Social Season Closes After Much Success

All students of summer session '35 will join me in saying that the social activities of this session have excelled even the high standard of former summers.

Much of this is due to the tireless effort and inspiration of our student body president Wm. (Bill) Mann. This man has been a fountain of good humor, administrative ability and all-around good fellowship. No one knows the thought and work attendant upon such an office, but one who has at some time had such work to do. Bill's choice of committee chairmen was well taken as the results have shown. Good luck "Bill" and a fine vacation in your beloved mountain cabin.

The committee chairmen have labored all hours of the day and night to make this summer one for you to remember. Those in charge of the several different functions were: Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, Ex-Officio; Leo Pauley, Secretary of the Student Body; Jack Miller, Social Committee; Roy Fredin, Assemblies; Louie Taylor, TickIts; Morgan Smith, Dancing; Miss Caryl Harper, Sports; Harry Cammock, Transportation; Mrs. Elsie Fredin, Music; Wm. Turner, Coffee; Stanley Ward, Equipment; and C. E. Darland, Flowers and Decoration.

Every party or social affair has started promptly at the stated time and accommodations have been more than ample. We can not mention any certain member as all have cooperated to the fullest with the president and the office as represented by Mrs. Abraham.

Mention is given in other parts of this issue about the activities of the recreation groups. The following list are those who have led these activities. Suffice to say that more interest in sports has been shown than in former sessions. Mr. Chenoweth has instilled in many the value of outdoor exercise and

Squabble Club Held Final Open Meeting

The last meeting of the Squabble club this Wednesday evening will concern itself with what goes on outside of the educational sphere according to the plans made by the program committee.

Leo Pauley, a member of the student body who has recently been chosen educational coordinator for the C. C. C. camps in Santa Barbara county, discussed the question "How Does the C. C. C. Educational Program Effect the Industrial Arts Instructor?"

Ralph Heywood, drafting instructor at Eagle Rock High, has built up a new course of study which has recently been introduced in the Los Angeles school system. It has to do with the consumption of products rather than production. His topic was, "Consumers Education and the Industrial Arts Instructor." He gave a practical application of one of the objectives of industrial arts education that has not been given much attention to date.

The meeting was held in Room 45 as usual. It starts promptly at 7 o'clock and closes just as promptly at 9 o'clock.

Pi Sigma Chi Gives Dinner for Members

In honor of the summer session students who recently became members of Pi Sigma Chi, honorary industrial education fraternity, a semi-formal dinner was held at El Paseo, Tuesday evening, July 30, at 6:30 o'clock.

Guest speaker for the evening was Mr. Maunsall Van Rensselaer, of the Blaksley Botanic gardens, who spoke on "Native Plants of California." Leo Pauley acted as master of ceremonies, and introduced the speaker.

President C. Phelps Host to Squabblers

The guests of President C. L. Phelps, the Squabble club enjoyed a lawn party at Mr. Phelps beautiful home on San Diego road Wednesday evening, July 24.

Of course squabbles were the order of the evening. Leaders were; Carl Wirths, whose subject was "Should the Problem Boy be Alloted to the Shop Teacher?" This topic brought forth much argument from various members.

Ray Cushingham brought up the subject "Should Vocational Education Be Taken from the High school and Alloted to the Junior college?"

Milton Perkins of Bakersfield talked on the subject, "Does the Short Period Develop the "Skip-it" Attitude in the Shop Class?"

The last half hour was devoted to the guest of the evening State Superintendent Vierling Kersey, who spoke on "Forces Controlling Education."

Mrs. Phelps, Mrs. Ericson and aides then served a tasty lunch. The Squabble club is indebted to President Phelps for not only this courtesy but for his loyal support of the club and its undertakings.

During the evening a scholarship foundation was circulated and subscribed to by the club members. This scholarship was subscribed to with the hope that some aid could be given to a worthy student of next year's Industrial Education department.

Wm. Mann Extends Thanks to Students

In behalf of the student body of the 1935 summer session I wish to thank the committee members and the committee chairmen, for their excellent cooperation and work in putting over the entertainment and recreational program of the past five weeks. I also wish to thank the faculty and student body for their splendid response to the various activities these committees have provided. I assume full responsibility and apologize for any unfulfilled desires on the part of individuals who may have preferred other outlets of entertainment than those offered. I thank you for the honor bestowed upon me and have enjoyed the opportunity of working with each and every one of you.

Wm. Mann.

H. EICHHEIM IS FEATURE DURING MUSIC PROGRAM

The last assembly of the summer session was held fourth hour on Tuesday, with the music department in charge. Presentations of tokens of the appreciation of the student body were made to Dean William Ashworth, Fred Allred and Ralph Porter. A Gavel was given Bill Mann in acknowledgement of his successful presidency of the student body.

Mrs. Helen Barnett conducted her class in choral music in a group of three songs: "Come to the Fair", old English air; "Nightingale"; and Orianski's "Cherubims' Song".

Henry Eichheim, noted composer and conductor, presented his own composition "Sonata", himself playing the violin, and accompanied by Paul McCool, concert pianist. The number was a lovely and unusual adaption of Java and Bali time and theme. Mr. Eichheim concluded the program with a short talk sketching the music, instruments and musicians of those countries.

Mr. Ericson is one of a relay of speakers engaged for one week sessions directed at students taking graduate work for M. A. degrees. Others similarly engaged are Dr. David Snedden, professor emeritus of Columbia university; Dr. Warner of Ohio State; Dr. Fredrick Strickler of Teacher's college, Columbia, and William L. Hunter, of Ohio State college.

Ericson's contribution will be largely in relation to the integrated curriculum in industrial arts education and the newer philosophies pertaining to the so-called special education. He will return here Tuesday, August 6, at which time he will offer a post-session course in industrial arts design.

Kay Bishop has been elected to teach in the Santa Barbara Junior High school. Kay received her A. B. degree in History in 1932 and her general junior high school credential in 1935.

Last Social Affair is Rockwood Dance

Members of the student body, friends and families met at Rockwood Friday night, July 26, at 8:30, for; participation in the outstanding social event of the summer session.

With music played as we have never heard here, the Glendale Junior college orchestra put forth dance tunes enjoyed by all the couples present. The entire affair was on a clock-like schedule, showing the cooperative effort put forth by the social committee.

Following a grand march, which was led by Mr. and Mrs. Byron Abraham, party hats were given out. Fun and frolic ensued, as balloons floated down from the ceiling. Inside a few of the balloons were lucky tickets, giving bags of candy to the holders.

REPORTERS—Robert Krause, Doris Coker, Shurer Moe, Mildred Jones.

El Gauchito is published once a week by the College Print Shop and is the official publication of the student body for the Summer Session of 1935.

Closing Time

With sincere regret do the majority of us see the final edition of El Gauchito go to press and the last day of the 1935 summer session roll around. Personal satisfaction has been great for us all, and the benefits derived from class and extra-class activities will wear well for some time to come. For those who can spare more time, much can be accomplished by attending the post-session courses, both socially and educationally.

I feel, at this time, that it is only fitting that I give credit to those who have assisted in the publication of this paper. First of all, Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, while busy with more important work, always had time and a smile to help. Ralph Porter, the "Boss" of the print shop, without whose assistance, and advise, newswriting obstacles could not have been overcome. I wish to thank Bob Krause, Mr. L. Chenoweth, W. D. Lake, assistant editor and make-ready, and the printing class.

And so with all respects properly paid, and no further indebtedness, I look forward to seeing you all next summer. Hasta la vista!

Miss Ruth Everett, teacher in Kern County schools and a member of Santa Barbara summer student body, left for Los Angeles on Sunday July 28, to teach in the post session at U. S. C., in the Biology department.

With Apologies To Mr. Longfellow
By Alex J. Mueller

Under the spreading pepper tree,
The city school house stands.
The teacher, abusy woman is she,
With small and shapely hands.
The muscles of her pretty face are firm as iron bands.

Her hair is crisp and black and
short,
Her face like the judge's in the court.

On her brow, many a worry sets,
She earns the little she gets.
And she looks the whole world in
the eye,
Even though she owes many a guy.

Day in, day out from eight until four,

You can hear the sounds from within her class door,
You can hear her say, "No Jimmy
not that way."

In a voice so calm and clear.
Toiling and guiding and showing,
Onward through life she is going.

Each morning, sees many tasks

Each evening does not see them done.
