Students Offer Aid to Ruined Colleges

Committee Formed to Help Southern Quake Area

Leedy Is Originator

Local Pair Is Sent to Long Beach and Compton

Leedy Conveys Idea

The trip came as a result of an idea conceived Tuesday morning by Clifford Leedy, music instructor, and later developed into a definite plan by a committee consisting of President Phelps, Dr. Jacobs, Leedy, Trautz and MacQuiddy.

MacQuiddy and Trautz were designated as representatives to make personal and immediate contact with the southern officials, after much discussion concluded with the decision that only immediate and personal action could be of any real value. It was held that no true understanding of conditions in the south, nor any conception in the southerners' need for aid could be determined by telephone or wire.

Through the courtesy of Sheriff James Ross, of Santa Barbara county, a letter of identification was obtained which permitted free access to the earthquake region.

Compton J. C. 80% Loss

Arriving in Compton Tuesday evening, the representatives found that the Compton Junior college formerly accommodating 1900 students was an 80 percent loss. Establishing preliminary contacts with the Compton officials that evening, Trautz and MacQuiddy returned to Los Angeles to spend the night. Conferences the next day disclosed that plans were under way to house the Compton students in tents on the junior college athletic field, in vacant lots and on the athletic-field bleachers.

Much of the work of reorganization was being done by the "Compton Knights," a junior college honor society.

Considerable appreciation of the Santa Barbara offer was expressed by the Compton officials, and it was stated that aid might be accepted at a later date, perhaps in the raising of funds for student body equipment.

Arriving at Long Beach, the representatives conferred with the

N. Y. PROFESSOR WILL SPEAK TO STUDENTS HERE

Professor Ambrose L. Suhrie, professor of teachers college and normal school education in New York university, will be in Santa Barbara on March 30, at which time he will address the students of the State college, President Clarence L. Phelps announced yesterday.

A special assembly will be called at 9 a. m. to hear professor Suhrie, who, according to President Phelps, is a very entertaining and worthwhile speaker.

While in Santa Barbara for his one day visit, Professor Suhrie will speak before high school and State college student bodies. He will be feted at a tea at which the faculty of the college will entertain.

Students Name Roosevelt the Most Eminent of Americans

Lincoln Is Voted Greatest of Former Days; Einstein Is Top Foreigner

"With what Santa Barbara business house, not now a Roadrunner advertiser, do you do considerable business?" "Eppel and Kurts," answered one female sophomore, in the student survey conducted in the regular assembly last Tuesday. Naming her favorite instructor, the same student replied to question No. 34, "Bobby Goux."

While results of the survey are not completely tabulated, all questionnaires have been inspected; and it has been found that, as a whole, the student body responded exceptionally well to the Roadrunner's request for information, even though many of the queries were difficult to take seriously. Approximately six papers out of the total number submitted were of necessity relegated to the wastebasket because of their invalidity. The one quoted above was really humorous and made good reading, unfortunately, we cannot quote it in its entirety. If the young lady with the funnybone will contact the Roadrunner officers, her position on the Roadrunner feature staff is practically assured.

Asked, "Who is the outstanding living American," the student body responded emphatically, "Roosevelt." Roosevelt won by a wide margin over his nearest competitor, Herbert Hoover. Will Rogers and Colonel Lindbergh were virtually tied for third place. Results indicated that Roosevelt is a greater favorite with the women than with the men, and that his odds are greatest in the freshman class, de-

Young Writers Get Out Second Alumni Book

Edited by Paul Hylton, president of Alpha Phi Gamma, Hoy Dia, publication of the State college alumni association, made its appearance on the campus early this week. This is the second issue of the magazine to come off the press this year.

Featuring articles on the faculty, alumni and various phases of campus activity, the magazine was written and edited by members of Alpha Phi Gamma, the national honorary journalism fraternity on the campus. The cover design, a linoleum cut, titled "El Espiritu de Santa Barbara," was done by Dorothy MacQuiddy.

In an appeal to the alumni, Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham urged that all of the alumni cooperate in helping her secure positions for graduates of the local college. "The college slogan this year," Mrs. Abraham said, "is Santa Barbara Teachers college territory positions for Santa Barbara graduates."

Among articles appearing in the current issue of Hoy Dia was "State Legislation," by President Clarence L. Phelps; "Faculty Facts," by Allan Otley and Phebe Steer; "Collegiate Symphony," by Inez Cash; "Random Shots," by Miss Steer; Roy Davis and Lowell Washburn; "The Greeks Speak," by Dot Dowling; "Goodwill Envoys" and "Industrial Education," by Hylton; "Sports Highlights," by Otley and Mary Tomlinson; "Hall of Fame," by Frances Fouke; "Thoughts of Youth," by Miss Elizabeth Leonard; and "With the Honoraries," by Miss Dowling.

GARDEN TOURS START

The gardening class, under the supervision of Miss Charlotte P. Ebbets, started its series of garden tours last Friday. The size of the class this year has made it necessary to make divisions into sections in order to make the trips conveniently. Botanical Gardens will be visited this week.

Local Singers, Competing for First Time, Bring Additional Honor to College Music Record

Santa Barbara Only Entrant Without Special Music Department; Choristers Place Second in Prize Song Division; Annual Contest May Come Here

By winning third place in the ninth annual contest of the Pacific Southwest Intercollegiate Glee Club Association at Pomona college last Saturday, March 18, the Santa Barbara State college women's glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, head of the music department, brought further fame to the local campus, already replete with records of outstanding musical achievement. Participating in the annual contest for the first time this year, the State college representation competed with four other Southern California college organizations. Pomona carried off first honors in the competition, while San Diego received the second place award.

"Since the Santa Barbara women's glee club represented the only college not having a specialized music department, and because the local State college delegation of 23 women was

Student Group Stage Program Over Radio

College Kindergarten-Primary Department Appears on Local Forum Hour

For fifteen minutes last night, the kindergarten-primary department entertained the radio public over the KDB student forum program with speech and music. The "Kindergarten-Primary" song, written by the music methods class last year, was used by the department sextette to open the program and was followed by "Danny Boy," by Miss Rowena Clark.

"It is in the kindergarten that the child learns his first lesson of civic obligation and opportunity," stated Miss Rowena Clark in her brief talk telling of the advantages of the kindergarten to small children, "and it is there that they learn to work with one another in group learning."

The kindergarten-primary department is the youngest department of the college, organized last spring with 13 charter members. This fall, the department was more than tripled in size, and has become active in school activities.

A. W. S. EASTER VESPER SERVICE DATE SCHEDULED

Continuing with a custom established on the campus some years ago, the A.W.S. will sponsor Easter Vesper services again this year. The date has been tentatively set as April 5, the services to be held in the Unitarian church.

Headed by Helen Honigsberger, plans are being made for the services which will feature an address by Dr. Oliver Hart Bronson. Music will be furnished by the Unitarian church choir, directed by Anita Cochran, and by Inez Cash who will play a violin solo. Carmel Leach will read the scripture.

Barbara Clark, Laura Linn and Constance Wise, members of the publicity committee, are sending invitations to the various campus organizations, and to the faculty. According to Miss Clark, the entire student body including both men and women, are invited to attend the services.

Katherine Kitley Is Chosen W.A.A. Head

An election for W.A.A. officers was held in Miss Van Fossen's office Wednesday, March 15. This election usually takes place in March.

The results were: president, Katherine Kitley; vice president, Elizabeth Stover; secretary, Margaret White; and athletic manager, Irene Samson.

These officers will take the place of Meryl Adams, president; Irene Samson, vice president; Ida Pagliotti, secretary; and Florence Longawa, athletic manager.

Spectator Is Chastised, but Still Goes on

Fiery Spectator Is Tamed for the Nonce, but Continues With Minor Changes

NEW YORK, March 21.—(CNS)—In the language of the New York metropolitan press, the Columbia Daily Spectator at Columbia university this week was "spanked but not obliterated."

On recommendation of a special investigating committee, the paper changed the designation in its masthead to read "The official newspaper of the students of Columbia college," rather than "of Columbia university," as it had formerly appeared. The college is one of the principal undergraduate schools of the university.

Spectator also accepted other minor recommendations of the committee, which, however, did not accept the proposal of Dean Carl W. Ackerman of the Columbia School of Journalism that a professional newspaper under the jurisdiction of the journalism faculty be substituted for Spectator.

While the committee found Spectator's attitude to be "courageous, liberal and intelligent in its tendencies," the report added that "it has often been mistaken, intolerant and ill-informed in its expression."

PAUL HYLTON IS NEW FRATERNITY COUNCIL PREXY

Paul Hylton, Tau Omega, was last week elected president of the inter-fraternity council at the regular meeting of the group, held in the office of Dean Ashworth. The presidency of the council is held by each of the various fraternities in rotation.

Ralph Porter, president of Sigma Alpha Kappa, was elected vice-president of the group, while William Pensinger of Beta Sigma Chi was elected to the position of secretary. Other members of the council are Chester Tubbs, president of Tau Omega, John Eckhart, Sigma Alpha Kappa, and Harry Killian, president of Beta Sigma Chi.

In the business meeting which followed the election of officers, a general discussion of the economic situation in relation to the fraternity social activities was discussed. The council voted to hold an informal inter-fraternity dance during the month of April.

I. E. and Home Ec's Will Picnic Sunday

Members of the industrial education department and home economics department will hold a joint picnic at Nojqui falls next Sunday, March 26.

Entertainment program will consist of games, sports, and hiking. Cars for transportation to the falls will meet on the college campus at 8:30 a. m. Sunday morning. All persons planning to attend who have signed up should meet at the college campus at that time.

Finest Talent Array Planned for Revue Here April 5th-6th

Program Nears Completion as Presentation Dates Are Definitely Set

"An array of talent greater than any ever before assembled on the local campus, will appear in the Roadrunner Revue scheduled for presentation here on April 5 and 6," said Chris Martin, executive head of the production, following a meeting of the Roadrunner Revue production staff yesterday.

"Already the program is nearing completion," Martin stated, "and with the cooperation of the staff and the student body, the success of the Revue should be assured."

The program, designed to swell the student treasury, will feature dancing, singing and novelty numbers, the nature of which will be announced at a later date by Herman Gumpertz, in charge of the program. Lavish stage settings designed by Douglas Elliot, will furnish the background for the revue.

Douglas Kirkpatrick, ticket sales manager, announced yesterday that a contest will be conducted, prizes going to the individual and the group selling the most tickets. Tickets will go on sale some time next week, Kirkpatrick announced. The tickets will sell for 25 cents, with two hundred reserved seats at 35 cents.

At the production staff meeting held yesterday in the men's club-room, nine student members of the committee and Dr. Charles Jacobs and Dean Wm. Ashworth, faculty advisors, heard reports on the progress of the various production committees. "Publicity, program, advertising and plans for the ticket sales campaign are well under way," stated Martin, in reviewing the meeting.

200 Girls Here Participate in Playday Event

At the sixth annual playday, Saturday March 18, four teams under the leadership of Katharine Kitley, Evelyn Maitland, Mervilyn Shaw, and Margaret White, competed for the engraved tin cup, which was presented at the luncheon.

The group representing the Canadian liner, The Empress of Britain, came out ahead. Evelyn Maitland was the captain for the victorious ship. Majestic, the star liner with Mervilyn Shaw as captain, came in second. The Italian ship, Rex, with Katharine Kitley at the controls, and the United States liner, Leviathan, with Margaret White as skipper, were lost somewhere in the battle for the much desired cup.

200 Register

The day was started with the registration of approximately 200 girls. At a ten o'clock assembly, Meryl Adams welcomed the girls, followed by President Phelps and Oscar Trautz, president of the student body. Florence Longawa then directed the girls to their leaders and announced plans for the day. After the assembly pictures were taken in front of the gymnasium.

Kick ball, end ball, baseball, volleyball, steeple chase, prisoners hats, dodge ball, bombardment, and hit pin baseball were played. Various types of relays were also run.

Luncheon was served to 163 girls in Ebbets dining hall at 12:30. The tables were decorated with the colors of the four ships; and on each of the main tables were paper ships representing the teams. The girls who waited on table were dressed in sailor suits with sailor hats made of paper napkins. The theme of the day was even carried into the salads, which were served in grapefruit rinds with a toothpick to represent sails on tiny boats. Each boat had the flag of the United States on it.

Musicians to Appear in Concert Friday Eve

First Local Program to Be Given in High School

Variety Is Keynote

Proceeds for P.-T. A. Scholarship Benefit

Appearing locally for the first time since their return from the annual good-will tour, State's band and male chorus will present a concert at the Santa Barbara high school on Friday evening, beginning at eight o'clock. Following the concert, played in the auditorium, there will be a dance in the high school gymnasium, which will continue until midnight. During the first half of the evening, a diversified program consisting of marches, overtures, comic skits, solos, vocal and instrumental trios, chants and chorus numbers will be offered by the musical men, supplemented by the well-known Revellettes, purveyors of closest harmony, and Bradford Tozier, violin soloist. After an hour or so of this, those of the audience so disposed will adjourn to the dance floor of the gym, where the magic strains of a ten-piece dance band will entice their feet into sundry joyous gyrations.

Santa Barbara's Parent-Teachers association is staging this evening of entertainment to help towards replenishing its pupils' benefit fund, to which the bulk of the proceeds will go. With the admission price for both the concert and dance set at twenty-five cents—a "double bill" attraction—it is expected that the auditorium's 1500 capacity will be taxed. Tickets are selling fast on the college campus, and even faster at the high school. The recent appearance at a high school assembly of State's ten rhythm masters brought such enthusiastic approval that no introduction of their talents is requested of ticket vendors.

In addition to the stage band of 35 and the male chorus of 32, there will be the Sharp, Flat, and Minor trio (the Lambournes and McCray), the Biltmore trio (Goux, McCray, Lambourne) and the Revellettes, girls' trio (Anita Cochran, Betty Procter, and Dot Peterson Kent), as well as "Colonel" Hoiman Gumpertz and his merry crew of skitsters. Entertainment will also feature the dance intermissions.

According to Cliff Leedy, director of men's musical organizations, variety and versatility will be the keynote of the evening, in this Homecoming concert, and the concert and dance audiences may expect music of the highest caliber, offered in a sparkling, collegiate manner, with never a dull moment.

ROTARY CLUB TO DINE IN EBBETS HALL ON FRIDAY

Members of the Rotary club will hold their regular weekly luncheon in the college cafeteria Friday noon, this meeting serving as their annual good will visit to the college campus.

Nearly one hundred members of the club are expected to attend the meeting which will be featured by a musical program to be presented by the prize-winning Women's glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Helen Barnett.

President Clarence L. Phelps, Dean William Ashworth and Oscar Trautz will attend the meeting from the college.

DR. BISHOP SPEAKS

Dr. Elizabeth L. Bishop of the State college faculty spoke on Monday, March 20, at a luncheon given at the Plantation for the county welfare workers of Santa Barbara, on the subject, "Educational Frills."

Action Needed on A.S.B. Fees

AGITATION for the reduction of student body fees, always present to some extent on every college campus, has been quite pronounced among local students during the last several months. There are many who feel that the present fee is too high, and there are some who question the legality of any at all. Campus discussion has brought out many suggestions, chief of which is, that there should be a minimum student body fee, payable by all students; and those desiring to take part in activities not covered by the regular fee should pay accordingly. In the opinion of the Roadrunner, the move toward reduction of student body fees is entirely in order. At a time when economy has become the watchword, and everything has been scaled down to meet reduced incomes, it seems logical that students, whose funds are more scanty than ever, should not be required to meet the usual cost of student body membership.

However, we do not believe that fees should, by any means, be abolished, nor that anyone should have the privilege of deciding for himself whether or not he should become a member of the associated students. It is our contention that membership and a minimum fee should be mandatory; and we feel certain that any less integrating arrangement would disrupt the entire existing student organization.

As to the legality of enforcing payment of student body fees, investigation has disclosed that the president of the college is vested with full legal right to such enforcement.

Discussion, suggestions, agitation are fine things, but they are not sufficient; we have always had these. What we need is action. Those who are discontented with the existing order should begin to do something about it now when the time is ripe to do something, rather than wait until it is too late, merely to begin their complaining all over again.

The time is not far distant when the student executive council will meet to vote on appropriations for next year. The members of that council are your representatives, and it is their job to carry out your wishes. They are the ones who will decide, finally, whether the present student-body fee shall be maintained, raised or lowered. They are the ones who will determine the percentages of student funds to be appropriated to the various campus activities. If their actions are to be representative of their constituents' wishes, it is high time that said constituents make themselves heard and felt.

A matter of this kind requires much intelligent thought and effort, and a conscientious consideration of all the factors involved. It is not a job to be left to half-baked radicalists, a few of whom are to be found in every group. Each and every student organization represented in the student council should meet, hold discussions and determine group sentiment. Group sentiment should be translated into resolutions, and those votes should be carried by the representatives to the council.

We can't emphasize too strongly that idle comment will accomplish nothing; that if anything is to be done, it will be done by concerted action. The time for that action is now.

Santa Barbara Offers Aid

The visits to Compton and Long Beach junior colleges, made last week by the local student body president and the editor of the Roadrunner demonstrated to the southern school officials that Santa Barbara State college is a real friend, and is ready to lend a helping hand on a moment's notice toward the reorganization of their earthquake stricken institutions.

The appreciation shown by all of the officials with whom the local representatives came in contact indicated strongly that a much greater feeling of good will had been established among the three colleges than had theretofore existed.

Clifford Leedy, music instructor, who first conceived the idea of lending aid to the stricken colleges, deserves praise for a noble idea. More particularly deserving of commendation are Clarence L. Phelps, president of the college, and Dr. Charles L. Jacobs, vice president, who authorized the representatives to offer to Compton and Long Beach the use, free of charge, of the Santa Barbara State college facilities for the remainder of the semester.

Thanks are also due to Sheriff James Ross, of Santa Barbara, and Mr. Herron, of the local chamber of commerce, the former for his letter of identification which made possible free access to the earthquake area, and the latter for his time and advice in planning the trip.

FRATERNITY TAKES IN SEVEN

Kappa Omicron Phi home fraternity held its pledging ceremonies in the colonial room of Ebbets hall, Monday evening.

A dinner was given in honor of the pledges at 7 o'clock in the college dining hall.

The new pledges are as follows: Bernice Baker, Beth Blodgett, Ruth

Brubaker, Marian Shelman, Louise Lewis, Lucile Bolton, Eveline Stehmer.

Members present were: Miss Florence Clark, faculty sponsor; Jessie Le Baron, Shirley Birch, Helene Blaer, Ramona Abel, Sadie Ambrosini, Stella Smead, Mercedes Jewett, Laura Linn, Lois Cole, Helen Banker, Delsie Berg.

Shades o' Green

Yes, we have been out of the columns for some time, (you hadn't noticed it?) but so has the Happy Go Lucky gang been off the air, and you can't expect us columnists to go on buying "humor" magazines forever.

President Roosevelt has certainly been going after things. That bank closing idea was great. The sofa and davenport business has jumped up remarkably due to the replacements required following those "banks closed" dates. College men's consciences were never so clear. They had only one story and they stuck to it. "Sorry, pal, banks closed. See you next week."

Some one tells the story of the hoarder who brought his gold to the bank and wanted to exchange it for silver as he had heard that the U.S. was going off the gold standard. Real patriot.

Better times are on their way, a man reports seeing a jack-rabbit the other day and no one was chasing it.

The bottom has been reached. Restaurant owners are eating in their own restaurants.

And someone asks why it took Melville Homfeld and party five hours to come down from La Cumbre on that Moonlight hike some time ago. Well, Miss Nichols and Miss Scott, what were you doing at the bottom all that time, to know how long it took Humpy to make the return trip?

"You can lead a horse to Vassar, but you can't make her think."—just another of Bill McDavid's gems of humor.

Ah, Spring is with us once again. You can always tell by watching the colors turn. (Redheads slowly becoming blondes.)

By the way, how is the Clara Wise-Tiger Kerrigan affair coming along? Or has it come and gone?

Something should be done to prevent Anita Cochran's accompanying any more State college musicians in the future. That young lady starts out as an accompanist and ends up with all eyes on her flying fingers, and ears for nothing but her music. She's too good.

Don Marquis says, "A hypocrite is a person who... but who isn't."

Definition of nothing: A bladeless knife without a handle.

Dorothy Cox is having a tough time with Tex Willard and Louie Marin, while Bob McClain reports that he is going steady again—or sump'n.

So the Roadrunner got busy and Milton Burnham answers:

Q. Do you prefer blondes, brunettes, or redheads.

A. Yes.

Q. Who is your favorite author?

A. Milton L. Burnham.

Q. Who is the greatest living American?

A. Milton L. Burnham.

Q. Who is the greatest dead American?

A. Herbert Hoover.

Q. Who has done the most for the school?

A. Alan Flock. (He quit.)

Q. Have you ever violently disliked any one?

A. This one had him stopped, then came our entertainment.

So long. Don't take any Woodin (get it) nickles.

Garden Club Contest Will Close March 24

Students entering the essay contest on conservation, sponsored by the Garden club of Montecito and Santa Barbara, must bear in mind that the contest closes Friday, March 24, members of the committee announced yesterday.

Contestants may write upon any phase of the conservation of natural resources they desire. The committee last week announced six suggestive subjects from which students might choose.

The silver medals to be awarded to the winners in the freshman, sophomore, junior and senior classes will be presented to the winning contestants in the general assembly by a member of the clubs committee. The exact date of the award will be announced later.

STEAM

Editor of the Roadrunner:

According to your feature writer who is responsible for "The Chatterbox," she, or he, as the case may be, (she—Ed.) can think of nothing better than cold sandwiches to take on a moonlight hike. Now, to be sure, cold sandwiches are not very appetizing for breakfast on the top of a mountain on a cold morning. However, if she or he wants proof that a delicious breakfast can be taken to the top of a mountain, cooked and eaten there, then I am more than willing to prove the well-known fact to said columnist. (Look out, she'll take you up on that—Ed.)

Can you think of anything more luscious after a five-mile hike, than a cup of steaming coffee, two eggs, sunny-side up, a couple strips of crisp bacon, and two or three nice fat sausages, with hot buttered toast. I am not exaggerating. That is actually what we ate for breakfast Sunday A.M.

I feel that the paragraph in last week's issue is an unjust criticism, to say the least, and that it is purely the result of gross ignorance. It is such lack of understanding and unfair criticism that results in poor support of so many of our student undertakings. If you do not believe that we had a good time on the hike in question, then ask us. Sincerely,

MELVILLE J. HOMFELD (Editor's Note:—I'm sure that our feature writer meant not to criticize unjustly, nor maliciously, the Outing club breakfast menu. Perhaps if you should read again the objectionable paragraph, leaving the chip off of your shoulder, you would see it in the light in which the author wrote it.)

"What do people take with them for breakfast when they go on moonlight hikes? All we can think of is sandwiches."—Seems not to be malicious, seems in fact to admit sufficient ignorance of facts to render less potent the conjectures which follow. Nevertheless, if Hooten-Anny offended, she, and we, extend apologies.)

MAXWELL TALKS TO 'Y'

"Preparation for After Life" was the topic of Dr. William Maxwell's speech at the "Y" breakfast held in the faculty dining room of the college cafeteria Wednesday morning, March 15. Dr. Maxwell has been invited to speak again for the "Y" at some future date, according to Marcus Cravens, president of the local organization.

Following the breakfast, songs were led by Larry Connell, accompanied by Glendon Lawson.

The next guest speaker for the meeting of the officers of the group, to be held Wednesday morning March 22, will be Hugh Landram, secretary of the California Student Field council, who will help them plan the programs for meetings for the rest of the term.

Induction ceremonies for the Roadrunner "Y" were held at the Y. M. C. A., Wednesday evening March 15. Glendon Lawson, Bob Main and Carroll Russell are the new members of the group.

Hiking Contest Is Planned by W. A. A. Sunday

Starting March 26, women wanting participation points for W.A.A. can earn them by hiking in a series of short hikes, a new method just initiated by the local Women's Athletic association. The first girl hiking the equivalent distance from Santa Barbara to Oxnard, 45 miles, will win the cross country hiking contest. Mileage will be recorded for not less than three miles in the mountains and five miles on level ground.

Anyone wishing to participate may do so, but must report the names of companions, length of hike, time, place, and date to Lorraine Koehly, hiking manager, or to Miss Gladys Van Fossen.

Only short intervals of rest must be taken, it is ruled. The first hike will start from the college at 2 o'clock, Sunday, March 26.

Leonard played the piano. Short talks were given by Dean Mildred Pyle, Mrs. Jane Abrahams, Miss Winifred Hodgins, Miss Gladys van Fossen, Miss Hazel Severy, and Marcus Cravens who welcomed the girls in behalf of the men of the college. Meryl Adams presented the awards of the day to Evelyn Maitland, captain of the winning team.

Nancy Shields, dressed in a scotch kiltie rendered a sword dance and the Highland fling. A mock wedding was presented by a group of State girls in sport fashion. Meryl Adams sang and accompanied herself on the guitar.

"The success of the play day was due to the splendid functioning of all the committees and the assuming of responsibility by the officials. Also the W.A.A. appreciates very much the interest shown and help given by the faculty of the college," stated Meryl Adams, W.A.A. president.

The CHATTERBOX

Chris' you wretch! Come on back to home and mother. Surely, you're not going to make your Hoot go on writing col-yums all by her ownsome? We're so l-o-n-e-l-y.

We're so drefful, drefful crushed. Our severest critic, Jimmy Daykin, told us our column last week was lousy! Oh Jimmy, how could you? But, we can't be expected to please everyone, and poor taste needs cultivating. At any rate we're always sure of at least one fan—Tiny Cash appreciates our literary efforts, if no one else does.

If you lads and lassies enjoyed the Hospitalization Follies, wait until you see the Roadrunner Revue! If any of you remember that fatal error that was perpetrated last year under the same guise, you may not be seething with passionate desire to see it—but friends, this will be different. IT WILL be different!

We English majors are all a-tremble over these here ex's that the powers that be in the English department are going to foist upon us. Despite the additional labor involved, we think it's a great idea. All the departments in the school are raising the scholastic standard, and we're all for it. Taken from a purely economic standpoint, if you graduate with good grades from a school whose standards are high, your chances for getting a job out in the great big beautiful world are just that much better; and who's going to complain about that, we're a-asking of you—WHO?

That's a right manly game the boys are going in for, out on the cement walk in front of the gym. We allude to the ancient and time honored sport of shuffleboard. All airy jesting aside, though, it does look like a lot of fun; and it's got this additional advantage to the student body as a whole—it costs puh-lenty less than football does. And the results are about the same.

What nice clean sport, that questionnaire that was handed out in assembly last week. Give everyone an anonymous chance to express themselves on everything from the high cost of living to the size of families they desired. We especially enjoyed that dainty little one about whether we thought necking was "fun" or just "an accepted convention." Puh-lease Mr. Henningway! We're anxiously awaiting the results to be announced in future issues. Oh well, it was lots of fun—and not a bit complicated. Not half so hard as jigsaw puzzles. Bigger and better questionnaires, says we!

Dear Mr. Printer-Man: You do the quaintest things to our column. Make a sort of literary hash out of what we turn in as it were. Don't you think six boners in one issue is rather overdoing it? You know what we mean—no offense meant and all that sort of thing—but STILL!

And now that we've settled that point, why don't you drop down to tea some day when the vicar is there? Bring the wife and kiddies too; we'll have cherry tart and all the trimmings. So sincerely yours, —Hoot.

We read a jolly little book the other day that some of you might be interested in. "Middletown—A Survey of Contemporary American Culture" by Robert and Helen Lynd. It's a darb, boys, it's a darb.

When Barbara Seward and a crowd of the boys who were whooping it up in the library were summarily ejected by Ye Librarian, Milt' (Mighty-Man) Burnham, arose, regarded the gentle lady with a truly Napoleonic stare, and said, "I shall take this matter up with Gov. Rolph," and made a very dignified exit. There's the spirit of '76 for you.

With which last, we finish this off and go tangle-footing home—

creasing with the sophomores, juniors and seniors.

Abraham Lincoln was overwhelmingly designated as the students' choice for the outstanding dead American, while George Washington beat Thomas A. Edison by a scant margin for second place. The fresh women were for Washington, while the fresh men favored the inventor. Edison stood high with the upper classes.

The collegians left no doubt as to their choice of the two outstanding foreigners. Italy's Premier Mussolini barely nosed out Germany's famed Dr. Einstein for first place. Mahatma Gandhi, Ramsay MacDonald and Napoleon Bonaparte polled almost equal numbers of votes, nearly all of these coming from the two lower classes.

Further information on the results of the student survey will be disclosed in next week's issue of the Roadrunner, when results will have been completely tabulated.

Sorority Alumni Group Is Given Party

The Alumnae association of Delta Zeta Delta was entertained, last Tuesday evening, with a St. Patrick's day bridge party given by Miss Nancy Davens and Miss Betty Greenwell in the home of the former on Canon Drive. The regular business was conducted first, followed by bridge and a buffet supper.

The organization gave a very successful benefit dance at La Hacienda Carrillo on March 10, which was attended by many State college students. The proceeds of the affair will go to finance "Delta Data" the alumna yearbook which is now being printed and will be issued in April. Copies are to be mailed to seventy-five alumnae of the group.

The staff of the annual is composed of editor, Ester Ludcke; business manager, Gertrude Bredsteen; society editors, Esther Clewenger, Elizabeth Peacock; art editor, Betty Greenwell; circulation manager, Viola Girsh; and others on the staff are Jean Powell, Janet Bernie, Helen Smith and Rose Greenwell.

Those attending the St. Patrick's party were Mrs. Marian Anderson, Mrs. Laura Campbell, Mrs. Viola Girsh, Mrs. Jean Powell, Mrs. Ester J. Ludcke, Janet Bernie, Gertrude Bredsteen, Ella Cornwall, Frances Merritt, Esther Clewenger, Elizabeth Peacock, Helen Smith, Isabel Vaughn, Clara Wade and the president of the active chapter, Rose Greenwell.

Program Is Presented by Kindergartners

Yesterday morning the Kindergarten-Primary department presented an assembly program in the A.W.S. meeting, to which all of the faculty members and men students were invited to attend. The program, planned by Miss Edith Leonard, department head, assisted by members of the department, was called "A Morning in a Kindergarten."

Miss Dorothy Bartley, president, opened the program with a welcome address. Among the special numbers presented were, interpretive dance by Kathryn Myers; a recitation by Rowena Clark; a group of tap dances led by Josephine Covelli; and a song by Helen Honigsberger. The rhythm band, composed of all the department rendered a few numbers, followed by a group of presentations entitled "Spontaneous Rhythms."

"We extend special appreciation to Mrs. Helen Barnett for the music, to Mrs. Lyons and Mr. Jack Porter for the programs, and to all who contributed in making the program a success," states Miss Helen Honigsberger, general committee chairman.

HOP PLANNED THIS SATURDAY

"The last three student body dances have been very well attended, and have been enjoyed by everyone," said Betty Ayl, chairman of the social committee, in speaking of the student body dances, "and an even better attendance is expected for this next dance."

FACULTY IN BUELLTON MEET

Featuring a discussion of educational legislation, alumni members of Phi Delta Kappa met Saturday night at the Buellton hotel in Buellton. About thirty members of the fraternity, coming from as far north as Astacadero, attended the meeting.

During the discussion of the legislative problems, reports on the topic were read by several members of the group. Dr. Charles Jacobs of the local faculty presided over the meeting.

President Clarence L. Phelps, Dr. Jacobs, Dean William Ashworth, Dr. William Maxwell and Instructor Harrington Wells attended the meeting from Santa Barbara.

BREAKFAST DATE SET
The date for the senior breakfast, which was originally announced as March 19, has now been definitely set as April 2, according to Bill McDavid, president of the fourth-year class.

Debaters Split with Redlands Team

Climaxing a week of debate activity in preparation for the Pi Kappa Delta tournament at Stockton, two men's teams from Santa Barbara State met two teams from Redlands university on the local campus, last Monday evening.

Last Thursday, the local speakers held their finals before the international relations class; and they were judged by Dr. William H. Ellison, Mrs. H. M. Davis, Miss Margaret Burke and Dr. William C. Maxwell. The negative team, composed of William Ogile and John Westwick, defeated the affirmative team, composed of Don Sigerson and Harold Schreiber. The judges chose William Ogile and Harold Schreiber to represent the school at Stockton this week.

The same State college teams met the Redlands speakers on Monday evening. Miss Betty Thomas, manager of dramatics and debate, entertained the teams in the cafeteria before the debates. The decisions were awarded the affirmative in both debates, which gave each school one victory. Oscar Trautz, A. S. B. president acted as chairman for one debate; and Miss Betty Thomas was chairman for the other debate.

Santa Barbara will be represented at the regional tournament to be held at the College of the Pacific, on March 23, 24 and 25, by a women's team composed of Miss Betty Thomas and Miss Rea McPeak, a men's team, composed of William Ogile and Harold Schreiber. They will be accompanied by Miss Margaret Burke of the English department.

The last three student body dances have been very well attended, and have been enjoyed by everyone," said Betty Ayl, chairman of the social committee, in speaking of the student body dances, "and an even better attendance is expected for this next dance."

VISITORS THRONG CAMPUS

State college has had several visitors in the last few weeks. Dr. J. J. Michel and Professor Mears, both of Stanford have been here interviewing graduate students who wish to attend the summer session at Stanford. Dr. Hopple also of Stanford, gave Stanford application tests at Santa Barbara high school, and then visited the campus to see Mrs. Abraham.

Several graduate students on enforced vacations from their teaching positions have also come back to visit Santa Barbara State. These include Mr. William Lopez of the class of 1916, and Mrs. Lopez; Mrs. George Cutler, '31; and Mr. William Bennett who will get his degree this June, but is already teaching.

ROADRUNNERS CLOSE HOOP SEASON WITH PAIR OF LOSSES TO POETS

State College Five, in Vain Attempt to Stop League-Leaders, Drop Tilts by 63-19 and 60-24 Scores

Flashing some of the form that has carried them to the Southern Conference championship, Verne Landreth's potent Whittier Poets soundly thrashed the last-place Roadrunners in a brace of games played over the week-end on the Flying A court, 63-19 and 60-24.

In the Friday night debacle a combination of first and second string Quakers early bounded into an ever-increasing lead, running up 10 points before Mugenberg sank a free throw to put the Davismen in the plus column. But the point was but a drop in the bucket, for the visitors continued to sweep forward in their point-making onrush, leading at the half by the overwhelming count of 30-5.

Birds-I-View

Captain Paul Hopkins closed his collegiate basketball career last Saturday night with one of his best games since donning an Olive and White uniform in the late fall of 1929. Since then he has been one of the mainsprings of the Davis-coached quintets, and he will be missed next year. All indications at present point to Elmer Lee, outstanding guard of the frosh, as Paul's successor. Hopkins never was a flashy player, but his true worth hung on his steadiness and fight.

The loss of "Pinky" Greeson is another sad blow to 1934 basketball hopes. Greeson has probably scored more points for the State college than any other player, his only rival probably being Bert Clemore, who closed his college playing in 1930. His closest successors next year will probably be Tommy Cram and Bill Russell, the latter coming up from the frosh.

It is a pretty general rule that it takes a good football team to make money. Redlands had such a team, until late in the season being one of the few undefeated teams in the country. The southern school has just reported a net gain of $500 on the grid season. However, the University lost $300 on home games, which was more than made up on away-from-home contests. Due to unsettled weather the fray with Occidental, which usually nets the Bulldogs a tidy sum, cleared only nine dollars.

What had appeared to be a close race between Tau Omega and the A-M basketball fives for the intra-mural championship has now widened to include the up-and-coming Beta Sigma Chi quintet. The Beta Sigs, off to a rather slow start, have given warning of their claim to be considered in the race by taking their last two contests, which now runs them up toward the top of the heap.

In their efforts to retain their Southern Conference basketball title, the San Diego State Aztecs have been in some pretty tight games. The border five, like the Roadrunners, have lost two games by one point; but, unlike the Roadrunners, they have been able to win two of their games by one or two points. It is in games like these that basketball becomes one of the most stirring of American sports.

Somfield, who assisted in Pomona's 113-27 track and field victory over Caltech, tossed the hammer 150 feet 3 inches to set a new conference record; the mark shatters the former mark of 152 feet 5 1/4 inches set by San Diego's Brose in 1930. For no particular reason we looked up last summer's Olympic records and found that the hammer throw was won by Dr. Pat O'Callaghan of Ireland with a heave of 176 feet 11 1/2 inches.

Redlands, it appears, will be the basketball power of the future, if the record of its frosh team is any criterion. The Bulldogs have played their five scheduled conference games and won them all, which ties them with the Roadrunner babes, who have played and won one. Here is the result of the frosh competition:

	G	W	L	Pct.
Redlands	5	5	0	1.000
Santa Barbara	1	1	0	1.000
Pomona	3	2	1	.667
Occidental	4	2	2	.500
Whittier	4	1	3	.250
Caltech	5	0	5	.000

State Baseball Team Defeated by Southerners

In a typical early season game for both teams, the Roadrunner baseball team bowed to the Redlands Bulldogs 10-4 in a game last Saturday on the southern diamond. With but one week's practice, the local men put up a strong bid for the game until the last inning, when the southerners stretched their 6-4 lead to more decisive triumph. Redlands had already played four games before meeting the Olive and White.

Don Fisher was on the mound for Santa Barbara and showed strong form for so early in the season. He fanned five men and allowed 12 scattered hits; Tom Dornan's boys collected eight wallops. With a little more improvement in the Roadrunner infield, according to Francis Manis, athletic manager, the hilltoppers will stand a fine chance of bowling over the Bulldog nine when the two teams meet here in a return game April 6.

Students Offer Aid to Ruined Colleges

(Continued from Page One) board of education officials of that city, who were scheduled to meet that afternoon in laying plans for reorganization. No definite acceptance nor rejection of the Santa Barbara offer could be made at that time. The officials were high in their praise and expressions of appreciation of Santa Barbara's consideration, and stated that future developments would likely disclose a need for assistance.

A tour of the city, with the president of the Long Beach junior college president, revealed to Trautz and MacQuiddy many of the schools in almost total ruins.

Cram Is Named Leading Netman on Tennis Team

With many practice sessions completed, both varsity and frosh tennis team rankings have been made by Coach Francis Manis. March 24 will see a match between the freshmen netters and the varsity men. The following Friday, the varsity will play the Santa Barbara high school court squad in a scheduled match.

Tommy Cram, former city men's champion and runner-up this year, will hold down the no. 1 position on the squad. Bill McDavid, last year's letterman, will fill the no. 2 position. Bruce Heltman, Ken Rister and Ralph Porter play in positions three and four and five respectively.

For the frosh, Gerard Weeshoff will take care of the no. 1 place on the team. Julio Bortolazzo, former city boy's champion, is placed by Coach Manis as no. 2. Following him are Joe Allison, no. 3, Klaas Weeshoff, no. 4, and Jimmy Lebeck, no. 5.

I. E. CLUB PLANS LUNCH

The Industrial Education Luncheon club will hold their regular meeting this week on Wednesday, instead of Thursday as previously planned, it was announced Monday by club officials. The meeting is scheduled to be held in the college cafeteria during the noon hour.

Clyde Campbell, the toastmaster for the meeting, will introduce Robert Lewis of the Art Metal shop in Santa Barbara, who will speak on iron work.

Catchers: Yale Lorden, Pete Hathaway, Elmer Lee, and Bob Lowe, outfielders.

Dornanmen Schedule 15 Diamond Contests

A total of 15 baseball games have been scheduled for the local team this season, according to Francis Manis, athletic manager. Of these six will be played on the home lot, while in the other nine, three of which are only tentative, the hilltoppers will be the visitors. The complete schedule follows:

- March 18.—Redlands, there.
- March 25.—Taft J.C., here.
- April 1.—Santa Maria J.C., here.
- April Redlands, here.
- April 8.—Occidental, there.
- April 11.—Occidental here.
- April 12.—La Verne, there (tentative)
- April 13.—Caltech, there.

- May 6.—Cal Christian, there.
- May 13.—Cal Christian, here.
- May 20.—Whittier, there (tentative)
- May 27.—Caltech, here.

S.A.K.'S WILL PICNIC

Sigma Alpha Kappa, social fraternity on the local campus, is planning a picnic on next Sunday, March 26. The gathering will be at Paradise camp, in the Santa Ynez valley, and will consist of a barbecue lunch and games. Both members and pledges, and their guests, will be present.

In the most hectic, hard fought game of the season, the Beta Sigma Chi fraternity went on a last minute scoring spree and rang up eight points to defeat the independent A-M five 32-24 last week in the college gym.

The A-M's coming back the following night, barely managed to slip a 23-20 victory on the Sigma Alpha Kappa casaba tossers. The game was a slow, listless affair.

In the first game against the Beta Sig cage artists, the A-M's, holding a 12-10 edge at half time, let down in the final period, and the yellow and black outfit hung up a lead that was never overcome. Kelliher and Mahoney were high scorers for the winners.

Goofs Win Nod Over Kaysees After Rally

Leading by only 16-11 at the half, State College Goofs took the kinks out of their attack in the second frame and romped to a 32-16 triumph over the Knights of Columbus five in a preliminary tilt at the Flying A Friday night.

Utilizing their full squad of 11 players, the collegian reserves were able to hold the whip hand over the five-man-squad Kaysee outfit.

Summary

Goofs: Davis, 4; Kelliher, 4; Bell, 8; Killian; Polley, 4; Tranberg, 8; Stuart, 1; Von Efav, 2; Moore; Homfeld, 1; Treloar, 4.

Knights: Romero, 6; De Reign, 6; Mendosa, 2; Keese, 2; Aguilar.

ILLUSION:
A large packing case is exhibited on a raised platform. A young woman climbs into the box. Head, hands and feet protrude, and are held by spectators while the magician takes a crosscut saw and, with the help of an assistant, saws through the center of the box and apparently through the woman.

EXPLANATION:
There are many explanations for this illusion. One method of performing this illusion requires the presence of two girls in the box. One girl curls up in the left half of the box with her head and hands protruding, giving the effect you see illustrated above. The other girl is doubled up in the right half of the box, with only her feet showing. Nobody is sawed in half.

It's fun to be fooled — ...it's more fun to KNOW

Cigarette advertising, too, has its tricks. Consider the illusion that "Flavor" can be achieved by some kind of magical hocus-pocus in manufacturing. EXPLANATION: Just three factors control the flavor of a cigarette. The addition of artificial flavoring. The blending of various tobaccos. And the quality of the tobaccos themselves. Quality is by far the most important. Domestic cigarette tobaccos vary in price from 5¢ a pound up to 40¢ a pound. Imported tobaccos vary from 50¢ a pound to $1.15. No wonder, then, that cigarettes differ in taste—since distinctive, pleasing flavor depends so largely upon the blending of the costlier tobaccos.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

Try Camels. Give your taste a chance to sense the subtle difference that lies in costlier tobaccos... a difference that means all the world in smoking pleasure... in pure, unalloyed satisfaction.

All-Stars Snag Win from Goof Hoopsters

Running up against outstanding stars from three local basketball teams, the Goofs were subdued by a 33-21 score in the preliminary game Saturday night on the Flying A court. Mert Miller, Bill Crow, and Elmer Lee of the college frosh Chet Myers of the Methodist Panthers, and Melio Nunez of "Skip" Winans' southern California championship finalists composed the winning five.

Myers and Crow each accounted for nine points, while Polley and Davis topped the Goof scoring with six digits apiece. The game closed the season for the college quintet.

Summary

Score by quarters:

Goofs	6	8	12	21
All-Stars	6	17	24	33

Goofs: Tranberg, 2; Burnham, 2; Bell, Davis, 6; Kelliher, 4; Moore; Homfeld, 1; Polley, 6; Von Efav. All-Stars: Myers, 9; Miller, 8; Crow, 9; Lee, 5; Nunez, 2.
