UCSB Doubles Duo Goes All-American

Spencer-White Combination Reaches NCAA Quarterfinals Before Faltering Against UC Berkeley's Alley-Nelson

By Steven Large
Staff Writer

Add two more names to the list of All-Americans in the history of UCSB's women's tennis and the number rises to ... two.

The Gauchos Kelly Spencer and Amelia White

Amelia White

were named All-Americans this weekend when they defeated Arizona State's fourth-ranked team of Kori Davidson and Joelle Schad to move into the quarterfinals of the NCAA Women's Tennis Championships at Pepperdine University in Malibu on Friday.

"It was an amazing feeling," White said. "We really came together in the tournament."

The win against Arizona was not only the highlight of the weekend for the doubles team, but possibly the highlight of the two players' careers.

"It was so fun," Spencer said. "We played so well and that was really the climax of the tournament."

Spencer and White, the Gauchos' top doubles team and the 11th-best duo in the country, finally succumbed to UC Berkeley's Kirsten Alley and Pam Nelson in the quarterfinals by a score of 6-4, 6-1, on Saturday.

"It's huge," said UCSB Head Coach Pete Kirkwood. "To get to the quarterfinals they had to play two unbelievable matches."

The quarterfinal appearance by Spencer and White was the first such appearance by any doubles team in UCSB history. Kirkwood noted that perhaps the factor of nervousness played into Spencer and White not advancing.

"It was like, 'Wow, we're in the quarterfinals,'" Kirkwood said. "So we were a little tight. [Cal] was a really good team and I think I was even a little more nervous than [Spencer and White] were."

Spencer admitted to being nervous, but she said that a bigger factor was the lack of energy that she took into the quarterfinals.

"We were both flat and it was hard to get as pumped up for that match as we were in the match against Arizona," Spencer said.

White noted that the lopsided score against Cal wasn't a good indication of how close the match actually was.

"Even though we didn't have a good score, the match was a good one," White said.

Gauchos Close Out Season on Sunday With 8-6 Victory Against Stanford Behind Klein, Phoenix

After enduring a rocky and often frustrating season, the UCSB baseball team closed out its 1995 season with a game that may give the team some hope for the future.

In their final contest of the year, the Gauchos (24-26) finished off a three-game series with the #17 Stanford Cardinal (34-22) with an 8-6 victory behind a complete-game performance from freshman right-hander Matt Klein (2-0) and a three-run home run from junior right fielder Wynter Phoenix. Stanford won on Friday, 6-3, and on Saturday, 3-2.

Sunday's game was marked by an uncharacteristically poor fielding performance by the Cardinal, the nation's top fielding team, who committed three errors. The story of the game was Klein, however, who scattered 11 hits and one walk, while allowing five earned runs and striking out four over nine innings to earn the win — his first collegiate complete game.

Phoenix's shot over the right-center field wall — his 12th of the season — capped off UCSB's four-run fifth inning. Sophomore catcher Dave Willis' RBI single accounted for the other run in the fifth frame.

Sophomore left fielder Brett Hardy had two hits and scored three runs, Willis had two hits and two RBI, and Phoenix had two hits and three RBI.

Cardinal reliever Todd Bartels (4-3) took the loss in relief of starter Dan Reed. Designated hitter Steve Carver (2-4, three RBI) and left fielder Cale Carter (3-4, two RBI) started offensively for Stanford.

On Saturday, a fine performance from senior right-hander Steve Lane closing out his college career was wasted, with Santa Barbara only able to touch Stanford hurlers for two runs.

Lane went seven innings, allowing only three hits and walking four. He struck out five batters and allowed one earned run. Junior Dax Groves (0-1) took the loss, as he allowed an unearned run in the eighth inning. The Gauchos committed three errors in the

It was announced last Thursday that the UCSB men's basketball program signed three players to National Letters of Intent during the late signing period.

Ben Jefferson, a 6'4", 210-pound junior wingman from Southwestern Iowa Community College in Creston, Niall Dalton-Brown, a 6'8", 195-pound junior inside player from the University of North Dakota-Williston and B.J. Bunton, a 6'7", 225-pound freshman inside player from Louisville's Male High School. The three late additions join early signer Wesley Miller, a 6'2", 180-pound point guard from Louisville's Moore High School.

"We've signed two inside and two outside players," said UCSB Head Coach Jerry Pimm. "They are good student athletes and we are looking forward to working with all four players. I feel that all four players have very good potential to help our team this coming season."

Jefferson, a graduate of Hickman High School in Columbia, Mo., averaged 23.2 points, 6.5 rebounds, 3.3 assists and 1.9 steals per game as a sophomore at Southwestern Iowa, shooting 52.6 percent from the field, 68.6 percent from the free throw line and 38.3 percent from behind the three-point arc.

Dalton-Brown, a native of Port of Spain, Trinidad and Tobago, averaged 16.3 points and 8.9 boards per contest at North Dakota-Williston. Dalton-Brown shot 58 percent from the field and 65 percent from the free throw line. He also blocked 76 shots in his 27 games.

Bunton averaged 9.5 points and 6.1 rebounds per game at Male. He shot 50 percent from the field and 62 percent from the free throw line.

Jerry Pimm

Miller, who signed with the Gauchos in the fall, averaged 19 points, 3.8 assists and 3.9 rebounds per game in his senior year at Moore. He shot 49.1 percent from the field, 70.2 percent from the free throw line and 49.1 percent from three-point range.

The four players will help Pimm fill roster spots vacated by seven departing seniors.

Cardinal catcher Jon Schaeffer, who scored the winning run and collected two hits on the afternoon, was the only Stanford batter to post a multihit game.

Freshman designated hitter Justin Balser was UCSB's top hitter, with two singles.

Friday's game saw senior right-hander Pat Treend (4-7) run into control problems in the final start of his collegiate career.

Treend allowed only six hits in six innings, but allowed six walks and four earned runs. Senior left-hander Ryan O'Coynne wasn't able to hold down the Cardinal in relief, as he allowed three hits and two runs without recording an out. Sophomores Clint Pearson and Steve Cain closed out the game.
