Vol. XXII SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1943 No. 16

DON DRULINER, stellar Gaucho guard, will probably play his last game for the Green and White cagers next Tuesday and Wednesday against San Jose State as he is scheduled to report for duty with the Army Air Corps.

State College Hoopsters Await Clash With Northern Quintet

Swinging into the heart of their 1943 hoop season, Santa Barbara State's Gaucho cagers are this week mapping out a new strategy with which to repel the invading and highly-rated San Jose Spartan hoopsters when the two teams clash Tuesday and Wednesday at the National Guard Armory.

So far this season the Spartans have displayed smoothness and coordination of a championship squad and have defeated College of Pacific, Fort Ord, and University of San Francisco squads.

Hilltopper coach Willie Wilton's charges dropped a sensational two game clash to Pepperdine college Tuesday and Wednesday, 29-33, 31-30, but were playing off key in both games, unable to hit the basket and functioning poorly together.

Using Bob Sherman and Bill Leveille at forwards, Mort Hill at center, and Don Druliner and Dick Rider at guards, the diminutive Gaucho mentor seemed to have at last found the most favorable combination, judging from the second-half rallies with the southern rivals.

Highlight of the Spartan's season was the 43-35 win over pregame favorites University of San Francisco, in which coach Ed Blesh's men were sparked by Bert Robinson, San Jose guard and Roy Diedrichsen, forward.

Friday and Saturday the Green and White hoopsters will meet the Camp Cooke quintet in a two game series, with the opener played on the local court and the nightcap at the northern camp.

Leading the Gauchos scoring race so far this season is Bill Leveille, dynamic Hilltopper forward, followed by Bob Sherman, Leveille's teammate at the opposite slot. Outstanding on defense is the duo composed of Dick Rider and Don Druliner, which time after time has broken up potential scoring threats, and has proved to be a decisive factor in many of the local's wins.

In the Army Air Force reserves, Gauchos Don Druliner, Ray Acevedo and Paul Cooper have received induction papers, and may play their last game for the locals during the Spartan clashes.

Spartanites who will probably give the locals a great deal of trouble will be Cas Breuer and Roy Diedrichsen, who have scored 97 and 93 points respectively in 13 games this season.

Blue Key Closes Sale

Approximately $200 worth of books have been sold for the students by Blue Key, national honorary fraternity, according to George James, president. There are still many books available in the student body president's office and will be on sale until Monday, February 15 for interested students. This date, warned James, is the absolute deadline.

Notices will be placed in the student mail box after that date in order to notify owners of their books which have not been sold.

A case concerning a violation of the Honor Code, during last semester's finals, has been brought to the attention of the Activities Control Board. The case was given a hearing, the student involved was found guilty, and the punishment of receiving an "F" in the examination and a failure in the course has been recommended by the Activities Control Board.

World Service Drive Opens On Campus

Veteran of student relief work throughout America, Bruce B. Maguire, executive secretary of the field council of the Pacific southwest area of the Y.M.C.A., will speak to Gauchos next Wednesday in the college auditorium launching the campaign for the World Student Service Fund on campus.

Maguire, who has spoken to many universities and colleges both in the East and West, will give an account of the urgent needs for student relief throughout the world. With a lengthy academic record in five colleges and universities, including work towards his Ph.D. degree, he combines a rich background in contacts with the student mind and its problems.

Endorsed by the local executive council, the campaign will open on campus to raise funds for the World Student Service Fund which operates primarily in the colleges and universities of the United States in order to raise money for student war relief. Its help goes to students and faculty who are victims of war in all parts of the world.

Working in cooperation with the Red Cross, the U.S.O., Russian War Relief, United China Relief, and other war service organizations, the W.S.S.F. is the only means by which student war victims can be aided.

The national goal of $300,000 will come solely from colleges and universities of the United States. Already numerous institutions have made pledges of $1,000 or more setting pace for the colleges.

Included on the committee in charge of the State college drive are Margaret DeHaan, instructor, Wilf Seaman, Elenita de la Cuesta, Louise Brownlee, and Tom Loeffler.

Featured vocalist appearing with the choir for the assembly will be Jean Ausman, talented freshman songstress, who will sing Duke Ellington's "Mood Indigo" and several songs of the services.

Instrumental specialists will include Rathburn Shelton, trumpet, playing "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes"; Dorothy Keniston, pianist, who will present "Malaguena"; Jeanne Bornhurst, harp, offers "Tea for Two"; and the trumpet trio composed of Shelton, Bill Maryel, and Sid Le Grandeur presenting Goldman's "Echo Waltz".

Sigma Tau Slate Dance

Heralding the beginning of a social season under new officers, the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity, formerly the Tau Omegas, will sponsor an all student body dance Saturday, February 20.

Held at Junipero Serra hall from 9 to 12 p.m., the affair will be informal, according to Wilf Seaman, chairman, and music will be furnished by a large collection of the latest recordings of top bands.

Tentative admission price is 15 cents per couple, plus student body cards. Advertising and decorations are under the direction of Roland Groom and Seaman, while Bob Goulet is chairman of the refreshment committee.

Department Fetes Officers

Feting the eleventh anniversary of the founding of the department, the early childhood education majors of Santa Barbara State attended a birthday party dinner last Tuesday.

During the evening the group held installation ceremonies by candlelight. Inducted into office for the spring semester were Mrs. Freya Owen, president; and Mrs. Marceille Luttrell, vice president.

Workers Win Victory With New 48-Hour Week

This nation has won a truly great victory with the advent of the new forty-eight hour work week. The edict, which calls for workers in certain "labor-hungry" areas to work forty-eight hours instead of forty, also carries with it one very important proviso. Those working forty-eight hours are to receive time and one-half for the last eight hours.

Only a few months ago there was agitation in Washington on the part of certain politicians and big industrialists calling for a basic week of forty-eight hours, with no overtime pay. Profits are being made in industry today as they have never before been made. The laborer is entitled to and deserving of his share of those profits.

This is a people's war. This is not a war fought by a career soldier. Our armies are "citizen" armies. Many of our war industries are being manned by men and women who in cases have left more profitable jobs to aid our war effort. Our fighting men certainly do not begrudge these defense workers the money they are making. All that our fighting men want is materials with which to fight—with which to win the war quickly so that they can once again pick up the scattered threads of their normal lives.

A great deal has been said about the morale of our fighting men. The morale of our workers is important too. Disgruntled, dissatisfied workers will not produce as much as satisfied workers. The new forty-eight hour time and a half bill leaves nothing to be desired in the way of fairness.

This week labor and the nation as a whole have made another great step toward winning the war for democracy—and keeping a permanent peace.—G.B.

Much Ado ...

By GEORGE BLUMENSON

Now that the Errol Flynn trial is over, perhaps the newspapers of the Pacific coast region can settle down to some honest journalism. Probably the only single factor in American journalism of the past decade which was more disgusting than the Flynn trial is the work of Westbrook Pegler. I am honestly surprised that Pegler did not claim Flynn's alleged motivation came from reading Communistic books on free love. (We have to put "alleged" in there, because if we didn't, we could be sued for libel.)

The law has decided that Errol Flynn did not do nasty things on his yacht the "Sirroco" (in Italian, that means 'Hot Wind' or something close to it), and the American movie going public is happy. Somehow we can't help paralleling this case with the Scottsboro case or other cases of that type in the South, where the defendant's guilt was decided by a mob, instead of a circus held in a court.

Well, shoes are rationed, tires are rationed and gas is rationed. Best thing for us. Now maybe we'll stay at home once in a while and read or listen to the radio. The ignorance of many of us on the war situation is appalling. Remember one girl in a history class last semester who hadn't even the vaguest idea of who Josef Stalin was.

Surprised that Hitler didn't think of the rationing of all these commodities when he came into power. Had he thought of it, perhaps he wouldn't have had to put on such a stupendous campaign.

It seems to this corner that if the labor-baiters would start baiting management for a change, production would be stepped up even more. Reports of gross inefficiency on the part of management are astounding, unbelievable. The Truman Senate Committee made numerous reports over one year ago—it also made

We have the hall and orchestra
And fun is in our plan,
So now there's just one thing to do . . .
Go out and get a MAN!

Find his first, then ask him
It's as easy as it can be . . .
But consider well the ratio
Of one man to women three.

Battle off the opposition,
Do the thing up right.
So we can prove to all concerned
That we gals do know how to fight!

Get HIM first, then a corsage,
Provide the gas and car.
Whisper sweet nothings in his ear,
And you can't go wrong by far!!

Spring it on him gently

I guess that I'm just lucky,
'Cause I've already asked mine.

definite suggestions—which have been disregarded by Congress. Why doesn't the new Congress dig them out of the moth balls and take some action on them? The fact that Ford, General Motors, Standard Oil and other large industrial outfits are taking full credit for the gains in production and putting the blame for less production at the feet of labor is disgusting and definitely un-American. (That last word is used with the special permission of the Dies Committee.) Had management not desired to have "Business-as-usual," it could have geared down for war production in half the time it did finally take. Management and labor both have their faults. Let's get at them and get rid of them.

Second rush events will be the formal preference dinners given by each sorority, on Thursday, February 25. These will be followed by bid day, pledging, open bid day, and initiation ceremonies.

GAMMA DELTA CHI

The first meeting of the semester was held at the Gamma Delta house on Loma street. Surprise of the evening was the cutting of a Valentine cake by Forestyn Hunter to announce her engagement to Private Grant Brown, U.S. Army.

The major part of the evening was spent in making preparations for the rush party scheduled for Sunday. This will be carried out in the traditional Chinese theme, under the direction of Willa Fairfield.

PHI KAPPA GAMMA

Members of Phi Kap met on Monday evening at the home of Pat Scott to complete plans for the traditional Round Up party. The theme will be that of a dude ranch, and will be held on Monday.

TAU GAMMA SIGMA

Members of Tau Gam unanimously elected Phyllis Atwood to the office of vice-president at their Monday night meeting. Phyllis will take the place of Dale Rhodehamel, who has left school to marry Cadet Alex Rosie, of Santa Barbara.

Plans were discussed for the party scheduled for Tuesday evening. Theme of the affair will be an Evening in Paris and is to be held in the gold room of El Paseo.

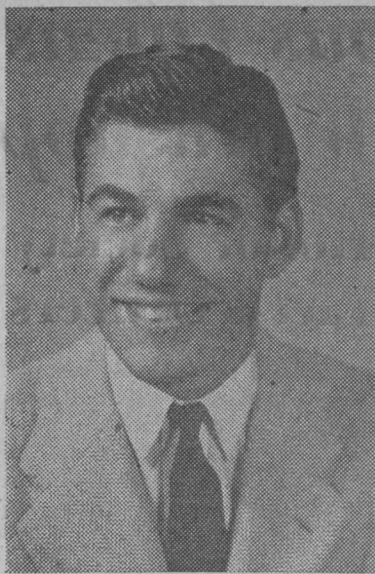

ALPHA THETA CHI

Members of Alpha Thete met at the home of President Peggy Lou Anderson, to finish plans for their annual Raggedy Ann party. The party will be held on Wednesday night at Rancho Adobe.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Members of Sigma Delta Phi held their regular business meeting at the sorority house on Monday evening. Final plans were completed and decorations were made for the traditional Hawaiian rush party which will be held next Thursday. Plans for the party are under the direction of Mary Roberts, rush captain.

On Saturday, February 13, a luncheon is being held to honor

Founders Day for the sorority members.

CHI DELTA CHI

Monday evening meeting of Chi Delta Chi was devoted to discussion of the annual Plantation rush party to be given by the sorority on Friday evening, February 19. The affair will be carried out in a deep South theme, and will be held at Strollers hall.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

At their regular meeting on Monday evening, members of Delta Sig installed Barbara Edmonston and Dorothy Hopper as president and vice-president, respectively.

Final plans were completed for the traditional Circus party, which will be held at the house on Saturday, February 20.

Fraternities Select Officers For Spring Term

SIGMA TAU GAMMA

Last Monday evening along with considerable discussion, the Sigma Taus elected their officers for the spring semester. Cornie "Dutch" Maaskant will take over the president's office for the ensuing term. A student body dance to be held Saturday, February 20, was discussed at length by the members. Louie Taylor, metal instructor and Sigma Tau Gamma sponsor, gave the fraternity a "final-relaxer" stag party, January 25.

BETA SIGMA CHI

At the first meeting over which newly elected president Alex MacGillivray presided, prospective pledges was the main topic under discussion. The following new officers were inducted into office: John Dawley, vice-president; Bob Mardian, secretary; Carl Fisher, treasurer; Don Druliner, social chairman; Russell Haney, pledge captain.

SIGMA ALPHA KAPPA

Members of Sig Alph fraternity met Monday, February 8, and decided upon a house for the fraternity. Pledging of new members was discussed along with the financial status of the organization. Friday, February 12, a party will be held at the home of Jim Peters for members and their guests.

Mesa Campus Opens Sportsmen Workshop

In conjunction with the Santa Barbara Federated Sportsmen, State college will open a new course Tuesday, February 16 in the industrial division of the Mesa campus to be called "The Sportsmen's Work Shop." The course will run in weekly sessions until June 12 or 16, when certificates will be awarded all who graduate.

The full work-shop facilities of State college will be placed at the command of students, both the metal and wood-working departments being used. All kinds of work on rods, reels, boats, golf clubs, archery, guns and sporting equipment of every kind and character will be taught. The sessions will be held from 7 to 10 p.m.

Classes in the first section will be limited to 25, but if a great many sportsmen wish to join, another section will be added, the study to be on Thursday nights for such. The course will be one night a week and a charge of $3.50 will be made. Students must matriculate just as students in any other class and will be part of the undergraduate body.

In a joking way, Louie S. Taylor, instructor in metal work on the Mesa campus, said the course would consist of four stages: (1) drip; (2)trickily; (3)spurt; (4)experts. But seriously, he said it would give the students chances to do much work of importance, since the equipment of the college is of the finest and sufficiently varied to embody labor of any character.

The course is something of an experiment and the first of its kind ever established by a college in the United States.

28 Gauchos Get Army Air Corps Call to Duty

Twenty-eight State college Gauchos were given notice this week by the Army Air force enlisted reserve office to wind up their personal affairs and await orders for immediate induction.

Although the students were already enrolled on a deferred program and their courses of study aligned to Army requirements, none had expected to be called until later.

Leading the list of men summoned were Don Druliner, junior, first string basketball guard and rated one of the best cagers in the state; Paul Cooper, freshman substitute guard; Ray Acevedo, forward on the Gaucho contingent; Vince Jacobsmeyer, football player; Lorenzo Dall'Armi, and Gib Martin, Bobby Garcia and Bob Sandfelder.

Also included on the list are Roy Cagnacci, Morton Dewhirst, George Geib, Andrew MacFarland, Don Moore, Monte Murray, Don Petersen, Frank Smith, Don Stillman, Arthur Stray, Dick Thomas, Ralph Truglio, William Warren, Harry Berlin, Ernest Ninberg and John Keating.

Honor Society Elects Officers

Election of officers occupied the larger part of the initial meeting of the semester when newly installed members of Theta Alpha Phi, national honorary dramatics fraternity met on Tuesday, for their regular business meeting.

Laurette Lovell, senior speech major was elected president of the organization, and Russell Haney and Edie Van Meter were elected as vice president-treasurer and secretary-historian respectively.

An outline of the semesters activities was made, and plans for future meetings were discussed. Among the first events on the calendar for the group will be attendance of Ethel Barrymore's "The Corn is Green" which will enjoy a brief run here.

Seaman Heads IE Department

Wilfrid Seaman, senior, was elected president of the Industrial Division for the spring semester in an election held on the Mesa campus on Monday and Tuesday, January 11 and 12.

A second runoff election was necessary for the vice-president post between Charles Bloch and Marvin Sands with Sands winning. Other officers elected for the spring semester include Ralph Johnston Pasadena junior college transfer, secretary; Frank Bradley, local Santa Barbara student, treasurer; Bob Goulet from Los Angeles, social chairman; and Bill Monson, publicity chairman.

Gau-chocase

By RUTHE SUGGS

Notable this week is the sorority buzz. Rush season got under way Wednesday. (Any rushing, including show dates, conducted prior to that time was strictly naughty.) Invitations in unique shapes and sizes herald the various tong soirees with their various themes. Motifs belie wartime travel restrictions and Greek guests are rushed from the Hawaiians, via China and France, to Spain.

Feat of the week: VERNA UNDERWOOD was married Monday a.m., returned to take the proficiency exam same afternoon. She's Mrs. Mager now.

We nominate for style smarties, RUTH HOWELL and MARY CLINE. Both wear chic sport jackets; Ruth's is men's weave dark blue wool which barely suggests a plaid, Mary's is zoot length, keenly tailored, green heringbone.

Newest engagement: BARBARA BURTIS and LORENZO DALL'ARMI, one of the campus' handsomest couples. The date, fiancée Barb says, depends on the Air Corps, in which Dall is a reservist.

On this week's ham list: "As Tim Goes By" from the Bogart-

Bergman-Henreid hit. Good advice here, kids: "And just remember this . . . a kiss is just a kiss."

Crown and Scepter, hep for Gaucho traditions, found that it knew little of its own class' legends (Senior Bench, Senior Reading Room etc.). Members wisely planned to take care of the backyard first.

Suggest that Councilman TOM LOEFFLER follow same plan until the women request his campaigning for "their rights."

Winning wings plus commission this week from the Army Air Corps are two remembered Gamma Sigs: CHUCK MOSS and STAN BARTLETT.

Fast earning the nomer of "Killer" is Physical Fitness Instructor LEFTY THOMAS who is earnest in getting his classes "into condition."

Latest by-phrase: "All that hill and no more shoesies."

Chance of the year, gals, is the AWS Valentine's dance tomorrow. What with the ratio, every man should rate two bids. However, don't be driven to ad-following if the coeds fail you, men. Convention is hard to buck and the femmes may be shy.
