Election Committee Cites A. S. Campaign Rules

Directing the election of Associated Student officers, Vice-president HOWARD CLAPP releases official regulations for the forthcoming campaign.

College, '1975' Cast Begins Daily Practice

"College in 1975" will be the theme of 1942 Roadrunner Revue when the annual production opens to the public on May 13, 14 and 15, according to director-script author, George Blumenson. The plot is woven around the allotment of a dirth of men to women colleges according to a quota.

With a large cast of Gauchos in action, the rehearsals are moving in full swing under the faculty direction of Maurice Faulkner of the music department. Other directors include: Dr. Albert O. Mitchell, dramatic director; Walter Cheever, art adviser and Miss Margaret DeHaan, dance adviser. Gerry Cockins, Orchesis member, is student dance director and Bobby Clark speech major, is the technical director.

Original music for the revue was written by Blumenson, Bill Marvel, Cal Estes, Edith Van Meter and Lewis Paul. There is still room for a comedy specialty act, according to Blumenson, and students who can answer the need are urged to see him.

Proficiency

Jacobs Lists Exam Thursday

All upper level sophomores, juniors and seniors who have not yet taken the proficiency examination and who expect to teach are notified of the scheduling of that examination next Thursday afternoon, 3 to 6, in the auditorium. No students desiring to take make-up examinations will be admitted at this time, Dean Charles Jacobs, who issued the invitation, announced.

In an effort to clarify many of the problems which surround student voting and campaigning, council members of the committee on elections this week released rules for the forthcoming A.S. elections at which time students will be asked to select campus leaders.

First official notice of the approaching campaign came last Thursday night at vice-president Howard Clapp, who is to supervise the elections, announced that petitions for the various student legislative posts were available.

ELECTION RULES

1. Expenditures are limited to $12. No donations allowed except labor. This labor exemption does not include printing labor. If any paper or other material is given to the candidate it must be included on the account at the price which would have been paid had the person purchased the material.

2. A complete itemized account is due to the student body office by Wednesday, April 29.

3. All petitions must be signed and returned to the student body office by Wednesday, April 29.

4. Permission to use the Quad to hold campaign rallies or other functions must be secured from Dean of Women's office.

5. Nothing is to be nailed to trees or buildings.

ASSEMBLY

A special student body nominations assembly will be held Tuesday fourth hour in auditorium at which time candidates will be presented to the students. Speeches will be recognized from the aspirants for the offices of A.S. president, vice-president, secretary and yell leader and their nominators.

According to last night's report, three candidates had taken out petitions for the office of A.S. president including George Blumenson, John Falxa and Dick O'Brien. Other candidates are Alan MacDonald and Ruthe Suggs, vice-president; Gerry Cockins and Dorsey Stewart, secretary; Louise Brownlee, Bill Cohee, Kate Sandfelder, sophomore class representatives; and Bob Hart, junior representative. As yet no students have filed for senior representative or head yell leader.

Redoglia Leads Associated Men

By a majority ratio of nearly 2 to 1, Harry Redoglia this week swept into the presidential chair of Associated Men Students for the 1942-43 term. Defeated candidate in the final tally which was conducted on Friday at the Mesa campus and Monday at the Riviera, is Cliff Graybehl. Two hundred nineteen votes were cast in the combined poll, according to the records of Dean Russell Buchanan.

Serving under Redoglia for next year will be Bill Leveille, first vice-president; Vince Jacobsmeyer, second vice-president; Joe Nunez, secretary-treasurer and Norman Stow, social chairman, who were placed in office in the preliminaries.

Scientists Collect Botanical Specimens

Under the direction of Dr. C. D. Woodhouse, assistant professor of science, 35 members of the science department treked into Oso canyon Sunday to collect botanical specimens. Accompanying the expedition were several experts from the Santa Barbara museum of Natural History.

Fourth Estate Plays Host To Journalists

High school journalists from the Tri-Counties will meet on the Santa Barbara State college campus on Tuesday for the annual Fourth Estate high school journalism day.

Approximately 75 delegates will attend the confab, according to Ed Grade, president of the social journalism society. "Propaganda and the Press" is the theme of the meeting.

Activities will get underway at 10 a.m. when the high school students and their advisers register in the Quad on the Riviera campus. Scheduled to begin at 11 a.m. in room 80 of Pine hall is a general assembly at which guest speaker will be Attle Pierce, city editor of the Santa Barbara News Press. Clarence L. Phelps, college president, and Howard Eckles, student body president, will welcome the high school representatives.

Writing contests will be held in the Riviera auditorium at 11:45. Each convention will enter one of four contests—feature, editorial, sports and news.

VARIETY PROGRAM

Luncheon will be held in the cafeteria at 1 p.m., followed by a variety program. On the program is Lura McMillan, with a comic reading, and Connie Evans, presenting a dance routine.

At 2 p.m. panel discussions will be held on the Riviera campus, at which time delegates will receive practical knowledge in the fields of journalism.

Delegates will travel to the Mesa campus at 3 p.m. for a tour of the new print shop.

JUDGING PAPERS

Each attending school has entered a copy of its newspaper, which will be judged with other tri-county school publications. An honor award will be given to the best all-around newspaper.

Convention activities will come to a close with a meeting in the Mesa campus auditorium at 3:30. At this time results of the newspaper and the writing contests will be announced.

General chairman for the convention is Grade, with Miss Pound and Miss Suggs in charge of panel discussions; Miss Stewart and Osborne, correspondence; Jean Davis, Joan Newcombe, Gerry Cockins and Helen Morrison, registration; Margaret Cook, luncheon; Virginia Coury, entertainment.

Debaters Set Intramurals

Under the guidance of W. Charles Redding, director of forensics, preliminary contests for the fourth annual intramural oratory contest are slated for Tuesday afternoon, May 12 at 4:30 in room 25 in the speech division.

Anyone interested in speaking will be eligible, except varsity orators and previous winners, providing they are carrying 12 or more units of work for the current semester.

Information, rules and registration blanks may be obtained in Redding's office any time from next week to the date of the first round. Tentative date for the final round is May 14.

A gold cup will be presented to the winner of the final round by the Associated Students. Previous winners have been Robert Scalapino, Jack Thompson and Richard Sneed.

Shakespeare Scenes Open Two-Night Run In College Theater

By EDITH VAN METER

Opening a two-night run, "Celebrated Scenes from Shakespeare" played to a sparse but appreciative audience last night in the college auditorium.

Georgia Mae Krebs as Lady MacBeth gave an excellent performance, and John Lindholtz in the role of MacBeth, David Brady as Seyton, Pat Craig, Monica Fell and Janice Speer as the witches, and Stanley G. Johnson as Lenox added much to the quartet of scenes from "MacBeth".

The second excerpt, "Romeo and Juliet" was made impressive by Sue Knott as Juliet, Robert Clark as Romeo, Lura MacMillan as the nurse and Vera Ashby-Miller as Lady Capulet.

The grave digger scene from "Hamlet" in modern dress was cleverly done with Jack Hickock as Hamlet, Lindholtz as Horatio, and Malcom MacCabe as the second gravedigger.

The two scenes from "As You Like It", riotous in comic content, were outstanding with Hickock as William, Paul Kliss as Touchstone, and Marjorie French as Audrey in three cleverly interpreted characterizations.

A fitting end to the series of scenes was the artisans play from "Midsummer Night's Dream". Pierce Ommanney as Bottom and David Brady as Flute supported their comic lines with well chosen, and excellently acted antics. Frank Fraine as Quince set the atmosphere for the play within.

Epilogue from "The Taming of the Shrew" and "As You Like It" was given by thelma Rygh as a climax to the series of scenes.

Expert traditionalizing by Fredric W. Hile, director, deserves much credit for the success of the production.

Phi Delta Pi Fetes Officer

Active and alumnae members of Phi Delta Pi, national honorary fraternity for women physical educators, today will meet Miss Bernice Moss, national vice-president of the organization. Miss Moss is visiting Santa Barbara from Stanford university, where she is taking graduate work.

This morning she will confer with Miss Lois M. Bennink, dean of women, and Miss Elizabeth Sehon, head of the women's physical education department.

Students Desire Honor System

Students of Santa Barbara State college Wednesday, by a vote of 277 to 133, declared their desire for the installation of a code of honor. Ballots were distributed in morning classes and returned to the student body office late Wednesday, according to President Howard Eckles who heads the committee.

Two suggestions were offered on the ballot, that of a proctoring and of self-honor. The latter plan will go into effect almost immediately, it was understood. The committee is scheduled to meet Tuesday afternoon to formulate workable details of the system. Faculty members will be urged to cooperate with those

Puppy Love

Gauchos Don Kid Attire

History will repeat itself when baby-clad Gauchos re-live their puppy love days in the little schoolroom at Junipero Serra hall tonight from 9 to 12 p.m.

Garbed in their schoolboy outfits, Bob Foxen and his orchestra will provide the strains of music which will send couples into rhythmic response, according to Sophomore chairman Dorothy Hopper. Games, typical of the growing youngster, will spring into existence at the wills of the pupils.

Assisting Miss Hopper on Puppy Love prom preparations are June Evans, Elnita de la Cuesta, Betty Smiley, Frances Bedford and Jack Hayner. Louise Brownlee, social chairman of the freshman class, is working with Miss Hopper.

Class sponsor Miss Jane Christopher and Dean and Mrs. Russell Buchanan will attend. General admission is 25 cents per couple; lower classmen will be admitted for 15 cents per couple on presentation of their class cards.

Council OK's Two Benefits

With considerable manipulation of parliamentary procedure, the executive council last night entertained motions which gave sanction to two benefit projects to be started on campus during the month of May.

First action of the legislators was upon the appeal of Burke Adams, president of Blue Key, national service fraternity, who asked council support of his organization's Beef week, May 3-8.

In addition, the councilmen approved the setting up of a Defense Stamp week, May 19-26. Under the plans presented by Wayne Mills, a contest will be held during the week with a $25 defense bond being setup as a prize for the faction selling the most stamps.

Named for the committee to supervise this project were Jerry Motto, chairman, Art Chauvel, Burke Adams, Dick O'Brien, John Falxa Barbara McKimming, Howard Eckles and Jean U'Ren.

Voters Consider Difficulties Facing Wartime Legislature

Next Friday Santa Barbara collegians go to the polls to pick those of their fellow students who will represent them on the student council during next year. No cinch jobs these, either the voting or the jobs. The students elected will have to spend your money—the $10 fee which you pay each semester—and make policies governing you.

Doubtless, everyone has a friend running for office, but this should not qualify a person for office—merely being a friend. The student elected always has a difficult task. This coming year the job will be twice as hard as it has been in the past. Student funds are drastically curtailed—certain activities will, of necessity, be cut out of the budget.

Those persons elected to office will have to be level-headed, conscientious workers. They must have knowledge of the workings of the Associated Students and they must be willing to give up a goodly amount of their time toward furthering the Associated Students.

This is the democratic way, the way we are fighting to preserve. There are any number of candidates running for one office, and none of these candidates are stepping on the toes of any of the other candidates. They are making every effort to keep this a clean election, to keep the reputations of all concerned. No mud-slinging campaign this.

This is the democratic way, the way we are fighting to preserve. Students will go to the polls and vote for the person, who, to their way of thinking, is the best man for the job. And when these men and women are elected, the election is over and done with.

This is the democratic way, the way we are fighting to preserve. Before going to the polls next week, examine well the capabilities and possibilities of all candidates. Look them over before you vote—this is one way in which you may be sure that the best man is gaining office—this is one way you may assist to see that the democratic way of life is preserved.

Students Direct Attention Toward Cancer Control Week

Each day in the United States 396 people die of cancer insidious disease of slow growth and dreadful pain. More people have died from cancer in the past 15 years than from either war or traffic accident. During this period there have been 2,250,000 cancer deaths, 244,357 war deaths and 441,912 traffic deaths.

On Santa Barbara State college campus, Monday will mark the opening of Cancer week with a special assembly scheduled for third hour Wednesday. Speaker for the auditorium program will be Dr. Henry Jackson Ullman, member of the local executive committee of the American Society for the Control of Cancer. Also slated for Wednesday are two motion pictures concerning the malady to be shown in room 80 during second, fourth and fifth hours. Newest of the films is "Enemy X," a 1942 production.

According to Dr. Helen Sweet, of the main reasons for the extremely high rate of cancer mortality is that it is not evident until the more advanced stages. Cancer if discovered during its early development, could be easily checked by radium, X-ray or surgery, but the disease works slowly in permeating tissues and often it is too late when the patient becomes aware of the trouble. Especially hard to eradicate is the internal type of cancer which spreads to other tissues rapidly and makes an effective cure impossible.

Dr. Sweet stressed the importance of education in combating the disease and cited the National Cancer Control act of 1938 which, passed unanimously by Congress, provides funds for research and training in the field of effective cancer control. In 1936 the Women's Field army was organized by the American Society for the Control of Cancer. National in scope, this corps serves to reduce cancer mortality by means of effective education.

Much Ado . .

By GEORGE BLUMENSON

We're having visiting firemen on our campus next week. All the little high school kiddies who work on school papers are coming over here to see how we do it. (Frankly, I often wonder myself.) But seriously, we are playing host to the representatives of the tri-county high school journalistic endeavors. The kids want to see just how they do it in the big leagues . . . So?

Handsome Harry Stewart, former El Gaucho writer and editorial manager, is now attending UCLA, where he is embroiled in the political scene. Stewart is campaign manager for the non-org candidate, Tommy Papich, who was student body president of LACC in the fall of 1937. Harry, incidentally, was student body prexy of that same institution in the spring of 1940. Stewart, we hear, has been making all the campaign speeches in the sorority houses. Nice idea, both for Harry and for the women.

Lots and lots of people have been taking the pledge after last Tuesday's assembly, during which Dr. Nuzum gave his lecture, complete with illustrated organs, on the evils of alcohol. But one of our friends, a moderate drinker, turned up Tuesday night three sheets to the wind. The lecture had unnerved him so, he stated, that he found it necessary to head down to the nearest bar and have some refreshment.

Joking aside, the doctor had some very real material to offer. On the ball.

The worm's turned—on Cliff Kopitske. The pledges to whom he had been administering a slight touch of hell during their pledgship finally turned on him after their initiation and kidnapped him from the Gaucho club, took him up the coast, and proceeded to shave one side of his head. Kopit, clever as usual, had the rest of his head shaved, put on a rooter's cap, and is keeping himself in coke money by charging a nickle to view the atrocity.

Suggs-estions

Cynicism, an infestive germ of bad origin and deplorable effect, was evident in the replies to the Honor System poll taken last Wednesday. Incredulity that such idealistic elements as trust, honesty and faith exist. This attitude was marked in a minority, but a large frightening minority.

Typical comment was "If only the students would cooperate!" The doubtful has legal right to his doubts, for very real evidence must have taught him that dishonesty does exist on this campus. He is mindful of his wallet which was lifted, the loss of coke bottles from the club-room, the jar of cider which disappeared from the AWS party, the removal of books from the donation barrel, the vanishing of his sleeping bag from grounds of the football bonfire. He remembers that these are only a few "incidents" which occurred this year.

How, he wonders, can a thief refrain from snitching my, or someone's, information as we take an examination? It is understandable how this attitude of cynicism was born, and why it has developed. And you may well ask: "What are we going to do about the situation?"

An Honor System, we Suggest, is the primary step. Begun in a small way, as with an Honor Code which is emphasized only during examinations, it is bound to be reflected in several, then many, then most, finally all phases of campus life.

The cynics, as is characteristic of their ilk, must be shown. The majority—which favors an Honor System—will show them. Or it may be only a few of that majority who have the courage to declare their beliefs at the crisis. Those few who make their declaration will bear the brunt of the minority's cynical sneer and the silence of the majority.

But those few will install worth into Santa Barbara State college which forevermore will live. The Honor System will live and grow and penetrate the shell of cynicism and squelch the evil of thievery.—R. S.

Destination: Press Confab

The day dawned lovely and rainy, the entourage started half an hour later than per scheduled and things were off to a "flying" start. To sum up the first lap of the journey: stop in Ventura for breakfast, unremediated halt in the vicinity of North Hollywood for a blowout repair, stop for directions, ditto for ice cream, stop for hamburger, stop again for blowout number two (when is number three?) and finally a little bit on the late side, the fair campus of Redlands university and mecca of mecca's, the Press Convention.

The sun was setting in the west, the last speaker had 15 minutes to finish but the delegation from Santa Barbara had definitely arrived.

Gauchos Netters Drop Ventura, San Jose

Jordan Runs 100 in 9.5 as SCAA Defeats Gauchos 76-54

Flashing over the 100 yard course in the spectacular time of 9.5 sec., and clocking 21.8 sec. in the 220 yd. event, Payton Jordan, former U.S.C. cinder ace, was instrumental in the 76-54 defeat the Gaucho thinclads suffered at the hand of Southern California Athletic association last Friday at La Playa field.

Jordan set a new field record in the century, the old record being 10 sec. flat, and held by co-captain Hovis Bess.

COLE SCORES UPSET

Although the southern team won a total of nine first places in comparison to the six won by Coach Nick Carter's charges, the Gauchos scored the biggest upset of the meet when Wallace Cole leaped 5 feet 11 3/4 inches to win the high-jump.

George Soule, dynamic little Gaucho distance man, won the two mile event easily, after having been nosed out in the mile by Dick Bernstein of SCAA.

High point man of the meet was Skeeter Malcolm, Hilltopper iron-man, with 10 1/4 points. He won the high hurdles, placed second in the pole vault, third in the broad jump, and ran a lap on the relay team.

Summary follows:

100—Jordan (SC), Sinclair (SC), Bess (SB), time 9.5 secs. 220—Jordan (SC), Sinclair (SC), Bess (SB), time 21.8 secs. 440—Pren-tice (SC), Raphael (SC), Eechart (SB), time 53.1 secs. 880—Baker (SC), Soule (SB), Novakavich (SB), time 4:49.8 secs. 2 mile—Soule (SB), Bernstein (SC), time, 10:29.3 secs.

Sid Getzovitz Meets Fatality

Sid Getzovitz, ex-GaUCHO, came to a tragic end in an airplane crash early this month, according to word received by Coach Nick Carter. A champion fencer, Getzovitz was captain of the local contingent for three years and as well displayed his proficiency with the foil and epee in numerous productions. He held Southern California intermediate championship and Pacific Coast championship.

Little information was available as to the nature of the accident, but it was understood that Getzovitz was located in an army air corp in Texas. The funeral was held in Los Angeles.

Catlin (SC), Castenada and Meading (SC), 140 ft. 10 in. Javelin—Meading (SC), Wrightson (SB), Mangon (SC), 170 ft.

The previously scheduled Poly Royal relays to be held tomorrow afternoon at San Luis Obispo, have been cancelled, Coach Nick Carter stated, due to word received from the northern school stating that the weather conditions were too inclement.

Schools to compete in the annual meet include La Verne, Whittier, Pomona, San Jose, and (SC), Meading (SC), 5 ft. 11 3/4 Cal Poly. Although the Gauchos too kfirst place in 1941, San Jose was ear-marked as heavy favorites to cop the meet this year, judging from the Spartans impressive record which includes a victory over the powerful Stanford cinder squad.

WIN or LOSE . . .

By OZZIE OSBORNE

Today, as the 47th annual Ojai tennis tournament reaches the half-way mark (having commenced yesterday and closing with the final matches tomorrow) more than 450 of the nation's top-ranking tennis aces have signed the entry roster, representing 22 colleges and 64 schools, including the alma m.

Such stellars as Ted Schroeder and Jack Kramer, national doubles champions, Willis Anderson, national public parks champion and Budge Patty, national junior champion, playing, tennis fans will be treated to a sports titanic that will likely not be repeated for the duration.

The Staters entered in the meet will not be the only representatives from Santa Barbara, for members of the local Tennis Club, Dan racketmen for Santa Barbara Hi, and numerous other local unattached players will compete for the glory and prizes offered.

Despite the war time restrictions which are supposed to be applying the strangle hold to college athletic events, the Hilltopper netmen are playing matches almost every other day. Coach Terry Dearborn neatly sums the situation up like this—"Well, you know, we're in the middle of the tennis season." Indicating that the rigorous schedule which the Green and White netmen are maintaining this year is but an annual affair.

Indicative of the multiplicity of their matches, we might point out the fact that the locals played last Saturday against Ventura, Monday against San Jose, Thursday, Friday and possibly Saturday against unknown competi-

Locals Enter Ojai Tourney, Meet Redlands, Ventura Here

Having swamped their opposition in the form of Ventura tennis club last Friday 4-2 and San Jose State 4-3 Monday, the Gaucho racketmen are being represented at the annual Ojai tennis tournament (which got underway yesterday and finishes Saturday) and will engage the University of Redlands' tennis team tomorrow, followed by Ventura Wednesday, with both matches to be played at the local tennis stadium.

WAA Chooses Sport Managers

In place of the regular monthly business meeting the Women's Athletic association met in the gym last night for pot luck supper, followed by presentation of nominees for sport managers for next year.

Candidates include Victoria Hunter and Wilma Mensing for hockey, Nancy Morrison and Jackie Vermillion for basketball and for tennis Doris Chestnut and Patricia Burke. The candidates are to be voted upon soon. Volleyball, baseball, and archery managers will be voted upon next fall.

Following dinner and presentation of candidates the group played games.

Cancel Poly Royal

The previously scheduled Poly Royal relays to be held at San Luis Obispo this afternoon have been cancelled due to inclement weather, Coach Nick Carter announces.

The Hilltopper trackmen were to have competed in the annual meet against Cal Poly, San Jose, and La Verne colleges.

tion at Ojai, and will meet Ventura and Redlands here again this coming week. And some are prone to call tennis a "sissy sport!"

In the Ventura match, the locals swept the two doubles matches with Doty and Dewhirst (SB) def. Turner and Moore (V) 6-4, 6-4; Hamilton and Cobos (SB) def. Clifford and Martinez (V) 6-0, 6-4. Ventura split the four singles contests with the locals as Ed Doty (SB) def. David Lykens (V) 6-1, 6-1; Jack Meyers (V) def. Tom Hamilton (SB) 7-5, 6-4; Dick Cobos (SB) def. Hal Fisher (V) 6-2, 6-3; and Howard Fisher (V) def. Morton Dewhirst (SB) 7-5, 6-3.

SPARTANS LEAD

The invading Spartans from San Jose, led by Ronnie Edwards, fourth ranking player in the state, swamped the Gauchos in the first three matches: Edwards (SJ) def. Doty (SB) 6-3, 6-0; McKenzie (SJ) def. Dall'Armi (SB) 6-0, 6-4; and Morton (SJ) def. Hamilton (SB) 6-2, 6-0.

San Jose forfeited the number two singles match when Lloyd Clark failed to show up for his match with Morton Dewhirst, and the score was 3 to 1 against the Gauchos when Eddie LaFrank of San Jose and Dick Cobos of State commenced the number five singles. Cobos won hands down 6-2, 6-2.

The number one doubles teams split, San Jose's Edwards and Morton winning the opener from Doty and Dall'Armi 6-1, the locals taking the second 6-3.

DECIDING MATCH

Doty and Dall'Armi took the doubles for the locals, defeating San Jose's Edwards and Morton 1-6, 6-3, 6-3, and in the deciding match of the meet the Gaucho freshman team of Cobos and Hamilton defeated McKenzie and LaFrank of San Jose 1-6, 6-0, 6-1.

At the Ojai tournament, Doty and Dall'Armi are entered in the collegiate division and are slated to meet Olien and Reedy of USC, ranked as the second state doubles team. Dick Cobos and Tom Hamilton will enter the freshman division for the Hilltoppers, and will meet Clark and McKenzie for San Jose.

El Gaucho Gains National Medalist Score

"Medalist" award by the Columbia Scholastic Press association, an award made each year to the outstanding college newspapers throughout the nation, was received this week by El Gaucho.

Competing in the schools of education division, El Gaucho compiled 883 points out of a possible 1000 to garner a place among the first class newspapers. In addition to this distinction the campus paper was given the "Medalist" rank which signifies publication from this first place group selected for their outstanding qualities. Such recognition is limited to less than 10 per cent of the class entries.

Copies dating from April of last year to December under the editorships of Willard May and Ruthe Suggs, respectively, were entered in the rating.
