Dance Set With Soldiers Oct. 30

Sponsored jointly by Camp Cooke and State College, several dances have been planned for the forthcoming semester. First of the planned occasions is an overnight dance at Camp Cooke, Saturday, Oct. 30, with sleeping quarters, transportation, and food furnished by the Cooke Base.

Students will dance for two hours and then be treated to a buffet supper after which dancing will follow. The girls will sleep in special barracks assigned to them, and will be awakened Sunday morning to have breakfast with the men. After breakfast they will be privileged to attend any one of the many chapels on the base. Church services will make up part of the program, followed by jujitsu demonstrations, and as a climax, lunch with the men in the mess hall.

Girls wishing to attend this dance affair are asked to see Dean Lois M. Bennink and to obtain parents' consent. Jean Aissman, Edie Van Meter, and Emily Joost will provide just a sample of the entertainment for the occasion.

Faculty Holds Science Seminar

Tuesday, October 19, the State College faculty will hold a science seminar with Dr. Eric Noble. Dr. Noble, who did research work on this subject this summer at the University of California, will bring before the faculty the highly important research work on this subject which he is working on. It is hoped that this research work will be of the greatest value when this research work has been completed.

Students To Display Talents at Assembly

College students will display their various talents in the A.W.S. talent assembly on Tuesday, October 19. The talent assembly will be held in the A.W.S. Auditorium. Entrance will be free to students.

Fellowship Offered To College Students

An announcement was made today by the Trustees of the Estate of the late Senator James D. Phelan of one fellowship being offered for the year 1944-45. It is open to the writers of fiction, biography, historical narrative, and verse narrative and carrying a stipend of $600. It is made available annually under the terms of a bequest to bring about further development of native talent in California in the fields of literature and art.

Dean Charles H. Leisman of the University of California, speaking for the Trustees, called attention to the fact that applicants for the fellowship, both men and women, must not only be native-born citizens of California, and must be between the ages of 20 and 30. Applications must be made on forms especially provided for that purpose, and may be obtained from the office of the James D. Phelan Memorial Literary. Literature and Art, 319 Phelan Building, San Francisco. The competition closes the 16th of February, 1944.

Those competing must furnish the names of three people who have knowledge of the field in which they are working, and who are acquainted with the applicant and his work. In addition, applicants are required to present specimens of their handiwork.

A committee of experts in the field of literature will judge the application and recommend to the Trustees the successful candidate.

Wild West Party Held Monday

The Wild West returned once more when Phrateres held its Wild West party Monday night in the music hall. Gambling games of bingo, roulette, and others were played with money (play money) changing hands rapidly.

Community singing of cowboy songs was led by Virginia Land, while Gloria Lindsey beat the tunes out on the piano. Square dances and refreshments of coffee and doughnuts completed the western theme.

About 70 members attended the party competently handled byJean Kramer, Barbara Sen- seney, Frances Bigham. Lorraine DeBruick, Alice Fritze, Lorette Nelson, and Phrateres president Myrtle Geissler.

Sponsors for the evening were Miss Marion Hammond, Miss Phoebe Steer, Dr. Helen Sweet and Dean Lois Bennink.

Due to the fact that the present Editor of El Gaucho is leaving campus for a semester, the position of editor is now open. Anyone person desiring to make application for the post should contact Harriet Martin or Wilf Seaman immediately.

A.W.S. To Honor Hoff Hospital Men

In line with war service work and in continuation with last year's program A.W.S. is holding a dancing at Hoff Hospital on October 21, from 7:30 to 10:30.

Girls desiring to be dance partners for the evening are requested to sign up in the office of the Dean of Women, Lois Bennink. Further details may be obtained from Miss Bennink or Mary Terney Hubbs, chairman of the dance.
Women Asked To Help A.W.S.

Periods of stress have usually found people of our country banding together in spirit and activity. In order to preserve those things which have become traditional, on this campus many changes have been made, and one of the greatest is that women here, as throughout the world, are accepting jobs and positions formerly handled by men.

In past years the various organizations on campus have had a predominating role in planning and executing activities. Now with so many vacancies left and so many tasks to be done, it is hoped that ALL women will work hand and glove together through the Associated Women’s Students.

In furtherance of last year’s plan, the A.W.S. is sponsoring dances with service men, and it is hoped that ALL women will volunteer their services.

Dimes y Diretes by EDIE VAN METER

Last week, we dusted off yo olde welcome mat for GEORGE SOULES, former Gaucador track star, now serving with the U.S. M.C. and GEORGE CHAMBERLAIN, of the U.S.N., checking in at ATO JEAN CHINCLAWS.

And speaking of fellows in the service: How about it! When you’re through with your copy of the Gaucador send it on to an ex-Gaucho in the Army, Navy or Marine Corps... They’d appreciate it.

Piano-pounding frosh GLORIA LINDSEY returned this last week-end with a bright and sparkling ring, third finger, left hand, variety from her high school beau, now serving in the Coast Guard. And culminating a Gaucho-land romance came the engagement of WINNIE ROWLAND and JIMMY LANG.

Biggest splash of the week was made by BILL JACKSON. Or didn’t you see the frosh throw him in the quod pool?

Looking mighty sharp in the patriotic trio was MARGIE RILEY, L. A. frosh, in a tennis sweater with pleated navy blue skirt.

Snack Bar To Get Cookies

Various forms of entertainment for service men will comprise the activities of the Omega Omicron Pi for this school year. President Eleanor Hanky announced that the organizations first undertaking will be that of making cookies for the A.W.V.S. snack bar on State street. The cookies will be used in the gits in the foods laboratory in the home economics building on State’s campus.

The schedule for the year is a full one for the work for service men many interesting speakers have been secured for the meetings to follow.

REL NOBLE at Paseo with L.T. CISE, also of the Marines. Looks like the Marine fliers are keeping the girls up in the air!

Hosestilling at the tea dance Sunday afternoon, frosh ADELE DUNNE and ANNE GOODIER, LEONA HEINLICK with Lt. JOE PULTORAK of the Marines were also on deck.

ODIE MYERS, D.D., traveling service, this weekend in Y.A. a li steady, air cadet JIM MICO, ex-Gaucho. Got home Monday morning to find sister D.D. CATHY LESOVSKY speechless over her birthday present from Capt. JACK OBERMULLER... a Phi Delt pin, no less.

And welcome home JANIE ABRAHAM. Nice to see you back looking charming as usual, AND rested!

East Beach Scene Of Yacht Club Meet

The Gauchó Yacht Club met at the East Beach, Sunday, October 10, with Commodore Bob Stansbury presiding. The afternoon was spent in sailing in Penguin and Flatty type boats. Fifty students have now completed the swimming tests required of all members. Tests will continue to be given Sunday, October 17, from noon until 1:30, at East Beach Life Guard Station. The club will then hold a brief business meeting before sailing.

It is expected that in addition to the sailing boats the club will have the use of a motor speedboat for riding, water skiing and aquaplaning.

Those students who have not taken the tests and desire to do so are urged to be at East Beach Sunday to complete their membership in the Club.

DON'T LET SANTA MISS THE BOAT

Postal rulings say to mail Army gifts before October 15; Navy, Marine and Coast Guard before November 1.
