Sneddy D. Butler of an Architectural Design offered a prize to the American youth who will never carry a rifle beyond the borders of the United States. The prize is to be given to the student who will find a way to make the American youth more interested in the theater. Butler termed a "debt collecting agency, economic, all are fought over an oil well, a U. S. again," he said, speaking in Temple Theatre should be able to continue its traditions. Ah, now is as the last chance of us, as we notice those beloved (like spinach) re-minders that, after all, we do come to school to study, make their first appearance of the fall semes-ter. Despite the kindly (like rattle) state-ments of the teachers that they really do not mean we necessarily mean we are going to flunk, too, they allow us to remain. We know we know the attitude of eulogy and eulogy in our own homes. Why didn’t we study? Why did we go out? Why were we so sleepy in the beginning?

But, then, say we, hope springs eternal in the human breast. Let’s try to study. We make our resolutions not like New Year’s resolutions. So what should we do, keep awake in class and get interested in the subject we study... study... study... and study...

When the final recrimination comes per-ply bleeding out of our mail boxes, we won’t be so far out. You may, but we won’t.

State Team and Caltech Squard Race

In the next step of an extensive pregame schism between the two teams, Monday afternoon saw a race go down to the last yard with Caltech leading 12-0. The game was a game of two teams that had fought hard and square but one that had three points that they found impossible to beat.
