

Aspirants for AWS Presidency Give Platform Statements:

JUDY COOK:

The voice of the coed on Student Council is an important one and is expressed by the AWS President. As Gauche Editor, Spurs Editor, and a member of Cal Club I have become fairly well informed about campus affairs and student opinion, and would strive to further the women's interests on Council.

Although I have never been connected directly with AWS Board, I have participated in AWS activities. If elected, I pledge myself to the efficient administration of AWS and to the fullest development of its possibilities.

PAT HART:

Hello—this is supposedly a campaign article for myself, but in reality it's going to be a plea for you to vote in the elections. If you, students, want capable officers to represent you it is your duty to vote. The students you are going to elect should be the choice of the majority of women on campus, and not a minority! I want to serve you to the best of my ability, but the decision is up to you! So vote!

MAGGIE MUELLER

ANITA MITCHELL:

In the coming semesters, AWS will play an ever larger part in campus life. With a greater proportion of women enrolled, both responsibility and opportunity increase for women's organizations.

Such jobs as entertaining the service men, the orientation program, women's activities, and of hearing the voice of the independent women as well as that of sororities in student affairs are the province of AWS and are becoming increasingly important. I am aware of the responsibilities attached to the office of AWS president, and, if elected, will do my best to fulfill them.

MARGARET MUELLER

When I was nominated by the AWS Board for President, I was surprised and pleased. Through my participation on the AWS Board this year I have seen some wonderful work done. I would like to further this work by planning an even more active AWS calendar next year.

MONEY DESIRE IS 'ALL MY SONS' TRAGIC STORY

Now going into its last two weeks of rehearsals, "All My Sons" will be ready for Riviera audiences come the last weekend of March.

The play, to be given March 29, 30, 31, and April 5, 6, and 7, tells the sordid story of a war manufacturer whose desire to make money for his family caused him to ship defective airplane engines.

Early in the play, worried Mrs. Keller describes to her husband and Chris her fearful dreams about their younger son, a pilot missing in the war. Her fears deepen when the tree she planted for him is broken by wind.

Return from War

The return of George Deever, son of Joe Keller's partner, from the war finds him a bitter visitor. He learns that Keller shifted blame for shipping defective materials onto his father, who is serving a jail term.

In the drama's most vivid moment, son strikes father. Chris Keller becomes crazed with anger when he discovers his father's guilt. His father tries to justify his actions by saying that he wanted to make money for his sons.

Final Tragedy

The final tragedy comes when Joe Keller hears that his missing son actually committed suicide after learning of the defective parts scandal. Hearing a shot, Chris rushes into the house. His father has killed himself.

Although the play would appear to be somewhat depressing, it is a stimulating production dealing basically with the themes of idealism versus practicality, and with man's duty to society.

The part of Joe Keller, the industrialist, will be played by Ken Kellogg, veteran of many campus productions. Keller's son, Chris, will be portrayed by Fred Goerner. Beverly Benedict is cast as Keller's wife.

Other members of the cast are Gordon Stafford as George Deever, John Robley as Frank Luby, Dick Weston as Jim Bayliss, Claire Maher as Ann Deever, Mary Jane Mistretta as Lydia Luby, and Nancy Chmilowski as Sue Bayliss.

FINANCE REP AT LARGE POSITION NOW OPEN

Dick Bowen, chairman of the Finance Committee, announced that Bob Allen and Bill Drake have resigned as members of the committee leaving two members at large. Any students interested in filling the two vacancies must turn in a letter of application to the Associated Students Office by March 26, according to Frank Goodall. The Council will vote on the applicants March 26.

Experience will come in handy, but it is not required for the fulfillment of the vacancies, although the applicants must have an interest in school affairs.

Orange Feather, Risky Lines Lend Humor to Roadrunner Revue

by Bev Klausner

Last Thursday, Friday and Saturday a howl-happy audience followed Carol Richardson's orange feather through two and a half hours of fast-moving comedy and music at the Roadrunner Revue.

About 25 acts made up the evening's program. Some of them were excellent, others yawned over, but the balance was in favor of the good ones.

"Big Show-Off"

Janis Wilson is to be complimented for her acting and singing. As Bette Davis in the "Big Show-Off," she did a lot of cigarette and hip waging. Never will the men forget her little "Love for Sale" solo—more properly called a duet, complete with Bill Cunningham.

Jumping Dolls

One act, the orange feather, was not in Hal Aarset's comedy routine, "Reveille with Beverly." Wonder where he did the research for his act.

Vince Difiore and duo-pianists Elizabeth Van Deusen and Des Kincaid were just what everyone expected—real good.

One of the snappiest acts of the evening was that cute quartette of jumping dolls. In other words, the Charleston dance number. They had vim, vigor and vitality. Or was it femme, wiggle and ogleality?

Red Schmoos

Unrivaled in pure grace and exquisite timing, the Red Schmoos, whoops, Red Shoes, walked, or should we say pirouetted off with the top honors of the evening.

For those people who like Gilbert and Sullivan a la Carnation—condensed, that is—the breathless H.M.S. Pinafore produced it.

Everything about the finale was big—the scenery, the music, the curtain calls.

JUNIOR HOSTESSES CANCEL FRIDAY DANCE

There will be no Junior Hostess dance at Camp Cooke on Good Friday, March 23, but their will be a tea dance Saturday, March 24, from 6 to 9 pm at the AWVS Service Center, according to Jean Tahajian, Associated Women Students President.

There will also be a dance Sunday, March 25, at the AWVS. Hostesses are also needed at the Recreation Center on Sunday from 2 to 5 pm.

Because many girls are going home for Easter, those remaining in town are urged to sign up for the holiday dances.

GROUP FORMED TO DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF SBC PERSONNEL

Formation of a new advisory committee, to consist of two members each from student, faculty and administrative groups, has been announced by Provost J. Harold Williams, chairman and spokesman for the committee.

Provost Williams emphasized that the group will function in a purely advisory capacity, rather than as a committee for formal action, and stated that its purpose will be to bring up for discussion problems which are of interest to any of the groups represented, and particularly those matters pertaining to faculty-student relations.

Representing the Administration will be Miss Ellen E. Bowers, Acting Dean of Women, and Lyle G. Reynolds, Assistant Dean of Men, and from the Faculty, Dr. D. Mackenzie Brown, Department of Social Sciences, and Dr. Lawrence Willson, Department of English.

Elaine Strobel and Jim Mulick have been chosen to present the student viewpoint, and any matter which any student feels ought to be discussed by the committee should be brought to their attention.

Student Elections Due April 17 for Seekers Of Student Body Offices

"Student Body elections are going to be here before long," announced Elaine Strobel, elections committee chairman. Elections will be held April 17 and 18. If a run-off is necessary, it will be held April 20. Eligibility will be announced on April 2.

This election will be a major event, and the student body should note that three women and three men representatives-at-large will be chosen at this time, also.

Names must be filed by 4 pm on March 30 for those who wish to run for an office. These petitions will be available in the Graduate Manager's Office and are due on April 6 at said office.

The AS Constitution test will be given for candidates April 3.

APO, Phrateres Make 1951 May Dance Plans

Plans are being formulated for the 1951 Spring May Dance. The committee, made up of members of Alpha Phi Omega and Phrateres, sponsors of the dance, is headed by Nancy Barker and Stan Jordan, co-chairmen. The committee has disclosed that May 4 will be the date for this annual affair.

Women Electing Next Year's Officers Today and Tomorrow

Voting for Associated Women Students officers for next year is taking place today and tomorrow, March 20 and 21, after a special get-acquainted bean supper last night. Those running for the office of president were introduced by Joan Carr, elections chairman. They spoke on their preceding activities and presented their qualifications for the office.

Meal

The meal consisted of beans, French bread, green salad, coffee, cookies and ice cream, with Crown and Sceptor being in charge of activities.

Candidates are Judy Cook, Pat Hart, Anita Mitchell, Margaret Mueller for president; Ransom Hunt and Pat Seeber, first vice-president; Jane Engle and Marty Orendorf, second vice-president; Lura Bousman, Cathy Cox, June Linn, Joyce McQueen and Nadine Stephens, secretary; Barbara Babich and Solveig Dyrkorn, treasurer; and Eleanor Jackson and Pat McCarty, counselor.

Candidates were permitted to distribute name tags, but could not have stunts as part of their campaign, said Joan Carr, chairman of the Election Committee.

Duties of the various offices are as follows: first vice-president is in charge of programs; the second vice-president is in charge of social work and the Christmas party; and the counselor will head the registration of the girls along with being "Big Sister" chairman.

FUND ESTABLISHED FOR STUDENT LOANS

Effective as of March 15, the Associated Students have established a student loan fund, according to ASB President Frank Goodall.

Students who apply for the loan need not present reasons for their wanting the loan. A simple signed note and proof that they are registered students of Santa Barbara College is all that is needed to secure the ten-dollar loan.

The loan is to be repaid within 30 days, plus a 25c service charge. If the loan is not repaid within 30 days, there is a 75c fine. If the loan is not paid back within a reasonable length of time, the student's grades will be held up and legal action will be taken.

The Edna Rich Morse Loan Fund was approved at the Student Council meeting of March 12.

MUDRICK TO SPEAK

Dr. Marvin Mudrick will deliver a lecture with readings on "The Poetry of Medieval England" this afternoon at 4 in the AWS Room. Attendance of upper division English majors is required at the lecture, and all others interested are invited.

ROTIC Unit's Vital Role Outlined by Col. Mabee

The vital role of college ROTIC units in furnishing junior officers in the present mobilization will be outlined by Lt. Col. Richard W. Mabee in an All-College lecture at 4 pm Wednesday, March 21, in PH 100.

Native Texan

Dr. Woods is a native Texan. He obtained his E. E. degree from the University of Texas in 1908, his M. S. degree from the University of California in 1909, and his PhD degree from the University of California in 1912. He has had additional study at the Universities of Paris and Munich.

Dr. Woods has held positions as Doctor of Engineering at the South Dakota School of Mines and worked up from instructor, assistant professor, to professor in the University of California system. From 1923 to 1925, he held the position as Dean of the Berkeley campus and was appointed to his present position in 1942.

Introductions

Introducing the speaker will be Provost J. Harold Williams. Frank Goodall, student body president, will also speak.

The displays under the direction of Kay Ryan and Chris Warner, chairmen, will be set up in the Quad from Wednesday to Friday, March 21 to 23. All sororities and fraternities are participating and are responsible for a display of one general topic.

Topics

Topics will consist of ideas and abstractions relating to different departments and branches of the university. Displays will be judged on Wednesday, the trophy going to the group which shows the most

EDITORIAL

Is Your Criticism Justified?

Are the many criticisms of the Gaucho by John Q. Student justifiable. In some cases, yes, in others it is doubtful.

As you know, Mr. Average Ordinary Student, this paper is for you, its policy being to keep you well informed concerning campus happenings. As you are not all alike, not all of you are interested in the same news articles or feature articles. For that reason this paper attempts to have some variety, as well as universality, in its news coverage.

Whether or not a story is pleasing to the readers or to the people involved, nevertheless it is the duty of the paper to cover it and to keep the students informed. Too often the people who do not like the story will immediately jump upon the editor or staff instead of getting to the heart of the difficulty by analyzing the situation rationally and determining who should actually be blamed. Newspaper articles are seldom slanted and are usually the straight unvarnished facts, although it may not seem so to a person who does not like what the article has to say.

Unpredictable

Human nature is unpredictable. People criticize the paper for not publishing interesting news, but, when such news is published and it concerns them, or they do not like it, they turn around and criticize the editor and the paper for printing controversial news. Also, everyone on campus clamors for a gossip column, but one comes out mentioning their names (a gossip column must mention somebody's names!), their feelings are hurt.

Any newspaper that readers will want to read, whose word readers will respect, that does not want to be known as "wishy-washy," will fearlessly print the facts, regardless of their consequences! The decision is up to you, John Q. Student. Do you want to read news in your school paper, or do you want to read only what you want to read, or what you personally think should be printed?

Any criticisms or comments about this paper should be brought to the staff for its consideration instead of merely being made in passing to other readers. Everything in the paper is published for a reason, and unless you know that reason, you are unqualified to judge its worth. Last, but not least, if you think the paper can be improved, why not offer your services to the staff instead of idly criticizing it. Next time you start to criticize, ask yourself if it is justifiable.

VETERANS REMINDED OF JULY CUT-OFF FOR STARTING COURSES

Veterans planning GI Bill education and training were reminded by Veterans Administration today that the July 25, 1951, cut-off date for starting courses is only seven months away.

This term will be the final such term most veterans may enter or re-enter before the deadline, VA said.

Veterans actually must have commenced their training by the cutoff date if they want to continue afterwards, according to VA. A veteran must be in training on that date unless he has temporarily interrupted his course for summer vacation or for other reasons beyond his control.

Once he completes or discontinues his course of GI Bill training after the deadline, he may not start another course.

Complete information may be obtained at the Office of Veterans' Affairs.

Gauchos Drub Diablos, Waves In Triangular Track Opener

Opening the 1951 Gauch track season with a bang, Nick Carter's scanty-clads left both visitors LA State and Pepperdine decidedly in arrears as they won their first track meet since midway through the 1949 season, scoring 70 points to the Peps 47½ and the Staters 44½.

Prognosticated to be an evenly matched event, the Gauchos surprised everyone by unveiling a hitherto unknown depth as Nick Carter juggled his men to make the most of their talents, usually entering each man in two or three events.

Exhibition

An exhibition relay went to LA State to open the meet as the Gauchos showed a lack of baton-passing ability seldom evident in the usual Carter track squad, but faded throughout the day as the Peps topped six first, the Gauchos took five and the Diablos four in their first competition as a member of the 2C2A.

The Gauchos had no double winners but came up with the most consistent point makers such as Alberto Triulzi, who set an unofficial new school record of 14.8 in his specialty, the highs, and took second in the hundred. Otey Scruggs ran the best 220 in his life to take second in that event and picked up two thirds in the shot put and discus. Willie Dancer passed all competition in the high jump to take that event and then kept the crowd on shingles as he took second in the pole vault. Reed got one good heave out of a poor discus pit to take second in the event and surprised by pitching the javelin to another second behind the strong arm of Del Pickarts, who won with a 204' heave.

Top Leap

Jim Beacom came through with the top leap of his aviation career as he flew to a 22'2" first in the broadjump and went along with the order of the day by tying for second in the high jump behind Dancer.

Two more seconds were contributed to the cause as Don Crie was led to the wire in both the mile and two mile events by Cole of Pepperdine, but won out in a spirited battle with Zimmer of LA State in the latter race to earn a man-killing three points.

Results

Following are the results:
Exhibition 440 Relay—L. A. State (Sims, Bell, Daniels, Williams), Pepperdine, Santa Barbara. 44.0.

GaUCHO Baseballers Lose Games to UCLA, But Tounce Hueneme

CIBA competition again proved too much for the Gauchos as UCLA twice lowered the boom last Saturday, 14-5 and 9-2. The latter game was called at the end of three innings because of darkness.

Bright spot of the Southland trip was a 13-2 thumping of the Port Hueneme Naval Base on Friday afternoon. Gauch chackers Ron Robinson and Jerry Koory held Port Hueneme to only four hits in the seven-inning affair while Gauch sluggers opened up an 18-hit barrage.

Gauch catcher, Roger Wilson led the attack with a single, double and a triple for three for four, while Eddie Miller, who returned to action in left field, knocked in four runs with a couple of timely slams. Bob Talley also came thru in fine fashion with three for four.

In the UCLA game the Bruins out-hit the Gauchos 15-11. However, five of those singles, combined with two of the four Gauch errors came in the fourth inning and broke wide open a five to four ball game.

Little Bobby Johnston was tagged for the loss, but turned in a creditable performance against the powerful Bruins. Corky Johnson led the losing cause with a four for five outburst.

TRIULZI ELIGIBLE TO COMPETE FOR UCSBC THINCLADS

Alberto Triulzi, the 6'2" Argentinian track star who placed fourth in the high hurdles in 1948's Olympic Games, got the go-ahead from CCAA officials today to compete for Santa Barbara this spring.

Alberto enrolled at Santa Barbara this semester as a freshman and will now join Coach Nick Carter's cinder squad readying itself for the season ahead.

This 23-year-old athlete gets going in a hurry. For example, he ran an unofficial 70 yard hurdles race in 8.45 in a recent workout. The indoor world's record for the distance is 8.4. He has an unofficial clocking of 10 flat in the 100 yard dash, run without competition.

Foot Injury

A foot injury kept him out of this year's competition in the Pan American Games after months of training. He won the South American 200 meters championship in 1946 while running for a Buenos Aires athletic club. His brother, Juan Triulzi, is also a South American track star, specializing in the 1600 meter relay and the 400 meter run.

Triulzi's mark of 14.6 in the 100 meter highs at London three years ago was comparable to 14.5 over the 120 yard distance standard in America. In 1947, he won three out of four from perennial European champion Haakon Lidman of Sweden. His best time during the hot rivalry was 14.2.

Triulzi is the second South American track man to enroll at Santa Barbara College this year. Enrolling with Triulzi was Hugo Nutini, transfer from the University of Florida and South American record holder in the 800 and 1500 meters. Nutini will not be eligible for intercollegiate competition this spring because of the transfer rule.

Confidence and Modesty

Triulzi has a well balanced combination of confidence and true modesty. He is sure he has the height, speed and agility necessary to become one of the world's top hurdlers but you can't get any predictions from him.

He likes the climate, is looking forward to top American competition and expects a good year. But he won't talk times or make promises. He says he runs to run his races on the track.

SBC TO HOST CREAM OF TRACK TALENT SATURDAY

Prospects for the running of the Annual Santa Barbara Easter Relays have taken on gigantic proportions. Record-breaking performances are in the offing as the tentative entries for the track carnival scheduled here March 24 have the meet's sponsors and local track fans busily conjecturing.

One thing is certain. The top events will be the high hurdles, two-mile relay, and the javelin. The actual entry list for these events won't be set until a few days before the meet, but here's how things look up to now.

LA Athletic Club

Expected to send a full team to the Relays is the Los Angeles Athletic Club, as fine a collection of track and field stars as there is in the country. The club could field a four-man two-mile relay team of Bob Chambers, Bob Pruitt, Johnnie Fulton and Bill Parker. All four are capable of outstanding marks in the middle distance events.

Top Contender

Another top contender in this event undoubtedly will be Occidental's fine quartet which won the two-mile relay at last week's Long Beach Relays. Another sure entry is UCLA which finished second to the Tigers at Veterans' Memorial Stadium.

If things go right a sterling field of high hurdlers will also assault the record books. Dick Attlesey, world's record holder in the event, should be on hand from the LAAC. So will Craig Dixon of LAAC who holds the Relays record of 14.3. Attlesey turned in a 14.0 flat performance in the 110 meters high hurdles in this month's Pan American Games.

Triulzi Eligible

Because of his recently confirmed eligibility to participate for Santa Barbara, Alberto Triulzi will be representing the Gauchos as one of Dick Attlesey's top contenders.

Another possible entry is Bill Albans, 1950 NCAA low hurdles champion and decathlon star, who is now attending Occidental College. If he enters, it will be unattached because of NCAA eligibility rules. Albans competed for North Carolina last season.

Record-Breaking

Don Heldreth of Arizona State and Don Halderman, former USC star now with LAAC could fill out the event into record-breaking stature. Halderman competed with Attlesey in the recent Pan American Games.

The Relays should also see Santa Barbara College's great javelin tosser Del Pickarts nearing his peak. He'll be lined up against LAAC's Dr. Steve Seymour and Cy Young. Another top man expected is Bill Miller of Arizona State.

Open Half-Mile

In the open half mile, LAAC's Chamber, Oxy's John Barnes, LA State's Jerome Walters and Chilean track star Hugo Nutini comprise another field that is exceptional for this early in the season. Nutini, a student at Santa Barbara College, will compete unattached.

All in all, approximately 1150 track and field athletes are expected to be present when the 13th annual running of the Relays begins Saturday afternoon, March 24, at La Playa Stadium. Of that total, 75 are high school entries, 200 are from junior colleges and 200 from colleges and athletic clubs.

MURAL MUSINGS

The third week of volleyball was one of "elimination." Four teams played their last games in this year's tournament. In the "A" division, a weak but hard-fighting Sigma Pi team lost its fourth game in a row. The Sigma Phi Epsilons also ended their season. The Sigma Tau Gamma "C" team and Sigma Poes found it entirely too difficult to field a team and requested that they be dropped out of the running.

In accordance with the Intramural Council rulings for the tournament, all games, either won or lost, of the teams dropping out or being eliminated will not be counted in the league standings. The week's standings will show these revisions.

Sigma Poes

On Monday night, the Sigma Poes were forced to withdraw from the club division as they forfeited the game to the Sixtets. Three games were played on Tuesday night. The SAE "Bs" easily defeated the Sigma Phi Epsilon "Bs" with scores of 15-1 and 15-9.

The Sigma Tau Gamma "As", showing lots of finesse, sharpness, and spirit, overpowered a game Beta Sigma Tau aggregation. Teamwork seemed to be the key to success for the Sig Tau's who are still strong contenders for top position in their league.

Best Game

The Sigma Tau Gamma "Bs" played one of their best games as they defeated a stubborn SAE "C" team. The first game was a nip-and-tuck battle with the Sig Tau "Bs" coming from behind a 5-13 deficit, finally winning with a 15-14 count. The second game ended in a 15 to 5 score, as the Sig Tau "B" team kept their record clean. The spiking of Paul Wallach and set-ups of Gordon Azevedo were something to see, as was the all-around playing and teamwork of the rest of the team.

On Wednesday night the Sig Tau "B" team again displayed their power as they handed the Delta Tau Delta "C" group their second straight loss with scores of 15-8, 11-15, and 15-5. The Sigma Phi Epsilon "Bs" proved to be the better team as they squeezed by a hard fighting Delta Tau Delta "B" team.

Other Games

In the other games scheduled for that night, the Alpha Phi Omega team collected their first win by a forfeit from the ROTC Brass. The Sigma Pi "As" forfeited to the Kappa Sig "As" as did the Sigma Pi "As" to the Beta Sigma Tau "As".

On Thursday night, a much improved Delta Sigma Phi "A" team scored its second win as they outclassed a hard fighting Lambda Chi Alpha "A" team.

The SAE "Cs" won their second game in a row as they defeated a scrappy but out-manned Delta Sigma Phi "B" team.

The SAE "As" won by a forfeit

The Roustabout . . .

The greatest and finest beach weather prevailed all during the past week. Having no afternoon classes and no homework worthy of mention, each and every day I journeyed to the beach. Ever since I have become a big boy, I have enjoyed going to the beach to survey the beautiful scenery and local talent. If you are ever lonely and feel the need for companionship, journey to East Beach where you can find persons of every class becoming healthy or recuperating from the night before (studies, of course). Per chance you are another bridge fiend. That waster of study time prevails as King on the Sandy Shores of Santa Barbara.

TGIF

Friday afternoon the Gaucho staff took bags and bottles to Hendry's Beach where copious quantities of that good stuff was consumed by all. The theme of the party was TGIF. For the green, tender freshmen at this institution, TGIF is the abbreviation "Thank God It's Friday." I hauled a load of giggling women out to the beach with my mule team. I assigned Frankie Laine's duties of whip cracking to Bob Toomlinson.

Despite the efforts of Jo Ferguson, potted as usual, I retained my throne as undefeated "Chug-a-Lug" champion. After two too many, Ruthe Manning kept running around burying her head in the sand. Owen Wayman, the drag, stolidly sat coolly calculating the number of grains of sand that would be needed to bury Moscow up to Uncle Joe's mustache.

Crasher

Phil French tried to crash the party but was repulsed by Bev Klausner, who scored two direct hits on his already knobby head.

Soon the sun was setting and the girls started begging to go home. Being noble me, I helped the girls back onto the camels and we traveled back to our fair abodes.

My transportation for Friday night was a rocket ship that some men from Mars had left behind when they made their last trip to the Lambda Chi house. We roared off into space in search of the Mar Monte where the IA Club was throwing a belly rub. After a few moments speaking to the man in the moon about the possibilities of leasing ground for a pub when the Santa Barbara campus is moved to the moon, we finally descended to the Mar Monte to join in with the happy times planned for the Mesa Men.

Space Ship

The space ship settled gently on Charles Copeland's band stand, much to his amazement. After limbering up to the tune of "Out of an Orange Colored Sky," I brought out my ID and turned to a little elbow-bending. At the bar we saw Dr. Sands with a Pink Lady in one hand and a tanned lady in the other. He seemed to be living the life of Sproul. Dr. Nair and his wife were seen turning a few fancy turns and spins out on the floor. We asked him what he had done with the kids for the night. It seems that Mr. Groebli had answered his ad for a baby sitter and was sitting with the adjustment problems for the evening.

My Date

My date has moved to 21 East Valerio. The house keeps very rigid hours, so we departed, leaving the Mesa Men in a turmoil of gaiety and happiness.

Party time prevailed at the frat houses Saturday night. So, after seeing the Roadrunner Revue, my date and I scurried off to the Lambda Chi house where a party had been planned for that night.

As we arrived we could hear the trumpet of "Harry James" Lewis sounding from the basement. Al Martin in his usual congenial manner hurried up to us and gave us a fifty-cent tour of the house. That house has everything a fraternity needs and a few of the things the Provost believes they don't need. As we entered one little room, I saw Ken Young roll into a side pocket of the pool table after his date, Nancy Livermore, had done a beautiful three-cushion shot. The night was drawing on so we regretfully left the Lambda Chi house.

Dog Sled

By means of a dog sled, we soon arrived at the Sig Tau house where they were having a "hard times" party. At that sort of party one is supposed to wear the oldest clothes that one has. The Sig Taus weren't dressed any differently than usual. Jack Russell was wearing the same old shirt he has been wearing to school for almost two months. Ransom Hunt, his poverty-stricken date, looked no different than usual. I am not implying that the Sig Taus are a bunch of bums—it's just that any party of college students looks like a hard times party.

Speaking of hard times, Howard Gorton was giving Jean Chalmers one. Toward the end of the evening, Frank Armstrong and Marilyn Morris were seen making cowboy coffee in the front room over a fire kindled from the saw dust that had fallen from Augie Ramirez's head when he fell down the stairs.

Having warmed our hands over the fire, we left the Sig Taus to their most grand and glorious party.

GAUCHO STAFFERS TAKE HOLIDAY, THROW PARTY

In keeping with the timehonored tradition of TGIF, or "Thank God, it's Friday!" the Gaucho staff declared an illegal holiday on Friday, the deadline day for this paper, and took off for Arroyo Burro to enjoy an afternoon of relaxation and party-time.

After years and years of vowing that sometime they would really celebrate on Deadline Day, the staff actually walked out on Friday and left the paper to its own devices. Plans were made at a staff meeting Wednesday. Then assignments were posted that day and copy was turned in Thursday and early Friday morning.

Copy was turned in as if by magic and everyone was eager to help. Skeptics Frank Goodall, Russ Ericson and Bob Lorden were doubtful that such a feat could be accomplished, but their doubts were disproved.

TGIF Edition

It may seem a little strange for a Tuesday edition of the paper to be a TGIF edition, but since the staff had the vacation on Friday, the deadline day for Tuesday's issue, it was logical that it should be the featured paper.

Besides the general idea of TGIF

the party was a little special for three members of the staff who had birthdays that week. Georgia Baciu celebrated on March 14, Ruthe Manning on March 15, and Judy Cook on March 16. They are all the same age.

Birthdays

When the three birthday girls compared notes and discovered that their birthdays were so close, they decided that a party was in order and so the idea came into being. Jean Tahajian, whose birthday was March 13, was invited as a special guest.

Staff members attending included Doris Spotts, Georgia Baciu, Judy Cook, Pat Davis, Harriet Polt, Irene Schjervner, Bev Klausner, Jo Ferguson, Ruthe Manning, Barbara Nelson, Corky Strandburg, Bob Tomlinson, Marnie Clifford, Augie Ramirez, Jeanne Young, Dick Weston and Jim Guillet.
