Sophs Collect Class Dues in Drive

David Jones Announces
Opening of Campaign to Collect Funds

SQUIRES AID SALE

Wright Lists Privileges
Offered to Members
During Year

• A concerted drive to collect class dues in order to sponsor an active year for the sophomores, will begin Monday morning. That is the word from David Jones, soph president. Members of the class with Las Espuelas, women's service club, and the Squires in charge will keep a collection table in the administration building.

Sponsor Activities

According to David Wright, class treasurer, activities to be sponsored from the 50 cents per semester dues include a dance this semester, possibly given cooperatively with the freshmen, the annual Hay Hoe-down, and class pictures in La Cumbre. Dues may also be paid to class officers including Jones, president; Al Merrill, vice-president; and Lyndell Brundige, secretary.

Meet Tuesday

The sophomores will meet Tuesday morning during second hour in room 80 for the purpose of choosing a faculty sponsor, electing a student council representative, a social chairman, and discussing dance plans. Carlos Bee was formerly social chairman for the group.

In opening the campaign, Jones stated, "Beginning Monday, a drive for the collection of sophomore dues will be started under the auspices of Las Espuelas and the Squires. In order that the many activities which have been planned for the ensuing year might be realized, all members of the class of '40 are urged to show their class spirit by cooperating with the immediate departure of 50 cents.

College Musician Gives Recital

• Mr. Robert Louis Barron, accompanied by Mrs. Anita Cochran Priest, State college music instructors, will present a violin recital at El Encanto hotel next Sunday evening, October 17.

Special invitation is extended by the hotel management to the college faculty and students to attend. The program to be offered by Mr. Barron and Mrs. Priest includes an unusual variety of numbers for violin and piano and should be of high entertainment value to music lovers.

Male Grid Fan Tells Views

By BILL SPARROW

Page after page has been written about football games. But—if you will look back over the files you'll discover that the most important component of any spectacular grid gathering has been sadly neglected. So—hang on and get a load of this; for after all what good would a football game be if it weren't for the people who go to see it? Just think . . . no rooters, spectators, no interest, and therefore no gate receipts, but we mustn't get mercenary.

At the Santa Barbara-Tempe game last Friday we saw very little football. We were too much interested in what went on in the stands. Take for instance the men's rooting section, it was a riot. Marlin Nelson spent most of the game under a Frosh parking sign . . . poor Howard Joham really took a beating when he got the bird from the rooting section for desertion in favor of Verna Irving . . . several members of the B. S. society (it's a deep dark secret) under the leadership of Johnny Jordano seemed to be enjoying themselves . . . and you know what? We've come to the conclusion that the peppy Gaucho song leaders, Bush and Ridenour, have really got somethin' there . . . Tempe had a dern good crowd representing them on the other side too . . . the Knot-Hole club seemed to be go-

Coach 'Spud' Harder

• Tonight will see the hopes of a conference victory in the hands of "Spud" Harder's fighting Gauchos, who will attempt to stop the razzle-dazzle Redlands eleven. Harder has held his practices in secret this week.

Alpha Gammans Prepare for Open House

• Active members of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalistic fraternity, met Wednesday evening at the home of Leona Rasmussen, 311 Encinal avenue, for their first business gathering of the semester.

Plans for the entertainment of the staffs of La Cumbre and El Gaucho at an open house event at the home of John Porter, on October 27, were made. Petie McKinney, fraternity president, presided over the meeting at which pledge papers of Jack Kitchen and Jack Salyer were read and accepted.

Those present included Irene Minikin, Dorothy Hornor, Petie McKinney, Leona Rasmussen, Jack Kitchen, Jack Salyer, Norman Phillips and Nat Hales.

COLE NAMES DEADLINE

• With one hundred and fifty reservations already in from local citizens, Frank Cole, Boosters' club manager of the El Paso train trip for the State-New Mexico game, named November 15 as deadline for student reservations. Fees for the trip must be in at the time of reservation deadline according to present arrangements.

Student President Thanks Helpers

• May I take this opportunity to thank the service clubs on the campus for the splendid manner in which they played their part in the P.E.A. conference held here yesterday. I feel especially grateful to the members of Las Espuelas, Crown and Scepter, College Y, Alpha Phi Omega, Sophomore Squires, and Gavel and Key, and to the leaders of these groups. The help that they offered to the P.E.A. officials in handling parking, registration, etc., contributed greatly to making the conference the outstanding success that it was. The honor brought to us by our service clubs can be exceeded only by the tribute that was paid us when the campus of Santa Barbara was selected as the site for so distinguished a gathering.

Educators End Two Day Session at Evening Meet

By REA McPEAKE

• The two-day sub-regional conference of the Progressive Education association, the most outstanding conference ever held in Santa Barbara, was climaxed last night when a capacity crowd heard Dr. Boyd Bode of Ohio State university and one of the outstanding educators of the country deliver the concluding address on "Democracy and Education."

A most brilliant and enjoyable speaker, Dr. Bode presented what everyone present will agree was a most illuminating and understandable picture of the progress of the evaluation of education since the time of Rousseau. Just as there is a change in society so there is change in the emphasis of education in relation to this society. Admitting that there were changes, Dr. Bode then questioned what education was to do about it. Declaring the basic principle of the Progressive Education movement to be the full development of the individual, Dr. Bode proceeded to explain that this must be thoroughly defined, for with each era the conception of the full development of the individual suffered change. In full development of the individual means development according to a certain pattern—"What is the pattern to be, theology, dictatorship, militarism, or according to our own national pattern?" queried the speaker. Dr. Bode proceeded to show that our national pattern is contradictorily complex, that we still (Continued on Page 4, Column 4)

State Plays Redlands in South Tonight As Fans Follow Squad

Seven Senior Players Set to Stop Power of Bulldog Eleven; Staters, Boosters
Converge to Support Locals in Game

• One of the most important conference games of the year will be played tonight when the Santa Barbara State college Gauchos invade the southland for the University of Redlands encounter. Along with San Diego, these two teams rank tops in the conference this year and one of them is going to lose out tonight.

Presents Strong Team

Under the direction of Coach Cecil Cushman, Redlands will present one of the strongest teams to represent that institution in years. Mal Rink leads the linemen into action on offense and backs up the line on defense. The Bulldog attack will no doubt feature the triple-threat performance of Jimmy Blaisdell, one of the outstanding backfield men in the conference. Jimmy leads the fast breaking runs of the southern and also does the passing. John Raitt, husky fullback, will aid with his line-plunging.

Gauchos Work Hard

Coach Spud Harder has been working his Gaucho varsity hard in preparation for tonight's contest. With two exceptions the Gauchos will be in tip-top shape. Peirino Merlo is out with an injured shoulder, while Danny Mulock, whose injured hip has kept him out of practice all week, will start the game. Local supporters are hoping that Mulock is able to play most of the game tonight, for his brilliant play in the Tempe game aided materially in the outcome of the contest.

Players Ready

The rest of the team is set for the contest. Coach Harder has drilled his men thoroughly in preparation for the famed Redlands passing attack. Backed up by Doug Oldershaw and Fred Monson, the Gaucho line figures to stop the Bulldog running attack, and if the backs are able to knock down the southerner's passes, prospects for a Gaucho victory will be bright.

Former Staters Wed Saturday

• Two former Staters, Audrey Moore and Richard Waterman will be united in holy wedlock Saturday noon at the Unitarian church, with Dr. Wm. Maxwell performing the ceremonies. Miss Moore, is a member of Tau Gamma Sigma social sorority, and is well known to State students. The bride will be unattended. Mr. Waterman is a former Tau Omega was a prominent member of the college band, and other musical organizations. F. "Chappie" Harrison will act as best man, with Ronald Crary, Ed Cole and Fred Lambourne as ushers.

Rooter Requests Recognition

By CHRISTINE McDONALD

• Of course we rooters aren't asking for bouquets, but sometimes I think an orchid or two would not be amiss.

Take last Friday night for instance. I was one of many who trekked down to Peabody stadium to secure half a seat in the girls' rooting section. Carefully placing my pillow on the bench (I hadn't known we were to sit in the bleachers) I squeezed into an all too small space and began arranging my various belonging so that I could have one free hand with which to wave extremely unhappy shins. Despite it I had scarcely become settled, I seemed, before the team made its appearance on the field. Naturally we all stood up to wave and cheer, and it was then that I had a premonition that all would not be smooth sailing for the rooter.

Such minor irritations as a hoarse throat and a very weary arm are

• Football players, students, faculty members, the State college band, and local Boosters and Santa Barbara citizens began pouring out of the city today, with the Gaucho gridsters leading the all-day parade, getting away at 800 a.m. this morning in a special bus.

Student bandmen are to leave at 10 o'clock aboard the green Gaucho Special to perform at Putman field tonight. Members of the musical organization leaving include Ronald Crary, K. Mathews, Fred Lambourne, Ed Cole, Wells McAllister, Don Ollis, Harry Stewart, Bernard Foy, Bill Murphy, Harrison Hopkins, Roland McDonald, David Westcott, Edward Craviotto, Phil Turnbull, Walmer Willis, Charles Noble, Elmer Neibur, Milton Jones, Kenneth Cummings, Sherman Logan, Erwin Day, Willie Minitto, Grant Hodge, Tommy Hollensteiner, Guy Lowe, Jim Kelly, Paul Davis, Bob Williams, Earl Donze, Bod Conrad, Jack Austin, Cliff Peterson, T. Soule and Jack Manson.

• Roy L. Gammill will present a play-by-play broadcast of the Santa Barbara State-Redlands university game over KDB at 8 p.m. tonight. The broadcast will come through the service of a leased telegraph wire. It will be broadcast in the same manner that the San Diego game was last year.

Plans to take a second Greyhound bus for Booster members was called off late yesterday, with most of the local supporters taking their own cars. Student drivers are particularly urged by the administration to observe safety rules on the 165 mile journey.

Administration heads reminded students that all leaving early and thus missing classes must make arrangements before leaving. Direction details are shown on page four, by courtesy of the Southern California Automobile club.

Pan-Hell Council Holds Meeting

• Pan-Hellenic council held its regular meeting at the home of Velma Jean Jones, at 818 E. Pedregosa street Wednesday evening. The meeting began with a dinner and was followed by the usual business. Members of Pan-Hellenic council, representing all sororities, are Velma Jean Jones, Jane Leslie, Helen Buckman, Norma Monson, Theda Call, Nadine Arundell, Betty Palmaymesa, Rosalind Rawicz, Frances Hoelscher, Jane Goslin, Ellen Seymour, Mary Alice Halferty, and Louise Boyd.

not, of course, to be mentioned; but when something as vital as a tender shin enters the picture, it deserves attention. Every time the girls in front of me jumped up to wave and yell their appreciation of some football feat they would push their unattached bench against my shins and hold it there until ready to reseat themselves. Being inclined toward a spartan view of suffering, I said nothing at first. However, my "spartanism" soon failed; and when I explained the situation to these girls, they were kind enough to desist torturing me.

When I reached home about "that time" and after a perfect evening, I decided to take inventory. Besides a sore throat and a general condition of weariness, I had a stiff arm, a slight burn where someone's cigarette ashes had lit, and a pair of extremely unhappy shins. Despite it all I know that, orchid or no orchid, I would be right in there again cheering for our "Big Green Machine."

Follow the Gauchos

• Tonight there awaits for the many representatives of State college, a test of both physical and moral ability. When the Galloping Gauchos go onto Putman field they will be ready for the battle, which they have on their hands. Coaches Harder and Wilton have trained these men for five days for this encounter. As far as the team is concerned, there need be no worry. Their role will be straightly played. They will fight to win, and to win fairly. But this is not what we have to say.

As the team conducts itself, so the fans must. Our squad must set the obligations of sportsmanship. We must follow them.

There will be a multitude of obstacles in the way of gaining a clear frame of mind and a spirit of clean play. First, as referee, there will be James Tunney, the man who executed the decisions as he saw them in the 1936 San Diego game. It will be easy for players to go into that game looking for the wrongs; likewise the fans may become obsessed with the same idea on slight excuse. The easiest thing to do would be to let our imaginations run away with us. But, it is certain that the team will not be carried away, and we must "follow the Gauchos."

A second obstacle might be the Redlands pass of 1935, and a third, the Redlands publicity releases of the past week. Still, we must keep a level head. When Santa Barbara State comes on that field there must be but a single aim, to win that game and win it squarely.

Quotable Quotes

(By Associated Collegiate Press)

• "There is little to be attained in thumbing a ride in the rumble seat of a college curriculum," warns Dean Guy Stanton Ford, acting president of the University of Minnesota. "It is not the business of a university to educate its students against their will. What you get out of college and out of life will be a measure of what you put in it."

"My personal grievance is that you are all too busy—you go, see, hear, play too much," President Ada L. Comstock told young women at the opening exercises of Radcliffe college. "... your lives are too broken by telephone calls, meetings, rehearsals and other distractions."

"The difficulty presented by delayed adolescence in college students can only be overcome by a desire on the part of the college to understand each individual and an attitude of cooperation on the part of the student in the enterprise of his education." Dean Herbert E. Hawkes, Columbia college, reports to President Nicholas Murray Butler.

❖ The Spicer ❖

• Here is a swell little personal incident we heard and must pass along to you. PETIE MCKINNEY and JEAN McARTHUR knew of each other but never had that friendly understanding. Petie invites Jean to lunch, she accepts, they talk it over, understand each other and are the best of friends from now on. Plenty of other similar situations exist on the campus that could have as nice a settlement—if others had what it takes. There are few such.

News scoop of the week. Headline reads: Near-tragedy ends boat ride! Story: Boy and girl go out to sea in a rowboat. Girl loses oar. Boy sheds clothing to recover oar. Current separates oar and boy from boat. Girl hails passing speedboat that takes rowboat in tow and picks up oar and boy. Principle tragedy found in embarrassment due to shedding of clothes to recover oar. Still it could have ended much worse than it did. There is a new student named Dick McKeon who many think looks like Howie Yeager. This should relieve some of the congestion. Jack Shackleford timed it just right to make the old gag work. He ran out of gas on the Mesa. Romeo Dick Saxe has no scruples. It isn't so bad holding conversations below fair maidens' windows at the midnight hour but it's going too far when you pretend to leave and then stay to hear one girl say, "He is the only blond boy I ever liked. We must pretend to be nonchalant, etc." Imagine her embarrassment when you laughed and came out of hiding!

Apologies for repetition of names. We'll be back next week with very very new ones.

Play Promises Much Mystery

'Whistling in the Dark' Teaser Shows Plot of Production

By TOMMY HART

• Of course you've whistled in the dark when you're scared. But, I'd like to place a little two to one bet of a "bucks dollar" that you've never whistled in the middle of the night with revolvers pointing at you from all alleyways of escape and with the small item of a death threat hanging over your head and over that of the girl you think is Garbo and West rolled into one. But that's what Wallace Porter, the hero of "Whistling in the Dark" did, and you are invited to drop in at the college auditorium on the nights of December 1, 2 and 3, to see him do it. Here's a few angles on how it happened.

Wallace Porter, and his fiancée are house-hunting for a nice large, quiet home in the country. They find it but it is filled with gangsters. The latter try to get our hero out nicely, even give him a couple of drinks—the hooch makes him blabby about his crime writing and above all that he could concoct a perfect mystery that would leave no clue.

The rough, tough boys take him up on it and throw him right to work to plan the murder of the Crime Commissioner. They toss him into a gloomy looking layout, with a radio, a telephone with cut wires, two guards, plenty of Jake Leg (whiskey) and a lot of verbal abuse. The big shot tells them to produce or else he'll shoot 'em both stiff enough to stand in front of a cigar store. With horror in his heart but professional pride in his work he plans as nifty a little murder as a strong-hearted man ever fainted over. Of course we can't tell you what the plot is, but he shows the gang boys how to throw the skids to the crime commish and turns around and brews another plot to keep 'em from sluggin' him around. If you don't go for this play, you're bugs! What a play! Algernon, what a play!

Questionnaire

• Do you think the rooting section should be divided, men in one section and women in the other?

ALFRED MANSFIELD

Association between men and women should certainly be encouraged, not only on the campus but in the rooting section as well.

MARGARET PARKS

Absolutely! The spirit is lots better. The division of the women's pompons and the men's white sweaters are twice as effective. Let the dates meet later.

CHICK MOORE

Let them mix. Both men and women will yell louder and better if they are together. Separate rooting sections do not seem to work as effectively as one. This was shown at the Tempe game.

OLIVER McAFEE

Not only in campus activities should men and women be undivided, but most certainly in the rooting sections.

BOB STROSNIDER

The men and women should be together. They get along pretty well and make more noise.

KITCHEN AND HART

By all means. All pride and dignity are dropped when the two are separated. Then they will cut loose. Instead of the male species being strong and silent to impress the frail little quail by their side, they will relax and roar.

AL BELPREZ

For a more efficient rooting section separate men and women sections are desirable, but for gosh sakes, don't expect fellows with dates to break it up.

News Editor Speaks Before Students

• C. Laurence Smith, news editor of the Santa Barbara News-Press, spoke before the College International Relations club last night following a dinner at the Pekin Low cafe, on the situation in the Orient.

"Japan is the only power that has violated the nine power pact of 1922," Mr. Smith stated. "She is not keeping faith with any country."

Mr. Smith told of the power of the Japanese Merchant marine, the international set up, the disadvantages of cutting off trade with the Orient.

In My Opinion . . .

By TED JOHAM

• I came across a bit of literature written by one of the members of the Big Green team and just to prove that the gridlers here at State are not all muscle, I pass it on to you. To wit:

The ground was hard and solid,
It was a lovely day,
The day of that fateful moment,
When Bill ran the other way.

The goal post loomed before him,
His steps were far and wide,
When he scored that touchdown.
But for the other side.

Somewhere the people laugh
and shout,
But how can we be gay?
'Cause Bill, the pill, got mixed-up,
And ran the wrong way.

New Professor Relates Past

Kinsell Studies History, Languages, Previous to Biology

• History, romance languages, and finally, after being oriented, biology—those are the fields in which Dr. Katherine Kinsell, new State college professor, studied during her scholastic career.

Dr. Kinsell was born in Oregon, but her family moved to Los Angeles, where she procured her A. B. in biology.

Dislikes Worms

It is amusing to note that at one time, Dr. Kinsell flatly refused to study biology because she hated the idea of having to cut up a "nasty" earthworm. She changed her major to the Roman. She selected history as her major and refused to have anything to do with biology. Afterwards, however, Dr. Kinsell became greatly interested in languages so she changed her major to the romance languages and dropped history. She soon overcame her original disgust towards biology and "worms" (most of her friends were interested in this field, and she was forced to visit them in the different laboratories) and once again she changed her major, this time to biology.

Teaches at Scripps

Dr. Kinsell was given an assistantship in biology at Scripps college, after leaving U.C.L.A. Here she did work under Sarah R. Arsat, and at the same time procured her Secondary credential at Claremont college. She returned to U.C.L.A. for her M.A. and soon afterwards was granted an assistantship in botany at the University of Illinois, from which institution she received her Ph.D. this last June.

Dr. Kinsell is a Phi Beta Kappa, and is a member of Sigma Xi, national honorary scientific fraternity. She has blue eyes, likes corn, and is a horseback, tennis and swimming enthusiast. She is particularly fond of field trips and has visited the Santa Barbara islands several times. She has also made innumerable back-country trips into the desert and the mountains.

SPORTS

SPORT SHORTS

By WALDO PHELPS

Coach "Spud" Harder's fighting sophomores smothered the famed Redlands passing attack and sprung Bobbie Morelli loose to obtain a 6 to 0 lead with the ball game rapidly drawing to a close. The unexpected climax of the game found a Redlands pass complete and the expected win turned into a 7 to 6 defeat.

Last year in Pershing Park, El Gaucho set himself for revenge, and with Bobbie Morelli showing the way, the Bulldogs were sent back home defeated by a 13 to 0 score.

Many dopesters figure that the outcome of tonight's contest may well decide who the ultimate winner of the conference championship will be. Much depends on the condition of Dan Mulock, who pulled ligaments on his hip while turning in his great playing against Tempe.

Watch the "battle of the centers" tonight. Mal Rink of the Bulldogs and Don Hart of the Gauchos are the outstanding men for their positions in the conference and their performances will be closely watched.

Redlands and Santa Barbara football games have always been hard fought affairs, and the rivalry over the outcome of tonight's contest dates back to the 1930 game, which was also played at Redlands. The game was very hard fought and found Santa Barbara on top in an upset victory, 7-6. The Bulldogs gained revenge in the years to come and they have never failed to run up a large score when the opportunity presented itself. After absorbing a 33-0 defeat in 1933, and a 28 to 0 setback in 1934, the Gauchos headed South in 1935 with a good chance of defeating the Bulldog. The story of that contest is well known.

STATE MEN AID TENNIS CLUB FORMATION

Headed by Leslie Allen, number one player in Santa Barbara, the Santa Barbara State college tennis club took form this week with Paul Jones, assistant dean of men as sponsor.

The club is being organized as a means of fall practice for those State college students interested in a tennis team to be formed later in the spring. Anyone is eligible to join and must sign up in the dean's office.

Hal Corham, professional at the Biltmore Hotel, will act as coach for the group. Among those already in the club are: Bob Mathews, Mike Kowry, Jack Peres, Paul Pearson, Claude Gragan and Leslie Allen from Santa Barbara high school; Harry Nethery from Pomona; and Ferd Davis and Earl Doywel from Riverside.

Prospects are bright for a future varsity and freshman tennis team and with a free lance schedule for pre-season practice, they should be in top form for conference play.

Heading for Victory Tonight?

Gauchos rooters are banking heavily on Danny Mulock, Howard Yeager and Doug Oldershaw in the important Redlands game this evening. Mulock is recovering from a severe hip injury, while Yeager and Oldershaw are "ready to go."

Palmer Adds Skill to Staters' Forwards

By DOUGLAS DUCKHAM

Let those who are already looking forward to next year's football season and the future possibilities take notice of husky Marvin Palmer, a Los Angeles junior college transfer who is now only a sophomore. With two more seasons ahead of him State boosters look to at least one outstanding lineman for the seasons of 1938 and 39.

Boasts Boxing Fame

Marv, a 190 pounder and a good cog at left tackle, is one of the best liked personages on the campus, yet on the gridiron he can be, with little effort one of those people whom opponents desire to stay away from. Maybe he has acquired a "tough attitude" in competition from his boxing experience, for the downtown Y.M.C.A. of Los Angeles used to boast of Palmer as one of their best heavyweight boxers. In regards to the possibility of intercollegiate boxing to be sponsored by State, Marv replied, "I think that the school could afford a good boxing instructor, especially since the sport has already gained major recognition in the Pacific Coast conference. San Jose and the state college at Davis turn out some of the best amateurs in the ring today, and with the material around here we really ought to feel ashamed of such a lack of interest in ring activities."

Likes Good Food

Amongst the other improvements that Palmer would like to see introduced is a steady training table for. "If a fellow has at least one well balanced meal a day it sure helps and a good dinner would certainly improve some of those bachelors." Also a new objection which he sponsors is that of an improvement on the letterman sweaters. "Last semester when I was showing a couple of fellows from down south around the campus they remarked about the award sweaters, and I feel, as do outsiders, that there should be stripes

Likes Peabody Lights

Commenting on the new lights at Peabody stadium Palmer gave Santa Barbara a boost by announcing that he thinks the field is better lighted than any which he has seen, including Gilmore Stadium in Los Angeles. "I enjoy participating in night games very much, as you aren't working under a blazing sun and of course in this locality it is much better for the gate. By the way, "Spud" really has a swell system on the practice field, this idea of not scrimmaging every night is exceptionally good strategy, for last year at L.A.J.C., I broke my ankle in a scrimmage session before the season ever started and I was laid up for all of our games."

Peagreeners Engage Ventura Pirates in Southland

Tonight at eight o'clock, the Santa Barbara State college freshmen football team will play the strong Ventura junior college eleven in the southern city. Little is known of the strength of the Pirates, except that they handed Fullerton J. C. an early-season setback.

Coaches "Sandy" Sanderson and Earle Fredburg have worked their charges hard in preparation for tonight's game. Blocking and tackling have been stressed all week, and improvement was noted in the Los Amigos game. Dummy scrimmage was also held to improve the execution of plays. Fullback Ben Pitcher is out of the game with an injured shoulder, which puts a serious dent in the already small frosh squad.

Three Squads Fight for Title

San Diego, Redlands, State Top Conference As Loop Play Progresses

Rapidly reaching the height of the 1937 season with San Diego leading Redlands and State in what promises to be a plenty tough competition, the Southern California conference shows the ability to stir up real interest in minor loop play.

At the present the favorite appears to be the winner of the Redlands-Santa Barbara game with San Diego wedged in between. This means that the three teams are so close that the team that can win any one of these games can win the other.

While State and Redlands are having a hard battle on the Redlands field San Diego will be winning their third game of the league against La Verne. Still La Verne might win. Rockne beat Army when it was the impossible thing to do. Also according to conference releases La Verne is planning its big spill.

Whittier will engage in battle with Fresno State college. Fresno is the favorite but this is no settled matter for Whittier has the potential strength of upsetting any team met. The Fresno boys are undefeated and that is to the credit of no team this year. In the way of past records the Poets have been defeated by three 6 point margins this year, while Fresno has snared 40 points to their opponents 13.

Occidental is being punished by the gods for tying the Gauchos. First, Moradian, sensation of the conference, was injured in the San Diego game. He will be back in at least three weeks. Now news comes that Rejebian, Oxy's other star, is out for the season after the La Verne game which also explains the low score. Luckily they are not playing this week but next week they must play Redlands.

State Gains News Clippings Allans Bureau Serves in Publicity

• State College's Publicity Bureau under the direction of R. K. Kaime is being run for the purpose of getting news about our students in the local and out of town papers. According to Kaime we are accomplishing our goal.

Clippings Bureau Aids

Clippings are taken by Allans Clipping Bureau, a nation wide organization, and an accurate check is sent back to the school. Files are being kept of all articles that are written in other papers, no matter how large or important they may be. Smaller daily and weekly newspapers have been printing, word for word, all the bureau have to offer.

"When a story is written about a student of this school for another paper, it is written as if one of us were a member of their staff." Dick Kaime thus described the functioning of the publicity bureau.

Convention Closes with Talk on Democracy

believe in a certain amount of individualism, yet we have sanctioned the social security act; we swear by religious toleration, yet we suppress the polygamy colony in Utah, these were merely a few of the samples of how difficult it is to reconcile various portions of our national pattern.

Finally Dr. Bode came to the conclusion that it was the business of education, since it is the only social institution that will do it, to examine this cultural heritage of the race, to present its weaknesses, its contradictions and then to suggest the alternatives which may be adopted to improve the existing situation.

Following the address by Dr. Bode, a round-table, presided over by Dean Kafauer of Stanford university proceeded to discuss the address. Members of round-table group were Dr. Quillan of Stanford, Dr. Harry Girtvetz of Santa Barbara State, and Mr. Hughes of Santa Barbara high. Curtis Warren, superintendent of city schools closed the session expressing appreciation for fine cooperation of State college and fine leadership of Frances Noel of the city schools. This two day conference under the stimulating leadership of outstanding educators was the first sub-regional conference of the Progressive Education association to be held west of the Mississippi river. Although an attendance of 400 would have been considered successful, all records were broken with the registration reaching the 1000 mark.
