

ROADRUNNER OPENS THURSDAY

Members of the Roadrunner Revue cast rehearse for Thursday's opening performance.

Students Nix New Nickname Frosh Take Troy, Vote Results Told

A bear-like nickname was rejected by a vote of 365 to 521 in favor of retaining the present "Gauchos" in last Wednesday and Thursday's special Associated Students election.

Ted Troy was elected to the office of freshman class president and Barbara York won the office of freshman secretary. The proposed constitutional amendment to make the office of Yell Leader appointive was defeated with a vote of 534 yes to 303 no, since it did not receive the required two-thirds majority.

A run-off vote was held yesterday.

Music Department Students Will Give Concert Wednesday

The music department will continue its series of informal student concerts on Wednesday, March 15, in Music Hall 100, at 4 pm.

An interesting and varied program will be presented free to the student body and faculty members. It will begin with Barbara York, soprano, singing Pergolesi's "Tre Giorni Son Che Nina" and baritone Larry Schilling's rendition of "When the King Went Forth to War" by Koenemann. "Humoresque" by Levine will be the piano solo of Barbara Griffith. Shirley Newlin, soprano, will sing the solos "Batti, Batti O Bel Masetto" from Don Giovanni by Mozart and "Ouvre ton Coeur" by Bizet, and will join Baritone Dave Swain in the duet "La ci Darem la Mano," also from Don Giovanni.

Susie Tamura and Dahrl Mahan will play Schultz' "Rondino for Two Pianos." Dale Emde, tenor, will sing "Ai Nostris Monti" by Verdi with contralto Dolores Dahl and "Parigi, O Cara" with Gloria Nygard Harrison, soprano. "Infelice, e Tu Credevi" from Ernani will be presented by Bruce Stewart, bass baritone. Brahms' "Sonata in F Minor" will be played by Edward Harris, clarinetist, and Mary Reiss, pianist.

Accompanists for the concert include Jean Davies, Irving Eislely, and Miriam Hanlon.

STAR PROGRAM COMMITTEE FORMS; HOLDS MEETING ON PLAN OUTLINE

The eleven charter members of the newly-formed Star Committee will hold their first meeting next Thursday evening, March 16, at 7:30 pm in the faculty dining room. Chief business will be to review the tentative outline of their program before it goes before the student council the following Monday.

MEMBERS

The Star Committee is composed of a nucleus of students who represent the interests of the entire student body. Members are Bob Hartzell, ASB President; Ray Andrews, Senior Athletic Director; Reno Chaekel, Rally Committee Chairman; George Rodearmel, President, Interfraternity Council; Janet Leask, President, Pan-Hellenic Council; Joe Rossi, President, Block "C"; Russell Erickson, Graduate Manager; Charles Francis, Director of Publicity; Joy De Field, Dick Docter, and Patricia Marston, members-at-large.

FIVE SECTIONS

As it stands now, the Star Committee program is composed of five main sections, Public Relations, Student Interest, Services, Star Scouting, and Budgeting.

Public Relations both off campus and on will stress the publicizing of games, and the boosting of ticket sales.

In the Student Interest department there is a variety of things. Included are rallies, bonfires, after-game dances, and an orientation program for freshmen. Car caravans and rooters' trains to out-of-town games are also planned.

The section on services includes housing, jobs, health and welfare, and awards.

The last two sections deal with scouting and budgeting for the project.

A general outline of the program from which the committee will work has been drawn up. As expansion takes place various sub-committees will be formed.

LECTURE SERIES TREATS "STATE OF THE NATION - 1950"

An extensive series of weekly public lectures by prominent authorities of the Santa Barbara College faculty is scheduled to begin at 8 pm Thursday evening at the Mesa Campus Auditorium. Occasionally, faculty members from other colleges and universities will speak in the series.

This public service series is entitled "State of the Nation—1950" and is sponsored by the Department of Institutes of University of California Extension in cooperation with the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music.

FIRST SECTION

This first section of five lectures to begin this week is concerned with "Resources." It will be followed with a second series of five events on "Institutions." A comparable series of 10 lectures will be given next Fall dealing with "Science" and "The Arts."

A Special Student Enrollment for the lecture series is available for $1.25 and is available at University Extension, 906 Santa Barbara St., or arrangements can be completed at the time of the lecture.

The opening lecture Thursday will be given by Dr. Robert W. Webb, Associate Professor of Geology, who will speak on "The United States and World Leadership: The Role of Mineral Resources."

Dr. Webb will answer the question, are mineral resources depleted beyond recovery? The present status of metals, fuels, water and other resources for leadership in world peace will be considered.

The other four lectures in the series, with a statement of their content, are as follows:

March 23—"Men, Women and Children: Our Human Resources" is to be given by Walter E. Con-

GET IT!

Student body cards have not all been obtained from the Graduate Manager's office, according to Russell Erickson, Graduate Manager.

Cards, which were available to students immediately following registration, will be left in the office until called for. Approximately 100 of these cards are still on file and cannot be obtained until the students bring in their white library cards and present them at the Graduate Manager's office. Even though the cards have been paid for, they will be of no use to the student for due benefits until signed by him. The Graduate Manager's office is open week days from 9 until 12 am and from 1 until 4 pm.

tions, with a cup to be given to the winner.

The theme of the production is "Music Through the Years," and refers to the different musical pieces around which the skits are built.

Skits are based on different periods of the last half-century, such as the Gay Nineties, the Roaring Twenties, and Depression Thirties, and the War-year Forties. Each skit features a popular song from the period it represents.

The script for the entire show, which will last at least two hours, was written by Jack Stone and Bob Conlan. Nancy Chimilowski, Arlene Mihs, and Fern Merrifield are in charge of the dance routines. Jo Porter is in charge of make-up and is doing the costumes with the help of Nancy and Fern.

Eleanor Denholm is working on the skits, while Joy Tewell has been assigned the job of publicity chairman and Patty Brock is handling ticket sales.

The show will feature several original songs by Bill Hardison, especially his latest, "You're All I'm Living For." Music will be played by the Stardusters. Claire Maher will be the featured vocalist.

One of the hilarious and outstanding skits of the revue will be done by Ted Shank, Ken Kellogg, and Katie Murphy. Arlene Mihs will execute an oriental dance in one scene, while Carol Richardson and Daulton Hatch will present a ukelele routine to the bounce of the Charleston in the "Green Light" scene about the Roaring Twenties.

PREDICTION

"It's going to be one of the funniest shows that's ever been put on up here," claims Joy Tewell, publicity chairman. "Anybody who wants to see the latest Charleston steps, the newest ideas of what was worn in the Twenties, just come on out because it's one of the greatest and biggest shows that's ever been presented here."

Faculty advisors for the production are Dick Kaywood and Dean of Applied Arts Paul Jones.

The admission for students is sixty cents and for the general public ninety cents. Tickets can be secured at the box office and through the organizations participating in the ticket-selling contest.

HEALTH, WELFARE FACULTY COMMITTEE CALLS FOR IDEAS

"We earnestly urge all students who have problems dealing with student health and welfare to call our attention to those problems so that we may work on them," stated Mr. Lyle Reynolds, chairman of the Faculty Committee on Student Welfare and Health.

In the past, the committee has helped solve such varied issues as the new examination procedures, problems about the Student Health Service, and such campus hazards as poor lighting at night, rain shelters and faulty steps.

Mr. Reynolds said that any member of the committee would welcome student suggestions and problems.

FACULTY AFFIRMS LOYALTY, CALLS FOR USUAL OATH

The Faculty of the University of California, Santa Barbara College yesterday unanimously approved a resolution to be submitted to a vote of the members by mail which, if passed, will show a strong stand against Communism and the reasons for opposition to the special loyalty oath recently prescribed by the Regents of the University.

Another resolution indicated a willingness to sign "the usual oath of loyalty subscribed to by State officials."

FOLLOWS PATTERN

Yesterday's session followed closely the pattern of action taken by the northern and southern sections of the Academic Senate of the University in Berkeley and Los Angeles.

The loyalty of the faculty group and the willingness to sign a regular constitutional loyalty oath as taken by other State officials was affirmed in the separate resolution which said "The faculty of Santa Barbara College pledges loyalty to the Nation and the State without reservation and is willing to sign the usual oath of loyalty subscribed to by State officials."

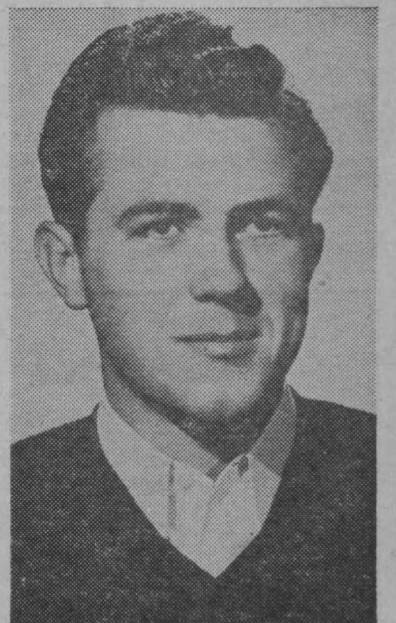

Dr. Carl Epling, vice-chairman of the academic senate, southern section, and professor of botany at UCLA, attended the Santa Barbara College Faculty meeting yesterday and explained the procedure of his section of the academic senate in regard to the oath.

THE RESOLUTION

The complete resolution as released is as follows:

"The Faculty of Santa Barbara College concurs with its colleagues of the Northern and Southern Sections of the Academic Senate in expressing its approval of the University policy which prohibits the employment of persons whose commitments or obligations to any organization, Communist or other, prejudice impartial scholarship and teaching and the free pursuit of truth. However, this Faculty

We Asked For It! . . .

In last week's Associated Students' election the nickname "Gauchos" was given a vote of confidence by about one-fourth of the student body. 365 votes, those of nearly one-sixth of the students, were cast for a bear-like replacement.

A quarter plus a sixth does not equal even half the student body, so this balloting cannot be a fair representation of student opinion on the subject. However, it does represent those students to whom the issue was of great enough import to merit the slight consideration of voting on it. And those students decided upon retaining the former name, "Gauchos."

Therefore we should uphold it as the name for our teams, our rooting section, our paper. We should not make the name change a perennial question on the ballot. For if we do so we destroy any foundation for tradition and school spirit which could be developed. Let's stick to Gauchos. It's the name we chose, by action or by inaction last week.

Much Ado by Jerry Noble

My Dear Madam Editor,

Several issues ago I wrote in this space about a Kentucky columnist who informed his readers that although his column appeared in the newspaper it was run strictly independent and he did not want it to fall to the level of the paper it appeared in.

This was an honest quote. You, however, in a snide editor's note, copied what I had written only making it appear like the fellow's editor had written it. No such thing happened on the Kentucky paper. I think that you were inferring that my column is not up to the standards of this newspaper. I am deeply wounded by your insinuation. I was only repeating something I thought was rather humorous. You took it as an affront and threw it back. You have no trust in me. I am angry. I am so mad I could spit!

WARNING!

You had better watch out or I will not write for you anymore. I will take my talents to some other paper that will appreciate me . . . like the San Jose "Spartan," or the Occidental "Tiger," or the "Christian Science Monitor."

Don't you realize the power a columnist wields?

Remember when I wrote about the little things some of our professors do in their lectures? I said that Dr. Goodspeed kept saying "very definitely," Dr. Nettler kept repeating case histories, and that Dr. Conrad smiled like Mona Lisa.

Well . . . Dr. Goodspeed has swallowed all his "very definitely," Dr. Nettler refuses to give case histories, and Dr. Conrad hasn't smiled in three weeks.

Do you remember when I wrote about a letter the paper received from the Revlon people? I told how the writer of the letter, a woman named Peggy Davis working in the ad department of the company instructed girls how to put on lipstick. I made a little fun of her. Well, I just received a letter from Miss Peggy Davis, all the way from New York. She appreciated me. She read the column and didn't seem a bit angry and invites me to come up and see her some time. I might.

Do you remember Students Welfare Limited, that anomomous group working out of Hoff Heights who wanted us to send letters to President Sproul and the Provost if we did not like some of our instructors? They haven't been hear from since the paper and this column put the blast on them. (Probably all flunked out.)

Do you remember way back about the middle of last semester when I, for no particular reason, printed the address of a downtown bookie joint operating in supposedly clean Santa Barbara? The people in the place mentioned read the column and quaked at the onslaught of this staunch crusading writer.

Hello!

Do you remember when I informed the ladies that it was their duty to say hello first to a gentleman they recognized? For at least three days the women on the campus were going around helling like mad.

I could name a couple other examples if there were any.

I repeat, Madam Editor, don't get me real mad or you'll have cause to regret it. I'm a demon when aroused.

Respectfully yours,
G. Sidney Noble
(Jerry, for short)

There Was a Man

By Walt Lee

He was a handsome member of his sex. Tall, wellbuilt, blond hair and clear, brown eyes. But everyone said something was wrong with this man. There must have been, for he associated with only the most gruesome of people. Even the girls he wined and dined were homely. If there be such a thing as reincarnation, these females will return to earth destined to wallow in the muddiest styes and supply our larders with the fattest of country and link sausage.

This Adonis—or Prince, as society had dubbed him—completely ignored the more beautiful members of the opposite sex. He looked upon them as though they were the loathsome reptiles out of India's deepest dark pit. Trim lines in female form made his blanch. When the circus came to town, he could always be found gazing at the fat woman . . . the baboon woman . . . or the alligator woman—beauties all, to him.

No one can remember who thought of the answer. It was so simple! The Prince's eyeballs—or something—were distorted. He looked out at the world with the same sensation that you or I feel when entering the distortion-mirror gallery at the penny arcade or side-show! Distorted, homely objects took on beautiful forms, through his eyes. Everyone felt sorry for the handsome Prince.

Now, in the town where this man lived, there was an ogre—in female form. She hid away in her house and was suspicious of all men . . . She hated men, but one day she heard of this Prince who only associated with the ugly. So the ogre ventured out to see this miracle in man-form. They met and were soon married.

Everyone, familiar with the particulars, felt sorry for the poor, unfortunate Prince. Imagine marrying an eighty-eight year old gargoyle—who died less than a year later. The suffering Prince, distraught and in mourning, dressed in black from head to foot. He departed from the country to wander the face of the earth in sorrow—taking with him only the thirteen and a half million dollars the ogre had placed in his name.

It depends upon the way you look at things, I guess . . .

Trackmen Take One Event In Long Beach Relay Meet

Coach Nick Carter's Santa Barbara College Track team had a bad day Saturday as they managed to place in only one event in the Long Beach Relays.

The Gauchos two-mile relay team was the sole winner as they took third place in a seven-team field. The team was composed of Walter Houtz, Ron Westerman, Don Crie and Forest Staffanson. Houtz ran the first leg of the race and Forrest Staffanson anchored the quartet.

The Gauchos' high jump star,

Willie Dancer, who was expected to place in the event, had a bad day and was out of the competition, though he did manage to clear 6' 4" which was equal to the third place mark of San Diego State's Joe Paige, but Dancer took more tries before making the mark than did Paige.

USC and Stanford dominated

Netters Lose Match As Singles Strength Proves Weak Point

The Santa Barbara College Tennis squad dropped their second match of the season on Saturday as the team lost to Occidental 6-3 at the Stadium Courts.

Coach Lyle Reynolds' Gaucho netmen lacked sufficient strength on their singles ladder as the Tigers took the first four singles matches and also the first two doubles.

The Gauchos took only the number five and six singles matches Hisbert Lee defeated Bob Muller 6-4, 6-3, and Arnold Funai took Myron Howland, 6-0, 6-4.

Lee and Cal Cory took the Gauchos only doubles match of the afternoon by defeating Muller and Howland 6-4 and 12-10 in a very hard fought match.

Saturday's strong winds affected the play of both sides and some of the matches were played in the inner courts of the Stadium.

most of the events in the Relays and San Diego State, San Jose and Pepperdine proved the teams to beat in the 2C2A conference.

With Phil Jacks, Jr.

If the pitching holds out, it looks as though "Spud" Harder is going to have himself a baseball team this season. The hitting so far has been certainly more than adequate, and with veterans in nearly, if not all, of the positions, the defense has been good. Therefore, it puts the whole thing right up to the pitchers. Nothing like a little pressure, I always say.

Frosh Baseball
While on the subject of baseball, I am forced to admit that my literary efforts directed toward the Freshmen a couple of issues back, did very little good. Freshman Baseball Coach Roy Engle reports that there have not been an adequate number of men turn out to have a freshman diamond squad. It is not saying too much for a class that does not support its activities. Let's get on the ball, Frosh!

Rider Cup Banquet
I am looking forward to the Dick Rider Cup banquet tonight with great eagerness. In the past these banquets have always been a lot of fun for all concerned, and naturally I was quite happy to receive an invitation to the affair. To be awarded the Dick Rider Cup as the "most valuable player" is a great honor for a basketball player, and the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity is to be congratulated for their continued sponsorship of the trophy.

Mural Basketball Opens Third Week; Lead is All Tied Up

The close of the second week of Intramural Basketball play found four teams with two victories and no defeats battling for top honors in the Fraternity Division.

Two of the foremost squads will try to eliminate one another as Delta Tau Delta "A" battles Sigma Phi Epsilon "A" in the Men's Gym tonight at 8 pm. The two other top contenders are Kappa Sigma "A" and the Delta Tau Delta "B" teams.

Last week's results, with the exception of Monday evening's games are as follows: Sigma Phi Epsilon, behind the eight point leadership of Bill Johnson, downed Sigma Pi 38-21. Guidio Dal-Bello led the Sigma Alpha Epsilon "B" to victory over Delta Tau Delta "C" by a margin of 32-28. High point man for the Delta "C" squad was Davis.

Tuesday's finale was a thriller and went to Sigma Phi Epsilon "B" over Lambda Chi Alpha "B" by a score of 35-30. Lambda Chi's Cal Corey and Sig Ep's Gordon Hardy both racked up 20 points.

Wednesday night's opener saw the Delta "B" team remain undefeated with a 26-13 victory over the Kappa Sig "B" squad. Also remaining in the ranks of the unvanquished was a high scoring

Gauchos Defeat LA State, Lose to UCLA in Thriller

Gaucha batting power showed in two games last weekend as the squad had to be satisfied with an even split in their southern invasion. The local horsehiders blasted Los Angeles State College 14-2 and lost a 9-10 thriller to UCLA.

The Santa Barbara team wasted little time in scoring Saturday against the Bruins. After building up a two run lead in the second inning the hilltoppers saw the home team blast Pitcher Bob Johnston for five runs in the third frame.

The Gauchos tied things up with a run in the fourth inning and two more in the top of the sixth. Art Riechels Southerners then scored three more times in their half of the sixth to hold an 8-4 lead at that point. Santa Barbara power at the plates then fashioned a four run outburst in the seventh to take the lead again. The Bruins came back with vengeance in the eighth stanza to score the tying and winning runs.

Meet UCLA Again

The local team will take another crack at UCLA at Laguna Park on the night of April fourth. The team expects a different outcome after they have a few more games behind them.

The winners were outthit 13 to 8 but managed to win with two examples of baseball's best play—the big inning.

Big Sticks

Tom Dailey and Harold Swift were the "big sticks" in the Gaucho attack. Dailey blasted out a home run and three singles in his five times at bat. Swift banged out two doubles and a triple in his five attempts.

Coach Spud Harder used 17 men to crush a weak L.A. State College team on Friday. The Gauchos pounded out 15 hits as at Pitchers Corky Johnson and Thad Picketts held the losers to three.

Cox Stars

Long home runs by Bill Davis and Bob Rayburn were high points in the game. Rayburn was heavy hitter for the day with two hits in three times at bat. Allan Cox, playing center field, hit two for four.

Twenty-eight hits in the two games speak well enough for the Gauchos' prowess at the plate. Pitching for the Santa Barbarans is holding up well. Bob Johnston's eight hitter against the Bruins have been good enough to win many ball games.

Goes South

The team goes south again next weekend. Friday they will play Whittier, the only team to beat the Bruins this year. Saturday the team will move crosstown to meet George Pepperdine College. at Inglewood. The Pepperdine game will open California Collegiate Athletic Association League play for the Gauchos.

Entre Nous

From time to time, certain revolutionary ideas come into vogue. In the fourth century we had the cult of Mithraism. Today, men from Armenia cure our spiritual ills. The time is ripe on the campus for a new sweep of ideas, and a turnover of institutions. Even the most casual observer can detect decay among the leaders, and a smouldering among the proletariat. From the tangle of regulations, and the maize of memorization, the student emerges, only to plunge himself again into the conflagration.

Personally, I am not worried about being neurotic, for most clearly, a neurotic attempting to be normal might emulate the ideal and make forth with a more normal normal than the normal.

Now the normal normal would be far superior to the ordinary twentieth century normal because the former knew what it was like to be a neurotic.

This is further simplified by the fact that normal is synonymous with the word average. At UCSBC we have no average talent among the student body. Therefore, we all must be abnormal, supranormal or neurotic, which every you like, already.

This unsavory scheme our leaders are carrying out to make us neurotic may turn us neurotics into normals. Like Quixote, we must fight! However, Mister Quixote was misguided. Being a student himself, and steeped in the classics, he donned armor and charged his gallant steed against the nearest windmill. Quixote had Pancho, we have El Gaucho. The question remains, are we charging windmills? Or more important still, are we charging?

Look about you, dear reader. Count the butts in your ash tray, notice that trembling hand, the dullness in your mind. Notice these things, and speculate on the answer.

I've watched the fear in the student's eye as he took an exam. I've noticed the nervous hand turning the page, the eye scanning, memorizing, thinking. What is wrong? Is the world turned upside down with huge boulders bouncing off our heads, or do I imagine these things because my mind is numb with the fatigue of "keeping up" with a life motivated by fear, and sustained by dread.

People in the News

Reno Chackel

Active in promoting school spirit on the Santa Barbara campus is Rally Committee Chairman Reno Chackel. Serving as chairman of half-time activities last year and Rally Committee Chairman since Fall '49, Reno has succeeded in building up the membership of the Rally Committee to over thirty members of spirit-minded Gauchos.

Born in Santa Barbara, Reno has lived here all his life except for the time he spent in the Philippines serving in the Air Corps as a radio operator in a B129.

Now a junior at Santa Barbara College, he has a record of activities including membership of Scroll C, Squires, Knights, and Assistant Director of the Galloping Gaucho Review '48. He is active in the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity and serves as their Social Chairman.

Reno has only two pet peeves: bridge-players in the cafeteria, and carrying seventeen units. He's very enthusiastic when it comes to playing tennis, "Franks," the girls of Santa Barbara, and, of course, school spirit.

After he graduates from Santa Barbara, Reno plans to continue his major of Political Science at Hastings Law School or the University of Colorado.

QUAD QUIZZES

The following answers were given to the question, "What do you think of the last student body election?"

Rod Richie, Sr.

"I don't think the students take enough interest. The name change should have been made. More publicity in El Gaucho, and stimulation of interest in various organizations was needed."

Carolyn Stone, Soph.

"There should have been more publicity about the amendment, as there is in other elections."

Ina immerman, Frosh

"I don't think enough people get out and vote. If people agree with those who are running for an office, they should vote for them. Kids should go to their class meetings, and meet the people running, and nominate good candidates."

Stan Jordan, Soph.

"I felt that the response wasn't good. Out of 370 on the Mesa, 170 voted. Not enough publicity on Mesa. Stunts and rallies are needed so the Mesa students know whom they are voting for."

Loyalty Oath . . .

likewise cannot accept the special oath, and the arbitrary dismissal of loyal members of the faculty for refusal to sign this oath, as proper means of implementing this policy, for the following reasons:

"1. The second part of the oath is at one and the same time discrimination against the faculty in relation to other public servants and a completely ineffectual method of preventing the penetration of the Communist Party into the faculty.

"2. It is unjust and a violation of established principles of academic privilege and tenure to dismiss, and without a hearing, loyal members of the faculty, simply and solely because they refuse to sign the second part of the oath."
