"With the greatest attendance of local alumni yet known, the Home Coming events of last week-end were unprecedented successes," commented Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, general alumni secretary.

At the gathering of alumni in Ebbets hall the following officers were elected for the Santa Barbara section: Charles Ritchie, president; Helen Noel, vice-president; Ester Janssens Ludeke, secretary-treasurer.

President Clarence L. Phelps led the procession of the feast of the Roadrunners in which 183 alumni and friends partook.

The special reserved section at Pershing park was occupied by 70 alumni. There were many more, however, scattered throughout the stadium. Fred Allred reports that 400 of the local student body attended the game and that the total attendance was 1233.

Special stunts by various groups of Scouts convening in Santa Barbara entertained the stands between halves. The Scouts also had a band and yell leaders performing throughout the game.

Immediately following the game the State college was host to the alumni and Occidental at a dance at Rockwood. A large group of Occidental students were present to enjoy the hospitality of the winners. Another feature of the evening was the debut of Don Coker

Betty Hopkins Explains Club Organization

Opening her meeting with the women of the student body Tuesday, second hour, Dean Lois Bennick after reading several announcements, turned the leadership over to President Betty Hopkins of the Associated Women's Students, who presided at a meeting which was to be held previously. Minutes were read by Elizabeth Stover and discussion of the constitution took place. Miss Hopkins introduced Virginia Fennell, Woman's Club Room chairman, who said a few words.

The Honorary Service organizations sponsored by the A.W.S. were explained by Miss Hopkins who said that the freshman club, the Rookies, is composed of girls chosen on the basis of willingness to work and interest in student body affairs. At the beginning of the second semester the A.W.S. board and board of Women's Affairs choose the women who are then made members of various committees. Las Espuelas, sophomore honorary club, members are chosen similarly and are responsible for the Rookies in that they are chairmen of committees and act as hostesses.

Jo Covelli did a tap dance accompanied by Connie Allen. An announcement concerning the rally to be held at the Granada theater Thursday noon was made by Harry "Buppy" Moore.

Registrar to Attend Northern Convention

Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, registrar of Santa Barbara State, will attend the eighth annual convention of the Pacific Coast Association of Collegiate Registrars which is to be held November 13 and 14, at Sacramento Junior college, Sacramento.

HOLD CANDY SALE

A candy sale will be held by the kindergarten department next Tuesday from 11 to 1 o'clock in the south corridor of the quad. Home made candies will be sold for a nickel a bag. Girls in charge will be Irene Main and Evelyn Johns.

Financial Aid Necessary for New Buildings

President Phelps is working with the State Department of Education at Sacramento in preparing applications to be sent to the Federal Emergency Administration of Public Works for grant and loan that will help in developing the new school site on Leadbetter hill.

The Federal government, according to President Phelps, has diverted approximately $200,000,000 to be used in public construction work in this state. This amount will be divided between the Bay district, where bridges are now under construction across San Francisco Bay, and Southern California where the money will be used largely for water and power projects, including the All-American canal.

The State of California has applied for $800,000,000. President Phelps has been asked to back up the request for a grant or loan to see whether the federal government will back state school building projects. One million one hundred and sixty two thousand dollars is being asked for buildings for the Leadbetter site by President Phelps.

The applications to be sent to the federal loan bureau will include extensive information from the Department of Education, Division of Architecture, the office of the Attorney, Department of Finance, and such information as can be given locally.

The local statement will give data on economic, social, and educational value of the project; whether or not the proposed construction is coordinated with regional or metropolitan plans for development; whether the plan is endorsed by civic groups and others. It will also list the objections made to the project.

Silly Scots Furnish Fun at Oxy Game

Scots here! Scots there! Scots everywhere! Color and enthusiasm were added to State's home coming celebration by the fun-loving Scots who were holding their national convention in Santa Barbara last week.

During the rally held last Thursday night the Scots entered into the home coming spirit with such pep that they might have been mistaken for loyal alumni. They rode on floats, went to the theater, and cavorted at the bonfire as any good son of Santa Barbara State should.

The attendance at the game was greatly swelled by the appearance of a Scot band and several of their fun making teams. The band stationed themselves on the side of the visiting team and aided the Oxy routers no little.

During the intermission at half time several stunts were put on by the Fresno artillery squad and the Long Beach pyramid.

George Roberts, Jack Gilbar, Virginia Taylor and Jesse Taylor of the Long Beach Scot drill team lead the State rooting section in George's own version of "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Tiger," which made an instant hit with the Santa Barbara fans.

All in all the Scots added a great deal to the home coming program and the students of Santa Barbara State extend their best wishes and thanks to them.

'Hugo' Troubles Director in Play

"Don't stop panting, Sir Hugo," the assistant director said, interrupting a rehearsal of the Players club comedy, "Good Morning, Bill."

"But I did pant," the student who is playing Sir Hugo insisted.

"Yes, but only once. You see you've climbed a long flight of stairs. You are a portly gentleman, and you must continue panting for a period of about five minutes. You must not stop panting so soon."

The director, Dean Ashworth, interrupted. "It's rather a case of losing one's pants when he comes on the stage, isn't it?"

The entire cast took time off for ten minutes before they could continue serious work.

College Play Wins Praise From Sponsor

Rehearsals for "Good Morning, Bill," the sparkling, amusing comedy that the College Players will present to the general public in the college auditorium Wednesday evening, November 22, are progressing very favorably, according to Dean William Ashworth, sponsor of the club and director of the play.

Two dollars will be offered to each student selling seventy-five tickets to the show and one dollar to each student selling fifty. Prizes will also be presented to the organization that sells the greatest number of tickets, it was stated.

"The cast of 'Good Morning, Bill' has caught the genuine 'Wodehouse' spirit, and because of their good work and that of the production staff, I am sure the play will be a great success," James Murray, manager of dramatics and debate said.

Leading parts will be carried by Mary Costa as Dr. Sally Smith; Don Pollett as Bill Paracene; Howard Gammill as Lord Tidmouth; and Patti Popham as Lottie Supporting players and the parts they play are Boyd Hammock, Sir Hugo Drake; Ruth Dillman, Maria; and Bill Ogle, the page-boy.

Designs for the two settings were executed by Jack Mitchell, while construction will be under the supervision of Jack Murray, stage manager. Material for the scenic construction is being loaned by the Santa Barbara High school.

Two letters in the handwriting of Charles Darwin, with a envelope bearing an English stamp, were of unusual interest. A letter from Wier Mitchell, noted doctor, requesting Professor Bishop to distribute a number of questionnaires, was also included in the display.

Service Clubs Meet Officials for Discussion

Members of the University club and local service clubs met representatives of the college, headed by President Clarence Phelps, at a dinner held at the University club at 6:30 last evening. The affair was in the nature of a good-will get-together between representatives of the college and members of the town's service organizations and of the University club.

The dinner followed an inspection tour of the college campus, during which the visiting group watched a practice football game between teams of the State squad.

Coaches Hal Davis and Ted Beckett were honor guests from the college at the dinner. Charles S. Stevens, an old time football player, acted as toastmaster.

Those attending from the college were President Phelps, Dean William Ashworth, Hal Davis, Ted Beckett, Dr. Charles Jacobs, E. E. Ericson, Dr. William Ellison, Fred Allred, Marcus Cravens and Ralph Porter.

Mayor Harvey T. Nielson, Harry Sloan, chief of police in Santa Barbara, and a number of councilmen and members of local service clubs represented the downtown organizations.

School Closes for Vacation Nov. 29

What! no vacation until Thanksgiving? According to the corrected school calendar just released, this is the sad state of affairs. The answer is that Armistice comes on Saturday.

Thanksgiving vacation will begin with the close of classes November 29 and come to a end Monday, December 4. There will, however, be only two weeks of school before Christmas vacation, which begins Friday, December 15, and lasts until Tuesday, January 2. Work will be interrupted only by examinations until the close of the semester February 2, according to the calendar.

Special Meet Praises Team For Victory

Cheers, speeches, yells and songs were on the program at the special victory assembly held last Monday morning, to honor the Roadrunner football squad for their sparkling win over Occidental last Friday night.

The team had risen to its greatest heights to climax the most successful home coming celebration in the school's history, and President Phelps called the special get-together of the student body to show their appreciation.

The entire rally was arranged by Marcus Cravens and Howard Gammill and was presented with Gammill acting as master of ceremonies. Sunday evening a message was sent to the students over radio station KDB announcing the Monday rally.

While the enthusiastic student body was filling into the auditorium, the band in uniform was playing "Marching Along Together." The assembly was opened by Cravens and then turned over to Gammill who congratulated the team and the students on their showing during home coming.

Coaches Hal Davis and Ted Beckett responded with short talks in which Davis thanked all of the students, and Beckett the freshmen class in particular, for their support.

President Phelps opened his address by saying that, "I am particularly gratified over the victory on Friday night. Not alone because our football boys outplayed their opponents am I elated, though that would be sufficient reason, but because of the way our whole student body supported the team."

Short statements of gratitude were expressed by Captain "Tiger" Kerrigan, "Red Mahoney and "Doc" Kelliher, members of the team, in which they acclaimed the spirit shown by the student body in backing them against their rivals.

Yells for the team, the coaches and for President Phelps were given during the rally which was brought to a close by the singing of the Alma Mater.

Officially opening the year's activities, the class of '34 met in the auditorium following Friday's special assembly and elected its officers for the coming year. Paul Hylton was chosen president; Roger Casier, vice president; Laura Linn, secretary; and Florence Longawa, treasurer. Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham was unanimously elected as the new class sponsor, and Bobby Goux was an equally popular choice to fill the important position of social chairman.

Hylton's presidency was contested by two other candidates, Florence Longawa and Bob Goux, while Casier won a close vote over Clare Wise and Betty Thomas. Irene Parker was supported by many for class secretary, and Ben Palmer was a popular candidate for the treasurer. Approximately sixty seniors were present at the meeting.

Skill of Gridmen Tested in Novel Football Rally

Coach Ted Beckett Will Give Pep Talk; Football men and Band Members to Be Guests of Theatre

Six Santa Barbara State college gridmen are scheduled to catch footballs thrown from the roof of the Granada theatre building today at noon when a rally sponsored by the activities committee in conjunction with theatre officials will be held.

The rally will start promptly at 12:30 in a roped off section in front of the building. Announcement of plans for the affair were scheduled to start with a selection by the State college band, followed by yells, and a pep talk by Coach Ted

Beckett. Intermingled with the yells and pep talk will come the main attraction of the get-together when Pete Hathaway, Bill Bell, and George Shultz will be the first contestants to try and catch the pigskin thrown from the roof of the building, it was announced by Harry Moore, master of ceremonies. The other three entrants in the contest are "Doc" Kelliher, "Red" Mahoney, and Ralph Stockel. Following their attempt another yell, by members of the student body, and a number of the band will close the rally.

Warner Brothers are giving three month passes to the theatre to men who are successful in catching the football. All members of the football team and men in the band will be guests of the theatre tonight, Moore announced.

Students are urged to arrive in front of the theatre promptly at 12:30, and committee members have promised one of the most colorful and peppy rallies of the year.

"This will be another opportunity for students at Santa Barbara State to show their school spirit to people of the city," Moore said. Yells will be led by Santa Barbara State's three yell leaders, Howard Gammill, Ud Armstrong and Dick Lund, and the songs at the gathering will be led by "Babe" Cornwall and Elaine Walters.

Dr. Fredrick William Ganzert will introduce Mr. Booth, who will speak on international affairs.

Mr. Booth is a member of the Royal Institute of International Affairs, London. During the war he held the rank of major in the British forces. As an authority on foreign affairs, Mr. Booth is now lecturing throughout the country before conferences on International Relations clubs, of which 441 have been organized in colleges and universities.

Announcement of prizes won in the float contest, judged by Miss Lois Bennick, Mr. Hubert Martin, chairman of Lion's club publicity committee for the college, and Mr. Louise Christ, manager of the Fox Arlington theatre, was made. According to the judges the decision for the three best floats was so difficult to be made that the extension of the prizes was made to seven. Delta Zeta Delta, social sorority, was given first prize, a cup trophy awarded annually to the winner of the first prize in the parade, for their float which consisted of an Austin covered with a large football effect, accompanied by club members wearing green and white costumes, and riding on bicycles. The Victory ship of Tau Omega, fraternity, took second prize, winning as a prize a theater party at El Chico club in the Fox Arlington theatre.

A three dollar cash award was presented to the industrial education department for its float, signifying the machinery of the Southern California football conference. Delta Sigma Epsilon, a national honorary sorority, was given eight passes to the Fox Arlington theatre. Alpha Theta Chi, social sorority, and Hui Eleu, social club, were awarded six and two passes respectively, to the Fox theatre. The only individual award made was won by Helen Sheppard, a five pound box of candy from Sheetz Candy store, being the award.

New 'Deal' for State College

Starting off with a colorful street parade, a peppy theater and bonfire rally, followed by a delicious turkey dinner, a winning football game, a dance at Rockwood, and numerous fraternity and sorority teas and dances, Santa Barbara State college brought to a close last Sunday the most successful homecoming celebration in the history of the institution. It was a week-end of triumph for State college. The success of one event was followed by the success of another. The new spirit existing at State was grasped by the members of the student body, who in turn passed it on to the visiting alumni and townspeople.

At the football game Friday night, the team was reminded again and again, by numerous yells, that the college was standing behind it, and that they were expecting it to come out on the long end of the score. It was a fine display of school spirit. It was an example of the type of cooperation that State college must maintain to have winning football squads. We must have a team capable of doing its part, it is sure; but the team alone will not win the games for our college. They must have the moral support of their student body.

The new spirit is a creditable beginning in the new era that State college is entering. Whether it was necessary to have a reunion of the alumni to capitalize on this new movement or whether it was due to the spirit that has been fired into students by President Clarence Phelps, Coach Ted Beckett and other members of the faculty and student body, we can not say; but it is a fact that it was at this homecoming jubilee that the first symptoms of this new spirit were brought to the surface.

We have started the ball rolling in the right direction. Students, let each of us make it our duty to see that its progress is not checked by our negligence. We can rely upon the athletic department doing its part with Coach Hal Davis and Coach Ted Beckett at its head.

HALF MINUTE INTERVIEWS

By DORIS COKER

COACH TED BECKETT

This is the most enjoyable week I've spent in Santa Barbara. I'd like to express my thanks to the freshman class for their bonfire which helped to generate so much enthusiasm to the whole student body. I think this spirit had much to do with the winning of the game. If it continues I feel sure that the football team will finish the season in good shape.

COACH HAL DAVIS

Chick Meehan, Coach at New York university two years ago, said that a football team is no better than the band and at pre-season camp he always had the band. At all football banquets he seated one band member between football men. Here at State we might go one step farther and say we not only need the football team and the band but also the student body.

HOWARD GAMMILL

The Roadrunners are certainly running away with themselves. They ran the Oxy Tiger back to his lair last Friday night, and providing they don't run down, they will head the Aztecs back to their pueblos on the run. The big point is not to run down. Let's keep up the spirit that everyone is now filled with and send the San Diegoan's home on the run.

BOB GOUX

If everyone gets in there and cracks like the football team, as far as spirit goes we can't help but take the Aztecs for a loss. The Home Coming spirit must last all the rest of the year.

"RED" MAHONEY

Lord!!! but it's fun to be a winner! So much fun that from now on, we pledge ourselves to fight to the last niche to stay on that win column—I'm speaking for the gang, too.

"TIGER" KERRIGAN

I suppose your wondering why we won that game last Friday night? It was the football rally on Thursday night that did it. It gave us a queer sort of feeling in our mid-sections. If you'll stay behind us and give us the support that you did Friday night I know that we'll be victorious in the next two games.

ASSOCIATION OF PRESIDENTS TO MEET IN SOUTH

San Diego State College will be host to the Southern California Presidents' association at their next meeting, Friday, November 17.

Student body president Marcus Cravens received a letter from Don Wolfer, student president at San Diego, inviting him to the meet and giving the high lights of the program. An informal dinner will be followed by a business meeting after which the entire group will go to Agua Caliente for dancing.

Late Arrival of Band Causes Substitution

Due to confusion at Sciote headquarters the three bands which were scheduled to play here last Friday were unable to appear according to Dean William Ashworth. Inquiry About Play Received by Bureau

Following the organization of the News Bureau by the class in news-writing the bureau received its first letter from the Alhambra Post Advocate concerning Boyd Hammack, an ex-Alhambra student who is active on the campus here. The purpose of the inquiry was for a local item in the personal column of the Post Advocate. Mr. Hammack is taking an active part in the play "Good Morning Bill," an English comedy which will be presented by the local players club in the College auditorium on November 22.

STATE GRADUATE PRODUCES PLAY OF EARLY LIFE

Harold Buntan, graduate of Santa Barbara State in the class of June, 1933, is now teaching at Wasco Elementary school. According to a clipping received by Mrs. Laura Sprecht Price, Mr. Buntan's class gave a play depicting early California history.

The pageant and settings were written and designed by the students themselves. They gathered their material from their social science class. The first scene showed something of the early life of the Spaniards. The second and third scenes showed Mission life in the early days and ended with the gold rush in '49. The setting for the Mission scene was the Santa Barbara mission.

Beside his school work Dr. Buntan is Publicity Chairman of the Teacher's Club and Advisor to the Young Peoples Society of the Congregational church.

Two reels of motion pictures taken by Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe C. Lyons last summer at the Century of Progress Exposition were shown Tuesday evening when Kappa Delta Pi, honorary educational society, acted as host to members of the freshman class who bear the seal of the California Scholarship Federation. The meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Olive Johnston, 628 East Sola street.

Miss Frances Smith, Santa Barbara soprano, accompanied by Miss Marjorie Molter, sang three numbers, "Villanelle" by Dee Acqua, "Pale Moon" by Logan, and "Summer" by Chaminade. A sextet of the guest, Seal Bearers, chosen and directed by Mrs. Johnston, offered a number of vocal selections.

Personal History of Local Students

By PAUL WOODS

Did you know that:

Howard Gammill, of the comedy team Gammill and Williams, apache dancer, cast of "Gay Nineties," visitor of many illustrious night clubs, speakeasies and saloons and also head yell leader, was born in Santa Barbara, that he attended school here, that he went to Menlo and Ventura junior colleges, that he came to Santa Barbara State because he likes the climate here, that he is a master of ceremonies for many college activities, that dramatics is his weakness and pastime, that he is cast for the comedy lead in "Good Morning, Bill" a production offered by the College Players, and that he will be known as Lord Tidmouth, an English sissy?

And that Don Pollett was born in Richmond, California, and went to school there, that he came to State because he has relatives living here, that he is an outstanding member of the freshman class, that he was in charge of building the bonfire, that he will appear as the male "Bill" and has a part in "Please lead, Bill," in "Good Morning, Bill" and has a part in "Please Don't Pick the Flowers" a one-act play to be presented soon by the College Players?

She stressed the fact that we are living in an international world. When a student finishes a course today he should be able to cope with the problems of a changing world and with a clearer understanding of all national traits which will eventually lead to abolition of war. Miss Frye said. Her address was in keeping with the spirit of Education Week, which is being observed all over the nation.

Children's Textbooks Exhibited in Library by Price and Burke as Nation Observes Book Week

Children's books, dating back 50 to 75 years, will be on exhibit in the State College library case during Children's Book week which begins November 12.

Most of the exhibit will consist of text books which are owned by the school library. Mrs. Laura Specht Price, head of the elementary department, and Miss Margaret M. Burke, English instructor.

Nine books are in the collection. Mrs. Price has a worn first grade reader that belonged to her mother. This small cardboard backed book dates back to about 1850. Children in the "old days" had to learn grammar along with their second grade reading. McGuffrey's series of readers were used about 50 years ago by most elementary schools.

They contained original poems and extracts from literature.

"The Nursery," of which there is one volume, is a monthly magazine "for youthful readers." It contains prose and verse with illustrations. "The Orbis Pictus," which was published in 1887 by John Amos Comenius, an eminent educator of the 17th century, was the first picture book ever made for children. It was first written in Latin and High-Dutch. On the title page this book is called the "Visible World: a Nomenclature and pictures of all the Chief Things that are in the World and of Men's Employments therein." Among the other books are a "National Second Lessons in Reading," Swinton's "Condensed U. S. History," "My Pet's Picture Book" and "Little Folks Astray," which is one of a series of serial stores for children.

Breakfast and Swim Held by Tau Gams

Alumnae members of Tau Gamma, social sorority, were guests of active members at a breakfast and swimming party held in the Biltmore hotel dining room and swimming pool, Sunday morning. As guests of Mr. C. D. Wilson, manager of the Biltmore, the members of the organization witnessed the tennis tournaments played on the hotel courts during the afternoon.

During the breakfast a silver plate was presented to Mrs. Margaret Furman Cutler, a recent bride.

Those present were Mrs. Helen Barnett, patroness; Betty Roulston, president; Thelma Fent, Helen Honigsberger, Anita Cochran, Lois Jo McPeeters, Marjorie Williams, Florence Stanyer, Phyllis Cole, Barbara Clark, Mercedes Berger, Esther Isben, active members. Alumnae members were Margaret Cutler, Dorothea Kent, Anne Van Horn, Katherine Guinn, Betty Procter, Madeline Wilhoit, Margaret Webster, Marlyn Jameson, Katherine Kelly, Cecelia Hauser, and Frances Reese.

Kappa Omicron Phi Holds Meeting

Kappa Omicron Phi, honorary home economics fraternity, met Monday evening at the home of Bernice Baker on Grand avenue. Three alumnae, Winifred Jones, Mrs. Ardis Bardeaux, and Mrs. Frieda Jones also attended the meeting.

Scraps were brought for a quilt to be raffled within two weeks and will be on display soon.

A report of home economics in Poland was given by Louise Hadley. Future plans include an initiation and home coming dinner on December 9.

Those present at the meeting were, Jesse Le Baron, Mercedes Jewett, Romona Abel, Helene Baer, Lois Cole, Dellsie Berg, Ruth Brubaker, Bernice Baker, Laura Linn, Louise Lewis, Stella Smith, and Evelyn Steinmeier.

Alumnae Entertained by Social Club

The Gnome club entertained their alumnae with a breakfast at Manning's Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Those present were Irene Parker, Kay Case, Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, Carmel Leach, Mary Lee Townsend, Lita Boeseke, Lillian Cooke, Myrna Sorenson, Sue Knox, Betty Brown, Faith Holm, Marvina Jones, Gladys Pomeroy, Alberta Greene, Janet Hilton, Mae Linderman, Mildred Browning, Mary Sackrider, Lois Lamb, Ethel Cornelius, Jean McNally, Pat Kennedy, Frances Saylor, Carol Zerby, Virginia Moon and Mariam Firkins.

ROADRUNNERS DEFEAT TIGERS, 6 - 0

STATE WINS FIRST LEAGUE CONTEST DOWNS TRADITIONAL GRID OPPONENT

Stockel's 55 Yard Runback Nets Victory

By BEN PALMER

Proving without a doubt that State college has a real football squad, the Roadrunners ran the Tigers dizzy last Friday night in Pershing park in winning a game with Occidental, 6-0. With few errors the Staters outplayed the Tigers in every phase of the game except punting; "Cowboy" Joe Forbes pulling the foreigners out of the hole several times by his exceptional foot work.

Determined to show the alumni what State really can do, the players went out on the field with the spirit that had been accumulating at State all during the week. The only score of the game came in the first quarter; the small score does not reveal the real beating given the Tigers.

Occidental kicked off to State, Stockel taking the ball back to the 36-yard line. The Roadrunners immediately took the ball on running plays for two first downs in a row. Then a pass from "Doc" Kelliher to Rezzonico put the ball on the 12-yard marker, in scoring territory. Determined, the Tigers held, and the locals lost the ball on downs.

Stockel Scores

Forbes kicked the ball back to the State 45-yard marker, where Ralph Stockel took the oval to the sidelines, and after a beautiful run, during which the Roadrunners revealed some beautiful blocking, went over for the touchdown. Stockel had no trouble in eluding tacklers after the 10-yard mark and went over standing up. Kelliher failed to convert the extra point, thus leaving the score 6-0, as it remained to the end of the game.

The Roadrunners were not satisfied with this small score and battered the Tigers all over the field, with "Cowboy" Joe Forbes pulling Occidental out of danger time and time again with his long punts, some of which went well over 60 yards. Occidental was outplayed in every phase of the game, however, with Rezzonico and Mahoney doing some good punting, but not equaling that of Forbes.

First downs favored the Roadrunners at the end of the half eight to none, clearly showing the superiority of the local squad.

Oxy Threat Squelched

Occidental's only threat to score came in the third quarter of the game when one of State's punts was blocked and the Tigers recovered the ball on the 10-yard line. With rare defensive ability

Sport Comment By Fritz Muegenburg

The spirit shown by the Roadrunners in the game Friday night was something to see. The eleven men who started the game outplayed the Tigers from the first whistle. At last the offensive power of the Staters functioned as it should have earlier in the season.

Oxy has depended too much on the kicking of "Cowboy" Joe Forbes in the past, but last week they ran into an outfit that turned their biggest threat into a win. A kicker is not the only asset a well rounded ball team needs in winning.

The charging of the boys in the forward wall was the means of our win. Lowe and "Pat" McCullough played great ball at the tackle jobs; they took care of five Tiger men and played rings around them. The rest of the men in the line can be patted on the back for the swell game they played on both offense and defense.

Little "Peetie" Hathaway gave us a real display of how end should be and is played. Pete took the brunt of the Oxy defense and put them in there place.

The Roadrunners held on downs and punted out of danger.

Ralph Stockel was probably the outstanding player for State, making the run for the touchdown, as well as gaining constantly on line plunges and punt returns. Rezzonico and Mahoney also revealed some good points in tackling and blocking. The entire line stood out well both on offense and defense. Pete Hathaway, who has played little ball this season, played the entire game at end, doing a good job of it, as he smeared play after play attempted around his end.

A 6-2-2-1 defense was used by the Roadrunners, which proved very effective against the passing attack of the Tigers. "Tiny" Roe was pulled back from his center position on defense, doing well in knocking down passes. State completed two out of four passes attempted, Occidental none out of eight. State made 10 first downs, Occidental one.

Sophomore Soliloquies

By Chris Martin

What a showing and what a week-end. State could not have picked a better time to win a game. Well, its started, so let's keep this old spirit going for the rest of the year. It is the starting of a new era for State College. We've shown them what we can do.

I hope you noticed the article in the last issue about our displays in the various merchants' windows and I hope I succeeded in calling your attention to the fact that these were the result of Coach Beckett's work. That has been the history of State—to "let somebody else do it" until it evolved down to one or two people doing all the labor for campus activities and carrying all the spirit. When the football coach must take his time to put a school's homecoming over its high time something happened. Lucky for State it did. We're full of fire now so let's all get out and lend enthusiasm and a little work to putting over our college. Don't let the business of putting State across fall upon the shoulders of a few. Everybody pitch in. You'll get no more out of this institution than you put into it.

We have a pretty good Frosh class. But don't let them know it.

DEAN DISCUSSES CAMPUS CONDUCT OF MEN AT MEET

Dean of men, William Ashworth, Tuesday morning addressed the men at a regular Dean's meeting in room 42. Dean Ashworth spoke on many student activities and the conduct expected of men at them.

He stated that men are not to call on women students during the day-time in the week and that on week-ends they were to leave by 12:30 o'clock. This was a result of complaints from the house mothers of the women.

In an appeal to keep the campus as clean as possible, Dean Ashworth asked the men not to eat lunches in the auditorium or in classrooms and to dispose of the wrappings from their lunches in the cans placed on the campus for that purpose.

Mr. Ashworth also gave some valuable pointers on note-taking and keeping, emphasizing their value as a permanent possession.

The awards were presented by George Roberts, the Long Beach Scot, who led many of the yells at the game.

Many alumni came from such distant places that they were unable to attend several of the opening functions of the Home Coming week-end. The greatest distance traveled was by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marcellus who came from Hanford and the next greatest distance was by Carmel Leach, who came from Banning.

Have I had the fun dodging the various females on this campus for asserted slights in my literary attempts? You should be a columnist sometime. Incidentally, I'm composing a heart wringing affair for next week in which I bear some of the secrets of a "Winchell's" life.

Back to business, though, I'm thinking of carrying the proverbial club with which to ward off venomous females. Why, last week Lucille Talbot caught me and before I knew what was happening I'd apologized for everything I'd written and some things I hadn't. Does she do things with those eyes.

I'm still keeping out of the way of Kay Case and Marj Pensinger. It's beginning to look like I'll have to switch back to that parcel of pulchritude Madge Bunch.

But to show you my heart's in the right place, and I'm at least trying to reform, even if you people will insist on giving me gossip, I'll skip the home coming news; and (I'm crying a little bit) there was plenty of it.

HIGH RATING IS GIVEN TO FRAT FOR PROMPTNESS

Chapter ratings for Alpha Phi Gamma for the year 1932 and '33 places Pi chapter of Santa Barbara campus as one of two chapters rated as "A" according to the October edition of Black and White. These ratings are based on promptness of reports, cooperation with the central office, and participation in awards and national programs.

The October number of Black and White stresses Santa Barbara and the convention which is to be held here November 30 to December 2. A national president will be elected at the convention to serve for the coming two years. All eastern chapters are planning ways and means whereby they will be able to send at least one delegate to the convention. The watchword of the chapters is "California or Bust."

WOMEN RIDE
Six women students opened the semester's horseback riding class last Thursday, November 2, in charge of Miss Gladys Van Fossen. Miss Van Fossen urges students to attend Vandevere's Riding academy, in Hope ranch tonight at 7:00 p.m. Riding in the evening is becoming quite popular, Miss Van Fossen declares.

LOST KEYS
I would surely appreciate the return and reward the one who has found the keys I lost on the campus.

Practice Starts as Hoop Season Nears for State

Basketball is almost here! Probably the most promising array of stars ever to be seen here will take the floor within two weeks after the football season is over. Only two lettermen are lost from last year's squad, Paul Hopkins and "Pinky" Greeson. Returning lettermen are Fritz Muegenburg, Ralph Stockel, Charles Hoffar, Fritz Zapf, Bill Pensinger and "Swede" Keith, and among the new faces will be Rezzonico, Lebeck, Lee and Miller from last year's frosh. Also there are numerous stars as transfers from different junior colleges and colleges, including "Dynamite" Mahoney from St. Mary's and "Doc" Kelliher from Oregon U. In all probability the weakest position on the team will be the pivot position since there are guards and forwards galore, although "Doc" can fulfill the pivot position in necessity.

In all probability Coaches Davis and Denno will have their hands full trying to pick a first string from such an excess of talent. The introduction of Coach Sam Barry's system as used at U.S.C. will increase the potentiality of this case-ba team and last year's lettermen will have a "plenty tough" time crashing the first string with every-one set on a par.

Coach Denno has been working on fundamentals with the boys the past two weeks and already two teams are in full swing trying to master his system. The system requires the handling of the ball by experienced players with the possibility of one "dead eye." State has the ball players, but as yet no "dead eye" has been uncovered. Three games will be played away from home this year, at San Diego, La Verne and Whittier.

The frosh have one of the best prospective teams in history. Besides being a large squad of good casaba tossers, most of them are close to the fathom mark.

Quick Kicks

Redlands, 12; Pomona, 0
The Bulldogs continued their drive toward the conference title by downing the Sagehens in a night game played on the losers' gridiron. The victory was the Redlands' fifth win in the same number of conference starts.

Whittier, 0; Loyola, 21
The Lion in a vengeful mood trampled the Poet in a heated contest on the turf of Wrigley Field at Los Angeles. This defeat however does not effect the Poets' standing in the conference. Atkinson, the negro Loyola halfback, was the outstanding man on the field.

Upperclass Women in 2 Hockey Triumphs

Women hockey players of the upper division rose triumphant in the opening matches of inter-collegiate competition last week. All scores were tight, with the seniors taking the lead in goals by trouncing the sophomores, 2-1. The juniors continued to uphold the upper class men by thumping the frosh squad, 1-0. The juniors were scheduled to tackle the sophs last Tuesday, and the fourth year group is slated to cross hockey sticks with the freshmen team today.
