

KENT IN LANDSLIDE WIN AS PRESIDENT

CLASSES DESERTED AS CAMPUS GETS ANNUAL CLEANUP; PRIZES GIVEN

Classrooms were deserted last Wednesday while students and faculty of the college joined in the work of improving and beautifying the campus during the annual Clean-Up Day.

Reporting to general assembly at 8:30 for rollcall and instructions, the students were divided into sixteen groups. These groups, supervised by faculty members, were set to work in various sections of the campus to do cleaning, gardening, grading, and general repairing.

Prizes donated by local stores were offered to the groups whose sections showed the most improvement and to the individuals who accomplished the most in each group.

Teams Win

First prize, ice cream from the Velvet Ice cream company, was awarded to three groups, Group 14, for work around the tennis courts, Group 5 for work in the court between the Home Economics building and the old cafeteria, and Group 8 for work near the shop building.

Second prize, boxes of chocolates donated by Brown Du Mar's, Diehl's, and Sheetz's, was given to Group 3 for work near the old music cottage, Group 11 for work around the Administration building, and Group 6 for work back of the main building. Third prize, candy given by the social committee, was won by Group 1 for work done in the park section, and by Group 2 for work done in front of the Home Economics building.

Individual Prizes

Sixteen students were selected by the group captains as the best workers in their respective groups and from this list nine names were drawn for individual prizes. Nelson Treloar won a sweater donated by Ott's, Dave Larsen was awarded a necktie donated by Harry Smith's, and Maurine Moore won a can of tennis balls from Buell Bros. Dr. Ellison, chairman of the judging committee, was also awarded a can of tennis balls for his work and interest in the Clean-Up Day. Theatre passes to Warner Bros. Granada were given to Muriel Brown, Helen Hinkley, Barbara Wood, Jean Wood, Paul Ralston, and Isaac Santos.

At noon a special plate lunch was served in the dining hall, and then the students held a dance in the gymnasium, music being furnished by a volunteer orchestra. By popular request this dance was continued in the dining hall after the closing assembly at 3:30 o'clock.

Tools and trucks for Clean-Up Day were secured from C. E. Brown, city engineer, and Sam L. Stanwood, county supervisor, by Dave Watson.

The faculty committee in charge of Clean-Up Day included Mrs. Mildred C. Pyle, Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, Mrs. Laura Sprecht Price, Miss Hazel Severy, (Continued on Page 4, Col. 5)

PASSION PLAY COMES TO S. B.

Featuring Adolf Fassnacht as the Christus, the Frieberg Passion Play will be presented under the auspices of Santa Barbara State College in the college court, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 28, 29, and 30th. The combined glee clubs of the college, under Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, will furnish the choral music for the production.

The original German company, including the famous Fassnacht family, is making its first American tour, having been brought to America to dedicate the great Krug Park Bowl in St. Joseph, Missouri, in 1928, where more than 100,000 people witnessed the gigantic stage production. Since then, it has been presented in fifteen of the leading cities of America. The State College was chosen by a representative of the company as the most desirable place in Santa Barbara to present the performance.

The Passion Play was first given in Frieberg, a little village in the midst of the Black Forest of Germany, in 1264 A. D. According to tradition, it was given as an expression of thanks for deliverance from the black plague that was sweeping Europe. Since then it has been given regularly before thousands of people thru the ages and today is world famous. Adolf Fassnacht, who portrays the Christus, is the eighth Fassnacht in direct descent to carry the role. Since 1760, the role has been guarded as a Fassnacht family secret. OUTING CLUB MEETS DIFFICULTY FINDING BOAT FOR VOYAGE

Plans for the annual Island Trip have been undergoing numerous changes in the last few days, the main difficulty being the securing of a boat. The executive committee of the club has finally arrived at a general plan for the trip but final arrangements, including the actual cost of the trip to those going, will depend on the transportation secured.

Mr. Frank Moran of the Moran School for Boys has offered to take the group over on his yacht "Sanwan" if the schedule of the ship permits, and it is on this indefinite information that all other plans depend. The "Sanwan" is a 132 foot, three-masted, seagoing yacht, which has ample room for 75 passengers and is far superior to any used heretofore in this annual event. This ship has been in the harbor for some time waiting for warmer weather and for the end of the school term. At that time it will make a two months trip to Alaska carrying students.

Among the final arrangements for the trip made at a committee meeting Monday afternoon were plans for a cruise around the Santa Cruz Island on Saturday the 16th. This side-trip will include lunch aboard the ship as well as visit to points of interest along the shoreline. Gregorio Lopez, Santa Barbara caterer and one-time chef at the Montecito Country Club, will be in charge of the food. Spanish dishes are Lopez' specialty. It was also decided that the party will leave the wharf at not later than two o'clock Friday afternoon of the 15th. Baggage is to be brought to the school (Continued on Page 4, Col. 5)

I. E. MEN PLAN FEED MAY 29

Howard C. Campion, principal of Frank Wiggins Trade School in Los Angeles, is to be the main speaker at the annual industrial education department banquet to be held May 29 in Margaret Baylor Inn. The banquet is being given in honor of this year's graduates from that department.

Campion is one of the foremost figures in industrial education work in the state of California. He will discuss problems confronting the industrial education field at this time.

BETTY PROCTER NEW VICE-PRES.; INSTALL JUNE 9

James L. Kent's election to president of the A. S. B. yesterday broke a precedent established on this campus with the founding of Sigma Alpha Kappa fraternity. Since September, 1925, a member of this fraternity has held the office of president. Kent, '32, a member of Beta Sigma Chi, was elected by a majority of 86 votes. A total of 432 votes was cast.

Betty Procter, '32, polled 394 votes for vice-president; Rose Greenwell, '33, received 389 votes for secretary; Lorenz Greeson, '33, 387 votes for treasurer; and Ben Romer, '33, 389 votes for manager of oratory and debate.

"James Kent will make a fine president," was the remark made by President C. L. Phelps yesterday afternoon after the ballots had been tallied.

Extensive plans are being made for the annual installation of A. S. B. officers. Returning to a tradition established previous to the construction of the Administration building, the installation will be held in the Quad. June 9, Tuesday, is the date set for the ceremony.

Meritorious awards will be made at this time to members of the student council who have served during the past year.

Heads of student publications will also be installed at this time.

An increased interest in student activities was displayed by the total number of votes cast. From a student body membership of 568, 446 cast their ballots. Fourteen ballots were thrown out because they were not marked with the rubber stamp provided.

Two members of the student body who were unable to attend school yesterday were sufficiently interested to vote anyway. William Niedermuller was ill but allowed his brother Ted to take him to the polls. Ned Porter who has been confined for weeks from an auto accident received his ballot and sent it into the polls signed.

James Kent expects to go east to enter Boy Scout work following his graduation from Santa Barbara State next year. His year's term as president of this student body will reduce his requirements in the training one year.

Dust was blown from the Student Body gavel yesterday when it was taken from the desk of the president following the election. This gavel of olive wood encircled with a band of silver on which is engraved the names of the past presidents, has been in use since 1922.

Room for only two more names is left on this band; those of Watson and Kent.

With the engraving of Kent's name a second fraternity will be represented. Beginning with 1926, the following names of Sigma Alpha Kappa appear consecutively on the gavel: Jesse Hawley, Edmund O'Reiley, George Brown, Keith Gunn, and Llewellyn Goodfield.

NEW ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

SPEEDY THINKING SAVES DAVIS CAR

A Franklin sedan belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Hal Davis of the college faculty, was saved from destruction on the school campus Monday afternoon by the quick work of Cecil Hickman. He noticed the smoke and flames coming from beneath the hood of the machine where it was parked near the Administration building. Lifting the hood he threw sand upon the flames until they were extinguished and then disconnected the wires that were apparently causing the trouble. The fire is believed to have been caused by a short circuit near the generator.

Mrs. Davis had been driving the machine, but whether this was a contributing cause or not could not be ascertained.

Mr. Davis stated that he smelled smoke as the car was being parked, but did not connect it with the automobile.

FIFTY CO-EDS PRESENT MAY DAY PROGRAM

Mildred Mosher Reigns Over Eighth Annual Spring Festival

May Day was welcomed to State last Thursday when more than fifty coeds took part in a May Day program presented by the women's physical education department in the college court before students and friends. The festival was the eighth annual event. Mildred Mosher, chosen by popular vote, reigned Queen of the May.

The theme, "Friendship," which was used this year, was different from any other in the past. Other years the festivals have been representative of countries or peoples and allegorical themes have not been selected. Helen Furby and Anna Furtado, who wrote the theme, did a fine piece of work in weaving the idea of friendship into an imaginative and beautiful story, which the natural dancing class, under the direction of Miss Helen Dozler, interpreted through its dancing.

The story dealt with two friends, Helen Furby and Clara Wade, one of whom was stolen away by Jealousy as portrayed by Anna Furtado. The endurance of true friendship drove the other friend to seek her lost companion. She was told that the Rose of Unselfish Joy or the May Queen was fatal to envy and find her she must. In her search, the friend went to the Kingdom of the Sea, the Land of Flame, the Kingdom of Youth, the Land of Wisdom, and finally to the Garden of the Three Graces, where Faith, Hope, and Charity presided. Upon her arrival at the last place, Jealousy fell dead, the Rose of Unselfish Joy reigned Queen of the May. The entire cast led by the Queen, Miss Mosher, who wore a dainty organdy formal and carried a large bouquet of spring flowers, then passed before the audience.

Those in charge of the program were as follows: Margaret Wilson, general manager; Ella Cornwall, dancing; Ethel Hudson, properties; Helen Furby, costumes; Pearl Rieger, publicity and programs; and Marjorie Juleff, ushers. The flowers which the May Queen carried were given by Turnbull's. Some of the costumes were made by the girls; others were borrowed from the Lobero Theater and the High school.

MECHANICS MAKE MERRY AT CAMP IN MOUNTAINS

Fun, merriment, and many mad moments of monkey business held sway at the picnic held last Sunday at Paradise Camp by the Industrial Education department. Forty-five jolly lads and lassies caravanned over the San Marcos grade to the mountain playground to make this the biggest and most successful outdoor social event of the season.

Festivities got under way at ten in the morning and broke up at five in the evening. Entertainment consisted of baseball, football, with a group taking a trip to Gibraltar Dam and also to the Outing Club cabin. The sun shone the whole day long at the camp, while Santa Barbara was shrouded in a mist.

Bob Imler, social chairman, was in charge of arrangements for the day, and his efforts went far toward the good time that resulted. Howard Schuyler was in charge of the serving of the full course dinner at the noon hour.

Pair Entertains With Bridge and Luncheon

Elayne Borter and Cliff Russel entertained a small group of college students at an informal party last Friday evening at the home of Mrs. Myers on Oramus Road. Bridge and dancing furnished the evening's entertainment, after which refreshments were served.

Dick Jacobson won high honors at bridge, with Bernice Faa winning the consolation prize.

Guests present included Eva Bloom, Bernice Faa, Marjorie Lowe, Elayne Borter, Norvel Fast, Dick Jacobson, Rollo Elliot, and Cliff Russel.

Campus Styles

The masculine equivalent of lounging pajamas was introduced at the semi-annual exhibition of the Chicago Merchant Tailors' association recently.

It is called the "host-suit," and consists of loose trousers, a wide form-fitting sash, and balloon-like jacket. It is made in all colors.

"This creation," explained S. Bergman, chairman of the exhibition, "is designed for use by gentlemen who desire something comfortable in which to entertain guests in one's own home."

Then he added: "But there is nothing 'sissy' about the 'host-suit.'"

The Joy of Being an Editor

Getting out this paper is no picnic. If we print jokes, people say we are silly; if we don't they say we are too serious. If we clip things from other papers, we are too lazy to write for ourselves; if we don't, we are stuck on our own stuff. If we stick close to the job all day, we ought to be out hunting up news; if we do get out and hustle, we ought to be on the job in the office. If we don't print contributions, we don't appreciate true genius; if we do the paper is filled with junk. If we make a change in a fellow's line-up, we are too critical; if we don't, we are asleep. Now, more than likely, someone will say we swiped this from some other paper. We DID!

"Did I tell you that men's heels—I mean the heels of their shoes—are to be higher, in the Cuban effect? Thus, in another phase of dress, does masculine fashion follow the feminine."

An author reminds us that nobody loses anything by being polite. But there are a lot of people about who seem to be afraid to take the risk.

A man was sentenced last week for stealing half a ton of scrap-iron. It is not known whether the crime was premeditated, but it was certainly not done in a weak moment.

ROADRUNNER CINDERMEN TAKE FIRST PLACE IN OPEN MEET

MANY ATHLETIC STARS COMPETE IN BIG AFFAIR

Santa Barbara State college won its first annual open meet Saturday afternoon in Peabody Stadium, with 46 1-2 points. Santa Barbara High school, which finished second, had 37 1-2 points. Santa Paula, with 29 points, received third, Santa Maria took fourth, Santa Barbara State college freshmen fifth, and Taft Junior college sixth.

Unattached cindermen copped 85 points in the meet. Mitchell and Paul from U. S. C. and several Oxnard High school men were in this group.

Preliminaries had to be run in many events as there were so many athletes competing.

The Santa Barbara open meet is to be an annual affair and will be sponsored each year by Santa Barbara State college.

Events were directed by coaches Luke Trimble and Hal Davis, assisted by Fred Allred, who kept the records of the meet. The coaches are endeavoring to make this an A. A. U. event next season.

Prizes were given to the first five in each event, three medals to the first three and ribbons to the men placing fourth and fifth.

Both Roadrunner track teams entered the meet. The Santa Barbara High school also had a large group of athletes.

HOLLYWOOD NET RIG MENTIONED IN CO-ED DIARY

"Something new in the line of what to wear on the tennis court was seen on the Biltmore courts last week. Pastel shaded outfits, with gloves to protect the delicate hands seem to be the latest as brought out by Hollywood. One must be equipped with six new tennis balls each time one appears on the court and do a great deal of dainty running, with the weight on the toes."—From "The Private Diary of Helen of State."

W. A. A. AND 6A BASEBALL EXAMS TO BE ON MAY 14

According to Miss Dozier, there will be an examination in baseball for the 6B class and the W. A. A. members who expect to play on the teams. This test will be given May 14, in the gymnasium. Questions are being made out by the theory classes and the material to be covered consists of the regular baseball rules, on what to do and when to do it.

INTRAMURAL LEAGUE BASEBALL STARTS

Intramural baseball, started last Tuesday, has confined itself to a series of wins by default. Tau Omega has won two games because Beta Sigma Chi and the Industrial Education team failed to produce any ball players. The Independents beat the I. E.'s by default.

HEARD IN THE SHOWERS

SPORT COMMENT

The baseball team surprised themselves as well as Ventura J. C. last week in a ninth inning victory. Ventura 5, Santa Barbara 6 was the reading of the score board as the men dashed to the clubhouse but it didn't say how pinch-hitter Way stepped up to the plate with two men on and cracked out a single. He instilled exultation in everyone present, so much in fact that "Chuck" Richie, a fan, missed his engagement for the evening.

After watching Ben "Bangs" Eastman, Stanford's sensational sprinter, run last Saturday I have sincerely planned to become a track star. As near as I can dope it out his secret to success is the wearing of glasses and his shyness. He detests being in a crowd and shuns conversation, naturally that is the reason he always runs alone in front of the pack. The writer will gladly give lessons on "How to Run The Half-Mile" guaranteeing to put you in front of the pack, price $5.00 per hour, place Pershing Park, time 5 to 6 o'clock a. m. Come early and bring your own glasses.

I overheard rather an amusing conversation today between the editor and one of our track men. The lanky athlete was asking various questions, which were answered wisely by our beloved editor. What was funny to me was that while asking these questions this athlete established a fact about himself, and wanted very much to see it printed in the Roadrunner. Nevertheless Mr. Niedermuller deserves a lot of credit for his accomplishment. He ran 120 yards and jumped ten hurdles in the fast time of 16 seconds. This is the fastest time ever made at Santa Barbara State and will go down in history as the hurdle record.

Intramural baseball was begun this week and the manager reports lack of interest among the various organizations. Intramural activity is a big thing in every university and there is no reason at all why it shouldn't be here. This is our first year of organized intramural play and is the big year to put it on an elevated plane. Get organized, "Greeks," and play ball!

Tennis player Barnett reports a very interesting situation. When he told me the story, very excited-like, I really didn't see much to it and solved it quite readily (ahem)—but perhaps I overlooked something or other and will explain. In the act of playing tennis, he remembers distinctly serving the ball to his opponent, he remembers distinctly watching the ball return over the net and striking at it with a backhand stroke. Then, the mystery: The ball was nowhere in sight. My solution: turn around. Now, professor, can you equal that?

LEAGUE SWIMMING SET MAY 25 AT 'Y'

Intramural swimmers will hold their meet on or about May 25, according to Ted Neidermuller, intramural manager, in the Y. M. C. A. pool. Many star paddle and plunge men are reported in the different groups, and an interesting evening is expected.

ANNUAL W. A. A. BANQUET IS TO BE HELD MAY 28

Members of the Women's Athletic Association will hold their annual banquet at Margaret Baylor Inn at 7 p. m. on May 28. Awards for points earned during the year will be made at this time. Four girls receive sweaters, the highest possible awards, many letters, and several numerals.

Something different in the line of entertainment is being planned this year. Aside from changing the banquet from a sport to an informal affair, the committee is planning to have dancing, with good music furnished by an orchestra.

Only members in good standing, those who have attended meetings and have earned some points this year, are eligible to attend. The following are on record as being in good standing: Louise Albaugh, Lenora Adams, Meryl Adams, Marjorie Ballentine, Shirley Burch, Grace Brizzolara, Mildred Chamberlain, Rose Cicero, Ella Cornwall, Eileen Donovan, Louise Dunham, Marian Ek, Edwina Elliott, Helne Furby, Anna Furtado, Katherine Gaines, Ethel Hudson, Winnie Jones, Mint Juleff, Betty Lindsay, Florence and Mary Longawa, Katherine Lambert, Dorothy May, Romaine Mitchell, Maurine Moore, Helen Nauman, Elizabeth Peacock, Ida Perry, Pearl Rieger, Mae Smith, Betty Thomas, Alice Waring, Margaret Wilson, Barbara Wood, Floy Hicks, Leona McCubrey, Vivienne Sims, Dot Mae Gibson, Elsie Tietz, Lorraine Woolman, and Margaret Plasterer.

If there is any mistake about anyone's name being on or off this list, see Miss Dozier, Helen Furby or Mildred Chamberlain. Reservations can be made through Mildred Chamberlain.

STATER BATSMEN HAVE SCHEDULED TWO GOOD GAMES

Lanky Luke Trimble's varsity batsmen will play hosts to a gang of tough guys from down where the derricks grow Thursday night when they entertain the Ventura J. C. nine in a return game at Pershing Park.

The Drillers were pretty much peeved two weeks ago when the State boys lifted the old ball game off the ice with their mighty bats in the 9th inning and put over three runs for a 6-5 win. The poinsettia pickers wouldn't be human if they came up here without expecting to even things somewhat, so anyone who takes in the battle ought to see some good baseball.

Luke will use both Dornan and Nakimura on the mound, probably starting Nakimura and then shifting Dornan into the box some time during the fray. Taylor is expected to hurl for the Southerners, and as the local boys managed to connect with ten of his offerings last time, he ought to be easier this game. One or two other changes in the lineup have been made by Luke, also a few of the men have had their positions shifted. Tuffy Treloar has been moved to the infield from his position behind the bat, which Fred Imes now occupies, and the outfielders are now Main, left field; Stuart, center, and Brown, right with Stuart the new addition.

The Santa Barbara Japanese will stage a return match with the Staters some day this week, and it is expected that Santa Maria J. C. will pay the Hilltoppers a visit the next week or so. Cal. Poly, State's old rival, is minus a baseball team this year, so they are off the list of opponents on the diamond.

THE POOR TASTES OF COLLEGE STUDENTS

BY EXERCISING poor taste in the matter of choosing entertainment, a majority of the students at Santa Barbara State are missing some of the finest programs ever offered to any audience. The attendance at the non-compulsory Thursday assemblies has been, almost without exception, only a small fraction of the enrollment, even at such attractive offerings as the talk by Harr Wagner and the picture "Romance of the Reaper." Similarly, when they were enabled to hear a series of three concerts by the Los Angeles Philharmonic orchestra for less than the regular admission price for each concert, students either overlooked or failed to recognize the opportunity, for there was but a handful to be seen in the audience. Indicative of this same lack of good judgment, together with a striking absence of support of an important step in the college's development, the Student Body was but poorly represented in the High School auditorium on the night of the Intercollegiate Symphony.

COLLEGE OFFERS CULTURAL TRAINING

Persons attending college are supposedly in search of an education, and one phase of education is the cultivation of a taste for the finer things in life—the music of the old masters as played by a great symphony, works of art in stone and on canvas, the beautiful thoughts that have flowed from the pens of famous writers. The petty attractions which appeal to the fourteen-year-old high school student should have begun to lose their hold by the time one is ready for college. They are bound to do so, eventually. Consider, for example, the racket of jazz, the cheap movie, the countless parties that leave you with a bewildered feeling of "what good did I get out of that?"—even if these continue to occupy all of your leisure time throughout four years of college, sooner or later the realization will come that these are not worthwhile and that they no longer appeal to you. Then is when regrets will come that you did not learn when younger to appreciate the things that were stable and time-proof pleasures.

APPRECIATION OF WORTH WHILE THINGS

Conversations in which you may engage will call to mind the times in college when you left unused opportunities for gaining an acquaintance with a particular subject. Suppose someone brought up the subject of modern methods in grain harvesting, or the tactics of German U-boats during the World war, or the life of the American Indian. Would you not be better able to converse interestingly as a result of having seen such pictures as were recently shown, free of charge, in your own auditorium? There is an increasing tendency of radio stations to feature classical music and similar worth-while things on their programs in preference to jazz and nonsense. When you turn on your radio at home five years from now, will you be one of those who has to search through station after station that is playing real music to find some simple "modern" tune with which your stunted musical intelligence can feel at ease?

OBJECT OF EDUCATION

One of the fundamental objects of systematic and thorough education is to produce the cultivated man and woman, or at least the man and woman capable of becoming cultivated in after-life. An education system is not thorough unless it offers opportunities for widening the horizon of intellectual pleasure, and the student is not thorough who neglects to attend the excellent performances that are being offered. The college is doing its best to equip you for a successful life with countless sources of lasting pleasure. Acquiring the ability to tap these sources of pleasure is the part of the student—your part.

CHILDREN PLAN MAY FESTIVAL

Under the supervision of Miss Leonard, the primary department will give its May Festival on Thursday, May 21. The play is in the fairy, goblin, and elf pattern and very cleverly fits the smaller children. The cast of characters is: King Oberon, Kenneth Roberts; Queen Titania, Marjorie Kellogg; Tinkle Bell, Patricia Moore; Boy, Donald Dietrich; Girl, Elizabeth Crawford; Merry Glee, Barbara Felger; Silver Bell, Marilyn Richmond; Solo Elf, George Geib; Solo Goblin, Richard Kern; Solo Goblin, Kenneth Phelps; and Fairy Piper, Albert Meloling; and Fireflies, fairies, goblins, elves, rainbow fairies, rest of primary department.

Solo dances are to be done by Patricia Moore, Barbara, Felger, Marilyn Richmond, and Albert Meloling, while Marilyn and Barbara do a duet number.

Both group and solo numbers in singing add to the tunefulness of the production. The soloists are Marjorie Kellogg, Donald Dietrich, George Geib, Albert Meloling, and Elizabeth Crawford.

Teacher committees include, costumes, Rachel Burns, chairman; Eleanor Barnes, Marie Boslar, Dorothy Bartly, Mary Louise Dye, Charlotte Paris, Bernice Faa, Margaret Jigergian, Grace Lee, Roxy McCracken, Eva Towle, Carolyn Tolin and Rose Telford; dances, Carmie Janssens, chairman; Ethel Olson, Marie Miller, Dorothy Robison; stage, properties and clean-up, Frances Merritt, chairman; Dacy Liner, Viola Petersen, Mrs. Clark; publicity, program, advertising, Mildred Smyth, Miriam Smyth.

Acknowledgements are due Mrs. Gladys Felger of the Felger Dance studios for teaching of special dances, to Mrs. Helen Barnett for the supervision and teaching of music and songs, and to Mrs. Florence Lyons for the direction of stage settings.

"It's A Honey" Sez Campus Bee

The campus of Santa Barbara State will soon become a very sweet place for students and faculty members alike, if present plans are successfully carried out.

A swarm of honey bees has recently been installed in the top of the main archway leading to the college pool. The busy workers have taken quite readily to their new surroundings and may be seen all day long going in and out of their home.

It is planned to bore a number of peep holes on either side of the entrance to the hive thru which the students may observe the various stages of honey manufacturing. The openings will be made large enough that a finger may be inserted and the honey withdrawn for use at lunch or dinner time.

nacht heritage. The private life of Mr. Fasnacht is said to be as nearly as possible like the great Master whom he portrays. Mr. Fasnacht also directs the entire play and several members of his family have important roles.

With only one brief intermission late in the program the Frieburg Passion Play is presented in eighteen scenes, described as follows: The eviction of Adam and Eve from the Garden; The Glorification of the Cross; The Temple of Jerusalem; The Priests Conspire; Jesus goes to Bethlehem; The Tempting of Judas; The Last Supper; Judas and Calphas; The Garden of Gethsemane; The High Council; Palace of Pontius Pilate; The Scourging; The Condemnation; March to Calvary; The Crucifixion; The Sepulchre; The Glorification.

Santa Barbara is extremely fortunate in having an opportunity to see such an outstanding production. The three night performances in the college court begin at 8:00 p. m. and are open to all students and townspeople. Prices for reserved seats are

MRS. PRICE TO GIVE REPORT

Mrs. L. S. Price attended the Elementary Conference at San Diego last week-end, and at the regular meeting of the Elementary Education department at 11 o'clock, Thursday, in the auditorium she will give her impression of "Highlights of My Educational Contacts in San Diego." All members of this department will be interested in hearing her message.

Since there is only one more meeting before the end of school, the actual election will be held at that time. But at the meeting this week, the question of the method of nomination, possible candidates, and other matters of business will be discussed. A full attendance assures interest in a live department.

A Clean-Up Day Lament

This clean-up day is such a waste of mind and energy, It should be banned from college life To lessen misery.

I sadden deeply when I see Professors wise and gray, Struggling with a hoe and pick, Cutting grass and hay.

To waste such intellects is wrong When they could better be Working with their books and pens, And deep philosophy.

But far more cruel than this crime Is an evil of darker shade That blinds my sight when I behold The blisters it has made.

'Tis slaving students that I mean, Whose weary backs and looks Denote they suffer cruel pain When kept from their dear books. —M. C.
