Seeing all this work makes me feel like we hadn't been sitting on our lazy asses all this time. It just seemed that way. Sadly, I'm coming up on my last quarter at the Nexus, so in the event that I don't have the chance to speak out some time in the spring, I'll say my good byes now... Thank you reader people, for supporting the illustrators all these years. I was lucky to have the opportunity to work with the best and most talented college newspaper illustration staff in the nation and I look forward to my final months here. Now, in order to keep myself from getting sentimental on your ass, I decided to write the word 'ass'. In fact, I wrote it three times. Thanks again for a great three and a half years. It's been fun drawing for you guys.

your Daily HOROSCOPE

by Linda C. Black

To get the advantage, check the day's rating: 10 is the easiest day, 0 the most challenging.

Aries (March 21-April 19) — Today is a 6 — Something you've worried about should clear up, soon. You don't need to take action yet; watch and wait a little longer. You may learn quite a bit if you listen, too. Somebody may have been trying to tell you something.

Taurus (April 20-May 20) — Today is an 8 — You finally should get answers to some of your questions. The confusion around a group activity should clear up, too. You're finding the puzzle pieces that have been hidden. And, that's partly because you're persistent! Congratulations!

Gemini (May 21-June 21) — Today is a 6 — You may have to make a few phone calls or send out a few resumes, but the money's there. Don't wait for it to come to you; go and get it! A door that was closed will be opened if you knock again. Somebody who wasn't listening before will be more interested now.

Cancer (June 22-July 22) — Today is an 8 — You're luckier in love, travel and your relationships with almost everybody. You might notice that it's easier to get your message across. Truth is, you're getting smarter, too. So, why not take on a challenge? You're up for it.

Leo (July 23-Aug. 22) — Today is a 5 — A financial situation you've been worrying about should get easier soon. Work's still required, on your part, however. Don't forget about it yet. If you stay on top of the situation, you can make a good deal. Pay attention.

Virgo (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) — Today is an 8 — You and somebody else have been going around and around, almost in agreement but not quite. You're just about to see eye to eye. An objective third person helps, but it's your willingness to compromise that does the trick.

Libra (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) — Today is a 7 — If you hide away, you might get a lot accomplished. Your muse is about to check back in, after taking a little vacation. Set up an environment where you won't be disturbed and you can get a lot of creative work done over the next few days.

Scorpio (Oct. 24-Nov. 21) — Today is a 9 — You're on a roll. Your intuition is right on target, and your intellect is working well, too. You're even lucky in love! Don't waste this day cuddling, even though you could. Push yourself and go farther than you've gone before.

Sagittarius (Nov. 22-Dec. 21) — Today is a 6 — You're in the spotlight, so stand up straight. Others may be wondering if you can handle a tough assignment. This won't be easy, but it will be good for you, and them, too. Stop worrying and decide you're the right person for the job.

Capricorn (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) — Today is an 8 — A stalled project is about to be propelled forward. You and your partner have finally decided what needs to happen next, for one thing. And, for another, you'll find what you've been looking for. Celebrate with a special treat tonight.

Aquarius (Jan. 20-Feb. 18) — Today is a 6 — A financial problem should be over soon. The money's about to flow your way, again. It may be hard to ask, but give it one more try. If you've been doing the work, you might as well get top dollar. Watch for another source of revenue, too.

Pisces (Feb. 19-March 20) — Today is an 8 — Self-doubts should start to fade. Believe the folks who love you and who say that you're wonderful. It's the truth! It's not cheating to know you're a kind-hearted soul, who'd do anything for a friend. Let go of worries and prosper.

Today's Birthday (March 14). You're almost finished pondering the past. Now, it's almost time to take action. Resolve nagging doubts in March by asking leading questions. Spend on your own education in April, and then get your money's worth in May. New skills lead to new opportunities. Romance blossoms around July, which also helps you attain a career goal. The work comes in August, and you're perfect for the job. Change into the person you've always wanted to be by December. Count your blessings in February.

Our Community is Counting on You.

United States
Census 2000

COUNTED!

The next census is April 1st!

Questionnaires will be mailed or delivered around March 15th

When you receive your Census 2000 form either in the mail or from a local Census worker, please fill it out and mail it in promptly. Your response is very important. The United States Constitution requires a count of the population every 10 years.

Your answers are completely confidential!

Federal Law (Title 13, US Code) mandates that no one outside the census bureau can ever be given any information that would enable them to connect your answers with your name and address.

Make Sure We Get Our Fair Share!

Official census counts are used to determine the number of congressional seats to which each state is entitled, and to distribute government funds to communities and states for schools, parks, student loans, senior centers, health facilities, and many other programs you and your neighbors need. Without a complete, accurate census, our community may not receive its fair share.

For additional information or if you need assistance filling out your form call the Census Bureau's Local Office at (805) 347-1275 or visit the website at www.census.gov. Para más información o si usted necesita ayuda llenando su formulario llame a su oficina local del censo al (805) 347-1275 ó en el Internet: www.census.gov.

Latke-Hamentaschen Debate

Ever since the days of when Queen Esther vanquished the evil Hamen and his henchpersons, we have gathered to debate which of the primary Jewish comestibles, the potato pancake, or the Latke, or the Jewish poppy-seed Danish, the Hamentasch, should reign supreme as the most delectable and digestible of foods. This year, we will gather around the topic:

"The Power of the Potato vs. The Potency of Poppy-seeds"

THE 2537TH ANNUAL LATKE-HAMENTASCH DEBATE:

For the Hamentasch:

A Great Legal Education... and So Much More

We care about our students and it shows. We provide an outstanding legal education in a supportive, collegial atmosphere with innovative academic programs. Our three new Centers for Academic Excellence examine cutting-edge legal issues in the areas of technology and communications, globalization, and social justice. Our nationally and internationally recognized faculty bring a wealth of experience in nearly every facet of the law to the classroom. A dedicated staff, a diverse student body, and abundant extracurricular activities create a dynamic and cooperative environment for preparing future lawyers to practice in the 21st century.

- Ranked fifth in the nation for quality of on-campus life in Princeton Review's The Best Law Schools 2000
- Named best Student Bar Association in the nation at the 1999 American Bar Association annual conference
- Winning moot court and mock trial teams
- Average class has fewer than 30 students
- Generous scholarship program for entering students with average LSAT scores of 150 or higher
- Step-by-step career counseling and guidance, judicial internships, and clinical education programs
- Alumni include partners in leading law firms, numerous judges, and a member of the United States Congress

How Sweet It Is! Gauchos Win Fourth Title

By MATT HURST

Staff Writer

RENO, NV. — At first she lit the nets up, then she tore them down.

Senior point guard Stacy Clinesmith, playing for the final time on the Lawlor Events Center floor on the campus of the University of Nevada, led the #8 UCSB women's basketball team to its fourth straight Big West title in one of the best displays of offense in school history.

Clinesmith scored 36 points on 10-17 shooting (7-11 from three-point range and 9-10 from the free throw line) to lead UCSB to a 79-69 victory over Long Beach State in the final game of the Big West Tournament Saturday afternoon.

"She must like this floor a lot," UCSB Head Coach Mark French said. "I haven't seen her go off like that since the 'miracle game' [a 95-88 overtime win vs. Nevada where Clinesmith scored 34]. I should expect that from a fellow blond person."

And, when all the dust settled from the rivalry between the two schools, Clinesmith was standing there as the Big West Tournament MVP. In the three games UCSB played, the Spokane, WA. native averaged 23 points per game and 3.3 assists per game to garner the honors. And, when the traditional cutting of the nets ceremony happened, Clinesmith chopped the last piece and held up the twine. She promptly put the net around her neck and pointed to her teammates.

"It's pretty much a good cap to a good career — not that it's over yet,"

Clinesmith said.

Clinesmith was referring to the Gauchos playing in the NCAA Tournament. Sunday afternoon, UCSB found out that it will host the first two rounds of the Tourney as the #4 seed in the West. The first game will be against Rice on Saturday in the Thunderdome at 9 p.m.

It wasn't all easy going though for Santa Barbara Saturday. Long Beach was in the thick of things in the first half — even holding a lead for three minutes — and then went on a 13-0 run in the second half to bring the game within nine. But, the bottle-blond point guard wouldn't let LBSU spoil her team's season, and when the going got tough, she was there to light it up and take control back to UCSB's side.

"We didn't do a good job coming out and playing in first half," LBSU Head Coach Dallas Boychuk-Bolla said. "It's frustrating that we didn't play our best basketball, but also that's the #8 team in the country and they came out and did a good job."

In the first half, UCSB (30-3 overall, 18-0 in the Big West) jumped to a 6-0 lead, but LBSU (20-10, 14-4) caught up and took a 15-11 lead with 14:05 to play. That was when Clinesmith put on her Superwoman cape and hit a trey and then two layups in a span of two minutes to make it 19-17 in the Gauchos' favor. From there, UCSB never looked back, taking a 44-32 lead into the locker room.

UCSB then came charging out of the gates in round two and extended its lead to as much as 22 points, 54-32. Then, all of a sudden, the momentum shifted and the 49ers held UCSB scoreless for four minutes and 32 seconds to bring the game to 54-45. But, Clinesmith hit a pair of free throws and a three-pointer to make it 59-45 with 10 minutes left, and the Gauchos set the game on cruise control from there. The win extended UCSB's nation long winning streak to 26 games and its Big West dominance now stands at 51 straight games.

Seniors Kristi Rohr and Tawnée Cooper, each also playing in their final Big West game, scored 11 and seven points respectively. Rohr also pulled down eight boards, and Cooper had four. Rohr and junior Erin Buescher were named to the All-Tournament Team as well.

MATT HURST

RENO, NV. — Finally.

After winning 30 games (the most in school history), 26 straight games (the longest current streak in the nation) and 51 consecutive Big West games (my God), the #8 UCSB women's basketball team was rewarded with the #4 seed in the Western region of the NCAA Tournament.

Head Coach Mark French has built up this program from a pile of rubble to one of the cathedrals of women's basketball in the nation and it has now paid off. Now, all the Gauchos need to do is show the rest of the nation what Santa Barbara fans already know — they can win.

Sure, 30 wins is great against anyone (unless you're the Harlem Globetrotters when you're supposed to win) and although the Gauchos are in the Big West, their RPI rating (strength of schedule, etc.) is in the tops in the country. So, while the Big West knows the Gauchos can light it up and kick booty, the rest of the nation doesn't hold the same view.

"Yeah, yeah. A lot of wins vs. some not so good schools."

Time to prove that theory wrong.

The Gauchos have been to the NCAA's the past four years and have not gotten further than the second round.

Time to change that.

UCSB hosts #5 North Carolina, #12 Maine and #13 Rice, the team it faces on Saturday at 9 p.m. That game is on ESPN.

Yes, ESPN is back in the Thunderdome. Don't bring tortillas, but bring yourselves. Come be wild and crazy and support the #8 team in the nation. See great basketball get played in the NCAA Tournament. Be there and be supportive. Come and support your classmates and peers. The only way to get more TV crews into the 'Dome is to prove that we can fill the damn thing. If you want more national recognition to our school's sports, come to these games and show the rest of the country that Santa Barbara has some of the best fans around.

Also ESPN will feature the team Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. ESPN has caught on to this team and you should too.

Matt Hurst is the Daily Nexus editor in chief and will be in the Thunderdome this weekend instead of studying for finals because school work is overrated.
