Song Contest Will Close Next Week

One more week remains in which songs may be submitted in the school song contest being sponsored by the Literary Forum. Students are urged to write their songs immediately if they have not already done so in order that they will have a few days in which to perfect them.

The songs submitted will be given a number to correspond with the number given the name of the writer and the identity of the submitters will not be revealed until after the songs have been judged. Two prizes of $5 and $2.50 will be given for the songs considered the best by the judging committee which will consist of Dean Ashworth, Mrs. Barnett and Madeline Connell. Students who are in doubt concerning the rules and regulations of the contest are asked to refer to the issue of February 6 or to speak to Edwina Kenney.

Committees Named for College Night

Initial plans for College Night were made this week by the faculty committee in charge of the annual home-coming event scheduled for Saturday, May 2. Longfellow's poem, "The Masque of Pandora," a combination of music and dancing by Rosalie Balmer Smith Cale, will be the special feature of the evening's program which will be followed by dancing in the corridors.

The purpose of College Night, which has come to be an annual affair of the institution, is to bring together as many college people as possible in an attempt to recall for them their college days. The proceeds of the entertainment will go toward a scholarship fund.

The following heads of committees will assist Dean Ashworth, who is in charge of the affair: Costumes committee, Miss Frye; finance, Miss Severy; stage sets, Mr. Wolf; dancing, Miss Weage; publicity, Mrs. Miller; music, Mrs. Barnett. Dean Pyle will arrange for the dance which will follow the program.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Tuesday, Feb. 24.—Deans' meeting.
Wednesday, Feb. 25.—Student Body Meeting.
Thursday, Feb. 26.—Class meetings.
Friday, Feb. 27.—Las Turas Lake trip.
Inter-class Track Meet in H. S. Stadium.
Saturday, Feb. 28.—Women in exchange positions meet at 3 at home of Dean Pyle.

Characters Are Chosen for "Mantle of the Virgin"

Tryouts for the women characters in "The Mantle of the Virgin," the play by Vida Sutton which will be presented during the Lenten season under the auspices of the Literary Forum, were held Tuesday night. The main speaking parts will be taken by Jean Christy, Hazel Kramer and Anita Deardorf.

Minor parts will be taken by Mary Virginia Platt, Lois Pearson, Jane Ames, Anna Lincoln, Madeline Klinke, Edwina Kenney, Catherine Berrey and Mabel Sorem. The men characters have not been chosen.

The play, which is a romance of the medieval ages, will be produced in the College court in the evening. Mr. Wolf has taken over the art work of the play and rehearsals will begin under the direction of Dean Ashworth as soon as the remainder of the cast is definitely chosen.

New Member Added to the Faculty Staff

William Albert Edwards, a local architect, has been added to the teaching force of the college and will give an architectural course on Tuesdays.

Mr. Edwards is a graduate of the University of California, having completed his work there in 1910. He has since taken two years of post-graduate work in architectural courses at the University of Pennsylvania. Mr. Edwards spent a year and a half abroad making sketches, several of which received notice in the Beaux Art in Paris.

The architectural work on several Santa Barbara homes has been done by Mr. Edwards.

Forum Adds Magazines to the Library Collection

The Literary Forum has subscribed to two magazines, "The Forum" and "The Dial," to be placed in the college library. These magazines are a gift of last year's Forum. The first copies are expected to be in some time this month.

Dizzy Edition of the Eagle Coming March 13

A Dizzy Edition of the Eagle will be put out on March 13. Many novel and startling departments are planned for the jinx paper. The present editor disclaims all responsibilities of this edition due to insomnia. Staff members will assume all duties connected with the issue.

New Books Added to Library Shelves Daily

According to Miss Winham, a number of new books are daily arriving at the library. A very interesting new book, "The Art of Color," by Michel Jacobs, has just been put on the shelves. Several new magazines have also been secured for the library.

New Conveniences Added to Elementary Building

New conveniences in the form of shelves, cupboards and tables are being constructed for the College Elementary building by students of the class in furniture construction under Mr. Griffin. Among other minor improvements being made on the building is the installation of a large electric bell.

Outing Club Plans Trip To Lake Turas Soon

The Outing Club will make a three-day automobile trip to Las Turas Lake next Friday afternoon, leaving the College at 4 p. m. Friday afternoon. Las Turas Lake is located some 65 miles from Santa Barbara, in the region of the picturesque Canejo Ranch country.

Members of the club only will be allowed on the trip. Those who have not paid their dues should see Merle Weidman and pay them at once.

The automobile parties that will make up the trip are to take charge of their own equipment, food and all that they expect to need on the trip. This plan will allow all who are interested to have just what they want for the trip.

Those who intend to go should sign up on the students' bulletin board before Wednesday noon in order to allow the committee to have plenty of time to arrange for transportation. Return is to be made by 6 o'clock Sunday afternoon.

Students having machines that are willing to take them should see Ted Ellsworth. Further announcements will be made on the bulletin board early next week as to chaperones and transportation for those who are not already provided for.

Mr. Wolf Speaker at Strollers' Club Meeting

Hamilton Wolf gave a talk about his trip around the world at a meeting of the Strollers Club Monday evening at the home of Colin Campbell Cooper. His talk was illustrated with pencil drawings of the people and scenes he saw on his trip.

Many of his sketches were of the South Sea Islands and of Australia, Ceylon, Tunis, Spain and Belgium. Among the drawings was one of the great French painter, Gaughin's, son.

Departmental Meet To Be Held This Afternoon

The annual departmental track meet will be held this afternoon at 4 p. m. at Pershing Park for the purpose of determining what track material the college has this year.

The Junior College has the odds according to all appearances and should win by their majority of contestants alone. The other departments are planning to give the J. C.'s a run for their tally. Jimmy Anderson, the C. M. standby, is capable of taking the meet alone if he chooses. Allen Keim, who has the hurdles cinched, is also a C. M. man.

Laughlin, Heggie, Weideman, Gillette, Hartwell, Chamberlain, Williams, Mobley, Foss, Lemmon, Sawyers and Greenough are among the various contenders for the J. C. In the C. M. department, Anderson is expected to place high in all of the field events and perhaps in the century. Keim and Linder are slated to add a few more points to the C. M. tally with their prowess in the hurdles and distance runs respectively.

Some real exciting competition is promised for this afternoon's meet which should be well worth seeing.

Faculty Member Chief Speaker at Convention

Miss Bradley will be the chief speaker tomorrow afternoon at the Osteopathic convention in Los Angeles. Miss Bradley, who is a student of nutrition, will speak on "Nutrition and the Part It Plays in a Doctor's Profession."

Assemblyman Crittenden Visits College on Tuesday

Assemblyman Crittenden visited College Tuesday, going over the courses of study, entrance requirements and the like. He is a member of the investigation committee which is to get information about state teachers' colleges. Mr. S. C. Hartranft, who visited the College last week, is chairman of this committee.

Former Teacher Attends Big Convention in Ohio

Miss Kathryn Long, former head of the educational department here, who is now teaching at Stillwater, Okla., will be present at the meeting of the American Association of Teachers' Colleges which is being held in Cincinnati this week. President Phelps left Sunday for the convention where he will deliver a speech on "The Factors in California's Teacher Preparation Program."

Recital Reviewed by Member of College

Nona Calhoun, brilliant dramatic soprano, who sang in recital at the State College Thursday morning, was most enthusiastically received. Her splendidly balanced program gave full opportunity to display the remarkable range and beauty of her voice.

The first group, composed of Italian classics, was portrayed with intense dramatic feeling.

The English group which followed was delightful in its simplicity. Five songs of the Scottish Highlands, given as a third group, which in themselves are always interesting, were especially charming since Miss Calhoun is herself of Scottish descent and therefore is more able to bring out the true Gaelic thought.

The program ended with three little songs of childhood which captivated the audience.

Although a new artist on the concert stage, Miss Calhoun is fast coming to the fore among song recitalists and Santa Barbara music folk are hoping for a re-engagement of this charming singer in this city before she leaves California to appear in a series of concerts in eastern music centers.

Alberto Shafsky at the piano proved herself a most efficient and sympathetic accompanist.

Student Body Meeting Scheduled for Tuesday

A special Student Body meeting will be held Tuesday morning at the regular assembly time. An important matter before the meeting will be the consideration and voting upon the proposed amendments to that part of the constitution which deals with athletics. The contemplated changes in the constitution have been posted on the student bulletin board for some time.

Those who have not acquainted themselves with the proposed revisions are urged to do so in order to be able to vote intelligently when the matter is considered.

New Women Welcomed By Hi-Jinx Tonight

Tonight at 8 o'clock the Hi-Jinx party will be given in the gymnasium to welcome the new girls to the college. The G. P. girls are sponsoring the affair with Lucille Dexter as head chairman.

Many of the girls of the college have been put on committees and are going to give clever and unusual stunts and side shows. There will also be peanuts, popcorn and confetti which will add to the fun of the evening. One of the stunts, "The High-Jinx of Everyone's Life" you can't afford to miss.

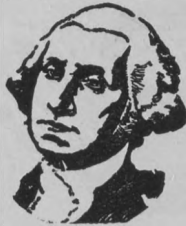

American Student Unit Formed in West

The National Student Federation of America was formed by seven western colleges and universities on January 1, at the University of California, according to the New Student. The federation which will be built on a plan similar to the European Student Union is designed to promote better relations between its members as well as closer co-operation with foreign students.

The constitution as adopted by the organization at its first meeting outlines its purposes as follows: "To foster student co-operation, to encourage travel on the part of American college students, to provide for scholarships for American students to study abroad, to foster a spirit of friendship between students of the different nations, and to promote an interest in national affairs."

Fifty thousand students are already enrolled in the organization, representing the University of California, Southern Branch; Stanford University, of Washington, University of Utah, Mills College, Oakland and Pomona College.

Plans are being made to make the membership nation-wide. The organization was founded as a result of a discussion last summer between Bernard Pares of the University of London, who is honorary treasurer of the English Student Union, and a group of men from representative colleges who met at the University of California.

Tribute Will Be Paid Nation's First President

Next Sunday will be the 193rd anniversary of the birth of George Washington, one of the great men, not only of America, but of the world as well. His greatness consisted not only in the things he did, but in the sincere, simple and courageous manner in which he did them.

His birthday will be observed on Sunday, February 22, with various programs throughout the city.

Mr. Wolf Addresses Social Science Club

"Politics and Education as Seen Abroad" was the subject of an address given by Mr. Wolf before the Social Science Club which met Wednesday evening at the Chamber of Commerce. He spoke especially of the government in Tahiti, Australia and New Zealand. Elementary education in these countries is somewhat similar to ours, according to Mr. Wolf. He related several experiences which occurred during his visit to the University of Melbourne in Australia.

During the business meeting which followed the discussion Mr. Wolf was elected to sponsor the club.

President of Michigan University Passes Away

The University of Michigan recently suffered the loss of its president, Dr. Marion Le Roy Burton, who died Wednesday morning. Dr. Burton, who had been ill since last November, was one of the prominent leaders in the field of education.

EXCHANGES

To the Princeton student writing the best essay on "Princeton's Greatest Need" will be given the opportunity to tour Europe free next summer. The tour is offered by the United States Lines Student Tours, and its value is $586. The route suggested includes Paris, Geneva, Rome, Florence, Venice and London. The winner of the competition may map out any tour he wishes, however, provided it does not exceed $586.

The combined Glee Clubs of the Fullerton Junior College are presenting as their annual opera, "The Belle of Barcelona" on February 20 and 21.

The University of Redlands plans a three-story dormitory with accommodations for one hundred more co-eds. A large dining hall and reception hall will occupy practically the entire lower floor.

Howard Lane, senior of the Santa Barbara High School, received word from Senator Albert Free, of California, that he was first alternate for an appointment to West Point. If the other candidate fails to meet requirements, then Howard will have next chance to be appointed.

By an overwhelming majority the student body at Amherst College endorsed a resolution asking the authorities to abolish compulsory chapel as an antiquated institution.

A movement has been made to establish a Junior College at Marysville. Plans will be under way shortly for the construction of the Junior College.

There are 350 students enrolled in Chico State College this semester. There are about 60 men and 210 women.

The Girls' and Boys' Glee Club of the Santa Barbara High will present the "Gypsy Rover," an opera by Dodge, some time in April in the school auditorium.

The Freshmen of the Nebraska State College at Kearney recently edited an issue of their paper, the "Antelope."

Glee Clubs to Sponsor
Dance on March 13

Through the combined efforts of the Men's and Women's Glee clubs, a dance will be given at Rockwood Inn on Friday evening, March 13. The proceeds of the dance will go toward meeting expenses incurred by the Men's Glee Club concert tour.

Several features are being arranged for the evening and music will be furnished by Greenough's orchestra.

Frosh Program Wins Hearty Applause

The Freshmen gave a clever radio program before the student body Thursday morning. The committee which arranged the program included Ebba Franklin, chairman; Edwina Kenney and Norvell Dice.

Gordon Bailard and Edwina Kenney acted as official "listeners in" on the radio. The radio broadcasting was in charge of Norvell Dice who broadcasted from station SBSC.

The first number to be "broadcasted" was the reading by Roscoe McGuire of "The Chinese Nightingale" by Veschel Lindsay. Following this, Monroe Langlow, accompanied by William Hartshorn, sang "Until," by Sanderson; "Give a Man a Horse He Can Ride," by O'Hara, and as an encore, "Her Dream."

The jazz piano duets broadcasted by Everett Hartwell and William Hartshorn received hearty applause from the audience.

The final feature of the program was a classical dance by Madame Fatima Chesterfield, recently from Russia. "Madame" is more widely known as Roscoe McGuire.

PERSONALS

The C. M.'s have it all doped out that they will walk off with the inter-department track meet by about five points. At least it will be close enough to be interesting.

A jolly party was given last Saturday night by Ruth and Kathryn Kueffer. There was much merriment over the clever costumes worn.

Gillett is feeling jipped. A notice to call "Hazel" was posted. No answer and besides he says that no one named Hazel has any claim on him.

Jack Vince is another C. M. enthusiast. He is almost convinced that a C. M. course here looks better than Stanford.

Harold Furman is planning to return to college in a week or two as soon as he recovers from an operation for removing his tonsils.

Beware of Merle Weidman and his powders. There seems to be a mystic power connected.

Lucille Fratis and Lothelle Miller spent the last week-end in Lompoc, their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Peters attended a meeting of the Knox Club held in Los Angeles Saturday celebrating Founders' Day. There were about 100 former Knox students present. Professor Hunter, of Knox College, a well-known writer of biological text books, gave the principle address.

Several college women will serve at the Community Chest luncheon tomorrow at Recreation Center.

Mrs. Olivia Beers entertained a group of college students at a Valentine party at her home last Saturday evening.

Ruth Garner is going home to Artesia this week-end.

ALUMNI

Thyra Catlin finds that corneting is a good side line to teaching. She has taken up the art in her spare time.

The engagement of Miss Jeannie Forbes '17 to W. W. Breckenridge was announced recently. Miss Forbes is at present teaching in the Modesto Junior College.

Alice Klien, a member of the graduating class, is teaching the second grade in the Guadalupe School.

Last Thursday Mrs. Sampson, formerly in charge of the cafeteria, visited college. Mrs. Sampson is now in charge of the Blue Bird Tea Room in Carmel.

St. Patrick's Dance
Is Set for March 6

The student body will give a St. Patrick's dance on Friday evening, March 6. According to tentative plans the dance will be held in the Arlington grill. Several novel St. Patrick features are being arranged.

This dance is the first of a series of social affairs planned for this semester.

The Fullerton Junior College expects to have their new gymnasium finished for the fall semester. It is 212 feet long on the frontage. There is a swimming pool at the back of the building. The cost of the entire building is estimated at $140,000.

Etta Burnett will spend the week-end in Wilmington.

Eleanor Warren will go to her home at Buena Park this week-end.

Esther Usher made the clever poster for the song contest that is on display at the Co-operative Store.

A. W. S. Hostesses at High Tea on Saturday

The women faculty members and the wives of the men faculty members were guests at a high tea held at the home of Dean Pyle last Saturday afternoon and evening. A program, given at intervals throughout the afternoon, consisted of the following numbers: Three violin solos by Margaret Ellison; vocal solos by Frances Jones and Madeline Connell, and two readings by Ethel Bledsoe.

Among those who helped to make the afternoon a success were Ruth Garner, social chairman; Ester Janssens, Clara Zeigler, Bernice Gange, Mabelle Dewlaney, Gretchen Ziegeler, Grace Miksch and Marjorie Granger, who acted as chairmen of the sub-committees.

Some people are so dumb, they think an aspirin tablet is something to write upon and that the Great Basin is a wash bowl.

A call for teachers has come from the Kamehameha School in Honolulu. Those interested watch the bulletin for further announcement of the type of positions that will be open.

ENROLLMENT IN NATION'S COLLEGES ON STEADY INCREASE

The number of students attending universities and colleges has been increasing during the last year. Eighty-three of the leading colleges and Universities in the United States now have 245,248 students. This is 15,299 more than they had a year ago. This list contains only three students who have no present occupation besides going to college. It does not include those enrolled in evening courses, extension classes or summer schools. The list is a representative one including small denominational colleges, state universities, small co-educational colleges, and colleges exclusively for women.

There are nearly 40,000 students who in some way or other are receiving instruction from the University of California.

If to the 245,000 full time students were added 100,000 summer school students and 125,000 extension course students, the eighty-three foremost colleges and universities have been dealing out instruction to almost half a million persons during the last year.

Examinations for Los Angeles Teachers Soon

An announcement concerning the next examination of candidates for employment in the Los Angeles City School System, which has just been received by Mrs. Miller, will be of interest to any student teachers who wish to apply for positions in Los Angeles. The next examination, which will be held April 4 and the week following, is open to kindergarten, elementary and high school teachers; also physicians, dentists, optometrists, nurses, librarians and assistant supervisors of attendance. Every applicant must be able to qualify for a county certificate and must fill out a formal application.

A fee of $1 is charged for filing each application blank. Blanks, which may be obtained at 718 Security Building, must be in the superintendent's office on or before Wednesday, March 4.

Warren Wins Women's Tennis Championship

Eleanor Warren won the women's tennis championship by defeating Francisca Luck in the final contest which was held last Friday. The sets were close and fast, the score being 2-6, 8-6, 7-5, favor of Eleanor Warren. Dr. Ellison umpired the games.

Women wishing to enter the tennis tournament in the spring should sign up immediately according to Miss Weage, tennis coach.

The past tennis season has been managed by Irma Steward while Miss Weage has been acting as coach.

College Elementary Pupils Will Visit Printing Plant

The children of the College Elementary School are planning to visit the Daily News plant next Tuesday. They will also visit the Meese Engraving Co. on Anacapa street.

The children have been working on their section of the College Annual. This trip is planned in order that they may understand the actual work of printing.

Public Speaking Society Gives Program; Officers

A program was given by the Public Speaking Society last Wednesday morning, the following persons taking part: Madeline Klinke, Lois Perason, Virginia Colton, Ted Ellsworth and Maxwell Conklin.

Officers for the coming month were elected at the business meeting, and are as follows: President, Jane Ames; vice-president, Frank Gillett; secretary, Ted Marshall; chairman of program committee, William Brooks; committee members, Madeline Klinke and Maxwell Conklin.

Accuracy is the foundation of everything else.

Young Pupils Eager Swimming Enthusiasts

At 10 o'clock every Saturday morning a group of boys and girls crowds impatiently around the steps of the Swimming Plunge at the Plaza, waiting for opening time. When the doors are unlocked the children rush to the counter, each with 25 cents grasped firmly in hand, demand towels and suits, drop their tickets in the slot and disappear into the dressing rooms.

These children are members of the College Elementary School swimming class which is now in its fifth week. Within a few minutes the class is ready for the water. For the first two or three lessons, the instruction had to be carried on almost entirely in the shallow end of the pool, but now almost all the children have learned to swim well enough so that they can dive off the board into deep water. Their progress has been rapid and is due to the excellent teaching of Mr. Caelo Mohawk, the swimming instructor who is giving the course. He is assisted by several of the student-teachers, so that there is little risk of accident to the children.
