Dr. Charles Jacobs, Dr. Charles Stevens, Harvey Holt, Clarence Schutte, Spud Harder, Chief of Police Evans, Santa Paula, Sam and Willard Dolman. Don Hart presented a pair of glasses to Harder as a gift from the Royal Order of the Squid whose members appeared worried concerning the good doctor's eyesight.

Flowers Planted

Sophomore Squires, aided by Las Espuelas, planted flowers on the hill below the auditorium Sunday, December 19. In a campaign to beautify the Riviera campus instigated by the Better Homes and Gardens group and carried on by the Squires this was the first of a series steps.

Members who aided were Hugh Shiels, Waldo Phelps, Paul Pearson, Arnold Rose, Norman Becchio, George McCrea. Las Espuelas representatives were Alice Boeseke, Ellen Seymour and Lyndell Brundidge.

Plans call for the planting of more flowers inscribing the initials SBSC on the slope in front of the school are the next in line.

New Mexico Defeats Gaucha Basketball Five, 38-27

Miners Rally in Second Half Too Much for Local Quintet

Displaying a fast breaking offense and a smooth working attack, the New Mexico Mines quintet defeated Willie Wilton's Gauchos last night, 38-27. The game was staged at the local armory and was witnessed by a gathering of approximately 500 fans.

In the first half the lead sawed back and forth. The Miners jumped into a 5-2 lead in the opening minutes of play, but the home town five rallied to tie it up at 5-5. From this point the two teams battled on even terms and the quarter ended with the Gauchos leading 13-12.

Then came the turning point. The second quarter was all New Mexico. Led by their ace forward, Jimmie Needles, the invaders swished baskets from all corners of the court and the score at halftime was 21-14.

The second half was rather a dull affair, as New Mexico dominated the play for the most part. The Gauchos missed practically all their free throws and thus missed several opportunities to win the game. It was very obvious that Coach Wilton has plenty of hard work ahead of him, because the team work was very poor.

Tooley Palmer was for the third straight time the standout. Buck Bailey played a creditable game at his guard position as did Bob Ulrich at forward. Ulrich played a whale of a defensive game and his passing was deceptive.

The "Pony" five made a big hit with the fans when they entered the game. They showed plenty of speed, teamwork, and fight, but their defense was very ragged. If Coach Wilton could form the right combination the team would give their opponents plenty of trouble, but weakness at center and one guard position slows the whole team up.

Tonight Loyola invades the Gaucha stronghold for a two game series, and if the local cagers can play the right kind of ball they are capable of, it should be a series packed with thrills and close competition.

Football is the most dangerous sport but is more dangerous to drive a car to the stadium than it is to play football, according to a professor at Yale university.

Fletcher Valentine knows tobacco values...like so many other independent experts he smokes Luckies!

"I'VE bought 4,000,000 pounds of tobacco at auctions in the past ten years," says Mr. Valentine, independent buyer of Westfield, N. C., "and my bread and butter depends on making the right bids. That's why I have to know tobacco values."

"Now I've smoked Luckies ever since 1918, and the reason is, they suit my taste to a 'T'. Nobody knows better than we tobacco men that Luckies are made of the finest center-leaf tobacco."

Yes—and that isn't all...Luckies' exclusive process, "It's Toasted" takes out certain irritants naturally present in all tobacco—even the finest! The result is that you will find Luckies not only taste good but are easy on your throat.

Surely, independent experts like Mr. Valentine make good judges of cigarettes... Sworn records show that, among independent tobacco experts, Luckies have twice as many exclusive smokers as have all other cigarettes combined!
