Scholarship Established By Storke

The establishment of an annual $10,000 scholarship gift by Thomas M. Storke to attract outstanding students to the University of California at Santa Barbara was announced by Chancellor Samuel B. Gould last July.

The editor and publisher of the Santa Barbara News-Press and former UC Regent will provide the annual fund through the Thomas More Storke Foundation, established to support educational and charitable work.

The gift stipulates that the new scholarship will (1) be available to both graduate and undergraduate students; (2) go to those with truly superior academic ability in terms of past achievement, as well as promise for the future; and (3) be awarded only to those of excellent moral character.

The Honors and Scholarships Committee at UCSB will select the recipients with the personal approval of the Chancellor.

'ATTRACT MINDS'

Although the amount of each scholarship is not specified, the intent of the scholarships is to attract the best minds and make it unnecessary for recipients to supplement their earnings in ways that would reduce the effectiveness of the awards, Dr. Gould explained.

The Storke Foundation gift will be the largest single scholarship source, with the exception of the John and Ina Therese Campbell Scholarships resulting from a 1952 bequest by the late Mrs. Campbell of Santa Barbara.

'FOLLOWS REMARKS'

The creation of the Storke scholarship fund implements his remarks at the UCSB observance of the University's 92nd Charter Anniversary in April when he said, "The future quality of this campus rests very heavily upon our ability to search out the best minds and bring them to Santa Barbara."

The scholarship donor stated that he was hopeful that the establishment of this needed scholarship money would stimulate other citizens of Santa Barbara and elsewhere to add to the resources of the university for this purpose.

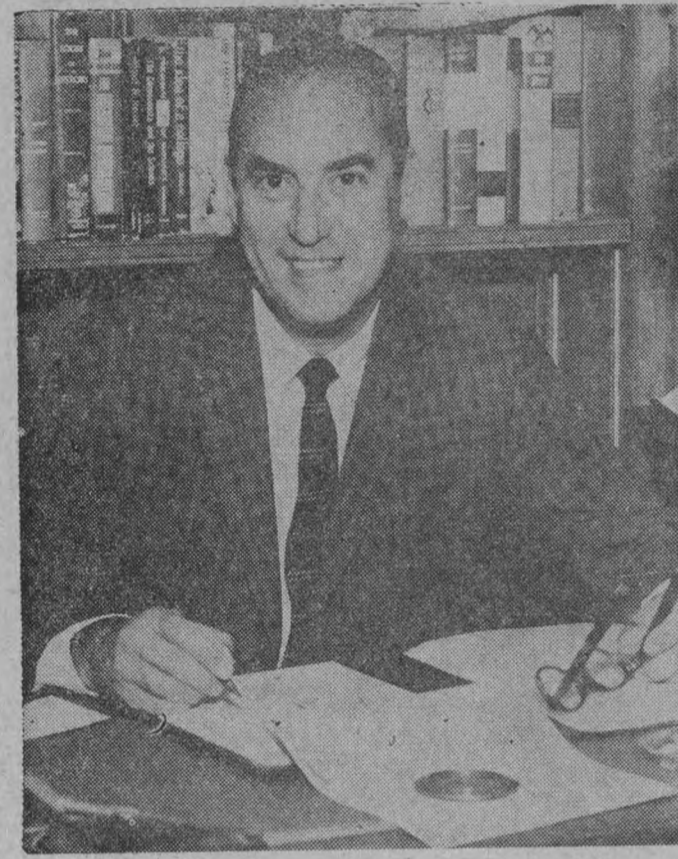

NEW EDITORS

With the beginning of the new school year, new editors have been named for UCSB's publications, El Gaucho and La Cumbre, student newspaper and annual respectively.

Heading up El Gaucho will be Tony Cohan, a senior majoring in English. Assistant Editor Maggie Moir and Feature Editor Kathy Williams, old pros from last year's staff, will be around to help Tony return El Gaucho to a semi-weekly publication schedule. The paper will appear Tuesdays and Fridays. A new section and a new editor have been added to increase the scope of the paper. This new section—Arts—is to be devoted to the fine arts and cultural events on campus. Taking charge of this department is Fred Witt.

Other new features this year are a change to eight column width and an over-

New Administrative Posts Filled By Professors

Three new administrative posts created to prepare the UCSB administrative organization for increasing enrollment and an expanding academic program have been filled by Dr. A. Russell Buchanan, Dr. Stephen S. Goodspeed, and Dr. Robert L. Kelley, according to UC President Clark Kerr and Chancellor Samuel B. Gould.

Dr. Buchanan, professor of history, was named vice-chancellor for undergraduate affairs and Dr. Stephen S. Goodspeed, associate professor of political science, was appointed vice-chancellor for student affairs.

Dr. Elmer R. Noble, professor of zoology and acting provost from 1956 to 1958, continues as vice-chancellor in charge of graduate affairs. Dr. Kelley, assistant professor of history, was named to the new post of assistant to the Chancellor for development. Each will continue in his academic position.

New vice-Chancellors for undergraduate and graduate affairs will coordinate the development of academic policies and programs while working closely with the Academic Senate, Dr. Gould explained.

As vice-Chancellor for student affairs, Dr. Goodspeed will represent the administration in student government, the athletic program, student personnel service and the establishment of policies in relation to students. Chancellor for development Dr. Kelley is responsible for alumni relations and general community relations including the coordination of the gifts and endowment program. L. J. Livesey will continue as assistant to the chancellor for institutional analysis.

FILE REG. PACKETS

Students are reminded that they must file their packets according to the schedule as shown on page 1, paragraph 4 of the fall schedule of classes. Failure to file on time will result in a $4 fine. Study lists filed after Friday, September 30, will require a cashier's receipt for $10 late registration fee.

Fines for failure to file according to schedule are set by the university. They can be waived only when the University assumes direct responsibility for this failure. All students have the option of early filing on Monday, September 26.

Gould to Give Brief Address

UCSB Chancellor Samuel B. Gould will speak on "The Maturing Student and The Maturing University," today at 2 p.m. in an opening Convocation for all students on the Campus Mall.

Speaking of the Convocation, Chancellor Gould stated that "I hope it will become an annual tradition." Scheduled to be "a very simple affair," the Convocation is intended for the general community as well as students, faculty, and administration. UCSB academic officers will be present on the speakers platform.

Music for the occasion is being provided by the Santa Barbara Chamber Singers, under the direction of Miss Dorothy Westra, who will sing Orlando Gibbon's "Oh Lord increase My Faith" and "Psalm 122" by Giles Farnaby. Dr. Wendell Nelson will play the Carillon and Dr. John Gillespie will perform the prelude and postlude on the organ.

In order to insure adequate seating for students and guests, 2,000 chairs have been provided for the occasion. The Campus Mall is located between the Music Building and the Classroom Building.

Medical Plan Available Now

The Accident and Sickness Medical Insurance program, a voluntary plan designed to supplement the UCSB Student Health, is again being offered to students this year.

The plan offers the student protection 24 hours a day, 365 days a year, for only one dollar a month. Students may also purchase insurance for dependents.

Last year nearly 1,000 UCSB students purchased the plan and over $3,000 in claims were paid out. The plan will go on sale at the Graduate Business Manager's Office, located in the Student Union Patio.

MEETING CHANGED

The meeting with the Dean of Students required of all students on scholastic probation, scheduled to be held on Thursday, September 15, in C-1004 at 2:00 P.M., will be held instead at 1:00 P.M., on the same day in the same place.

THIRD ANNUAL FROSH CAMP HOSTS 350, SOPHS PLAN THREE MAJOR ACTIVITIES

UCSB played host to 350 incoming students last week, Sept. 8-10, at the annual campus orientation event, Frosh Camp.

Frosh Camp is centered around student and faculty discussions concerning registration, university services and extra curricular activities, according to Dale Lauderdale, camp chairman. Twelve students, twenty-eight student counselors and 14 faculty advisors formed the camp committee.

FACULTY TALKS

Talks were given by Dr. Lawrence Willson who spoke on the Value of a Liberal Arts College and Dr. Robert Kelley who explored the Myth and Reality in Student Government. Campers were officially welcomed by Chancellor Samuel Gould.

Orientation activities were interspersed with recreation periods which included baseball, volleyball, tennis, swimming, dancing and group sings. Speaking about the Camp, Dale Lauderdale commented that "under this system, the incoming freshman is no longer an individual in a strange place, but rather one in a large group that will be unified and drawn together throughout four years of college."

SOPH-SPONSORED EVENTS

Meanwhile Sophomore President Steve Mendell has announced the activities his class has planned for freshmen: On Sunday, September 18, a beach party will be held at Campus Beach. The following Saturday, September 24, the frosh are to meet in front of the Student Union for the "Big C" Day activities.

Finally, on October 1, there will be a dance in the main auditorium.

Coach Heads Applied Arts

Dr. Theodore Harder, professor of physical education was appointed dean of applied arts at the University of California at Santa Barbara, it was announced this summer in a joint announcement by UC President Clark Kerr and Chancellor Samuel B. Gould. The appointment was announced following the Regents meeting in Los Angeles.

The new dean will succeed Dr. John C. Snidecor, professor of speech. The later resigned to resume his teaching and research work after 12 years in the post.

Dr. Harder came to the Santa Barbara campus in 1934, and since that time has served two five-year terms as chairman of the men's physical education department. He was also director of athletics for a number of years, as well as football and baseball coach. He has held several chairmanships on key faculty and administrative committees.

He recently completed his second two-year term as vice-president at large in the NCAA, and is a member of the NCAA executive committee and council. Dr. Harder has also been active in the AAU as commissioner of this district. He is a member of the College Physical Education Association.

In 1956-57 he was in Afghanistan as advisor to the Minister of Education under a grant from the Asia Foundation.

Playwright, Critic, Novelist

Christopher Isherwood to Succeed Huxley As UCSB's Visiting Professor-At-Large

Author Christopher Isherwood has accepted the appointment of visiting professor-at-large at the University of California at Santa Barbara for 1960-61, it was announced by Chancellor Samuel B. Gould.

The English-born American writer will come to the campus for the fall semester serving in a similar capacity as Aldous Huxley, the first professor-at-large at UCSB.

Tentative plans call for a series of eight public lectures on Thursday afternoon on the theme, "The Writer and His World." He will also teach a seminar on "The 20th Century Literary Scene" made up of 15 students especially selected by the faculty. In addition, Mr. Isherwood is also anxious to meet with small student groups informally.

student manuscripts, be available for individual consultation and discussion during two days each announcement, Chancellor Gould stated, "I feel Isherwood is a splendid addition to Aldous Huxley and will contribute much to our academic life. He is distinguished in his field and is very much interested in young people. The community will find great intellectual stimulation in his lectures on the campus."

Mr. Isherwood is the author of some 20 books and plays, including several novels, three plays with the famous poet W. H. Auden, and four translations from Sanskrit religious classics.

Other books include "Journey to a War" (1939) with Auden, about the Japanese invasion of China; "Goodbye to Berlin" (1939), a collection of stories about pre-war Germany; "Lions and Shadows" (1938), an autobiography. John Van Druten's dramatization of a story and other material, became the Broadway hit, "I am a Camera." His latest novel is "The World in the Evening," published in 1954.

In 1928 at the age of 24 Mr. Isherwood published his first novel, "All the Conspirators," which has since been reissued and praised. He became a tutor, then tried to become a doctor but gave it up. A year later he went to Berlin to visit Auden and stayed until 1933. He traveled a great deal and returned to England only for visits. He witnessed the German political scene under the Nazis with the imprisonment of many of his friends and left Germany.

Isherwood came to the U.S. in 1939 with Auden. After the war he became an American citizen and continued his writing and travels. In 1949 he was elected to membership in the American Institute of Arts and Letters. And he is presently working on two books, one a novel, and the other a popular biography of Sri Ramakrishna, the great 19th century Bengali saint and teacher.

Commenting on California, his home for the past 20 years, Mr. Isherwood states, "I hope I shall never have to live anywhere else." He likes to make frequent visits to England, where he still has many friends, including many new ones, but this country is now definitely his home.

Dr. Glenn Given Award

Dr. Stanley Glenn, assistant professor of speech and drama at UCSB, has been awarded the Plous Memorial Award for 1960. This coveted prize is made annually by the UCSB faculty to one of its members who has demonstrated "outstanding performance in creative activity or contributed to the intellectual life in the university community." The award fund was established in memory of Dr. Harold J. Plous, assistant professor of economics on the Santa Barbara campus who died in London in 1957 while on sabbatical leave.

DIRECTED PLAYS

Dr. Glenn, who joined the UCSB faculty in 1957, has directed numerous productions in the campus Little Theatre, including "Romeo and Juliet," "A View From the Bridge," "The Caine Mutiny Court-Martial," and "The Sea Gull." He also portrayed the lead role of Captain Boyle in the campus production of "Juno and the Paycock." The Plous recipient is elected by a faculty committee, made up of former award winners and members of the teaching award committee. Dr. Glenn is the third UCSB faculty member to be so honored. In 1958, William E. Dole, associate professor of art was the first award winner; Carl B. Zytowski, assistant professor of music won the second annual Plous award last year.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT RECEIVES GIFTS

Gifts totaling $1,291 to provide financial assistance to outstanding young musicians at the University of California at Santa Barbara were among those announced by President Clark Kerr at the Regents meeting held last month in Berkeley.

The major part of the gift was an anonymous contribution of $1,000 to establish the University Orchestra Grant-in-Aid Fund. This is to be used by the Department of Music to help students in financing their college careers, limited to promising student instrumentalists who are members of the University Symphony Orchestra.

In addition, the Music Society of Santa Barbara presented $231 initiating a music department grant-in-aid program for students majoring in music. The Music Academy of the West added $60 to this fund.

All students interested in any phase of dramatic productions are invited to tryouts for "Death of a Salesman," to be held in the Little Theatre on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 22, from 3:00 to 5:00 P.M. and Thursday evening, September 23, from 7:30 P.M. Parts are open to everyone, regardless of previous experience.

Those wishing to work on scenery, lighting and publicity are also urged to attend in order to sign up for work.

FAMED STRING QUARTET TO BE 'RESIDENT'

The Paganini Quartet, one of the world's most famous string ensembles, has accepted an appointment as quartet-in-residence at the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California, it was announced today by Dr. Samuel B. Gould, chancellor.

Joining the university at the opening of the fall semester, the four musicians will enliven the cultural tempo of both the campus and community through lectures, teaching, and a series of six concerts.

Dates announced for the downtown concerts are Dec. 7, March 23, and March 1. Campus appearances are set for Dec. 14, Jan. 4, and May 31.

EMINENT GROUP

The guiding force of the Paganini Quartet is Henri Temianka, internationally known artist who is its first violinist and was the co-founder of the group in 1946. The cellist is the eminent musician Lusien Laporte, an important member of America's great musical talent. Joining the quartet this year are two Santa Barbara string musicians of national reputation—Stefan Krayk, associate professor of music at UCSB, as second violinist, and Albert Gillis, violinist.

Since its founding, the quartet has played well over a thousand concerts throughout the U. S., Canada, Europe and South America. During this past season the group took part in the Osaka Festival in Japan and with the Boston Symphony was the only American musical organization represented. The quartet made an extensive tour of South America including a triumphal Beethoven cycle at Teatro Colon in Buenos Aires. They also made their regular major concert tour throughout this country. They have made as many as 90 appearances in one season alone in the U. S., believed to be a record number for a string quartet.

Kenner's New Book On Eliot Highly Praised

Dr. Hugh Kenner's latest with that appearance of sup-
"The Invisible Poet: T. S. Eliot," published in England last month, was hailed by the London Times Literary Supplement as a "magnificently able performance."

The American edition of the UCSB English professor's book appeared in New York last summer published by McDowell Obolensky.

In a feature review in the British weekly "Observer," Philip Toynbee called Dr. Kenner's book "the first major study of Eliot which is also a major work in its own right."

TOYNEBEE TOUTS

"It is hard to believe that any English critic could have written Mr. Kenner's new masterpiece," wrote Mr. Toynbee. "This book is written relative ease which can come only from the effrontery of the charlatan or from the confidence of a critic who has spent many years of study and deliberation. He is no charlatan . . . Any serious critic or reviewer who fails to read this book within six months should be struck off our register without the right of appeal."

Dr. Kenner has taught on the Santa Barbara campus of the University of California since 1950, and is at present chairman of the Department of English. He was a Guggenheim Fellow in 1957-58 and in 1958 was elected a Fellow of the Royal Society of Literature. "The Invisible Poet" in his seventh book.

Dear Suzie,

Well, here we are, back again. It sure is good to see everyone. For all you new freshmen, welcome from all of us who have just returned. For those of you who are new, you're probably wondering just who I am. My name is Kay Guzman, and I am Campus Representative for Lou Rose College Annex. Lou Rose in Santa Barbara is really a fantastic clothing store that gears its clothes for any and all desires of the well dressed college girl.

I was talking to some of the well dressed girls yesterday and naturally, when girls get together, the topic of clothes is bound to come up. Well, I was curious, so I asked them what they thought of L.R. The answer . . . Why, the best of course! It seems that since all of these girls know what L.R. stands for, a lot of them have waited to do most of their shopping here.

Well, I guess I've praised L.R. enough for now and before you say to yourself, this is the same old sales pitch, let me give you a very brief preview of why I'm praising Lou Rose so much.

I guess first and foremost on any college girls list for a back to school wardrobe, are skirts and sweaters. As the well known rhyme goes, "What are little girls made of? . . . Sugar and spice and everything nice . . ." Let me introduce you to our brand new Spice family of skirts and sweaters. The colors include: sesame blue, bay leaf, spice blue, sage green, mustard, camel, poppy seed, cinnamon and curry. We were counting styles in sweaters the other day and found that there were 10 different styles in one color. The dyed to match skirts come in slim and full styles of all kinds. We also have dyed to match plaids to go with all of these beautiful colors. Prices range in the sweater half of the family from $12.95 to $17.95 and on the skirt side of the family from $14.95 to 22.95.

Anyway after "gibbling" on about skirts and sweaters, I might add that this is not our only outstanding department. We carry everything from bobby sox to cocktail dresses. For example in our suit department there is one suit that everyone just loves. The high rise slim skirt is topped with a crushed leather belt and the top is one of those demure short cropped jackets with ¾ sleeves and smartly double breasted. The colors: gold, moss and black; the price: $39.95.

Seriously Suzie, I could go on forever, so you'll just have to come down and see for yourself at Lou Rose Annex, the "store behind the big tree." I'll be there every Friday afternoon and all day Saturday to show you around. Again let me welcome all new students and congratulate all returning ones. I'll see you next week with a little more fashion news and a little less "chit chat," so until then I remain,

Your Lou Rose Campus Rep.,

RECENT RECORDINGS

We encountered two albums this week of more than routine interest—in fact, they are truly exceptional.

George Gershwin: "Rhapsody in Blue" and "An American in Paris." Leonard Bernstein and the New York Philharmonic.

Oscar Levant's rendering of the "Rhapsody" has been ranked as the most famous of nearly a million interpretations. However Levant performed as though he were running the four-minute mile, while Bernstein seems to have all the time in the world, coupled with an extraordinary feeling for the jazz idiom and rhythms.

Bernstein's performance is flashy, sharp, and spectacular, with brilliant fidelity through the bright shifts in sound intensity. The done-to-death center section is played for all the Romantic, melodic sentiment it is worth. And as to the climax, it is enough to say that everyone participates at full volume.

The pandemonium in "An American in Paris" gains, by Bernstein's discipline, a sharp, noisy sophistication.

Eileen Farrell: "I've Got a Right to Sing the Blues."

The debut of one of the world's finest opera stars into a popular medium is not the prank we initially expected.

With a clarity of diction akin to Billie Holiday's and a swinging beat comparable to Ella Fitzgerald's, Miss Farrell combines the freedom of emotional expression with a sense of enjoyment and humor. She has complete control of her vocal powers whether exploring the depth of "Blues in the Night" or the poignancy of "Supper Time."

We highly recommend Miss Farrell's new jazz sideline.

Legend of Last 'San Nicolan'

The story of an Indian woman who lived alone for 18 years on the deserted island of San Nicolas, surviving on fish, abalones, and sea urchins, is told in an illustrated article in the current issue of "Pacific Discovery" by Dr. Robert M. Norris, assistant professor of geology at UCSB.

The article entitled "Desert San Nicolas and the Last Nicolen" explains that in 1811 a group of Aleutian Indian hunters had a dispute with the natives of the island and killed all the San Nicolas men. Word of the massacre reached the Santa Barbara mainland several years later and in 1835 the Mission padres sent a ship to San Nicolas to bring back surviving women.

One woman remained ashore, according to Dr. Norris, and, despite several attempts to find her, she was not rescued until 18 years later when a rescue party under the direction of Capt. Nidever made a careful search and found the woman "sitting, skinning a sea lion, guarded by her dog."

Nidever's party brought the woman back to Santa Barbara where she quickly adapted to the customs of the mainland and was christened "Juana Maria" by the Mission padres. However, she did after only six weeks in Santa Barbara at the age of about 45, and with her passing, writes the author, went the last member of a once numerous and prosperous people.

Dr. Norris explains that San Nicolas is a barren, flat-topped island of about 20 square miles. It is located 60 miles south of Port Hueneme and is a part of Ventura County. Today the island is a Naval reservation, closed to the public, and inhabited solely by foxes, mice, lizards, and itinerant birds.

Lecture Hall Plan Approved

A 900-seat lecture hall for the UCSB campus was approved by the Regents of the University of California at a meeting June 6 in Los Angeles.

The building will be perfectly round with a folded-plane concrete roof and eaves, giving maximum space and utility within the construction budget and yet to blending with the present new buildings on campus.

Exterior panels between concrete pillars will be made of the cinnamon-colored design block used in the other newer structures on campus. The roof will be slightly domed.

NEAR LIBRARY

Designed by Charles Luckman Associates, the lecture hall will be located 800 feet north of the library and will be used for public lectures, recitals by small ensembles, student assemblies, and other events not requiring extensive stage equipment.

Plans for the building include a lobby, preparation rooms, a seminar room, storage areas and rest rooms. Construction is expected to begin early in 1961, according to Robert E. Floyd, planning engineer for UCSB.

COACH HEADS

Four Home Contests Bring Gauchos' Toughest Foes Here

Local football fans will see four of the West Coast's finest football teams in the role of Gaucho opponents this year at La Playa Stadium. Opening against San Francisco State Sept. 16, the UCSB team will have first chance at ending the 10-game Gator winning streak.

Far Western Conference champs for six of their eight years as members, SFS won the laurels in 1950-54-56-57-58 and 1959.

On Sept. 30, the Gauchos return home to face perennial CCAA champion Fresno State. Kingpins for the last two years, the Bulldogs have an excellent chance to repeat. The first unit will be 100% veteran and a few pounds heavier.

San Diego State journeys to Santa Barbara to face the Gauchos in the local's Homecoming action. After a dismal season last year, the Aztecs have high hopes of upsetting several first division clubs in the CCAA this season.

Cal Poly closes the CCAA season and the home stands for the 1960 Gauchos. The "game we'd most like to win" could be the game that decides the championship this year.

Result: A worthwhile-seeing 1960 Gaucho football home game schedule.

BILL HAMMER TO GUIDE GAUCHO GRIDIRON WARS

Coach Bill Hammer will soon greet his 1960 football squad for the first time. Coming to the Santa Barbara campus, Hammer brings a desire to mold a winning team around fundamentals, desire and team effort.

One of Bill's highlights at Oregon was the 1958 Rose Bowl game when his Webfoot line put the champs on Ohio State's vaunted backfield, and the Big Ten champs had to resort to a field goal to win a close 10-7 ball game.

A 1949 graduate of Springfield College, Mass., Hammer played guard under Ossie Solem, who coached at Drake and Iowa before moving to Springfield. Bill also holds a Master's Degree (1950) from the Massachusetts school and is working towards his doctorate. Bill attended high school at Anacortes, Washington, where he graduated in 1937. An outstanding prep athlete, he made the All-Northwest Washington teams in both football and basketball.

A veteran of both World War II and the Korean War, Bill served with the Coast Guard both times. An L.S.T. commander in the Pacific during the Second W.W., he won nine campaign ribbons.

Hammer served as a football aide and wrestling coach at the Coast Guard Academy during the Korean War and is a graduate of the Academy.

Gauchos Gamble on Speed and Execution To Garner Grid Scores in Coming Year

An initial small turnout plus some injuries have forced Bill Hammer to mold his 1960 UCSB football team from a squad of only 31 players. Thirty-nine pigskinners greet the new coach on the first day of practice but their number has dwindled by this, the fifth day.

The Gauchos lost transfer students Dennis Ekimoto, Don Beck and Dick McKnight to medical decisions. Ekimoto found he had recurring back troubles while Beck and McKnight were troubled with knee problems.

On the bright side of the page are several items. Nineteen of the players are returning varsity lettermen, four are JC transfers and three have frosh ball experience.

Transfer-men include Hank Forstay (tackle) from Santa Barbara City College, Brent Carder (guard) from Antelope Valley JC, George Dyer (center) from Mt. San Antonio JC and Stuart Bell (QB) from Imperial Valley JC.

Potential starting quarterback Ausin Dias has frosh experience a UCSB and impressed the coaches last year with his agility to throw the ball. Dick Swoboda, another Gaucho frosh, is expected to give returning lettermen Jan Greenwald and Jim O'Hanlon a tough go at the middle position. Geoffrey Schwarin, possibly the coaches' answer to the vacancy left by Captain

Walt Townsend at guard, played frosh ball at Kansas U. and sat-out last year. At the moment, Coach Hammer's problems seem to fall into the areas of depth and weight. The 1960 Gauchos may come as close to the old-time "pony lines" as they ever will. Both the coaches' and the players' attitude in regards to this situation (i.e. lack of weight) is "we'll just have to try a little harder and execute a little better."

With only one experienced tackle, Hammer has perhaps his toughest job finding replacements for this position. Captain Ralph Sceales can be expected to produce up front and the switch of last year starter Tom Stoffell from guard to tackle may well answer the starting players' question but the quantity of the second and third stringers is a big question mark. Filling the big void left by the departure of Jim St. Clair at the quarterback slot will be another first order business for the Gauchos. Stuart Bell, capable of throwing the long ball and Tony Pallante, excellent on the option, are having at it tooth and nail with Dias.

The ends and backs have a great deal of experience between them but again, the lack of weight may prove a problem. Six of the eight ends are lettermen while five of seven halfbacks also sport monograms. If the line can open the smallest of holes, "Three steps and a cloud of dust" may be the headlines. This could also prove to be the story at the fullback slot. Both Charlie Coventon and Dennis Vaughan return from the 1959 team. Both are light for fullbacks but both are exceptionally fast for this position.

New Gaucho Coaches

LINE COACH

Ray Thornton, a 1952 graduate of UCSB, begins his fourth year as chief assistant to the head coach.

Ray attended Compton College before transferring to UCSB where he became an outstanding end. After graduation, he taught for a year at Compton's Enterprise Junior High and worked toward and obtained his master's degree from Long Beach State. His tenure at UCSB was interrupted by a year as an administrative officer for the Compton recreation department.

END COACH

Joe Rector, a 1965 graduate of Oklahoma University, was recently appointed to the position of assistant football coach at UCSB.

Rector, a 23 year old holder of a degree in education played for coach Bud Wilkerson's Sooner's in 1956-57-58 and was a three year letterman. Joining the Gaucho physical education staff in an academic classification, Rector will help new head football coach Bill Hammer mold the 1960 UCSB eleven. Under Hammer, assistant coaches will be just that in the broadest sense of the word so that the aides can become familiar ball.

A native of Muskogee, Okla., the new assistant was chosen All-Big "8" conference right end and was team captain on the Sooner's nationally ranked teams. Last year he was on the Oklahoma Univ. coaching staff as frosh coach.

BACK COACH

Considered one of UCSB's greatest all-time athletes, Dave Gorrie returned last September after three seasons of professional baseball and a Navy hitch to take over as assistant football and head baseball coach.

Dave was twice selected to both the football and baseball All-CCAA teams before graduating in 1953. Also a graduate of Pasadena High and Junior College, Dave passed up an opportunity to play AAA baseball with Portland two years ago in order to accept the position at UCSB.

TRAINER

Ned Permenter, trainer, was by far the outstanding runner of the Gaucho team of 1958. Although sidelined for the season in the fifth game by injury, at the season's end he still led all UCSB rushers and was third in the CCAA.

As the coaches said, "Ned relied on just about everything but speed" in his thrusts from the fullback spot.

After graduating from Wasco High School, he attended Bakersfield JC and gained recognition as Kern County's Athlete-of-the-Year for his efforts in football and baseball.

GRIDDERS OPEN SEASON

San Francisco Eleven Lays Ten Game Record on Line

New head football coach Bill Hammer's 1960 Gauchos gridiron crew takes off two weeks of practice this Friday evening at La Playa Stadium, 8:15 p.m.

Determined to play the role of the ungracious host, the Gauchos eleven will be out to avenge themselves for last year's defeat by their Friday night opponents, San Francisco State College.

Bringing a team that captured nearly every honor possible during the 1959 season, Coach Joe Verducci's "Golden Gate" from the Bay Area City, will be out to stretch their 10-game winning streak to eleven.

Last year's Gauchos claim the title of being "The only undefeated and untied team on the West Coast." The 1959 S. F. State eleven romped through their tough schedule with ten wins, no losses, won the Far Western Conference for the fourth consecutive year and amassed a total of 302 points to 94 for their opponents.

In addition, the Gauchos added the distinction of having won the Far Western Conference for the sixth time in their eight seasons in the league (1959-58-57-56-54-50) and establishing a new FWC record with their wing the title for the fourth consecutive season. Head coach Verducci received his third Northern California Coach of the Year Award (1959, 1957, and 1948) as well as clinaxing his 25th year as a football

WARD FILLS NEW POST

Ray W. Ward, 1959 graduate of UCSB, has been named assistant to the director of intercollegiate athletics at the University of California at Santa Barbara. It was announced in July by Dr. M. S. Kelliher, director.

In this newly created position, Ward will work under the direction of Dr. Kelliher, handling the production, promotion, and publicity of the intercollegiate athletic program.

During the past year, Ward has been in San Francisco as an intern in public affairs with the Coro Foundation. During his years on the local campus, he was active in campus affairs, including the editorship of the El Gaucho, the campus newspaper, and was a member of the Blue Key, California Club and national honorary journalism organizations. He was also chairman of the intercollegiate athletic committee which was instrumental in planning the reorganization of the UCSB athletic program.

His journalism experience includes sports reporting on the North Hollywood Valley Times, and the Van Nuys News, and part time work on the Santa Barbara News-Press copy desk while an undergraduate. He attended Los Angeles Valley College before entering the service in 1955. In the army in Korea, he was a member of the public information section of the 31st Infantry Regiment and wrote for the 7th Division paper, Bayonet, the regiment newspaper, Bearcat, and was the correspondent and photographer for the Pacific Stars and Stripes. Later, at the 8th Army Headquarters in Seoul, he managed sports leagues and tournaments for the AF-FE 8th Army.

Ward's office is in the new Robertson Gymnasium of the UCSB campus.

Lakers, Celtics To Compete In Tilt Here

Bob Cousy, Bill Russell, Elgin Baylor and the rest of the basketball greats who make up the new Los Angeles Lakers and the world champion Boston Celtics basketball teams will perform at UCSB's new Robertson Gymnasium on the Gaucho campus, Thursday, October 13, at 8 P.M.

In making the announcement recently, M. S. Kelliher, Director of Athletics at UCSB, predicted a sell-out crowd for the hardwood contest.

Kelliher added that the University's share of the proceeds from the game will go to the Gaucho work-aid program.

UCSB operates its entire athletic program of nine sports on a budget that is far the smallest in the California Athletic Association, according to Kelliher.

In addition, high academic requirements for entrance and the continued high standards of excellence that are required of students, plus the many hours necessary for participation in athletics, prohibits the great majority of athletes from seeking off-campus employment to augment their incomes.

The campus work-aid program, sanctioned by the University, is a method by which athletes, in good standing scholastically, can help work their way through college. The campus work-aid program allows students to arrange their work-study-practice time so as not to detract from their academic endeavors.

Track Meeting

All men who wish to join the cross-country team are requested to attend a meeting to receive gear in Coach Nick Carter's office this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Jim McMillain will be Coach Carter's student assistant this year.

The trail-pounding season starts with an informal practice run at U.C.L.A. on the seventeenth of September. The first meet will be on the 24th of September against Mount San Antonio.

Cross-country has been made a Block 'C' sport and all members including the freshmen, compete as varsity. Additional information can be obtained from Mr. Carter.

Gary Hildebrandt
6'1" 175 Sr.

A returning starter for the second straight year, Gary will most likely hold down the starting left end position. Although not the fastest flanker, he is possibly the smartest when it comes to shaking loose from defenders. An all-around athlete, Gary graduated from North Hollywood High School and is a 22 year old physical education major. Gary also has sure hands and just doesn't make mental mistakes.

Dennis Vaughan
5'9" 195 Jr.

Probably the best all around blocker on the team, Dennis is also an excellent running fullback. A letterman and returning starter from last year's team, he has the inside track by a hair on the fullback position this year. Dennis moved in as starter in 1958 when Ned Parmenter was injured and hasn't been moved from that position since. He is also a standout at linebacker and a sure tackler.

LIBRARY RECEIVES 3,000 VOLUMES

Library holdings in the field of Hispanic studies at the University of California at Santa Barbara were enriched with the arrival of the 3,000 volumes of books and periodicals making up the Roland D. Hussey collection.

Chancellor Samuel B. Gould announced the acquisition of the valuable collection through funds provided by the office of UC President Clark Kerr. This private library is valued at $10,000.

The late Dr. Hussey was a professor of Latin American history at UCLA and throughout his life collected books and periodicals relating to the Hispanic-American world.

The general works on Latin America cover about 450 volumes. About 90 volumes are general works on Spain, including several 19th century editions.

The periodicals number about 20 sets and include nearly complete runs of the "Hispanic American Historical Review," "Pacific Historical Review," and "American Historical Review," and shorter runs of journals in Spanish.

The new collection will be used largely by students majoring in Hispanic civilization, history and the Spanish language, as well as by research scholars.

As our school grows in status, we will be looked to for leadership in fields other than those furnished by our faculty. We will be looked to for high caliber leadership in journalism, music, drama, athletics, and other extra-curricular activities. This dual participation in the academic and extra-curricular areas will strengthen you as an individual and tend to strengthen our student community.

May I urge you to seek your academic training first and, if possible, to broaden it as an active member of the Associated Students.

Once again, on behalf of the Associated Students at UCSB, I welcome you and extend our best wishes for a successful experience at Santa Barbara.

'POLITICS, 1960'

During the first meeting of the Legislative Council last week in Ojai a special committee was set up to organize a nationally oriented political program for UCSB entitled "Politics 1960."

As co-chairmen of the activity we would like to explain its functions. The first function of the committee is to establish a Young Republicans and Young Democrats Club. We feel that this is a vital necessity on this campus. In the coming months many students will rightfully engage in political controversy.

The fourth function of the committee will be to set up a mock election which will take place on October 27th and October 28th.

We believe that it is vital that every student on this campus take a sincere interest in this program. It is important that we broaden our scope in this year of decision.

The Accident and Sickness Medical Insurance program, a voluntary plan designed to supplement the UCSB Student Health Service, is again being offered to students this year. The plan offers the student protection 24 hours a day, 335 days a year, for only one dollar a month. Students may also purchase insurance for dependents.

Last year nearly 1,000 UCSB students purchased the plan and over $3,000 in claims were paid out. The plan will be on sale at the Graduate Business Managers Office, located in the S.U. Patio.

WELCOME MESSAGES

TO THE STUDENTS:
 I'm delighted to welcome you to the campus and to another academic year. If you are new here, we want to do everything possible to make you feel at home; if you are returning to us, we hope you already feel that you are at home.

We all are together in the responsibility for building steadily upon the progress already evident on this campus. This is particularly true of academic progress where you as students can contribute so much. In many ways—in the classroom, in sports, in campus activities, in social events—you create what this campus represents. You do this by your attitudes and your actions. From all this emerges what we are and what we are worth.

We know we are moving toward becoming a large campus; let's work together toward making it a great campus. Your part in the task is as important and as constant as mine.

I look forward to seeing and talking with many of you throughout the year. Meantime, good luck to every one of you.
