HURLEY-BURLY Fete Slated Halloween

Dance at Redwood Saturday Will Carry Out Spirit of Witchery

Dancing girls: cozy costumes and roaring to the music of spooky music will be a notable feature of the Redwood Dance this Saturday evening. This will be the last of the Halloween-themed dances this month at the Redwood and it will be a fitting finale.

Projects will be offered for the roof and original statues. The usual hayride can and a special prize will go to the cons most amusingly dressed group. During the interval, there will be a fortune teller. Elizabeth Pfeiffer brings the job. Judy Bilbro will provide the refreshments. H. E. Practice House is to be the venue of this event.

BRITISH PRESIDENCY OF CATHOLIC GROUP

Davy Britton was elected head of the Newman Club, approximately 20 months ago and whenever he was not seen, he was found in front of his house. Business is high and orders are frequent for the new face of the Club.

Other officers who were chosen were James P. Murphy, vice-president; Margaret O'Callaghan, secretary; and Betty Strong, treasurer.

The Club is sponsored by the Divine Word Missionaries, Agassiz, Illinois.

These reports may indicate a serious concern for the future of Catholicism in the British Empire.

WORLD NEWS OF THE WEEK

Students - Our interests are shared.

World News of the Week, the weekly publication of the Catholic University of America, Washington, D.C., provides a comprehensive overview of recent events, especially those concerning the Catholic Church and its mission around the world. This edition highlights developments in Europe, Asia, and the United States, offering insights into the global landscape of Catholicism.

News from Europe: The French government announced a plan to close some Catholic schools due to budget constraints. This decision has sparked concerns among Catholic educators and parents, highlighting the ongoing challenges faced by religious institutions in the face of secularization.

A new study in Asia reveals a significant increase in religious affiliation, with Catholicism gaining traction among the population. This development raises questions about the adaptability and relevance of traditional religious practices in modern settings.

In the United States, the Supreme Court ruled in favor of religious freedom, affirming the rights of individuals to practice their faith in the public sphere. This decision has implications for the future of religious expression in the country.

The final report of the Vatican's commission on the abuse of power in the Church was released, shedding light on the systemic failures that enabled clerical abuse. The report calls for a radical overhaul of Church governance and accountability mechanisms.

In the Philippines, a major Vatican meeting on family and marriage issues is scheduled. This gathering aims to address contemporary challenges to traditional Catholic teachings, such as same-sex relationships and women's ordination.

The official Borromeo Star of the month is the Last Supper in the church of the Holy Redeemer, Rome. It is known for its exquisite gold leaf and detailed depictions of the apostles.

W. A. S. P. W. Policy Outlined

The Women's Auxiliary of the Catholic Student Union, a women's service organization, outlined its policy for the upcoming year. The group aims to promote social service and educational programs among Catholic students. The policy includes initiatives to address issues such as poverty, education, and health care.

In conclusion, World News of the Week provides a snapshot of the dynamic world of Catholicism, reflecting both challenges and opportunities for the Church in various regions. The publication serves as a valuable resource for those interested in the global Catholic community and its role in shaping the future.

The 10 Per Cent Reduction Idea

Dear Professor: A tax of 10 per cent on the reduction of the price of articles, including articles of necessity, is a tax on the public which is a tax on the people. The idea of reducing the price of articles is to lower the cost of living, and it is a tax on the public which is a tax on the people.
