NOJOQUI FALLS TO BE VISITED

OUTING CLUB TAKES AUTO TRIP

The Outing club will leave on its first auto trip of the year tomorrow morning to Nojoqui Falls. The machines will all leave at six o'clock, and the race to the falls should take about an hour and a half, the route over paved roads being chosen. The machines will be left at the rate of the All Indians, and from there the party will hike the remaining two miles to the falls.

The spot to be visited is of historic importance in the life of the Indian Barbarens Indians. The name was that of an Indian maiden who loved a brave of the Santa Barbara Mission tribe. She eloped with the young Indian and ran away. After being turned back at the spot which now bears her name, bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name. Bearing the name.

The outing club will go two to three miles over a hundred and eighty foot cliff into a crystal pool at the base. The rocks are covered with five-fingered ferns which are found only in this spot.

About fifty people are expected to go on the trip, which is a combination of practical science and fun. The trip should be enjoyed as the camping ground may be looked on as the camping ground.

MEN'S CLUB

At the last meeting of the Men's club Mr. C. A. Gorman was elected president to succeed Ralph Deboit, who has gone to Los Angeles to fill a position in the schools there.

Mr. Gorman has been with us during the past two terms and his record here will assist the decision of the members in placing him in the position as president of the club.

It is interesting to know that Mr. Gorman is a veteran of the World War, and during his service over seas was wounded in action and in recognition of exceptional conduct, was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross and Clasps.

Mr. Deboit served as leader of the club in a most excellent way and the members feel with confidence and favorably discussed by the members.

GRAHAM TAYLOR SPEAKS

Graham Taylor, president of School for Rural Service, Chi­

OUTING CLUB ENJOYS TRIP TO LA CUMBRE

The Outing Club hiked on Feb­ruary 22. It was a very successful affair, both as to numbers and results. Twenty-seven sturdy hikers made start and twen­ty-six arrived at La Cumbre be­fore sun-up. The other, a corpulent gentleman, was lost on route (which seems to happen every time that the Outing Club hikes to La Cumbre.)

The start was made from the college about eleven o'clock Fri­day evening, by the light of an almost full moon. A leader and a rest guard were appointed; that one was to get ahead of the leader, and no one was to get behind the rear guard. No one did; the rear guard was lost. A stop was made at Widow's Tears, a place where a light supper was en­joyed. From there on the party kept on to La Cumbre without a stop. The first group of three arrived a little after two-thirty, and from then on until almost four the rest came trickling in.

The first hikers to arrive built two mighty fires on the summit of our highest mountain, which seemed to act as spurs to those behind. A chill north wind whipped along the ridge of the mountain, making the fires a welcome to those who were on the point of being concealed. After an interminable night spent in trying to keep warm, with lit­tle avail, the sun came up, giv­ing the signal for the start to Flores Flat and breakfast.

Breakfast on the flat was a shameful affair. The hikers seemed to revert to the charac­teristics of the snake; to porous themselves with food till they could hardly stand; and then crawl off into the sun and asleep. About nine o'clock (Saturday morning) the start for home was made. All of the sorry looking company were home about two o'clock in the afternoon. (Sorry looking are the words; dirt, and burnt clothes were the rule.)

Those who enjoyed the trip very much were: Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Jacobs, Miss Winger, Coach Gilliland, Mrs. Jack Humphrey and Miss Adair, as the chaperons, and the following students: Jack Vance, Grani Young, Red Hol­hingsworth, Ted Elsworth, Hollis Pratt, Eath Tegil, Gordon Daw­yer, Josephine Bolson, Marjorie Granzer, Lucile Dexter, K. Frank­lin, Mabel Roven, Barbara Dews­ler, Ivy Seaber, Mary and Ethel Rider, Marlo Woldemann, J. P. Blodgett, Ruth Hunt, Irene Peterson and Lewis Peters.

Dr. James McLaren
Gives Impersonations

Dr. James McLaren entertained the students with one of the most interesting assemblies of the week, Monday of next week, when he impersonated Abraham Lincoln and Theodore Roosevelt. In this double role, Dr. McLaren gave an interesting conception of the powerful personalities of these two men.

Before starting his impersonations, Dr. McLaren made a brief preliminary comment on the two men. Following the singing of "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" from behind scenes by members of the Men's Glee club, the two heroes appeared and gave some of the selections which are associated with his presidential term. The students sang in the "Battle Hymn of the Republic" and Theodore Roosevelt appeared.

In spite of the difference in the two men whom Dr. McLaren impersonated, he succeeded in making his audience forget itself, and live for a brief time with two of our great Americans.
MEN'S GLEE CLUB

ENJOYS PARTY

Tuesday evening, after the regular meeting of the club, Monty Harlow, president, and Fred Segger, manager, surprised the whole club by serving refreshments to sooth the tired vocal cords of those present. Delicious cookies, iced and hot chocolate comprised the donation. After which Reid Hollingsworth presided at the piano and a hilarious time followed.

Frances Bath was seen on Monday recuperating from a week-end trip to Los Angeles, where she "took the town in."

Ruth Blanchard returned on the last train last Sunday night from one of her frequent flights to that southern metropolis known to the elite as "L.A." Ruth stayed with Dorothy Hitchcock and Helen Brichten, students here last year, at their new home house. A roaring reception was accorded Miss Bath by her friends here.
