Crowd Sees Student Revue

Manson, Davis, Putnam, Pilling Take Leads
 in College Show

STOOGES GET LAUGHS

Lambourne's Collegians
 Find Approval in State Audience

Playing before a capacity house, the second night of the Seventh Annual Roadrunner Revue proved to be the most successful entertainment of any production in the history of the college.

Credit for student talent covers the entire cast with the "three stooges," Bud Burdick, Lloyd Borstlemann, and Pat Kelly carrying off the top comedy honors. Mary Ellen Putnam in the title role, "Molly," Jack Manson, hero and boyfriend, Gerry Pilling, as Irene the siren, Mike Davis the director of the show within the show, and Norman Becchio, the absent minded professor were outstanding as the straight characters as well as in their individual musical numbers.

Included in the talent specialties were Harry Sloan's presidential fire-side chat, Renata Maccianti and chorus in their oriental dance, Norma Yauney's accordion solo, Lois Cobb and Ellen Deverman in the two-piano number, Mary Frances McKinney, Howard Yeager and entire chorus in the waltz routine, Rosalind Kelly and Carlos Bee, who stepped into the part on last minute notice, for their "finished love" skit and the finale number of tapster Marcellus Jones.

Fred Lambourne and his Collegians were at their best for the Revue and added immeasurably to its success. Off-campus players who contributed their time were James Campiglia, Jr., who led the band by remote control in a violin solo, Nathan McCrae, Corley Clark, Lonnie Sparks, Herb Geisel, Bill Lanford and Norma Yauney.

Offstage credits for work done should include Frank Cole and Bert Fitzpatrick for their original songs and orchestrations, Dave Westcott and Frank Lore for stage management, Carol Lambrecht and Helen Longawa for make-up and costumes, Jimmie Fullerton for his help in directing and the valuable assistance of Dr. Hazel Severy and Dr. Helen Sweet, faculty advisors.

Alpha Phi Gamma Plans Dinner for May 27

Alpha Phi Gamma, national journalistic fraternity, held a short business meeting Tuesday afternoon in the A.W.S. clubroom to discuss the El Gaucho-Alpha Phi Gamma dinner dance to be held at El Cortijo on May 27.

Star reporter awards will be given at the dinner and the announcement of next year's editor will be made in charge of arrangements.

Nat Hales, editor of El Gaucho, is the fraternity will meet in Ebbets' hall for dinner next Tuesday to hear pledge papers. Formal initiation of pledges Theda Call, Waldo Phelps and Bob Murray will be held preceding the banquet on May 27.

Instructors Visit Landscape Class

Howard A. Campion, assistant superintendent of schools in Los Angeles, and Claude L. Nihart, supervisor of industrial arts and vocational education, visited State Tuesday, May 10, for the purpose of seeing the teacher-training work in the Industrial Education department and also to study the courses in landscaping architecture and garden planning maintained by the department.

The forenoon was spent in the gardens at Franceschi park which is the laboratory for the garden classes. The chief reason for the interest on the part of the visitors in this phase of the work is that Los Angeles is now installing a system of training for garden workers.

Last year more than half of the industrial arts teachers in Los Angeles were Santa Barbara graduates, and more could have had jobs, according to Mr. Nihart, if more graduates had been available. This year another considerable number will be admitted to that system as indicated by the high rating which our men made in the recent examinations held by the Los Angeles City schools.

Barron Leads State Band Concert

Milton Jones, Stanley
 Cox Feature Program
 As Soloists

The initial concert of the State college band will be heard Thursday night, May 19, in the auditorium at 8:30 o'clock as part of a program to develop the interests in, and the activities of the music department.

The program is under the direction of Robert Louis Barron, music instructor. Soloists for the evening will be Milton Jones, clarinetist and Stanley Cox, pianist. Jones will render the novelty number of Bucalossi, "Grasshopper's Dance" with band accompaniment. The outstanding numbers by the entire band include the overture, "Orpheus in the Underworld," by Offenbach, the suite, "Ballet Egyptian," by Luigini, "Mystic Knights," by Hildreth and the prelude, "The vision of Fuji-san," by Ketelbey.

During the intermission coffee will be served in the foyer. There is no admission price and all students and townspeople are cordially invited to attend. Patrons and patronesses for the evening include a number of the faculty and well-known local citizens.

Patrons and patronesses:

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Abraham, Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Barnett, Dean Lois M. Bennink, Dr. Henry Eichheim, Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel E. Ericson, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eldred, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Girvetz, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Harder, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Hile, Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Jacobs, Captain and Mrs. Paul Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Kupfer, The Hon. Mayor and Mrs. Patrick J. Maher, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Mather, President and Mrs. Clarence L. ## HILE PRESENTS FINAL PLAY OF YEAR

"Michael and Mary," a modern drama by A. A. Milne, is being produced by the Players club under the direction of Frederic W. Hile and will be presented Thursday and Friday evenings, May 26 and 27 at 8:00 o'clock in the college auditorium.

Graduating seniors are to be the honored guests of the Players club and will be admitted free to the production. The play requires four different stage sets and is the most extensive, different and ambitious play attempted by the club, according to Mr. Hile. He states, "This is a light romantic play so should be of greater interest to the students at large."

The cast of characters are Rowland Foulstone as Michael; Winifred Nichols as Mary; Clyde Cadwell as Harry Price; Chick Moore; David; Rosalind Kelly, Ramo; Bert Fitzpatrick, Reverend Simon Rowe; Dawn Tripp, Violet; Alfred Artuso, inspector; Gwelda Lloyd, Miss Welby; Alice Goff, Mrs. Tullivant; Carl Jorgensen, Doctor Roberts.

Modern in every detail, the play deals with a problem of married life in an unusual way. Jed Blake is heading the stage crew, Phyllis Roberts will act as prompter, Mabel Forsyth is in charge of ticket sales and Waldo Phelps is handling the publicity.

State Gives Major for Musicians

Plans for the new music major to be presented on the State curriculum was placed on the college curriculum committee rapidly being organized under the direction of music department faculty. The new major was placed on the college curriculum after permission from the State Department of Education was granted on April 17.

Courses are being planned in instrumental instruction, voice study, theory and method of instruction. The major is being shaped to meet demands for public school music and special subjects.

There will be some students who will begin the major next fall with an advanced standing gained by taking courses now on the curriculum. Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, who has been out of college the past semester because of serious illness, will return in the fall to take charge of instruction. Mrs. Barnett will be assisted by Mrs. Anita Priest and Robert Louis Barron, music instructors.

Badminton Strikes Collegiates as Fad of Day El Gaucho Reporter Discusses Intricacies of New Sport

This seems the proper time of year for a most informal discourse on the nation's latest fad . . . badminton. Of course everyone knows how this national pastime originated in a tavern during the sixteenth century, when a couple of chronic inebriates inserted a cock's feather in a cork from a wine jug and batted it about the rafters with slightly used bottles. Even in this modern day and age one has to be half-shackled to indulge in this invigorating sport.

Of course there have been a few modifications to the game such as restricting the space in which the game is played, the bottles have been changed to racquets ($10.53 including tax), and intricate, well-balanced shuttlecocks have been devised to make the game more interesting. In spite of all these modern improvements the game is still a combination of ping-pong, tennis, horseshoes, polo, miniature golf, and a junior pentathlon track meet. Perhaps a few pointers from one novice to another would indeed be timely at this stage of the game.

First of all a court should be marked out in some grassy area; grass is usually quite slippery during the evening which adds much hilarity to the game. The net should be strung up just high enough to make it difficult to hit the "birdie" over and low enough to hinder walking under it in the dark. The court should be marked out rather roughly so as to provide opportunity for dispute as to where the outside line is located . . . for after all what game is complete without a little delicious argumentative spirit. It has been suggested that old racquets be substituted in place of your good ones during this stage of the game for racquets cost money and heads are hard when arguing. It is always good to plant a few lemon trees and rose bushes right in the middle of the court as they provide natural hazards which tend to make the game more exciting.

Now that you have laid out your court following the directions outlined above, it would be well to learn how to play the game. The termination of a match arrives when one player has scored twenty-one points, it gets too dark to play properly,

WOODHEAD WINS DEPARTMENT POSITION

The Industrial Education department met, for the last time this year, Tuesday during second hour for the election of officers.

Dale McNeice, acting as president for the last time, conducted the election of new officers. In the position of president, Marcellus Jones was eliminated in favor of Malcolm "Blocky" Woodhead, who was a candidate in the Associated Student Body election. Marion Maaskant was elected vice-president over Jeff Powell; Alvin Lappin, was elected secretary; William Mulligan, treasurer; Cam Sellar, social chairman, and Bruce Steele, publicity chairman.

Mr. E. E. Ericson, head of the industrial education department, made a short talk about the vocational gardening class that is operating from his department. He also spoke about students dropping from school because of finding jobs during the summer. "Many of you," said Mr. Ericson, "will find some kind of work during the summer that will seem better, at the time, than returning to school to finish your education. It seems a shame, that, after you have gone so far towards your goal, you should give it up for employment of more than likely temporary nature."

The department will hold a skating party at the rink in Ventura, May 26. The members of the department are invited to bring guests and no charge will be made as the hall is rented to the department for the night. Instructors will be present to show the students some of the fine points in the art of roller skating.

Tentative plans have been made for a beach party to be held in conjunction with the home economics department on Friday evening, May 27. The party will probably be held at East Beach.

The spring formal banquet, which is one of the big functions of the year, will be held on June 4, the evening of the senior ball. No time has yet been set, but the price per plate will be the same as last year, 75 cents per person.

Final Change Centers on Matinee

Visitors See Special Show
 of Revue at Five O'clock
 Instead of Beach Dance

Last minute changes in the State college Estudiantina were ordered by the executive committee after the success of the Roadrunner Revue Thursday evening brought a demand for another entire show. According to the present plan the Revue will start at five in the College auditorium and the schedule of events at the beach will be sharply curtailed.

Registration will start at 11 in the college quad and will extend to two while department exhibits will take place at the same time. At two there will be a brief assembly in the auditorium at which President Phelps, Danny D'Alfonso, Doug Duckham, Doug Oldershaw and Dewitt Trewitt, executive chairman, will speak.

Picnic Served at Beach
 Following the assembly the group will go in parade with police escort to East Beach where beach recreations will take place until 3:30 when the picnic supper will be served. After eating the group will parade back to the college.

The Roadrunner Revue will be the full show produced last night. According to present plans the show will start at five and be out at seven. It was the decision of the executive committee that the show would furnish the best opportunity for entertaining visiting students.

Revue Prices Lowered
 Prices on the Revue are 25 cents for college students and 50 cents to townspeople. Guests holding Estudiantina guest meal tickets will be admitted free.

Special request for the cooperation of all students with cars to aid in transportation of the guests has been made by the committee. Official Gaucho car signs may be obtained in the quad during registration. Also all groups aiding at the beach are asked to report at 1:30 at East Beach to help in the preparation.

Music Educators Open Meetings to Students

The California-Western Music Educators' conference, southern district, will have its annual spring meeting tomorrow morning at the Santa Barbara Junior high school under the leadership of Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, college music department head, who is president this year.

Of special interest to college students will be the section meetings at 10 o'clock. The elementary section will present music by the Garfield elementary school glee club, "Creative Rhythmic Expression as Outgrowth of Units of Work," and an address by Mr. Donald Pond, director of the Pillsbury Foundation school. The secondary section will take as its subject, "Problems and Trends in the Light of New Educational Development."

The instrumental clinic will present a panel discussion of, "Some Pertinent Problems of the Instrumental Music Teacher." A general session will convene at 11 o'clock with special music by St. Anthony's Seminary choir and the State college women's glee club. A luncheon at El Paseo with Dr. Henry Eichheim as principal speaker will conclude the program.

Women Elect Heads for Department

The women's physical education department meeting was held Tuesday evening, May 10, with President Alice Lamb in charge.

Election and installation of officers was held for the coming semester with Lois Arthur, president; vice-president, Gwelda Lloyd; secretary-treasurer, Jessie Lady; Ellen Moore, program chairman; Mary Alice Murray, publicity chairman.

Plans were made for some of the activities of the fall semester. Pictures of a summer camp sponsored by the Phi Delta Pi, national professional fraternity of women's physical education were shown.

COUNCIL CHANGES BUDGET SET-UP

Monday evening will see the most important student legislative council meeting of the year. That of consideration and passage of the financial budget for the coming school year. After weeks of consideration, the finance committee will present its recommendations based on expected income, acting after interviews with each person submitting demands for student money for the ensuing year. The new budget will be an innovation, and a much needed innovation, in its form, being of a positive nature, anticipating all activity deficits which have occurred yearly in certain undertakings of the student body, which have not been included in the appropriations passed by previous councils.

Based on the theory that student body finances should be run on a good business basis, the finance committee is following the policy inaugurated by Danny D'Alfonso in working to reduce the heavy indebtedness which the student body has been building up for many years. Putting the student body on a paying basis, and thus saving interest costs which yearly rob us of hundreds of dollars, is the purpose.

The demands from campus organizations reported by the finance committee is that many are asking for larger budgets with which to support bigger and better activities for their individual groups next year. The motives here are to be recommended highly, in that they show progressive spirit of the type that will make Santa Barbara State college one of the topnotch institutions in the field of extra-curricular activities of value to the students. Going back to last year, for a moment, it must be remembered that it was possible to grant almost all demands presented. This occurrence is unique in student body affairs and was possible due to increased enrollment and the prospect of a prosperous year, dependent in part on the increasing football receipts. Comes now the demands for this year. Knowing that they received full budget demands last year, many are asking for increases or as large amounts as they received last year. With business prospects for the coming year uncertain due to reasons including an anticipated decline in general business, on senior-wonder team to draw football crowds, and a lack of facilities to gain many more student body members, the finance committee has adopted the system of positive allotments, anticipating all deficits, and working to place over two thousand dollars in the debt retirement fund.

Another important change in this year's budget, is in the financing of minor sports, previously accomplished by separate grants by the legislative council. With the setting up of the Board of Athletic Control, these sports will receive their allotments from the new board. This year saw some five thousand dollars granted to athletics, in one form or another. The finance committee is proposing only a three thousand dollar grant to that board, which believes it possible to work on that sum, thus saving the student body the difference, which will go into the debt retirement noted above.

Realization of the aims of the finance committee in putting the student body on a sound financial basis, as the foundation for future progress, should be gained by each person connected with the expenditure of student funds for the coming year, before he or she makes unwarranted demands at the special council meeting.—N.H.

DOES YOUR NEWSPAPER SATISFY YOU?

Is your college newspaper satisfactory? There are a few who would say it is and too many more who haven't a single opinion one way or the other. In the latter we are not interested for they are neither encouraging nor constructive. But let's hear from those who have positive criticisms to make. The paper is for the students and is paid for by them which should be sufficient reason for a constant interest in its production and contents.

Does the news cover the field satisfactorily? Is the paper unbiased on all campus controversies? Is your favorite organization getting the publicity you think it merits? If not, you are directly responsible for not seeing that something is done about it. Complaints should be registered where they will do good.

What kind of a newspaper are you going to have next year? There are good points favoring both the weekly and the bi-weekly schedule. Mainly, you pay for it. Yet a bi-weekly will give you more space for more timely news. Since reverting to the single paper a week, complaints on lack of representation in the columns of most organizations has increased several hundred per cent.

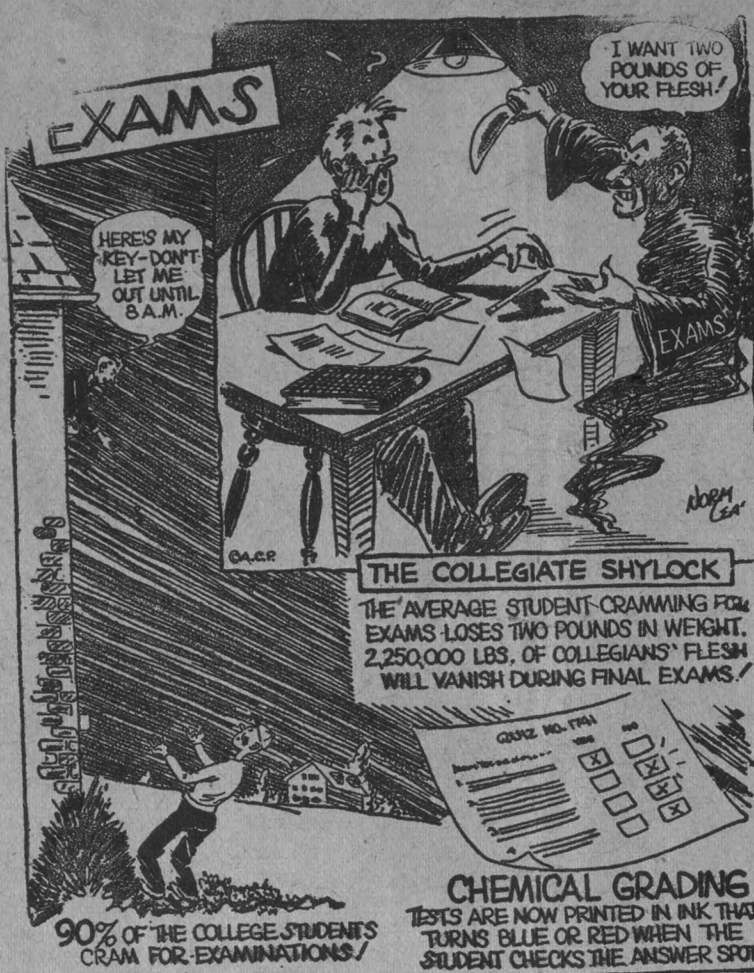

One weapon at your disposal for easing the financial burden is to patronize the advertisers and they alone. A "black list" of merchants not catering to the college pocketbook could be used effectively as it is in many college cities. The result would be greater returns for the wise merchant who advertises and consequently more advertisers to pay for the paper. The condition, if not eliminated, could be alleviated to a high degree... why not?

Douglas Responds to Challenge by Salyer

To the Editor:

Thank you, Mr. Salyer; thank you, first, for a chance to aim another blow at progressive education; and, second, for all the nice things you said about me. I am a little disappointed that he did not carry out his intention to tell me what progressive education was all about, but then it would be expecting quite a bit to ask a college student to explain it.

As I remember Mr. Salyer's article he had several points upon which he tried to criticize me. As far as I can tell here are his objections: one, my logic misses the point; two, it is sheer nonsense to think that the anything more than the will to learn is required; and third, he seems to admire my "slink."

As for my logic missing the point I am not at all opposed to the idea. The very fact that I did not paint the picture vividly enough meant that I would never disclose half of the unfortunate picture. Perhaps after I become a teacher I will discover how bad progressive education really is. Until that time I will accept the word of parents who are compelled to teach their children to spell and student teachers who find that children entering junior high don't know how to read or high school students who don't know how to write a grammatical sentence.

I still insist that while the will to learn is part of the process of education that it is far from being the whole process. Drill and hard work must be the processes of training. Also the student's interest in his work is the duty of the teacher in any system. It is my belief that the teachers in our own college who develop the best attitudes are the essentialists. They do not sugar coat the pill of knowledge and because they do not those are the classes that students like to go to. Honesty is the best policy even for educators.

On the final point I am simply exuberant. If I can slink today, maybe I can travel like Salyer tomorrow.

PRESIDENT'S DESK

By DANNY D'ALFONSO

Raising our weary head above the maelstrom of campus activities we are momentarily able to focus our attention on an item or two of student interest.

One of the things we like to do best each year is to sponsor a good Estudantina. We always enjoy the inward glow that comes as reward to satisfied hosts. And who can deny, too, that there is much inherent value in having good friends from neighboring schools on the campus with us for one day? Our sincerest welcome to our guests. We hope their visit with us will be truly a pleasant one. The Estudantina is financed by a student body appropriation of $200, which requires some very close budgeting. The chairman of the event and the sub-chairman are chosen by a student committee early in the spring. If you hold this year's Estudantina as a successful one, you may well give credit to chairman DeWitt Trewhitt and his able and willing assistants who spent numerous hours making contacts, writing letters, and making many other arrangements.

A move in the right direction, and one that should have been started years ago, was taken by the Welfare Committee at its last meeting. Elsewhere in this issue of El Gaucho will be explained the plan choosing the most appropriate names for our campus roads. Names to go on the ballot will come from student suggestions placed in the box in Dean Bennink's outer office by next Wednesday, May 18. Success in this endeavor is directly in proportion to student interest in giving assistance to the Welfare Committee. It's up to us. This writer stands ready to testify that thinking of suitable appellations is no easy task. In fact, we offer a verbal bouquet (they are cheaper) to the accomplished individual who thinks of one other than "El Gaucho Lane." It should be stated at this time that "El Gaucho Speedway" will absolutely not be considered for the entering road.

The cast of the Roadrunner Revue will never forget the immeasurable gratitude that it owes to Jimmie Fullerton. Irene Minikin, editor of La Cumbre, had her fingers crossed until she was sure the Revue was a success. The connection? Only that $200 of the Revue income goes toward paying the expenses of the yearbook.

Next year's student body budget is at last balancing. The budget will be recommended to the council by the Finance Committee at a special and very important meeting to be held at 7:30, Monday evening, May 16 in room 80 of Pine Hall. The following morning the budget, revised or otherwise by the Council, will be presented to the student body at a regular assembly.

Anyone interested is very cordially asked to attend the Council meeting Monday night. In this way if there are any important changes to be made they may be brought up where the time element is not so great as in assembly and where discussion is unlimited and much more free.

sion by Mr. E. E. Ericson. At 11:30 Louie S. Taylor will speak on "The Story of Metals" and S. O. Werner will speak on home planning and architecture. At 1:00 "After High School, What?" will be an illustrated talk by Roy L. Soules. At 1:30 present occupational opportunities will be discussed by Mr. Ericson.

THE MIKE

WE THOUGHT WE DIDN'T

have anything to write about in this week's column, but we discovered something in the offing in the evening. However, it isn't so pleasant, so we'll save it until after a swell squib for the Revue. Jimmie Fullerton deserves the largest scoop of credit one could gather together for his work on the production—but the enthusiastic acclaim of audiences for both performances speaks far better than any of us could ever comment.

TO GET DOWN TO BRASS

tacks. Incidentally, what this paragraph says deals with "brass" in its best form, if it ever is good. When a show is put on, with proceeds scheduled to aid the college annual, it's just too darn bad when about fourteen of fifteen fellows feel it their duty to the college to sneak in. Especially when a near-full house is expected. Not only that, they seated themselves downstairs, forcing paid admissions into the balcony.

IT'S FUNNY, BUT

It's always the same ones... the ones that chisel into football games... the all around "good kids." This isn't a dirt column, but hail, the chislers! And top honors to Gardenhire and Seeley. THIS IS WORSE AND we don't mean perhaps. A group of co-eds were called upon to investigate a person who was "going through" parked cars on campus during the Revue performance last night. Miss Jean Krueger first noticed the "sticky fingers" at work. The co-eds bounced out and apprehended the only person in sight, who said, "Boo!" Ha, Ha. It's known who he is, and we'll leave it to the campus grapevine. He's a student here. TO COMPLETE THE picture, about 15 tickets, thrown away in the print shop, without numbers and erroneously printed "Sixth annual Revue" were apprehended at the door. The sellers were also apprehended. Pardon our language, but that takes guts.

State Places Fifth in Conference Track Meet at Oxy

Howie Yeager Captures Single Varsity Win

Frosh Take Fourth in Yearling Contests As Kilroy, Miles, Reed, Joham Collect 20 Points for Team

By CHARLES BOWEN

A track season that was as successful as could be expected came to a close last Saturday at the Southern California conference. The meet also marked the last appearance of the Gauchos teams in the league's competition. Santa Barbara placed fifth in the conference. Occidental as was expected, won the title easily followed by Pomona, San Diego, Redlands, Santa Barbara, Whittier, La Verne and Cal Tech in that order.

The outstanding performance for the Gauchos came from Howard Yeager, who won the only Santa Barbara first place in the 220-yard low hurdles. Yeager ran his first complete flight of hurdles of the year in the morning trials. In the afternoon Yeager ran a stirring race to defeat Hedges of Occidental in 24.1. As late as last Wednesday it was a matter of conjecture whether Yeager's injured leg would allow him to enter the meet at all.

Gray Hits Hurdles
Captain Bill Gray was nosed out by Brigham of Occidental in 15s flat. Again it was bad luck that led to Bill's defeat as he hit two hurdles injuring his foot and finishing on intestinal fortitude alone.

Al Sprague was second in the javelin with a toss that nosed out Redlands by 1/4 of an inch. This was not so good a throw as Sprague has made this year but still was good enough for valuable points.

Dick Saxe, Santa Barbara's fast improving discus man, made his best competitive mark of the year to take fourth in that event. Before the event officially started Dick tossed one 134 ft. but was unable to again approach that mark.

Gibson Gets Points
Wells Gibson was second to Kilday in the 440 in 49.7. Gibson's time was about 50s flat which was his fastest time of the year. Gibson might have taken the measure of Kilday had he not been afraid to put the added strain on his injured knee.

The hard luck boys were numerous on the Gaucha squad. The toughest breaks seemed to fall to Clyde Frisholtz who qualified in both the high jump and the high hurdles and was unable to place in either of the events. In the high hurdles Clyde lost his stride and hit a hurdle and fell and was thus out of the race. In the high jump he could not seem to get his usual form quite right and went unplaced.

Cahill Injured
On the injury list also went Bill Cahill who pulled a muscle and did not complete his events. Larry Bowls was the victim of misfortune in that he got in the wrong race. Entered in the 440 and 880 Bowls elected to run one lap of the 880 to warm up for the 440 and could have easily taken fourth in the 880. In the 440 he was boxed in early in

Gauchito Baseballers Battle CCC Camp Team Tomorrow

Second Guess

Although basketball season is over six months away, Coach Willie Wilton is already working hard to secure some strong material for next year's team. Last season as you will probably recall, State had a very disastrous year, for the Gauchos were only able to conquer one team, Cal Poly. But from all reports and indications State will be well represented next season with a team that will do credit to the school.

New Gym
One important factor in Willie's favor is the recent construction of the new Armory. The new building has an excellent basketball court, with a seating capacity of close to 4,000. Willie has lined up another "killer" schedule with teams like Loyola, Santa Clara and U.C.L.A. providing the opposition, so if State can put a winning team on the floor, basketball should be strictly a paying proposition.

Spring Sports
In the extra base hits the frosh are led by Wallack in doubles with six, Wilson in triples with three and Markham in home runs with two. Men with four doubles are Jack Fitzgerald, Morgan and Wrightson. Men with triples include Jim Fitzgerald while West had two and Markham, Wrightson and Halferty had one each. Wilson and Wallack each scored one homer.

Camp Schedules Special Dinner in Honor of Frosh Squad

Coach Jimmy Van Meter and his Gauchito baseball squad will travel into the "back country" of Santa Barbara county for a game with the Twin camps CCC tomorrow. In addition to diamond contests the Gauchitos will be entertained at a camp dinner given in their honor. Coach Van Meter will discuss freshmen activities following the dinner.

John Ingram, former State college football player, is coach of the triple C squad. While the team is not known in the southern part of the county their record shows a high standing among the camps. Following the Saturday game the Pismo Merchants will be met at Pismo on Sunday.

Men making the trip north are Morgan, center field, Wilson, Catcher, Wrightson, pitcher, Wallack, third base, Markham, second base, Fitzgerald, short stop, Pipsch, first base, West, left field, McMurray, right field, and Navarro, utility.

Sunday, May 5, Bakersfield All Stars defeated the College-All Stars, 6-5 in a valley game. The Staters led until they lost on errors in the eighth.

ulations closely enough and the writer feels that they were not at their best.

Coaches See Return of Experienced Players

Entire Squad Enters Competition for Five Sweaters; Compete in Punting, Passing, Blocking, Tackling, Lace-kicking

BULLETIN

Coaches Spud Harder and Willie Wilton left State today to attend the meeting of athletic directors at Fresno State college. According to Coach Harder the proposition of a California State association will be meeting of athletic directors at Fresno State college. According to State, San Jose State, San Diego State and Santa Barbara.

More players are reporting daily to Coaches Spud Harder and Willie Wilton for spring football practice with the conclusion of baseball and track seasons. Players are now preparing for the annual game between the valley and coast boys scheduled for Saturday, May 21. The men are about equally divided and a very hard-fought game is predicted. Also on June 1 five sweaters will be awarded to the outstanding man in each of four departments. These are punting, place kicking, passing, tackling and blocking. Events are open to

Returning from last year's team for the coast lineup will be such experienced players as Marvin Palmer, Jim Woody, Cliff Romer, Bill McArthur, Clyde Frisholtz, Jack McArthur, Charles Bailey, Stan Wilson, son, Peirino Merlo, and Ted Joham.

Transfers and those coming from the frosh are John Moses, Ed Larsen, Fred Baer, Howard Joham, Bob Binns, Jack Frisholtz and Ben Pitcher.

Lining up for the valley boys will be Al Sprague, Forrest Gardenhire, Fred Monson, Art Swenson, George Valos, Dewitt Trewitt, Bill Jessup, Hall, Conrad, Kozart, Shrader, Smyth, Roy Harper, and Sullivan.

New faces and plenty of them will be presented by Harder and Wilton in an attempt to rebuild the team after seven seniors were lost by graduation. Indications point to a much lighter team this year, but also a faster team with more reserve power. This will be very much needed before this season is over, as the schedule calls for games with most of the big schools in the state including San Jose, San Diego, Fresno and San Francisco university.

Experienced backfield men will be plentiful as Merlo, Bailey, Monson, Frisholtz, Wilson and Bill McArthur will be greatly aided by Gardenhire and Pitcher.

Marvin Palmer, Cliff Romer, Dewitt Trewitt, "Greek" Valos and Bill Jessup are experienced linemen around whom the line for next year's team will be built. Next semester, with the actual opening of football season, many more players are expected to strengthen the Gauchos for the year.

Jack Frisholtz has been showing up well in the fullback position during practice. A hard hitting, fast starting runner, Jack is also a better than average passer. The fullback position will be unusually strong this season, as Forrest Gardenhire, 210-pound triple threat letterman is returning to the squad. Roy Rigelatto, transfer from L.A.J.C. also has been giving indications of being a shifty runner in practice.

THE fundamental reason for proclaiming a day on which it is legal to start wearing straw hats, en masse, is merely to eliminate the innate fear (characteristic of male members of the race) of being the only man with a straw hat and thus appearing conspicuous. With Friday the thirteenth singled out as the day on which to be straw hatted, you have the complete assurance that many a masculine, straw covered head will be seen bobbing down State Street at the very opening of the season and there's no further reason for delay.
