ROADRUNNERS DEFEATED BUT NOT OUTPLAYED BY CAL POLY

San Luis Polytechnic gained a shady victory over the State College Roadrunners in the latter's last game of the season, on the Poly field last Saturday. The northern field was swept with severe winds during the entire game and made fumbles and breaks almost inevitable. The Roadrunners administered a severe bruising to the Poly, although Poly managed to get the long end of a 7-0 victory. Poly made only five first downs, while Santa Barbara made a total of fourteen.

Cal Poly kicked off to Santa Barbara, who made nine yards thru the line on the first two downs. On the third down the Poly team recovered a fumble, and passed on the first play. Linder intercepted the pass and ran it back about thirty yards. He was tackled outside of bounds and fumbled the ball, Poly recovering. After futile attempts to hit the line, the ball went over to the Roadrunners, who immediately began a march for a touchdown. Anderson, Fritz, Morehead and E. O'Reilly carried the ball around the ends and thru the line, from their own 20-yard line to Poly's 15-yard line. Then the Linesmen called S. B. off-side, and a certain chance to score was missed. A few minutes later Poly scored on a forward pass over the goal-line, and converted. From then on it was a repetition of the first bucking drive of the locals, penalties keeping them safely out of Poly's territory. During the second half neither side could score, although the Roadrunners made many advances deep into the enemy's territory.

The line plunging of Morehead, Fritz and Garber made consistent yards for the locals, while the end runs and passing of Anderson and Foss accounted for many gains. Ed O'Reilly performed stellar work at quarter, and many times carried the ball for good yardage. Foss and Brownsberger at tackles smeared the Poly backs for losses continually, while the rest of the line was almost, without exception, a stone wall of resistance.

This is the third victory that Poly has gained over the Roadrunners in football: 42-0 in 1921; 13-7 in 1922, and 7-0 in 1924. In 1923 the Roadrunners defeated Poly twice: 22-6 and 21-19.

REPORTS PRESENTED AT WOMEN'S ASSEMBLY

Reports of the delegates who went to the Fresno Women's Conference were given at the women's meeting held yesterday. Etta Burnett and Clara Ziegeler, official delegates, reported that the conference was a great success. They brought back many helpful suggestions for the women's organization.

The remainder of the meeting was devoted to a talk by Dean Pyle.

VESPER SERVICE HELD IN MUSIC COTTAGE

The Candlelight Vesper service was held yesterday afternoon in the music cottage. The candlelight service has become a tradition of the College and is held each year by the A. W. S. The following program was given yesterday:

Song of Thanksgiving.....Curran
By Mrs. Barnett.
Violin-Solo.....Margaret Ellison
Talk.....Mrs. H. B. Coolidge

High School Stadium Will Be Dedicated Tomorrow

The program for the presentation of the new High School stadium to the school was announced recently by Major J. W. Peyton, head of the High School R. O. T. C. unit. The ceremonies will take place in the new bowl at 2:30 P. M. on Thanksgiving Day. The program will be short enough to allow the dedicatory football game between the High School and Huntington Park High School to begin promptly at 3:00 P. M. The High School student body is inviting everyone in the county or elsewhere to come and see the opening of the best high school athletic field in the West.

Major Peyton promises a very impressive program, most apropos to the occasion. At 2:30 the student body will form on the field in a prearranged formation and open the program with appropriate ceremonies followed by a military salute by the High School R. O. C. T. to Mr. Frederick Forest Peabody, president of the board of education and donor of the stadium. Mr. Peabody will reply with a speech of presentation to the students of the school, after which Gordon Monfort, president of the student body, will reply with an address of acceptance and appreciation. To conclude the program which will officially dedicate the field and christen it "Peabody Field," the students and guests will join in singing "America." Then will ensue the game of the afternoon.

The High School has promised some real surprises in the way of organized rooting at the game. It is rumored that a uniformly costumed rooting section will occupy a section of the bleachers and the letters "S. B. H. S." will appear at a given signal from the yell leader as one of the features of organized rooting.

STUDENT BODY WILL HOLD DANCE DEC. 5

A Student Body social affair will be held on the evening of Friday, December 5, according to an announcement made by Helen Culp, chairman of the social committee. Although definite arrangements have not been completed, the announcement of the event is being made in advance so that students may plan to attend this social affair. This will probably be the last social event before the Christmas Holidays.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB RECEIVES COMMENDATION

The Home Economics Club, which includes all women in this department, recently received congratulations and commendation for being in the first group of student Home Economics Clubs to affiliate with the American Home Economics Association. The letter of commendation was sent by Miss Katharine Blunt, who is president of the American Home Economics Association, whose purpose is to improve conditions of living in the home, in the institutional household and in the community.

Miss Blunt was a guest of the College about a year ago and was entertained by the Home Economics women.

ENGRAVER VISITS SCHOOL IN INTERESTS OF ANNUAL

Mr. E. C. Warburton of the Commercial Art and Engraving Company of San Francisco, visited the College Friday morning to see Ted Ellsworth about the Annual. This concern did the splendid engraving work for the 1924 La Cumbre, and has contracted to do the half-tones again this year. Mr. Warburton brought down some samples of special borders and reliefs that have been designed for the 1925 La Cumbre, as well as some sample pages of Beauty Sections that are similar to the ones to be used in this year's Annual.

Mr. Warburton expressed great interest in the plans that have already been completed for the book, and promised the aid of his company in producing a "best-ever" book this year.

DR. STOCKTON BECOMES ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF EDUCATIONAL MAGAZINE

Dr. Stockton was recently appointed as an associate editor of The Educational Measurement Review which is a new educational magazine sponsored by the Southern California Educational Research Association. The magazine is a novel venture in educational journalism and will contain the substance of twenty to thirty educational investigations published in other magazines, books and pamphlets. Although not in the same field, it will be much like the "Literary Digest" for the magazine will be a current survey of what is doing in educational measurement and guidance.

Dr. Stockton is a student and an authority in the field of education and will probably be of invaluable assistance in the publication of the Educational Measurement Review which is to be devoted to the humanizing of educational science.

A copy of the Educational Measurement Review will be placed in the library at the disposal of students and faculty.

MR. PETERS SPEAKS AT MEN'S ASSEMBLY

Mr. Peters spoke to the men yesterday on the subject "Characteristics of the Student Who Earns a Grade of '1.'" It is rumored that Mr. Peters gave the men the receipt which will enable each student to receive a "1" from almost every instructor.

MR. JACOBS ATTENDS MEETING IN LOS ANGELES

Mr. Jacobs spent the week-end in Los Angeles, attending a luncheon given on Saturday at the Barbara Hotel for the committee on Co-Operative Research. Mr. Jacobs is a committee member of the Southern California Educational Research Association.

A discussion of the policy of the Association will be under consideration at the luncheon.

UPPER CLASS WOMEN WIN BASKETBALL CHAMPIONSHIP

The upper class girls' basketball team last Monday afternoon defeated the Frosh girls in the final game that decided the championship of the school. The previous two games had resulted in a victory and loss for each team, so the championship was in doubt until this last game was played.

The Frosh opened the contest with a free throw and a field goal, and kept the ball continuously in their territory. After a few minutes of play the upper class women began to drop the ball thru the ring with unusual accuracy, while the Frosh were unable to make seemingly easy shots. The half ended with the score 20-5 in favor of the upper class women.

The second half was merely a repetition of the first, although the Frosh made a brief rally in the last few minutes of play. The final score was 45-13, leaving the upper class team undisputed school champions.

The goal-shooting of the victorious forwards was extremely consistent, both Eleanor Warren and Marvelle Miller shooting 11 field goals, while the former also made one free throw. Ebba Franklin and Marjorie Granger starred for the Frosh, Miss Franklin accounting for four field goals and a free throw, and Miss Granger scoring two field goals. The great difference between the scores of the two teams is attributable to the excellent team work of the victors, and the guarding of the Frosh forwards by 'Sophis' Stewart and Mary Silsby.

The line-up for the two teams was as follows:

Frosh—	Upper Classmen—
Ebba Franklin.....Forward.....	Eleanor Warren
Marjorie Granger.....Forward.....	Marvelle Miller
Edith Anderson.....S. Cen.....	Barbara Dewlaney
Helen Clarke.....J. Cen.....	Etta Burnett
Catherine Berrey.....Guard.....	Irma Stewart
Helen Mansfield.....Guard.....	Mary Silsby
Substitutions: O'Shea for Burnett; Burnett for O'Shea; O'Shea for Silsby.

Score by periods:
Periods	1	2	3	4	Totals
Frosh	5	0	2	6	13
Upper Classmen	8	12	15	10	45

TRYOUTS FOR PLAY HELD MONDAY

The tryouts for the Christmas play, "A Christmas Chime," which is to be given under the auspices of the Literary Forum, will be held next Monday night at the regular meeting of the Forum.

The casts of the play consist of four persons. Joseph and Gladys Terrill are a married couple, the husband being a genial, kindly man with a tenacious spirit. Gladys, the wife, is a slender, graceful, woman with an impetus, quick and captivating manner.

Dolly Wakelee is an impulsive rather imperative little person. Her former fiancée is Ted Viven. Ted is a frank energetic man whose blithe spirits are somewhat clouded by a somewhat heavy heart during the first part of the play.

The cast of the play will not be limited to the members of the Forum. Any one wishing to try out should see Margaret Burke, president of the Forum, before Monday night.

The tryouts will begin at 7:30 in the Trustees' Room at the Public Library. Dean Ashworth, faculty critic, and Margaret Burke, manager of dramatics, will select the cast.

RESUME OF 1924 FOOTBALL SEASON

The 1924 football season has drawn to a close, and now is just so much past history. Behind us are a series of eight games, two of which were victories, five defeats and one tie; a record that does not on the surface seem to contain anything of which to be proud. Yet there are many factors to be considered in analyzing the season.

We must first consider the teams that we have lost to: Loyola, U. S. C. Frosh, San Diego, La Verne and Cal. Poly. Of these teams, San Diego has gone thru the season without defeat, and will no doubt annex the State title for the second successive year. The U. S. C. Frosh lost only to the strong U. C. Frosh squad, vanquishing all their other opponents with ease. La Verne in turn lost only to the S. C. Frosh, and tied the San Diego aggregation, while Loyola lost only to La Verne. The Cal. Poly defeat is one of those unexplainable enigmas that have puzzled the followers of the pigskin for many years, why a weak team, that is outplayed throughout the game is able to come out with the long end of the score. The two victories were both well earned, while the tie game showed that the fellows packed the punch to hold down a heavy team. So we must think not of the defeats we have suffered, at the hands of unquestionably stronger teams, as indicative of lack of fight and pep, for even the most skilled of fighters must bow to superior science.

The hardships that the fellows have gone through in striving to put out a winning team are unknown to the many, and that we put out a team that was able to win at all is a marvel of luck, for training conditions at the College are such as to almost prevent the development of a really strong team; no training field within three miles of the campus, insufficient equipment, a heavy casualty list and negligible, negative support from the town and Student Body; these things have made even the hope of victory seem utter folly.

So even though we deem the season unsuccessful, let's give the men our hearty thanks for their efforts on the gridiron, for they have served the school to the best of their ability, and that they lost is but little consequence, because they played the game.

THANKSGIVING HYMN FOR CALIFORNIA

Our forefathers gave thanks to God
In the land by the stormy sea,
For bread hard wrung from the iron sod
In cold and misery.
Though every day meant toil and strife
In the land by the stormy sea;
They thanked their God for the gift of life,
How much the more should we!

Stern frost had they, full many a day,
Strong ice on the stormy sea;
Long months of snow, grey clouds
hung low,
And a cold wind endlessly;
Winter and war with an alien race,
But they were alive and free!
And they thanked their God for His good grace—
How much the more should we!

For we have a land all sunny with gold,
A land by a summer sea;
Gold in the earth for our hands to hold,
Gold in blossom and tree.
Comfort and plenty and beauty and peace
From the mountains down to the sea!
They thanked their God for a year's increase—
How much the more should we!
—Mrs. Stetson.

W. HARDIN HUGHES MAKES EDUCATIONAL STUDY

A personnel and achievement study of a high school graduating class and its college entrants was set forth in the September-October Educational Research Bulletin by W. Hardin Hughes, instructor here during our summer session. Mr. Hughes has made an interesting and illuminating comparison of the individual's scholarship attainment and the personal traits, namely, regularity and persistency, trustworthiness, sense of accuracy, respect for authority, co-operativeness, quickness of thought, strength and control of attention, retentiveness of memory. Although honor students rank high in nearly each of these traits, they may be relatively weaker in leadership, force of personality and co-operation. A rating in the best quarter of the traits scale has a great predictive value for college success. A rating in the lowest quarter of the high school class in such intellectual traits as control of attention, sense of accuracy, and quickness of thought are pretty certain to foretell failure.

Through use of a chart and explanation, Mr. Hughes has shown the extent to which each of these traits has value in predicting college success. According to him, at the top of the list stand control of attention, retentiveness of memory, initiative and aggressiveness and quickness of thought.

We must have made quite an impression on the Bakersfield team and rooters. The "Renegade," the weekly publication of the Kern County Junior College is fairly bristling with the two words, "Santa Barbara."

Edith Comstock is going to spend the Thanksgiving Holidays at San Luis Obispo with President Crandall of the California Polytechnic School.

MR. JACOBS SPEAKS AT JUNIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Mr. Jacobs spoke on the "Why and Wherefore" of the Junior High School at a "Father's Night" program held by the Junior High School Parent-Teacher Association Thursday evening in the school auditorium. He pointed out the aims and functions of the Junior High School.

GIRLS WILL ADOPT NEW UNIFORM

A plan was submitted to the Girls' Glee Club by Daphne Latham and Anna Lincoln for the uniforms to be made for the club.

The club made their choice from the samples of green flannel. Uniform blouses are to be made to be worn with white skirts. Miss Frye and her classes are to help. This will minimize the cost.

Shades of Robinson Crusoe

Imagine the scene. A sandy desolate shore, the wreck of an old coast-wise schooner piled up against the cliff. Roaring, churing, boiling foaming breakers, giving forth an ominous forbidding note. A little rowboat, laden with three fair young men approaches the shore. From the appearance of the boat one would imagine that these same young men had been fishing. Suddenly the boat moves swiftly toward shore, but, alas! not swiftly enough, for a speeding breaker playfully picks up the back end of the boat and turns it over. An instant of awful silence and suspense, then comes the agonized cry of a man in distress.

First voice (agaente): "Blub! Blub! Hey, Clarence, lift this bloomin' skiff off'n me."

Second voice (humidoso): "Keep your shirt on! I'm after our tackle! Where's Pete?"

Third voice (Doloroso): "Here I am. Whatinhellhappenedanyway?"

First voice: "Hey! Grab my hat before it goes out to sea."

(And so on, and so on. The action in the surf continues for a few minutes, and then the three young men come to shore and play put and take. They take their clothes off, and put them in the sun to dry. In the meanwhile another skiff approaches the land, also manned by three young men. In attempting to land, the small bark gets ahead of a big roller and careens madly toward shore. Then as the wave turns there is a big crash and the skiff turns over).

Third voice: "S. O. S. Where are the three men?" (Just then three heads appear above the water).

Fourth voice: "Grab this boat! Don't let the oars float away!"

Fifth and Sixth voices (in unison): "Where are my shoes?"

(Three more young men play put and take, and the rocks along the beach look like a Chinese laundry).

Sixth voice: "What did you lose?"

Other voices in unison: "My shoes! My shoes! My glasses! My glasses! My fishing outfit! A dollar! My socks! Etc. All my fish!"

(The curtain falls as the young men begin to put on their clothes once again).

The motto of this story is: "Keep away from El Capitan when it is rough."

OUTING CLUB TO JOURNEY TO CABIN

The Outing Club will make its first machine trip of the year when it travels to the cabin on the Santa Ynez River next Saturday morning. It was originally planned to leave on Friday morning, but the date was changed to accommodate the club members who almost unanimously desired to leave Saturday. About fifteen students and faculty are expected to make the trip to the camp above Paradise Camp, and all are anticipating a pleasant two days.

A part of the group will leave the College at 7 o'clock Saturday morning while the remainder plans to leave sometime Saturday evening. According to the Coach, no practical science credit will be given for this trip, as there will be no competent instructor along to lecture on the subject of practical science. The members of the club plan to spend the two days at the Cabin exploring the canyons and country around the camp. The more sturdy hikers will attempt to hike to Gibraltar Dam, that lies at some distance up the river.

Return will be made Sunday afternoon over the historic San Marcos Pass.

ART DIRECTOR IS MAKER OF PLATES FOR BIG LIBRARIES

Mr. Berns, acting head of the art department, is becoming widely known as a result of his book-plates. Mr. Berns with his colleague, Mr. MacClean, has designed many interesting book-plates for a large number of private libraries the country over.

When interviewed, Mr. Berns expressed his opinion on the art of book-plate designing in the following manner:

"The designing of book-plates is an interest which Mr. MacClean and I have had for a long time, both of us being interested in this intriguing, informal phase of art. We believe that a book-plate should express thoroughly the personality of the owner. It should tell just enough and not too much; usually, book-plates tell too much. One interest expressed on the plate is better than a half dozen hobbies. The designing of book-plates affords a wonderful chance for the artist to express himself in design, composition and lettering, as well as an agreeable spotting of black and white. It is not a temporary vogue or fad. Book-plates have been used for years and express book ownership, and in these days they are growing constantly in favor. No one with any sized library feels that it is quite complete without this little artistic expression of ownership—the ex-libris.

ALUMNI GROUP HOLDS MEETING IN FILLMORE

The Alumni Association held a luncheon Monday at the Orange Leaf Tea Room in Fillmore for the Santa Barbara graduates who are teaching in or near Fillmore. Mrs. Miller and Dr. Stockton attended the luncheon. Dr. Stockton also spoke at the Ventura County Institute which is being held in Fillmore this week.

The guests of honor at the luncheon were Mrs. Blanche T. Reynolds, County Superintendent of Schools, and Miss Alice Pendery, County Supervisor and former faculty member of the State College. Nearly twenty Santa Barbara graduates attended the luncheon.

EXCHANGES

The stage craft classes of the Santa Barbara High School are designing the sets for the Senior play which is to be presented in January.

The students of the public speaking class of the San Pedro High School had their first opportunity to appear before the public. They visited the elementary schools of the city and spoke in behalf of the Community Chest campaign.

The girls of the Fullerton Junior College are planning to start a rifle club. The boys seem to feel that college life may become a trifle too exciting.

The average age of the Sacramento Junior College students is nineteen years. The youngest of the regular students are sixteen, and the oldest are forty-five.

The San Mateo Junior College displayed a cider and ice cream booth at the Armistice Day carnival which was given under the auspices of the American Legion and the High Schools.

The Art Club of the Central State Normal School of Lock Haven, Pennsylvania, is planning an exhibition. Each member of the club is now working on some project which may be included in the exhibition.

A group of students of the Kern County Junior College are presenting Booth Tarkington's comedy "Clarence."

There are more ways than one of increasing the number of subscriptions to the college paper. "The Mooring Mast," the Pacific Lutheran College paper, held a subscription race, in which the girls competed with the boys. Who won? Why the girls, of course!

STUDENT BODY WILL CONSIDER AMENDMENT

The following amendment which will be voted upon at the next Student Body meeting is being printed so that students may know what they are voting for:

Amendment to the Constitution, Article VII, Section 3.

Article VII.

Section 3. The Social Committee Chairman shall be appointed by the Student Body Council. The committee shall be composed of seven members acting with the Dean of Women.

Article VII, Section 3, now reads:

The Social Committee Chairman shall be appointed by the Student Body Council. The committee shall be composed of five members acting with the Dean of Women.

The present social committee feels the need of more assistance in arranging for social affairs. Although members of the Council expressed the opinion that so large a committee is likely to be unwieldy, the social chairman, Helen Culp, feels that such an amendment is a necessity.

DE MOLAY ORDER WILL GIVE DANCE FRIDAY

On Friday evening, November the twenty-eighth, the Santa Barbara Chapter, Order of De Molay, of which a number of our students are members, will give a dance in the Arlington ballroom at 9 o'clock. Greenough's famous orchestra will furnish the music. The ballroom will be decorated in De Molay colors and a real live evening is planned. Jimmie Williams of the local High School has charge of the affair. The dance is open to the public and a good crowd is expected to attend.

MR. RUST SPEAKS TO UNIVERSAL CLUB

Mr. William Rust, instructor of auto mechanics, gave a talk on France before the Universal Club and Mr. Peter's Geography class last Friday. During his boyhood, Mr. Rust lived in Flanders, on the northern coast of France, for eight years.

Mr. Rust lived in the highly fortified town of Dunkirk. This town was in reality little more than a huge fort, having about 50,000 inhabitants. The wall, which surrounds the city on all but the ocean side, was forty feet high and a block through. On the outer side of the wall, a moat twenty-five feet deep and about four hundred feet across serves a further fortification to the city. In addition to this ancient form of fortification there are a number of hidden batteries and guns.

SOCIAL SCIENCE CLUB

MEETS DECEMBER 3

Due to the Thanksgiving Holidays the Social Science Club will not hold its regular meeting scheduled for this Wednesday evening, but will meet next Wednesday at 7:30 at the Chamber of Commerce.

As the members decided to depart from the serious attitude maintained during all of its previous meetings, the following more or less humorous yet essential question will be discussed "Resolved, that women should pay half the expenses of courtship and friendship."

He: "Why do movie actors always clutch at their heads to portray deep emotion, and the actresses at their hearts?"

She: "Each probably feels it most in the weakest point."
