Hike To Flores Flat Scheduled by Outing For Sunday All Day

Regular Club Hike to be Held; Plans Being Made For Moonlight Social

The second seasonal Outing Club event will take place next Sunday when present and prospective members will hike to Flores Flats in the Santa Ynez mountains. Arrangements call for assembly on the campus at 8 o'clock Sunday morning. From there a course will be taken to the starting point of the hike.

Each person intending to go will prepare a lunch for himself to be eaten at Flores Flat, together with coffee served by the club. A small fee will be charged for the coffee.

Cars will be driven to a stone bridge on the Rattlesnake Canyon Road, where they will be parked and the hike begun. From there the trail will lead up Rattlesnake Canyon to Tin Can Shack. At that point a trail to the right will be taken, which will lead to Flores Flats.

Games and side hikes will take place at the destination. Although it is said that the every day hill-climb that is made by students will serve to reduce the fatigue in Sunday's walk, the belief is that resting will occupy much time at Flores Flats.

The next outing of the club will occur the second week in February. This affair will be the annual moonlight hike to Le Cumbre Peak. Clayton Sheesly has advised that students who have not paid their dues or who are intending to join the organization should fulfill these duties in the near future so as to enable clear accounts on the membership list. He also declared as a reminder that students are cordially invited to participate in the activities as well as make the one-dollar payment necessary to membership.

Gym Apparatus Class Elect Officers for Activities

Members of the Gym Apparatus class under Seldon Spaulding last Monday elected a president and secretary to lead class activities other than gymnasium work. Gordon Baird was chosen president and James Tinkle was selected as secretary.

The group is to hold an outing in the near future as the first of a series of get-togethers outside of class work. Steps in this direction were taken Monday when the new president appointed Tinkle, Dice and Wegener as a committee to arrange for the first affair.

Composed of eighteen men, the class is doing apparatus work that is very similar to that of large colleges and universities. Men are in rank according to their ability, one man being the best athlete of the group, the rest rated accordingly. Precedence was set by the class of last year, which was the first of its kind on the campus. Considerable progress was made at that time in regard to standards for the local gymnasium.

Kenney Elected Manager of Dramatics at Student Body Meet; Replaces Resignation

Floyd Kenney was elected manager of dramatics, debating and oratory at student body yesterday. Kenney was the only nominee.

The election of a Forum manager was caused by the fact that Edith Comstock, who was elected at student body election last spring, did not return to the campus.

Kenney has shown unusual interest in surviving the campus dramatic activities, which has fallen into a lull the first of the year. He was appointed by Dean Ashworth to lead campus dramatics until a manager could be chosen by the student body.

Frosh Bible Contest To Be Continued

Classes Competing for Cup To Be Given to Winning Class by Pep Committee

The interclass sale of Frosh Bibles will be carried over until Monday afternoon of next week, according to Pep Committee reports given out yesterday. Activity of the various classes was noticeable on the campus this week, many Bibles having been sold. The contest is to be continued over the week because of a late start due to the Thanksgiving holidays of last week.

A loving cup is to be presented to the winning class on completion of the interclass contention. This will be awarded on a one-hundred per cent basis. The cup was purchased last year by the Frosh class.

Each class president was authorized to handle the sale in his class according to his own method. The Seniors have distributed their books to a selected group in their membership who is managing the sale for that class. The Junior class has apportioned Bibles to all students. The Sophomores have appointed a committee of eight to work on their sale. Each member of this committee manages a group of students. Freshmen are selling the books in a somewhat similar manner to the Juniors.

A large number of books will be distributed by this method, according to belief expressed by the Pep Committee. The interest stimulated by the contest will attract attention to the Frosh Bibles as part of the college spirit, it is believed.

TAKES HONORARY MEMBER

Hubert Sawyer was initiated into the Sigma Alpha Kappa fraternity last week. Because he is leaving the campus for a short time, he was installed as an honorary member.

RECEIVES HONORS

Dorothy Edmundson, student here two years ago and now attending the University of Washington, was one of three new members recently initiated into the national journalistic sorority at that institution. Her membership resulted from journalism activity in conducting a cooking column published in one of the Seattle dailies. She expects to syndicate the column later.

Glee Club Dance To Be Held Tonight At Recreation Center

Dance Held to Raise Funds For Glee Club Tour to Be Held During Spring

Tonight at the Recreation Center the third annual Men's Glee Club dance will be held. Besides being an annual affair, it is given in order to raise funds for the spring tours, which begin in March.

With Greenough's seven-piece orchestra furnishing the music the dancers will enter the floor at 9 p. m. "Home, Sweet Home" will be played as the good-night dance at twelve o'clock. In between times, punch will be served.

The patrons of the Glee Club are Dean and Mrs. Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. Barnett, Dr. and Mrs. Maxwell.

The dance last year netted the Club $125. James Dinwiddie, president of the musical club, is optimistic in his hopes of a much larger sum this year. The event has been given wide publicity, so that an attendance of three hundred couples is expected.

President Leaves for Meets; To Return in Week From Monday

President Phelps left last Friday for Oakland to confer with Will C. Woods, state superintendent of schools, on the budget of next year for the local institution.

This meeting was the first of an extended tour of the president covering this week and next, the main purpose being the convention at Chicago on elementary education work. In Nevada he will deliver an address to the state university, and at a Missouri College he will also speak. A short visit will be made at the Greeley State Teachers' College of Colorado.

The president will return a week from Monday.

Women Basketball Starts With Large Turnout

Basketball for women had an auspicious opening when a large number of women turned out for the first practice.

Captains will be elected next week, and for the first time, four will be selected, representing the four class teams. Women taking the sport have commenced observing training rules. Elma Atringer is the basketball manager.

FIFTY GET TICKETS

About fifty students obtained the tickets distributed by Mrs. Miller, registrar, entitling them to hear a lecture by Miss Amy Cryan on "Geneva in 1926" delivered at the Lobero Theater Wednesday. The tickets were obtainable through the courtesy of the Woman's Club.

Frances Lincoln, former student here, and Mr. Gordon Mitchell, local resident, were married here last month. They plan to remain in Santa Barbara.

Adoption of Honor System on Local Campus Discussed; Committee Is Appointed to Investigate Matter

Annual Glee Club Tour To Begin in March and Last Through Month of April

The annual glee club tour taken by the local organization each year was arranged early this week by leaders in the group. Beginning in March, the tours will probably continue to the last of April. Two and three-day trips will be taken by the club to Bakersfield, Los Angeles, San Luis Obispo, Santa Paula and Fillmore.

A success in past years, this activity taken by the glee club has always been an advertisement and has given a reputation to the club as well as to the college. Discontinued last year by the absence of Mrs. Barnett, their leader, the men are planning tour programs that will undoubtedly surpass previous efforts.

Funds for the trips are to be raised by the annual dance which will take place at Recreation Center next Friday evening.

Coach Gloomy Over Basketball Team

Only Two, Three Good Men To Form Foundation of Varsity Quintet — Coach

Basketball season started in auspiciously with the first practice Monday. A poor turn-out greeted Coach DeGroot, who is frankly disappointed in the prospects for this year. When interviewed, he stated that there were only two or three men who knew anything about basketball, making it necessary to begin with, as he describes it, "grammar school stuff."

While in the north last week, Coach DeGroot lined up enough games to insure a barn-storming trip in that region. The trip will take about eight days, and will include games with San Jose State, San Mateo and Sacramento Jaysees, Stanford Frosh, and other institutions in the same territory. The tour will be made the latter part of January, the team returning near the first of February. Only one other game is assured as yet. This is with the California Aggies on January fifth. It will be played here.

TO HOLD VESPER SERVICE

The annual A. W. S. Vesper Service will be held this year on the Thursday before Christmas vacation, according to an announcement issued by Dean Pyle yesterday. It will be held in the music bungalow. This service corresponds to the Thanksgiving Candlelight Service held by the same organization before Thanksgiving vacation.

SOCIAL SCIENCE MEETS

A discussion of World War debts took place at the Social Science Club meeting last Wednesday night at the Public Library. The group decided that the debts should not be cancelled.

Phil Horner was taken into membership at the meeting.

System To Be Tried Here; Is Successful at Other Pacific Coast Colleges

The first steps toward the possibility of establishing an honor system at Santa Barbara State were taken at yesterday's student body meeting when President Batchelder called for discussion and action on the plan.

Following a proposal to take initial steps toward the necessarily long process of complete establishment of the system, a motion authorizing the appointment of a committee to investigate the type used in schools employing the honor method was passed.

The committee appointed consists of the following students: Ardis Sloan, chairman; Keith Gunn, Winifred Pollard, Isabel Vaughn. This group will plan out a logical and workable arrangement following its investigation of some of the systems in use. Definite action by the student body will then be taken.

Reports from institutions that have the honor system have indicated that in some cases the method is working successfully and in others not so well. Stanford, the University of California, and Cal Tech are using it to good advantage. Sentiment on the local campus has been in favor of the honor system, according to a short canvas made by The Eagle two weeks ago. Several students have expressed the belief that its success would be insured in Santa Barbara State, but steps in the right direction would necessarily entail a gradual initiation of the plan.

Many Grads Meet at Reunion in North

Graduates of Santa Barbara State teaching in Santa Barbara County met at a dinner at Santa Maria Inn last week. It was sponsored by Mrs. Miller, local registrar. The gathering was held during the annual county teachers' institute which met at Santa Maria last week.

Several faculty members were present at the reunion. Graduates numbered 38. They were as follows:

Mrs. Elsie Sperber, Max Weide, Myrtle Wilson, Mrs. Margaret Wood, Mrs. P. D. Meyers, Margaret McTavish, Mrs. Rita Marshall, Patri Neeley, Lucile Nichols, Esther Paulsen, Ellen Owens, Marion Ansley, Louise Baer, Mrs. A. B. Allen, Mrs. Huey Ringham, Helen Clarke, Lucile Dexter, Mrs. Kate Donahue, E. E. Ericsen, Mary Evans, Joseph Fraga, Christine Hamilton, Frances Jones, Naomi Kasten, Ina Keeney, Margaret Kenyon, Alice Klein, Elizabeth Lane, Mrs. Opal Reese, Annie Scolari, Lewis Sanders, Elizabeth Smith, Hester Smith, Helen Waterman, Louise Larsen, A. M. Lober, Mildred McMurray, Mrs. E. Shoemaker.

Rollo Elliott and Dorothy Elliott, former students who are now at the University of California, plan to return to the local campus, where Mr. Elliott will take up work.

A male sewing club is being held at Carroll school under the auspices of the University of California. There are eight members, who darn socks, and the like, with feminine dexterity.

A check room for women students, sponsored by the League of Women Voters, has been opened at the University of Cincinnati.

Forty-six students passed the English A examination, out of the one hundred and seventeen that took it on November 13. Instructors at the University of California corrected the papers.

The examination consisted of the writing of an exposition on one of several listed topics. The test will be repeated next semester for those who did not pass this time, as all students before completing their course in college must pass it.

According to Dr. Maxwell, fewer students passed the examination this year, although more took it. Last year the percentage that passed was one-half, while this time it was approximately one-third.

STUDENT OPINION

This column is conducted by The Eagle for the benefit of the students. All letters are requested to be as brief as possible. They must be signed, although the name will be suppressed if desired. Place communications in The Eagle box. The Eagle will assume no responsibility for views published.

To the Editor:

The following is a letter received from the yell leader of Stanford University:

"My dear Miss Randall:

In regard to the matter of whether or not your school song should be sung at football games I may say that there is no basis for any criticism for such a procedure. I take it that you are in favor of doing such and have every reason to think accordingly. I can see no good cause for anyone finding fault except that it be a new idea at your college, as I judge it is.

My stand here at Stanford is the same as has always been followed by the yell leaders here, and as far as I know, at all of the large universities on the coast, that is, an any time during the game which the yell leader may deem it opportune one of the songs is sung. Always at the close of each game and at important basketball and track contests also, the Stanford Hymn, which I take it corresponds to your school song, is sung, being the last song of the day. Similar plans as I wrote before are followed by most other Pacific Coast colleges and universities. From actual experience I know that the following follow this procedure: Stanford, California, Southern California, Southern Branch, Occidental, Santa Clara, St. Mary's, Washington and Oregon.

The only question that remains is whether or not such action is applicable to your school. In view of the increasing importance of the various state colleges I should think it would be, and suggest that you not only have your present school song sung at games, but have additional ones written and used, selecting one as your hymn.

Hoping I have given you information which may be of service, I remain,

Yours sincerely,
BOB FRASER,
Yell leader, Stanford."

We must put this advice to use, so students write a hymn that everyone can sing.

PHYLLIS RANDALL.

Early Annual Sitings Made To Accomodate Xmas Wishes

Appointments for pictures for La Cumbre, the annual, can be made with Anna Cowan, manager of the Co-op Store, according to an announcement made by Elizabeth Cambell, editor of the annual.

This arrangement is made in order to accomodate those who wish to have their annual photo made before Christmas. Stigleman was awarded the contract for La Cumbre pictures this year.

ALUMNI TO MEET

A meeting of the Los Angeles section of the Santa Barbara State Alumni Association will be held December 23 at the Elks' Club building in the southern city. Plans are being made to secure Dr. Julius Freeman, head of the psychology department of the University of Chicago, to speak to the gathering. Miss Mildren Eby is president of the Los Angeles division.

Why Service Station Attendants Go Mad

It was dusk as she stopped at the road-side filling station. "I want a quart of red oil," she said to the service man. The man gasped and hesitated. "Give me a quart of red oil," she repeated. "A q-quart of r-r-red oil?" he stuttered. "Certainly," she said. "My tail-light has gone out!"

Mrs. Steele spent Wednesday in Los Angeles on business.

New Type Windshield Stickers Adopted at Council Meeting

A new design of windshield sticker to replace the present design will be printed and placed on sale before the Christmas vacation, it was decided at the council meeting held yesterday. The Pep Committee was given authority to have them made and will take charge of their issuance.

The new designs will be shorter and a little wider than the present pennant sticker. The colors will be reversed, white letters being placed on an olive background. Instead of the perpendicular wording of "Santa Barbara State" at the head of the design, the college seal will be substituted. The wording of "Roadrunners" will finish out the length of the pennant.

The new stickers will be placed on sale as soon as they can be printed, the sale price being three for five cents, according to present plans. Selling them instead of free distribution will be necessary in order to defray expenses, which will probably amount to about fifteen dollars.

Agitation for a new design has been taking place since college began in September. Those on the committee which chose the design were Dorothy Kimes, chairman, Ester Janssens and Alfred Tomlinson.

Editor's Note: Beginning this issue, a corollary of "Yep, by Dan" will be published in The Eagle and the new product will be known to the reading public as "Kenney's Nope!" The two columnists, Dan and Kenney, will alternate each week in this space. Next week "Yep" will appear.

The following is the initial appearance of "Nope!" We will detain you no longer. Read.

Well, little friends of Eagledom, here I am. Old Santa Claus.

I'm all overjoyed today because the Ed saw my genius and slipped me a promotion. Ain't 'at nice? Right kind of him, I'd say.

Our office dog takes the cake with the suggestion for a cheap vacation—put a nickel in the phone slot and then wait for Central to give you your number.

HOWEVER, I DON'T RATE VERY HIGH AS A MARTYR.

The Ed just did an Ederle across the channel in the rear of our dear old college. Cripes, but he's a graceful joe!

Our Semi-brilliant suggestion concerns the college band. Why not substitute a Victrola (adv.). One can at least get music out of them.

POET'S SECTION

In the parlor, oh, my darling,
When the lights are dim and low,
That your face is powdered, painted,
How am I, sweetheart, to know?

Twice this month I've had to bundle
Every coat that I possess
To the cleaner's, won't you, darling,
Love me more and powder less?

That, dear children, is the evil of necking. If the young man had only looked to his morals, and had not forgotten all his mother's teaching, he would not have been forced to pay the big cleaner's bill.

Jean McKenzie wins this week's 1-16 wit crown. She thought "Ethyl Is Coming" was the announcement of a new movie actress.

Beginning today we are going to conduct lessons in AMERICAN. This week's word: "FROSH"—a verdant specimen of Humanis Collegiatus Native habitant of the colleges and Universities of the United States. He is seen in large numbers from the middle of September to the end of January. After this period their green color begins to fade and they become unrecognisable from their surroundings.

SYNONYMS: necking, petting, spooning, queening, mugging, parking, sparking.

Use a word once and it is yours. This week's word—"joe"—a man, preferably at college. "Isn't he a goofie joe?"

If any of my ardent readers are writing to Santy, won't they please ask him to send the Staff a pair of new typewriters? Many thanks.

That concludes our program for today.

Christmas Dance Is Planned by A.W.S.

The Christmas Dance by the A. W. S., is to be given a week from tonight at the Montecito Country Club at 8:30.

It is to be a semi-formal affair and the men are requested to wear dark suits. This hop is expected to be one of the best affairs of the season and the Country Club is considered an ideal place for it.

One of the main features of the evening will be the Christmas tree, around which everyone is requested to put a gift, which afterwards will be given to the associated charities for poor children.

The committees are not yet decided, but Elinor Hicks is in charge of the programs, which will be hand-painted. Grace Miksch is in charge of the punch, of which women are donating the material.

SHALL WE LET IT FAIL?

The Pep Committee did not print those Ad Week cards to give the campus "Printer's Devil" something to do. They had them printed with the intention of showing the merchants that the college students DO patronize local business houses.

The Eagle firmly believes that much money is spent in Santa Barbara by college students, but from the co-operation being received from the student body in the distribution of the cards, the city merchants are not getting an overwhelmingly favorable opinion of the amount of college trade they are receiving.

Two campus institutions will feel the effects of this meager showing: La Cumbre and The Eagle. La Cumbre, the annual, depends upon town advertising to a great extent, while The Eagle derives half of its revenue from State street. And to have this source of finance cut off, or even diminished, would end in a "swan song" for the size of The Eagle, as it would mean cutting down the size to a thin three columns. Lack of support for La Cumbre would result in a halt-starved book when June merrily trips around.

Think those facts over when you see the pile of cards that are stacked up over the mail boxes and which have so far been practically unmolested. All that is asked by the Pep Committee is to give each merchant with whom you trade one of these cards.

WHAT WE THINK

In the past few weeks campus musicians and others concerned with the musical side of bleacher demonstrations and the like have been indulging in a peaceful yet forceful struggle over just what "Our College Grand" really is or ought to be.

"It is a hymn!"—"No, it isn't! It is a rally song."—"It shouldn't be sung at games."—"You're off! It should!"

The following is the opinion of The Eagle: "Our College Grand" is not a hymn.

Fight over that.

Radio broadcasting authorities in London refused to broadcast jazz over the radio on Sunday, saying that religious people would not stand for it.

At the University of North Dakota the lightest man of the basketball team weighs 180 pounds.

University of Minnesota freshmen wear green flowers in their button-holes as well as green caps.

WE MAY GET IT YET

Extremely favorable attitude toward the construction of a campanile on the Santa Barbara State campus was shown by the alumni present at the meeting held at Santa Maria recently. Indications point to action by the alumni. As soon as a leader for the "Alumni Campanile Fund" can be secured, definite realization of the campanile will take place.

There are several ways in which to raise the fund. It is generally conceded that it would be too large for the present alumni group to raise, even though there are about 11,000 in the group. Assistance from interested townspeople would materially help, as there are many in Santa Barbara whose interest in the development of campus activity is profound enough to cause them to help financially.

Another method, which was used successfully in the east, calls for assistance in the project from alumni of approximately the next ten years, each graduating class "constructing so many feet" to the height of the tower. In this way the fund could be carried into the future and the burden made lighter.

Assurance that the tower will be realized before long is made by those who are working toward this end. It is a goal which is more than a dream; it CAN be put over, and this campus CAN have a campanile if it cares anything about it.

Knute Rockne will conduct a football coaching school for two weeks at Honolulu in December.

Dorothy Robbins and Dorothy Mansfield plan to go south tomorrow to the Notre Dame-Southern California game.

Believe It or Not

---I Don,t!

Survivors of the English A exam will be decorated at a special assembly to be held in the future. France has awarded them the Croix de Guerre with two palms and Congress has voted on the D. S. C. The College board will present them with ten (10) cents in trade at the Co-op.

EDITORIAL

Thanks to Mr. Gillum

We should all be thankful that Thanksgiving comes but once a year. If it came oftener it would put a crimp in Rockefeller's bankroll to keep turkey on the table. For the general benefit of all of us, something should be done so that this festival would come about three months earlier. This would give the poor hard-working collegian a chance to save enough money to be able to at least slip a kiss-proof lipstick in the girl friends Realsilk Christmas morning. Talk it up.

Reports made to the Interstate Commerce Commission prove that the use of candles was unnecessary at the A. W. S. candle-lighting ceremony. It has been definitely proved that the Music bungalow is wired for electric lighting, which makes the use of candles entirely unnecessary. Next year's ceremony will be the Mazda snapping ceremony.

Last week's moistness led several visitors to think that they were surveying a naval academy when they gazed upon us. No, and we aren't all fishes either—at least it has not been proven.

The pool upon the upper campus is not the swimming pool which was proposed. It contains the valves controlling the water stem. The muddy tinge of the liquid has, however, given rise to the rumor that Batchelder and Vandam performed their last Saturday night abluition there. We canna' say. Their necks look clean.

Good duck hunting is reported in the swamp just back of the main building. The lifesaving station maintained by The Eagle staff has rescued several unwary hunters up to date and hopefully anticipates more business. Please do not leave your shoes in the mud as it scares the business away.

THE EAGLE'S EYE

—An Upper Classmen Observes

AT arecent meeting of the alumni of Santa Barbara county, plans were discussed for raising a fund for a campanile on the campus.

A campanile would be a big asset to Santa Barbara State. Our campus with its conspicuous location would be an ideal setting for a tower that could be seen from all parts of the city.

Traditions would be sure to form around it. It would add beauty and dignity to the campus.

Our Quad has its beauty and traditions, even though it is surrounded by antiquated class rooms.

A tall campanile would be a fit companion for the Quad.

A definite plan for securing this campanile has not yet been offered by the alumni. When it is, every member of the student body should do his utmost to support it.

THE College Glee Club is giving a dance tonight at Recreation Center, the proceeds of which will go towards financing the Club tour in the spring.

A Glee Club tour throughout the State is one of the best advertisements that a college can have.

It is very decidedly desirable for the Club to go on tour, but it will be impossible unless necessary funds are raised at the dance tonight.

The Glee Club dance has always been known as one of the best social events of the year.

You will be showing yourself a good time and helping out the Glee Club and the college if you are there.

THE Frosh Bible sale is on this week.

So much has been said about the advantages of buying this book that there is no need for further com-

CHRISTMAS CAROLS

I.
Mother might like to have
A wrist watch
Father might like a car
Sister might enjoy a necklace
And brother—well, just a cigar.
II.
Sweetheart would like a diamond
A necklace, a kiss or two.
And I—Oh, yes—where's the money?
Well—window shopping will do.

He stood on the edge of the river
Pensive, sad, and still,
He stood on the edge of the river
His heart was in a chill.
The Scotchman had dropped a nickel
He thought it a dollar bill.
He stood on the edge of the river
He'll stay there—yes—he will.

I
Richard sat here
Leo sat there
Harold sat over yonder
The Prof. he sat in the Middle of a tack.
The class is now asunder.

II
Now Richard sits here
And Leo sits there
And Harold's in Prexy's office,
The Prof., he's home and his balloon trousers
Are in the vulcanizing parlor.

Anyone who is in doubt as to the reasons for procuring a Frosh Bible should see any member of the Pep Committee at once. He will be enlightened promptly.

And it is hoped that he will repent and buy a Bible immediately.

Miss Ida Vizzoline entertained the Phi Chi Alpha Sorority at her home on Anacapa street Monday evening at a Italian dinner.

PIGGLY WIGGLY

The Test of Time

Time is the element that slowly but surely proves the merit of any retail institution. Time tells—it eliminates the inefficient. The fact that Piggly Wiggly has successfully maintained its increasing legion of customers as well as steadily multiplying its number of stores is the best evidence available substantiating—THE TEST OF TIME.
