All-College Picnic Opens Social Program

LLEWELYN GOODFIELD
HEADS STUDENT BODY
FOR SUMMER SESSION

At the initial student assembly of the 1943 summer session, Llewelyn Goodfield, 1931, former student body president, was elected to head student activities on the Gaucholand campus for the current summer term.

While attending Santa Barbara State College, Goodfield served as Associated Student president during 1930, his junior year. The following year he was selected as president of his senior class.

Acting as vice president for the six-week session will be Walt Ziegler, 1941, former president of Sigma Alpha Kappa fraternity. He will take charge of the sports tournaments which are scheduled to open next week. Ziegler has asked that students anxious to participate in the various sports tournaments sign before next Monday evening on the administration building bulletin board.

Marilee Stevens, 1943, Delta Zeta Delta, will assume the office of secretary-treasurer.

Other elective and appointive officers are social chairman, Isabel Wiens; El Gauchito editor, Marjorie Simmons.

MARINES EXPLAIN JUDO TECHNIQUES AT ASSEMBLY

Presenting a repeat performance on the State College campus, several Marines from the Goleta base will give a demonstration of the Judo hand-to-hand fighting at next Tuesday assembly under the supervision of Captain Dick Fishel.

BRIDGE CLUB MEETS

All students interested in joining the Bridge Club should sign in the administration building by Tuesday or attend the meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the woman's clubroom.

STUDENTS ATTEND OUTING
AT OAK PARK TODAY--4:30

With games, singing, and dancing, the annual summer session Oak Park picnic will get under way at 4:30 p.m. today with Isabel Wiens, social chairman, in charge of the all-college affair.

All members of the student body, families and friends are urged to attend, bringing a picnic supper and utensils. Coffee and dessert will be served by committees with Dean Lois M. Bennink supervising.

Schedule for the evening program is games from 4:30 to 6 p.m. and the picnic dinner at 6. Dancing program will follow from 7 until 8 p.m. Miss Margaret De Haan will lead the group in several old time square dances which will be followed by ballroom dancing.

All students who intend to be present, should sign immediately in the administration building with the number of guests.

Transportation must be arranged by the individual. Bus service is available to and from the park.

COMMITTEEMEN PLAN PICNIC ON MESA CAMPUS

A softball game between faculty and students will feature the Mesa campus picnic which is scheduled for next Friday, June 9 from 4 until 9 p.m.

Preceding the softball game, swimming, volleyball, and baseball will be played. Dean Charles L. Jacobs will be in charge of the faculty team, and any men or women wishing to play for the student team should contact Walt Ziegler, vice president, during the next week in Box "Z".

Dinner consisting of spaghetti, salad, rolls, coffee, and dessert will be served at 6 p.m.

Admission with student body card is 15 cents; guests and non-members, 50 cents.
