

Gauchos Quit Southern Conference

World News

• SHANGHAI, Dec. 2—A dispatch from Hangchow records five hundred dead non-combatants found in ruins of buildings destroyed by Japanese incendiary bombs. An unconfirmed report said that Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek had ordered the destruction of several bridges and mills in another section. Even though hundreds on the battlefield are being killed each day, a necessity arises to dictate the killing of innocent bystanders.

Such is war!

• MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 2—A former labor union member, Robert John Ball, claimed in an affidavit today at a mass meeting of the A.F. of L. that he was given $1000 by a former member of A. F. of L. to go to the west coast. He declares that he had no knowledge of his duties, which were to "get" leader Harry Bridges, until he reached this coast. Saying he "loved freedom" and was "going to stay free" he refused to have anything more to do with the plot. However, the warning brought a guard to the dockman in order that he too may "love freedom."

• SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2—Two youthful bandits who were arrested recently and admitted 61 hold up jobs in hotels seemed to have missed our fair city. When asked if they had stuck up Hotel Faulding, the oldest, 17 years of age, replied, "Sorry, buddy, guess we overlooked Santa Barbara enroute north. We'll get that joint when we get out of this, though."

• PEN YAN, N. Y.—The father broke his right leg when he slipped on a rug. His son came up with a similar injury to the left leg playing basketball. Their names: Harold and John Legg.

• HAMILTON, O.—Police Chief John C. Calhoun blushed when he turned in this police report to a desk sergeant:

"Car stolen, belonging to Chief Calhoun, from in front of his home."

• NEW YORK, Dec. 2—Mrs. Amanda Siebert, 57, 650 pounds, retired Coney Island side show fat lady, fell out of bed. Neighbors tugged in vain, then called police. Five huskies finally hoisted her back in bed. It was a three-quarter-hour job.

Professors Names Make News When President Phelps Has a Nightmare

• Old man Hubbard was separated from his wife, but he came home one day and said, "Mother Hubbard, what do you have to eat?" "Beans", she said, and since the prospects for dinner were pretty BARRON, the old man replied, "Let's send our daughter, Little Red Riding Hood, with her hook and line to the well and see if she can catch us some food." Mother H. frowned, but said nothing, so Father H. called out, "Little Red Riding Hood, what do you do?" "I DOOLITTLE but play all day," the little girl replied. "And that's what you are going to continue to do," cried her mother. The old man became angry, "WALKER over here, Ma, I'll handle this. Child, go to the well with your hook and line and catch me some dinner." "But" replied the daughter, "A WELLS a HARDER place to catch a fish than a POND." "Don't send her there," screamed her mother, "She's afraid of the LYONS." "I don't care," said Father H., "I'll MATHER do it." "You never gave her the right STEER," said Mother H., and began

Sports Writer Hits Harder

Coach Replies to Quizzing of All-Conference Selections

• In answer to repeated attacks by San Diego sports writers who have made several criticisms of the Gauchos, Santa Barbara State and Coach Spud Harder, Harder finally issued a statement on the objections which concerned himself personally. The question that Harder cleared was that of Santa Barbara's obtaining four of eleven men on the first-string All-Conference team.

When the Southern conference coaches turned out their selections for the all star team Frank Havens, sports writer for the San Diego Sun, became peeved and opened a lambast on State because of Peabody stadium, the Gaucho team, the all-star team and finished with the assertion that Harder had his "finger in the pie" too much during the selection.

Answering this statement Harder issued the following statement:

"Cecil Cushman, chairman of the football committee of the conference, told us that each coach should nominate his own men." Harder said. "Then we voted for a first team and a second team. The rest of the nominees were put on the honorable mention list. There were 41 men

Students Vie in Speech Contest

College Extemporaneous Speakers Perform in Pine Hall

AWARD PRIZE MONEY

List Topics for Thirty Contestants to Appear Before Judge Panels

• Campus interest for next week's activities is centered on Santa Barbara State's first all-school extemporaneous speaking contest to be staged in Pine hall, room 80, Tuesday afternoon at 3:00 p.m. and Wednesday evening at 8:00 p.m. Thirty students will compete for the male and female awards posted by Ott Hardware company and Jack Rose's Smart shop, respectively. Each prize is a ten dollar merchandise order.

The afternoon session Tuesday will consist of the preliminaries, from which eight finalists will be selected for Wednesday evening's competition. Students and townspeople are urged to attend both the preliminaries and finals, it was announced by Doug Duckham, manager of the Speakers and Entertainers bureau.

In the preliminaries, contestants will be allowed a five to ten minute time limit, while in the finals a ten to fifteen minute time limit has been set. Topics will be assigned by lot, with each student allowed to draw a second topic if the first does not appeal to him or her. This rule applies only to the prelims, for in the finals only one draw will be made. If a finalist should draw the same topic he presented in the eliminations, he must draw again. No repetition of subjects will be permitted.

The topics to be discussed promise enlightening speeches and manner in which the contest is to be staged has stirred up the interest of both students and townspeople alike and large crowds are expected for the two sessions.

Ten Subjects

Ten subjects have been chosen for the draw. They are:

- a. Can America Remain Neutral?
- b. Basic Causes of Our Labor Trouble.
- c. Will the Sino-Japanese War Affect Us?
- d. A Student Looks at Modern Marriage.
- e. Education vs. Crime.
- f. Is NYA necessary?
- g. Professionalism in College Athletics.
- h. Military Training in Our Schools.
- i. The effect of Vocational Guidance on Curricula.
- j. Is it practical to Work One's Way Through College?

Two Sets of Judges

Two panels of judges have been named to select the winners. The first panel, consisting of Mrs. Harry

Instructors Attend State Meeting

• Dr. Hazel Severy and Harrington Wells, science instructors, will attend the state science committee at Sacramento today. This is a group of instructors from the various teacher training institutions of California.

The group will decide upon curriculum for the coming year. Wells is making as his contribution the presentation of the subjects, "A Survey of Elementary Physical Science" and "Nature Study Technique." Wells is the director of the special session nature school during the summer here which last year received an enrollment of 150 students.

This is the first meeting of the group that Dr. Severy has attended.

Phelps Sends Letter of Formal Resignation

Faculty Athletic Committee States No Reason, Express Regrets; Grid Future Uncertain

• Santa Barbara State officially dropped out of the Southern California Intercollegiate athletic conference Saturday, with the sending of a former resignation by President Claerence L. Phelps to a meeting of the conference, being held at Occidental college.

Men Sign for Sea Scouts

Heads Tell Possibilities of College Recognition in New Sport

• The interest shown in the announcement of a program in Sea Scouting has exceeded the expectations of the committee appointed to canvass the campus. Late yesterday afternoon the sign-up sheet on the bulletin board showed signatures of fifty-seven men. When this news was relayed to Mr. R. F. MacFarland, Scout commissioner, he said, "You may rest assured that I will get the program in final shape at once. We have just located some motion pictures with sound of Sea Scout activities and we also have some new pictures of the recent Sea Scout rendezvous at Newport which was held last week."

Mr. J. H. Leecing, Scout Executive of Santa Barbara, after being interviewed yesterday said, "I rather thought the men of the college would recognize the value of such a program, and it is very gratifying to see how wide-spread the interest is on the college campus." Mr. Leecing also informed us that the Sea Scout ship "Alert" of Santa Barbara won a banner and obtained an excellent rating in the Newport rendezvous; while the "Musketiers" of Santa Barbara brought some several honors although they have been organized only several months. Both these ships have been captained by Tom Crawford, head of Sea Scouting in this council. Captain Crawford is scheduled as one of the speakers on the program to be given here at the college.

Russell Blanchard, chairman of the campus committee has announced that the poster will be left up in the Administration building over the weekend so that those who have not had a chance to sign up for the program may have the opportunity to do so. The date of the program will be published in the EL GAUCHO next week.

A New Idea to End All Wars Reporter Wants Prevention Despite Others

• What this country needs? . . . just ask any member of the vast army the unemployed, or any "retired" itinerant. Regardless of how they start out they all seem to end up saying that there's bound to be another world war within a few years.

Headlines, editorials, news stories, books, pamphlets, magazine articles, and many other things have been written about the possibilities of another war. So . . . just to be different why not write a story on how to prevent such a calamity. Wars in general invariably start with little insignificant occurrences such as assassinations insinuations, or confiscations usually resulting in consultations causing complications.

Commercialized warfare is often stimulated by those concerns who benefit by international feuds. By stirring up little misunderstandings between countries they usually bring Stating no reason for the action, the college faculty athletic committee expressed its regret, with a desire to maintain cordial relations with the individual member institutions. Other members of the conference include Whittier, San Diego, Redlands, La Verne and Occidental. Although the action officially takes Santa Barbara out of all conference sports, football included, it is believed that schedules already prepared in other sports will be maintained.

Santa Barbara was the youngest member joining in 1931. The letters of resignation sent to the conference were as follows: Professor A. C. La Follette, Conference Secretary, La Verne College, La Verne, California

My dear Professor La Follette: In accord with the action of our Faculty Athletic Committee in a meeting held this afternoon, I am hereby tendering the resignation of the Santa Barbara State college from the Southern Conference.

Very truly,
C. L. PHELPS, President.
To the Members of the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Gentlemen:

It is with the greatest regret that Santa Barbara State college decided to withdraw from the conference. We trust that our withdrawal from the conference will not affect unfavorably our cordial relations nor our athletic schedules with member institutions. We have established as our minimum the scholarship standards of the conference and these we shall hold to hereafter as we have in the past.

We shall be pleased to pay our share of the cost of employing the officer which the conference customarily engages to decide upon officials for games. Enclosed herewith is a check for the sum of $25.00 in payment of our dues for the current year.

Respectfully yours,
Chairman Faculty Athletic Committee.

Prevention of this thing called war has been attempted many different times in various ways. Disarmament conferences have been held, proclamations have been issued, and women's clubs have even formed peace leagues. As all this seems to do no good and countries go right on messing up their armies. It is quite evident that something certainly should be done about the whole thing.

There is only one way out of such a mess. It is the belief of many people that this way would end forever all wars. First, as armies fight wars, why not do away with the army? All

Questionnaire CAMPUS CAMERA

• In case of war would you volunteer your services, drop your college education, in order to serve your country?

DONK HART:

I'd run for a hole in the desert. In case of an invasion, I would give my services. This is the country we should protect.

P.S. The "Sea Beast" is volunteered for gun-carrying service.

ALLAN FRICK:

It would depend on circumstances. In case of attack by a foreign power, yes; to go from my home shores, NO.

KELLY HOPMANS:

Definitely not! I would gladly fight if it was a question of being invaded, but that is improbable, so I say NO!

ORVILLE MORRISON:

NO! I'm afraid I wouldn't make good cannon fodder.

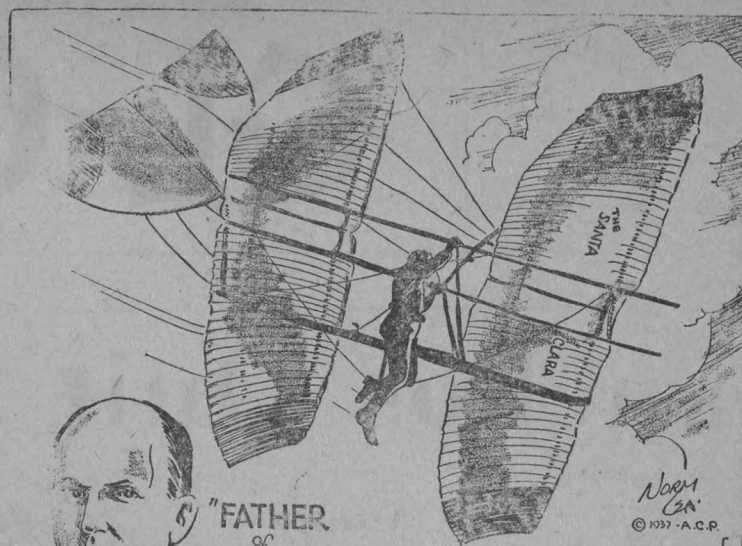

MILDRED SHUMWAY:

NO! And what woman looks forward to her men, husband or sons being destroyed, whatever the cause? CARL JORGENSEN:

In case of aggression by a foreign power I would give the best I had, although I'm afraid I wouldn't be much help.

HAM:

The hills are good enough for me. A live coward is better than a dead hero. . . . Ling Po.

Credit Due—

• On Tuesday and Wednesday evening members of the State college student body, as well as people from downtown were given the pleasure of seeing the best student dramatic production within our memories. From the selection of the play through the final curtain fall, the play was everything that could be asked as a work of this type. The play itself was concerned with types of life, which, while they might have appeared rather remotely placed from collegiate activities, were really handling certain human qualities which have universal significance.

By the word of all who attended the casting were the most appropriate possible. The gangsters, the molls, and the cops were naturally fitted to their position because they were really normal humans acting as a certain situation would have them work. Most admirable were the leads. Betty Talbott and Norman Becchio played their parts to the limit but thankfully they did not make one of the most common errors of student productions of this type. They did not overplay.

To the other persons aiding in the production should also go a good deal of the direct credit for the play's success. The college orchestra which played, aided considerably with music that was quite appropriate. Finally, and perhaps most important, to the executive staff we wish to extend the congratulations for the smooth mechanics of stagecraft exhibited throughout.

For all those who were in any way connected with the play, "Whistling in the Dark," there is the satisfaction of having taken part in the successful production of this the first play of the season of 1937-38. A top-notch play, well acted and well directed.

The Spicer

• Looks like a red-letter week-end for a dusty column of this nature. The trip to the New Mexico game has its possibilities—so has staying at home for both 'El Toro' and 'The Spicer' columnists are leaving town on the special train.

Remarks on the college play . . . One of the hostesses who poured coffee between acts, namely JEAN ANGLEMEYER, was dubbed 'The Duchess' by her assistants—ask her more about it . . . As the gang-leader, CARL JORGENSEN did all right but we can't say he was as good as he implies . . . The Player' club is a going concern this year . . . Those essential sound effects throughout the play and especially in the third act were perfectly timed by BETTY HOWELL . . . Might mention also that the wiring was all wrong in that radio and loudspeaker the last night and NORMAN BECCHIO managed to straighten it all out and keep things going.

Remember when HARRY SLOAN as a youngster often said, "To be or not to be, that is the question?" Now it sounds more like, "TIBBY or not TIBBY and it's not a question." . . . Those field trips for botany have their social attractions. Saw Jack Hart helping fair maiden inspecting the park flora near the school . . . Looks like FRED "Billy Boy" MORRISEY has put a light into the eye of MABEL FORSYTHE . . . It must be that true love by now between NELLIS RATHJEN and LEO BUTTS . . . Not quite so true DOROTHY ANN MEYERS enjoyed the college play in the company of one CHARLES STIMPSON . . . Doesn't seem out of order to suggest a scrap to end scraps be-

Markthaler Speaks on Tuberculosis

• Dr. Edward Markthaler, college physician will speak on the disease, tuberculosis, in an address in the auditorium this morning during third hour. The talk is given under the auspices of the science department. Subjects of the talk will be the death rate during the past 25 years, the symptoms of the disease, the methods of diagnosing it and its therapeutics. Special study will be made of its significance in the question of public health.

All persons are invited to the lecture. Members of the third hour class must attend.

Abrahams Vacation

• Mr. and Mrs. Byron Abraham will start a vacation of two weeks Monday. Mrs. Abraham is registrar of Santa Barbara State. While vacationing they will tour Mexico and then visit relatives in Ohio.

Yodelers Perform in First of New Assemblies

• Opening a series of assemblies by the National Assemblies company the Studer brothers presented a program of Swiss music, Tuesday morning. Included in the entertainment were dances, songs, yodels and instrumental pieces.

A short description of Switzerland with a discussion of the origination of yodeling was made by Jose who spoke in English which was strongly accented with his native tongue.

The group appearing in Swiss costume played upon the accordion, clarinet, and bass viol. Music rendered was in waltzes and folk songs of Switzerland with two American pieces.

Next assembly will be on stratosphere ballooning.

lic, held the sack LOWSLEY to her side and started back to home. Since she had no PORTER to carry it she became very tired, tripped over a rock, tore her dress and fell into a pile of NETTLES. By the time she KAIME home the DAVIS coming Mother Hubbard scoffed, "She moans to a close, and she cried out, 'I had a HILE of a time getting here. Look at my dress, and if the rash continues STEWARD, I'll put iodine on it.' SEVERY time she gets scratched. Where's the food?"

The little girl climbed on a stool (she was too short to SEHON the table) and placed some garlic in a cup. "What's the KUPFER?" asked her Mother. "Well, said the child, 'You take a BALL of twine and PIERCE each piece through the center, add enough sugar to make it SWEET, MAXWELL with mustard and FRY in a hot pan.' The father sniffed. "JONES you think that is rather OUTLAND-ish? I'd rather have a couple of HODGINS and some cold chicken." "What!" cried Ma Hubbard. The thought of Pa taking to drink again always made her CROSWELL, and in a fit of anger she threw the butcher knife at him, but missed and killed poor L.R.R.H. They called in the PRIEST who asked the LEONARD BISHOP to say the BENEDICT-ion. After the service Ma said, "It was your fault." Pa replied "WILLITS call it quits and get a divorce." I've BEN-NINK-ing the same thing," said Mother Hubbard. And thus another chapter was written on the SANDS of time.

NEW IDEA WILL END ALL WARS

these men could be put to work at something constructive like the WPA. This organization could be called the RAM or retired army men. The only military group that should be retained is the police force. It would seem a little too much to do away with this group as who would attend to the disciplining of high school Barney Oldfield understudies.

On the other hand, if there were too many objections to this total demolition of the army perhaps a little milder method would be just as effective. Everybody has heard of the sad occurrence of the battlefield with only three trees and four generals. Why not have all battlefields without any trees at all. Generals not having any trees to hide behind would not be able to carry on with the war, therefore bringing the intended fracas to a quick and pleasant end without hurting anybody.

One of the best war-preventers was abandoned when duelling was ostracized. In the good old days when two higher-ups of separate countries got into a mixup over a blonde they battled it out at forty paces. Today when a similar thing occurs they call out their armies and consume lots of bi-carbonate. Just think how much bother it would save if emperor So-and-So of one country and Generalissimo What's-his-name from another could spend a few hours tossing cold steel at one another instead of laying waste to the surrounding countryside with their armies and blowing up all the cities within hundreds of miles. This practice would save thousands of lives, billions of dollars, and lots and lots of printing ink, and also people wouldn't have to wade through these ever-present war prophecies . . . besides all this, the boys fighting the duels never get hurt anyway.

Statements

Second Guess

By BOB BURT

By the time this article is read our football team, plus several "more fortunate" students, will be in the midst of Arizona's sagebrush and cactus, without a care in the world. 1000 miles is a long distance to travel just to see a football game, but to most of the followers the game is a minor factor. The contest should be a very close one, as the two teams will enter the field on even better terms.

Santa Barbara will have a two-fold advantage if they win. First, the team wants to prove to the student body that they aren't as bad as the score of the San Diego game indicated. Second, a victory would give the Gauchos added prestige in the vicinity of El Paso. At any rate, the Hardermen will put up a stiff fight to come out on the long end of the score.

Detroit Winner

The University of Detroit rolled up the most points among the major teams this year with a total of 253 in 10 games, for an average of about 25 points a game. However, "Whizzer White university" (Colorado) in eight games, piled up 248, for an average of 31 points per game, White made 13 points a game, totaling 122.

In another close race Caltech was nosed out by La Verne for the least points scored. La Verne pushed over 20 points while Caltech registered 26. The Leopards won none and lost nine this season and if the boys don't watch out, they will have Knox's all-time losing record in their possession.

Schuttemen Seek Title

Santa Barbara may own one championship team this year, despite San Diego's victory over the Gauchos. The local high school eleven invades Santa Ana tomorrow in the C.I.F. semi-finals. The Saints, upset winners over Long Beach Poly, are not too strong, and if Schutte's boys don't get "buck fever" they should play the winner of the El Monte-Glendale game next week for the title.

Wanted—A Winner

Some drastic steps should be taken to get a winning football team in Southern California. U.S.C. lost three league games, tied two and won only one. U.C.L.A. lost four, tied one and defeated Oregon for their lone victory. To add insult to injury, Loyola set up an all-time losing streak for the school by dropping seven games.

U.C.L.A. and the Trojans, instead of battling for the cellar position, should be staging a championship game. The two schools have an abundance of material so there is no legitimate excuse for such disastrous seasons. Perhaps next year will be a different story, at least the Southern California fans have high hopes.

John Hopkins university charges no admission prices for their home football games.

The United States certainly has its share of bowls now. Rose Bowl, Sugar Bowl, Cotton Bowl, Sun Bowl and Orange Bowl. Nevertheless, the other sections of the country haven't anything on Santa Barbara, because the Gauchos are playing Willamette in the annual "Wash Bowl" game on Christmas day.

Clair "Just Call Me Two-Ton" Busby denied all reports that he would be "rolled" into El Paso. He told the press that he was regaining his long lost girlish figure. Regardless of his weight, Busby is one sweet baseball player and should have a great year on the diamond this season.

In the event you are interested in attending the Rose Bowl game, secure your tickets early because the huge California alumni has a monopoly on ducats. The Bears should turn Alabama back but anything can happen in this season of upsets.

Eddie Miller

Greater than Heineman—that is what they say about this man in the Southwest. Eddie Miller, quarterback for the Aggies, can punt with either foot or pass with either hand. He is a more deceptive runner than Lem Pratt who ran away from the Staters last year. He can block without a flaw. Besides he can call plays as no other quarter on State's schedule.

Oldershaw Receives High Mention on Mythical Team

With selection of the All-Coast grid squad came fresh honors to Doug Oldershaw. Doug received mention on the squad that was picked yesterday by the Associated Press as the 13th selection of its type. The squad is selected annually by coast journalists.

Oldershaw was named on the group of honorable mention. Placing with Oldershaw from the Southern California conference was Herb Ward of San Diego. From Willamette, the Christmas day opponent, Weisgerber and Becken were also mentioned.

Already this season Oldershaw has been given considerable mention. Admired by Jimmy Phelan he received publicity in the Northwest. He was honored by Collyer's by placement on the little All-American first team.

Aggies Oppose State in New Mexico

Gauchos Meet Tough Combinations in Game with Intersectional Opponent Tomorrow Afternoon

The team that beat Texas Mines 14-0.

As the final game of the season's schedule these words drop from the dope bucket. Santa Barbara is traveling a thousand miles to meet a team that by all estimates is the equal of the Green-clad men of State. The New Mexico Aggies, participant in the first Christmas Day game, will place a stronger team than they had last year while the Gauchos are back with the same.

Willamette Plays in Christmas Grid Game

Santa Barbara State versus Willamette university will be the entertainment for Santa Brbara football fans on Christmas day according to Coach Spud Harder, director of athletics. The northern college is located in Salem, Oregon where the university has captured the Pacific Northwest conference this year.

Stars of the Willamette team are their guard and fullback. These men, Elliot Becken and Weisgerber, made the Little All-America squad. This brings the two first-string guards Oldershaw and Becken face-to-face while Yeager and Weisgerber will compete in opposing backfields.

One interesting comparison is the Nevada game that each team played. State beat Nevada, 20-7, while Willamette won 41-7. However Willamette beat Whittier only 13-6 while Santa Barbara beat them, 20-0.

Vital spots in the two teams will be tried to the limit as the opponents size up each other. For Santa Barbara the focal points will be Yeager, Frisholtz and Monson. The New Mexican attack is led by Wood, Miller and Yurcic.

Coach Jerry Hines has a system that seems to evade a good deal of explanation. He can throw a hard-plunging back into either side of the line. Passing will be done nearly as well as by Ken Heineman. The ends can hold on to the ball.

Miller Kicks

One of the interesting points is Miller's kicking ability, as he can kick with either foot and is dangerous when kicking at coffin corner. When he wants distance he can place the ball sixty yards away. If the State safety does not play deep enough he will find himself in great difficulty.

Malcolm, left end, is the best pass catcher and even against San Diego he made trouble. He has good points in his height and power of balance. At the other end is another pass catcher who plays a defensive game as well as Mulock.

Gnome Club Makes Arrangements for Formal

Members of the Gnome club, college social organization, are preparing for their annual Christmas formal to be held at the Miramar hotel, Saturday, December 4, from 9:30 until 12:30 o'clock in the evening.

Ray Cormack and his orchestra will furnish music for the dancers. Refreshments will be served by the group throughout the evening.

Sponsors for the event will be Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth, Mr and Mrs. Frederic Hile, and Mr. and Mrs. Gene Campbell.

During past years only members of the organization and their guests have been invited to the event. This year a new precedent is being established in that the entire student body will be able to obtain bids to the formal. These bids are being sold for $1.75 and may be obtained from Evelyn Brannan, who is in charge of the bids committee, or from any Gnome club member.

Esther Carter, president of the group, is in general charge of the arrangements, aided by the members of the club.

Monday evening at 9:30 o'clock at the Miramar hotel members of the Gnome club will be hostesses to guests invited from the entire student body. Heretofore invitations have been limited, but this year any member of the student body may obtain a bid for the formal from any member of the organization. Bids are being sold for $1.75.

Sorority Rehearses for Musicale

Last Tuesday night members of the Tau Gamma Sigma held a rehearsal for the musicale at the home of Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, sponsor.

The date of the musicale has been changed from December 12 to Sunday evening, January 9. It is to be given in the lounge of the Biltmore hotel in Montecito. Mr. Henry Eichem, noted conductor and composer, will be guest artist at the affair.

Those present at the meeting were: Blanche Hillman, Jean McArthur, Lyndell Brundidge, Jean McPheeters, Charlotte Naess, Dorothy and Marguarite Hanson, Anna Sundin, Frances Hoelscher, Louise Jackson, Betty Ravey, Dorothea Ken, Thelma Fent, Marlyn Jameson, Ruth Angwin, Bobbie Ellis, Mercedes Keating, Margaret Eaton and Anita Priest.

Junior High Dept. Schedules Event

A Christmas party and dancing will follow the monthly meeting of the Junior High department Tuesday evening in El Gaucho clubroom, which will be supplemented with a short program.

Gifts of canned food, groceries, toys, household goods, or clothing may be brought and deposited at the door, as several needy families have been contacted.

Miss Elsie Pond, head of the department is in general charge of the party and Hilbert Holoubek, president, will conduct the meeting.

In addition to the evening meeting and party, department members will meet with the English department second hour Tuesday to enjoy a demonstration of "Buddy," the wonder dog, and a program by the Rancho Grande Troubadores.

HISTORY STUDENTS SELECT LEADER

Members of the history department will meet in Room 44 Tuesday morning during second hour to name a permanent president for the year, and to choose a faculty sponsor from the department.

All history and social science majors are expected to attend the meeting at which a program for the group will be discussed. Other officers will be selected. Margaret Wilson is acting as temporary chairman for the history majors.

Social Committee Makes Plans for Annual Christmas Formal

Doug Hoag's Orchestra Plays for Event, Intermission Features Students

The annual Christmas formal, arranged by the social committee for the entire student body, will be presented Saturday evening, December 11, at Rockwood from 9:00 o'clock until 12:00 o'clock. Blue and silver has been chosen for the decoration color and the Christmas theme will be carried out in a huge tree and in the use of large poinsettias banking the stage. The programs will be done in blue and silver as will the tree.

Music for the affair will be furnished by Doug Hoag and his ten-piece orchestra. During the intermission a program of student talent has been arranged by the social committee.

Formal dress will be in order for the affair, with evening dress for the women and either tuxedos or dark suits for men.

Several members of the faculty have been asked to act as sponsors for the event. Included among these are, President and Mrs. Phelps, Dr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth, Captain and Mrs. Paul Jones, Dean Lois Bennink, and Dr. George Outland.

Included in the social committee which is making arrangements for the affair, headed by Billie McKenzie, are, Dean Lois Bennink, Ann Seymour, Lyndell Brundige, Nat Hales, and Harry Sloan.

Invitations for off-campus guests may be obtained through the office of Dean Bennink. Each guest must be accompanied by a State student in order to be admitted. Students wishing these invitations are urged to sign up at an early date.

Journalistic Group Takes in Eight New Pledges

Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity, meeting at the home of Leona Rasmussen, 311 Encinal avenue, Wednesday night, formally pledged eight new members. Those pledged included Betty Nurdyke, Helen Longawa, Christina MacKellar, Jimmie Stanley, Bob Williams, Frank Douglas, Alfredo Chavez, and C. Laurence Smith, news editor of the News-Press.

With Petie McKinney, president, as the presiding officer, the journalists voted to handle a special issue of El Gaucho in the spring. Three other eligible students, Francis Becchio, Waldo Phelps and Christine McDonald, will be taken into the fraternity following Christmas vacation. Announcement of the semi-annual journalism day of the Southern California Collegiate Press association at Pomona college on December 10 was made.

Senior Officers Entertained

Members of the senior gift committee and officers of the class were tea guests of Mrs. Eunice McLennin of Montecito Tuesday afternoon at her home. Mrs. McLennin is a prominent Santa Barbara artist.

Those enjoying the visit and viewing the work of the artist included Rena Sacconaghi, Renata Maccianti, Esther Carter, Ann Seymour, Leona Rasmussen, Helen Sweet, Jane Miller Abraham, Ronald Cray, Ed Cole, Fred Lambourne, and Tom Lindquist.

Betty Howell Fetes Play Cast at Party

Members of the cast of "Whistling in the Dark" were guests of Betty Howell, member of the staff and her parents at her home on 157 Cheltenham road after the last performance of the production. The cast and staff were served refreshments and danced until 12:00 o'clock.

Sponsors for the affair were Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth, Dr. and Mrs. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Hile, Mr. and Mrs. Howell, and Mrs. Talbott.

Guests attending were Betsy Talbott, Florence Ahlman, Kathleen Macleish, Caroline Smith, Phyllis Roberts, Anna Lou Jacobs, Aline Woodard, James Lyons, Lloyd Bortelmann, Richard Kintzell, Carl Jorgenson, Paul Williams, Stuart Elder, Norman Becchio, Charles Bowen, Bill Howsman, Douglas Duckham, Lewis Moore, Dave Westcott, Bob Williams, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hart.

nominated. San Diego nominated 11, Santa Barbara nine, Occidental six, La Verne six, Redlands five and Whittier four. With the exception of La Verne, this follows the conference standings closely. So, it was San Diego, and not myself, which nominated an entire team. The records will bear me out.

"This statement that I overlooked Ward is also in error. The fact is that my first vote went to Busby (Gaucho tackle) and Ward. Then, after Ward and Claxton of Whittier had been elected to the first team, I voted for Busby and Brickley of La Verne for the second team."
