FINAL PLAY PERFORMANCE TONIGHT

SOPHS FETE KING AND QUEEN AT WINTER CARNIVAL DANCE

Highlighting the annual Winter Carnival Dance to be given by the sophomore class at Recreation Center, Friday, January 24 at 9 p.m., will be the presentation of the King and Queen of Winter, according to Ed Morris, general chairman. Before Christmas vacation, the king and queen were elected by secret ballot by the members of the sophomore class. The ballots will be tallied the day preceding the dance by a committee, and the identity of the winners will be kept secret until their entrance at the dance.

MORRIS CONFIDENT

The decoration theme will portray an outdoor winter setting. "Shirley Hillis, decoration chairman, has worked hard and I have every confidence in her and her committee for a fine job," stated Morris.

Admission to this semi-formal affair will be by presentation of one student body card per couple. Women will wear formals and the men will wear dark suits or white coats. Music will be provided for by Herb Fredlund's orchestra.

PATRONS

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Keener, Dr. and Mrs. William Ellison, and Dr. and Mrs. William Hayes have been invited as patrons and patronesses.

Assisting Shirley with decorations are George McMullen and the Potter's Daughters. Taking charge of refreshments is Mike Melvin and her committee consisting of Pat Nickols, Jody Trueblood, Gertrude Schiro, and Alice Lanssen. Cuppy Wallace is chairman of the clean-up committee.

Alpha Phi Receives Eight New Pledges

Eight new pledges were formally initiated into Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity for former members of the Boy Scouts, last night during impressive ceremonies held on campus under the direction of president Melvin Gilmore.

New members are Bob Ackerson, Jerry Drane, Norman Bell, George McGee, Wayne Bittenger, John Ogden, Al Sellen and Andy Oliver.

CABIN PARTY

Before Christmas vacation the pledges entertained the actives at a party held at the college cabin at Paradise Camp.

The fraternity plans to assist in the Registration line as part of their plan to be of service to the school.

Henry Use is secretary of the organization, and Carl Exner is treasurer. Dean Paul A. Jones, Mr. Clyde Keener and Dr. William Hayes sponsor the fraternity.

Rules Concerning Proficiency Tests Set by Dr. Mather

Proficiency tests will be given on January 21 from 3 to 6 p.m. for those students who have failed in any part of these examinations. No new examinees will be admitted at this time, according to Dr. I. A. Mather, chairman of the education department.

RULES TO BE OBSERVED

The following schedule and rules of procedure will be observed, stated Dr. Mather. "Doors will open at 2:55 and the tests will start promptly at 3 o'clock. Doors will be opened at the beginning of the administering of each of the divisions only.

Reading vocabulary	3:25
Arithmetic fundamentals	3:45
Arithmetic problems	4:25
English	5:05
Spelling and handwriting	5:40

Students deficient in any section of any division of the test must retake the entire division, and will not be held responsible for any part taken whether passed formerly or not.

RECEIPTS NECESSARY

Fees are 50 cents for the first make-up test and $1.00 for each test thereafter. All students should go to the business office before the time of the test and pay this fee. Your receipt must be presented for admission to the tests.

All students must see their department chairman or adviser and present evidence, on the blank provided for that purpose, of having prepared for their particular make-up divisions. To the music of Herb Fredlund and his orchestra, members of the associated student body will enjoy the 'Fight-Fan Frolic', dressy-sport affair, to be held tonight at Recreation Center right after the boxing matches at the Santa Barbara Armory, according to Danny Alcala, vice-president of the Associated Men Students.

Under the sponsorship of the AMS, this is the first big social event of the semester which the group has been associated with, according to Mr. Alcala. AMS cards will be sold at the door for $1.00 which entitles a couple to admission to the dance.

TEAM TO BE HONORED

Presentation of awards will take place at the dance to honor members of the Intra-Mural Football championship team, the Gamma Sigma Chi fraternity.

Other activities sponsored by the AMS this semester have been the inter-class track events, the home-coming queen election, the smokers, and get-acquainted dances.

All organizations are urged by the editor to get their money in as soon as possible. $20.00 is full-page, and $10.00 for half-page. Miss Abbott added that organizations are being asked to submit three snapshots for the yearbook, and these are to be in as soon as possible.

SENIOR PICTURES

February graduates and organization heads who are having their pictures taken must have this done by February 17 at Zane's Studio.

There will be 250 pages in this year's annual, which is larger than usual, said Miss Abbott.

Roth, Beaver Play 'Little Foxes' Leads

Dedicated to the memory of Doctor Joseph Free, who was technical director, Lillian Hellman's play, The Little Foxes, opened a two-night stand last night in the college auditorium. Presented by the college theatre group, this is the second stage production of the school year.

According to Bill Russell, graduate manager, tickets may still be purchased for tonight's performance, which begins at 8:15. Admission is free to holders of student body cards, thirty-five cents to members of the faculty. General admission for non-college persons is sixty cents, while reserved-seat tickets sell for ninety cents.

AMONG BEST PLAYS OF 1938

The Little Foxes first was produced in New York City in 1938 with Tallulah Bankhead as Regina. It was chosen one of the ten best plays of the year and enjoyed a long run.

Two years later, Bette Davis portrayed Regina for the screen version.

CAST OF PRODUCTION

In the Santa Barbara College production, Nancy Lee Roth plays the part of Regina. Ben Hubbard, her shrewd, sardonic brother, is played by Walter Beaver; Oscar Hubbard, the other brother, by Robert Hennings. Oscar's weak, characterless son, Leo, is played by Richard Clark; Birdie, Oscar's wife, by Barbara Rush. Regina's daughter, Alexandra, is played by Marcia McAuley; Regina's husband, Horace, by Dean Dillman, Jr.; Marshall, the Chicago businessman, by Steve Smith, Jr.; Addie, the maid, by Nancy Derrer; Cal, the butler, by Milton Commons.

"The Little Foxes," stated Mr. Theodore Hatlen, director of the production, "is extremely effective modern melodrama, a powerful and significant parable of conspiracy."

ABOUT THE PLAY

In the play, the Hubbards, shrewd, greedy, ambitious for wealth and power, convince William Marshall, a Chicago businessman, that it would be profitable to "bring the cotton mills near the fields." The rapacious Hubbards literally "cut each other's throats" in their efforts to gain a major share of the controlling interest in the proposed mill.

Horace, Regina's husband, refuses to join the Hubbards in their schemes, he having the needed funds to complete the financing of the plan. Oscar's son, Leo, steals $88,000 worth of bonds from his Uncle Horace's strong box. Armed with this information, Regina could gain the upper hand over her brothers and gain also the controlling interest in the firm, were it not that her husband is willing to pretend he had lent the bonds to his nephew.

"You can do nothing about it," Horace says, "as long as I live."

"As long as you live," echoes Regina, "as long as you live."

In November, 1946, Lillian Hellman staged a play Part of the Forest, which is the story of the Hubbards twenty years before the time of The Little Foxes. It was acclaimed by critics as having the same hateful atmosphere as the other play.

PRODUCTION STAFF

The technical staff for the production is headed by Noni Williams as assistant to the director.

Members of the staff are Beverly Benedict, Rosamund Myers, and Mary Moore in charge of costumes; Peggy Lutz, Nancy Derrer, and Ruth Shepard, properties; John Ericson is stage manager, assisted by Jane Miller and Catherine Owens; Jane Doyle and Richard Clark are in charge of make-up; Rosamund Myers in charge of ushering.

Final Dance Concert Tryouts Tuesday

The Dance concert, an annual production of the women's physical education department, will be presented the twenty-first and twenty-second of March. An interesting program taken from the history of dance will include the following: dance as ritual in ancient times; the artificial elegance of court dances and ballet; free dance of the Romantic period; the contemporary period—composed of one dance depicting the spirit of jazz and a final dance presenting modern dance as a communicative art.

Casting has been completed for some of the dances but tryouts are still being held for the opening dance, the Greek dance and the modern dance. Anyone interested in dancing in the concert should go to the women's gym, 101, at 4:00 p.m. on Tuesdays.

Seniors Honor Graduates With Breakfast Sunday

Initiating their class program, the seniors will hold the traditional Open House Senior breakfast in honor of the February graduates. It will be held from 9 to 11 Sunday morning, January 26, at the home of Mrs. Jane Abraham on 1721 Santa Barbara street. Admission will be 50c per person. The event was originally scheduled for this Sunday.

Jack Erickson, class president, urges each member to attend to make this first senior activity of the year a great success, and he added, "... by the full senior participation in such affairs, the officers will be able to plan a more complete schedule of activities."

The committees in charge of the various functions are buying, Gloria Byrnes; serving, Elinor Zankich; cooking, Mary Ellen Roberts; tables and chairs, Cal Reynolds; clean-up, Bob McDonald; publicity, Kay Kimber; posters, Patty Maher.

At a meeting of the class officers, a tentative program of activities was drawn up, and includes one class breakfast a month in the school cafeteria, with guest speakers, several picnics, and the annual Senior banquet and Senior day.

Dr. Free Taken By Tragic Death

The play bill of the production "The Little Foxes," to be presented again tonight, reads:

"The death of Dr. Joseph Free ... came as a shock to his many friends on this campus, both colleagues and students."

"As scholar, actor, and director, Joseph Free was of the theatre."

"The production is being presented this evening in the tradition which he knew so well."

"He would wish it so."

The Santa Barbara campus mourns the sudden passing of Dr. Joseph M. Free, of the Department of Speech, who died suddenly on December 21.

Dr. Free, who came to this college only last semester, was director of the College Theatre and under his guidance the play group reached new heights in "George Washington Slept Here."

OTHER POSITIONS

Born in Englewood, Ohio, in 1911, he received his master's degree at the University of Michigan and his doctorate at the University of Iowa. Dr. Free had teaching posts at Iowa, Herzell College in Chicago, Washburn College in Kansas, and Colorado State College at Greeley, where he was summer play director.

At the time of his death the doctor was concluding a publication on the Theory of Acting, and was working on several articles concerning the history of the American Theater. Joseph Free was an authority on the history of the theatre of the South, and had microfilmed much of this material. His wife, Arvella Free, will continue his work.

Dr. Free's dynamic personality touched all who were associated with him and his presence here will be sorely missed.

56 Delegates Expected For Coming Convention

Members of Phrateres sub-chapters reported in full strength to a dinner meeting held Tuesday night at University village, Pattie Peryle Meairs, Phrateres president, conducted a business meeting after dinner and tentative plans were laid out for the Phrateres convention, which will be held in Santa Barbara June 19-22. Temporary committee heads and members were chosen.

According to Miss Meairs, about 56 delegates are expected, representing 14 chapters from several states. She added that the local group is enthusiastic over the convention and many volunteers are working on plans.

EDITORIAL

One must feel his way cautiously in attacking the problems of wholesale confusion so prevalent among students of the post-war campus. Much of the attention devoted to this has been directed at the veteran, due to his predominance in numbers. We hesitate to classify students in this manner. After all, the method is arbitrary. One could just as easily separate students according to their social organizations, age, dress, or even according to their troubles. With this in mind, we ask ourselves: what is responsible for the discomfiture of the veteran in his campus life.

HIS BASIC INSECURITY

Acknowledgedly, the experiences of the past years have engendered to the veteran an attitude of seriousness. Withal, somewhere along the line, it has failed to give him any sound foundation with which he can approach life. He regards his teachers, his fellow students, other groups of which he is not a part, with a mixture of bewilderment, resentment, and apathy. Insecurity has reared itself as a spectre, haunting and confusing him. He has no definite goals. He "browses bitterly" in pursuit of hazy vocational objectives. In all of this, he is without any unity of purpose among those with whom he is associated.

AN UNFULFILLED OBLIGATION

Certainly we recognize that many of the underlying causes of his maladjustment are deeply rooted in economic and social problems. Still, the veteran has in many ways shirked his responsibility to himself. He is going to college, and opportunities are open to him. That the means are not without faults is undeniable. This is beside the point, however. The veteran must fulfill an obligation with respect to that which has been made available to him. It is now up to him to unbend to reach out for the values which he seeks. He is serious, but not about anything in particular. Life has become serious, but that is as far as it goes. Nowhere is there any concerted effort to direct or channel his new ideas into a constructive program. Furthermore, the result of this is a lot of griping and general dissatisfaction. The vet views with perplexity the student who has what might pass for campus spirit, and that casual enjoyment of school life, and in short, feels that he doesn't belong. Rather than unite in the common objectives, he rejects as immature, the activities with which he has become unfamiliar.

A NEW OUTLOOK

Perhaps some remedies lie in the establishment of new organizations in which the veteran can find an invigorated outlook. To be sure, this calls for a revised attitude on his part. It calls for a complete lending of himself to the group as a whole, and a positive attempt to enter into the spirit of that which has been offered to him. The whole success of the years spent in college may depend upon how well he achieves these ends.

BITS O'COPY By Lyle

At least no one can say that this term hasn't been full. El Gaucho has often been a week or two late in bringing out announcements of events of importance and in many cases has overlooked them entirely, but at least it has appeared, at spasmodic intervals. Now, with the hangover of a three weeks' vacation to sweat out, we're going to take out five more weeks, and will again hit the newsstands on February 28. Even editors must take final exams!

Oceans of sad love and hisses are in order to departing editor Frederick; the campus just won't be the same without its weekly dose of Bitter Brownings. That's three more readers who will be cancelling their subscriptions now. If we ever left Dall 'Armi out of Pash Pit we wouldn't be able to get rid of a single copy. Still, we have about twenty cuts available for publication, so constant reprinting ought to entice a few more readers each week.

GAUCHO SERENADE

In case you haven't been listening, the Gaucho Serenade is back on the air on Monday nights. Might as well get your share of the free Chesterfields, Reynolds pens, theater passes, and other prizes given away in various skill and intelligence contests. This program is given by and for Gaucho students, and is not commercially sponsored. A telephone call during program time will be sufficient for presentation of your favorite request number.

In the Burrous' absence next term, Eager Beaver Walter will fill in as master of ceremonies, with a store of new skits and features for the weekly entertainments.

TEMPORARY FAREWELL

What's left of the staff after the pros get through dishing out finals will be back at their typewriters come February to dish out news as you like it, although not particularly caring whether you do or not. At any rate, with a few changes, a few deletions, and perhaps an addition or two, El Gaucho will be back for a fourteen edition straight run, and who knows, we may come up with something good during that time.

One of the major points of an editor's policy is keeping peace with the faculty, so perhaps before I finish I'd better explain that the disciplinary method depicted in Gumpertz' cartoon this week is not indicative of the entire faculty—some prefer to use gas—much more effective and less likely to run the risk of only wounding offenders.

"The penalty for anyone caught cheating on this exam will be, of course, the same as in all former tests, are there any questions before we go ahead?"

BITTER BROWINGS . . . By Burrows

BURROUS' FAREWELL ADDRESS TO HIS DROOPS

This is the last issue of El Gaucho for the semester. In it a few of you will read your last B. B. by B. for all time. Frederick the Burrous will graduate come February the ten (God and four professors willing). No longer will you hear of the languid loves of Andrew the Anderson; of the amazing exploits of Champola the Status; of the verbal amours between Thomas the Lyle and those crusading Sick Elfs. No longer will you have to run to Dean Sweet with your righteous protestations against this column's denunciations of wimmin.

Harvey "Schechter the Shyster" will no longer feel so persecuted. Our good English pros will no longer be able to use this column as a glowing example of grammatical evil. Ah, there are so many "no longer's." One would almost think that the Republicans had taken over the campus!

BLUE AND GOLD EMPIRE

WELCOME 1948! With one nineteenth of 1947 already past history, we're a bit uncertain which resolution to break next, so we'll chuck to the winds any threats of improved journalism and proceed per usual!

HEADLINES FROM DEADLINES! Reviewing the past top stories from Cal for '46 we might mention only:

1. Largest enrollment in Bear's history . . . 22,500 . . . only half of which are vets. Hmmm.
2. First post-war-homecoming—including tri-valve James, three day glass tinkling contest, and a defeat at the hands of Stanford.
3. Traditional Victory Axe returned—borrowers yet unnamed.
4. And, after a discouraging grid season, action to relieve varsity football coaches of their posts was begun. . .

TOUGH SLEDDIN' Since the artful sport of skiing has taken such an upward leap, fans might have enjoyed watching Sun Valley's large college meet. A two and one half mile downhill jaunt on one of America's steepest slopes had Cal's entrepreneurs making a good showing and whispering at each rock and stump—"Give me my boots and straddle."

PATTER OF SIZE 12's While Joe College was entertaining the idea of writing "Permanent Living Without School" during the holiday vacation, Bruin and Bear cagers were swapping fouls and field goals in out-of-state contests. UCLA, earlier rated high on coast, suffered defeats in New York, while the defending '46 PCC Champion Bears weathered through more than two-thirds of their inter-sectional games on top.

CONCLUSION!

UCLA met Illinois New Year's Day! Score . . . (Unavailable at writing . . . no calculator handy.) Finee.

Candy makers are running lower than ever on produce in Santa Barbara, what with Monday nights like the last one. Gamma Delta MILDRED RAMEY passed the goodies to her sisters, announcing her engagement to BILL IVERSON; Delta Zeta Delta had two boxes, because of ELINOR ZANK-ICH'S engagement to BILL HILLEBRAND and JEAN HENDRICKSEN'S to Beta Sig TOMMY COWAN;

PHI KAP ANNIE LEE CLEMENTS promised forever to CHARLES GARTRELL; Tau Gam BARBARA HULL passed chocolates announcing her engagement to BOB SHERMAN, with the wedding to take place May 31; and Alpha Theta WILLIE WIGGER included cake and champagne when she announced her engagement to Gamma Sig alum RAY ACEVEDO.

Some other newly engaged couples are RUTH DAVIS-BOB KALLMAN, BETTY BAKER-SAL JIMENEZ, Sigma Tau, and VIVIAN HOLMAN-BILL HARRISON.

JOY HARWOOD'S sorority, Delta Zeta, finally received the news about her marriage to Beta Sig BILL TEWELL, which has existed since last summer. Another Delta Zeta (those girls!), DORIS KOWALSKI, became Mrs. KEN JONES on New Year's Day at Carmel. She will continue her studies at the University of Wisconsin, because that's where her husband goes to school.

Chi Deltas' MARION MICHAELI and MARION NICKEL became brides over Christmas vacation to Sig Alph OWEN VAN BUSKIRK and ED HARTFELD, respectively. Also DICK PAULLUS and MARILYN TRAVERS.

JACQUES' advice to FRED BURROUS: "Dig in, you may be here all night."

Incidentally, we've been wondering what's happened to C. Quo's social aspirations this year. Haven't seen him about of late. The closeness of graduation seems to have served the purpose of retiring him from the local "400."

THE CAMPUS CORNER

Dear Fight Fans,

One more week to go and then the fight's on. In this corner we have Joe and Jane College—and in the far corner we have John Fate and all the Profs. (It is Fate that produces an F, isn't it?) We aren't very droll—hardly gloomy at all

The fight is in the bag—and this bag has real fighting glamour. It's a genuine (sounds good) plastic calf bag for only $5.95. Comes in brown and black.

When the heat is on, (yuk! yuk! Any way to work this in) we recommend the new peasant skirts that just came in. They're the most different looking ever designed by Luella Ballerino—slightly on the dressy side—saved by the bell from 13 dollars.

Now to throw in the sponge. The fight is over and your frantic writing in the blue book has cost you a few broken nails. But don't despair. Use Revlon Nail Fix. It works! (that's novel) and it sells for 6 thin dimes.

See you at the boxing match t'nite,

Pirate Dance Tomorrow Features Coffman Band

"Pirates Revels" is to be the theme of the all student body dance, sponsored by Phi Lambda Mu, campus honorary music fraternity, at Rockwood, on January 18, tomorrow night, from 9:00-12:00 p.m.

While "ye olde rum caske" pours forth punch, Al Coffman's orchestra will offer dance music, and hosts and hostesses, appropriately garbed as pirates, will provide further atmosphere along with swinging lanterns, checked table-cloths, and fish nets. There will be card tables for those not wishing to dance.

Tickets will be on sale all this week in the cafeteria for $1.00 per couple plus tax, but may also be purchased at the door, according to Mildred Welch, general chairman for the affair.

DRESSY SPORT DANCE

"Dressy sport clothes will be in order for the evening," stated Mrs. Welch. "For those who have not been informed, this means simple ties and sport suits for men, heels and 'dressy' dresses for women," she continued.

According to Mrs. Helen Barnett, sponsor of the organization, proceeds received from the dance will be used to help Phi Lambda Mu join the national honorary music fraternity, Phi Beta.

PATRONS

Patrons will include Mrs. Barnett, Dr. and Mrs. Van A. Christy, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Faulkner, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chenoweth, Dr. and Mrs. William Hayes, Dr. and Mrs. George Hand, Mr. and Mrs. Lockwood Haight and Dr. William Ellison.

In charge of decorations for the affair is Mary Frances Lee; Viva Hoobler is handling posters and refreshments, assisted by Audrey Braun, Nancy Bramlage, Pat Parker, Raylene Pierce, June Lord, and Bernice Baker.

WAA Annual Banquet Takes Place Tonight

All women students are cordially invited to attend the annual Women's Athletic Association banquet tonight beginning at 6 p.m. at El Presidio, according to Lynn Edgerton, publicity chairman for the association.

GUEST SPEAKER HONORED

Guest speaker of the evening will be Miss Jean Swenson, physical education instructor at U.C.L.A. and sponsor of the University Recreation Association. Her topic will be "Trends in College Recreation." Miss Swenson, a graduate of Mills College, received her master's degree at Pennsylvania State college where she was later an instructor.

Guests for the evening include Provost and Mrs. Harold J. Jones; Miss Helen E. Sweet, dean of women; and the Misses Pat Whitaker and Jean Hodgkins.

COMMITTEES WORKING

Miss Trudy Doerr is the president of the organization, while Bonnie Jo Sly is general chairman in charge of arrangements for the banquet. Dorothy Millsap and Barbara J. Winslow have charge of decorations and place cards, while Peggy Ford heads the invitation committee.

National Guard Reactivated Here

The State Adjutant General's office recently announced the activation of the 981st F. A. Bn., 40th Division, California National Guard, to be located in Santa Barbara and Ventura counties. This unit will be a medium artillery battalion equipped with 155 mm howitzers, tractor-drawn. The headquarters and several of the batteries will be established in this city.

A recruiting drive to acquaint interested and qualified persons with the possibilities of the program is presently underway. Currently, the local unit is composed of a high percentage of combat veterans.

One scheduled 2 hour meeting a week is held Monday evenings at the National Guard Armory. This period is spent in organization, administration and specialist training.

PAY POLICY

A liberal pay policy provides one full day's pay for each weekly two hour drill attended. Enlistment periods are for one, two or three years. Optional drill periods are also provided.

Examples of pay, which are according to the army's new pay scale, are: private receiving $2.50 for the two hour period, staff sergeant approximately $4.00, and a first lieutenant $6.00. Many specialist vacancies provide veterans with opportunities to enlist in former army, navy or marine corps grades. Other personnel can quickly qualify for specialist ratings.

LOCAL REPRESENTATIVES

The Santa Barbara College has several representatives in the local unit. Any information desired concerning the National Guard program may be obtained by contacting the Regular Army personnel assigned at the local armory, or by attending one of the regular Monday evening meetings of the local unit. The phone number at the armory is 7280.

Folk Dance Night Held in Women's Gym

Western Folk Dance Night was sponsored by the Women's Athletic Association last Tuesday, January 14, when a folk dance open to all college students was held in the women's gym. "This dance was an experiment," stated Miss Trudy Doerr, president. "From its results the association will decide about sponsoring other coed activities."

Some of the coming events of the W.A.A. include the beginning on March 3 of regular Monday and Wednesday afternoon volleyball games for all women, and a play-day with U.C.L.A. on April 26 at the southern campus.

Hope all you Industrial Education Department theatergoers have taken in the college play last night because the Mesa auditorium is feting a unique program tonight at 7:30 p.m. The California Industrial Education Association sponsored Demonstration Team is putting on a very interesting series of demonstrations of especial value to prospective teachers; and, although the activities utilize Industrial Arts material, the techniques used might well be employed in any type of school training.

Seven demonstrations are on the program: Silk Screen Printing, Blackboard Technique, Router-Shaper, Model Airplanes, Model Railroads, Spray Painting Techniques and Plastics. Special demonstration equipment will be used including mirrors placed at an angle over the display tables so that the activities will be easily seen by the complete audience.

TOUR OF COLLEGES

Under the auspices of the C.I.E.A. this team has been making a highly successful tour of colleges and schools in California in the last few months. The men on the team are all teachers in the Los Angeles City Schools System under the direction of Mr. Lyman Goldsmith, graduate of Santa Barbara College. In fact, all the teachers were once students at the local campus. Professor Emanuel E. Ericson, chairman of Santa Barbara's Industrial Education Department, stated, "It is of additional significance that all seven members of this demonstration team are Santa Barbara men."

It will certainly be interesting to see how far these fellows have exceeded their masters under whom they worked in this institution. I think we shall find them to be living examples of our maxim: "Learning should not stop with graduation from college."

FREE ADMISSION

Tonight's program is open to all students on both campuses and their guests with no charge for admission. Teachers and students from schools throughout Santa Barbara and Ventura counties are planning to attend. The demonstration will prove both entertaining and informative to all, and especially to you students who plan to teach.

Don't forget to put on your calendar of events the statewide California Industrial Education Association Convention held this year at Santa Barbara, April 26th.

Van der Hoof Beta Sig Prexy

Beta Sigma Chi fraternity members have elected new officers for the spring of 1947, according to outgoing social chairman, Danny Alcalá.

Dick Vanderhoof is new president; other officers are Art Carter, vice president; Charles Kneeland, secretary; Buck Levine, treasurer; Mal Pan-Roeth, social chairman; Jack Kinsey, pledge captain.

Dr. Stanley Rauch is Beta Sig sponsor, and "Aunt Jen" Turner is house-mother.

Wilton Casabans Chalk Up Impressive Victory String

Coach Willie Wilton's basketballers made the most of their Christmas vacation by racking up six victories while suffering only one serious defeat. Then, to prove that the book grind wasn't too much for them, the cagers traveled north during the past week and posted two more wins, both against 2C2A foes. Whittier was the only team

LAURELS AT CLINIC

While the boys didn't cop any trophies at the San Jose fracas, they definitely served notice that they were one of the teams to beat in the race for the California Collegiate Athletic Association basketball pennant. They started the tournament by pasting a 20-18 loss on Chico State. Their next tilt was against the team they are meeting tomorrow night in the Armory, College of Pacific. They dropped a 19-15 decision to the Stockton lads and as a result will probably go into tomorrow night's battle as slight underdogs. Cal Poly was the next club to try their luck against the Gauchos and they were sent back to the dressing room with a 24-21 defeat tagged on them by locals. Fresno State suffered a like fate at the hands of the Wilton men to the tune of 19-16. In the next two games, however, the Gauchos had to eat a little humble pie as they fell to successive defeats, 18-22 against San Jose State, favorites to win the 2C2A, and 41-21 against the San Francisco State team.

WIN CONFERENCE TILTS

After the Cage Clinic the boys returned home and went to work in earnest sharpening up the shooting eyes. The practice paid off, though because last week-end the Gauchos copped two 2C2A conference games to go into an early lead in the race.

Friday night they traveled to San Luis Obispo and proved to the Cal Poly team that their victory in the Cage Clinic hadn't been a mistake. They took a 50-47 decision from the future farmers in a ding-dong battle that had the customers out of their seats all the way. The lead in the game changed hands five times during the first half and when the intermission rolled around the contest was knotted up 25-25. Willard Moore, Cal Poly center, was the real threat to the locals in that first stanza. He canned 11 markers and appeared to be unguardable.

Santa Barbara was not to be denied however, and Charlie Jones sank a set-up in first 30 seconds of the second half to put the Gauchos in front for the rest of the contest. Harvey Hubler led the locals once again in the scoring column by tallying 16 points. Alton Ballard, acting Gaucho captain, was the real hero of the evening though, as he showed some of the classiest defensive work of the season while chalking up 7 points to take runner-up honors in that department.

FRESNO SACKED

Saturday night the team traveled to Fresno and there made believers of the Fresno State Bulldogs by trouncing them 47-40 in a game that saw Bob Sherman, Coke Morrison, and Harvey Hubler all puncture the hoop with amazing regularity.

Although the Gauchos did not run up a high score, they played one of their better games of the season as they consistently set the ball up for well-coordinated scoring thrusts. If the boys had really been "hot" the score probably would have run up into large figures because the Santa Barbara team was functioning smoothly.

SHARPY SHERMAN

Sherman made 9 of his 10 total points in the second half even though

Gaucha Serenade Returns to Air

After a vacation intermission, Gaucho Serenade is back on the air over KDB Monday nights at 10:30 p.m. Handed by El Gaucho editors Fred Burrous and Tom Lyle, the program consists of recorded requests which are played for students calling in during the program, interviews with campus personalities, latest news bulletins from the college, sports dope gathered by Bob Elliott, and various special features and prize contests. Response has been very favorable in spite of the late time schedule, and any suggestions or requests will be welcomed at the El Gaucho office or by telephone during the program at the station.

BEAVER, NEW ASSISTANT

With Editor Burrous graduating at mid-year, Walter Beaver will assume the role of master of ceremonies, with a new series of surprise programs planned for the coming semester.

Chris Stone sends a similar program over the airways from Station KIST on Monday night. Under the title "Crax on Wax", Stone plays popular and classical numbers for students requesting them, as well as a variety of personal interviews, newscasts, and general news of the music world. Crax on Wax is aired on KIST at 9:30 p.m.

A.V.C. PRESENTS

Another program written, produced and presented by students of the college is sponsored by American Veterans committee over KTMS at 9:30 a.m. on Saturdays. The AVC program is generally in the form of a skit based on a modern political or social topic. Gerald Larsen handles the program, with student AVC members taking part in the skits.

All men interested in forming a college YMCA are asked to meet with Dean of Men, Paul A. Jones, next Monday night at 7 o'clock at the YMCA, corner of Chapala and Carrillo.

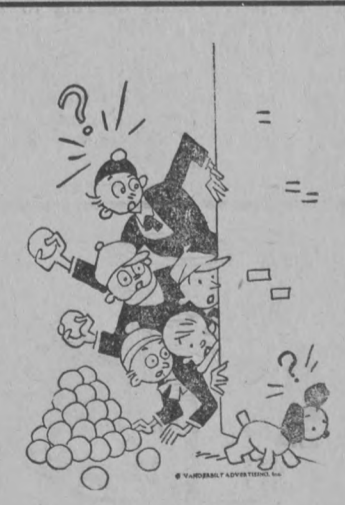

he was put out on fouls with minutes to play. Several times in the second period when the Bulldogs threatened Sherman came through with a counter that would stifle their rallies in the early stage. Harvey Hubler dropped in 12 points and Coke Morrison tallied 11 points.

SIDE LINES

By Johnny Plessman

It may have been quite a vacation for all of the local lads and lassies here in Santa Barbara over Christmas and New Years. But our Gaucho basketball team busied itself with gaining new laurels by their victories over Loyola, Cal Aggies (2), Chico State, Fresno State, and Cal Poly. They defeated Chico State, Fresno State and Cal Poly at the "Cage Clinic" at San Jose. These were only twenty minute games. However, in conference competition the Gauchos leveled off on Cal Poly and Fresno once again. Outside of their defeats against U.S.C. and U.C.L.A., two of the strongest teams in the nation, the Gauchos have lost only to Whittier and San Francisco. Their over-all record is 10 won, 5 lost. Comparatively a rather strong start for the season. At the time of this writing they are leading the 2C2A conference with 2 wins and 0 losses.

WILTON PLEASED

Coach Wilton seems pleased with the play and the hustle of his team so far; the spirit and attitude of the players seems to be one of his favorite subjects.

The Cal Poly, squad according to Coach Wilton, had considerable strength. He went on to say that the school spirit shown by the Cal Poly student body is really to be envied. In the Fresno contest Santa Barbara came from behind to win 47-40, a fairly high score for our slow break type of play.

GUERRERO LEAVING

Commendation is due Tommy Guerrero for his outstanding work with Hubler and Neal. Tommy has been assisting Willie with the cage squad and will soon be leaving school for directed teaching at Bakersfield.

A good word can also be said for Don Gill, trainer for the basketball squad. He has been responsible for keeping several players in action. Hubler at San Jose received an injury that might have put him out for quite a while, but because of Gill's treatment he was able to play against C.O.P. The most noteworthy thing about trainer Don Gill is—he does all of his work voluntarily and without charge to the college.

BALLARD OUTSTANDING

Anton Ballard has been doing outstanding work at guard. His rebound play is rated excellent. Anton is a colored boy, who during the war served as a major in the Air Corps.

Sherman, Neal, Morrison, Sims, and Schmandle are a few more of the players that are really rounding out into good form.

BOXING UNDER WAY

Boxing, under the tutelage of Joe Lantagne, is under way tonight, and from all quarters Santa Barbara has a prize share of leather pushers. The exhibitions will be held at the Armory at 8 p.m.

Brother Bruin had just a little bit too much "Champagne" New Year's Day. From the sound of their sport writers in the January ninth edition of the California Daily Bruin, it sounds as if they are still staggering.

Trackmen Begin Meet Workouts

Practice for the 1947 track season has been announced by Coach Nick Carter as being officially started today as Santa Barbara's first meet of the season, a duel with Pomona at Pomona, will be March 8—less than two months away.

ROUGH SCHEDULE AHEAD

The Gaucho trackmen have a very strong schedule ahead of them for this season. It features meets with such schools as, U.C.L.A., U.S.C., Fresno State, San Jose State, and schools in the CCAA Conference.

The Santa Barbara Relays, a revival of the old Santa Barbara Open Track and Field Meet that enjoyed eight successful seasons prior to the war, is being run off this year on April 26, 1947. Events will be in two classes, namely, (1) University-College, and (2) High School.

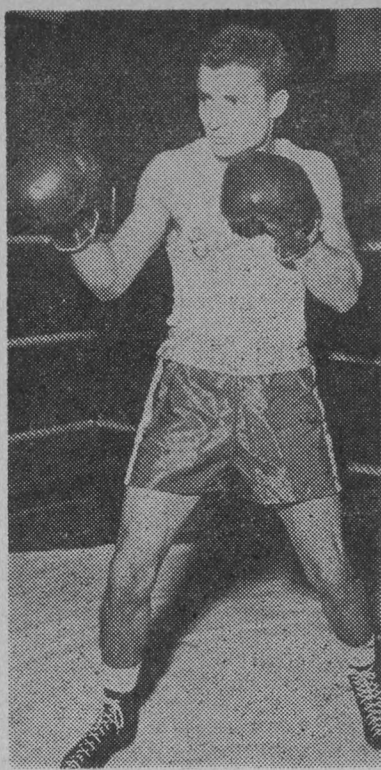

AWARDS TO BE GIVEN

This meet is expected to approach the standards of other major meets on the coast. Suitable awards will be offered in all events and trophies and medals for all three places in the relays. U.S.C. has given Santa Barbara assurance that they will keep the above date open.

Track practice will be held in the afternoons with Nick Carter coaching from 3 p.m. on.

students possessing AMS cards will be admitted free. Others desiring to attend may purchase AMS cards at the door for $1.00.

During intermission the boxing team will be introduced to the student body by Coach Joe Lantagne. Intramural awards for football and track will also be presented at this time.

Gauchos Place Ninth In First Sailing Meet

Santa Barbara College, in its first participation in intercollegiate sailing, placed ninth with 205 points, beating U.S.C. by 6 points and trailing the University of California at Berkeley by 2 points, in the annual Pacific Coast championship races held during the Christmas holidays at Balboa. The title was won by Stanford University, with the defending champion, Cal Tech, taking seventh place.

COLE HIGH POINTER

The Gauchos were represented by a six man team sailing three boats. High-point skipper for the Santa Barbarans was Wally Cole, Commodore of the Gaucho Yacht Club, carrying Bill Starr as his crew. He led Dale Eckrote (Dick Davis, crew), international Plattie class champion, by only three points. Larry Dudley, with Wes Gray as crew, finished third. Alternate crew members were Bill Nelson, Bill McLaughlin and Dick Sweet.

GAUCHOS INVITED

Coach Dearborn of the Gaucho sailors reported an invitation for the Gauchos to participate in the intercollegiate races to be held at Oakland in April with the University of California Yacht Club as host. He found a number of yachtsmen from other colleges interested in the possibility of intercollegiate racing at Santa Barbara, with its superior natural facilities.

The foundation for the new boat-house for the Yacht Club and the Physical Education Department on the Mesa Campus was poured last Friday. The Club is paying for the materials, and the members are doing the work. A meeting of the Club will be held this Thursday at 7 p.m. in room 100, Pine Hall, to plan a work party for Saturday morning as well as a Yacht Club dance scheduled for April 4.

Gauchos Vie With Mustangs Tonight For Fistic Honors

At 8:00 p.m. tonight the pugilistic warriors of Cal Poly will invade the National Guard Armory to swap punches with the leather tossing Gauchos of Santa Barbara College. After suffering defeats at the hands of the Gauchos in football and basketball, Cal Poly's hope of regaining some of their lost dignity lies in this vengeful crew of boxers who will step through the ropes with dynamite and retaliation in their fists.

But from the training camp of the Gauchos come rumors that Cal Poly will first have to meet the challenge of some of the top notch boxers in intercollegiate competition. For the past few weeks enthusiasm has been running high, and already plans for making their return to the fistic sport a victorious one are in the making.

GARCIA HEADS STABLE

Heading the list as the Gauchos' most potent weapon is the 1941-42 2C2A boxing champ, Bobby Garcia. A veteran of many fistic frays, Garcia will return to the ring after a four-year lay-off weighing 127. A south paw who can fight with equal ability as a right hander, Bobby has gained quite a reputation as a knockout artist. His past record of three knockouts in the "42" finals stands as grim proof of the power behind those punches which he can deliver with either hand.

At 145 lbs. Bebe Mathews is easily the fastest man on the team. A finalist in the 2C2A championship in "42," Mathews' return to the ring spells trouble for many opponents.

GLOVES CHAMPION

For artistry in boxing, Tommy Gressett is the man to watch. Although this is his debut into college boxing, his smooth style in the ring places him in the league of experienced boxers. Gressett is also holder of the 1946 Denver, Colo. Golden Gloves which he won while in the service.

Much credit should go to coach Joe Lantagne who has done a phenomenal job in getting the Gauchos in condition for tonight's fight. His diligence and spirit have been great aids in boosting the standing of boxing in S. B. college.

Tentative program for tonight:
 GAUCHOS vs. CAL. POLY
 Fogata (120) Guglielmelli
 Garcia (127) Endo
 Cormier (135) Day
 Mathews (145) ???
 Gressett (155) Baird
 Gilbert (155) Barr
 Watt (165) Risling
 Chadwick (165) Schuster
 Rogers (185) Keon

Students desiring final grades for the current semester must leave an addressed, stamped envelope in the box outside the recorder's office. This is the only manner by which grades will be received. No grades will be handed out the recorder's office.

Golfers May Meet At Montecito Club

Coach Finley announces that an arrangement to organize home to home golf matches is being developed so that various golf teams in the Southern California area may meet for competitions to be played at the Montecito Country Club.

No tentative dates have been released for the time of play-offs as yet, but it is known that these activities will be related to the 2C2A league.

Golfers Savage, Jimmy Judd, Jess King, and brothers Dave and Bill Bingham have been sharpening up on their games all season under the able coaching of William Ervine, golf instructor, in preparation for the Fresno Spring Festival golf tournament to be held in May. Schools entering in this 2C2A competition will be San Jose, San Diego, Cal Poly, Fresno State, C.O.P., and Santa Barbara.

The home contingent racked up a third place in last year's tourney at San Jose.

Hoopsters May Join Intramural League

With football over, the attention shifts to basketball, and according to Danny Alcalá, the Associated Men students will sponsor a casaba league to commence with the opening of the spring semester. All men on campus interested in forming a team may enter the league by contacting Danny Alcalá, chairman of intramural basketball, before January 24th. The league schedule will be drawn up prior to vacation so it is imperative that entries be in by that date.

Although playing activities will not begin until next semester it is necessary to have team entries in before vacation.

Both individual and group trophies will be doled out to the victors by the AMS.

The Gauchos nosed out Loyola 47-43 Wednesday night at the Armory.

Montecito Maulers Cop Grid Laurels

The Montecito Maulers dominated the All Intramural team by placing Bob Alpaugh, John Bromley, and Sherm Worth on the first team. Alpaugh at end and Sanchez and Austin at halves were unanimous choices. The All League selections as shown below were picked from all opponent teams submitted by each team in the league.
