Students Resume Social Activities at Derby Dance Tomorrow at Rockwood

Floral Horseshoe, Mile-posts Contribute To 'Racey' Atmosphere; Delta Zeta Delta Omega Rho Gamma Serve as Greeters

Race fans will throng to "Rockwood Park" tomorrow night for the Gaucho Derby dance sponsored by the social committee for the entire student body and guests, according to Margaret Parks, chairman in charge of arrangements. The hall will be transformed into a race track and decorated appropriately with a floral horseshoe adorning the wall above the fire place in the lobby and mile-posts marking divisions of the track.

PENCILS NECESSARY

Tommy House's seven piece orchestra will play from 9 p.m. until midnight. Members of the orchestra and doormen will wear jockey caps. Programs for this sport dance will be in the form of actual race track programs with each dance bearing the name of a different race. Men are reminded to bring pencils as they will not be furnished with the programs.

Admission to the affair will be upon presentation of student body cards. Student body members may invite guests for whom they must obtain guest cards in Dean Lois M. Bennink's office by 3:15 p.m. today. These cards are 50 cents each.

HOSTS, HOSTESSES

Members of Delta Zeta Delta sorority and Omega Rho Gamma fraternity have been invited by the social committee to act as hostesses and hosts for the evening.

Patrons and Patronesses who will be judges for the Gaucho Derby are Dr. and Mrs. Joseph Foleader, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Porter and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson.

Assisting Miss Parks with all plans for this novel event are Barbara Whitmore Campbell and Howard Karjala. Appropriate race track attire will be sport clothes for men and women, but men will not be admitted unless they are wearing coat and tie.

Next student body dance will be the Senior Ball for which the social committee is already formulating plans. Date of the affair will be June 7. The Queen to reign over the Ball is being considered now and will be chosen from women of the June graduating class.

Council Passes Election Rules For Campaigns

With the first sparks of political fire kindling on the local campus this week, the Associated student council took definite measures to keep the campaigns on a "fair level" as council members last night unanimously passed a motion setting a $15 monetary maximum on all campaign expenditures.

Any office seeker who exceeds the limit set up by the ruling will be automatically disqualified by the elections committee.

Following this ruling, the council accepted a motion by El Gaucho Editor Willard May prohibiting any form of campaigning within 50 feet of the polls. The newly-appointed elections committee members in charge of incorporating these rules are Bernice Shedd, chairman, May, Patsy Eaves and President Jack Richards.

Richards also presented the council with a questionnaire which will be circulated from Graduate manager Don Follett's office beginning today. Members of the student body are asked to fill out the questionnaire, listing campus activities in order of their personal preference, as an aid to the council in budgeting financial support to the various student body activities for the coming year.

Sophomore Women Aid Mothers' Tea

Plans for hosting at the Associated Women students' Spring Mothers' tea will be discussed by members of Las Espuelas, sophomore women's honor organization, at a monthly breakfast meeting next Tuesday at 7:15 a.m. in the cafeteria.

Proficiency Dean Announces Make-up Tests

Make-up proficiency tests will be given on Tuesday, April 29 at 3 p.m. in the college auditorium for all student teachers, according to announcement by Dr. Charles L. Jacobs, dean of upper division.

Following is the schedule of time for each section of the examination:

- Reading comprehension, 3 p.m.
- Vocabulary, 3:25 p.m.
- Arithmetic Fundamentals, 3:45 p.m.
- Arithmetic Problems, 4:25 p.m.
- English, 5:05 p.m.
- Spelling, 5:40 p.m.

Social chairman MARGARET PARKS announces the all-college Gaucho Derby dance tomorrow evening at Rockwood.

Club Board Plans Activities For Semester

Miriam Kircher's home, 136 Canon drive, was the site of the Phrateres board meeting Wednesday night. Functions of Phrateres for the coming year were discussed.

Sunday, April 20, at 8:30 members will attend a breakfast at Oak park. A place will be provided to sign up in Dean Lois M. Bennink's office. Those planning to attend will meet at the Oak park bus stop and walk from there to the park. Following breakfast of fruit, bearclaws, bacon and eggs and coffee, there will be games of horse shoes and soft ball. All women are to bring their own utensils. Price of breakfast is 15 cents.

Presentation of nominated officers for Phrateres will be made at the business meeting April 30 at 7 p.m. in the A.W.S. club room. Refreshments will be served.

Based on the theme, "Cherry Blossom Festival", Phrateres will present their annual formal dance in the Jade room of the Samarkand hotel May 3 from 9 p.m. until midnight with Tommy House's orchestra playing. Only Phrateres members and guests will be invited. Bids may be purchased in Dean Bennink's office for $1.

Tentative plans were made for attending the annual Phrateres convention to be held in Seattle, Washington June 23-26. Three members and Dean Bennink plan to attend.

Senior Women Plan Supper

Alpha Theta Chi sorority house will be the setting for a combination business meeting and supper for Crown and Scepter, honorary organization for senior women, Tuesday from 4:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Discussion of the traditional candle-light ceremony for graduating senior women will be the main business. Eleanor Wennerberg and her committee are in charge of arrangements. It has been decided to have the service in the quad with the women wearing their caps and gowns.

Following the ceremony will be a dance in honor of the women, sponsored by the Blue Key, men's honorary service organization. Program and food for the supper will be arranged by Barbara Gearhart.

Collegians Enroll In Posture Clinic

"Get Spring in Your Walk" is the slogan of the posture clinic which meets Friday during third hour in room 10. Anyone interested in improving the way he or she stands, walks or looks will be admitted to the class program, according to Miss Margaret DeHaan, instructor in charge of the clinic.

Near-Duplications Mark Races As AMS, AWS Name Heads

Mac Gillivray, Rider Compete For Top Office

Dick Briens Wins Race For Secretaryship, Other Offices Remain Contested

Of the 14 men running for Associated Men student offices, only one was elected in Wednesday's primary, making it necessary to hold run-offs today, it was announced by Howard Eckles, A.M.S. president. Alex MacGillivray and Dick Rider will vie in the final race for presidency.

Dick Briens was elected A.M.S. secretary after a close race with Stanley Aspittle. Office of first vice-president will be held either by Eddie Cole or Stanley Wauchope next year. A three vote difference between the tallies of their votes advises a revote.

Either Stanley Bartlett or Herbert Evans will be chosen today by men students for second vice-president. This office carries the duty of preparing for the first A.M.S. venture of each year, an overnight hike for incoming freshmen.

Ten votes separated Ray Acevedo and John Bayer in their race for social chairman. This officer arranges all social events of the school year.

Of the 800 men students attending college, only 404 voted in Wednesday's election. This is 78 less than the number balloting in the record election last year. The percentage, however, remained about the same, since the number of men enrolled today is not as large as last year.

Polling booths will be located on the Riviera campus and in the main hall of the Mesa campus in the industrial education plant. Voting will take place between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m. today. It is hoped that more interest will be shown in today's election so that another record vote will be cast, according to Eckles.

Alumnus Runs For Downtown Council Office

Local political interest moved onto the local campus today as an alumnus and former student of Santa Barbara State college filed their intentions to run in the city's fifth ward for the recently-vacated council post.

Heading the list of aspirants for the council seat opened by the resignation of Councilman Gene M. Harris, former student and member of Sigma Alpha Kappa, was Francis P. O'Reilly, past-president of the Alumni association.

While attending the local college, O'Reilly was treasurer of the Associated student body as well as a member of the Gaucho football team for which he received a trophy as the most valuable player of the year. O'Reilly also holds a degree from the school of Business Administration at the University of California.

Included with O'Reilly are Jesse Wootton Jr., ex-student, and John Roberts, townsman.

YWCA Elects New Cabinet

Heading the officers for the coming year, Pat Daugherty was elected president of the YWCA at a meeting Wednesday night in the A.W.S. clubroom.

Aiding Miss Daugherty in her cabinet will be Betty Lemons, vice-president; Eloise Peterson, secretary and Kay Tagg, financial chairman.

Following the election of officers Leonard Cook, member of the city housing committee, spoke on the proposed housing measure for the city of Santa Barbara.

Plans were also made to the World Student Service fund benefit dinner which will be held Wednesday evening, April 30, in Ebbets hall. Chop sticks will be sold on campus starting Wednesday to aid in advertising the affair which will be given around a Chinese theme. Tickets may be purchased from any member of the YWCA for 35 cents.

During the club's social hour a miscellaneous shower was given for Wynifred Mumby who is to become the bride of Richard Jackson in June.

Returned to office, A.W.S. President FAYE THOMPSON will head a new executive board to govern women of State college during the 1941-42 season.

Revue Cast Begins Tardy Preparations

Chuck Widener Pursues Aleta de Hoyas Through Spirit Realm in Funfest

Featuring ghouls, ghosts and girls, "What's Cookin'?" the tenth edition of the annual Roadrunner Revue, becomes a fantastic satire on present day world conditions with settings laid in Hell and the college auditorium as it will be 10 years hence, when it is presented on campus May 7, 8 and 9.

When a young man, Bertram, meets an untimely death, he is confined to the spirit world between Heaven and Hell, there meeting other spirits who initiate him into the intricacies of the world in-between, before they make a hurried trip to Hades. Chuck Widener, as Bertram, meets Aleta de Hoyas, a beautiful ghost named Shady, and they kiss—to be continued on May 7 and 8 in the college auditorium.

Many songs have been written by State college students, including "You're So Distant to Me" and "My Flower That Blooms in the Night" by James Henry, freshman composer in charge of original songs. Several of these melodies have lyrics and music comparable to the best in the popular field. Bert Fitzpatrick's talent will also be recognized in the music, all of which is under the direction of Leonard Fredlund.

One of the highlights of the performance will be the chorus of "spooks" including Gerry Cockins, Patsy Bass, Marietta Grace, Faye Thompson, Margie Wetmore, Pat Moore, Dorothy Staples and others whose names have not yet been released.

USC Singers Give Assembly

Featuring the musical talents of the Madrigal Singers of the University of Southern California, a special assembly will be held next Friday during third hour in the auditorium. The program will be free to students and faculty.

The Madrigal group which contains 10 members and accompanist will be led by its director, Dr. Max T. Krone, assistant director of the School of Music at U.S.C. and nationally known composer, arranger and conductor of choral organizations.

Oratory Intramurals Open Monday

Preliminary rounds in the annual intramural oratory contest at Santa Barbara State college will open Monday, April 21, at 4:30 p.m. in Pine hall, according to announcement this week by W. Charles Redding, speech instructor.

Under the rules set up this semester, the speech will be limited to from five to 10 minutes. Subject and treatment must be original although it is not necessary to memorize the speech as in previous contests.

Winner of the intramural program will have his name engraved on the new perpetual trophy recently presented to the college.

Women Voters Elect Officers In Close Ballot

Faye Thompson Defeats Opponent in A.W.S. Race for Presidency

In the closest election in the history of Associated Women Students' balloting, incumbent Faye Thompson received a small majority of votes over her opponent Eleanor Wennerberg to emerge victorious in the presidential race Wednesday.

According to Mildred Gregory, chairman of the election board. Miriam Coombe defeated Jean Arthur for the position of first vice-president, Dorothy File won the race for second vice-president over Peggy Enyart.

OTHER VICTORS

Acting as secretary of the A.W.S. for the next two semesters will be Bernice Gill, who was victorious over Barbara Burlingame. Financial duties of the treasurer will be handled by Joan Dixon as the result of her defeat of Phyllis Atwood in Wednesday's election. Ruth Thompson was elected as councillor over her only opponent, Betty Hoelscher.

The election committee was headed by Miss Gregory who was assisted by Ruth Suggs, Raina Chancey and Dean of women, Lois M. Bennink. The report of the board reveals that 403 votes were cast in the election.

Balloting was so close that it necessitated recounts in two of the races, according to Dean Bennink.

SUCCEEDS SELF

Miss Thompson succeeds herself in office after being appointed to the presidency at the beginning of this semester to fill the office vacated by Virginia Moss who withdrew from college. Before her appointment Miss Thompson was second vice-president of A.W.S.

In her freshman year, she acted as alumna representative to the legislative council, and as a sophomore was a member of Las Espuelas, honorary women's organization. She is also a member of Alpha Theta Chi, social sorority.

Sig Alphas Name Sororities for Fashion Show

College students may anticipate the most successful fashion show of the season next Sunday when Sigma Alpha Kappa fraternity presents its fifth annual bridge-teea fashion show at Samarkand hotel at which more than 400 collegians and townspeople are expected to attend the event which this year will take on a new character, according to Gilbert McKeon, Sig Alpha president.

Shifting the scene of the affair from a private estate to the larger facilities offered by the hotel, the fraternity plans to stage a more attractive parade of fashion than ever before. In addition, new members of the seven college sororities will be honored guests during the afternoon.

Each sorority will furnish models to represent a local dress shop, with the following girls chosen: Gamma Delta Chi, modeling for Goldstein's, Edith Bell and Elinor Murphy; Delta Sigma Epsilon, modeling for I. Magnin's, Mary Lee Lynch, Barbara Gearhart, Alice Munneke and Helen Spurrier; Sigma Delta Phi, modeling for The Hughes, Frances Doubeck, Miriam Kircher and Ruth Thompson; Alpha Theta Chi, modeling for Firestone's, Marietta Grace, Pauline Hayes, Christy Ann Williams and Mary Jane McCaughey.

Theta Alpha Phi Initiates Three

Informal initiation of Theta Alpha Phi, honorary dramatics fraternity, was held Tuesday night in the A.W.S. club room with Jack Thompson, president, leading the meet.

Pledges of the society are Bob Gwynn, Clara Roy and Marion Hammond. Formal initiation will take place May 28.

Political Aspirants Begin Campaigning for Offices As Election Days Near

Vice-president Bernice Shedd Announces Dates for Constitution Examination, Posts Petitions; Eckles, McKeon, Widman Vie

With mid-term examinations and Easter vacation adequately taken care of, Santa Barbara State college students now turn their efforts toward selecting a crew of student legislators to serve during the year 1941-42.

BERNICE SHEDD, Associated students vice-president conducts constitutional examinations today and Monday for prospective candidates for student body offices.

Speech Groups Plan Annual Money Grant

From the proceeds of their mock debate and play program, Theta Alpha Phi and Tau Kappa Alpha are establishing a scholarship gift fund for upper division students outstanding in the field of speech to be awarded October 1 and March 1 annually.

The fund will be administered by a committee composed of the faculty advisers of each of the honoraries, namely Frederic W. Hile and W. Charles Redding; an elected member at large from each of the fraternities and Dr. John C. Snidecor, director of the speech clinic.

The scholarship will be a gift of $25 to be given to as many students as possible or as many as the committee sees fit.

Any fraction of $25 remaining will be carried over to the next semester, but in the meantime, it may be loaned at the discretion of the committee.

Applications will be received by Hile on and after Thursday, May 15. The applicant must have a straight accumulative B average including a B average in speech; be outstanding in the field of speech; be either a speech major or minor; be an upper classman and must have attended this college for at least one semester.

All other points will be left to the discretion of the committee.

Choral Group Enters Contest

Participating as a contestant in the annual All-Southern California Glee club festival contest which this year will take place at the University of Redlands, the State college Women's Glee club leave tomorrow morning by bus for the competition which will take place in the evening.

The glee club of 30 members and director Van A. Christy, music department head, will be feted along with other Southern California college choral groups with a banquet and formal dance to be given by the Redland hosts.

Contest numbers for the competition in which cups are awarded to first and second place winners include "Lullaby" by Gustave Ferrari and "Song of Thanksgiving" by Joseph Haydn. The special number to be presented by the group is "Love is a Sickness of Woes" by Vene.

Combined Groups Present Musicale

An instrumental and orchestral evening featuring the college orchestra, woodwind quintet, string quartet and the brass choir will take place on Tuesday evening, April 29 at 8:30 in the auditorium. The groups will be led by Maurice Faulkner, music department instructor. The concert will be free to students and townspeople.

Featured with the orchestra will be Dee Jessen, mezzo soprano soloist in Schubert and Franz selections. The orchestra program includes a Hadyn Symphony, and "Prelude from L'Arlesienne Suite" by Bizet.

First official warning of the approaching campaign came yesterday with the posting of petitions by Bernice Shedd, vice-president of the Associated students, who, in that capacity, will supervise elections.

CONSTITUTION EXAM

Examination on the State college student constitution will be given today and Monday at 4 p.m. in room 80, Pine hall, according to Miss Shedd, and it is necessary that prospective candidates pass this test before they be allowed to campaign for their desired offices.

Already voicing intentions of running for the office of Associated students president are Howard Eckles, Gamma Sigma Pi, Gilbert McKeon, Sigma Alpha Kappa and Jim Widman, Beta Sigma Chi. Unofficial campaigns have already begun for these men and this spirit on the part of their supporters gives promise of a close and hotly-contested election.

Upon conclusion of this requirement, candidates will be given additional petitions which are to be circulated on campus. These and the petitions posted on the administration building bulletin board must bear the signatures of 10 per cent of the student body before the political aspirant will be allowed to compete.

The constitution examination, Miss Shedd warned, will include questions on the personnel of the student council, standing committees, methods for amending the constitution and by-laws and the words of the State college Alma Mater.

ELECTION ASSEMBLY

A special student body assembly will be held Tuesday, fourth hour in the college auditorium at which time candidates will be nominated and presented to those assembled. Speeches will be given by candidates for the offices of president, vice-president, secretary and yell leader and their nominators.

It is noted by Miss Shedd that these speeches must not exceed three minutes each, due to the anticipated large number of candidates and the shortage of time. Persons desiring to be class representatives to the legislative council will be introduced by the chairman of the assembly.

Primary balloting will take place Friday, April 25 with run-offs, if necessary, scheduled for Monday, April 28. Members of the election board who will assist Miss Shedd in conducting the election and counting of ballots are Jack Richards, president of the associated students, Patsy Eaves, sophomore representative to the council, Willard May, El Gaucho editor and Pat Kelly, student at large.

State Leads Health Field

Santa Barbara State college is "well ahead of the field" in health education, according to Theo "Spud" Harder and Terry H. Dearborn, faculty members recently returned from the annual convention of the California Association for health, physical education and recreation at Fresno.

Noticeably outstanding is the emphasis given by the local department upon the health of students and a realization of the need for more adequate training of teachers in hygiene.

This was brought to the fore by the recent approval of a minor in health education for elementary and junior high school teachers by the college's department of health and physical education.

During the Fresno convention, Dearborn was appointed chairman of the physical education section of the Santa Barbara branch of the association.

La Cumbre Photo Deadline Set for Friday

Despite the Whiskerino and the last minute rush for appointments, no pictures will be taken for La Cumbre, College yearbook after next Friday, according to Syd Cohen, editor.

Although the majority of appointments had been scheduled, students and faculty members who have not been contacted can schedule appointments at the table in the Quad today and the early part of next week.

All portraits are being made in the new campus photographic studio located in the old industrial education building. In case of a broken appointment, the studio should be notified and a re-appointment made.

Sorority Pledges Relax As Hell Night Concludes Weeks of Subservience

Alpha Thete Audrey Lockard Announces Engagement; Phi Kappa Gamma Members Pass Chocolates in Token of Marriages

"Hell Night" tonight will keep pledges of the campus sororities awake and walking as active members exert their last bit of authority over the "lowly ones" before they rise to the high level of their active sisters. Formal initiation of pledges into membership will conclude the pledgship period Sunday.

Last Monday Pan-Hellenic association sponsored the annual picnic at Oak Park at which time each pledge group presented a short play for the active members of all the sororities. Following the picnic each organization adjourned to its separate business meeting.

ALPHA THETA CHI

Completion of plans for Hell week and formal initiation comprised the main business of Alpha Theta Chi when the members met Monday night at the sorority house. Initiation will precede a luncheon at the Miramar hotel Sunday from which members and their guests will go to the Samarkand hotel for the tea dance which is being sponsored by the alumni chapter of the organization.

The public is invited to this tea dance from 4 until 7 p.m. with Harry Chanson's orchestra furnishing the music. Admission is 35 cents per person.

Pauline Hayes, Marietta Grace, Virginia Alderson and Mary Jane McCaughey will be Alpha Theta Chi's models in the Sigma Alpha Kappa fashion show.

Audrey Lockard passed the traditional box of chocolates to announce her engagement and marriage which tomorrow night is to Richard Meich.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON

That Mar Monte hotel would be the scene of their formal initiation dinner was decided at Monday night's meeting of Delta Sigma Epsilon at the sorority house. Plans for a Mothers' Day celebration and Homecoming breakfast were discussed and Helen Spurrier will be in charge of both affairs.

Chosen to represent the sorority in the fraternity fashion show are Barbara Gearhart, Mary Lee Lynch, Alice Munneke and Miss Spurrier.

DELTA ZETA DELTA

Announcement of the twentieth semi-annual fashion show and supper dance was made at the meeting of Delta Zeta Delta held Monday night at the home of Dorothy Staples, 805 West Valerio. The event is to be presented Thursday, May 1 at El Paseo with supper being served at 7 p.m. The affair is sponsored by the local alumni chapter.

Plans to combine the Mothers' Day and Homecoming celebrations were formulated since both occasions fall on the same week-end.

Formal initiation of pledges will be held at 3 p.m. Sunday at the home of Alice Freeman, 1314 Alameda Padre Serra. Hell week activities were discussed and the schedule of events for the week was announced.

Betsy Talbot, Dorothy Staples, Virginia Wait and Georgia Mae Krebs were selected to represent Delta Zeta Delta in the fraternity fashion show.

GAMMA DELTA CHI

Gamma Delta Chi met Monday night after the Pan-Hellenic picnic at the sorority house to discuss Hell week activities. Plans for Hell night were presented by Lucille Wetterauer, pledge captain.

Formal initiation of pledges will be held Sunday at 3 p.m. at El Encanto hotel and will be followed by high tea.

Breakfast will be served tomorrow morning after Hell night antics are over.

PHI KAPPA GAMMA

Emeline Baker passed a box of chocolates Monday night at the meeting of Phi Kappa Gamma at the sorority house to announce her marriage to Allan Frick. The young couple were married in Mexicali December 1, 1940. Frick graduated from Santa Barbara State college in February, 1941, and his wife is a junior student now.

Members of the sorority attended the wedding of one of their sisters, Mary Finney, to Arthur Kitchen, Jr. in Pomona during Easter vacation. Also a holiday highlight was a luncheon given by Dolly Randall, alumna of Phi Kappa Gamma, at her home in Ontario Saturday, April 12.

TAU GAMMA SIGMA

Selection of Natalie Barton and Donna Lambert to act as models in the fraternity fashion show comprised the main business of a short meeting of Tau Gamma Sigma held Monday night at the home of Phyllis Johnson, 1725 Grand avenue.

The pledges were hostesses to activities at a theater party Tuesday night.

SIGMA DELTA PHI

Meeting of Sigma Delta Phi scheduled for Monday night was cancelled because pledges failed to attend. Tuesday night members gathered to complete plans for Hell night.

Women Schedule Annual Play Day

Plans for the annual play day to be held on State college campus on April 26 were completed last night when the Women's Athletic association held a general meeting at the Alpha Theta Chi house with President Jane Wood as hostess.

Chenoweth Calls for Records As Employers Flood Placement Bureau with Early Requests

Work of the Placement bureau is being hampered by the slow return of records and information by prospective June graduates, according to Lawrence E. Chenoweth, director. In addition to recommendations from various sources, the applicant is required to furnish much data for the inspection of employers. It is this data which is still lacking in the office where nearly 200 records are being rapidly prepared.

EARLY REQUESTS

"Calls for our candidates have come in earlier than usual," stated Director Chenoweth. He attributed this to the theory that perhaps the world tempo has increased the time beat in California, and demands for recommendations have come in ahead of scheduled reports regularly filed by those who have to do with newly trained teachers.

Several June graduates have been placed in positions already, and the indications are that the men and women who will receive their degrees in June will find ready welcome in the schoolrooms of the country.

FEAR CONSCRIPTION

Biggest anxiety of employers, said Chenoweth, seems to be over the possibility of newly employed men teachers being taken for defensive service. No one seems to have the answer to this, so all graduates are being urged to go forward with their plans and let time dispose of particular situations.

Gamma Sigma Pi Turns Tables by Entertaining Pledges at Monday Meet

Pledging activities and plans for the annual inter-fraternity formal occupied the attention of fraternity men during the past week and various other spring events have, for a time, been holding relatively minor interest.

BETA SIGMA CHI

Plans for their May 3 formal to be held at La Cumbre Country club and the annual barbecue to be held later in the semester were discussed at the Monday night meeting of Beta Sigma Chi. A large turnout for the inter-fraternity formal was urged and plans were made for the A. M. S. election. Pledges were dealt with in usual Hell week style after the meeting.

GAMMA SIGMA PI

Gamma Sigma Pi met at the fraternity house to make final plans for the annual formal to be held May 23 at the Samarkand hotel. A picnic to follow a morning of work on the grounds of the fraternity house was also discussed.

After a short discussion on the homecoming in May, the rest of the evening was devoted to pledge activities to mark the beginning of Hell week.

OMEGA RHO GAMMA

A party which will be held at the home of Pat Burdick, Bob Calloway and Ed Doris, 304 East Arrellaga, tomorrow night before the student body dance was planned at the last meeting of Omega Rho Gamma which was held at the Cabrillo pavillion Monday night.

Joe Blake and George Stepanian are in charge of an open house and buffet luncheon to be held in May by the fraternity. Members of the faculty and student body will be invited.

Work has been started on a fraternity pin and members with ideas for it are urged to submit them to Ed Doris. It was announced by Syd Cohen, president, that Omega Rho Gamma members will be hosts at the student body dance tomorrow night.

SIGMA ALPHA KAPPA

The Sig Alpha fashion show to be held Sunday, April 27 at Samarkand hotel was discussed and tickets were distributed among the members at the Monday night meeting of the fraternity. Alumni members Harry Sloan and Bill Lambourne attended the meeting. Although the pledges ditched, they were hunted down by regular members.

TAU OMEGA

Dressed as girls, pledges of the Tau Omega entertained passers-by on State street with songs and dances, after which they set out on an Easter egg hunt Monday night. The fraternity met Wednesday night at Oak park and held further pledge activities. Tonight the regular members will be given a ham dinner in the college cafeteria by the pledges.

Inter-fraternity Council Plans Annual Formal

Doug Hoag's Orchestra Plays; Delegates Select Samarkand Jade Room

Samarkand hotel will be the scene of the annual inter-fraternity formal sponsored by the Inter-fraternity council Friday, April 26 when men from all five of the campus social fraternities and their guests will gather in the Jade room for dancing between 9 p.m. and midnight.

The inter-fraternity formal is an annual affair given by the Inter-fraternity council to maintain good relations between the social fraternities on this campus.

Doug Hoag and his orchestra will furnish the music for the dance which is open to all fraternity men and fraternity sponsors. Price of bids has been set at $1 per couple.

In charge of the dance will be the Inter-fraternity council which is composed of two representatives from each fraternity. Under the direction of the council, representatives of various fraternities will handle the arrangements for the dance.

Gamma Sigma Pi will be in charge of the punch, Tau Omega will be in charge of programs and Sigma Alpha Kappa has secured the orchestra and hall.

According to Walter Ziegler, president of the inter-fraternity council, over 100 couples will attend the dance.

Jack Richards is vice-president of the council with Harry Wollin, secretary; Walt Kilroy, treasurer, as officers. Other members of the council include Fred Baer, Don Estey, Howard Karjala, Syd Cohen and Stan Wauchope.

Six Hits Nine Moves Into League Lead

Six Hits and a Mess squeezed two tallies across the plate on two hits to drop the I.E. team and its invincible chucker, Stan Burne from the undefeated list in intramural softball play Wednesday. Four errors spelled defeat for the industrial lads. Sabu Caudillo kept four blows well scattered to shut out the opposition in the five frames played.

Heavy artillery boomed for the Dirty 7s who overran the Omega Rho lads 13 to 5. Bob Sherman for the 7s chucked steady ball. Omega Rho flingers Hahn and Dillon gave up 6 free passes in aiding the 7s' cause.

Tuesday's play saw the Host clubbers climb all over the Gamma Sigs, 12 to 2. Rogers proved a new mound find for the Hosts. Rodgers and Adams garnered three for three in the mauling. Rider collected two for three for the Gamma Sigs.

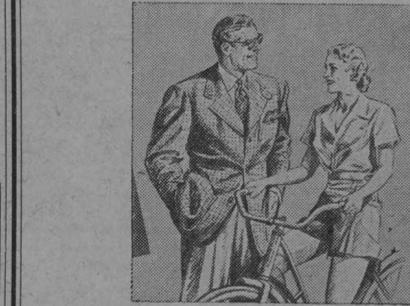

The Beta Sigs took a forfeit from Sig Alphas in the other Tuesday contest.

Gauchos, Spartans Open 2C2A Track Season Tomorrow

Santa Barbara Baseball Squad Tangles with Loop-Leading Bulldogs

Green and White Horsehidiers Trail in Conference Play with Three Losses; Wrightson Hurls Opening Game Monday

An opportunity for revenge will be handed Coach Spud Harder's Gaucho horsehidiers next Monday and Tuesday, when the third place locals hook up with Fresno State, current leaders of the California Collegiate Athletic association baseball race in a two game series to be played at Cabrillo Park.

The Gauchos, last year's 2C2A Champions, now find themselves fighting to regain position of first place, a feat that was quite easy for them during their 1940 campaigns.

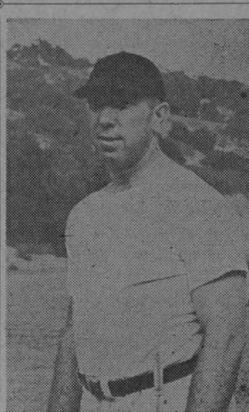

However, now the Staters already have three defeats chalked up against them, one more than they experienced in conference games last year. At least a split in this series is necessary if the Gauchos are to make a bid for first place honors.

Pitchers Nick Petropoulos, all-conference hurler, and Flynn each defeated the locals once during their trip up North by scores of 8-0 and 7-3. However, Bus Bachtelle, the Bulldogs' number one hurler, will probably get the call over his two teammates in Monday's fracas. Steady Finlay Upton will probably get the call to catch both contests.

The rest of the team will line up as follows: Charlie Rudolph, first base; Chet Steinhauer, second base; Ernie Poore, all conference football player, third base; Roy Taylor, short stop; Karl Tashjian, Oliver Bidwell, and Petropoulos or Bachtelle, outfielders.

Mentor Harder's lads, tired after their 10 day Easter trip, will be given a chance to rest this week end as they have no scheduled games lined up. Pitchers Bill Adamson and Cliff Wrightson found it rather an arduous task pitching the last Fresno series, both having pitched in double headers the two days previous to the Bulldog series.

The much needed rest that they will receive before the coming two game series will undoubtedly bolster the chances of the Gauchos once again climbing to the top bracket of the 2C2A campaign.

COACH SPUD HARDER leads his 1940 2C2A horsehide champions into action next week against Fresno, present loop leaders.

Gymnasts Meet Santa Paula

Coach Elmer Noble's California Collegiate Athletic association gymnastic champions hook up in their first meet since winning the title at San Jose when it meets the Santa Paula High school gymnasts tonight at 7 in the State college gymnasium. Pacing the Gaucho's attack will be Captain Bus Brown, rated as the best gymnast in the 2C2A by dint of his fine efforts in leading the Gauchos to their first conference championship.

Entries for the meet are Bus Brown, rope climb; Don Gill, free exercise; Milan Davidson, long horse; Edwin Woody and Jim Teeter, parallel bars; Harry Berlin, mats; Art Steiner, rings and Brown, all around.

Spike Squad Preps for Spartan Meet

Bess Rips off Fast Dash in Tuneup For 2C2A Opener

Used primarily as a practice meet in preparation for tomorrow's California Collegiate Athletic Association track opener against San Jose State college, the Santa Barbara Rambler track squad held a non-scoring affair with Ventura Junior college yesterday afternoon at La Playa field with several of the Gauchos turning in credible performances.

Only ineligible Hilltopper cindermen and varsity men who had not won a first place in competition this year were allowed to compete.

George Soule, diminutive two miler, bucking a stiff wind that swept the oval, showed that he was ready for the Spartans when he eased through a 4:46 mile in the opening event on the program Jerry Ferro, sophomore, finished a few paces in the rear.

Gail Squires, behemoth weightman, turned in the best effort of his life in the shot put when he hurled the iron bulb 42'8 1/2" for a first place in his favorite event. Should Squires repeat against the Spartans tomorrow he may add a couple of unlooked for points to the Gauchos' side of the ledger.

Lowell Steward, all-conference cage star and defending 2C2A high jump champion, competing for the first time this season in an unattached role, leaped 5'11 1/2" before he decided to call it quits for the day. Steward has had only one day of practice which makes his feat all the more remarkable. Patrick of the Ramblers leaped 5'9 1/2" to officially win the event.

Hovis Bess, the Green and White aggregation's sprint king, ran a tuneup 100 yard dash race in the sparkling time of 17.1s., which is the equivalent of a 21 flat furlong. Bess will run against San Jose's ace sprinter, Captain Jim Kerr, tomorrow in what should prove to be a pair of the best races on the program. Kerr has rambled the 220 in better than 22 flat and also has the best time in the conference in the quarter mile, 50.5s.

Ferro, the Gaucho's crack ineligible distance runner, came back after his second place in the mile run behind Soule to walk off with the 880 yard run in the slow time of 2:14.2. Ferro, however, was badly hampered by a wind of gale-like velocity.

Other Gaucho winners were Herdman in the 100 yard dash in 10.6s., Crocker in the 440 in 54 seconds flat, and Jack Rivers and Lyn Gheen who tied for first in the pole vault at 11'6".

Local Netters Face Spartans

Although badly handicapped by the recent rain, Coach Terry Dearborn's Gaucho tennis team will begin swinging its rackets in earnest in preparation for a heavy schedule of play beginning next Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. when it meets the San Jose State college team at the local tennis stadium.

Next Thursday and Friday will find the State college netmen well represented at the annual Ojai tournament, California's tennis classic, with CLIFF WRIGHTSON, all-conference hurler, will attempt to get the Gauchos back into the running for the 1941 baseball title as he hurls the opening game against Fresno Monday afternoon.

Mermen Meet Mustangs At Coral Casino

Santa Barbara State college's newly organized swimming team will have its second test of the season this afternoon when it meets a strong California Polytechnic school team at the Coral Casino.

Although the Gauchos have been considerably handicapped in their training by inclement weather conditions, they should garner a considerable number of points from the more experienced Mustangs from San Luis Obispo, according to Coach Terry Dearborn, who is relying heavily on Atlee Clapp in the breaststroke and W. A. Robertson Jr. and Eugene Stevenson in the sprints.

Frank Banks, Herb Evans and Myron Sturmer will carry the backstroke assignments with Evans doubling up with Kenneth Roberts and Jack Clarke in the distance free style events.

Roland Groom and Dick Clive are entered in the short sprints and John Park will support Clapp in the breaststroke. Kelly Hopmans will carry the diving load for the Gauchos.

Additional interest will be given the meet through the medium of a diving exhibition by two of State college's graceful experts of the three meter board, coeds Maxin Roberts and Phyllis Atwood, in their initial local appearance.

Because the Coral Casino is a private club, Friday's meet will not be open either to students or townspeople, announced Coach Dearborn.

five players entered in four events by Coach Dearborn.

Mike Koury will enter the inter-collegiate singles, Koury and Ed Doty are entered in the intercollegiate doubles, Bob McCampbell will try for the Freshmen singles event, and Lorenzo Dall'Armi and Eddie Allen will enter the freshman doubles competition.

Last year Allen, along with Irving Parker of the local high school, won the boys' interscholastic doubles championship.

Baseball Nine Drops Three League Games

Locals Win Seven Clashes in Easter Vacation Series

Seven straight wins, then three straight losses—that was the record compiled by the Santa Barbara State Gauchos upon the completion of their 10 day trip through and around Northern California where they attempted to jump into an early lead in the 1941 2C2A baseball race. Instead, the locals received a setback and now find themselves holding on to a third position by virtue of their consecutive defeats at the hands of the San Jose Spartans and the Fresno Bulldogs.

Coach Spud Harder's charges were riding on the crest of eleven straight victories before they were dropped from their pedestal atop the conference standings by a rejuvenated San Jose outfit in the second game of their double header to the tune of 8-0. In the first tilt, the Gauchos managed to eke out a 1-0 victory when diminutive Eddie Markham stole home when an attempted squeeze play failed to materialize.

The Green and White was shoved further down the 2C2A standings in its next two tilts when it was defeated by a gang of Fresno Bulldogs, 7-3 and 8-2. These wins put the fast moving Fresno team atop the standings and definitely establishes them as the team to beat.

In the second game, Bud Tyerman, Gaucho outfielder, blasted out a home run out to no avail, as pitcher Nick Petropoulos had the Gauchos well in hand.

In the remainder of their games the Gauchos downed the Cal Aggies twice, 12-1 and 4-3, and defeated a San Francisco State team in three games, 5-3, 7-2, and 7-4.

Gaucho Merman Places in Meet

Santa Barbara State college's versatile swimmer, Atlee Clapp, cut his Easter vacation short to enter the Southern Pacific A.A.U. swimming and diving championship meet held last Saturday evening at Santa Maria. Clapp, who was the only Gaucho entry in the meet, placed fourth in the 300 yards individual medley event.

Hovis Bess Hooks up in Track Duel With Spartan Captain Jim Kerr in 440; Heinberg Looms up as Double Winner

Held at bay for six weeks because of inclement weather, Coach Nick Carter's impatient band of trackmen make their initial appearance of the season tomorrow afternoon when they open the 2C2A cinderpath campaign against the strong San Jose State college Spartans in La Playa field's dedicatory meet. The affair is scheduled

ST DEO PWN
By GEORGE STEPANIAN

Sensing the approach of the semester's end, athletics at State go into full blast this weekend as practically every spring semester sport has an engagement of one sort or another.

Paramount on the list of Gaucho events is the initial 2C2A track meet of the season tomorrow afternoon against San Jose, dedicating La Playa track. After being rained out of 11 consecutive meets, Coach Nick Carter is highly optimistic that the weather elements will take it easy on him this week.

Monday and Tuesday afternoons at Cabrillo field, Coach Spud Harder's defending championship nine makes a last ditch stand to protect its 2C2A crown. Two games behind the high-flying Bulldogs, the Hilltoppers must take both tilts to remain in the running for this year's title.

The Green and White tennis squad also undertakes an ambitious schedule for the next week, hooking up with the strong University of Redlands netters Saturday afternoon and then competing in the Ojai tournament Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of next week. The Gauchos and Bulldogs have met once before with Redlands taking the decision.

In the swimming field, Coach Terry Dearborn's natators meet a classy Cal Poly aggregation Friday afternoon at the exclusive Coral Casino pool. The Mustangs boast of one of their finest teams and are favored to thump the local mermen.

to start at 1 p.m. Although Santa Barbara is at a disadvantage in experience, the Spartans already having had meets against Stanford university and Fresno State while the Gauchos have as yet to hold their first meet, the affair is rated strictly as a toss up.

In an effort to gain some extra points, Carter is planning on using Hovis Bess, 2C2A sprint king, in the 440 yard run instead of the 100 yard dash. San Jose is strong in the quarter mile with a pair of 50 flat performers in Jim Kerr and John Sedell but on the other hand is woefully weak in the century with no one on the squad capable of breaking 10 flat.

The Prune city aggregation's main strength lies in the middle distance and distance runs and broad jump and high jump while it is vulnerable in the sprints and weights.

BESS-KERR DUO
Best event of the day appears to be 440 yard run when Bess hooks up with Captain Kerr of the Spartans. Kerr, who placed second in the conference last year, is capable of hitting 49.5s while Bess has done 49 flat.

Other events which should prove close are the mile and two mile runs. San Jose has as its best bet in the mile diminutive Al Ornelas, LACC transfer, who has hit 4:48 and succeeded in taking third place against Stanford university last week. Giles Liegerot, with a best time of 4:50, will be the Gaucho's main threat against Ornelas.

In the two-mile Kerney Siegler and Ornelas will compete for the Spartans, both of whom have hit close to 10 minutes in the event, with George Soule, who holds the school record at 10:15, as the local's chief opposition.

The half mile is a wide open affair with all the contestants an unknown quantity. Jack Coleman is the northerner's best half miler. Dan Logan has run the best for the Green and White with Al Rich, transfer from Riverside Junior college, also showing to advantage.

Cloes duels are promised in the broadjump, high jump and pole vault. The Spartans main threat in each event is Edwin Schneider, 13 foot vaulter; Roger Romines, 6, 1' high jumper, and Sat Yamamoto, 22 foot broad jumper. All three hail from Salinas Junior college.

It all adds up to this . . .

Just for fun

It's election time again. Every other student turns into a politician, promises are made easier than selling wood to a termite and hold less water than a cheese-cloth Dixie cup.

One thing though. You won't see any high pressuring around here. There isn't any campaigning nearer than one and a half centimeters from the polls, and black-jacks are carried only at noon and before 8 a.m.

Walking through the quad on election day is more dangerous than fighting a grizzly bear with a buggy whip. Zealous campaigners are liable to mistake you for someone who hasn't voted and tear you apart like a five cent hammock, then drag you off to the polls in all directions.

One fellow got so confused he stamped the back of his hand, stuffed it in the box, scratched his head with the ballot, and went to lab for the first time in three weeks.

Made a vow a few weeks ago that I wouldn't mention the war any more because certain readers felt that there were many other things more interesting to write about.

Well, I dunno, the war might not be interesting, but Bedell is more gruesome. Anyway, he's more something.

It's too bad they stopped making horror pictures. I can just see Lugosi, Karloff, Lorre, Bedell and one of his neckties all starred in a super chiller diller.

Lew is okay. And everybody is out of step but Johnny.

They say he's transferring to U.S.C. The University of Southern Camarillo. At least he got a new beige straight-jacket for Easter.

Lew will make his theatrical debut in "What's Cookin'?", 1941 edition of the Roadrunner Revue. He's gonna be a ghost. They say he's thinking seriously of taking up public spookin'.

'For Collegians Only' Rates Acclaim As Radio Program

Full of comedy and music, "For Collegians Only," produced every Saturday morning at eight-thirty by State college students over KDB, is a show well worth listening to. If any of you are lucky enough to still be in bed on Saturday mornings, you'd find that a full hours entertainment is yours just by turning over and flicking the radio button.

"For Collegians Only" was the brain-child of Archie McPhail, master of ceremonies for the program, and he has worked it up into a real show. He has such well-known campus talent as Helen Poist, Marjorie Larsen, Bob Sleeth, Toni Bargetz and Vernon Sylva on musical numbers. Willie May, El Gaucho editor, gives short news reports on college events and sports with Leigh Silliphant telling the lowdown on campus characters in his gossipy Yahoo Yehudi.

The whole program is completely organized, directed, and produced by college students. There are personality sketches written by Bert Marshall, who writes all of the script, and descriptions of especially interesting activities, such as the horseback riding class.

Leigh Silliphant picks out for every program one man and one woman on campus that could be called the "man" or "woman of the week" and gives a short word-portrait of them. Kay Henry does all of the piano accompanying plus solos.

This is the eighth week these kids have been on the air and they have prospects of turning it into a breakfast club at one of the local restaurants.

It's "For Collegians Only," KDB, Saturday morning from eight-thirty until nine-thirty, one full hour of swing and fun with a good bunch of college students. Over this program you can hear announcements of all of the coming events on campus, personality sketches of your friends, news of what has been happening in sports, and special features each week.

There is a need, though, for more talent, for the kind of talent that shows up in the Roadrunner Revue tryouts and in the music and speech departments. Anyone interested in working on the program can get an audition by seeing Archie McPhail.—H.S.

ROADRUNNER REVUE

CURTAIN CALLS

By Harry Stewart

Watching the rehearsals for "What's Cookin'?" is like reviewing a Camarillo senior play. It's fun to notice the tension in the air as each of the campus comics tries to outdo the other. With so many wits in the group the rehearsals are funnier than the script calls for, which promises to make this the best of all the Roadrunner Revues so far produced.

Jimmy Henry has turned in two excellent songs that are expected to be published soon. They should hit the Hit Parade for a home run. One, "You're So Distant to Me", is about the sweetest tune I've heard in a long time. Another that he just finished a couple of days ago I think will be the surprise hit of the show. It's exceptional. Bert Fitzpatrick is work-sweet, it's tuneful, and the lyrics are in on several songs now that give lots of promise. They'll be designed especially to fit the show.

The production this year marks the tenth anniversary of the Revue. It was begun in 1931 to raise money for the yearbook, La Cumbre. Judging from the rehearsals I've seen of "What's Cookin'?", those other shows are likely to be laid in the dust. Mattson proudly admits that it will be stupendous, colossal, magnificent, and so on ad infinitum, ad nauseum.

It's quite a job to prepare a show of this kind. First of all the theme

❖ ❖ From the Shoulder

BY THE EDITOR

Hearing the inevitable . . .

news last night that the Yugoslavian forces had been subdued in an orderly and decisive manner by the legions at the command of Herr Hitler, caused us to reach for our loose pennies and wait for the plea for Yugoslavian relief which is sure to come any day now.

Why is it that the American people are content to continue, year after year, to have their pocketbooks drained to the last drops for the benefit of some nation which has gambled and lost?

We don't recall ever reading or hearing of any campaigns being carried on in South America or China or Russia to send clothes or money or food to warring nations. But in the United States, the donation to foreign peoples has become as much a part of everyday life as winding the clock and putting out the cat.

Not so long ago, we were being solicited to aid refugees of the revolution in Spain. Then came the plea for funds and food for Chinese evacuees, followed by huge donations and benefits to the people of confused France. So on it went, with the typical band-playing and speech-making; but rather than dying out, it became only stronger and more insistent as the hapless Finns offered an excuse for bleeding the Americans again.

It might be argued . . .

facetiously that this constant stream of requests makes things easier for the American wage-earner who can claim exemptions for charity on his income tax report, but we think the contributors are beginning to wonder just what material good is coming of this "good heartedness."

Of course, our attention for the past year has been turned to a campaign to do everything from feeding the hungry citizens of England to fighting their battle for them. The latter donation is being carried on by the legislators in the nation's capitol and has become almost beyond the control of the average "man on the street."

Of course, the situation with the Greeks is somewhat different—it hasn't been going on for so long.

And so we now cast our glassy eyes in the direction of the next Good Samaritan who will, this time, cook up some reason for sending a little more assistance to the Hitlerized Slavs.

We don't consider . . .

our attitude toward these pleas as un-American—in fact, we think a much more American cause would be the rehabilitation of the unfortunate people of our own nation. To bring the case closer to home, we can very easily see a great deal of benefit being derived from a campaign to remedy the housing situation in Santa Barbara.

Or why not campaign for contributions to better the conditions of the Southern Sharecropper or the Dust Bowl farmer or the itinerant workers in California? Personally, we'd derive a lot more satisfaction from knowing that our contribution was being used to make life a little more livable for a citizen of this country, whether native or foreign-born.

Editorially Speaking . . .

Unified Western Hemisphere Is Only Hope For Democracy

Daily scanning of the newspapers reveals that the Gods of war are still pouring buckets of lead down the throats of one-time European democracies. Europe is gradually sinking into an abyssal chasm of blackness unlike any other dark age in history, and we in America are being hospitably invited to come over and join in the fun.

Steeped in an age old European culture our eyes have been turned ever towards the old world. Interests, economic and social, have fostered the knots which were tied when the people of a sick Europe migrated to this country to find freedom and succor from religious and other tyrannies.

However, we in this country are coming to recognize the importance of a new culture and a new background. Pan-Americanism, once a phrase denoting a utopian hope for friendly relations between nations of the western hemisphere, has assumed concrete form.

Far-sighted diplomats have been aware for many years of the value in forming good-neighbor bonds with the nations to the south of us. Through conferences many barriers obstructing the foundation of such policies have been overcome.

Such a unification of the western hemisphere is essential if a repetition of the European blitzkrieg is to be prevented. Emphasis should be and is being placed more and more on the loyalty of twenty-two republics, all striving toward the mecca of democracy and free thought as contrasted with bondage festering hatred, and the barbaric cruelty which is running rampant in Europe.

Let it be hoped that the Western hemisphere may be kept free of the taints of Hitlerism as a bulwark to the Medievalism of Europe.—N.S.

'Cash and Carry' Now Means Using U. S. Money and Ships

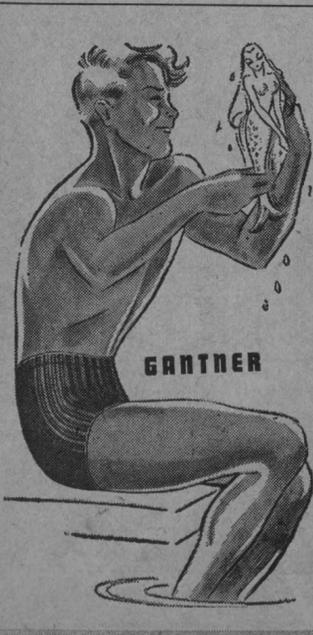

The manner in which U. S. aid "short of war" has gone slithering along to actual participation in Europe's fiasco is becoming more and more alarming to those individuals who really meant "short of war" when they said it.

A year ago it was cash and carry: England's cash and England's carry. The lend-lease bill transformed the first part to America's cash, a necessary step and one, per se, that would only place on America's shoulders a fair share of the cost of protection.

But the next step, now subtly being approached, is that episode which will see America doing the carrying; in plain words, transport, convoy, sinkings, then war.

It is the sinister way in which we move in small, sure steps toward the brink of war that is disastrous. Each event in itself seems relatively safe. Put together, they shock many of those who support them individually.

We want England to win for many reasons, but the chief is the selfish one of our own protection. Only if we at present could cope with a Hitler better in Europe than we will be able to in the future in this hemisphere would our participation be justified. The American people are obviously against this participation as they have shown in polls and general attitude.—L. G.
