

MISS SHEILA HIGBEE

A junior, Sheila's hometown is North Hollywood. She is 20 years old and is an Elementary Education major. Her primary interest is in student-body activities. She has served as AWS President and on the ACB and Charities Committees. Her other interests are snow skiing and dancing. Sheila was "shocked and surprised" at being chosen a finalist. She considers the whole thing "quite an experience." Her sponsor is Kappa Alpha Theta.

MISS BARBARA FRAILEY

Barbara is a Drama major from Pasadena. She is 21 years old and is sponsored by Chi Omega. Her plans are not definite but she would like to go to UCLA for graduate work. Barbara's activities have included tutoring oral reading and speech students and appearances in the major dramatic productions on campus. When asked if she has considered theatrical work as a career, she replied: "If anyone offers me a $2,000 contract, I'd take a career in the theater, but it is not my immediate goal."

MISS ELAINE NOBLE

Elaine is a Santa Barbara girl. She is an English major and is affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. Her high school education was completed in England while her father was there to do research on "fishworms" (parasites). Her activities include Colonel's Coeds, secretary of the Athletic Control Board, and the College Orchestra. Elaine's immediate reaction to being chosen was: "I was very shocked, but also pleasantly surprised." She is sponsored by Delta Gamma.

MISS DAGMAR CLEAVINGER

Dagmar hails from Norwalk, Calif. She is 20 years old and is majoring in Home Economics. When she was a freshman she participated in a GGR skit and appeared on a Homecoming float entered by her living unit. Dagmar's interests are golf, tennis and swimming. She says she is "an outdoor girl." Her reaction to being chosen as a finalist was: "I don't believe it. I really didn't expect it. At least I am calmer now than I was backstage before the assembly." Dagmar is sponsored by Bahia.

HOMECOMING WEEK BEGINS

FOUR CONTESTANTS VIE FOR QUEEN; WINNER AND COURT AT GGR FRIDAY

by Kerry Gough

Homecoming week and its array of events get an important start tomorrow and Thursday as male students choose Homecoming Queen, 1958, from four finalists (shown above) Wednesday, and Galloping Gaucho Revue begins its two-day run Thursday evening.

Polls for the queen election are at the Library, Student Union and Mesa Campus and are open from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. The finalists are Barbara Frailey, Chi Omega; Dagmar Cleavinger, Bahia Hall; Sheila Higbee, Kappa Alpha Theta, and Elaine Noble, Delta Gamma.

The queen and her three princesses will be presented at the second performance of GGR, Friday, 8 p.m. GGR opens Thursday night at 8 with 10 variety acts depicting Gauchos and their humorous collegiate attitudes and impressions.

Included in the show are Alpha Phi's "UCSB Coeds"—impressions of intellectual, Bohemian, athletic and party-time girls found on campus. The story of "Snow White and the Seven Pledges" is told by the Kappa Sigmas, while more heavy literature is parodied by Laurel Hall in its Shakespearean "Big Julie and the Brute."

Eight "lovely" Lambda Chi Alphas present a "Miss Santa Barbara" contest while a "Reluctant Cannibal" is described by the Sigma Phi Epsilons singing "I'm No Longer a People-Eater." Blue Key organization presents a crazy skit, "Are You Psycho?", based on the psychological exams taken by students at the first of the semester.

The new-to-be Student Union is all wet, complete with frogmen-type coeds, in Kappa Alpha Theta's "USB Annex." Four famous paintings are unfurled in Delta Gamma's "Festival of Arts," while Chi Omega tells what happens when studies are neglected and beach time becomes all-the-time in "College Days Blues."

Tickets, 75c for students and

$1.25 for non-students, are on sale in the cashier's window of the Graduate Manager's office, or may be purchased at the auditorium.

English 1A Seminar For Freshman Class Wednesday Evening

The first of several seminars planned for freshmen will be held Wednesday night at 8 in Building 431, Room 101. It will be an informal session on Freshman English 1A.

These seminars are sponsored by the Squires, reorganized after a five-year absence on the UCSB campus. The Squires is a sophomore men's honorary academic organization. Its female equivalent, the Spurs, is a sophomore social society.

The Squires have set as their basic policy the encouragement of academic initiative and achievement in the freshman class. In light of this they have formed active service programs on the campus. The organization is composed of selected men from the sophomore class who have achieved high academic standing as well as outside merits. It consists of 30 members.

The present organization formed its nucleus last May and added 19 new members this semester. Clark Reynolds is president with Dave Quicling vice president and George Flynn secretary.

Wednesday's seminar will be supervised by Squire Ron Atwood and Dr. Donald R. Pearce of the English Department. It is being given to help orient the new students in their first mid-term examinations.

UCSB MUSICIANS APPEAR IN CONCERT

A concert to raise finances for the UCSB music scholarship fund will be sponsored by the Music Society of Santa Barbara at 8:30 Tuesday night, Oct. 28, in the Lobero Theater. Talent for the presentation will come mostly from the music faculty at the college and from a small number of town musicians.

In the past, several performers, both individuals and in groups, have contributed their services and talents to the Music Society, which in turn donates the proceeds from the event to the scholarship fund. This year is the first in which all talent is organized into one showing to obtain money.

Tickets for the occasion can be purchased at the Lobero box office, 33 E. Canon Perdido, for $1. Campus faculty members performing are Dr. John Gillespie, Miss Nancy Payett, Carl Zytowski, Miss Dorothy Westra, Wendell Nelson, P. Sigurd Odegard, Stefan Krayk and Lloyd Brown-ing.

Runoff For Frosh Office Tomorrow

A run-off election will be held tomorrow between Joy Tait and Nancy Draper for UCSB Freshman Class secretary-treasurer. Polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Campus Library. All freshmen who have frosh cards are eligible to vote, says Carolyn Jones, AV vice president and Election Committee chairman.

Joy Tait, who is from Burbank, is an elementary-education major. She attended Burbank High School and was Girls' League president, song leader for two years, a member of California Scholarship Federation and was a seal bearer upon graduation.

Nancy Draper is from Glendale. At Hoover High School she was treasurer of Girls' League, songleader and a representative on class councils.

Lecture To Feature Folk Music Today

This afternoon at 4 Dr. John E. Gillespie, Associate Professor of Music at UCSB and chairman of the Music Department, will deliver an all-college lecture on the subject "Spanish Folk Music" in the lecture hall of the new classroom building. The public is welcome free of charge.

Forty-eight honors-at-entrance students will attend this lecture following a tea given in their honor by the Committee on Honors and Scholarships.

Musical Illustrations

Dr. Gillespie will offer descriptions and musical illustrations of the typical folk music of several regions of Spain. He will concentrate mainly on the music of Andalusia, Galicia, Catalonia and Aragon. Each of the discussions will be illustrated by phonograph recordings, and musical instruments typical of each region will be displayed.

Having just returned from a year's sabbatical leave in Europe, six months of which were spent in Spain and the Canary Islands, Dr. Gillespie is interested in the regional folk music of these countries. According to the well-known pianist and harpsichordist, his lecture is designed not only show the great wealth of folk music in Spain but also its wide variety.

Three Degrees

Dr. Gillespie is a graduate of Depauw University in Indiana and holds three degrees in musicology and piano from the University of Southern California. He has studied in Paris at the Conservatoire National Universite de Paris on a Fulbright Scholarship.

The Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music at UCSB presents the all-college lecture series every Tuesday afternoon.

Eight-Page Gaucho Hits Stands Friday

A special eight-page Homecoming issue of El Gaucho will come out Friday morning. This will be the largest single edition of the campus paper ever to be printed.

The enlarged paper will contain a full-length formal portrait of the newly selected Homecoming queen, plus featured stories on all of the Homecoming events.

Individual pictures and sketches of the starting lineup for Saturday's game will be included.

Deadline Nears For AS Insurance Plan

Friday, Oct. 24 at 4 p.m. is the deadline for buying the Associated Students' Special Group Plan Insurance for this semester.

This plan is a supplement to the Student Health office and gives complete coverage to the student off campus as well as on for the entire year Sept. 1958-Sept. 1959. The cost is only $1 per month. Special rates are given for dependents and maternity.

Any student interested is urged by Graduate Manager Robert Lorden to apply now.

Good Whiskey, Thirsty Scotchmen, Plus Bumbling Limey Equal Funny Foreign Pic

The Associated Students Assembly Committee will present the hilarious British comedy, "Tight Little Island," on Wednesday evening, Oct. 22, at 7 and 9 in the auditorium of the Classroom Building.

To the rugged inhabitants of Today, an island off the coast of Scotland, the middle of the war brought a dreadful problem—no more whiskey. When a ship carrying 50,000 cases of Scotch whiskey ran aground in Today's harbor, all that stood between the eager islanders and a very enjoyable salvage job was a bumbling Englishman who felt bound to enforce the letter of the law. Around this excellent idea the British film makers have created a comedy of pure gold. Based on the novel, Whiskey Galore, by Compton Mackenzie, it is a uniquely British product with great transatlantic appeal.

Its comedy is both national and individual, and is liberally provided with ingenuity and good taste. What raises this film to such a high point is its complete mastery of the visual gag, thus creating lightness, comic movement and inventive detail. The picture ends with a wry concession to the moral superiority of teetotalers.

BERKELEY CAMPUS HOSTS ALL-CAL WEEKEND NOV. 7-9; TICKETS ON SALE

On Nov. 7 and 8 UCSB students will join the students of the other seven University of California campuses at Berkeley for the big All-Cal Weekend.

All-Cal Weekend originated in 1948 under the direction of University Past President Robert Gordon Sproul and is one of the largest collegiate functions in the nation. Over 30,000 students are expected to attend All-Cal this year, according to Art Herman, UCSB chairman for the event. University of California at Berkeley will host.

UCSB will participate in the assembly and rally to be held Friday, Nov. 7, and on Saturday will play Davis in the pre-game. This will be followed by the UCLA-Berkeley game at 2.

UCSB students will have their own rooting section on the UCLA side of Memorial Stadium (the shady side) and will take part in the half-time ceremonies. All campuses will submit a student for the All-University Athlete contest and the winner will be selected by the UC General Committee.

Following the big game the Berkeley fraternities and sororities will hold open house for all students and party time will start late Saturday and continue into the night.

Tickets are now on sale at the UCSB Graduate Manager's office and will be available till Oct. 31. For $1.75 students can get reserved seats for both games, and non-students can buy tickets for $3.50. Students must buy their tickets before All-Cal Weekend.

For those students not taking separate cars to Berkeley, there will be a rooters' train leaving from Los Angeles which will stop in Santa Barbara. Transportation will be provided from the station in Berkeley to the campus. For information regarding transportation or housing, contact the All-Cal Committee in the AS office, or Art Herman, UCSB chairman for All-Cal.

Gaucha volleyball enthusiasts will have a chance to display their sun-tanned ability in an AMS-sponsored doubles volleyball tournament in the near future.

AMS President Bruce Patterson said that a tentative date has been set for Sunday, Nov. 2, on East Beach. The tournament will be open to UCSB students only, with a double elimination factor operating in the pyramiding quest for the championship.

Trophies will be awarded while a nominal entry fee of 25 cents will be charged for students with AMS cards and 50 cents for those without.

Other members of the AMS Council are: Don Quisling, vice president; Ned Wilson, newly elected secretary, and John Fiscalini, treasurer.

Basketball practice began last Wednesday and Coach Art Gallon had a chance to see what promise unfolds with this year's hoop squad. Here's his off-the-cuff comments:

Outlook . . .

"We're an improved squad over last year; just how improved remains to be seen. We have both more depth and height than last season with our shortest forward 6-3. One of these forwards will be team captain Johnson Whalen, who is in his senior year.

"It's too early to tell how the conference will shape up but San Diego has the same team that tied Fresno for the title last year.

Of the Players . . .

"Walter Harcos has been a real surprise to me. I'd say now that even though he is a sophomore, he looks as good as anyone out there at the guard spot.

"Another pleasant surprise to me has been this Bob Deering, 6 feet 7 inches and 230 pounds, who'll play at the center position. John Fitzgerald, a junior from New York, has been looking good at forward.

Philosophy . . .

"We're working the squad with basic fundamentals and will start from there. A lot of the players will have to try to correct their faults, however; a lot will and they will be the ones around when the final cuts are made," concluded Coach Gallon.

So, there it is—how the squad of 22 men looks in the first few days to a coach in the nearing hoop season.

Cal Poly Hosts S.B. Harriers For Loop Meet

Coach Ernest Carter's cross-country contingent travels to Cal Poly Thursday for an afternoon meet, scheduled for 4 o'clock. In their last single-meet competition, the harriers were edged by Ventura JC, 26-29.

Finishing first for UCSB was Jo Zamora with a 14:59 time for the three-mile course. Roland Cordobes finished strong to nab a fourth spot and 15:27 clocking.

Rounding out the point finishers were Jerry Mullin (16:05), Coyt Davis (16:11) and Bob Oldham (16:13).

In cross-country the five finishers, each team, are given the number of points of the position they finish in, and the team with the lowest score wins.

"These two boys, Roland Cordobes from Pierce JC and Jo Zamora, have done real well and show great promise for the distances in the spring," said Coach Carter, with hopes of them running strong against Cal Poly.

Captain of the team is Mullin, who is in his third year of running and is a two-year letterman.

Sports

In the UCSB hosting of the AAU meet the other weekend, Bob Soth of the Southern California Striders won the 3.8-mile championship in the record time of 18:01.6. His time broke the record of 18:13.4 set by Max Truex in 1954. Of the 90 participants, the Gauchos had a placer in Bob Oldham, who ran 22:18.

Looking at the conference teams in a perspective, Coach Carter feels that San Diego has the perennial championship team and is strong enough to take the title again this fall, while Long Beach State shows great promise.

Next meet of the slate for the Gauchos after Cal Poly is the All-Cal run at Berkeley on Nov. 8.

"Operation of a Biological Field Station in Alaska" is the topic of UCSB science instructor Barbara Oakeson in the first lecture in this year's Science Seminar series to be held Thursday, Oct. 23, at 4 p.m.

Lectures will be presented monthly, October through December. Three lectures are for high school students and three are open to collegians.

First lecture for high school and junior high teachers and students will be on Nov. 20. Mr. Kzass of the General Electric TEMPO Laboratories, Santa Barbara, will speak on "Systems in Engineering."

Bob Sloan of Delta Research Foundation will speak to high schoolers on "Electron Microscopy" Dec. 18.

'Hamlet' and Hot Weather Highlight Theater Jaunt

by Pat Gower

"The play's the thing . . ."

Not only to catch the conscience of a king, but, if it's the Old Vic production of Hamlet, to catch the attention of some 70 students for three and a half hours.

Such was the case when two Greyhound buses drove into the sparkling-clear, near-100-degree atmosphere of Los Angeles last Thursday night and made their delivery at the front door of the Philharmonic Auditorium at 8 p.m.

Within a matter of minutes, the lights were dimming curtain calls (while across the street in Pershing Square lesser Hamlets were speaking their speeches to audiences of old men). For those of us who had never seen Shakespearean drama enacted by professionals, we were quiet but tense with anticipation. Every line of the play, tucked somewhere in our memories from English classes as far back as the 10th grade, was about to come alive as the actors gave words.

Then the curtain was up! Here was Bernardo, and Francisco, and Marcellus; here was Horatio, friend to Hamlet; here was old Polonius, and Ophelia (who was not, as I had imagined, a blonde) and her handsome brother Laertes. The imposing Gertrude and Claudius, King and Queen; the "Bosby Twins" Rosencrantz and Guildenstern, and here was Hamlet, the Prince of melancholia and indecision, played convincingly by John Neville. Here were all the familiar people, and here we were, with opera glasses in hand, and breaths held for fear of missing one line.

The lobby at intermission was almost as colorful as the interior stage. The phone booths (occupied mainly by S.B. students calling home), and the drinking fountains (triple lines at every one) were the most popular gathering places during the 15-minute break.

This same crowd later paid a six-act tribute to the players who had proved to more than one that "the play's the thing."

At midnight, the ball was over for us theater-going Cinderellas as we climbed into our streamlined pumpkins for the trip home. One popsicle (Shakespeare and popsicles seem quite congruous in L.A.'s weather), several songs and a long ride later, we were back in Santa Barbara with sleepy eyes, rumpled clothes and growling stomachs. (Hardly anyone had taken time for dinner before the trip.)

For Homer Swander, whose English office has been more like the Philharmonic boxoffice the past few days, the worst part was over. Now he would reap his rewards, if any, in comments and impressions of the play from the students. For us (not having had to face the red-tape details faced by Dr. Swander) the best part was over. And if Dr. Swander would care to organize another such "field trip," I won't wait 'til the third time he asks "Who's interested?" to raise my hand.

Credential Deadline

Friday, Oct. 31, is the last day for January graduates to file for applications for teaching credentials and Bachelor of Arts degrees, according to Paul W. Wright, Registrar.

Language Honorary Seeks Members

The UCSB chapter of Alpha Mu Gamma, national foreign-language honorary society, invites students with high scholastic achievements in foreign languages to become members.

All students interested are advised to get in touch with the secretary of the department of foreign languages, and should attend an organizational meeting which will be held this evening at 8:30 in the Classroom Building Auditorium. Refreshments will be served.

Among other requirements, the prospective member must have achieved a record of at least two A's and one B in unrepeatable courses in one language during college study. Two or more years of the same language taken in high school with a grade of A may be accepted in lieu of the B grade required for admission.

Through its various programs the society endeavors to encourage an interest in the study of foreign languages and civilization, to recognize achievement in the field of foreign languages, to foster sympathetic understanding of other nations and to stimulate a desire for linguistic attainment.

Glee Club, Chorale In UN Celebration

The UCSB Women's Glee Club and Modern Chorale will participate tomorrow at the celebration of the 10th birthday of the United Nations. The event will be presented in the Santa Barbara High School Auditorium.

Including choral groups from Westmont College, the Santa Barbara Mission (Padre Choristers), UCSB and the city of Santa Barbara, the festival will begin at 8 p.m.

Theme for the program is "Around the World in 80 Minutes" and, in commemoration of this birthday event, all song selections will revolve about this idea.

Carl Zytowski will direct the UCSB Women's Glee Club in Schubert's "The Twenty-Third Psalm" and a Czech folk song. Three selections will be sung by the Modern Chorale under the direction of Dr. Van Christy, the "Palestinian Laborers' Chant," "New Dawn" and Dr. Christy's musical arrangement of Hagedorn's poem, "Each and West."

UN Day Friday

To the Students of UCSB:
This week has been proclaimed by President Eisenhower as United Nations Week. Friday the 24th is United Nations Day.

Whatever personal opinions exist as to the work of the UN, its accomplishments and principles cannot be overvalued. Much of the work is little known by the general American public but nevertheless is performing valuable services throughout the world. The World Health Organization and the security forces are just some of the more well-known groups operating under the auspices of the UN.

It should be the goal of every student everywhere to know more about the United Nations and how it works.

UN Week is being observed in several ways. In Santa Barbara the American Association for the UN is sponsoring a choral program entitled "Around the World in 80 Minutes" (of song), featuring four choruses. Two of these groups are from this campus. It will be held at 8 p.m. in the Santa Barbara High School on Wednesday, the 22nd. Free and open to everyone.

Here on campus, the International Students Club has several displays of UN information and material. In conjunction with this observation the ISC will sponsor several programs in the near future featuring speakers well informed on international affairs. Next Monday at 7:30 p.m. George Belliot, who did his MA work at Stanford and Harvard, will illustrate with slides his thesis on the Structure of Soviet Picture Propaganda. This is a must for all students following the current international situation. The place will be designated shortly.

In the words of President Eisenhower's proclamation:

"Whereas the world opinion in support of international morality, law and order has helped to make the UN a constructive force for the development of a stable, prosperous and peaceful world . . . I . . . urge the citizens of the U.S.A. to observe Friday, Oct. 24, as UN Day to demonstrate their faith in and support of the United Nations. . ."

Frosh Floatmakers

Dear Editor:

It is the aim of this year's Freshman Class to create the best Homecoming Queen's float Santa Barbara has ever had. This can be achieved only through the combined efforts of each member of our class. Through our joint efforts we can establish a spirit in our class that will be with us throughout the remaining four years.

Let's begin to establish that spirit now by all getting out and working on the freshman float.

Days: Monday - Saturday

Place: Micheltorena and State

Time: Monday-Thursday 7:30-10, Friday 12:30-5, Friday night 7:30 until finished.

Kay Moore
Vice President,
Freshman Class

TEMPORARY PASS NOW OBTAINABLE

Persons forced to drive cars to campus without parking stickers can avoid parking-violation fines by obtaining temporary parking permits at the Police Department, upstairs Bldg. 427, says Police Capt. Bernard.

Free temporary permits can be obtained by persons who have cars with permits but are temporarily deprived of them by need for repairs, failure to start or other similar disability of the vehicle. The permits are issued for one day or longer, depending on the nature of the trouble. Under extenuating circumstances permits for over five days will be issued.

Permits for cars driven by students who have not purchased a $5 sticker cost 50 cents and are good for a maximum of 30 days.

COLONEL'S COED FINALISTS CHOSEN

Last week 477 ROTC Cadets cast ballots to select new members of the Colonel's Coeds, the ROTC sponsor corps. This was a primary ballot to select the finalists for the vacant positions. There are five openings for honorary major, five for honorary captain and 11 for honorary lieutenant.

Nine finalists were chosen for the position of honorary major, 10 for honorary captain and 20 for honorary lieutenant.

These finalists will be presented to the Cadet Corps at the Thursday morning drill this week. The final ballot will be held during next week.

Noble Bares Plans For Zoning of Area

The University zoning study will be presented to the interested public tomorrow night by Vice Chancellor Elmer E. Noble in the Dining Commons. The study covers the proposals made by Pereira & Luckman in the zoning of the Goleta-Isla Vista area. Adopted by the Regents, it recommends the structure of a college community they would like to see develop around UCSB.

Several interested groups will be represented at the meeting, including the Chamber of Commerce, the banks and the airport. The purpose of the meeting is not only to present the study officially for the first time but also through open discussion to investigate the popularity of the proposal.
