CAFE VALLARTA

¿Donde puedes encontrar un restaurante de Mexico con comida como un restaurante en Mexico? (Where can you find a Mexican restaurant with food like a restaurant in Mexico?) The answer lies tucked away at 626 Haley Street in Santa Barbara — Cafe Vallarta. This true taste of Mexican gourmet is off the beaten path of Americanized Mexican restaurants that are fast becoming a bland, everyday tourist-trap for the tastebuds. Cafe Vallarta retains the Mexican culture with authentic, regional cuisine imported from the Yucatan and north-east portion of Mexico. All of the food is prepared without heavy oils or lard and makes for a healthy meal that is sure to satisfy a healthy appetite. But before you open the door to the border and step into Cafe Vallarta's country, be sure to bring an open mind and an empty stomach. The food is definitely different and that's what makes it so good. Even your ordinary cheese enchilada is presented as a gourmet delight. The true colors of Mexico show through in real black beans topped with diced green and red chile, especially seasoned green pepper rice and deep purple cabbage, all accenting the savory enchilada platter.

Attention is paid to fine details with a sprig of parsley ornamenting the pepper rice, finely sliced vegetables and refreshingly chilled glasses. And detail is also paid to you, as an amicable waitress always greets you with a fresh basket of warm tortilla chips perfectly salted and awaiting the plunge into a chunky bowl of spicy salsa. Cafe Vallarta offers exciting entrees, including very unique vegetarian combos, heaping-high tostadas and sizzling fajitas. The classical Mexican specialties such as codornices jaliciences — quails marinated in chile puree, mole Poblano — chicken in rich Pueblan sauce made from chiles and Mexican chocolate, and calamari fajitas, let you exercise your palate with a variety of delicious new dishes perfect for those of you daring entrepreneurs. Where else can you treat yourself to Mayan-style pork slowly cooked in banana leaves with achiote? The complete dining experience doesn't stop here, because you can't leave without tasting Cafe Vallarta's one and only avocado cheesecake. This has got to be one of the best desserts ever evented. The frosty-green blend of creamy cheesecake and cool avocado sits in a thick crust of crumbled graham and is carefully topped with a decoratively twisted slice of lime. It is rich enough to make your eyes roll back.

Like its name states, Cafe Vallarta serves cafe-style coffee that is great for sipping with any one of its rich desserts. Its boasts a satisfying selection of espresso, capuccino and aromatic flavors like Cafe Hazelnut. Cafe Vallarta truly provides a bold, gourmet feast for your boca but is easy on your wallet. It is a place that possesses the perfect combination of high quality, wholesome food in a humble atmosphere that somehow makes the place real, not only in the sense of imported Mexican ingredients but in the way it grows on you. Come see for yourself and discover somewhere different!

The Graduate

The Graduate is by far the most well-known establishment in Isla Vista, connected to UCSB not only by its student-dominated clientele but also by being the former headquarters of the Bank of America, where the famous I.V. riots climaxed during the '70s. Now the Graduate is known as a dance club and saloon that caters to the eclectic needs of its community.

Yet besides the appeal that the Graduate has always maintained through its constantly changing events and fun atmosphere, many students do not know that they serve food there, too. Every day from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. the Grad features a good selection of tasty sandwiches and dinners from $3 to $5, as well as daily lunch specials that accommodate the limited spending capacity of students.

Sandwiches always come with a large helping of thick steak fries, and dinner (served all day), is accompanied by fries as well as a fresh garden salad and garlic bread. Many people have never seen the Grad during the day or enjoyed the spaciousness of the large dining area, but few people have ever stayed away from the numerous activities they regularly feature.

The week begins with two-for-one drinks every Monday and Tuesday from 4 p.m. to 1 a.m. On Wednesdays and Fridays, happy hour starts at 5 p.m. and ends at 8 p.m., and the dancing starts about 9:30 p.m. Beginning just last night, the Grad is taking over Pub Night from the ill-received restrictions on drinking hours in the Pub, and starts the festivities at 8 p.m. Friday is Comedy Night, beginning at 9 p.m. for 21-year-olds and over, and lets students over 18 in for dancing after 12 a.m. Saturday night the legendary Countdown starts at 8 p.m. until midnight, when guests over 18 are allowed in. Finally, Teen Night for those under 18 starts at 8 p.m. on Sunday until midnight, and no alcohol is served that night.

Of course nobody needs to be told just how essential the Grad is to the Isla Vista scene, but I'm saying it anyway. So just close that calculus book, turn off those annoying fluorescent lights and dust off those dancing shoes. Fun and good times are so nearby it's scary.

CHARLOTTE

You see people strolling by as you peer through the white-lace curtained window and sip the steamy foam from atop a tall cafe au lait. Are you in a quaint little Paris cafe? Maybe, but chances are you are enjoying the wonderful atmosphere of Charlotte at 742 State Street. A combination cafe and bakery, this classic nook is the quintessence of fine dining with an original menu from Southern France and Italy and a feel for French finery.

A friendly waitress immediately seats you in the midst of very tasteful decor with draping table cloths of intricate design and matching maroon chairs as comfortable as the setting. Fresh-cut flowers bloom over a flickering crystal candle, and the faint music from overhead lulls you into total relaxation.

The meal begins with a bountiful basket of bread that is so light and flaky that it melts in your mouth. All the bread is home-made and fresh from the oven. Before your entree even arrives, your mouth is in heaven. Entrees include a quality seafood selection with king salmon, fresh orange roughly, mouth-watering Mediterranean Bouffade, and the specially prepared Casolete of mussels. If it's meat that you have in mind, then Charlotte presents the croissant hamburger, filet mignon Couscous, veal lasagne and duck Confit. A definite favorite is the chicken crepe (which is almost too delicious to describe!). The crepe is smothered in rich cream sauce and served with buttery rice and freshly glazed snow peas that together make for a savory symphony of taste. Charlotte's Pizza Pesto, and shrimp and shallot quiche also make a tasty meal, not to mention the array of satisfying salads which await your choice.

To go along with the meal, Charlotte offers a wide variety of fine wines for the most discriminating palate. And for you coffee connoisseurs, you can bask in the aroma of your favorite cafe blend before indulging in one of the lavish pastries that are baked fresh every day. Dessert choices include tangy raspberry or apricot tarts, Chocolat Daquoise and pecan rum mousse. The Napoleon is a definite must with two layers of smooth custard between three flaky pastry squares, covered in a light layer of caramel. Pastries are available for take-out as well as for culminating any of Charlotte's cuisine.

Charlotte invites you to come dine in style and take in not only the delicious food, but also the great atmosphere — Monday, Wednesday and Thursday, 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m., and Friday and Saturday from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m.

LOCAL COLOR!
Casa de la Raza

On Friday the 19th a show is coming to Santa Barbara that is not for the squeamish. Even the name of the headlining band will give you some clue what to expect; Bad Religion. Playing with Bad Religion are NOFX, Rat Pack and the Lost Kittens, which are all talented in their own right. There is sure to be plenty of excitement both on and off stage. With your help this gig will be successful and if it is we can expect more alternative bands to come to the Casa. So get there early man, so you won't miss a second.
