Meet Me at Mimi's This Morning!

There's nothing like going to breakfast after a crazy night downtown. So Saturday morning I went frantically searching for a cafe to have breakfast.

I discovered this cool little place smack-dab in the middle of Calle Real in Goleta. It reminded me of a cool little breakfast cafe in Manhattan Beach. However, this is only a hop, skip and a jump from Isla Vista. Plus, it opens early for all of you early birds in I.V. So meet me at Mimi's ...

Mimi's is located across the street from Arby's on Calle Real. Despite its hidden locale it is pretty popular. The ambiance was very friendly and welcoming despite its popularity. Considering this when I walked in, I assumed I'd shell out bucks (enough to pay for three weeks of Top Ramen) for breakfast.

Surprisingly enough, I only spent five, and discovered that the average price for a complete breakfast was about that.

For this minuscule amount of cash, there was a huge selection on the menu. Since they had so much to choose from, it took me days to figure out what I wanted, and unfortunately by that time, it was around lunchtime. So I noticed their huge selection of sandwiches to choose from: cold, hot, deli or grilled. They also had many a salad to choose from. But I still wanted breakfast. So I was faced with the Saturday morning hangover dilemma: breakfast or lunch for lunch? My problem was easily solved, they serve breakfast all day. So my friend and I ordered breakfast.

I had the Anaheim Scramble. This is three eggs scrambled with an Anaheim pepper, red onion and jack cheese, accompanied with fruit and Mimi's famous "spuds," all for $4.95. Yummy yummy for the tummy! All I can say is that it cured my Saturday morning blahs.

My friend had the Cajun Omelette, and for $4.95 this was an unbelievable amount of food. This omelette is layered with cajun-spiced chicken (so tender, it melts in your mouth), cheddar cheese and red onion. This too is accompanied with a fruit garnish and Mimi's famous "spuds."

Grads, if you haven't found a caterer for your graduation party yet, they do that, too. Just call with your order by 2 p.m. the day before. Calling early guarantees that you can get exactly what you want.

Mimi's International Cafe & Deli is located at 5674 Calle Real in Goleta. Call 683-2392 for more information.

A Lyrical Approach to an I.V. Lunch — at Maikai Cafe!

*If I had been on top of it all, like a butterfly on a volleyball,
I would have gone shopping and filled my shelf, so I could eat and fill myself.
But I had not, my pantry was bare, my stomach was neither here nor there,
But certainly hungry, and so then I say, "It's time to go to Maikai Cafe!"
A bevy of grub from burgers to noodles, are offered there, so much, there's oodles!
Burritos, stir fry, sandwiches, rice bowls; beef, chicken, veggies, our souls!
Have you ever heard of such a selection? So many foods they need their own section,
On the famous Maikai menu board, which I worship like the overlord.
And eating there is such a treat, I hardly notice what I eat.
It's all so good, I can't decide, what dish is best, and so I ride,
To Maikai Cafe almost every day, on the way or after pay,
From my work, where I spend my time
Too much each day, and so I rhyme.
But as long as I have food from Maikai Cafe, taken to go I will be OK.
It really is joyful when munching some sustenance,
from my favorite eatery of circumstance;
You see, I do not own a car, so when I eat I can't go too far,
Away from my home in Vista de Isla, but you don't need to leave, I tell ya,
Because Maikai Cafe is right here, in the center of town so have no fear,
You can dine in style and in grace without even leaving this wonderful place
I call my home, and love it so, despite the trash and CSO.
I eat there often and I eat there well, away from these places with service from hell.
So head to Maikai as soon as you can, you know that I am its greatest fan.
But if you don't, you will miss a great thing, your rep as a fool will cross the town ring.
But if you do go there, you will surely see me, and together we'll eat, enveloped in glee!*

Maikai Cafe is located at 888 Embarcadero del Norte in Isla Vista. Call 562-8484 for more information.
