"Since this is the first big student body dance of the year we want a large turnout," stated Betty Steele, who is in charge of the dance and decorations as well. She went on to add that the dance will be dressy sport. That is, men should wear ties and women should wear heels and date dresses.

"Come one, come all to the Wild West Party!" That is the invitation of Patti Mayer, president of Phrateres, who announced that the Music Hall on Friday, October 12, at 7:30 will be the scene of the annual party.

"It is loads of fun and every girl on the campus is invited. We will have games of chance, square dancing, and group singing and the hall will be decorated in the best western influence complete with sawdust on the floor," stated Patti.

Anyone wishing to help on the student Handbook, should contact Jean Ausman, editor, at 26001.

Disobedient Freshmen Face Kangaroo Court

Amid screams of "guilty," the traditional session of Kangaroo Court was held Friday, October 5, in the college quad on the Riviera campus and was climaxed by a lively brawl between the men of the sophomore and freshman classes.

Charged with numerous and "terrible" crimes as not wearing green ribbons and insubordination to upperclassmen, Judge Skiv Dahl, head cheese, sentenced Greta Morton, Nell Brown, Shirley Teitsort, and Lorraine Artuso to the lowly task of scrubbing the walk surrounding the pool with tooth brushes.

Judge Dahl sentenced Peggy Crooks and another frosh to empty the pool with thimbles for not carrying their bibles and not knowing the alma mater.

Other girls in the audience were "asked" to turn their sweaters and jackets backwards and to take all pins and clips from their hair.

Six men from the class held a competitive race the length of the pool on all fours, fully clothed, under the watchful supervision of Sharon Smith, Jean Calderon, Eleanor Little, Harvey Schechter, and Tina Sanchez who made up the jury. Freddie Stewart was the lucky winner and was forcefully presented a custard cream pie by frosh Jo Berry.

The watchful eyes of the jury also caught Dean C. Douglas Woodhouse red-handed for smoking in the quad for which he was sentenced to be kissed by pretty Doris Bushman of the entering class who was also being sentenced at that time.

Football player and discharged veteran Ed Grabast was sentenced to find a dime in the pool while blindfolded. Ed was the medium which resulted in a lively brawl between frosh and soph men when he called for a popular vote from the audience as to whether Judge Dahl should take a "swim." Both men from the two classes rushed to the distress of their fellow comrades, and court was adjourned until next year.

Frosh Installed As A.W.S. Members

Freshman women became full fledged members of the Associated Women Students last Monday evening at the annual freshman initiation, in the college cafeteria.

Las Ecpuelas members, under the direction of Doris Saverud, president, officiated at the affair and several teams of freshmen went through the routine "suitcase race", "apple dunking" and "onion race".

Dinner was served to upperclassmen and freshmen by members of the A.W.S. board under the direction of Katherine Nordstrom, A.W.S. vice president.

Students To Hear Lecture On Moscow Conference

Students of Santa Barbara college will be privileged to hear Dr. Robert Gordon Sproul, president of the University of California, speak in the college auditorium tomorrow evening, in his first appearance on this campus. Sproul will speak on the Moscow reparations committee for World War II starting at 8 p.m. Sproul has just returned from Russia where he represented the United States on the reparations committee. He is well versed in international relations and an expert on reparations.

Previous to his speech tomorrow evening, Sproul spoke to a large group of educators at a conference in Sacramento on this same subject.

Provost Clarence L. Phelps issued the invitation to the president of the university on behalf of the college.

The lecture is open to all students and townspeople. No admission card is needed.

All students should make this lecture a must, according to Provost Phelps, as Dr. Sproul's subject is an interesting and timely one.

DR. ROBERT G. SPROUL

Robert G. Sproul, president of the University of California and of California Club, who will speak tomorrow night in the college auditorium.

Other officers elected were Delmer Biesell, vice president; Elinor Zankich, secretary-treasurer; and Marion Nickles, social chairman.

It was announced that the next class meeting will be held October 30.

Delta Phi Delta Slates Activities

Delta Phi Delta, national honorary art fraternity held its first meeting of the semester Thursday afternoon, October 4, in the Art Department office. Under the leadership of Dorothy Dunn, president, the group discussed plans for the year which include a possible auction of members' work in December.

Other members attending were Bernice Depwig, recording secretary; Joy Harwood, corresponding secretary; Delia Davis, treasurer; Gerry Rankins, alumni representative; Mirrie Abbott, historian; and Jane Brock, May Barnes, and Marge Breslin. Representing the faculty were Mr. Walter Cheever, Mr. Jacob Hansen, Mrs. William Morrissey and Miss Elizabeth Mosle.

Petitions for the position of Athletic Manager are being accepted by Ray Puissegur, student body president. It is urgent that this position be filled immediately.

Seniors Elect Griffiths Prexy

Gordon Griffiths was elected senior class president at the senior class meeting, Tuesday, October 2, in room 10. Other new officers elected were Jack Murphy, vice president; Emily Levine, secretary; Joyce Evans, treasurer; and Kit Carson, social chairman. A new office, that of a senior editor to publish monthly a small bulletin was explained, and Kay Dill was elected to the post.

Mr. Will Hayes was nominated as successor to Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, since the latter has asked to be relieved of her job as class advisor.

Virginia Landon, representative to the council, explained the procedure of electing a senior men's representative. The candidate must file a declaration of running, pass a constitutional test, and have a petition signed by at least ten percent of the senior class. The election will be held October 17, according to Miss Landon.

Following a discussion of the pros and cons of changing the school colors from green and white to blue and gold, the new president suggested that the social committee work on planning the events for the year.

Social committee members are Leavitt Cadwell, Edna Shearer, Mary Ellen Roberts, Florence Record, Dolly Kroonin, Janice Thompson, Elaine Garnier, Peggy Upson, Bob Smitham, and Margaret Hodgdon. This group made plans to meet Thursday night, October 4, at the home of chairman Kit Carson, 111 West Valerio Street.

An announcement pertaining to try-outs for the play "Ghosts" was made, and the meeting was adjourned.

EDITORIAL

After this last weekend we feel it only right and proper that something should be said about the lax attitude toward the organization of Freshman initiations.

Kangaroo Court was a fine example of what we mean. It is extremely unfortunate that something that has developed into an institution should have ended so badly. We are not condoning the attitude of the Freshman men in throwing the judge into the pool, but something should have been done to inform the class of the rules governing what may go on during the proceedings. There was never any announcement made saying that no one was to be thrown in the pool. The whole affair left a bad taste in everyone's mouth, and it is too late to rectify the situation now.

There have been many complaints concerning the Freshman picnic. The freshmen felt silly doing what they were asked to do, and the spectators felt silly watching them. There must be such a thing as an adult initiation, but we have yet to see it this year. Freshmen have also complained about paying 35 cents for what they received. The facilities just weren't worth that much money.

The final complaint is that of all the classes the Freshman need an advisor, and they don't have one, perhaps all the difficulties could be straightened out if they did. These are new students, and they have to have some kind of guidance. They can't learn all the college mores just by hearsay. There must be some organized way of informing them.

Highlighting the freshman meeting held recently in the auditorium, was the election of class officers. Larry Wathey, temporary president, was voted into the position permanently. Greta Morton was elected vice president and the new secretary treasurer is Pat McCurdy.

Following announcements concerning coming events, the procedure for becoming a class representative in council was described to the freshmen by Eleanor Little. In order to establish eligibility a constitutional test must be taken and passed. If the applicant for the position passes the examination, he or she is then eligible to take out a petition. This must then be signed by at least 10 per cent of the freshman class.

To the Editor

Editor, El Gaucho;

As the Editor of the Santa Barbara College alumni paper, Hoy Dia, I would like to express my sincere appreciation to one of the representative groups on our campus for their splendid effort towards swelling the fund for the publication of Hoy Dia. This group, Delta Zeta Delta, worked tirelessly during the Summer Session to come to the aid of Hoy Dia, which was in the "red" as far as finances go.

Delta Zeta Delta planned and carried out their Spanish Supper and Fashion show to the successful conclusion of a good time for all, and what is just as important to me, a $392 check for Hoy Dia. Because of this contribution, Hoy Dia will be published throughout the coming school year. Without the help of this group the alumni paper would have been forced to cease functioning this Fall.

May I express my sincere thanks again to Delta Zeta Delta and to all those Gauchos and townspeople who made this event such a grand success.

Esther Janssens Porter,
Editor Hoy Dia, Santa Barbara College Alumni paper.

ably assisted in planning the picnic by June Freer, game chairman; Jo Bandy, food chairman; Gertrude Holland, invitation chairman; and Wilma Gillett, publicity chairman.

Members of the club brought their own dinners. Ball games and community singing added to the enjoyment of the evening.

With Vera Carson as chairman, the college chapter of the Red Cross has been organized this week and has already scheduled several activities. At the meeting held last week, Frances Karpe was elected vice chairman; Kay Updegraff, secretary; and Greta Morton, historian. In charge of the Canteen Corps will be Helen Williams, and Doreen Maegher will head the Production Corps. Miss Charlotte Beister of the Home Economics Department will be the faculty advisor for these groups.

The Canteen Corps, explained Miss Maegher, is tentatively planning a ward party to be held at Hoff Hospital Saturday evening, October 20. The girls in this corps would like to go out to Hoff as a college group once a month.

Other Corps programs which haven't yet been worked out include a series of Sunday afternoon forums with the soldiers and college girls, and possibly some ward shows. Anyone who sings or dances or has other talent, and would like to help entertain, is asked to notify Vera Carson. The College Red Cross chapter is also planning to sponsor some movies on the GI Bill of Rights, and other post-war problems of returning veterans.

Two orientation lectures have been held this past week. The first was given Wednesday night from 7 to 9 p.m. in the auditorium, and the second is on Friday from 3 to 5 p.m. Any women who wanted to become members of the college chapter were required to attend these meetings, stated Miss Carson. Several members of the medical staff at Hoff Hospital talked at the first meeting, and workers in the recreational department at Hoff talked at the second lecture. Women who attended these lectures are eligible for their Red Cross pins, and are entitled to work not only in Santa Barbara, but in Los Angeles or anyplace else where they have a Red Cross Chapter.

Mrs. John Harnish is in charge of the college chapter of the Red Cross. Bob Elliott, Sharon Smith, and Ray Puissegur are members of the advisory council on the campus. Members of the student body at large to be on the council have not yet been selected.
