JEFF CLARK/Daily Nexus

Imagine you just spent a long, hard day on campus. You went to all of your classes and you even had to work a few hours. Now imagine how hungry you are. ... You're famished.

So what better way to ease the pain than by going out to eat?

You grab a friend, and you two go downtown to eat at the Santa Barbara Pizza Company. Upon entering the cozy eatery, you are greeted by a friendly hostess who lets you choose your own seat. You find a nice corner table that looks out the window. Healthy plants and scenes of Southern California add to the intimate ambience. But hunger has set in and it's time to do it right.

The name of the game is pizza, so what else would you possibly order?

Well, your friend, the trouble maker she is, just had pizza last night and doesn't want to have it again. Figures.

Sounds like trouble, but once you start to peruse the fine menu selections, you both realize that the S.B. Pizza Co. serves up a full line of entrees, sandwiches and specials in addition to its vast array of pizza choices.

While you weigh the hefty options, you and your dining partner agree on one thing: It's time for an order of mozzarella garlic bread. The simple things tend to make life better, and garlic bread topped with melted mozzarella cheese is no exception.

Before you know it, the smiling waitress brings out the bread along with your glass of wine and your friend's beer. Dipping a piece of bread in the homemade marinara sauce and chasing it with a sip of red wine, you realize that making a dinner decision is no longer stressful.

The wonderful waitress comes back to ask what you'd like to eat. "Bring me a small Santa Barbara pizza," you reply in delectable anticipation of the local specialty.

"What's that?" your friend questions. "Avocado, ham, bell pepper, tomatoes and olives — sound good?" You rub it in, proud of your selection.

"Yes, it does," she concurs. "But, I'm opting for the chicken parmesan, which comes with pasta, sauce and garlic bread," she smiles, and tells the waitress and not you.

Despite your taste preferences, the two of you agree that the cheesy garlic bread is simply delightful.

By the time you finish complaining to each other about the rigors of the day, the order of bread has vanished and the waitress is on her way with plates of hot nourishment.

She puts the chick parm down in front of your friend, who sends a smug glance your way because it looks so tasty and good. But when the waitress puts the small pizza down in front of you, you send the same glance right back across the table to her.

So what do you do now that the food has arrived and you both know it all looks delicious?

You decide to share. It does sound weird, but in order to live on in S.B. pizza and chicken parmesan bliss, a dining duo must share.

You're both so stuffed after your feast that you have to say no to the waitress when she asks if you want dessert.

Whether you eat meat or are vegetarian, whether you like pizza (and who doesn't like pizza?) or prefer sandwiches, you're bound to find something to please your palate at the S.B. Pizza Co. You will find a wide range of wines and beers to wash down whatever you decide to eat.

But one thing is for certain — the food is savory and the prices are terrific.

Ameci Pizza & Pasta!

PAYAM RAHIMIAN/Daily Nexus

Whether dining in or opting for their speedy delivery, Ameci is where you want to get food.

PAYAM RAHIMIAN/Daily Nexus

Hungry, must eat! I thought to myself As I opened the fridge and looked at the shelf. Nothing! Nothing was there, Nothing except a bottle of beer. What should I do, what could I eat? Did I want salad? Did I want meat? Then there it was, right in the newspaper, Two large pizzas for $13.99, what a money saver! For pizza and pasta, it said Ameci's the place! Italian food galore to stuff in your face! So many toppings to choose for my pizza, So many choices for sauce on my pasta! I dialed the number and talked to the man, Asked for pizza and ravioli — not from a can. Charged in convenience with my Visa card, Asked for delivery, not wanting to starve. After only a few short minutes I suddenly heard Feet climbing my steps, startling a bird. A knock on the door plainly told me My dinner had come, and man was I hungry. I took the package from the delivery guy, Gave him a tip then told him goodbye. Opened the box and stared in amazement At the two glorious toppings in cheesy cement. Olives and sausage, what a combination! Food for the minds of this generation. Just then my buddy entered the room, Looking all tired, downtrodden with gloom. "Hungry?" I asked, deciding to share. He looked at me funny as if I'd been in his hair. Then, stunned, saw the ravioli sitting on the table. "Are those ravioli, dude?" he asked when he was able. I nodded and smiled and his eyes got wide

As he opened the lid to the box and gazed keenly inside. "They're covered in sauce, and they're filled with cheese!" He exclaimed as he scarfed them without even a please. "Dude, like, this stuff is great! It makes me forget I wiped out in the wake! Where'd you find such scrumptious eats?" He said when he finished and got back to his feet. "Ameci Pizza and Pasta — that's the place!" I replied with malice and little grace. "Ameci? Ameci? Ameci? Who's that?" "No, not a who, but a what!" I smiled right back. "Ameci's the place to get good pizzas for less! Their pizzas and pastas are really the best! They deliver for free and the people are cool, dude! Ameci's the place to get Italian food."
