Southern California Musicians Climax Three-Day Festival With Symphony Program at Lobero

Directed by Peter Meremblum, world-famous conductor, and featuring Paramount Starlet Kay Connor, violinist and soloist, the all-southern California High School Symphony orchestra will present its annual music concert at the Lobero theater Monday evening at 8:15 under the sponsorship of Santa Barbara State college.

A total of 140 students from 33 Southern California high schools will participate in the three-day musical festival which opens on the local campus Saturday, and is climaxed with the concert at the Lobero theatre.

Tickets for the concert may be reserved in the graduate manager's office. Students will be admitted free upon presentation of their student body card. Reservation must be made by 5 o'clock today.

Monday evening's concert will mark the third year Meremblum has conducted the all-student orchestra in their public appearance. His work has been the main reason for the artistic success of past performances.

Miss Connor makes her personal appearance with the concert group as guest star. The 16-year old movie starlet has appeared in two motion pictures, "There's Magic in Music" and "They Shall Have Music," as actress, singer and violinist. She has made numerous appearances on the nation-wide Orpheum circuit, and more recently gained note for her work in entertaining Canadian and American troops on an Alaskan tour.

The high school musicians will arrive in Santa Barbara Saturday and will be entertained Saturday evening with a dance sponsored by Las Espuelas, sophomore women's service society, and the Associated Women Student. Sunday afternoon Phi Lambda Mu, national music fraternity, will give the concert participants a tea.

Assisting Maurice Faulkner as general chairman of the festival are Dr. Van A. Christy, Mrs. Jane Abraham, President Clarence L. Phelps, Dean of Men C. D. Woodhouse, Dean Lois M. Bennink, Jeanette Ellison, Wilhelmina Menken, Lloyd Browning, Mrs. Helen Barnett, Harold Martin, John Falxa, Bob Runge, Carolyn Vietz, William Marvel and Vernon Leidig.

"All students are welcome to attend the concert performance, and those who would like to do so are invited to come to the practices which are held in the music building Saturday and Sunday," declared Faulkner.

New Club Sets Open House

Weather permitting, the newly organized Gaucho Beach club will hold open house this Saturday and Sunday for the entire student body at their headquarters in the Miramar Beach club near the Miramar hotel.

Organized by Frank Fielding and several interested students on campus, the club will provide locker service for bathers, umbrellas, back rests, paddleboards, and private beach for swimming. The club also enjoys the use of a club room and dance pavillon.

Following the open house, membership cards for the club will be sold. Dues are $1.50 per month.

Sponsors for the beach club are Coach Willie Wilton and C. D. Woodhouse.

Radio Group Presents Series Of Broadcasts

Santa Barbara State college will take to the air starting next Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 as station KDB opens the first in a series of weekly radio broadcasts dealing with civilian defense.

Produced by the Speakers, Entertainers, and Radio bureau of the local division of speech, the quarter hour programs will be presented entirely by students under the supervision of the college speech staff.

The broadcast series will consist of plays furnished by the Office of Civilian Defense. Each play dealing with some aspect of the civilian's duties and responsibilities as a citizen, such as donating blood, avoiding rumors, and non-support of black markets.

Theme of the initial program concerns the share-the-car-plan and the aid the civilian gives by actively participating in the nation-wide movement. Included in the cast will be Paul Kliss, Sue Knott, Bob Sandfelder, Tom Loeffler and Bill Lantz, student director. Frederic W. Hile, director of the division of speech, will supervise the broadcast.

Naval Reservists Tour Local Base

Members of the V-1 V-5, and V-7 Reserve club make an inspection tour of the local Naval Section base Sunday under arrangements completed by Dean of Men C. D. Woodhouse, sponsor.

Reservists are reminded to bring proper identification papers before they will be allowed to enter the armory, according to Dick O'Brien, club president.

Meteorological Head Talks to ERC Students

Dr. Webb Explains New Training Program

Dr. Robert W. Webb, assistant professor of geology at the University of California at Los Angeles and special consultant weather directorate for the U.S. Army Air forces, will be on campus Thursday, March 4, to interview students who are interested in applying for special training in the field of meteorology.

The special army-sponsored meteorology training programs are open to civilians, enlisted men of the army, and those in the Army Enlisted Reserve Corps; those in V-1, V-5 and V-7 are not eligible.

Coming to Santa Barbara State college through the special invitation of Dean of Men C. D. Woodhouse, Dr. Webb will interview students in the student body president's office near the Quad. During the interviews he will explain fully the qualifications for the various grades of meteorological study.

"Students who find themselves eligible to enter either of the three meteorological programs set up by the U.S. Army Air Corps should make every effort to contact Dr. Webb on campus Thursday," declared Dean Woodhouse. "This applies mainly to the E.R.C. men who face immediate call."

Authorities declare that E.R.C. men who are accepted under the meteorology training program will be exempt from the March 12 call.

Students may qualify for either of the three levels of special training: basic, premeteorology, and advanced meteorology. No qualifying examinations are given; all candidates must be fully qualified by transcript of scholastic record.

In the lower grades of training, the student receives $50 per month plus allowances of $2.75 per day for rations and quarters, free tuition and clothing. The student will also be allowed to pick the institution he prefers for study.

Following successful completion of the three grades of training, the cadet is commissioned as a second lieutenant, Army of U.S. in the Air Corps; with active duty for the duration plus six months.

Students who have lost articles on campus since the opening of the college year are asked to inquire at the lost and found office at the switchboard in the president's office to see if they can identify anything from the fast-growing collection.

According to Mamie Miller, switchboard operator in charge of the lost and found, numerous articles have been turned in, including wristwatches, rings, pins, books, clothing, and various other types of valuables.

PETER MEREMBLUM, world-famed conductor, will direct the all-Southern California High School Symphony orchestra in its concert appearance next Monday evening at the Lobero theatre at 8:15 under the sponsorship of the Santa Barbara State college. Over 140 musicians representing 33 high schools throughout Southern California will take part in the concert program.

Freshman Class Slates Novel Pinocchio Prance at Rockwood

Setting a precedent for the duration, a "Girl Date Boy—Boy Date Girl" dance will be held tomorrow night, at Rockwood Womens' club under the direction of the freshman class.

"Not only because of the increasing lack of males on the campus, but also because of a noticeable bashfulness (?) or social disinterest among a large majority of these, this "Backward-Forward" invitation was inaugurated," according to Bill Starr, class president.

Sponsored by the underclassmen, the affair has the title of the "Pinocchio Prance," and will feature Earl Fouche's "Rhapsodians," well-known Negro orchestra. Starr announced that the admission fee is by class card for freshmen; 25 cents plus student body card for students, and 50 cents for outside guests.

"This is the first really big event put on by the frosh," added Starr, "and will serve in a small way as a farewell dance for the E.R.C., so the students would be really showing their school spirit and patriotism by attending."

The dance is to be sport dress, and refreshments will be served. During intermission, Jean Ausman, talented vocalist, will sing, and several pieces will be played by a guest pianist.

Patrons and patronesses include Dr. and Mrs. Stan Rauch, Dr. and Mrs. Elmer Noble, and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Addicott. Students in charge of the dance are Carolyn Putman, Ollie Bates and Bob Lewellyn; decorations Margie Watson; refreshments, Bill Nelson; patrons and patronesses, Bob Kelley; tickets, Rosalie Osborne. Carolyn Viets, Kelley and Starr are general chairmen.

Subscriptions Deadline Nears

Final notice was given to students today that Monday, March 1, was the deadline for acceptance of subscriptions to the 1942-43 edition of La Cumbre, college yearbook, according to Dorothy Wold, business manager of the annual.

"Students must take out their subscription before the March 1 deadline or they will be forced to wait and take their chances on securing a yearbook when they come off the press," stated Miss Wold.

Special notice is also given to the men students on campus who face the probability of entering the armed forces before the book is released. Plans have been made whereby those students entering the service will be sent their edition or it will be held in reserve until they can call for it.

Yearbook subscriptions range from two dollars for those students who have been in attendance at State college for two semesters to four dollars for non-student body members.

Galloping Gaucho Review Rehearsals Set

Director Russ Haney
 Slates Tryouts Monday

Talented Gauchos from the campus's dozen Greek societies were brushing up this week in preparation for the forthcoming Galloping Gaucho Review which will be presented under the direction of the rally committee next Friday evening in the college auditorium.

Under the direction of Russ Haney, senior student in the speech division, the annual review will follow a circus theme. With present plans the local auditorium will be turned into a virtual three-ring show as the various fraternities and sororities rival for additional recognition.

"We will guarantee an evening of fun and entertainment," declared Haney. "It can't miss. We've got everything from soup to nuts in the show and more too."

First rehearsals for the review have been scheduled for Monday afternoon at 3:30. At that time the various organizations taking part in the show will present their act for the approval before members of the rally committee and the review director.

An annual affair, the Galloping Gaucho Review is sponsored each semester by the Associated Student council to raise money for the rally committee's traditionally big musical show of the year, the Roadrunner Review.

An admission charge of fifty-five cents will be made for all students attending the program.

All students who have turned books into the Blue Key book sale are asked to claim their unsold books next week during the noon hour, according to Jesse James, fraternity president.

Books that are not claimed before a March 15 deadline will be turned over to the current armed service book drive. Also there is a considerable amount of money taken in from the sale of student's books which has not been claimed.

"Our fraternity will not be responsible for the return of books or cashing in of receipts after Monday, March 15," James warned.

Much Ado

By GEORGE BLUMENSON

Joe Stalin seems to be in a tizzy, and it seems to this corner that he has good reason to be. It looks as though the United Nations are letting the Russians down—and not too easily. The "More Aid To China" campaign started a most simultaneously with the news that the Russians were once again on the march. And as the Russians advanced towards Kharkov and Rostov, the aid to China campaign grew in intensity.

Now there is no denying that China deserves our aid. The only poor feature about this aid to China is that we didn't give it to her five years ago. But by-gones being by-gones, and the U.S. and England not having given China this aid, let's forget that. China has been holding her own against the Japs. True, she has been losing territory, but slowly and at a great cost to the Japs.

Russia on the other hand, has been taking a terrible beating. She has lost men, resources and industrial areas, not to mention stretches of land large enough to lose California in three or four times. In addition to all this Russia has been defending the largest front the world has ever known. Russia has been defending a 2,000 mile front, and has been doing darn well on it.

Now Russia is marching again. She is doing it with the aid of the lend-lease materials the U.S. has been sending her. But at this point fear seems to have raised her ugly head. The United Nations seem to be afraid of Russia. They seem to fear that Russia will march right into Germany, and they don't want this to happen—not until they are right there to supervise the march. And so all our aid now will go to China.

From this corner, it looks as though Russia is entitled to make this march. Russia has earned the right to make this march, and the United Nations should aid her in every respect. There has never been any love lost between Russia and Japan, and, should Russia dispose of the European foe, she might, very conceivably, turn on her Asiatic foe.

Russia is being let down. The heads of the United Nations, on Red Army day, sent telegrams to Joe Stalin, telling him to keep up the good work, and congratulating him on the victories he has just won. But something tells me that Joe would have liked tanks, guns and ammunition a heckuva lot better.

The Truman senate committee has come up with some new and startling revelations concerning graft and corruption, mismanagement and delays on defense work, and still the senate and the house choose to take no action on these reports. Instead, the solons waste their valuable time on committees such as the Dies committee, and deciding on whether or not a government employee was ever a member of the League for Peace and Democracy. We are supposed to be all out for victory—the people of the United States realize that, but with a few exceptions the men they choose to represent them in Washington do not. It is not good enough to discuss these matters so vital to the nations defense 20 years after the war—as is being done now. At

Students Analyze Latest Bill On Abolishment of SBSC

Once again the doubtless well-meaning State legislature is considering a bill for making Santa Barbara State college a part of the University of California. Covering four pages, the bill itself boils down to eight points which affect this college.

1. Abolish Santa Barbara State college.
2. Create a branch of the University of California within two years to take the place of Santa Barbara State college.
3. Such courses of university grade to be given as the Regents may deem proper.
4. There may be provided courses for training kindergarten, elementary and intermediate teachers. (No others specifically mentioned.)

5 Employees to be protected so far as retirement benefits are concerned IF they continue with the university branch.

In case the institution should be closed by the Regents, all property belonging to it would revert to the state.

7. Act not operative until Regents consent to establish a branch of the University at Santa Barbara.
8. All conflicting acts are repealed.

There are seven questions which should be posed to the State legislature in answer to this proposed bill:

1. Why abolish Santa Barbara State in the first place?
2. According to the bill, is there anything but abolition definite enough to depend on?
3. In case the institution should be re-established as a branch of the university, why is a two year period necessary in which to do it?
4. If the special departments such as Home Economics and Industrial Education, and others, are to be protected at least until studied, should that not be specifically provided for in the bill?

5. If the institution is to be maintained on a degree granting basis why not so provide?

6. Since long distance enrollments are dependent on certain fixed and known attractions, how could the population of the institution be maintained if an indefinite bill is passed? In explanation of this question, 45% of the students of S.B.S.C. come from Los Angeles. They come here because of certain features which the university does not have, or because of monetary reasons. Why should these students come here at all, if these features are taken away, and if there is already a branch of the university in L.A.?

7. If certain attracting features of the college were to be weakened or destroyed, how would this effect continued growth during the period of construction of the new college?

The students of Santa Barbara State college should study this bill as well as the townspeople, for, after all, the college students do spend quite a bit of money here in Santa Barbara. As it stands, this bill appears to do nothing but abolish Santa Barbara State college and to offer the town of Santa Barbara nothing to take its place, or maybe another "Davis" college.

Second place went to the Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity group with a 2.453 rating, which gave the group a slim .004 margin over its closest rival Gamma Sigma Pi which took third rating with a 2.457 average. Beta Sigma Chi holds fourth place with a 2.6 or C plus grade average.

Individual honors went to Lorenzo Dall'Armi, Gamma Sig, who garnered first place with a 1. or straight A average. Close behind Dall'Armi was Hovis Bess and Bob Hart both of Gamma Sigma Pi fraternity; Jim Peters and Ed Doty of Sigma Alpha Kappa; and Russ Haney, Beta Sigma Chi.

In releasing the records, Dean of Men C. D. Woodhouse commented upon the close average of the four Greek groups, all ranging between a B minus or C plus.

Gauchos Split San Jose Series

Travelling northward for their last games of the season, Willie Wilton's Gaucho cagers split a two-game series with the San Jose Spartans last Tuesday and Wednesday nights, 35-39, 39-37. For the season four game series San Jose and State split two and two.

Wilton's charges had things their own way in the opener, with Leveille and Hill copping 11 and 10 points respectively. In the first seven minutes of the second half, Santa Barbara earned a 31-23 edge, but the Spartans staged a rally to narrow the margin to 31-29. Breuer, Robinson and Felice scoring field goals for the northerners.

Featuring a rough and tough game, Mort Hill and Bob Sherman were ejected from the game on personal fouls, while Bob Cohee and Harvey Hubler finished for the locals. Pete Felice, San Jose center, was high scorer with 16 points.

In the nightcap, San Jose took an early 4-1 lead, which they held until Bob Sherman scored five points to give the locals a 6-5 edge after five minutes of play. The lead changed hands five times in the next four minutes of play, by virtue of long shots from mid-court, with both teams finding the range effectively.

Holding a 24-17 lead at half-time, the Spartans were the victims of a determined Hilltopper scoring binge which after 3 minutes brought the score up to 25-23, San Jose. With three minutes to go the locals trailed 35-37, and after a rapid set-up shot for another two points, the northerners attempted to stall for the remainder of the game.

Breaking up the monopoly on the ball, Dick Rider captured the all-important sphere and promptly passed it to Bill Leveille. Ever ready to pull one out of the bag, Leveille cast off from mid court and chalked up another for the Wiltonmen. It looked as if the locals still had a chance, but for the final minute the Spartanites retained complete control of the ball.

High man for both games was Gaucho forward Leveille, who netted a total of 23 points for the two games, while Sherman and Hill tied for second place honors with 15 digits each.

Men students interested in participating in either varsity baseball or track are asked to contact Coach Wilton Wilton or Don MacKenzie through mailbox "M".

According to word from the physical education department, teams will be formed in each of the spring sports if enough men show interest by signing up during the next week.

"Most assuredly, this is not a course on rules and regulations of the English language," Dean Ashworth explained. "It is merely to help those persons who are having difficulty in written and oral expression because of minor mistakes in grammar and speech. There will be no grades."

Yes, indeed. And the list of WAAC duties grows constantly. The training and experience you get in the WAAC may equip you for many stimulating new careers opening up for women.

What are my chances of promotion?

Excellent. The Corps is expanding rapidly and needs new officers, both commissioned and noncommissioned. Those who join now have the best chances. All new officers now come up through the ranks. If qualified, you may obtain a commission in 12 weeks after beginning basic training.

What is the age range and other requirements?

Very simple. You may join if you are a U. S. citizen, aged 21 to 44, inclusive, at least 5 feet tall and not over 6 feet, in good health—regardless of race, color or creed. But the Army needs you now—don't delay. Total War won't wait!

Linguists needed. If you speak and write Spanish, Portuguese, Chinese, Japanese, Russian, French, German or Italian, see your local Army recruiting office now! You are needed for interpreting, cryptography, communications.

First of all, is the WAAC really needed?

Emphatically yes! Already the President has authorized the Corps to expand from 25,000 to 150,000. The Air Forces and Signal Corps have asked for thousands of WAAC members to help with vital duties. Both Ground Forces and Services of Supply are asking for thousands more. Members of the WAAC may be assigned to duty with the Army anywhere—some are already in Africa and England.

Can the WAAC really help win the war?

The whole idea of the WAAC is to replace trained soldiers needed at the front. If American women pitch in now to help our Army (as women in Britain, Russia and China do), we can hasten Victory—and peace.

What can my college education contribute?

College training is important equipment for many WAAC duties too long to list. Cryptography, drafting, meteorology, laboratory work, Link trainer and glider instructing, for example. If you are a senior you may enroll at once and be placed on inactive duty until the school year ends. See your WAAC faculty adviser for more details.

But can I live comfortably on WAAC pay?

There are few civilian jobs in which you could earn clear income, as WAAC enrolled members do, of $50 to $138 a month—with all equipment from your toothbrush to clothing, food, quarters, medical and dental care provided. WAAC officers earn from $150 to $333.33 a month.
