WEARING MASKS for the Goleta Beach Charity ball, students publicize the dance tonight in the Old Gym. Sponsored by Kappa Sigma fraternity, tickets are still on sale in the SU patio, Storke Plaza, Ortega and De La Guerra commons, and the AS cashiers office for $1.00. Ten Greeks and 20 other living groups will vie for a five foot trophy. The trophy will go to the living group with the highest percentage attendance. Doors open at 8:30. Music will be provided by the Masked Band. (Photo by D.D.)

Council Approves AS Scholarship

An AS Scholarships fund of $2,000 for UCSB students next year was approved by Legislative Council at the Tuesday night meeting.

AS will put up $1,000 to be matched by the same amount from the Regents. The Council also approved awards committee chairman Liz Cleeves suggestion on criteria for judging scholarship applicants. The student must have a 3.0 to 3.5 overall grade average, a definite need, and a record of service to the students.

A $400 ceiling was set by Leg Council for the scholarship amounts. Otherwise the Scholarship office will decide amounts and recipients of the awards.

Promotion of commercial products in the SU area was discussed. In its decisions regarding the advertising, the SU Policy Committee had decided to take into account an opinion poll printed in the EL GAUCHO, asking for student reactions to cigarette ads in the SU area. The poll, which received responses from only 56 students, found opinion 2-1 against the ads.

"Guys who answer surveys like that are the bearded fellows on the campus," was Bob McCord's opinion.

President Joe Sorrentino told each representative to get reactions from his group in order to get a broader view of student opinion.

Ron Van Wert, a UCSB student, gave a commercial at the beginning of the meeting for the opening of a local club.

Sorrentino will turn over his suggestions for Constitutional revisions to the Constitution and By-Laws Committee. He has been considering constitutions from 10 other schools, as well as experiences from this year in forming his suggestions.

A representative from the Business Office is invited to explain to Leg Council next week the reasons for the high cost of operating the campus bus. Sorrentino commented that the office "has not been very responsive" to AS.

Hal Jones announced that graduation will take place in Storke Plaza on Saturday, June 8. Exercises might be in the afternoon instead of the morning, as previously planned.

Regarding dress for commencement, Hal quipped, "For all I know you might be able to go through in your skivvies."

'63 Project Pakistan Finalists Announced

The seven members of the Project Pakistan team were announced Tuesday by Walter Weiss, director of the University Religious Conference.

Headed by Tom Ivers as group leader, the finalists are Ron Cook, Gary Hawthorne, Lee Anne Horine, Katherine Lowe, Bill Prescott and Karen Strohm.

The team, with Weiss as advisor, will travel through Pakistan this summer visiting colleges and meeting citizens of the country including students, businessmen and leaders. Ability to work as a group was an important factor in choosing the group as well as academic performance and results of tests and interviews.

According to Weiss, they have "those certain qualities and capabilities that make them able to stand up for what they think is right, but act as a team. They have that indefinite some- (See Pakistan, page four)

Annual Pushcart Races Scheduled For Tomorrow

Third annual Push-Cart Race, presented by RHA, will be held Saturday from 12:30 to 4 p.m.

The route will begin at South Hall, circle near the Physical Science Building, run back to North Hall, and end at South Hall, according to RHA special events chairman Judy Jones.

Carts decorated with a circus theme will parade the first half hour and be displayed at the "side show" before and after the race, near North Hall.

A trophy for the best decoration will be awarded by Judges Lucille A. Woolsey and Edna Mathieson of the Home Economics Department, and Paul L. Scherer of the Art Department.

For the race beginning at 1 pm, push-carts will be stripped of decorations down to a maximum three foot width.

Anacapa, Las Casitas, and Greeks, will first race among themselves, the winner of each division will compete and a grand trophy will be awarded.

An additional trophy will be given to the cart completing the race in the shortest time.

Bud Girtch, Athletic director, will be official judge. Announcer for the race will be Bob Andrews.

Participants will include almost every Anacapa Hall, Las Casitas bungalow, and fraternity. Each must build a push-cart from scratch.

Runners from each unit are chosen and trained. Each chooses a girl, preferably a small, light, fearless, girl, and educates her as the pushcart navigator. She sits in the seat, usually built specifically for her dimensions, and steers the two man powered cart.

A new rule this year is that all runners must wear shoes and socks.

Donuts and soft drinks will be sold at concession stands by the Chimes. Proceeds will go to Camp Conestoga.

Saturday lunch hours in the dining commons will be changed to weekday hours, 11:15 to 1:05 p.m.

Events will close with a stag sock-hop Saturday night, from 8:30 to 12 in the old gym, where trophies will be presented. The Renegades, "an excellent band from Los Angeles," reports Judy Jones, will play. Dress for the dance will be sporty.

Mimist Program Here Saturday

Ten sequences of pantomime will be staged by mimist Frans Reynders, tomorrow at 8:30 pm. in Campbell Hall. Tickets for the program are available in the Campbell Hall box office and at Roos Atkins.

After opening with a technique demonstration, Reynders will perform sketches including "Park Bench," "Blind Man," "Marionette," "The Bird," "The Cello Player," "Man at the Table," "Surgeon," "Samson and the Lion," and "Game with the Hand."

The Dutch-born mime was a teen-ager in Holland during World War II and was a member of the Dutch underground. He has since been an art instructor, a technician and performer of musical comedy in the Netherlands. For more than a year he owned a marionette theater, for which he wrote the script and manipulated the puppets.

After the war, Reynders was a student at the Academy of Art in Amsterdam. He became interested in pantomime, and went to Paris to enroll in the Theatre de Mime.

Spring Sing Donation Advocated

I was very disappointed with the recent Legislative Council decision to veto the 25 cent admission charge to Spring Sing, requested by Charities Committee. It seems to me that those people on council were not looking at all sides of the picture.

Camp Conestoga is a community project for the people of Santa Barbara and actively supported by them. I am sure that there is no danger of alienating them in any manner by asking a small donation admission charge. I think they would not only be glad to help out in our mutual project, but would be more aware of it; therefore, more appreciative of what UCSB students are doing to help support something that is important to them.

I also believe that few students object to spending 25 cents to see the program. They would certainly be more willing to spend 25 cents there than to spend 25 minutes or more elsewhere on another money raising campaign for the camp. In addition, by raising a major portion of the pledged funds this way, the necessity of a lot of smaller projects would be eliminated.

Frankly, I think students are getting tired of hearing about Camp Conestoga when the projects involved turn out to be so numerous with little return. I DO feel they would be willing to support something that would come a lot closer to fulfilling our obligation in a major way, as the Spring Sing admission donation will do.

Lately there have been some council members advocating that we back out of our obligation because we can't seem to fulfill it. Yet some of these same people are those blocking the opportunity to realize our objective financially, potentially causing us to disappoint the people of Santa Barbara and to put ourselves in an embarrassing position.

Are council members really reflecting the opinions of their constituents on this matter?

"Affectionate?"

Editor:

Mr. Dawdy, congratulations on your consistent coverage of Dr.

Tillich's lectures. They were all in poor taste. I am convinced that you respect neither Dr. Tillich nor your readers.

Your first article contained the quote, "Tillich doesn't even understand Tillich." Were you attacking him, or simply trying to discourage students from going to hear him? Or were you apologizing for not being able to make your readers understand?

Last week's triumph was "Dr. Tillich, speaking slowly with his heavy German accent." I find this sort of description irrelevant. Were you being affectionate?

Wednesday, however, was the worst. Under the headline "Tillich Attacks Birchers," you quoted him as follows: "I hope that after an hour and 15 minute lecture something more reaches the outside of this auditorium besides my statement about the Birch Society." Something did, but it wasn't in the head or the lead. This approach is sensationalist and unfair and it is almost the worst trick a reporter can play.

I've forgotten the fourth instance, but you can look it up in your morgue--if you have one.

Nancy Saunders

Editor's note: To clarify the facts, the first quotation mentioned above should read "No one fully understands Paul Tillich, not even Paul Tillich himself." The second quotation referred to an article not written by Mr. Dawdy and should read "Speaking slowly with a thick German accent . . ."

● MANY HAPPENINGS: Well, as far as this week-end goes, all I can say is that I hope you have a versatile wardrobe.

● KAPPA SIGS MASKED BALL is this Friday night and I hope you all are going to support this charity function and remember to wear a costume and a mask.

● SATURDAY THRILLS are yours at the Pushcart Races tomorrow afternoon. They're fun and exciting to watch and you'll find a good student body turnout, so here's a suggestion for looking your best:

● CAMPUS CASUALS -- Garland cotton - knit coordinate group includes T-shirts, jackets, Jamaica shorts at $6.95, pants and dacron/cotton slim skirts also at $6.95. And check the summertime shades: denim blue, daffodil, and opal (plus black). Sizes 5-15.

● POOR PADDY is in a sad state right now, but those things will happen. If you've been invited to the Paddy Murphy Wake, remember, be appropriate, wear black. A dress range of all sizes, styles and prices at the Annex.

● SHARP SHARKSKIN. Always good to have around are skirts, pants, shifts, and dresses in white Arnel sharkskin -- fun to interchange with brightly colored tops. Come in Saturday to see the selection.

Rafferty And Social Science

The perennial and rather tiresome duel between the "Left" and the "Right" is once more on the California battleground. And once again, the cries and counter-cries of "Witch-Hunters" and "Leftists" obliterate reason.

This latest round in the battle was initiated by the State Superintendent of Education, Mr. Rafferty. According to Mr. Rafferty, "there is some considerable imbalance to the left at some colleges and Junior colleges." This challenge from the superintendent, has been promptly accepted, and already there are indignant rallies to the defense of the academicians.

Unfortunately for Californian education, feeling rather than thinking dictate the weapons of the duel. Rafferty bases his position on the evidence of several letters he receives daily from alert Californians. These Californians protest against instructors, who have "left-wing" views, teaching on certain specified college campuses. Mr. Rafferty has declined to name which colleges stand so condemned, at least for the present. Instead he contents himself by expressing grave concern on the whole question of philosophical imbalance.

As umbrellas before a storm, this dark cloud of suspicion has occasioned a flurry of wrath from the non-right. The extent to which this non-righteous wrath prevails remains to be seen.

Disregarding, however, the political aspect of the squabble, Mr. Rafferty's comments have other significance. His belief that some Economic and Political Science departments are philosophically unbalanced is very interesting. Mr. Rafferty asserts that if a college economics faculty were composed largely of "Keynesian economists" it should be balanced with "apologists for good, old fashioned capitalism."

From the terms "imbalanced philosophy" and "apologists," it is clear that Mr. Rafferty considers economics and political science as matters of opinion rather than science. He may even believe the old dictum that "where two or three economists are gathered together, there will occur disagreement." Indeed, perhaps economics and political science are parading under false pretences, and are really not sciences at all, but are merely philosophy. In which case, these two disciplines of learning should properly be made adjuncts of the philosophy department.

It is curious however, how the extreme conservatives consistently view social scientists with grave doubts. And yet this very fact affords reassurance. Throughout history, tradition has been uncomfortable with any new emerging science. The breeze of controversy is anathema to the security-minded. Medieval authority regarded Copernicus and his theories with extreme disfavor. Neither did Darwin receive hospitality from all quarters. Now, perhaps, it is the turn of the social scientists.

Recent developments suggest that Mr. Rafferty may perforce moderate his doctrinaire position. At least we hope so for the sake of our social science departments. To arbitrarily pack them with apologists, for any system whatsoever, would be to promote propaganda, and not education.

As our University motto implies, we seek truth, and not apologies.

Regents' Policy On Nondiscrimination Explained

by Sandy Fitzgerald, Vic Cox and Kathy Davidson

Annually the Dean of Students Office reminds local fraternities and sororities of a rapidly approaching deadline which will have profound significance for not only the UCSB Greek community but the University of California in total.

By Sept. 1, 1964, all student organizations having "special relationship" to the University--including Greek living groups--must deliver a signed statement to the Dean of Students declaring that "there are no rules or policies which inhibit the members from accepting students without discrimination on account of race, religion, or national origin in the selection of members."

El Gaucho believes this matter is a vital area of student concern -- not only to students of Greek affiliation but to all members of our campus community who are sensitive to the impact of Regent policy on the present and future development of the University. In order to stimulate discussion of the problems and consequences involved in the policy directives on nondiscrimination, El Gaucho is running a three-part survey on this subject.

Part one deals with the Regent policy; part two is a synopsis of the responses we received from colleges and universities in other states relating to administration policies on discrimination; part three is the reaction of UCSB fraternities and sororities to the Regent's policy.

Part 1

On July 16, 1959, the University of California Regents issued a policy "Concerning non-discrimination by Student Organizations and in Approved Student Housing." Some of the wording of the policy was revised Sept. 1, 1961, but the content remains the same.

General Policies

General administration policy while stating that "all groups operating under the administrative control of the Regents, including administration, faculty, student governments, and University-owned residence halls, are governed by this policy of nondiscrimination" noted that "somewhat different problems are presented by the many organizations composed of University students which are essentially private organizations but which have a special relationship to the University...."

Elaborating on the term "special relationship", the Regents said, "They (organizations in the special relationship category) are entitled to certain University privileges such as use of University facilities and are subject to certain University regulations (e.g. rules governing students living in fraternities and sorority houses).

"Most organizations of this type, including ... social fraternities and sororities ... have long had as an essential aspect of their operations the freedom of their members to choose the persons who shall be included in their groups. The University recognizes and approves this freedom of essentially private groups to select their own members."

However, the statement continued, "A few groups with such a special relation to the University still are subject, ... often against the wishes of their local members, to external restraints requiring discrimination.

"In accordance with the traditions of the University, there must be freedom for all such groups to choose members on a basis of individual evaluation unfettered by policies which require discrimination on the grounds alone of race or religion or national origin regardless of the personal merit of the fellow student."

Implementing Regulations

To implement the above general policies, the Regents approved regulations, the essence of which follows:

1. Discrimination based on race, religion, or national origin is forbidden in student government.

2. All student organizations having a special relationship to the University, as a condition of the continuation of such relationship, "shall have a membership policy which does not require discrimination based on race, religion, or national origin. The members of such organizations shall be free to choose their own associates according to their own best judgment, and should not be confined to selection within a system of categories...."

"Where such groups operate on a basis of selected membership, the students participating in them shall be permitted to choose members free from the restraints of said discriminatory policies, imposed by constitutions, agreements, alumni or other nonstudents, or other organization rules."

Paragraph two continues by stating that in order to allow fraternities and sororities time to eliminate discriminatory clauses in national constitutions (or have the local organizations exempted by nationals from the effects of such a clause)" this regulation shall become effective . . . in no event later than September 1, 1964."

3. The organizations covered by paragraph two are to deposit "copies of all constitutions, charters, or other documents relating to their (membership) policies" with the Dean of Students no later than September 1, 1964.

"By the same date, they shall also deliver to the same officer a statement signed by the president . . . of the local organization to the effect that there are no rules or policies which inhibit the members from accepting students without discrimination on account of race, religion, or national origin in the selection of members." This statement is to be renewed annually.

Paragraph 4 states that "nothing contained in this statement shall interfere with the traditional alumni-chapter relationships."

Paragraph 5 covers University nondiscrimination policy on approved housing and Paragraph 6 establishes punishments for the violations of the policy set forth in paragraph 2.

UCSB's Statement

On the form statement sent out by the UCSB Dean of Students, dated March 14, 1963, fraternity and sorority presidents are requested to sign the following confidential statement -- or if they can't, or prefer not to, state so and return it.

"I hereby certify that the student members of _____ are free to choose members without discrimination on account of race, religion, or national origin."

NEXT WEEK - How have other colleges and universities coped with similar policy directives?

216 Students Achieve Dean's List, 22 Perfect GPA's

Twenty-two students top the fall semester Dean's list with a perfect 4.0 average. The senior class leads the scholars with 12 members in the top 22.

Sharing honors are six juniors, three sophomores and one freshman.

Approximately 4 1/2%, 216 students, of the fall enrollment attained the deans list with an average of 3.5 or over.

Seniors numbered 62 on the list, 29% of the total. Juniors comprised 25% of the honor roll, sophomores 24%, and freshmen 22%.

thing that makes the spirit of the football game crowd."

The "something" he went on, is "foreign to the Asian-mind", and "is unique to America." He also said the group was able to demonstrate American democracy "politically, religiously and socially."

Ivers, a senior economics major, feels that the project aims are to demonstrate "mutual understanding" and that the group was chosen because they have the "basic tools to think and would be ready for many situations."

Miss Horine, a sophomore, sees the Project as providing better person-to-person contacts to show the true representation of the United States.

Expressing her feelings toward the Project, Miss Strohm said she felt the team, with its "diversity of opinions yet unified in spirit" will be able to show the true power of America.

Both Katherine Lowe and Ron Cook are sophomore political science majors. The latter serves as president of his class.

Hawthorne, an engineering major, plays varsity football and track for UCSB. He and Bill Prescott are also sophomores.

Final plans cannot be made before complete approval from the State Department. The main problem in this stage is whether the Pakistanis desire the project and if the State Department can offer funds for the team's expenses.

Grant Offered To Sophomores

Sophomores may apply for a $500 scholarship being offered by California Newspaper Advertising Executives Association through the UCSB Scholarships and Loan Office.

The $500. grant will be given for the winner's senior year also, provided acceptable grades are maintained during the first year of the scholarship.

Students interested in entering the newspaper advertising field are eligible. Full details are available at the campus scholarship and loan office. Deadline for completed applications has been set for April 5.

Baker Gives Talk

Dr. Gordon E. Baker, associate professor of political science was the featured speaker at a special conference on Apportionment and State Government held in Chicago this week.

The conference brought together League of Women Voters leaders from 30 states.

Campus Hosts European Art On Exhibition

European drawings dating from the 16th through the early 19th century are on exhibition at the campus art gallery.

The exhibition is open to the public and will remain on display through April 12. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday and 1 to 5 p.m. on Sundays.

The drawings have been loaned from the collections of R. M. Light and Company of Boston and Schottsdale and from the Helene Seiferheld Galler, Inc. of New York.

Also on exhibition are a selection of 24 prints from the McBey Print Collection, and a group of the Italian and northern Renaissance paintings from the Sedgwick Collection.

The drawings explore a wide range of medias and represent geographically the whole of Western Europe. Italian works are represented by Donato Creti, Jacopo Pontormo, Giovanni Tiepolo and Leonardo Corona. From northern Europe are a number of Flemish drawings by Paulus Bril, Lambert Doomer and Jodocus de Momper. Other northern European works are from the hands of Dutch Barent Avercamp, German Wolf Huber, French Honore Fragonard and others.

Cadets Promoted

Nine ROTC cadets have been promoted according to Major Robert N. Anderson.

Promoted to cadet Lt. Colonel was James G. Former. Kent R. Brown and Raymond G. Bloodhard will be Cadet majors.

New cadet captains are Michael M. McKieve, Dennis R. Roth, John P. Casey, Gary N. Rhoades, and Alan S. Mendelsohn.

Student Plays Set for Tonight

Two student-directed one act comedies will be presented in the campus auditorium tonight and tomorrow night at 8:30.

Due to a matter of unpaid royalties Bill Black, one of the student directors, refused to reveal the names of the plays.

Information which the student directors do allow for publication is that one play is a naturalistic comedy with a 1920 setting, and the other is a serious comedy with the theme of deep Southern vengeance.

Karcz Given Grant

Dr. Jerry Karcz, assistant professor of economics has been awarded a grant of $1230 from the American Council of Learned Societies for the coming summer.

Dr. Karcz will use the grant to complete his data on farm procurements, prices and the collective farm market in the Soviet Union.

He gathered this material last year during a five-months trip to Russia when, as an exchange scholar, he studied problems of agricultural price structure in that country.

Orchestra Proves Highly Co-ordinated

by Steve Mjjesik

Tuesday night at Campbell Hall, the Ramat Gan Chamber Orchestra from Israel gave a performance that included selections by Mozart, Stravinsky, Martin and Corelli. The players (twelve in all) performed in a technical, highly co-ordinated manner. This is no small feat when dealing with string instruments.

The biography sheet passed out with the program read like a Who's Who of minor string players. It seems amazing that these relatively young musicians in their twenties and thirties should have accumulated so many honors and distinctions in so short a time plus the fact that they have been gathered into one group, borders the miraculous.

Perhaps the most successful

Dr. Gillespie Offers Harpsichord Recital

Dr. John Gillespie, professor of music, performs a survey of harpsichord music by six composers at Campbell Hall Wednesday evening, March 27, at 8:30. The concert is open to the public without charge.

Music of Bach and Handel will frame the first part of his recital. French music by Francois Couperin, and three pieces by Italy's Domenico Scarlatti will also be presented.

A chamber orchestra conducted by Carl Zytowski, associate professor of music will join Dr. Gillespie for the performance of Haydn's "Concerto in D major."

A graduate of DePauw University, the Fulbright scholar holds his PhD degree from University of Southern California.

piece of the evening was "Etudes for String Orchestra" by the contemporary Swiss composer, Frank Martin. It was composed in 1956. The etudes varied from slow sostenuto, to pizzicato, to the fast contrapuntal segment that ended the piece. Highly dissonant, it hints at Mr. Martin's later experiments into the twelve tonality that is widely used today.

Another composer who now uses the twelve tonal system, Stravinsky, was represented on the program by an early ballet, "Apollon Musagete". This ballet, in two scenes, was rather dry and emotionless. It was written in 1928 when Stravinsky was entering his neo-classic period.

The interest in this piece lies in the economy of notes and in the manner in which Mr. Stravinsky was able to vary the sounds of the string orchestra. Perhaps the highlight of this composition was Stravinsky's so-called "ragtime piece". A rhythm that Stravinsky used in several of his compositions during this period.

Another contemporary piece was the one-movement violin concerto, Yiskor (In Memoriam) by O. Partos. This piece, which was romantic in nature, was well executed by the founder of the string orchestra, Abraham Comfort. The composition was not as original as it was derivative. At times it seemed stright from the pen of Bartok. The concluding segment of the concert consisted of an early divertimento by Mozart (K. 138).

In an overall examination of the concert, this reviewer found it well played with great technical skill. This does not mean the concert was a success. Perhaps the reason for the small audience was the program.

In the program, there was ballet music, divertimento, and dances. They were well played, but the fact that these pieces were written with something more in mind than concert material may account for the general lack of interest.

It was rewarding to hear so much contemporary music played. It is rare that one finds a concert where three out of five selections are of a modern nature. It is a shame that the program held little music that was able to stand by itself.

Tracksters Host Westmont, Frosh Meet Hancock

Cross-town rival Westmont invades the campus oval tomorrow at 1:30 pm to battle the Gauchos in a dual track meet.

Coming off two rough weekends in a row, Coach Nick Carter's men could again find their hands full tomorrow against a vastly improved Warrior squad, led by jumping wizard Dave Thoreson.

The rubber-legged Thoreson owns marks of 6-9 in the high jump and 13-6 in the pole vault, and has placed well in the triple jump and broad jump throughout the year.

With the UCSB high jump pit receiving its long overdue overhauling, Thoreson could have a shot at the magic seven foot circle.

Al Huffman, ace Westmont middle distance man, boasts marks right around 4:20 in the mile and 1:58.0 in the half to give the invaders good strength. Larry Rice has broad jumped 21-8 and triple jumped 44-11 for more strength.

Meanwhile, the Gauchos have come up with a couple of strong contenders for the conference shot put crown, Larry Rocker, with a put of 50-1 1/2 and Fred Hokanson (47-7) both moved past their previous all time bests last weekend in the rain at UCLA.

Sprinter Bill O'Neill has brought his time for the 220 below 22 seconds with a 21.8 timing, while Gary Hawthorne has triple jumped 43-11 3/4 for other outstanding performances.

Jumper Ed Lacy has been threatening to hit 44 feet in the triple jump, with a jump of 44-7 in practice this week, while high jumpers John Siamas and Ken Johnson have been looking good.

The Gaucho frosh also go into action against Hancock College and will be attempting a rebound after last week's rain dance at UCLA.

Leading the frosh effort this year have been hurdler Rob Denhardt and weight man Bill Burnett, with vaulter Dave Caswell providing strong support.

High jumper Marsh Nelson found a new event during the past week's practice, heaving the javelin 163 feet.

FROSH GAMILERS SWEEP 1-2-3 in a recent meet against Pomona. Winning the race in the excellent time of 4:31 is Jack Roach. In the process, he set a new Frosh record. Right behind him are Gauchos Jon Brower and Dave Zoraster who also turned in good times to complete the Pomona whitewash. The Frosh host Hancock College tomorrow at UCSB. (Jim Mattinson Photo)

Each application will be sent to over 3000 large yacht owners in April. Crewing affords an opportunity to acquire or sharpen boating skills, visit new places here and abroad while earning a good salary in pleasant outdoor surroundings.

To apply, send us a short resume using the following form along with $5.00 processing fee.

(1) Name, address, phone no. (2) Age, school (3) Available from _____ to _____ i. e. Northeast, Great Lakes, East and South, etc. (4) Previous boating and relevant work experience (5) two references (6) Preference i.e. Racing, sailboat cruising, motorboating, none, etc. (7) Other pertinent facts. Two applicants wishing to work together, state this preference. Every applicant will receive a finished resume.

Deadline for applications is April 2, 1963. Send to Wetherill Company, Box 12304, Phila. 19, Pa.

CCAA Track and Field Statistics

Continuing to post impressive early season marks, the CCAA spikers face a full schedule this week. Topping the action is the league meet pitting Jack Rose's Long Beach State 49ers against Los Angeles State. Several outstanding individual duels are on tap, particularly in the broad jump where Devil Ken Tucker (24-8) meets Dee Andrews (24-4) and in the sprints where 49ers Jim Richardson and Gary Gaudet tangle with Burren Simmons and Ken Tucker.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE

Long Beach State at LA State Valley State at Cal Poly (SLO) Westmont at UCSB Camp Pendleton, Cal Western, Cal Poly (Pomona) at San Diego State.

Far Western Volleyball

Bay Area volleyball fans were treated to some of the best volleyball played in the United States last weekend as collegiate "spikers" converged on NAS Alameda for the Far Western volleyball tournament.

UCSB players, led by Andy Holman of Sigma Alpha Epsilon, donned their "tennies" to compete against the best from Santa Monica City College, San Jose State, and UC Los Angeles. The powerful Santa Monica crew finally retained their title as collegiate champ after sweating through two days of fast-paced action. They defeated UCLA 15-9 in the finals.

The Santa Barbara team, composed mostly of Sigma Alpha Epsilon members and augmented by Sig Eps and Delts, didn't finish in the top money but sharpened up their volleyball in matches against San Diego State, Long Beach State, Stanford, California, and Brigham Young University.

Horsehidiers Host Long Beach Nine

UCSB's Varsity Baseball team, seeking to improve on its 2-3 CCAA record, will play three games this weekend against the 49ers from Long Beach State on the Gaucho diamond.

Last weekend Coach Gorrie's horsehidiers were swamped by the Diablos three times. Unable to score no more than five runs in all three games, the Gauchos batted a horrendous .202, collecting only sixteen hits.

Jim Grant, Dave Peterson, and Ray Ford were shellacked for 11 runs and the same amount of hits in Friday's abortion of a game. In Saturday's 9-2 defeat, LA State walloped Gaucho pitchers Carl Merz, Dennis Lynch, and Gay Smith. Gaucho Joe Hendrickson was the only consistent hurler as he gave up only one run on five hits in a losing cause.

The big question mark, however, is the pitching. There is only one returning letterman back from last year's squad - lefty Phil Snyder.

Turning to the Gaucho side of the diamond, Gary Cole leads all batters with a .320 average, while Jerry Crawford is hitting at a .308 clip, and Leroy Pifer is batting an even .300. Joe Hendrickson leads all pitchers with a 0.90 ERA and a 1-1 record.

Competition will get under way Friday with a single game at 3 p.m., followed by a Saturday doubleheader that is slated for 12:30 p.m. Next week the Gauchos host the Stanford Indians in a pair of games.

Greeks Lauded

Greeks received commendation from Santa Barbara citizens for their greek week project of painting the stands at the municipal tennis Stadium.

"This was an extremely worthwhile and constructive community work project," said Santa Barbara recreation superintendent W. W. Bertka in a letter to IFC council.

Gaucho Profiles

MIKE BERESFORD, a slender six-footer from Manhattan Beach, California leads the Gaucho spear throwers with a toss of 199-1, accomplished two weeks ago against Long Beach State. This outstanding feat remains as the third best in the CCAA. This is only his second year throwing the javelin, but he is also adept off the track. Representing a volleyball team in Hollywood, Mike was an All-American performer.

Swim Meet

Entry forms for the 1963 Intramural Swim Meet are due Monday, April 1 in the Intramural Box, Robertson Gym. The meet is scheduled to take place on April 26, from 2:30-5:30 p.m. Entry forms may be obtained from Jack Wilmore, Bldg. 420, Room 216.

Cage Convention

UCSB basketball coach Art Gallon will attend the annual convention of the National Basketball Coaches Association and also the NCAA Basketball Championship tournament this weekend at Louisville, Kentucky.

Gallon will fly to Louisville on Wednesday where he is slated to serve on three committees during the coaches convention. He is a member of the rules recommendation, research and bulletin editorial committees.

Easter Relays

Entries have begun pouring in for the March 30 Silver Anniversary running of the Santa Barbara Easter Relays and already there are signs that this will be the best yet.

New entries as of this week have been received by ex-Stanford great Ernie Cunliffe in the featured Nick Carter Mile, and ex-Oxy star Jim Cervany in the 880. Also entered in the meet is Dave Edstrom the decathlon standout. He is entered in several events.

Yearlings Face Hancock, Cal Poly

UCSB's baseball yearlings are on the road this weekend meeting Hancock College tonight and Cal Poly tomorrow in a twin-bill.

Last Friday afternoon, behind the pitching of Rod Hollander and the hitting of left fielder Dennis Kutler, the Gaucho Frosh downed SBCC 4-0, running UCSB's record to 3-0.

Hollander allowed only three hits, singles in the second, fourth, and sixth. Only four Vaqueros reached second base, and none of them saw third. Starting against Hancock College tonight will be Mike Foster. In tomorrow's doubleheader against Cal Poly, Mike Cooney and Hollander will fling for the locals.

News In Brief

PRESIDENT KENNEDY and the presidents of six Central American nations, meeting in Costa Rica, signed a declaration pledging their attitudes toward Communism in Latin America and toward future economic cooperation between the U.S. and Central America.

Although Cuba was not mentioned by name in the document, the seven presidents agreed to increase efforts aimed at stopping Soviet aggression in the Western Hemisphere and to recognize Communism as the chief threat to the economic development of Central America.

The economic section contained a pledge by Mr. Kennedy to make available $6 million for the study of the future economic needs of Central America and the timing and amounts of subsequent U.S. aid.

LONDON is reported to have accepted the West German concept "forward strategy" as the principal method by which Europe would be defended in case of Soviet aggression. The strategy which involves the swift use of atomic field weapons, is believed to be opposed by the U.S. which favors containment by conventional weapons until attempts could be made to end the fighting through negotiations.

***

FRANCE, according to the newly created Algerian Government, has resumed nuclear testing in the Sahara despite Algerian warnings that such tests would violate both her sovereignty and her feelings against nuclear testing. The incident is likely to cause a serious rift in the Algerian Government's program of economic "cooperation" with France.

KENNEDY'S PLAN FOR TARIFF REDUCTIONS seems to be headed for serious trouble primarily because of the problem of what will be negotiable and what goods will remain immune from tariff adjustment. The U.S. has demanded that agriculture be considered as well as industry and if this demand is not met talks will probably end.

Furthermore, certain things, such as oil, are not, because of Government restriction, negotiable at all; if the other countries involved limit themselves in a similar way, the list of negotiable items would become insignificant.

Two UCSB Professors Write For Education Book

Two Professors of education at UCSB contributed research to a newly published book on childhood education, entitled "Foundations of Learning in Childhood Education."

Professors Edith M. Leonard and Dorothy D. Van Deman worked in conjunction with Lillian E. Miles, education consultant and former executive secretary of the San Bernardino Board of Education.

The book demonstrates how teachers in the classroom can go beyond the confines of formal instruction in order to help each child realize his full potential. Six end-objectives must be striven for in order for true education to take place. If the teacher fails to do so, the career is demeaned to a mechanical chore performed in a vacuum.

The six objectives are wholesome attitudes, deep appreciations, independent thinking and problem solving, good behavior patterns, creative expression and understanding and knowledge and skills.

The professors and Mrs. Miles use illustrative examples of classroom situations in the 450-page volume. Ways in which the six goals may be achieved in all academic subjects taught from kindergarten through sixth grade are demonstrated.

Significant comments of children are gathered from a number of teachers.

The book whose first section deals with democracy in childhood education, has been chosen as a major selection by the Educator's Book Club.

Conant Speaks Here Next Fri.

Renown American educator and former president of Harvard University James B. Conant will speak at the 95th Charter Anniversary ceremonies here next Friday.

Dr. Conant will appear at an outdoor public ceremony at 2 p.m. and an evening banquet at the Miramar Hotel in Santa Barbara. This dinner will open a series of conferences to be held during 1963 on various UC campuses dealing with the problems emerging from the state's population explosion.

The UCSB symposium with 150 delegates attending will be held March 29-31 and explore the educational needs of the state under the general theme "California and the Challenge of Growth."

Shaw representing Delta Gamma and Shirley Yasukochi representing Bahia Hall are the finalists.

One of the three will reign over the annual Easter Relays track meet next Saturday, March 30, from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

The queen will be selected by men students today when they vote from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in Storke Plaza.

The original 22 candidates, chosen by their living groups, were presented at a special assembly Wednesday. The finalists were selected by a panel of judges from Santa Barbara.

Results of today's election will be announced at a kick-off banquet sponsored by the Jr. Chamber of Commerce in the El Encanto hotel.

Peace Corps Schedules Placement Tests March 23

Non-competitive placement tests for Peace Corps Volunteers will be given in 823 cities across the nation on Saturday, March 23.

Many college students will be off campus for Spring vacations, and Peace Corps officials hope the wide dispersal of testing locations will make exams available to Peace Corps applicants wherever they are.

The tests will begin at 8:30 a.m. at designated U.S. Civil Service Commission testing centers. On-campus testing sites will not be used except in instances designated by Civil Service.

To be eligible to take the exam, candidates must have either submitted a questionnaire to the Peace Corps, or must bring a completed questionnaire to the test site with them.

Questionnaires may be obtained from campus Peace Corps liaison officers or from any post office.

More than 5,000 successful applicants are now assigned to 50 countries in Asia, Africa and Latin America.

The number of Volunteers has increased 78 percent (from 816 to 5,009) since last June 30. The Peace Corps expects to assign 4,000 more Volunteers by the end of this year.

All applicants must be U.S. citizens who are at least 18 years of age. There is no upper age limit. Married couples without dependent children may serve if they both qualify for the same overseas project.
