EXCITING GAME IN STORE WHEN GAUCHOS, AGGIES MEET SATURDAY AT UCLA

by Dick Canada

All-Cal Weekend, UCLA Homecoming, parties, dance: all this and football too! A really great weekend is shaping up for the Gauchos. The Gauchos will play the Cal Aggies at 11:00 am Saturday in the Coliseum and their game will be followed by the UCLA and California game. The game last year was a walk for the Gauchos and from the looks of things this year may be a repeat.

Whittier, whom the Gauchos tied in their first game this year, rolled over the Aggies 40 to 0 last week, and the Gauchos may do as well. The Gauchos have shown much improvement since their meeting with Whittier.

Aggie Guard Loss

The Aggies have lost 17 lettermen and haven't been able to replace them so far this year. Their biggest loss is guard Don Niboli who was All-Conference for three years in a row. Their biggest asset on defense this year is tackle Bob Chilcott. He is a 235 pound three year letterman and has played against the Gauchos three times. He was picked as the outstanding Aggie in last years game and will be out to repeat again this year.

Gauchos Ready

The Gauchos will be at full strength and should be ready to roll like they did over L. A. State. The green squad is getting to know its way around now, and it is beginning to show. The line was opening large holes and not giving way on defense. The passing and running were sharp, and they really looked like a football team for the first time this year. You can be sure they will do the same this weekend when we go South.

Big Weekend

The activities will start at 11:00 Friday with the crowning of the UCLA Homecoming Queen, and from that time till Sunday, things will be happening. The Rally Committee urges everyone to attend as many of the activities as possible. There are reservations at the Mayan Hotel in Los Angeles for all students and they should be picked up by 4:00 Friday afternoon. The team and band along with the Song Leaders and Yell Leaders will be there and it could be quite a party.

White Required

The Santa Barbara rooting section will be on the sunny side of the field so it is advised that you take your rooters caps. Everyone who sits in the rooting section must have WHITE shirts or WHITE sweaters. These regulations are being enforced by UCLA and there is little doubt that you can get away from it. Also don't forget your student body cards for they will be checked at the gate and your ticket will be revoked if you do not have a student body card. Let's every one go South and have a party.

Selective Service Tests Set

The dates for the Selective Service College Qualification test have been set for Thursday, Nov. 19, and Thursday, April 22, it was announced by Maj. Gen. Lewis B. Hershey, Director of Selective Service.

In Santa Barbara these tests will be given at Santa Barbara Junior College. Application must be made in advance by those desiring to take the examination and the necessary forms may be obtained at the Draft Board office in the Post Office Federal Building. Applications for the Nov. 19 test must be postmarked before midnight of Nov. 2. Those postmarked after midnight of that date cannot be accepted for that test.

To be eligible to apply for the Selective Service tests a student must (1) intend to request deferment as a student; (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time course of instruction and (3) must not previously have taken the qualification test. The present criteria for deferment as an undergraduate student are either a satisfactory score (70) on the qualification test or specific rank among the male members of the class (upper half of freshman class, upper two thirds of sophomore class, or upper three fourths of junior class).

"PRESENTS" FETE SORORITY PLEDGES SATURDAY EVENING

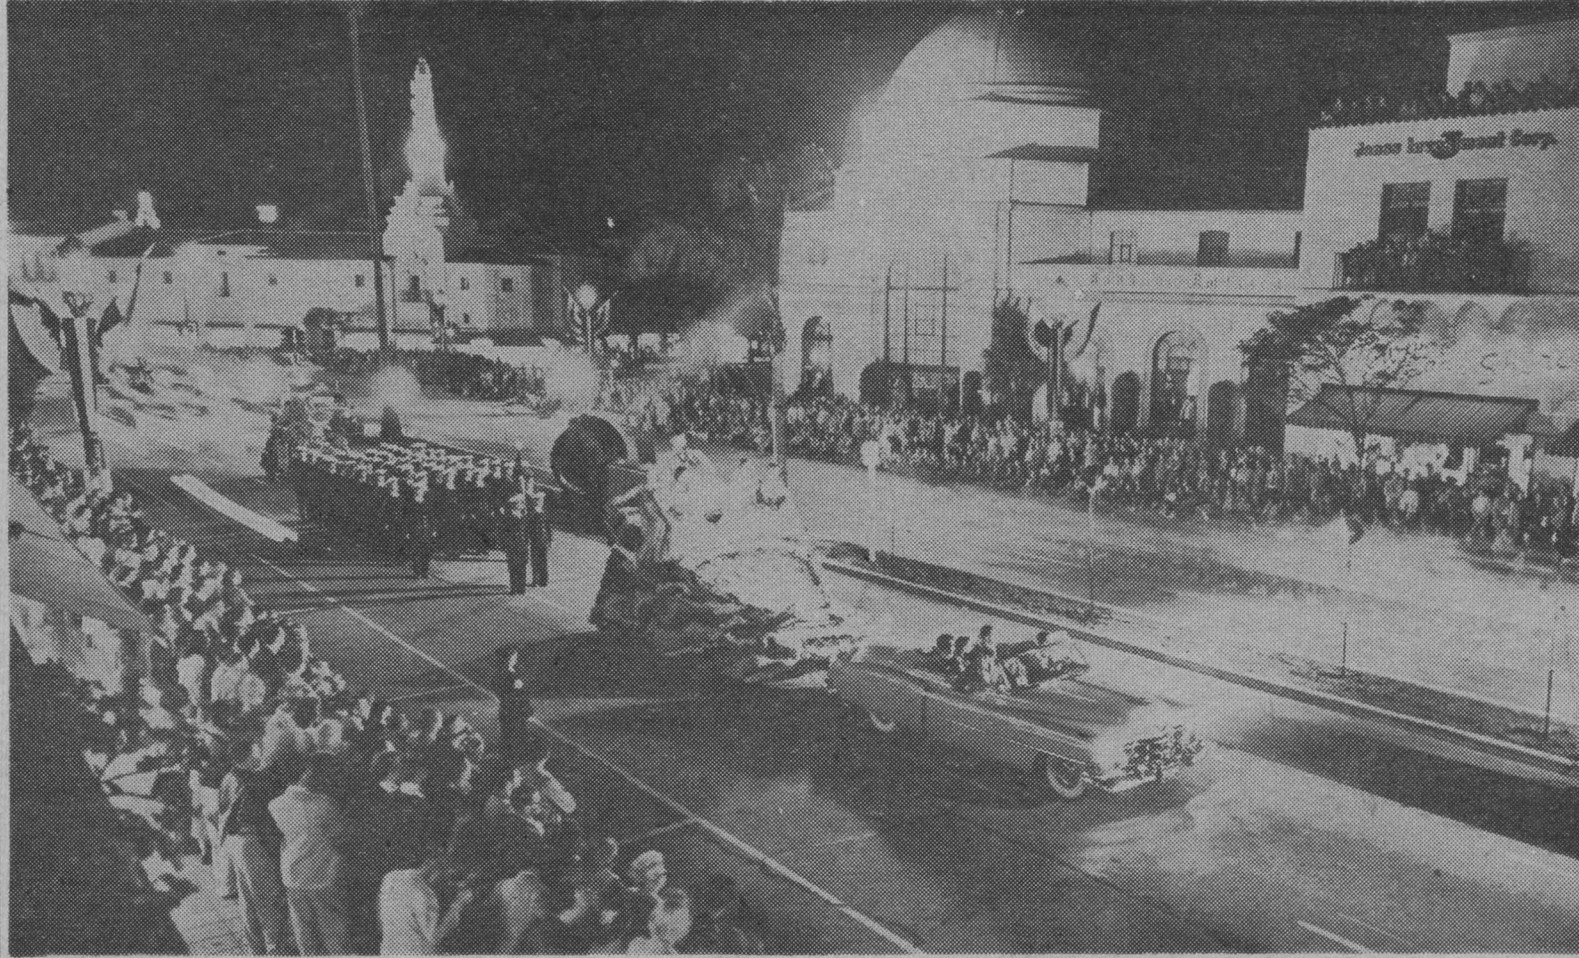

The presentation of sorority pledges will take place on Saturday, Nov. 7, at the Recreation Center. The gala event will get under way at 9 pm when the pledges and their dates move down the receiving line. They will be introduced to the Dean of Men Lyle G. Reynolds, IFC President Don Sherwin, Panhellenic Advisor Dean Helen E. Sweet, Panhellenic President Sue McCracken, and Panhellenic Vice-President Mariam McFarland.

At 10:30 pm each group of pledges will be formally introduced on the stage by its sorority president. After being presented, each pledge will be escorted down the aisle by two members of IFC and will meet her date at the other end. A dance will follow with music supplied by Nino Mautino.

190 Pledges

The pledges, about 190 in number, are from the rushing of last spring and this fall. Arrayed in white formals, the group will wear flowers representing sorority colors.

Each sorority has had a part in the preparations for the presents under the chairmanship of Mariam McFarland. Alpha Delta Pi is in charge of the decorations, Alpha Phi the check room, Chi Omega the band, Delta Gamma the refreshments, Delta Sigma Epsilon cleanup, Pi Beta Phi the courtesy committee, Sigma Kappa the invitations, and Kappa Alpha Theta the program.

UCLA HOMECOMING PARADE, 1952 as it rolled down Westwood Boulevard in the early evening. This year floats built by the student organizations will follow the Homecoming and All-Cal theme of an "All-U Safari to the C."

GAMES, RALLY, DANCE ARE AMONG ALL-CAL EVENTS

Students from the Berkeley, Davis, and Santa Barbara campuses journey to UCLA this weekend for the "All-U Safari To The C." This All-Cal weekend, an annual event, will include many varied activities with students from all four campuses participating.

Friday, Oct. 30, will begin with the Coronation of UCLA's Homecoming queen at 11 am. This event, held on campus on the Janss steps, will include the participation of President Sproul, the student body presidents, head yell leaders, and the bands of the four schools. At 12:30 an honor luncheon will be held at the Bel Aire Hotel honoring President Sproul, the queen and her court, notable faculty members, and student body presidents, vice presidents and head yell leaders.

At 3 pm a debate between UCLA and California will take place on campus. A crew race between these two schools will occur at Ballona Creek at 4 pm.

Rally and Jerry Lewis

The UCLA Homecoming parade will start at 8 pm. A big rally will immediately follow, at approximately 10:15, on Trotters

Field. A special guest, comedian Jerry Lewis, will help lead some of the many yells and songs. The rally will be climaxed by aerial fireworks. Following this rally a dance for everyone will take place on campus in the Kerckhoff Hall patio.

Two Games

On Saturday, Oct. 31, the two football games are scheduled in the Coliseum. The Santa Barbara and Davis tilt will start at 11 am, and gates open at 10:50. Santa Barbara students are to enter gate 23, and are advised to bring rooter's caps, for they will be sitting on the sunny side of the Coliseum.

At 1:15 a parade will take place around the stadium track.

Army Averts Bloodshed in Vital Election; Winners Notified By Untapped Phone Thurs.

In spite of the necessity of having military personnel present during balloting, local authorities feel that the internationally significant Colonel's Coed election will proceed without bloodshed. Voting by the ROTC cadets today and tomorrow climaxes a heated campaign involving a record number of candidates.

Violent demonstrations last Thursday morning on the Mesa drill field were viewed with alarm by local military officials but the arrival of the ROTC band made it unnecessary to declare martial law. Several disturbances have also been reported in B101 where candidates' pictures are posted, but they were described as non-political.

Winning candidates will be notified secretly by untapped telephone Thursday night, Oct. 29. They will assemble under heavy guard at the Military Science Dept. at 11 am Tuesday, Nov. 3 for their first meeting with the press.

First Dramatic Event In Final Rehearsals

The first dramatic event of the year, "Goodbye My Fancy," is in the final stages of rehearsal. The Fay Kanin play is to be performed on Nov. 12, 13, and 14 at the Riviera Auditorium. Dr. Edwin Schoell, of the Speech Department, is the director.

The story concerns a young congresswoman who returns to her old alma mater, and the consequent complications when she falls in love with two men at the same time.

Student tickets will be available before the play at the Graduate Manager's Office.

LITERARY CRITICS DISCUSSED; TALK TODAY ON WRITING IN UNIVERSITY

by Beth and Sylvia Klasson

Dr. George Stewart, professor of English at Berkeley, and a well-known author, will present today's All-College Lecture entitled "The Writer in the University." Dr Stewart's background in teaching university English and literature and his success as an author highly qualify him as a speaker on this subject. His writings include several novels and numerous articles.

Next Wednesday, November 4, is the date set for the Provost's Lecture with J. A. C. Grant, professor of political science and divisional dean of social sciences at UCLA, speaking on, "Who Makes Our Laws? The Role of the Courts."

Experience in Literature

"The Critic and the Lagging Clock," last week's lecture, was given by Dr. Hugh Kenner, assistant professor of English at SBC. The speaker, an authority on twentieth-century literature, is the author of over 40 books, articles and reviews. His published articles include several scrutinies of important modern critics.

Dr. Kenner said that it is being rumored that literary critics are taking to writing analysis instead of appreciative essays. In explaining this, he pointed out that at least two commercial publishers, who do not venture anything carelessly, have issued bulky books containing, not literature, not criticism of literature, but criticism of criticism. This is called "the new criticism."

The cause for concern is that while literary criticism tends to be a highly specialized occupation, it is one of the few specialisms in which nearly everyone feels somehow involved. Everyone wants to be allowed to like what he likes and is suspicious of the literary critic, a mysterious creature with an authoritative manner.

Meaning of Criticism

One issue which seems to have been confused is what the nature and function of real criticism is. Dr. Kenner explained that on the whole, most people will apply the term "criticism" to any pronouncement that looks official enough, usually anything that appears in print. "The vast majority of the writings that appear in print today about books are not criticism as I am going to use the term, but journalism and advertisement," he said.

The speaker reviewed briefly the history and theory of literary criticism throughout the ages. One job of the critic today is to maintain values. This problem has been considered an acute one for only about 200 years, which is only a small part of the 1600 years since Aristotle, who is usually said to be the first critic.

Time Lag

Dr. Kenner pointed out that no new work since before 1800 has been accepted without a long battle, usually accompanied by charges of "obscurity." The result today is that there is a time-lag of about forty years between the writing of a significant literary work and popular acceptance of it. To push forward this lagging clock is perhaps the most important task of the critic at this time.

Paradise Lost . . .

The following letter was received by the Office of the Registrar. We have reprinted it in full as an indication of the impression other people in other lands have of our college.

Nigeria, Oct. 15, 1953

"The Registrar of Admission,
 Santa Barbara College,
 Santa Barbara, California, U.S.A.

Sir,

I humbly and respectfully beg to apply for Scholarship assistance to study in your college commencing in Sept. 1954.

I am nineteen years of age. I completed my secondary school course in December 1952 at Odudwa College, Ile-Ibe, Nigeria. I took the Cambridge School Certificate examination in the same December 1952 and I succeeded in grade II.

Santa Barbara College was introduced to me about four years ago by a close friend of mine as one of the leading standard colleges of which America is proud. With my little knowledge of the college, the curricula and the extra-curricula activities are enough to magnetise an ambitious spirit to the college. The description of the general life in the campus is more than enough to allure someone, who is willing to live a paradisaic life, to Santa Barbara College. Unfortunately my friend failed to persuade his father, who is an old student of an English University, to send him to Santa Barbara College.

I informed my father of my deep interest in and strong determination to further my studies in Santa Barbara College. After receiving good and satisfactory informations about the college from other sources, he promised to send me to the college as soon as I completed my secondary school course.

My father is a farmer relying, for all his resources, on a plantation of oil palm and cocoa. Most unfortunately for me, he had to suffer a sudden and very heavy loss as a result of an outbreak of fire in his firm. This pitiable incident happened in January of this year, at the very time that arrangements were being made for my course in your college. At the hearing of this distressing news, my great sorrow was about my fervent hope of studying in your college which then seemed to be totally shattered after all my too much talking about and pride in the college to such an extent that I have been nicknamed "Oladapo of Santa Barbara College" by friends, classmates, and relatives.

When I informed my friend of my inability to go to this college anymore owing to this misfortune, he told me not to lose hope. He stated that my hope can still materialize if scholarship aid is given to me by the college. I was then advised to apply to you for this purpose, stating the deplorable circumstances which tend to abstruct my way in studying in your college. It will be my ineffable joy, if the help is granted.

I am,
 Yours faithfully,

Ed—We like this part of paradise.

"Picturesque Pickets Appearing Daily"

Dear Momma . . .

This week has been rather quiet around here. No one is doing anything, because they are all either recovering from Homecoming or getting ready for All-Cal. In fact, most are doing both.

In case you don't know, All-Cal is a special celebration where all the students of the University get together. This year the celebration, which is four times as bad as Homecoming I'm told, will be in the big city. As I'm just a simple farm girl, I don't think I'll go.

Last weekend I met two interesting senior boys. The first one was the reader for my Art course. He's an art major and was real sweet. He said that he wanted to do some drawing of me sometime.

The second boy is another Speech major, but I guess he felt that actions speak louder than words. I met him at the library, and he said he'd take me home. But instead of going home we went to the beach where he played on the swings, in the sand, and in the water. I finally walked home leaving him there laughing and building sand castles.

This last week was midterm week, too. I didn't do too well; I got four D's. However I did get an A in Art—your little daughter is learning to take care of herself! I've got to go study now, but I'll write a long letter next week.

Your loving daughter,
 Caprice

Dear Caprice . . .

You little brat. If you continue to write to me those letters filled with your adolescent nonsense and strained silliness, I shall bring you back home and make you go back to your old job of serving drinks to people over 21 in our own dear daddie's bar.

Maybe if you stopped bleaching your hair and memorizing The Readers Digest's jokes, you could settle down to being a respectable full headed individual like myself.

I am sending you some matches

The Santa Barbara College student newspaper has been known by four names in its history. It was first known as Nais with the first issue in 1915. In 1921 it was changed to The Eagle. Ten years later the name was changed to Roadrunner and in 1934 to El Gaucho, which is the paper's present title.

to leave around with the name of your Daddie's establishment on them. It will be good advertisement if you do the job properly. We expect this favor in return for keeping the juvenile authorities off your trail.

Don't try and fool me. You're not going to study. You've been going to school for 15 years and you still can't short change properly or put an even 23 pretzels in a basket.

And stop lying to me so much. I'm getting sick of hearing those stories you tell me. It sounds like you are trying to impress somebody.

Momma

There will be no El Gaucho next week due to All-Call weekend. The next issue will be on November 11.

LATEST COLLEGE SURVEY SHOWS LUCKIES LEAD AGAIN

 We're casual as can be;
 But we know, just like everyone,

It's easier than you think to make $25 by writing a Lucky Strike jingle like those you see in this ad. Yes, we need jingles—and we pay $25 for every one we use! So send as many as you like to: Happy-Go-Lucky, P. O. Box 67, New York 46, N. Y.

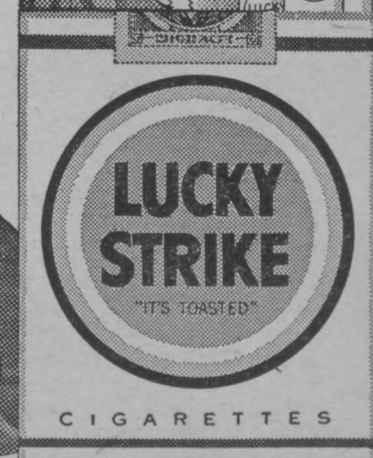

Last year a survey of leading colleges throughout the country showed that smokers in those colleges preferred Luckies to any other cigarette.

This year another nation-wide survey—based on thousands of actual student interviews, and representative of all students in regular colleges—shows that Luckies lead again over all brands, regular or king size...and by a wide margin! The No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better.

Smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste, and the fact of the matter is Luckies taste better—for 2 reasons. L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. And Luckies are made better to taste better. So, Be Happy—Go Lucky!

Sandra Moshman

by Joanne Kyger

I have school spirit! It oozes out every corpuscle of my being that still belongs to the University of California because of overdue book fines. I have never experienced more inebriate feeling than those found when attending football rallies or seeing the cheer leaders throw themselves sobbing on the ground after a strenuous, "come on now, bring 'em out of the huddle," never seeming to realize that the latter had happened two downs ago, but they were too busy to turn around to see what was happening.

The almost hysterical feeling, somewhat of an emotional catharsis, brought about by the frantic signaling of the captain brings about family reunions right and left. I remember the first touchdown of the season, flinging my arms around the comfortable looking neck of my neighbor who asked what the heck this was all about. He thought it was the Democratic rally and barbecue.

And there is nothing more thrilling than learning the technicalities of the game. From what I was able to learn from various and sundry sources, the little men who run around in the vertical sing-sing jackets are the referees who are on their side and most fullbacks are usually frustrated because they try to run around their own ends. When I asked who the captain was on the other team, they told me to watch during time out to see who could spit water the furthest. Talent like that made the head of the team. Anyone else in danger of flunking out made up the rest of the squad. That was the only way the coaches had anything to worry about.

The general feeling of the whole atmosphere of the football game is like a colossal first night opening in which one spends the majority of their time trying to see who has come with whom, who has jilted whom, and who passed the first Geology 2 test. The result is one loud scream of gossip often mistaken for rambunctious school spirit. This often leads to confusion on the part of the head cheer leader who usually just gives up and lets the associated students lead him in a surrealist interpretation of "Go, Gauchos, Go."

Then of course, there is the added excitement of weather conditions probably not matched by any other stadium on earth. Will it or will it not come in on little cat feet? The precocious newcomer often has the trauma of his life seeing the field gradually being obscured by a slowly seething mass, and then slowly rising with horrible expression and grasping voice, "Dear God, my myopia has caught up with me."

The spirit of school and the football season shall always remain with us primarily because of the smug satisfaction that it is the only season of the year when a man can walk down the street with a blonde on one arm and a blanket on the other without raised eyebrows.

DOLL CONTEST SPONSORED BY AWS

One hundred dolls need dressing, and AWS is looking for women to help with this project. It is all part of the doll-dressing contest sponsored every year by the Associated Women Students as a service for the Council of Christmas Cheer. The dolls will be given to needy children for Christmas. Prizes will be given for the best-dressed dolls, which will be displayed on campus. Women may pick up dolls for one week beginning today in Ebbetts Hall 202 between 12 and 2 pm. Deadline for returning the dolls is Dec. 1.

A limited supply of materials is also available, according to Mary Lou Vander, chairman of the project.

Final Registration Figures Released; Men Outnumbered

Final registration figures at the University of California, Santa Barbara College, show that the 1578 students on the rolls this semester represent an increase of approximately three per cent over the fall semester last year, it was reported by Dr. Paul W. Wright, Registrar.

This is the first time since 1947 that the total enrollment has shown an upswing. Enrollment has been slowly decreasing since the peak of the GI-inflated attendance in 1947 when about one-half of the students were veterans. Non-veteran enrollment during this six-year period, however, has remained almost continuously between 1300 and 1400. There are 1398 non-veterans registered this year.

Veteran Increase

Veteran enrollment is again beginning to increase slightly with the return of more Korean servicemen, although nothing to compare with the post-World War II influx.

An unusually high number of new students have started their college careers at Santa Barbara College this year, totaling 676. This is an increase of 16 per cent over the number of new students coming to the College last year.

More Women

This year the College enrolled a small percentage more women than men — 872 college women and 715 college men. By classes, the enrollment breakdown is as follows: 474 freshmen, 340 sophomores, 370 juniors, 383 seniors, and 20 special students.

HOUSING PROBLEM SOLVED FOR FALL

Now that five weeks have passed since registration, the problem of housing has been solved for this semester. El Castillo, Santa Barbara's largest resident hall, is occupied by 111 women students. There are 91 women and 88 men living in apartments, making a total of 179, while 298 students, 138 women and 160 men, reside in sorority and fraternity houses. Parents, friends, and relatives provide housing for 145 women and 136 men. Room, room and board, or room with kitchen privileges accommodate 301 women and 140 men. There are 24 men and 19 women on exchange. The remainder of SBC's 1,536 students are composed of 170 married men, 63 married women, and ten who are out of town student teaching. Of the final total, forty are commuters.

History Club

The History Club will have its first meeting of the year tomorrow at 7:30. The meeting will take place in the AWS room, and all faculty and students are invited by Club President Bill Harrison to attend. Dr. Kurt Baer, associate professor of art, will give a well-illustrated discussion on Mexican architecture showing the influence of Aztec and Spanish styles. An election will be held at this meeting to fill the office of vice-president. Afterwards, refreshments will be served.

PHI ALPHA THETA

Five new members were recently initiated into Phi Alpha Theta, honorary history organization. The members are: Professor Carl Schuler, Dean Moore, Johanna Roettcher, Clifford Walker, and Mrs. Louise Harsch. The initiation took place at the home of Dr. Wilbur R. Jacobs, assistant professor of history, who is acting sponsor for Phi Alpha Theta in the absence of its regular sponsor, Dr. Henry M. Adams. Mrs. Jacobs served refreshments. President of the group is Bill Harrison.

Home Ec Club

Dr. Elmer Noble, Dean of Liberal Arts and Professor of Zoology, presented an interesting talk to the Home Ec Club last Tuesday. The subject was the United Nations and its general organization. After he finished speaking and answering the questions of the group, several announcements were made by the club president, Marge Adams. The bi-annual workshop of the College Clubs of Southern California is to be held at UCLA on Nov. 7. Any student wishing to attend may contact one of the officers immediately. This was the first program meeting of the club for the fall semester and was arranged by Kay Ruisaki. Refreshments were under the direction of Shirley Melsheimer and Barbara Hatchett. The next meeting of the club will be Nov. 3 from 7:30 to 8:30 pm.

New Swim Records In Russell Meet As SAE's, Thetas Win

Three new records were set during the annual Dave Russell Memorial Swim Meet which took place last Thursday at the municipal pool, Los Banos.

One new time was achieved by Bob Foss in the 50 meter freestyle with a mark of 28.5. He also raced to victory in the 100 meter freestyle and was acknowledged the outstanding man swimmer of the meet.

The outstanding woman swimmer on this cold, blustery day was Winnie Numazu who set a standard of 23 flat in the new 30 meter freestyle.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon placed first in men's team events with 47½ points. Contributing SAE swimmers were Bob Foss, Gene Allen, Harvey Robbins, and Max Jameson.

Placing second and third respectively were Kappa Sigma with 18 points and Sigma Tau Gamma with 16½ points.

Thetas, with their 150 ft. medley relay team also setting a new record of 34 flat, walked off with 36 points and women's team honors. Members of the record-setting medley relay team are Virginia Clark, Carolyn Tisdale, and Jean Tafel.

The coveted Dave Russell Memorial Award went to Foss and Numazu for their fine performances. Their names will be inscribed on the huge bronze plaque in Dave Russell's memory which was presented to the YMCA.

Gauchos Lose To Fresno, 20-0; Deepest SBC Thrust Goes To 12

Fresno State's Bulldogs, led by substitute quarterback Fred Mosier, powered over a young Santa Barbara team 20-0 last Saturday night before 6,000 fans at Ratcliffe Stadium.

Coach Stan Williamson's Gauchos, predominantly-sophomore squad showed flashes of offensive and defensive strength, foretelling of better things next year. But last Saturday they were unable to put together a consistent attack against the heavier and more experienced Bulldogs.

Deepest Santa Barbara penetration carried to Fresno's 12-yard-line in the second period. Bob Garretson intercepted Mosier's pass on the Bulldogs' 38-yard-line and outraced the entire Fresno team before being finally forced out of bounds on the 12. The drive ended one play later when Halfback Bucky Baird's pass was intercepted by Bill Pappendorf.

Bulldog Tally
 Fresno's first touchdown came on a 16-yard pass from Mosier to end Bill Raine in the end zone in the first quarter.

A determined Gauch defense, led by Marvin Ashby, Chuck Miller and Bill Lowe held the Bulldogs scoreless in the second quarter.

Halfback Winston Beasley took a pitchout and outraced Gary Morris 38 yards for Fresno's second touchdown. The Bulldogs got their final score in the fourth on a Dick Hayes-to-Duke Snider pass good for 35 yards.

The hard-running fullback Jim Hagey and speedy Morris ran the Gauchos offensively with both getting off startling runs.

Gaucha Lapses
 The Gauchos looked very good defensively at times but suffered bad lapses. In the second period they held the Bulldogs on downs on their own two-yard line.

The game was marred by a total of eight fumbles, four by each team, which stalled several drives. Numerous pass interceptions marred both teams' offensive work.

Fresno's pitchout plays with one-man interference on wide ends sweeps bothered the Gauch defense seriously. The Gauchos were held to a minus-nine yards in rushing during the first half.

Out of Race
 The defeat, the Gauchos' second in CCAA play, virtually eliminated them from the championship race. On the other hand, the victory was of little consequence to Fresno from the conference standpoint as the Bulldogs had already been beaten twice in league play.

Santa Barbara has yet to face San Diego, which walloped Los Angeles State last Friday night 40-13, and Pepperdine, which has been unimpressive so far.

Next Saturday the Gauchos go out of the league to meet Cal Aggies in a prelude to the Cal-UCLA game at the Los Angeles Coliseum.

AMS Plans

The Associated Men Students, an organization to which all men students of SBC automatically belong upon registration, will be headed this year by Charlie Yates, a senior from Venice. Other officers are Bill Ferris, vice-president, and Frank DeMoulin, secretary.

During the coming year AMS will sponsor their annual steak fry for men students, a smoker, and the presentation of various awards including intramural sports trophies and an award to the outstanding male student of the year.

Intramural Football Leagues Organize; Eleven Teams Fight For League Places

The intramural touch-football tournament moved a step closer to completion with the reorganization of the three preliminary leagues into a major and minor league.

The two leading teams in the "A," "B," and "C" leagues were formed into the major league, while all others now constitute the minor league. Only one more game between the Beach Rats and Lambda Chi Alpha No. 2 remains to determine the final team in each new league.

Last week's play featured a scoring battle on Wednesday, as the Muirmen, led by Jerry Furrey, Don Heck and Joe Braxton, defeated Lambda Chi Alpha No. 2 on the last play of the game, 30-19, and remained undefeated in "C" league.

The previous day saw Lambda Chi Alpha No. 1 battle to a 12-12 deadlock with Sigma Phi Epsilon. Trailing 12-0, Sig Ep came back with two scoring passes in the second half to tie up the ball game.

What are you doing after the UCSBC - Pepperdine Game on November 6? Nothing? Good—there's going to be a Sock Hop up at school so come on up! It's being held in the Cafeteria and the fun starts at 10:30 pm.

There'll be lots of music—from any band you wish. The admission is only 25c plus a very bright pair of socks (on your feet, that is.)

A good time for a big all-college get together. Pepperdine is invited too, so come drag or stag. Can't afford to miss it. Remember November 6, after the Pepperdine game.

SURPRISE DSE Jodi Buckle's marriage to Stan Francis. The couple were wed on August 15 but waited until October 12 to make the announcement.

STUCK DSE Barbara Durning pinned to Sig Ep Dave Lamb; Pi Phi Jeannie Potter to Kappa Sig Jim Hagey.

IT AIN'T SO I have NOT been ignoring the Lambda Chis who: are formally initiating Johnny White, Tino Ledesma, and Ed Kincaid on November 1 at the house; are FIRST in football and fourth in Bowling. You're welcome.

BOO! I was scared out of my wits the other night until I found out that the strange looking creature inhabiting half of my room was my room-mate getting ready for the ADPi Halloween Party. The event, which was a joint with the Sig Taus was held at the ADPi house on Friday, Oct.

At the Movies

The first of the many coming monstrosities is a particular piece of celluloid imported from Africa by MGM called "Mogambo." In this film, you will see lions, elephants, technicolor, gorillas, Clark Gable, pythons, panthers and Ava Gardner. MGM claims in its coming attraction short that "Mogambo" means . . . The Greatest, but the question arises: the greatest what?

With a long roster of well-known stars, a vehicle which is travelling all over the country rumbles into town. "From Here To Eternity" has just come from Hollywood and seeing how long it has been playing at the Granada it doesn't know where it is going from here. Believe it or not but of all the big stars riding in this vehicle, a small singer called Frank Sinatra gives the biggest performance.

All schedules subject to change without notice.

23, and very much enjoyed by the costumed guests.

P. J. PARTY The Delta Sigs held their annual pajama party on Friday, October 23. Attending in their fanciest "longies" were: Paul Thornburgh and Alpha Phi Ann Marie Boss; Pete Dekker and DSE Trudy Mulkey; Doug Hough and his wife, Connie; Jim Roberts and Alpha Phi Grace Hutchison; Chuck Tillotson and DSE Joanie Bunker; Bill Mackey with Dee Anderson; Bob Nunn with Lorraine Greenwood; and Bill Wellman with DSE Ann Pilkington.

DID YOU KNOW That Phi Pug Mitchell and Bill (of the same name) have been pinned for a looong time? He's a Sig Ep. That Mary Jane Flanagan and N. Ward of the Alpha Phi house are going to San Francisco for a European Trip Reunion? That Jean Tafel has the cutest method of transportation on campus? That Sig Ep Steve Josephs is a notorious "climber"? That every woman on this campus has the chance to hook eighty-two ONE HUNDRETHS of a male . . . the "ration" I think they call it! That Alpha Phi Daphne Wade spends her summers in India? That Dean Reynolds only needs sixteen more little Reynolds for a vote of "namesake" confidence from the Board of Regents? He just had his seventh, a boy named Robert Gordon. That the Chi O's had a little mix-up last Monday night? They were supposed to ditch with the Sig Pi's but somehow got kidnapped by the Sig Tau's, thus they weren't able to keep their coffee date with the Delta Sigs. You figure it out. That Frank Dobyms, Kappa Sig Prexy, recently attended an IFC convention in Oregon? That if your name doesn't appear in this column it's your own fault? Put all items, neatly written, in my box at the El Gaucho office.

MOVING SOUTH with the birds are literally "millions" of Gauchos. The purpose, of course, is that legendarily fabulous All-Cal Weekend. Look for eighty per cent of the SBC Student Body around Westwood Village on October 31.

GOTTA GET THE FACTS, MAN Dick Canada: Didn't you ever find one THAT size? Boy, you ask the CRAZIEST people.

CAMPUS "CUTIE" Captain Doty . . . my favorite eighty-two ONE HUNDRETHS.
