SPRING SING SLATED FRIDAY

QUAD AREA IS SITE OF TRADITIONAL STUDENT SONG FESTIVAL THIS YEAR

"Gaiety in Song," this year's Spring Sing, will be held Friday in the Riviera Quad. In addition to the group singing typical of past sings, specialty numbers, barbershop quartets, and the Men's Glee Club will make the evening's program a memorable one. There are 15 entries in the large-group competition and six in the skit competition. Some of the songs to be sung are "Still of the Night," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart," "Nothing Like a Dame," "Beyond the Blue Horizon," "Singing in the Rain" and "After All it's Spring."

Sufficient chairs for a large audience will be brought in to fill the Quad. Floating flowers and colored lights will accentuate the Spring-like atmosphere of the Quad. Everyone is invited to attend this musical extravaganza, "Gaiety in Song of '52."

Any groups desiring special lighting effects should contact Bruce Monroe, stage manager, as soon as possible.

RALLY COMMITTEE

There will be an important meeting of the Rally Committee this afternoon in Ridge Hall 101 at 4 p.m. All members are required to attend, according to Shirley Stockton, chairman.

The purpose of the meeting is to set up a new procedure for conducting yell-leader tryouts.

High School Speech Tourney Saturday

The California State High School Speech Tournament will be held Saturday at UCSBC, announced Upton S. Palmer, chairman of the Committee of Entertaining Colleges. The tournament will include debates, original oratory, dramatic and oratorical interpretation, humorous interpretation, and extemporaneous speaking for girls and boys.

Fourteen California high schools will be represented, including Fresno High School, Lodi High School, Bellarmine, Ripon, John Marshall, Lowell High School, Santa Rosa High School, Modesto, Fremont High School (Sunnyvale), Livingston High School, Brown Military High School and Hoover (San Diego).

At least five judges for each event will be drawn from the faculty of Santa Barbara College, as well as from the city and region of Santa Barbara. Sops and possibly medals will be awarded at 5 p.m. The Sweepstakes Cup is to be held for one year only.

Pictures of all participants will be taken at 4:30 p.m. and it is hoped that the final debate will be recorded.

NEW COMMITTEE

A committee on educational policy has been established at Santa Barbara College. This group has the responsibility of making recommendations to the faculty in regard to academic structure of the college and educational standards within the college.

This new committee, according to Provost J. Harold Williams, parallels similar committees for other campuses of the University.

Russian Playwright Is Masson's Subject

Dr. Edmond Masson, who was born in Moscow of French parentage, will give the All-College lecture in PH 100 at 4 p.m. today on the centenary of a famed Russian playwright, Nikolai Vasilevich Gogol.

Ranked as a lecturer in French and the first to give courses in Russian on the local campus, Dr. Masson has devoted extensive study to Russian literature, including that of Gogol. Among Gogol's plays is "The Inspector General," which was given on the local campus a few years ago. The lecture in Pine Hall Auditorium is free. The public is invited, according to the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music.

Tonight at 8:15 the Santa Barbara College Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music presents a symphony concert in the Riviera Campus Auditorium. All students are cordially invited to attend the program which should prove interesting as well as entertaining.

COMPARISONS ARE IMPORTANT! As you read the following ... ask yourself ... does the platform merely state a problem of which we are all aware ... is it a vague statement of fact ... does it offer CONCRETE, REALISTIC SOLUTIONS? A COMPARISON and your own good judgment will provide the answers!

ACTIVITIES SCREENING BOARD

Set up a permanent board, comprised of elected members of Council, to systematically check all incoming Freshmen and Transfers! This can be easily accomplished with brief information cards and interviews! We must encourage MORE QUALIFIED PEOPLE to get into activities! The trouble on campus is not with the machinery ... but with the NUMBERS of RESPONSIBLE people still not in activities! Interview them ... encourage them ... guide them!

Result:

1. Potential leaders will become acquainted faster!
2. Good screening can eliminate mismanagement!

MAJOR QUALIFICATIONS

1. Past president of the Freshman Class
2. Past president of the Sophomore Class
3. Representative-at-Large
4. Co-chairman of Homecoming, 1951
5. Co-chairman of Barbary Coast, 1952
6. Chairman of the Board of Athletic Control

The following points are what I consider to be the five major issues on campus; together with them are my suggestions:

ASSEMBLIES—The problem here lies with the fact that assemblies seldom offer any student appeal, nor are they well publicized. I advocate cutting to a very few the number of assemblies per semester. Leave only those which are well planned, organized, publicized and, most of all, those which have student appeal in the way of good entertainment or definite current interest.

COLLEGE SPIRIT—Here we all recognize a definite lack. Spirit stems from participation, and this in turn can be gained or lost at the beginning of the year. It must result from the combined efforts of the student body, the yell leader, the band, the legislative council, and the athletic department. I am in favor of a personal-contact campaign in the registration line. This will be conducted by the heads of a few important committees with its purpose directed towards acquainting new students with the various activities and encouraging

Company Representatives To Hold Job Interviews

Representatives of several nationwide business concerns will be on campus to interview senior men interested in sales or production management jobs.

Proctor & Gamble Distributing Co., whose representatives will be here tomorrow, has opening for sales management training. A monthly salary is paid and there is opportunity for added compensation by participation in the Profit Sharing Plan.

Another soap company, with headquarters in Long Beach, will have a representative on campus from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on May 16. The company offers an excellent starting salary to senior men students interested in production management.

On Thursday, May 22, a representative from one of the larger national milk companies will interview students interested in one of the ten training programs conducted by the company.

A training program to select and train men for a sales-management career is offered by a large insurance company whose representative will be on campus May 20. Graduates of this program will be placed in the company's sales offices as assistant managers or supervisors.

Students interested in any of these jobs may sign up for interviews in the Graduate Manager's Office.

Candidates for ASB Offices Announced; Campaigns Start

Fifty-eight candidates will be contending for Associated Students and class offices throughout the rest of this week until May 20. Candidates will be participating in an Open Campaign Day on Monday, May 19, from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. Contenders for the major offices will present various stunts, parades, etc. Also on Monday the candidates will be introduced on the Mesa campus due to the fact that many IA majors will be unable to attend the Riviera assembly.

Inter-Fraternity Council Planning Greek Help Week

Joe Costantino, president of Inter-Fraternity Council, announced this week that plans are completed for the annual "Help Week" project. This year the members of the nine national fraternities on campus have selected the renovation of the YMCA pool and grounds as their project. In co-operation with Mr. Branch, the head of the local YMCA, members of the Greek organizations will spend the day cleaning, scraping and painting the YMCA pool, and will also conduct a general cleanup of the grounds and building at the YMCA center.

Roy Barringer (SAE) is general chairman of the event for IFC and has announced that a barbecue luncheon will be served the Greeks participating in the project.

This is the third annual "Help Week" project which has been sponsored by IFC. In the past the Greeks have cleaned parkways, city parks and streets during the Greek Week. The "Help Week" plan has replaced "Hell Week" at Santa Barbara College, and the fraternities have co-operated in making this period one of constructive effort, rather than destructive.

'Taming of Shrew' Cast Announced

Several novelties will mark the production of Shakespeare's "The Taming of the Shrew," to be staged in the campus Quad on May 22, 23 and 24 under the direction of Dr. Stanley Hamilton.

Not only will the last dress rehearsal be open to students of Santa Barbara schools but the production will be done in Elizabethan style with music and dances integrated into the show. The cast includes nine actors who never before have appeared, as well as Carl Zytowski and Dr. Rolf Linn of the faculty.

On Tuesday, May 20, there will be an Election Assembly in the Quad from 11 a.m. until noon, at which time the presidential and representative-at-large candidates will present their campaign speeches. Following the assembly, polls will be open on both campuses.

Book Drive This Week

As the first project of the newly organized United Nations Club (a member of the College Council of United Nations), the book drive for students at the Seoul National University began yesterday and will continue through Friday. Students are urged to help meet the quota of 3500 books. As a reward to the fraternity or honorary group donating the most books, Ott's, I. Magnin, Sears, and possibly Montgomery Ward are donating prizes. Receptacles for books will be found on campus, so please cooperate and help make this drive a success.

At a meeting of the United Nations Club before vacation, officers for the coming term were elected. They are as follows: President, Philip Staniford; vice president, Dolores Phelps; corresponding secretary, Barbara Morrison; recording secretary, Joyce Hiligas; program planning chairman, Ray Rosales; publicity chairman, Gordon Murchie.

All students interested in this organization are cordially invited to attend the meeting tonight at Dr. Elmer Noble's house, 1250 Dover Lane. The meeting will begin promptly at 7 p.m. and will feature a talk on Korea by Dr. Noble. Those needing transportation should call Phil Staniford, telephone 2-1917.

It's a Little Late . . .

There is an old proverb which berates the farmer who "locks the barn door after the horse has fled."

That thought might well be applied to the present concern with the juvenile problem in the city of Santa Barbara, with the anxiety over the consumption of alcoholic beverages by minors, and Santa Barbara College's position in this social and moral "crisis."

The College's place in Santa Barbara's problem is incidental to the over-all reform campaign—instigated by certain members of the PTA and implemented by the State Board of Equalization. But the college students in this city are getting in the way of the backwash from the campaign and should be made aware of the consequences of the new alcoholic beverages law.

The unfortunate thing about this campaign to reform the youth of Santa Barbara—a reform, incidentally, which seems to be nation-wide in scope—is that it comes a little late.

From the time a child is allowed to attend the movies, from the time he is able to observe the mores of our society, he is made aware of the acceptability of the consumption of alcohol.

Indeed, the inebriate is pictured in countless movies as a person to be laughed at. Drunkenness is treated as a desirable state. The drunk is not only a source of humor, he is looked upon with sympathy, respect and even envy.

Isn't it somewhat ridiculous to engender this feeling of acceptance in the 10-year-old and tell the 20-year-old that drinking is wrong?

This complete reversal is bound to confuse the adolescent and the young high school and college student.

Nevertheless, the drive is on, here and in other communities, and it is to the young Santa Barbarans' advantage to heed the law.

It is foolish to invite arrest. It is not intelligent to continue to ignore the law if it is going to be so rigidly enforced.

It isn't that important anyway.

Contrary to the distorted social rules of some groups of American society, young and old, it is not necessary to drink in order to be accepted.

Hollywood notwithstanding, there are other, more logical, more intelligent ways of becoming an accepted member of society.

And as long as inebriation is not the only standard for acceptance, as long as the pressure is on, it behooves the students of Santa Barbara College to adhere to the law.

The written law is admittedly inconsistent with social law. But there is no reason to invite disaster.

An Open Letter to all UCSB Men:

The men of Beta Sigma Tau, national inter-racial fraternity, extend a cordial invitation to all persons interested in the furtherance of this group to meet at the fraternity house, 2124 De la Vina Street, on Monday night, May 19, at 8 o'clock.

The eleven men who now comprise this group have decided upon this direct appeal to the men of this college in hopes of gathering enough new men to carry on the organization, as only three of the present members will be returning in the Fall.

The Beta Delta chapter of BST is one of the five charter chapters of this national, started after the war by a group of men intent upon practicing those ideals for which they fought. The group is not a crusading society of preachers; merely men who believe that "it's not where a man came from, but where he's going that counts"—that men of all racial and religious backgrounds can live together.

Socially, the men of BST have always taken a leading role in college affairs, this Spring winning second at the Barbary Coast. Judging from present reports, they will again win the scholarship trophy for fraternal organizations. They turned out 100 per cent for the Spring blood drive. There have been a series of parties and bean-feeds all semester long, with another scheduled the Friday after this meeting.

The ability to consume great quantities of liquor is not a requisite for these parties, although social drinking is never frowned upon. As in all relationships, the men of Beta Sigma Tau simply feel what each individual is and does is his own business, so long as it doesn't offend others.

In line with the regular Monday night meetings, the group has adopted the original idea of fraternities and partaken of discussion, reading and demonstration sessions, facilitating "easy learning."

Financially, the group has this semester cleared its debts and now stands free. There is no surplus, but there is no deficit. Dues are the lowest of fraternities at UCSB—$13 pledge dues per semester and $20 for active members.

By special consent of the Inter-Fraternity Council, the fraternity has been allowed to pledge any men interested in the group for the remainder of the semester and then initiate them in June. The fraternity is, obviously, respected by the other fraternities at UCSB.

Therefore, anyone interested in either joining the group, or assisting by suggestion, is invited to the meeting Monday. It is the only one that will be held. Information about the group may be obtained at that time or before from any of the members: Larry Myers, Bob Orchid, John Yee, George Outland, Joe Yee, Bob Yamada, Chuck Dickie, Lyman Eggleston, Mel Levy, Cliff Giles and Jack Derby.

Cordially,
 The Men of Beta Sigma Tau

Up On The Hill..

By JOE COSTANTINO

UP ON THE HILL . . . it seems that the students have learned only the use of one or two descriptive terms. Everyone claims that the vacation was either "fabulous" or "a ball." Since Graham Meahaffy coined the use of the word "fabulous" in reference to college activities three years ago, it now is wearing slightly thin, and I am patiently hoping that before school ends I'll discover some enterprising student who will come up with a new catch-word for next year.

UCLA came up with "Pandemonium" this year, not to mention the "Go Psycho" routine. At San Diego several weeks ago I was exposed to the catchy "Boomer" phrase, a word that somehow came across the border from T-town. (Incidentally, on my San Diego trip I decided to visit the "fabulous" Tijuana, and I have a few scribbled notes to pass on. At 2 a.m. of a Saturday morning the town really "JUMPS." The taxi drivers are the most reckless hot-rod pilots since Johnny Parsons, and after returning to good ol' USA I was amazed to discover that most automobile insurance policies bought here in the States do not apply in Mexico, so I consider myself fortunate that I didn't tangle bumpers with any drivers in Tijuana.

(Also, all those stories you hear about T-town seem to be true. My Spanish being a bit rusty, I'm not quite sure of all the wares offered me, but the upraised eyebrow and side-of-the-mouth manner are strong indications that it wasn't Cracker-Jack they were selling. All in all, I came away feeling it was good to be in Santa Barbara again, and that it isn't worth while to visit T-town since it left as bad an impression on one's mind as the chili did on one's tongue.)

While talking about my travels I'd like to mention other points of interest. On a Wednesday night during vacation I visited UCLA to sit in on an extension class on "The History of Jazz." Yehudi Erdigan, an eminent jazz critic, is conducting the course and has brought in such attractions as the Costa del Oro Jazz Band, Turk Murphy and Jess Stacy as guest attractions. OH for something like that up here!

More memos from my cuff: The Hollywood freeway is good training for the Indianapolis event. Try it some evening about 5. Wilshire will likewise give you training in obstacle-course driving. The famous "Burbank" is no more, having been absorbed by the Follies, and Betty Rowland, the "Ball of Fire," is in jail for gyrating at the wrong time, place and position. Pershing Square is booming again. They are putting the trees, statues and palms back, and soon you speech majors can once again practice the art of debate from the top of an Ivory carton in good ol' P.S. Judy Garland's show at the Philharmonic is very good. (Notice I didn't use fabulous.) "Song of Norway" and "South Pacific" are future attractions. Hollywood is still the same, and ditto for Muscle Beach.

RAZIN' KANE

Today I'm recovering from my second go at mid-terms, and believe me I'm snowed. Of course I have some easy courses.

My music course is giving me a lot of trouble. I'm learning to play an instrument. I first tried to play a shoe-horn but gave it up when I discovered that all I could get out of it was footnotes. Now I'm learning to play the French horn—you all know what that is, don't you? It's a brass instrument that you blow into your hip pocket while stuffing your fist into it.

I'm having no trouble with my experimental psych course. All I have to do is let the other students give me tests; and biology is even easier—they just look at me. But my language course is the worst. On the last midterm the instructor asked a question about syntax, and I didn't even know that the government charged you for that, too!

Soft lights, sweet music, your favorite male and a beautiful formal. Yes, the time of the formal whirl is here. Mr. Peninger has ordered a lot of new dresses so that you can be the belle of the ball. There are full length and ballerina length dresses made of organdy, or marquisette or taffeta, etc. Really, I was amazed at the variety of dresses he has provided and quite a nice variety of prices, too. Speaking of formals, I understand that the Alpha Phis and the Dee Gees spring dances were lots of fun and very successful. And there are lots more of them coming up so come down and try on a formal.

The cotton dress situation has been very good, too. You'll find them suitable for school, and suitable for evening and many are suitable for both. To offset your cottons, a straw basket, a pair of novelty gloves, and maybe a lovely white stole will make all the difference in the world.

Watch for Patty Clark's new Cole bathing suit. It's one of the prettiest I've seen this year, and I think Patty will be very pleased. I'd like you to come down and pick out one for yourself, too.

GOERNER HONORED

Fred Goerner, senior student at Santa Barbara College who is majoring in speech, has been awarded a fellowship at the University of Utah, it was announced last night by Dr. Theodore Hatlen, chairman of the Speech Department.

IFC Delegates Return From Training School

Inter-Fraternity President Joe Costantino (Sigma Pi) and delegates Art Hanger (Lambda Chi) and Bert Pierce (SAE) recently attended an IFC Leadership and Training School held at San Diego State College. Representatives from UCLA, USC, Fresno State, San Diego State, Pepperdine and Santa Barbara took part in planning discussions which involved internal fraternity problems.

Following the conference the delegates were toasted to a party and dance at the El Cortez Hotel in downtown San Diego.

FORD FELLOWSHIPS

Students at Santa Barbara College who are completing their undergraduate work this year are eligible to apply for the Ford Foundation for fellowships making possible overseas training and research, according to word received by Dr. Henry Adams, chairman of the committee on honors and scholarships.

Primary interest of the Foundation at this time is to award fellowships to Asia and the Near and Middle East. Whether a candidate has lived and worked in those areas is not a factor. Candidates must be under the age of 35. Awards are for one to three years.

Student Council Communique

By PAULINE BYARD

At the May 6 meeting of Legislative Council, Margaret Mueller, Council's representative on psychological counselling, reported that Dr. Snidecor and Dr. Clarke are planning to come before Council soon and present their plan on psychological counselling.

Discussion on revision of the by-laws comprised the greater part of the meeting. Major revisions are briefly outlined below:

Two voting members were added to the Board of Athletic Control, namely, the Associated Students president and the secretary of the Finance Committee. The addition of these two members was considered advisable in that the Associated Students president has a working knowledge of school finances and the secretary of the Finance Committee can act in a liaison capacity between the two organizations.

In line with action taken at the April 22 meeting of the Speech Control Board, it was moved and seconded that the by-laws be revised to extend eligibility for the chairmanship of the Speech Control Board to speech minors as well as speech majors.

It was also decided to include the present method of selecting the Homecoming Queen in the by-laws. This method provides that the Associated Students president, in conjunction with the committee in charge of Homecoming, will appoint the judges for selecting the Homecoming Queen.

Officers Elected By Delta Sig Members

New officers were recently elected by the members of Delta Sigma Epsilon. Margaret Wright, a junior and elementary education major from Oakland, was elected to the position of president. Jeanne George is the new vice president, at McGowan corresponding secretary, Betty McNaughton recording secretary, Pat Shaw treasurer, Joyce Fenstead Panhellenic representative, Betty Bartlett house manager, Pat Osborne historian and Joanie Wootton editor.

them to participate. It will take the place of the old mimeographed form now in use which has enjoyed relatively little success. I believe that rallies should be well timed. They must be original, and must be organized and publicized well in advance rather than overnight. The band should be notified this June, and certainly not later than early September, of the games at which they will be expected to present half-time stunts. Here the organization has definitely been lacking and it has caused the band to be unable to play at many rallies, etc., where they were needed. The past has been the fault of no one in particular, but it surely leaves room for improvement.

PUBLICITY—I believe that some of the existing publicity regulations are too stringent and leave little room for expanding enthusiasm and ingenuity. I would not like to see an overdoing of publicity, but there is a happy medium not yet attained. The Mesa Campus has an effective and excellent idea in the bulletin board. It is centrally located and on it are posted items of current student interest, humor, etc. Such a "news corner" on the Riviera might well be a step in the right direction.

THE MASTER CALENDAR—With approximately 85 organizations on campus sponsoring literally hundreds of events, you can well see the need of an efficient activities-control board. I feel that all-college formals, plays, etc., are important to the student body, but they must be well scheduled and kept in a balance with the many organizational activities. If the master calendar is allowed to become hopelessly crowded on any one weekend, then all the events those nights, both good and bad, will suffer. Therefore, a great amount of discretion must be used in the scheduling of activities.

FINANCES—The student body is a $30,000-a-year concern, so it must be well managed. I would strive to keep a close watch on all expenditures and estimated incomes, so that the student body does not go into the red as has happened in the past.

Poor guy was submerged in a veritable sea of cigarette tests! He didn't know whether he should "blow"—or just jettison the whole job! But he fathomed the matter when he suddenly realized that cigarette mildness can't be judged in one quick spout! Millions of smokers have found, too, there's a thorough cigarette test!

It's the sensible test . . . the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test, which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke — on a day-after-day, pack-after-pack basis. No snap judgments! Once you've tried Camels in your "T-Zone" (T for Throat, T for Taste), you'll see why . . .

The Coral Casino was festively decorated in an Hawaiian theme last Friday night for the annual Alpha Phi Sweetheart Formal. MATHEMATICS ARTICLE

The subject of the article is "Mathematical Data for Electron Drain on Positive Ion Sources."

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

"YOUR HAIR looks as though it's been in the rein, deer," a campus Caribou told Sheedy. "If you want to horn in on the sororities, it might behoof a man of your ilk to try Wildroot Cream-Oil, America's Favorite Hair Tonic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Grooms hair neatly and naturally all day long. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes moose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test!" Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now no girl wonders whether he's man or moose! If your moose is cooked by unruly hair, collect a little doe and take a taxi-dermist to the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for it on your hair at the barber shop so your deer won't think you've let herd down. (What she'll say will be moose-ic to your ears!)

Chi Omega to Hold Carnation Ceremony

This Friday is the last day for Greek women who have become married or engaged during the past year to indicate that they would like to go through the Chi Omega Carnation Ring at the tea on May 25.

All interested newlywed or newly engaged coeds should contact Dianne West at the Chi Omega House and give her the name of their husband or fiance, when they met, when they will marry, and something interesting about their courtship.

This year, for the third time, the tea will be held at the Mission Ridge home of Dr. Susanne Parsons. Models will show a selection of wedding gowns and trousseau by Gloria Duff preceding the ring ceremony, and Wesley Tackitt will commentate.

Plans for the Carnation Ring are being completed by Dianne, general chairman of the event. She is being assisted by Teddy Tye, flowers; Mary Nizetich, wedding bouquets; Kay Ryan, music; Marcia Munger, invitations; Judy Cook, publicity, and the Chi O Mothers Club, refreshments.

Nancy Steeves

Announces Pinning

Nancy Steeves, a Chi Omega pledge, blew out the candle at Monday evening's meeting in a traditional ceremony to announce her pinning to Chuck Greenwood, Phi Kappa Psi at USC.

Chuck gave Nancy his pin in a special sweetheart ceremony at a recent Phi Kappa Psi sweetheart formal. They have been going together for about three years.

Six new members were initiated into the unit. Those initiated were Dan Escalera, Floyd Karr, Howard Kimbal, Kenneth Lindberg, Gerald Reed and Chester Ward. They were selected from the ROTC unit on the basis of military achievement and scholastic standing.

MAY 29

Chimes to Hold Membership Tea

Chimes, junior women's national honorary service organization, is giving a membership tea this afternoon at 4 o'clock in the AWS Room. All sophomore women who have an over-all average three grade points above the all-school average have been invited.

New members will be chosen on the basis of grades, personality and activities. Chimes will tap these new members this month at a breakfast to be held in conjunction with Spurs and Crown and Scepter.

Helen Fong, president, will tell of Chimes activities at the tea for prospective members. These projects include entering a fish pond booth in Barbary Coast, selling cokes at "The Taming of the Shrew," manning student election booths, serving punch on Charter Day and corresponding with two German boys.

In another project, a special contest handled by Chimes, Hazel Hedlund was recently chosen "The Girl We'd Like Most to Come Home To" by the Army's 2nd Division in Korea.

Spurs Entertained At Tea in AWS Room

Former and prospective members of Spurs were entertained by the active members at a tea Friday afternoon in the AWS Room. Melido Horn was chairman of the event.

Old members were guests from 3 to 4 and the prospective members were present from 4 to 5. All freshmen women with a 1.5 or higher grade average were invited. Miss Ellen Bowers, Miss Helen Sweet and Patty Benko, last year's Spurs president, poured for the event.

Myra Jaccard, president of the organization, spoke to the freshmen, explaining to them the purposes and duties of Spurs. She then introduced the Spurs to all of the guests. After the tea the members met to vote on new Spurs.

The girls who were chosen will not know until late this month when tapping is held. The date is a secret, but 11 women's honoraries have planned to tap their new members early on a specified morning in May. The new and old members will then have breakfast together before going to classes.

Royna Mae Coe Engagement Told

Royna Mae Coe announced her engagement to Bob Cobb of Cal Poly with flowers, poetry and bonbons at a recent Chi Omega meeting. Royna and Bob will be married June 29 in Temple Baptist Church, Riverside, and will make their home in Santa Barbara next semester while she finishes school.

Among her attendants Royna has chosen Joanne Shearer and Kay Ryan for bridesmaids. Nancy Hauser will have charge of the guest book.

Sailing Club to See Movies Tomorrow

A general meeting of the Santa Barbara College Sailing Club will be held this Thursday evening, May 15, at 8 o'clock in Pine Hall 101. Plans will be made for a beach party to include sailing, water skiing and a picnic, to be held on Sunday, May 25. Pictures in color will be shown of the March sail with the Santa Barbara Yacht Club and of the team racing at Berkeley. Refreshments will be served.

SBC Women Play In Net Tournament

Several women's physical education majors from UCSBC participated in the 52nd Annual Ojai Intercollegiate Tennis Tournament held at Ojai on April 24, 25 and 26.

Playing doubles for Santa Barbara were Barbara Frerichs and Joan Wootton, who lost to the Los Angeles City College team.

Lorraine Lindquist, playing singles, lost in the quarter-finals to Joan Merciadis of Modesto, who went on to win the finals.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE ORGANIZATION

Meets every TUESDAY 7:30-8:00 p.m. in CHURCH LITERATURE DISTRIBUTION ROOM, Santa Barbara and Valerio Streets.

All Students and Faculty are Cordially invited to attend

Camp Pendleton in a game here Friday afternoon. The Cal Poly game, vital to the Gauchos' title hopes, is perhaps the most important. But the game with Cal, although a non-league game, is important to the over-all prestige of the team.

The SBC team went South last weekend and turned the CCAA race into a real battle. They bopped Los Angeles State, 11-5, on Friday, and then went down to San Diego to hand the league-leading San Diego State Aztecs a 10-3 licking.

The two victories put the Gauchos only one-half game behind first-place San Diego. If the Santa Barbarans get by Cal Poly this Saturday, the final doubleheader with the Aztecs here on May 24 will decide the championship.

Big Corkey Johnson, returning to the lineup in the unaccustomed role of third baseman, led both Gaucha wins. He collected six hits in seven trips, including a tremendous two-run homer against the Aztecs. Alan Cox also homered against San Diego.

Duane Mittan hurled the victory over tail-end Los Angeles, and Jerry Mellvane gained the victory over the Aztecs.

Both pitchers turned in creditable jobs, but it was the hitting which proved most important. Against the Aztecs, who had terrorized the league all season, the Gauchos played their best game of the season.

Delts Win Title

In Bowling Tourney

Last Wednesday night the Delta Tau Delta fraternity walked away with the huge, three-foot bowling trophy. Regular season play saw the Delts, Low Balls and the Sigma Phi Epsilon teams all tied up in first place. Last week, in the playoffs, the Delts took four straight games from the Sig Eps and then proceeded to do the same to the Low Balls the following night. The members of the winning team are John Collister, Wendell Long, Jim Wooden, Chuck Bengochea, Ralph ates and Al Haidos.

In the final standings the Sigma Pis wound up in fourth place, followed respectively by Lambda Chi Alpha, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Tau Gamma, Delta Sigma Phi, Faculty, and Kappa Sigma. The teams are already looking forward to next semester's league with interest and enthusiasm when the nine fraternities, with the faculty team, all will be bowling for the UCSBC Intramural Bowling Championship.

Student Netters Win

Barbara Houlihan and Ray Thornton teamed together to defeat Barbara Frerichs and Dr. Girvetz, 6-4, 6-4, in the finals of the college mixed doubles tennis tournament that was held at the Municipal Tennis Courts May 10-11.

Peggy Davis and Bill Peaker beat Miss Whitaker and Dr. Will Jacobs, 3-6, 6-4, 6-4, to win the finals in the consolation round.

MESA MEMO

By DOROTHY McCLURE

In the spotlight this week are Dr. William Holtrop's classes in elementary and advanced wood-working and tool and machine maintenance. The shop houses a complete line of woodworking equipment, including circular saws, jointers, surfacers, lathes and a new addition—a 21-ft. Bell sander. Students provide their own wood while the school furnishes glue, nails, screws and finishes. One project per semester is usually turned out. Ash, maple, mahogany, birch and white pine are the common materials used. Most popular seems to be blonde wood, modernistic designs and coffee tables.

Chuck Maynard is near completion on a radio and record combination cabinet made of ash. Stan Jordan has completed a maple colonial-style cobbler's bench. Outstanding is Bernard Olsen's white pine portable drawing table, finished in its natural color. The plans of this project were so well done that they were sent to the Bruce Publishing Company in Milwaukee. Should they be accepted, they will appear in the Industrial Arts and Vocational Education magazine.

I.A. 181 in tool and machine maintenance completed work on the shop's tool cabinet recently. Something seems to be going on all the time under the able guidance of Dr. Holtrop, who, by the way, spends his spare time raising bees.

On behalf of Phrateres I wish to thank all the fellows for their wonderful support of the cookie sale last week. Extra thanks go to Clyde Keener and Oscar for drumming up trade, Ed Monreal for entertainment and George Kostakis for his delightful conversation in between customers.

As the Project Contest nears reality, students are putting the finishing touches on their entries. Chuck Hart has sawed down a 30-06 Enfield army rifle and finished it with a black walnut stock, while Gordon Azevedo has made a motor-driven aluminum line-drying reel. Both fellows plan to enter the crafts division.

Eight of Dr. Scherer's students are entering model houses. Together, the houses form a community project although they are being entered separately.

In the radio and electrical field a radio transmitter, radio modulator unit, grid-dip meter and audio amplifier will be entered.

Some of the prizes already received from donating companies are on display in the main exhibit window.

Anyone interested in Japan may secure from the Mesa library a series of pamphlets sent by Frances Crow to her brother Ken of this campus. Frances is a librarian in a U.S. high school in Tokyo. The publications are recent and mainly pictorial, depicting a portion of Japan's post-war way of life. Ken also has received Japanese scrolls, silk shirts, tablecloths, a kimono and numerous colored slides.

On Sunday afternoon, May 18, all Mesamen, their families and friends will assemble at Tucker's Grove for the annual Industrial Arts Club picnic. This event is traditionally one of the year's social highlights.

All arrangements for a menu of steak, potatoes, salad, ice cream and beverages have been made by committee members Bob Adamson, Henry Hanson, Don Bell and Lindy Zichichi. Food will be served cafeteria style, costing 75 cents per adult and 35 cents per youngster. The sale of tickets will begin shortly.

Ping-pong, volleyball, softball and other picnic-ish recreational activities will make this a real day to climax the Industrial Arts Department's Spring term.

First Voters Invited To Rec Center Party

"First - Voters," 21-year-olds, newly naturalized citizens, or those voting for the first time, are invited to a party to be held on Thursday, May 15, at 8 p.m. in the Baylor Room of the Recreation Center.

Refreshments will be served following an explanation of the primary, demonstration of voting procedure and discussion of other pertinent information.

Reservations may be made by phoning 5-2522 in the afternoon. Sponsors of the party include the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Junior League, Kerry's Restaurant, League of Women Voters and the Political Science Club at UCSBC.

'EVALUATIVE CRITERIA' TO BE STUDIED

Dr. Irving A. Mather, professor of education at Santa Barbara College, represented the University of California on a special committee of educators in a test of the worth of a 305-page "Evaluative Criteria."

The "Evaluative Criteria," which has been discussed considerably in state education circles, is devised to be used as a yardstick on accrediting high schools throughout California.

FENCI HONORED

Renzo G. Fenci, lecturer in art at Santa Barbara College, has been invited to serve as a judge of sculpture entries for the 1952 State Fair, according to an announcement last night.

Fenzi, widely known as a creative artist as well as an instructor in art, will serve on the board of selection and awards for the large array of sculpture entries expected to be exhibited from Aug. 23 to Sept. 7. The judges will meet July 19 and 20 in Sacramento.

AWS, Phrateres Hold Installation Dinner

Associated Women Students and Phrateres will have their formal installation dinner at El Cortijo Chuckwagon on Thursday, May 22, at 6 p.m., according to reports given by the AWS Board. This annual event is open to all women students and will cost $1.85 per person.

Highlights of the evening will be a welcome by the presidents of the Associated Women Students and Phrateres, a convention report, a summary of the year's activities and a preview of plans for next year. A speaker, notable resident of Santa Barbara, whose name has not yet been announced, also will be on the program.

'La Cumbre' Sales Contest Awards to be Presented

Salesmen for La Cumbre 1952 avidly combed the campus for prospective purchasers last week in a final effort to boost their sales records before the sales contest closed Friday.

Ten organizations competed in the contest, for which two cups will be given to the two groups selling the most books, and complimentary copies will be given to each group selling 75 books or over. These awards will be made at the Beachcombers Brawl.

Among the competitors were Sigma Tau Gamma, Kappa Alpha Theta, Pi Beta Phi, Chi Omega, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Sigma Phi Epsilon, Delta Gamma and Sigma Pi.

Fred Wade, sales manager, and Don Sherwin, campaign manager, handled the contest. They were assisted by Panda Schlegel, posters, and Betty Woodhead and Pauline Byard.

Although a large number of La Cumbres were sold in the contest, they are still on sale in the Graduate Manager's Office. The "ceiling price" on the book is $4, and $2 non-refundable deposits may also be paid now to reserve the book.

All copy and pictures for the 1952 annual have been sent to the printers and engravers, so the book should be out the first part of June unless a major catastrophe occurs, according to Louise Heitfeld and Judy Cook, co-editors.

This year's book will have 214 pages, making it one of the largest La Cumbres of all time.
