

Two Classic Farces To Be Presented This Friday and Saturday

Moliere's "The Doctor in Spite of Himself" and Chekhov's "The Anniversary," two classic farces will be presented on the same bill this Friday and Saturday by the College Players, with curtain time set for 8:30 pm in the Riviera Auditorium.

Both comedies, according to critics, are products of exceptional literary merit. Moliere, a 17th century French writer, is recognized as the outstanding comic genius of all time; Chekhov is equally famous as an outstanding playwright.

Featured Players

Featured players in "The Doctor in Spite of Himself" are Fred Goerner, who recently appeared in "All My Sons;" Tom Keen, who appeared in "Hit and Run," "Of Thee I Sing," "The Man Who Came to Dinner," and "Hamlet"; Marie Willett of "Green Grow the Lilacs" and "Antigone"; Bill Vasse of "Antigone"; Roger de Cloutier and Betty Groebli of "Hit and Run."

The farce, one of the oldest and most popular forms of the theater, dates back to the days of ancient Greece. The formula rests on the obvious patterns of humor and its one and only purpose remains to entertain.

Enthused Director

Dr. Theodore Hatlen, director, is enthused about the members of his casts. "All of them have a wealth of experience before an audience, and can draw on past performances in all kinds of shows, musical comedies, revues, Shakespeare, comedy and serious drama. 'The Doctor' and 'Anniversary' should be outstanding offerings," stated Hatlen.

The plays are sponsored by the Associated Students in cooperation with the Committee on Drama, Lectures, and Music. Tickets can be reserved by calling 3116.

UC Art Exhibit Comes To This Campus Soon

Choice works of art by students on all campuses of the University of California will be exhibited at Santa Barbara College May 17 to 20 in a traveling art show.

Included in the widely-representative show will be painting, sculpture, ceramics, design, graphic arts, industrial arts, architecture, city planning, decorating arts, theater arts and others.

Dr. Eliot A. P. Evans, chairman of the Art Department, announced that the exhibit is designed not only to increase interest in outstanding achievements of art students but also to help knit more closely together the various branches of the University.

The local campus will have a substantial representation in the show, which will travel between campuses on a large trailer-truck, according to Howard Fenton, assistant professor of art. Karl Kasten of the Berkeley Art Department will be directly in charge of the traveling show.

Among selected students who will accompany the exhibit will be Richard Sears, who graduated from here as an art major and is now working on his Master's Degree at Berkeley.

The traveling show, to consist of 24 alcoves of work, will be displayed in the Quadrangle arcades. The public is invited without charge.

While the exhibit is here, the Art Department will hold student forums and art discussions in relation to the exhibit in the afternoons. Printed guides will be available at the exhibit, as well as student guides to conduct guests around the exhibit.

CLERICAL STAFF MEETS

The second in a series of special meetings for the members of the clerical and administrative staffs of UCSBC will be held Wednesday, May 9, at 3 pm in Ridge Hall 101. Provost J. Harold Williams and Miss Hansena Frederickson of the UCLA Provost's Office will speak.

1951-52 BUDGET CUT 'DUE TO DROP IN ENROLLMENT

"The 1951-52 Budget is the lowest since we have been a part of the University of California," said Dick Bowen, Finance Committee chairman, after the budget had been formulated. The following announcement was sent out to all groups receiving student body funds:

"Due to the anticipated drop in enrollment the Finance Committee has set up policy governing the 1951-52 Associated Student Body Budget as follows:

a. The 1950-51 Budget was approximately $36,000. The anticipated 1951-52 Budget has been set at $27,000. Therefore it has been necessary to make a budget cut of $9,000.

b. The Finance Committee has carefully gone over all 1950-51 budgets and have set up an allotment to be allocated to each activity for the 1951-52 year.

c. The allotments for the Board of Athletic Control, Music Control Board, and the Speech Control Board are to cover all activities under their jurisdiction. It will, therefore, be their responsibility to work out the amount of money to be allocated for each activity."

The proposed maximum allotments for 1951-52, in comparison with those for 1950-51 are: Administration, $6,000, which is $865 less; Activities Control Board $10, $10 less; ASB President, $450, $40 less; AMS, $60, $244 less; AWS, $192.50, $245.50 less; Assembly Committee, $100, $50 less; Awards, $1,500, $500 less; Athletic Control Board, $9,000, $4099 less; College Cabin, self supporting, $116 less; College Recreation Association, $100, $130 less; Coordinator of Student Affairs, $282, $123 less; Music Control Board, $600, $320 less; Football Band, $778.50, $906 less; Press Control Board, $3,785.75, same; Director of Publicity, $3,310, same; Publicity Committee, $50, $70 less; Rally Committee, $356, $93 more; Roadrunner Revue, $150 income; Special Events, self supporting, $45 less; Speech Control Board, $1,000, $639 less; Social Committee, $350, $350 less.

SCABBARD, BLADE JOINS NATIONAL

The Scabbard and Blade Club last Thursday became a company of the National Scabbard and Blade Society, a nation-wide honorary military organization.

Impressive ceremonies were held at the National Guard Armory with Lt. Colonel Mario G. Paolini, vice-president of the national society, formally installing the chapter as Company M, Ninth Regiment of the national organization which now has close to 50,000 members.

Assisting in the installation was Captain Sheldon H. Lindahl of the Military Science Department of UCLA, who was accompanied by cadet officers and members of the UCLA company of Scabbard and Blade representing the various Army, Navy and Air Force units at the southern campus.

Scabbard and Blade is dedicated to the raising of the standards of military leadership and education in American colleges. It is a service organization. The membership is composed of selected men enrolled in the advanced ROTC course.

Those installed as charter members were Darwin Kusian, company commander and president; Gerard Bockius, first lieutenant and vice-president; Dick Shaefer, second lieutenant and treasurer;

SALLY CARTER REIGNED AS MAY QUEEN; JANE HARDMAN, PAT MARSTON ATTEND

Sally Carter reigned supreme as Queen of the May last Friday night when the annual May Dance was held at the Mar Monte Hotel. Attending her were two princesses, Jane Hardman and Pat Marston, sponsored by Chi Omega and Kappa Alpha Theta respectively. All three girls were selected by the vote of the men students' on campus.

Highlighting the coronation ceremony was the presentation of the perpetual trophy to Delta Gamma, which sponsored Queen Sally. Individual cups were given to each girl. A representative of the Retail Merchants Association presented the cups and also personalized gifts to the winning beauties.

Bright spring flowers decorated the Queen's throne and gaily decked booths offered light games and refreshments. Master of ceremonies for the evening of entertainment was Ken Kellogg. Frank Goodall crowned the queen, while smooth music was provided by the Ambassador's Tenor Combo.

The dance is an event of the Spring semester, and is annually sponsored by Alpha Phi Omega, national men's honorary, and Phrateres, women's service group. Nancy Parker and Stan Jordan headed the committee on arrangements.

TUTORIAL PROGRAM QUERIES ANSWERED YESTERDAY P.M.

At a meeting yesterday, students interested in next fall's Tutorial Program received information on the general nature of the program and answers to questions pertaining to it.

During the next few weeks, those interested will be given personal interviews with members of the Tutorial Committee. Dr. William F. Kennedy is the chairman.

The program will attempt to give students a broadly liberal education without the limitations of the traditional major. The 29 units of tutorial work will, in effect, replace the usual major for these students.

Each student of the twenty or twenty-five selected will receive individual instruction by tutors. He will have weekly meetings with two tutors during his junior and senior years. In these meetings the student will present discussion papers based on readings selected under the guidance of the tutors.

The sophomore year of the program, starting next September, will consist of a colloquium offered each semester. In the fall Dr. Harry Girvetz of the Department of Social Sciences and Dr. Garrett Hardin of the Biological Sciences Department will offer a collo-

Androns, Wienpahl Admit Being All Wet

In a daring exploit, Dr. Mortimer Andron, professor of economics, Mrs. Andron, and Dr. Paul Wienpahl, professor of philosophy, faced the hazards of the Santa Barbara harbor a week ago Sunday. This day marked the opening of the Santa Barbara Yacht Club racing season.

Entering the Honolulu Handicap for all size boats, Dr. Andron and party sailed around the course in their 24-foot centerboard boat, bravely ignoring the small craft storm warning which had just been put up.

A sudden gust of wind capsize the craft and occupants suddenly found themselves swimming. Recovering from their refreshing dip, they climbed on board to await rescue. Dr. Andron observed his car keys and sweater slowly sinking to the ocean bottom.

A fishing boat, observing their plight, threw them a line and towed them to the safety of the harbor.

quium on "Social Darwinism." In the spring Dr. Lawrence-Willson of the English Department and Dr. Wilbur Jacobs of the Department of Social Sciences will offer a colloquium on "Problems of Early American Civilization."

1951 COAST CARNIVAL WILL FEATURE BURLESQUE SHOW, SALOONS, WRESTLERS

Ten days of peace and quiet remain on the Riviera campus, with the Santa Barbary Coast slated to disrupt everything on the weekend of May 18 and 19. Featuring forty booths this year, the Coast will run from 6:30 pm to 11:00 pm both Friday and Saturday evening. The Social Committee will present a record dance in the Cafeteria following the first evening of the Coast, with an admission charge of twenty-five cents and a "come-as-you-are" theme.

Lots of Noise

Barkers will fill the air with screams, advertising the burlesque, wrestling, and saloon shows. Carnival music will fill the gaps, and a roaming interviewer is being considered.

Barbary Coast streets will include The Embarcadero (around the Quad pool), Finnegan's Alley (Men's Gym Lawn), and Pacific Avenue (the driveway connecting the two areas). Street signs will direct the unwary crowds to the various Barbary Coast activities, and billboards will advertise well-known labels.

Fun for All

Stage shows include dancing girls, Geisha girls, and just plain girls. Wrestling will feature famous men. Old-time movies will feature the flapper girls and Keystone Kops.

There will be cokes, candied apples, popcorn, snow cones, cakes, coffee, and other tasty items. The Honeymoon Express will thrill its patrons with an exciting tour of the campus.

Skill Games

Skill games will range from sling-shooting to firing rifles. Baseballs will dunk pledges in icy waters, darts will fly at a revolving bull, eggs will splatter on faces, and hoops will ring girls' legs.

Coupled with gambling entries, these skill games will pay big prizes or thrills to the winners and fun for all.

Freak Show

One organization will present a freak show while another will mystify the campus with their Human Slot Machine. Frog racing and turtle racing, hitting beauties with sponges, and a thrilling ride through the Quad pool's Tunnel of Love will fill in the Coast to its most successful year.

El Gaucho will present feature articles on each avenue of the Coast in a future issue. Remember, the public is invited, so bring your housemother and all her friends to see the most lavish Coast in years.

AMS to Elect Officers; Petitions Due May 11

Associated Men Students' election of officers for next year will be held May 17, according to Frank Dominguez, president. If necessary a run-off election will be held May 24.

AMS offices open are those of President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer, Sergeant-at-Arms, and Historian. Petitions, which may be obtained at the Associated Students Office, must be filed in the Graduate Manager's Office by May 11. Presidential candidates will be tested for eligibility on May 14.

STUDENT COUNCIL BANQUET ON MAY 13

An informal banquet will be held at El Cortijo Chuck Wagon May 13 to acquaint the new Legislative Council with the old one.

Dinner will be served at 8 pm. There will be two after-dinner speakers, one speaking on students on this campus and the other on student government on other campuses.

Foladare Convalescing

Dr. Joseph Foladare, chairman of the English Department, who suffered a cerebral hemorrhage last March, is now convalescing at his home.

NEW JOB PLACEMENT

Non-teacher placement facilities have just been set up on this campus in conjunction with the UCLA office, according to Frank Goodall and Bill Kindel.

June graduates who wish to take advantage of this new opportunity should apply in the Associated Students Office, Building "D", immediately.

FORTY-THREE ENTERED IN SPEECH TOURNEY

By Friday afternoon forty-three students had entered the all-college speech intramural tournament which started yesterday and will conclude Sunday.

Of the four competitions, oral interpretation led with 14 names. Twelve people will participate in the after-dinner speaking event, ten in the one-man debates, and eight in the extemporaneous speeches, bringing the total enrollment to 44 contestants.

Second Tournament

This will be the second annual intramural tournament sponsored by Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary forensic fraternity. It is under the direction of Jack Chadd. "The two purposes of the tournament," stated Art Petsch, president of Tau Kappa Alpha, "are to create an interest in good public speaking and to provide an arena for constructive ideas."

Debate Competition

The debate competition will be on Monday. Tuesday, the oral interpretations will be given. After-dinner speeches will be on Wednesday, and extemporaneous speeches are to be on Thursday.

There will be three rounds of each event—one in the afternoon at 4 pm and one in the evening at 7 pm. The finals will be on Friday for the debates and extemporaneous speeches.

Banquet Sunday

Sunday, Tau Kappa Alpha will give a banquet for all the contestants. After the banquet, the finals for the after-dinner speeches and the oral interpretations will be run off and the judges will present all of the awards.

Judges for the event will be professors from the Speech Department.

Everyone is invited to the afternoon and evening sessions during the week in Oak Hall.

Dr. Gabel Will Give All-College Lecture Tomorrow Afternoon

Dr. Norman E. Gabel, anthropology professor, will deliver the All-College lecture tomorrow afternoon at 4 pm on "The Vanished Indians of Santa Barbara." The lecture will be held in Pine Hall 100.

His talk will be illustrated with special diggings he has done in this area, including last summer's expedition to Jalama Park. It was here that he unearthed a complete living unit with an exceptional collection of artefacts.

Elections and the Question --- 'Rule or Be Ruled?'

Isn't it a shame that some people just can't be honest? We are sorry to report that the May Queen election held last Wednesday was declared void because of the actual discovery and exposition of fraudulent voting. Upon complaints that several men had re-voted, using girls' student body cards, the election chairmen checked the signatures and found that it was so. The ones voting with the girls' cards had actually signed girls' names and had gotten away with it. The election was declared void on the basis of this evidence.

Who was at fault in this specific case? In our opinion the blame should rest equally on the shoulders of those who loaned the student body cards, those who voted with the illegal cards, and those people in charge of the polls who were evidently asleep on the job. Punishment of all involved is threatened, but since election fraud has happened here before, it is doubtful that anything will be done about it.

Such gross violation of the principles of honesty evidenced by recent election misdemeanors indicates campus-wide demoralization when it comes to good citizenship. The situation has come to be so widespread that anyone who can get by with some dishonest voting trick feels very smart. Unless elections become honest, and soon, it will no longer be necessary to hold them; we can just leave it up to the Administration to appoint our officers, and we'll come out just as well in the long run.

The question is up to us—do we want to rule ourselves or do we want to be ruled? Honest or dishonest elections procedure will some day determine that question.

OVER WHERE

Jim Jacobs

"Don't even look at those WACS and nurses, or else," were the final words of Marlene Boone to fiance "Jake" Jacobs when he returned to Camp Roberts after a seven-day leave last week.

Jake went into the Army in September when his National Guard unit was called. He became a part of the 40th Division at Camp Cooke.

He is now attending leadership school at Camp Roberts and will be there for six to eight weeks. Following this he will go to Officers' Candidate School at Fort Sill, Oklahoma for 90 days and then—overseas.

Jake says he's found a home in the army and plans to make it his career. Marlene will join him as Mrs. Jacobs when she graduates in two years.

He was a junior Natural Science major when he was inducted. His home is in Santa Barbara.

Rough Time

Miji Scott is now at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, a member of the Women's Air Force. And she is finding it rough. When she first went in she didn't get one of those beautiful blue uniforms that the recruiting officer promised her but is wearing official army things including, of course, the "Little Abner" shoes.

She is also minus her long hair and eight pounds. Except for getting up a 5 am every morning she doesn't mind military life.

Reference Department

John E. Johnson, a member of the reference department of the Santa Barbara College Library, stacked up his books and answered his call to the Air Force.

He was a navigator on a B-17 in the last war in the Italian theater. He now has the rank of first lieutenant.

SEVERAL STUDENTS TAKE SCIENCE TRIP

During four days of Spring vacation several students from UCSBC, becoming scientific explorers, hunted mineral specimens, investigated mines, and used a Geiger counter to seek traces of radioactive materials.

Students taking the 1,000-mile trip, under the direction of C. D. Woodhouse, were Barbara Davis, James Georgeou, Gordon Hardey, Leslie Grotzinger, William Jenney, Jr., Harold Mackie, Alfred Martin, and Patricia Williams. They are all geology and mineralogy students.

The group, travelling in two cars, visited such places as Kingman, Ariz., Good Springs district, Nevada, Calico, Barstow, and Atolia.

One of the highlights of the trip was seeing the mining of tungsten at Atolia. This mineral is now worth $4.60 a pound and is well-guarded.

Campus Interviews on Cigarette Tests

Number 19...THE WEASEL

"Who do they

double talk!"

No wonder he blew his stack! All this double talk about quick cigarette tests was a flagrant infringement on his patent rights! They couldn't fool this character with "one-puff"—"one-whiff" experiments. Millions of smokers have reached the same conclusion—there's just one real way to prove the flavor and mildness of a cigarette.

It's the sensible test—the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test—which simply asks you to try Camels as your steady smoke . . . on a pack-after-pack, day-after-day basis. No snap judgments needed! After you've enjoyed Camels—and only Camels—for 30 days, we believe you'll know why . . .

BASEBALLERS BOW TO BULLDOGS

by Robinson

Under threatening skies, with a tiny crowd as witnesses, the Santa Barbara Gauchos increased their ever-lengthening losing streak Saturday afternoon at Mesa Field as they bowed to league-leading Fresno State, 4-10.

With two out in the top of the second inning, Fresno utilized two singles, a pair of walks, a passed ball, and a wild pitch to chalk up two runs to assume a lead which they never relinquished.

Single Tally

Santa Barbara countered in their half of the second with a single tally; Mattias reaching first on a fielder's choice which saw Dave Gorrie forced at second and scoring on Ray Knerr's triple to left field. Smallwood grounded out to end the inning, and no other Gaucho crossed the plate until the sixth when Cox, Miller and Kutch reached home on four singles and an error by Bricker, Bulldog catcher.

Fresno picked up three runs in the third on second baseman Oneto's home run with two on; three more in the fourth and two in the sixth to end the scoring.

Smallwood Out

Gauche Starter Wynn Smallwood was waded to the showers in the fourth by Coach Harder, and Lefty Ray Rubenstein induced Bricker to fly out to shortstop Danny Kutch and retire the side. In the three and two-thirds innings that he worked, Pitcher Smallwood gave up eight hits and saw eight Fresno runners cross the plate. Rubenstein limited the Bulldogs to one single and two runs in the five and one third innings that he occupied the mound. In trouble only a couple of times, his portside delivery proved very effective in the later innings.

Odds 'n Ins

by Ferguson

As this corner goes to press the fate of the Gaucho track year hangs on the final point winning chances of our best versus the best of the member schools at the CC-AA Conference meet at San Diego.

Here's hoping that our boys Dancer, Scruggs, Triulzi and Pickarts have a good afternoon, because even though the Gauchos dashed through a wildly successful season, their achievements will be measured for the most part by how the Big Four do at the conference meet. That alone determines the league standing. And aside from the outcome good or bad, the arrangement has cheapened hard-won dual meet victories by making them practice sessions prelude the Conference Meet.

Different Attitude

Other member schools have taken the attitude of "So what if we are beaten in a race or in a meet; we can win in the in the Conference. Naming names, San Diego junked a pretty sure victory over LA State by splitting its squad, sending one half to lose to the Diablos and the other to beat the University of Mexico on the same day.

Working with a balanced, hard-working squad, Nick Carter has broken records, developed over-all talent, beat Fresno for the first time and San Diego for the second, and deserves the honor of bringing the first track crown to a fine school and worthy bunch of athletes. Here's hoping the Gauchos have brought home the bacon.

Benefit Dance

You guys can start thinking about going to a dance. The date is Saturday, May 26; the dress is cotton-cord; and the reason, according to Jim Stanley, is to help pay the medics for patching up baseballers Ron Robinson, Bob Johnston, and John Hackett. Get hep, Gauchos, and don't be surprised if the gals get around to asking first.

On another tack: where is the organizational pride and sense of responsibility of the softball league entries? More games are won by forfeit than by playing, according to a disgruntled Manager Augie Ramirez. Also teams lose one game and 'quit. I suppose teams ought to be given cups for meeting their obligations by getting down to meeting the teams which take their play seriously and are there every time wanting to play, but end up batting flies or playing catch. College students are expected to fulfill the obligations they're capable of assuming. See you at Dwight Murphy.

MURAL MUSINGS

The Sig Tau Gamma Nine leads the pack as the intramural softball tournament draws to a close. Up to date, 10 teams have been eliminated.

At the end of four weeks of play the standing are as follows:

| | | |
|-------------------|---|---|
| Sigma Tau Gamma | 2 | 0 |
| Sigma Phi Epsilon | 1 | 0 |
| Naughty-Nine | 1 | 1 |
| Delta Tau Delta | 0 | 1 |
| Faculty | 0 | 2 |

GAUCHO THINCLADS TAKE THIRD IN CONFERENCE

by Ferguson

Relying upon greater team strength, the San Diego Aztecs won the California Collegiate Athletic Association track and field title on their own oval last Saturday as a finale to the conference's track competition. The Santa Barbara Gauchos were shaded for second by a surprisingly strong Pepperdine aggregate, as the Gauchos did not come through with their uniform best on the windy Aztec sward.

Places by scores were: San Diego, 57; Pepperdine 47 1/5; Santa Barbara, 45 1/2; Los Angeles State 31; Fresno State 27 9/10; and Cal Poly 16 2/5.

Smashed Records

An outstanding 9.5 century mark posted by LA State's Williams will probably go by the boards because of the wind, and Smith of San Diego went 14 feet, 4 inches in the pole vault, but the Gauchos smashed two records of their own. Alberto Triulzi set a new high hurdle mark of 14.3, while Willie Dancer engaged in a spirited duel with Jack Razzeto of San Diego State in the high jump which ended in victory for the Dancer and a conference record for Santa Barbara. Dancer cleared 6' 5 3/8" to keep his unbeaten record against the Aztec NCAA champion.

Other Firsts

The Gauchos had two other first place winners. Del Pickarts threw the javelin 209 feet for first in that event, and Leo Jennings won the broad jump with the outstanding jump of his career at 23 feet 3 1/4 inches.

High point honors, however, went to Les Reed who threw the javelin to a third place with 136' 2 3/8", his best collegiate mark and another personal best when he chucked the discus for a second with a 138' 7" heave.

Point-makers

Other point-makers were Otye Scruggs who ran second in the 440 and took a fourth in the discus. Howard Cook ran third in the highs and picked up a fourth in the 220 lows. Bob Daly ran a beautiful race to nab second in the 380. Don Crie was fourth in the two-mile while Dick Straten tied for fifth in the pole vault.

KATIE MURPHY IS FASHION BRIEFER

The success story of Katie Murphy, Graduate 1950, is so interesting that El Gaucho has decided to print the letter below which was received from her last month.

Katie has a position as a Fashion Briefer for the Harry Conover Modeling Agency in New York City. Well-known during her career at UCSBC, Katie participated in many Speech Department productions and Roadrunner Revues. She served as an officer of her class and was active in Delta Gamma sorority and California Club. Her picture is in the May issue of McCall's Magazine.

The Letter

Here is the letter:
"I guess getting this job was pure luck with a good mixture of fate. I just happened to come in for an interview on the right day and at the right time and was offered this job.

"To describe it is difficult. My official title is a 'fashion briefer' which has nothing to do with ladies brief pants! In connection with the Harry Conover Modeling Agency, Conover's wife, the lovely ex-model Candy Jones, has a 'Conover Career Girl' training school. This isn't a modeling school, although many of the girls do use the training as a stepping stone into modeling. I teach the fashion angle. (Was glad that I had taken that home economics course in dress selection—this is not a paid advertisement for Meridith's course!)

Fashion Shows

"Another featured part of my job is attending fashion shows, booking models from our Career Girl school for shows. Spent Friday at the wholesalers of 'skin pins,' the biggest fad in jewelry at the present time. Had to select a few for Candy Jones to wear on her Sunday night TV show.

"I have been on a number of TV shows representing Conover's. My first TV experience was on the Arthur Murray show. Then there were a couple of daytime shows, such as 'Meet Your Conover Girl,' and 'Between Us Girls.' My last and biggest show was the 'Blind Date' show! I even had to audition for that, which was very exciting for this new-to-New York gal!

Assignments

"Then I had two assignments of representing Conovers, first at the Maid of Cotton Contest in Memphis, Tennessee. It was most interesting having my picture taken with all those southern gals, who thought I was so-o-o sophisticated and New Yorker. My job was to help the girls appear more attractive and poised in front of the judges and immense audiences that came to view the contest.

"Last week I was up in Massachusetts as a chief judge of a beauty contest at the opening of a resort. I spent all day Sunday viewing babies! By the time 'Miss Riverside of 1951' was to be chosen I was exhausted from my hours of looking at toothless grins, cherub round faces, and innocent stares.

"At present I'm waiting for such things as my hair to grow long so that I can do (perhaps) a commercial for Toni Permanent Wave. By the way, I'm dying to see 'I Can Get It for You Wholesale,' a phrase I hear repeatedly in this fashion business I seem to find myself in the midst of."

Katie Murphy

"P.S. Just this minute got news of a new assignment—representing Conovers as a judge of a beauty contest for a Jewish church fund in Levittown!"

A member of the Rogue staff claimed he could turn out a story an hour on his tripewriter.

ACTIVE NANCY TROWBRIDGE found the Big Ditch "bearable." Rug-cutting pledges look on.

GREEK ACTIVES SEARCH LOCAL AREA AS PLEDGES DITCH TO EL CAPITAN

A coup d'etats ouered the Monday following vacation when down trodden pledges seized power from abusive actives and flaunted the bi-annual pledge ditch.

The ditch, planned before vacation, began Monday afternoon when pledge classes of campus fraternities and sororities slipped off to El Capitan beach almost completely avoiding watchful actives.

Early in the evening the pledges gathered at the resort picnic grounds where they roasted wieners and held a song fest. Later the group dispersed to the dance floor or other entertainment.

Pledge ditches have become traditional with the pledge classes attempting to sneak off from lording actives to some beach or park, the location of which has been kept completely secret. Any actives finding the party are doused in the ocean, creeks or any other type of liquid handy.

Plans for the sneak were made earlier in the semester by the presidents of the various pledge groups under the leadership of Don Sherwin, Sigma Alpha Epsilon pledge president.

Honorary Sponsors Competitive Papers

Gamma Iota chapter of Phi Alpha Theta, honorary historical society, is instituting a competitive program for papers of historical significance written by students.

Papers may be written on any subject of the student's choosing as long as they are of historical significance, and they may be papers written for a course taken during the semester. Deadline for the papers is May 25.

Judging the papers will be Dr. H. E. Nettles, Dr. Henry Adams, and Dr. Wilbur Jacobs, and the papers may be submitted to them. The prize for the winning paper will be the Phi Alpha scholarship key or a book to be chosen by the winner. The paper will be sent to the "Historian," the honor society's national periodical, with the endorsement of the Gamma Iota chapter for possible publication.
