Right Philosophy of Punishment?

The QuiziCAL Reporter column published on the first page of Tuesday's Gaucho contained opinions of fraternity men in answer to the question, "What is your opinion on the current alleged rushing violation now before IFC?" If those opinions are any criteria as to what will be done to the group in question if it is found guilty, one wonders whether or not they reveal a distorted sense of justice among the fraternity men. Some of the opinions seemed to be in direct opposition to the commonly accepted philosophy of punishment . . .

According to age-old concepts, punishment is the depriving of something valued, such as privilege, freedom, property, etc. It must only affect those guilty of a punishable act.

Such a punishment as disbanding a pledge class would not be just because it would harm those who attended the rush party in question more than those who were responsible for giving the party. As the old saying goes, the son should not be punished for a crime the father has committed. A fine could not be classified as punishment in this case because a fine divided among the individuals in the group would affect none of them seriously and would thus deprive none of them of anything particularly valued.

However, such a punishment as social probation or depriving the entire group of their social privileges for a specified length of time would affect the group as a whole and would deprive anyone guilty of an offense of something highly valued by all concerned. Therefore, if Inter-Fraternity Council does decide that an offense has been committed, it should carefully consider the punishment by the generally accepted criteria.

Dear Madam Editor:
 The policy of El Gaucho (our campus "throw-away") is, at least, consistent. In your last issue there was not one article about anything that did not directly relate to local campus happenings.

It would be refreshing if at least one line appeared regarding the complete change in program at Johns Hopkins or if one word was said about the Watsonville controversy.

It is appalling to read your throw-away when one realized that the paper at Brooklyn College is fighting for its right to print.

I hate to play the part of the constant critic, but can't we be just a little broader in scope and realize that a paper is quite a little more than a place to advertise Lucky Strikes?

Critically,
 Dennis McElrath

Dear Mr. McElrath:

In answer to your letter of Tuesday afternoon we would like to point out that the first and foremost editorial policy of El Gaucho is to inform the readers about campus affairs. As this paper is only published bi-weekly, thus limiting the space, much of it must be devoted to the coverage of such affairs.

When there is space left for extra news, next priority goes to accounts of happenings on the other campuses of the large university of which we are a part. How can you be so concerned with the paper at Brooklyn College, when the UCLA Daily Bruin, a paper just "next door," was almost discontinued recently?

And just to "refresh" you, we shall grant your request. Regarding the Johns Hopkins program change, it's about time. We on the Gaucho staff much prefer variety shows to lectures. Our reaction to the Watsonville controversy is, "Who said so?"

OVER WHERE

Wet weather around Santa Barbara area is serving another purpose besides increasing the area's water supply, I'm sorry to say. Snow, rain, and this sub-Arctic temperature is doing a fine job of getting us draft baiters in Korea condition.

Reports In

Letters verifying student withdrawals from UCSBC to enter the service during the present semester have been received by the Registrar's Office from the appropriate commanding officers. To date 15 have dropped school for the privilege (?) of entering the service.

Air Force Band

"Off we go into the wild blue yonder—" has special significance for Bob Tafajian these days. At least he is playing the song a good deal, for he is now a member of the Air Force Band at Walker Air Force Base in New Mexico. He left January 3 for Lackland Field, Texas, stomping grounds for a good many ex-Gauchos, and received his basic training there. After basic he was sent to New Mexico.

Bob, a local boy, was a sophomore music major and took part in numerous music activities here, and was a member of Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity. His address is Pvt. Robert Tafajian, 611 Air Force Base, 19389063, Walker Air Force Base, Roswell, New Mexico.

Women's Air Force

Miji Scott, who left the Hilltop in 1949 to work, left March 1 for Los Angeles for processing as a member of the Women's Air Force. The next day she left for Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, for basic training. Miji is a Santa Barbaran and was employed at the Automobile Club of Southern California before she entered the service.

Navy Takes Marryin' Sam

Cal Thacker, notorious Marryin' Sam at UCSBC, left yesterday for San Diego to be processed. He is a member of the Naval Reserve. Cal has been working as a technician in guided missiles at Point Mugu. At UCSBC he was a noted party timer and a member of Delta Sigma Phi.

Obern in Radar

George Obern, former Publicity Manager, is a lieutenant senior grade working in radar in the Naval Sonar School in San Diego. George was with the Navy in the Atlantic during the last war and was taken in again last August. He and his family are living in La Jolla.

George has been doing radar work on the shake-down cruise of ships being re-activated. His father, Earl Obern of Santa Barbara, tells of an interesting and lucky result of George's job. It seems that George will soon be going on the shake-down cruise of the USS Tingley in the Far Eastern vicinity. Serving on the same boat will be his brother Gaylord.

From Cal Campuses . . .

FROM UCLA

There has been a general turmoil on the UCLA campus due to the walk-out of the entire staff of the UCLA Daily Bruin. The cause of this action was the appointment of a non-member of the Bruin staff as feature editor by the Student Executive Council.

The walk-out of the staff followed the resignation of the editor. He stated "I refuse to work on a paper when someone who has never been a staff member is put on top by S. E. C." In his editorial referring to the attacks made against the Bruin he quotes a journalist, "When a newspaper, even a college newspaper, stops being attacked it ceases to be a newspaper and is merely a rag."

The Student Executive Council has taken over the paper and is running it with the help of student volunteers, according to the latest information.

FROM CAL

Cal now has started a new and interesting class in criminology. The new professor is reputed to be a man who has more knowledge on this subject than any other criminologist in this country.

FROM DAVIS

The Associated Students store was robbed last Monday night by persons who entered through the basement. The loss was approximately $285. The campus police found foot prints outside the building and are now investigating the "Cinderella" angle.

BEHIND THE BIG TREE

Hello from the Lou Rose College Annex. How you all today? Did you see me around campus last Wednesday? I had a skirt, two sweaters, and a jacket from the Little Store Behind the Big Tree, and needed then all to keep from freezin'. And even if you've "got your love to keep you warm," we have many more of those wonderful jackets to help the situation along. Some in forest green, others in lovely shades of red, at $25.00, and those wonderful good-for-so-many-occasions white shortie coats at $39.95.

It seems to be the general consensus of opinion that the ever lovin' ol' beach time is never going to arrive. We in the Annex think it will—really, ad just to prove it, drop in some Saturday soon and let me show you our beautiful new Rose Marie Reid bathing suits at $17.95. PAT WILLIAMS has first claim on the pineapple shade and FRANCI PAUL professes a yen for the suit in violet, but we've got them in coral and green, too.

Remember to stop and talk to me anytime—I'll be happy to answer your questions.

Golf Schedule Cut; Six Matches Planned

Santa Barbara College released its schedule for the 1951 golf season. Like many others in the Southland it has been pared down due to shrinking athletic budgets and travel difficulties. This means Coach Irvine's boys will participate in but six matches compared to as many as nine in seasons past.

Biggest event on the schedule is the Southern California Golf Association Intercollegiate Golf Championships to be played here April 27 at the Valley Club in Montecito. Other matches are against Pepperdine, San Diego State, Cal Poly and the CCAA Championships.

The club, coached by Bill Irvine, Gaucho mentor since 1945, was undefeated in dual play last season and is expected to continue its winning ways even though an essentially green squad will open the season.

A meet with the El Toro Marines is being considered on the Montecito course. Of interest to local fans is the fact that on the newly formed Marine squad is Bill Kelso, former Gaucho basketball star.

March 31 — Pepperdine, Montecito Country Club, S. B.

Gaucho Horsehidiers Clash with Trojans, Leathernecks on Road

The Gaucho horsehidiers will open the 1951 regular season this weekend, meeting the powerful USC Trojans today and then continuing their Southland journey to meet the El Toro Marines on Saturday.

Coach Theo (Spud) Harder's crew will have their work cut out for them in both games, as the Trojans, considered to be a definite threat to gain the CIBA crown this season, and the El Toro Marines, an unusually strong service team, are tough opponents for a season opener.

Starters

Either Wynn Smallwood or Ray Rubenstein will start for the Gauchos against USC, with Bud Knerr or Don Wilson catching. Coach Harder was particularly impressed with Smallwood's performance against the Alumni last week.

The El Toro game will see either little Bobby Johnston or Ron Robinson taking the mound. El Toro will be a big threat as the team has been bolstered by a number of big league stars, now in service.

Infield

Harder will field an infield consisting of Bob Talley at first, Dick Gorrie at second, Danny Kutch at third and John Hackett at short.

Corky Johnson will take over in place of Dave Gorrie in left field. Dave came up with a broken finger and will be sidelined for a while. Allan Cox will play center field and Eddie Miller will hold down the right field pasture.

Don't ridicule husbands, young feller. If you wiggled on a hook for 30 years you'd look like a worm too.

NEW RECORD SET BY HOOPSTERS; HAEVIN TOP MAN

Forward Lloyd Haevin, a lean, tricky sophomore with a circus collection of shots, led Santa Barbara College basketball scoring with 292 points, final statistics revealed, according to a release from UCSBC News Bureau.

Close behind Haevin was Guard Jack Moore with 259 points in 29 games for an average of 8.9. Haevin's average was 10.1 in the same number of contests. Moore's running mate at guard, Allan Jacobs, claimed third place honors with 20 points despite a late season attack of influenza which kept him out of several games.

1442 Points

The Gauchos, who won 14 and lost 15 while earning third place in California Collegiate Athletic Association play, poured in 1442 points while concentrating on a deliberate, ball control style of play. Their opponents scored 1546. Latest NCAA statistics listed Coach Willie Wilton's team as fifteenth in the nation on defense.

The 1442 total for 29 games broke the old school record of 1303 points set in 28 games last year.

Free Throw

Part of Haevin's superiority was manifested at the free throw line where he made 90 out of 141 attempts for an average of .638. As a team the Gauchos sank 410 out of 739 gift shots for a team average of .568.

Triulzi and Nutini Display Talent in Track Meet Tuesday

"South America, take it away." This seemed to be the theme which was running through the minds of dizzy participants after the second annual Intramural Track Meet last Tuesday. Dizzy, that is, from the dazzling display of championship material in the form of the two down south boys tagged Alberto Triulzi and Hugo Nutini. This duet produced five individual first and one relay first.

Championship

Running for the Sigma Alpha Epsilons, the boys, with the aid of stalwarts Straton, Chapman, Dessy and Bothner, went ahead to garner the championship for the local fratmen.

But it certainly wasn't a complete two-man show, as evidenced by the fact that all events went down as new records over the previous times of last year's 'mural struggle.

Some of the other outstanding point winners included: Daly (2 firsts), Beacom (2 firsts, 2 seconds), Cook (first, 3 seconds), and Straton (first, 2 seconds, one fourth).

Crowd Pleaser

The relay, as usual, proved to be a crowd pleaser when the lead changed hands a number of times with the SAE's anchor man Triulzi sneaking up unawares on Sig Pi Fredrickson to win by inches.

The SAE's had a total of 49½ points, closely followed by Sig Pi with 42, and the Independents, counted as if they were one group, with 39. The others in order were Delta Sigs, 11, Kappa Sigs 8½, Dels 6, Sig Eps 5, Sig Taus 4, and Lambda Chi 1.

Summary

Here, briefly, is the summary of events, the winning times all being new records:

- Mile Run — 4:56.8, Nutini (SAE), Whiteside (Sig Tau), Rolph (Sig Pi), Zivelongi (Sig Pi). (Old time 5:06.7)
- 440 Yard Run—54.1, Daly (Delta Sig), Fredrickson (Sig Pi), Evans (Ind.), Cory (Lambda Chi). (Old time 55.4)

FEATURE WRITER GOES BERSERK . . .

While browsing through one of the many wire baskets that litter the top of the editor's desk, I came upon some fascinating reading, in the form of a batch of news releases about forthcoming records.

The word record, it is interesting to note, never appears in the body of the copy. This presents no little difficulty as the reviewer must constantly step around the phrase, "the other side of the record." Interesting solutions to this semantic problem are such platter synonyms as the flip, the lower deck, and more conservatively, the companion-piece. Most common is the term lower lid, an interesting variation of which is exhibited when the plattermate of a Spike Jones' record (naughty word—I should call it a brace, a cutting, or an etching. Never a record!) is referred to as a loony lower lid.

Disc Descriptions

Even more fascinating are the descriptions of the discs themselves. For instance, Dick Morgan with Spike Jones aggregation "exercises a pair of tipped tonsils to babble about a binge" in "I Haven't Been Home for Three Long Nights." Less of a tongue-twister and almost sheer poetry is the phrase about Dinah Shore and "Wait for Me," an "undercurrent of tears, a leisurely, undulating rhythm."

Dinah

Dinah gets into print again with Tony Martin and their cutting "In Your Arms." It is reputedly "a disc duet to rock the record realm." Mindy Carson gives "When You Return" "a soft, silky going over heightened by harp glissandos in the orchestration."

Now for three of the "better" blurbs.

The Fontane Sisters contrast a novelty with a slow plaint in a testimonial to their adaptability. On "Bouncy Bouncy Bally" they're giggling and girlish as they pipe a kiddie-cute ditty of the type sung by small fry bouncing a ball on the sidewalk. Hugo Winterhalter's baton manipulates a catchy rhythm as the orchestra bounces right along with the ball, "dribbily, drobbily, whoops-a-daisy." On "What Did I Do?"—"did I do something wrong?" Hugo Winterhalter's sympathetic backing extracts the maximum pathos from the tune.

And then there is — Vaughn Monroe sees the old year out and the new one in with an old favorite and a new one. "The Night is Young and You're So Beautiful" is the characteristically silken Monroe treatment of a ballad popular some years ago, with Vaughn's barrel-chested baritone negotiating the lyrics. The newie, "From This Moment On," is a Cole Porter number with a tango-tinged tempo. Vaughn and the chorus intone that "it's you for me, dear," "From This Moment On."

And finally — Montana Slim reappears as Wilf Carter, his legit monicker, under which he will be billed henceforth. As Montana Slim he acquired a considerable following on CBS and as a recording artist in the U. S., but his records also sold in his native Canada, in Australia, New Zealand and South Africa under the name of Wilf Carter. Montana Slim or Wilf Carter, however, his way with a bucolic ballad is clean and sharp, as his two new sides indicate. Wilf sings "Just a Woman's Smile" and "My Heart's Closed for Repairs," accompanying himself on his trusty guitar.

through college, since their reports have indicated that women, as well as men, have been greatly disturbed by war influences.

According to State President Dr. Tempe Allison, who is Dean of Women at San Bernardino Valley College, some of the problems which have been most prominently mentioned as interfering with educational progress are increasing job opportunities, hasty marriages and an unsettled emotional outlook.

Conference Arrangements

Ellen E. Bowers, Acting Dean of Women at Santa Barbara College and treasurer of the State organization, has charge of the arrangements for the conference.

Principal speaker at the conference will be Dr. Charlotte Elmott, recently returned from the White House conference on the "Welfare of Children and Youth." "Mental Hygiene—Everybody's Business" has been selected as the theme.

Group Dynamics will be utilized in the program for the first time this year, and small "Buzz Sessions" will be formed to scrutinize intently specific problems.
