SUMMER SESSION

June 30, 1960

GOLETA, CALIFORNIA

SURF AND SUP

The summer school beach party and barbeque is coming up on Thursday, July 7 at 4:30 p.m. at the University beach. There is no charge for campus residents and only $1 per person for non-campus residents. The deadline for picking up tickets is Tuesday noon, July 5 in the Graduate Manager's Office. Plan to arrive early for swimming, a stroll or a game of volleyball.

UCSB TO OFFER M.A. IN APPLIED MATH

A new graduate program leading to the M.A. in applied mathematics will begin this fall at UCSB. Applications for admission are now being accepted by the Registrar. The final date for filing for the fall semester is July 15. Those interested in pursuing advanced work in this field who hold a bachelor's degree in mathematics, physics, engineering, or can present evidence of equivalent training are invited to seek entrance into this program. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Department of Mathematics on campus. The Registrar's office will provide general information and catalogues.

CAR POOLS

The Summer Session Office (Building 404, Room 115) phone 7-5611, ext. 2275, will coordinate car pools during the summer session.

There is an urgent need for rides in the Gaviota and Ventura areas. Any persons who can provide cars or need rides from this or other areas are urged to contact the Summer Session Office.

ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT AVAILABLE

Athletic equipment is available for use all week and also on weekends. Check out place is Robertson Gymnasium. For weekend use equipment must be checked out by 4 p.m., Friday and returned early Monday morning. This is an excellent way to make use of University sports facilities.

IRISH WRITER TO LECTURE

Dr. Vivian H. S. Mercier, noted Irish scholar and writer, will give the second talk in the Summer University Lecture Series next Tuesday (July 5) at 3 p.m. in the Classroom Building Lecture Hall. Dr. Mercier's subject will be "Romanticism and Revolution?"

Born in Dublin, Ireland, the visiting lecturer was educated at Trinity College there, receiving his Ph.D. in 1945. He has edited and contributed to a number of books and published numerous articles and reviews in professional journals in the U.S., Ireland, and England. Dr. Mercier holds the rank of Professor of English at the City College of New York. He is on the faculty at UC, Berkeley this summer. Tuesday's lecture is open to the public free of charge.

SPECIAL LECTURE

Professor P. T. Raju, University Professor of Philosophy at the University of Arjputana, Jodhpur, India, will give a special lecture on Thursday, July 7 at 3 p.m. in the Classroom Building Lecture Hall. His subject will be "Certain Comparisons between Contemporary Hindu and Western Philosophies."

WHAT HAPPENED TO THE BOOKSTORE?

The Bookstore will re-open on Friday, July 1. It is necessary to conduct an inventory at this time of year and to do this the store must close its doors. Service will continue uninterrupted through summer school.

CHANCELLOR AT NATIONAL MEETING

Dr. Samuel B. Gould, Chancellor, is in Boulder, Colorado this week to attend a meeting of the Problems and Policy Commission of the American Council on Education. He is chairman of the Commission on Instruction and Evaluation for the Council.

BE SURE AND WEAR TENNIS SHOES. A good turnout is needed to insure continuation of these fun nights, so be sure and join in the activities.

* Summer students and all new people parking on campus are requested to display the proper parking permit on their vehicle windshields. This sticker is obtainable through the Police Department Office on campus (Building 427, Room 202) for $1. Also, be sure you observe all parking and traffic regulations.

* Any regular session students who have not picked up their Yearbook (La Cumbre) may do so in the Graduate Manager's Office.

* Students who wish to change their study programs after filing their study lists must file a petition with the Registrar's Office by Friday, July 1.

SUMMER SPORTS FESTIVAL

Thousands of visitors will be in Santa Barbara this week-end for the annual Summer Sports Festival. Competition in scores of sports from golf to lawn bowling will occupy most of the visitors. A full schedule of water sports and a horse show are among the main attractions.

You can't shoot your own fireworks, but a fine display will be offered on the evening of the 4th at La Playa Stadium, sponsored by the Firemen's Relief Association. Watch the News Press for details on your favorite sport.

And don't forget - no classes on Monday!

LECTURES ON FM RADIO

Those who are unable to attend university lectures this summer may hear a taped FM broadcast of these talks which will be carried on Saturdays at 8:05 p.m. over station KRCW. The Audio-Visual Department of the campus library also holds tapes of these lectures which may be used in the library.
