Gaucha Rooters Use New Gate

A special student gate just south of the field house will be provided for Gaucha rooters at all gridiron contests staged at La Playa stadium, according to William Russell, graduate manager.

"Plenty of parking space is available for students east and south of the student entrance on the breakwater side of the stadium," said Russell, "and we want the students to use this parking area and the student gate exclusively."

The purpose of this new student gate setup is to facilitate the handling of crowds and parking at the games.

Make Up Proficiency Tests on Saturday

Make up proficiency tests will be given on Saturday, October 8, 1949 in Ridge Hall 101 and 102. They are for those students who have failed any part of these examinations. No new examinees will be admitted.

Doors will be opened only at the beginning of the administering of the following test divisions; Reading Comprehension, 9:00; Reading Vocabulary, 9:30; Arithmetic Fundamentals, 9:55; Arithmetic Problems, 10:40; English, 11:25; and Spelling and Handwriting, 12:00.

Students deficient in any section of any division of the test must retake the entire division, and will be held responsible for any part taken, whether passed formerly or not.

No appointment is necessary, but each student must see his department chairman or adviser and present evidence, on the blank provided for that purpose, of having prepared for his particular make-up divisions. This statement, signed by the department chairman or adviser, must be presented for admission to these tests.

Fingarette Thesis May Be Published

Dr. Herbert Fingarette, philosophy lecturer who completed his work on his Ph.D. in August, greatly impressed the philosophy department of UCLA with his thesis: "The Influence of Knowledge on Behavior". The thesis was a study of factors uncovered in psychoanalytics, especially as they tend to throw light on the problems of scientific ethics. Although no definite plans have been made, it has been recommended that portions of the thesis be published.

Dr. Fingarette, who has been teaching at UCSB since September, 1948, took both his undergraduate and graduate work at UCLA. During his three and a half years of service with the Army, he worked in both the Information-Education Division of the War Department, and in the Combat Engineers. At present he is busy with four philosophy classes, his wife and two-year old daughter. His future plans include teaching a new course in social philosophy which will emphasize scientific methods of thinking about social problems, and next year teaching a course in esthetics, in which the nature of art and its social functions will be discussed.

ATTN: VETERANS

All veterans are reminded that, according to Robert W. Webb, Acting Campus Coordinator, October 15 is the deadline for veterans to purchase books and supplies at the bookstore.

STOPPED IN HIS TRACKS—Gaucha Right Guard John Richards downs fleet-footed Sagehen Lloyd Herbener in the third quarter of the Pomona game at Claremont as the Gauchos regain their fighting spirit.

French Consul Next Speaker for Lecture Series

Alexander de Manziarly, French consul in Los Angeles, will be the speaker for the second of the All-College Lecture Series on Wednesday October 5.

The lecture, which will be held in Pine Hall 100 on the Riviera Campus at 4 pm, is open to the public as well as to students and faculty.

Mr. Manziarly, who has recently returned from a visit to his homeland, will speak on the current situation in France. In World War I he suffered wounds resulting in the loss of a leg. This did not prevent him from volunteering again for service, and he has held many military and diplomatic posts in a distinguished career.

During World War II he served as military attache for the Free French in New York and later in Washington.

The French consulate in Los Angeles which he heads serves a large area of the southwestern states.

Upton Palmer, chairman of the Committee on Drama, Lectures, and Music, which is sponsoring the lectures series, said that Mr. Manziarly will answer questions from the audience at the conclusion of his talk.

Dr. Charles G. Miller, who was originally scheduled to speak at this meeting, will be heard at a later date. Other speakers who will take part in the lecture series in the near future are Dr. Lester Sands, Dr. Elliott A. P. Evans, and Theodore Hatlen.

Music Profs Give Concert for Dept

A program of oboe and vocal solos was presented by Clayton Wilson, assistant professor of music, and E. G. Theros, instructor of music, at the semester's first joint faculty-student meeting of the Music Department.

Other music faculty members were introduced to the new students by Maurice Faulkner, department chairman, Robert Greenwell, former president of the music students, conducted the business meeting, at which the following student officers were elected: Wallace Umber, president; Edward Harris, vice president; Patricia Gilmor, secretary-treasurer.

Improved Gaucha Gridiron Squad Falls Before Strong Pomona Sagehens in Weekend Thriller

Pomona's highly-touted Sagehens lived up to expectations Friday night as they took the Santa Barbara Gauchos into camp, 21-13, in a thrilling battle witnessed by about 5000 fans.

Lloyd Herbener, Johnny McColl, and George Colbath, Inc., proved to be just too much for the Gauchos to handle. Between the three of them, they ripped the Gaucha line to shreds, or when the line held, McColl would throw to his cohorts for nice gains.

The rejuvenated Gauchos, looking much more impressive than in the Whittier game,

Rhodes Candidates Meet Thursday PM

Two faculty members who are former Rhodes Scholars will be available to answer question concerning the Rhodes Scholarships at a general informational meeting 102 Ridge Hall at 4 pm on Thursday, Oct. 6.

They are Douwe Stuurman and Warren Schutt, both members of the English Department.

The announcement was made by Dr. George Hand, Acting Dean of Liberal Arts and chairman of the Rhodes Scholarship committee.

All students interested in applying for the Rhodes Scholarship are invited to attend. The discussion will include such subjects as life at Oxford, qualifications considered in judging applicants, the method of applying and similar questions.

Previously Dr. Hand had announced that all applicants must be completed and submitted to him by October 15. Application blanks may be obtained from the office of Dean of Liberal Arts, 109 Administration Building.

The Rhodes Scholarship competition, in which Santa Barbara College entered candidates for the first time last year, is open to all junior and senior male students between the ages of 19 and 24. Qualities of character and leadership are considered in making selections, as well as scholastic ability. Physical vigor as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways is also considered.

Scholarships are granted for two years and may in some cases be extended an additional year. The annual stipend is 500 pounds, or roughly equivalent to $2,000 in purchasing power. There are additional privileges not included in the stipend.

Bowers Appointed Women's Counselor

Miss Ellen Bowers, administrative assistant to the Dean of Women, has been designated as Counselor of Women Students.

Working out of the dean's office, she has charge of women students' part-time employment, gives advice on matters concerning housing adjustment and other problems, and recommends policies to Dean of Women Helen E. Sweet. In the latter's absence, she acts as Dean of Women.

In regard to personal problems, the Counselor gives advice to women students on such matters as scholastic status, social and personal adjustment, financial planning, and study habits.

All-Cal Tickets Sold in October

Tickets for the football games of the All-Cal Weekend will go on sale October 4, according to Ken Trevey and Beverly Purdum, chairmen of the Santa Barbara committee for the event.

These tickets will be sold in the Graduate Manager's office, located in Ebbets Hall. Price for faculty and students in one dollar, for alumni and townspeople three dollars. Associated Students membership cards must be presented by students in order to secure tickets at the lower rate.

Seats for Santa Barbarans in the bottom half of the section of the Coliseum reached through tunnels 23 and 24.

HOUSING CARDS

The housing office requests that all students who have not turned in their housing cards please do so at once. It is important that the Housing Office maintain a complete and correct file of local addresses and telephone numbers of all students enrolled in college.

Change of addresses should be reported to the Housing Office and to the Deans' Offices.

proved tougher than had been expected. With the exception of two Pomona first-period scores that put them deeply in the hole, they battled the Sagehens on nearly even terms and in the second half, threatened to stage a spectacular rally and win the game much in the same manner as they did last year.

On the second play of the game, Pomona's John Allen intercepted a pass and ran 25 yards for the score. A few minutes later Herbener scampered 79 yards around end and the Sagehens had themselves a fat 14-0 lead with the first quarter not over yet.

The Gauchos roared back from their half-time rest full of fight and really made a game out of it from there on. Within three minutes after the second half had started, Tommy Kelley had boomed through from the one-yard line to culminate a drive of 60 yards in seven plays. Francisco's kick was good and the Gauchos were back in the ball game.

With Dick Gorrie leading the way, the Gauchos again marched all the way down to the Pomona 15 on passing and running plays, but a fumble on the 15 stalled this latter drive and seemed to take some of the wind out of Galcho sails a few minutes later. Midway in the fourth quarter, Pomona recovered on the Gaucha 32 and Herbener again smacked right over left end from 20 yards out for the score that broke the Gauchos' hearts. The versatile Herbener kicked the extra point, his third of the night, and the Sagehens led 21-7.

Not to be denied, the Gauchos bounced back into the scoring column with about two minutes left in the game. Kelley took a hand-off from Gorrie and skirted right end without a hand being laid on him, and the spirited Gauchos trailed, 21-13, as Francisco's kick was wide.

A remarkable increase in spirit, fight, and efficiency marked the lott, and the Gauchos had little to apologize for. Without the early deficit they were forced to work under, the game could have gone either way.

Caf Meal Tickets Still Available

Meal tickets are still available for use in the College Cafeteria, Business Manager J. A. D. Muncy reminded students today. He pointed out the advantages of this arrangement, chief of which is a saving of more than 10 per cent.

Tickets worth $5.25 may be purchased for $4.75 at the cashier's office in Building C. They are usable in the Cafeteria for the entire fall semester.

Foreign Students Feted at Buffet

Foreign students are to be guests of honor at a buffet supper to be held soon at the home of Miss Evelyn Schallis. The supper will be informal and open to all men and women who have lived in a foreign country or speak a foreign language.

A sign up sheet is in the Dean of Women's Office. Students interested are urged to sign up as soon as convenient. Actual date and time of the supper will be set later.

Announce New Date For Sproul Reception

The President's Reception and the University Meeting at which President Robert G. Sproul will welcome new students to Santa Barbara College will be held on Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 10 and 11, it was announced yesterday by Acting Provost J. Harold Williams.

These events, originally scheduled for Friday, Sept. 30, had been postponed because of the special meeting in San Francisco called by the Regents of the University of California in connection with loyalty oath discussions.

The President's Reception will be held on Monday evening at 8 pm, the same time as before. The University Meeting will be held in the Quadrangle on Tuesday at 11 am, a change from the previous time of 1 pm.

Other details will be announced later by Harrington Wells, Chairman of the Committee on Public Relations.

Santa Barbara Hosts Speakers' Institute

Teachers of theater arts and speech have been invited to attend an Institute on The Audience In Theater Arts and Speech to be held Friday and Saturday, October 14 and 15. The institute is sponsored by the University of California Extension in cooperation with The Southern California Section of the American Educational Theater Association and the Southern California College Section of the Western Speech Association.

Theodore Hatlen and Upton S. Palmer are chairmen of the program which begins Friday evening in the Fremont Room of Eaton's El Presidio Restaurant. Registration at 6 pm will be followed by informal dinners and committee meetings. Experimental films produced at UCLA and USC will be shown.

The main business of the institute takes place on Saturday when a day-long series of events is scheduled. There will be a breakfast and joint meeting for the Executive Committees of the cooperating associations which will be followed by registration at the University Extension Office at 9 p. m. The Joint General Session will be held at the Alhecama Theatre where Mr. Harold Lillywhite will preside.

Provost J. Harold Williams' welcome will be followed by the keynote address which will be presented by Dr. Paul Perigord. President William C. Jones of Whittier College will give the main address The Place of Speech and the Theater in General Education Curricula. The panel on What is the Obligation of the Educational

STUDENTS MISREAD EL GAUCHO

The word 'misread' means to misinterpret, but it also means to read amiss or improperly. Students often misread the El Gaucho in the first sense, but they nearly ALWAYS misread the campus newspaper in the second sense.

Brickbats are forever being thrown at the El Gaucho by its readers—students who might aptly be called "misreaders." The trouble lies not wholly with the campus newspaper, but also with these students untutored in how to read a college newspaper.

El Gaucho readers do not realize that they are reading material that is directed TO THEM in contrast to material in a metropolitan newspaper that necessarily is directed toward a reading public with infinitely varying tastes, wants, education, and interests. Every item in the El Gaucho is appealing to a common denominator—the college student. The metropolitan paper is appealing to the masses, collectively and individually. Therein lies the basic reason why the two journalism forms need to be read differently.

Sometime in his life, the student has learned how to read a newspaper: through a journalism class or through imitation of his parents. He learned to glance at the head of a story, then to read the lead paragraph, containing the five "W's," and to skip through the paper in that fashion. He is right; that IS the correct way to read a newspaper—such as the Los Angeles Times.

The El Gaucho, however, contains ONLY the news of interest to the college reader. If the student uses the same technique of skimming when reading the El Gaucho, he will be proportionately less well-informed about campus activities, trends, and ideas. He will be misreading the campus newspaper.

Paradoxically, this editorial is not needed, because those that are reading these words now do not need to know how to read a campus newspaper—the fact that they ARE reading belies the need. d. m.

THE LAMENT OF A SENIOR

I have had classmates, I have had companions,
In my days at S. B.; in my joyful school days;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

I have been laughing, I have been carousing,
Drinking late, cramming late, with my bosom cronies;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

I loved a love, fairest among coeds,
Down the tubes she has gone, I cannot see her—
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

I have a friend, a kinder friend has no man,
Like a Speech major I left him, I left him abruptly;
Left, him, to muse on the old familiar faces.

Proctor-like I paced 'round the Quad of my college.
Earth seemed a "Required" I was bound to endure,
Seeking to find the old familiar faces.

How some have transferred, and some they have flunked,
And some have quit to be salesmen; all are departed;
All, all are gone, the old familiar faces.

SPOTTS BEFORE

MY EYES

It's pretty early in the year to begin talking about annuals, since they're usually associated with June, but I want to go on record as predicting that this year's La Cumbre will be a beautiful and readable book.

Two reasons for this prediction of success are the two boys who were chosen to edit the publication, Bill Jackson and Ken Terry. They both worked hard on last year's book, Bill as Business Manager and Ken as Staff Photographer. Since they have this experience, they are familiar with the problems of publication and have been working to get the best bids for economical, high quality publication of their volume. They have had designed a beautiful cover for the book and have planned the organization of its pages. Ken has taken a pictorial record of campus activities since the first day of school.

The last minute rush which is with all publications won't be drastic in the case of the 1950 La Cumbre. Reason is that a skeleton staff will be completely set up this semester. The people on it will fill the major positions on the staff. They will do the necessary preliminary work and will know their jobs and so be able to direct the full staff competently in the spring.

I would also like to compliment Bob Hartzell on his attitude toward this publication. He has tried to help Terry and Jackson in improving the "Crow's Nest" office and in becoming efficient in many other ways, without interfering in any manner with the actual publication or policy of the annual.

With good editors, a helpful attitude on the part of the Student Council and the Press Control Board, and the encouragement of the student body, 1950 will be the year in which a tradition of award winning yearbooks is founded.

Dear Editor:

A Modest Disposal

The sun shone bright on the Santa Barbara Shore helping a little, green vine send a delicate tendrill out into the new and wonderful world. After a few weeks of careful nurture, a tender little grape appeared . . . then PLOP . . . Head Gardener Gill Johnston shoveled too much "cultural manure" on the hallowed grounds and the poor little vine was smothered. In other words, it is my opinion that the feature "A Modest Proposal," sired by G. J. in the last issue of El Gaucho was an uncalled-for example of pedantic cynicism which attacked a sincere effort to further school spirit. What good did his disrespectful, sacreligious, destructive, and empty words do? What were his specific objections to the current program, and why did he fail to exercise his gray matter along more truly educated lines to offer a "modest proposal" of constructive criticism instead of the boorish vilification he wrote?

If I were a freshman and had read his contribution, I'm sure I would do some careful thinking before I'd put myself out again to create school spirit at UCSBC. Last Friday at the game, most of the freshmen were on the field at the half making a "C" with torches. From my seat in the rooting section, I could hear more expressions of satisfaction, pleasure, and encouragement for their efforts than I could worldly condemnation.

Now that the veteran no longer dominates the freshman class, so-called "rah-rah" is once again a freshman's heritage; don't let anyone destroy it!

THE CAMPUS CORNER

Claire Maher

Hi Gals!

Here we are once again discussing the never ending problem of clothes. With football games and after game affairs coming up fast and furiously its only proper that this time and space be devoted to just such a problem.

The new wool jersey separates that have just arrived are in style for every figure. There are skirts in knife and unpressed pleats, and a vast assortment of jersey blouses in stripes and solid colors, coming in cardigan and pull-over effects. The colors are too many to list but a few are grey, pink, yellow and green. An important factor about separates is that so many combinations can be made by wearing gabardine and worsted skirts with the jersey blouses.

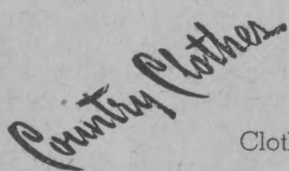

Not to be forgotten are the complete dresses of wool jersey, being featured at Jack Rose this week, in colors ranging from grey, and toast to bright red and green.

If I keep on writing about all the wonderful new items I'd like to tell you about I'll soon be off the page.

Bye now,

The Sigma Phi Epsilon "B's" and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon "B's" start the year's schedule at Cabrillo Park, Field One, simultaneously with the Hoff Rockets and Delta Tau Delta "B's" on Field Two.

At four o'clock this afternoon, the Sigma Phi Epsilon "A" squad tackles the Sigma Alpha Epsilon "A's" on Field One, while the Delta Tau Delta "A's" go against Lambda Chi Alpha on Field Two.

Having only six entries in the club division, compared to nine in the fraternity division, Coach Kaywood has announced that he will accept additional entries in West Hall 110 until Wednesday, October 5.

Registered fraternities are Sigma Phi Epsilon "A", Sigma Tau Gamma, Sigma Pi, Delta Sigma Pi, Sigma Alpha Epsilon "A", Delta Tau Delta "A", Lambda Chi Alpha, Beta Sigma Tau, and Kappa Sigma, last year's college champions.

The following entries have been accepted in the club division: Hoff Rockets, Wails, Sigma Phi Epsilon "B", Delta Tau Delta "B", Sigma Alpha Epsilon "B", and the Hot Shots.

Each team expects to play two games a week, with the understanding that a game is forfeited if a full team is not on the field within 15 minutes after game time.

In the standings, two points are counted for each win, one point for ties, and none for losses.

The officials will choose outstanding players from each game, and their names will be published in El Gaucho.

The Program

As an introduction for American to the European university system, the Junior Year Plan is excellent. Especially valuable is the first semester arrangement in which the students concentrate upon improvement of the language (German in Zurich), while attending courses at both the University and the Junior Year Institute. In the second semester the student has the opportunity to spend as much time in the University lectures as he wishes. Credit in the home college for work done abroad is arranged for by the Council.

Expenses

Costs are high, but a suitable room may be rented for $20-$25 per month. Food averages $2.50 per day but may be obtained more cheaply in a room-and-board arrangement. Another $30 should be counted in for incidentals such as laundry, beer, tantalizing confections, and carfare.

Students who bring bicycles can save much money. In Europe it is no disgrace to ride a bicycle, but buying one in Switzerland is a disgrace, because prices run from $60 up.

(Ed. Note: This letter, written by Tom Padden, who is on leave from Santa Barbara College to attend school in Europe, will be continued next week.)

College Swimming Is Los Banos Pool Event; Girls to Relay Nighty

Los Banos del Mar, the municipal pool on Cabrillo Boulevard, will be the scene of a college swimming meet on October 13, with no admission charge.

Intra-Mural Athletic Director Richard Kaywood and assistants Ken Kellog and Bill Stabler, will stage the meet together with Terry Dearborn's "Techniques of Swimming" class.

Both men and women entries are being accepted, but only the men will be awarded points. Organizations may enter as teams, while individual entries, if sufficient, will be formed into a team immediately prior to the meet.

The following events will be held for men and women: 50 meter freestyle, 50 meter back stroke, 50 meter breast stroke. For men alone, the 150 foot individual medley relay will be staged.

A nightgown relay is one of the special events for the women entries. Four girls will each swim 50 feet wearing a nightgown, take it off, give it to the next girl, who will follow the same procedure. Also for women only are the 150 foot medley relay and the 200 foot innertube relay.

Plans are being made to present a special underwater escape act.

The College Recreation Association will award a trophy to the winning men's team.

Knot Hole Gang Is Run by Block 'C'

Those two or three hundred kids you may have heard rooting madly for the Gauchos at the Whittier football game were part of a large group of Santa Barbara school-agers known as the knothole gang who were let into the game free of charge through the courtesy of the Block "C".

The program, designed mainly to better relations with the young set of Santa Barbara and to keep them occupied watching sporting events rather than roaming the streets, has been carried out by the lettermen's club in previous years. The club members pay eight cents tax for each admission. Fraternities and sororities aided the Block "C" last weekend by donating suckers and popcorn. Such gifts will be greatly appreciated by the Block "C" to defray some of the expenses encountered in this charitable plan.

The children are in the age range of 7-15 years, and would be unable to attend the games if it were not for the Block "C". The club should be commended for its action, and will appreciate any donations of refreshments or services from any other campus organizations.

The Major just couldn't tear himself away. Last Spring, Gauchos thought they had finally seen the last of the jut-jawed, amiable, old perennial, Major "Cy" Williams, but it just wasn't meant to be.

The 25 year old—by his own calculations—six-letter man at Santa Barbara has been called back by Roy Engle to serve as line coach for the 1949 Gaucho footballers. Although mainly noted for his baseball prowess, Cy was a mainstay at guard for three years with the Gauchos and should be able to prove quite an asset to Engle.

Cy always got around sports writers by listing only his "playing" age. I have it on good authority, however, that if you were to pry open his wallet and look on the back of his lifetime pass from the college, a complete up-to-date history of the Major—age included—would greet your eyes. This would also reveal the facts that Cy played three years of all-conference baseball at Santa Monica J. C., five years with Joe Perrones' Los Angeles All-Stars, and was a member of the San Diego Marine ball club that won the West Coast Service championship during the war.

This little card is also rumored to contain the following statistics about Mr. Williams. He is six feet tall, weighs in at about 210, hails from Sausilto or Los Angeles—take your choice . . .

A recent news release throws a little light on the modest Williams' past and reveals a fact that his followers had not known before. When Ralph Kiner blasted his 53rd homer of the year last Sunday, it was also his 15th of the month, tying Cy Williams record of May, 1923.

All this talk of baseball brings back fond memories to me of the Major and his antics during last year's season. I risked my neck more than once by putting the error sign in the score book after Cy hammered what he claimed was a solid hit off the glove of the shortstop and through the left fielder's legs.

Seriously, though, Cy had just a fair year in 1949 but led the conference the preceding year with a lousy .473 average. He was all-conference that season, and second string all-2C2A in 1947. This latter season also saw the Major leading the league in pilfering quarters out of those hotel radios, according to reliable sources.

Williams should be in good physical condition to take up his rigorous line coaching duties as he played baseball with the Marines this summer on a team that was runner-up in the Pacific Fleet Tourney. However, on occasions, he has been referred to as the West Coast version of Luke Appling, better known as "old aches and pains". Cy always seems to come up with some ailment or other at a crucial moment. There was the time in Berkeley last April when the Major slumped to the ground in agony after leaping high for a line drive in pre-game practice. The trainer worked 20 minutes on his shoulder before he discovered Cy had wrenched his leg.

Those of you new students who haven't had the privilege of meeting Williams may feel that you know him a bit better by reading this. He's vice president of Delta Tau Delta, the Block "C", and the

Tau Gamma Sigma

At Alpha Phi ceremonies held on Sunday, September 25, five collegiates as well as eleven Tau Gamma Sigma alumni were pledged.

The Tau Gams are very happy to have their new housemother, Mrs. H. Cosgrove and their new cook, Mr. Philip Nunn with them.

Future events on the sorority calendar include an anniversary dance to be held on December third and an all sorority dessert bridge to be held on October 9.

Epsilon Pi Tau

With Frank Finch presiding, the first semester meeting of the Alpha Beta chapter of Epsilon Pi Tau, honorary industrial arts fraternity, was held last Thursday, September 29. Headlining the gathering was the presentation of possible candidates for membership. Plans were made for a vigorous calendar this fall, with the initiation banquet set for October 22. The next meeting is this Thursday, October 6, at which time the voting in of candidates will take place. Faculty advisor is professor Clyde Keener.

Home Ec Club

Last Thursday night found fifty home economics majors congregated at East Beach. The occasion was the annual H. E. picnic. Donna Welch, program chairman started off the evening with a mixer so that everyone met everyone else, dinner was then served around a roaring fire, the officers of the club were introduced, and the evening was rounded off with some campfire singing.

CSTA

At their meeting held Thursday evening at the Museum of Natural History, Student California Teacher's Association elected the following slate of officers for the coming year: Laurin Woodruff, president; Lansing, vice president; secretary, Jackie Hughes; treasurer, Joy Podger. The meeting was concluded by an address by Dr. Barry of the Education Department.

Tennis Club

Tennis enthusiasts turned out in droves for the first meeting of the 49-50 Tennis Club on September 28. The group elected George Smith President, and Barbara Houlihan, Secretary. From now on, all meetings will be held on Thursdays at the Municipal Courts from 7 to 10 pm. Refreshments will be served after every meeting to quench parched throats and stay appetites worked up in a game of vigorous doubles.

Phrateres

On Sunday, September 25, Phrateres held its semi-annual tea for campus women. Approximately 150 girls were in attendance. Speakers told them of the theme and former activities of Phrateres' sub-chapters. In order for each girl to decide which she wishes to join, the sub-chapters are holding get acquainted parties this week.

Nani Leilani

The Phrateres su-chapter Nani Leilani takes over the A.W.S. Room Thursday night at 7:00. The friendly spirit of Hawaii will come to life for prospective members when older members conduct the meeting in formal Hawaiian attire.

Gnomes

Yesterday the Gnomes entertained prospective members in the A.W.S. Room. A treasure hunt made up the major portion of the entertainment. Punch and smorgasbord-type refreshments were served.

SFS

On Wednesday evening S.F.S. and Tous Les Temps will jointly give a party of distinctly Latin flavor in keeping with the Spanish and French themes of the organizations. The party will be held at 1814 Prospect Ave., beginning at 7:00.

Professor Wins Camera Award

Robert A. McCoy, assistant professor of industrial arts at Santa Barbara College, was awarded second prize in the recent Box Camera Contest held by the Channel City Camera Club for his entry showing a view of the approach to the Quadrangle.

A former student in his classes, Miss Jane Merrick, won first and third prizes, and honorable mention in the same group, Class B, of the competition.

Chicken Inspectors Society along with other posts. As to Cy's many old friends, I'm sure they will vouch for the veracity of this tale.

You really have to meet this fabulous character to appreciate him. You can't miss him. Still trying feebly for his seventh year of eligibility, he's the only man on campus with 170 units who isn't sure he's graduated yet.

(Today's donation graciously accepted from the members of Delta Tau Delta fraternity.)
