RECORD CLASS GRADUATES

GRADS TO BE HONORED IN ANNUAL SENIOR BALL AT ROCKWOOD TOMORROW

The Senior Ball, the climax to all the social functions of the year, will be held tomorrow evening at 9 o'clock at Rockwood, the Women's Clubhouse in Mission Canyon. This event has been planned in honor of the graduates and special favors will be awarded to these Seniors.

As announced by Miss Betty Procter, chairman of the social committee, if tuxedos are not available, dark suits will be permissible. Miss Procter also stated that as has been the policy before, non-student body members will be charged a fee of fifty cents for admission and all alumni one dollar a person. Invitations for outside guests must be secured from Miss Procter today.

The committees in charge of the affair are Dorothea Peterson, refreshments; Chester Tubbs, decorations; Elizabeth Neblett, favors; William Pensinger, clean-up; Whitelaw Birss, floor committee; Charles Van Winkle, door committee.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening's festivities are: President and Mrs. Clarence Phelps, Dr. Charles Jacobs, Dean Mildred C. Pyle, Dean William Ashworth.

BACCALAUREATE TO BE HELD IN QUAD SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Second on the list of graduation events, the Baccalaureate services, an annual tradition, will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock in the main quad.

The program, featuring an address by the Rev. Benjamin Goodfield of the First Baptist Church, was completed this week.

It follows:

BANQUET TO BE FEATURE SENIOR DAY THURSDAY

Motive of Event Will Be "Blazing The Trail"; Plans Are Completed.

Ending Senior Class Day, which will be held next Thursday, June 12, the annual Senior banquet will take place in El Paseo at seven o'clock. Although the affair is planned primarily for the graduates, all students may attend.

An interesting program of music and short talks has been planned. The orchestra will play the "Ballet Egyptian" by Lugini, to be followed by two negro spirituals by the Men's Glee club, "O Lord, Look Down," and "Who Did Swallow Jonah?" The Women's Glee club will then give two numbers, "Fancy Revels," by Carter, and "Lullaby" by Scott. Mary Louise Dye and Rachel Burns will sing two duets, "Pale Hands I Loved," by Finden, and "In the Garden of My Heart," by Ball. The final musical selection will be played by the orchestra. It is "Down South," arranged by Myddleton.

The motive for the toasts is "Blazing the Trail." Howard McKibben, president of the Senior class, will act as toastmaster. The following program has been planned: "Sailing for New Shores," Mr. John D. Wright; "Pioneering," Elizabeth Neblett; "Steaming Along," James Tinkle; "The Joy Ride," Ann Hegeman; "On the Wing," Marlyn Jameson; and "Looking Ahead," Mr. Alpheus Lincoln.

FRATERNITY INSTALLS

Fred Imes, president; Ben Romer, vice-president; Cleave Hillman, secretary; John Davis, sergeant-at-arms; and George Cutler, social chairman, were the officers installed by Tau Omega fraternity at a meeting held last Monday night in the Plantation.

GLEE CLUBS TO GIVE 'BELLE OF BAGDAD' MONDAY

By MARTIN BREDSTEEN

Staging their last production of the year, the combined glee clubs of Santa Barbara State, under the direction of Mrs. Helen M. Barnett, will present "Belle of Bagdad," an original operetta in the college auditorium next Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock in honor of the graduates.

The story opens in Bagdad. A fair day is marked by the arrival of various visitors, among them being Mrs. J. Horace McCann, the new American consul, with her daughter, Elsa, and her daughter's friend, Anne. Lord Archie FitzGibbons, an old friend, is also present, and a little later comes Henrietta Whipstitch, a romantic spinster. On being presented to the Caliph and his daughter, Jewel, they learn that an assassin is abroad who carries a bomb concealed in a camera, and for this reason all persons with cameras are to be shot immediately.

Then Dick Taylor arrives by airplane from Hollywood, accompanied by his two mechanics, Bob and Bill. They are in search of a girl known only as the Belle of Bagdad, to engage her in a great moving picture production in Hollywood. They hope to identify her by some small photographs which they carry, and also by an amulet she wears, but to be sure they have a camera with them to take pictures of all likely prospects.

Find the "Belle"

Dick meets Jewel, who welcomes him, but the two mechanics meet Ali Ben Mustapha, the chief of police, who sees their camera and orders them to be executed. (Continued on Page 2, Col. 5)

New, Young Prof Is Added to Faculty of Santa Barbara State

Announcement of the addition of a new member to the faculty staff of State college was made this week by Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Jacobs following the birth of a son, Allan William, in the St. Francis hospital on Thursday, May 29.

Dr. Jacobs said early this week that the new professor will probably get his doctor's degree in education from Columbia University, with preparatory training in Santa Barbara State.

NEW STUDENT OFFICERS TO BE INSTALLED NEXT TUESDAY

Student body officers chosen in the recent election will be officially installed in the final student body meeting of the year to be held next Tuesday morning, fourth hour, in the auditorium.

The officers to be installed are David Watson, president; Elizabeth Peacock, vice-president; Ella Cornwall, secretary; Albert Eaves, treasurer; Charles Van Winkle, editor The Eagle; Katherine Bishop, editor La Cumbre; Virginia Weber, social chairman.

The retiring officers are Llewellyn Goodfield, president; Anne Hegeman, vice-president; Margaret Wilson, secretary; David Watson, treasurer; Franklin Anderson, editor The Eagle. Miss Bishop will hold the La Cumbre office a second time.

AUTOGRAPHED COPY OF BERGSON BOOK SECURED BY LIBE

An autographed copy of "L'Evolution Creatrice" by Henri Bergson, the well-known French philosopher, has been recently received by the college library.

The book, written in French was ordered by Miss Eda Ramelli of the foreign language department for the use of her classes. It was necessary to send to Paris for the book, which is the fourteenth edition. It is believed that the work is at present out of print, and for that reason the publishers were forced to find a used copy to fill the order.

The autograph reads, "A Monsieur Fagniez, hommage de son bien devoue confrere — Henri Bergson." Dr. Carson, a professor of philosophy, is attempting to discover who the Monsieur Fagniez mentioned was.

G. A. Martin, Managing Editor of Press, Talks

G. A. Martin, managing editor of the Morning Press, Santa Barbara daily newspaper, spoke to students of the college journalism class and visitors Wednesday afternoon, the fifth hour in room 42. He was invited by Ken B. Goble, instructor in journalism.

Mr. Martin gave a number of personal experiences in the newspaper "game" and enumerated the qualifications of a journalist for the enlightenment of the journalism students.

FULL PROGRAM IS SCHEDULED FOR LAST WEEK

108 Will Get Degrees and Credentials; Ceremony To Be In College Court.

With a week of varied events commemorating the end of the school year preceding it, commencement will be held next Friday morning in the college court at 10:30 o'clock. One hundred eight graduates will receive diplomas and credentials, the largest class, according to President Phelps, to be graduated from Santa Barbara State College.

Beginning Monday, with the graduating class as guests of the combined glee club, graduating or senior week will be filled with events in honor of the graduates. Wednesday night, President and Mrs. Clarence Phelps are entertaining at a reception in Ebbets Hall from eight to ten. The class day banquet will be held at El Paseo Thursday, June 12, at 7:00 o'clock, with Howard McKibben, president of the senior class, acting as toastmaster.

Program Given

Friday, commencement day, begins officially at ten o'clock, the program starting, however, at ten-thirty. The college orchestra, under the direction of Clifford Leedy, will play "Coronation March," followed by the processional of faculty and graduates. The rest of the program follows: Doxology—

SPRING FOOTBALL PRACTICE DROPT

Following one week of preliminary workouts last week, State's football prospectives for the 1930 season, abandoned Spring practice in favor of academic examinations.

Approximately a dozen men, some of the veterans from last season, and several newer, high school stars, made their appearance at the workouts. The turnout in general pleased Coach Hal Davis who has hopes for a fast grid aggregation next fall.

Virginia Weber Chosen College Social Leader

In a meeting of the student body council held yesterday fourth hour in the student body office, Virginia Weber, social chairman for the A. W. S. for the past year, was elected college social chairman.

Miss Weber will fill the office vacated by Betty Procter, who was recently chosen president of the A. W. S.

Members of the outgoing and incoming councils were present at the meeting held yesterday.

List of Events, Times and Places, Given For Last Week of College

Following is a list of the events which will occupy the time and interest of students, faculty, and friends, starting tomorrow and continuing until next Friday.

Saturday, 9 p. m.—Graduation dance, Rockwood.

Sunday, 4:30 p. m.—Baccalaureate services, college quad.

Monday, 8:15 p. m.—Glee club operetta, "Belle of Bagdad," in honor of seniors, college auditorium.

Wednesday, 8 p. m.—President's reception, Ebbets hall.

Thursday, 7 p. m.—Class day banquet, El Paseo.

Friday, 10:30 a. m.—Commencement, college court.

In order to escape, Bill and Bob resort to disguise, first as dervishes and later as members of the Caliph's bodyguard. While in the disguise of guards, they manage to capture the real assassin, and in return for their valor the Caliph orders Jewel to present Dick with the sacred amulet. This identifies her as the sought for Belle. Bill and Bob are freed, and couple with Elsa and Anne, while Henrietta finds out that Ali Ben Mustapha is her true lover.

Featured in the operetta will be two special dancing choruses. One oriental and the other American. Ella Cornwall will do a very beautiful solo dance following which will be an ensemble with Ella, Dorothea Peterson and Margaret Barnett.

The cast, in order of their appearance:

Mrs. J. Horace McCann
.....Ida May Reeder
Elsa McCann, her daughter
.....Mary Louise Dye
Anne Blackwell, a friend of Elsa's
.....Fay Monger
Archie FitzGibbons, from dear old London.....Rollo Elliott
Zelinda, a dancer.....Ella Cornwall
Rose, a daughter of the Caliph
.....Margaret Barnett
Lily, another daughter
.....Virginia Weber
Ali Ben Mustapha, the prefect of police.....Charles Van Winkle
Hassan El Carib, the Caliph of Bagdad.....Dave Watson
Jewel, his favorite daughter
.....(Lead) Dorothea Peterson
Bob Ballentine, an airplane mechanic.....Martin Bredsteen
Bill Blake, his friend and companion.....Ben Romer
Henrietta Whipstitch, a romantic spinster.....Rachael Burns
Dick Taylor, from the Super-Supreme Film Co.
.....(Lead) Chester Tubbs

No expense or effort has been spared to make the operetta a success. Elaborate costumes have been rented from the West Coast Costume Co., in Los Angeles and others from the Lobero Theatre. Mr. Kupelian, a down-town merchant, is furnishing many oriental rugs and pottery for stage atmosphere.

The scenery and stage setting is being taken care of by Edgar Jacobs, Eugene Carr, Katherine Bishop, and their assistants. The college orchestra, under the direction of Clifford Leedy, will furnish musical accompaniment for the operetta.

DR. NETTLES, CORNELL MAN, TO TEACH HERE

To take the place of Harold W. Bradley, who will teach history at Stanford University next year, President Clarence L. Phelps has secured another instructor well fitted to teach history at the State College next year, it was announced from the administration office recently. The new instructor will be Dr. H. Edward Nettles, who has received his degree from Cornell.

Dr. Nettles is now teaching at the State Teachers' College at Springfield, Missouri, and will come to Santa Barbara to assume his new duties next September. Nettles has traveled extensively in Europe and will be a valuable addition to the faculty next year, Phelps said.

Before going to Stanford, Bradley will go to Honolulu this summer for study and research work on the Hawaiian government, which study he will include in his teaching at the Palo Alto institution.

Lettermen's Society To Hold Last Meet Tonight

The members of the Lettermen's Society will hold their last meeting of the year tonight in the Plantation in the form of a banquet. Members of the society are inviting their friends. Final business and social matters will be brought up before the club by Ralph Johnson, president.

Warren Atwood, '24, Opens Golf Course

Warren Atwood, a graduate of the State College in 1924, and his partner, D. Gail Brumwell, 1929, of Redlands University, have recently opened a miniature golf course at Riverside, according to word received from the south. Atwood was prominent in student activities at State, being a fraternity man, chairman of the pep committee, and holding numerous student offices.

Dr. Jacobs (in class, explaining customs and how they linger): "From slave buttons to the two buttons on a cut-away coat, useless customs are with us."

Neidermuller: "Maybe the buttons on the coat-tails of the cut-away are used for 'spares.'"

Dr. Jacobs: "Maybe. Is that why you drive a cut-away car?"

Thrills Mark Oriental Story

Oriental thrillers are regarded as more effective than those laid in other parts of the globe. Criminals of the Far East have gained the reputation for using novel and subtle methods for dark deeds.

Warner Oland, who is seen and heard in the title role of "The New Adventures of Dr. Fu Manchu," also had the role of the diabolical and menacing Oriental in "The Mysterious Dr. Fu Manchu." He is one of the best known screen portrayals of Orientals.

"An ancient civilization has taught the Oriental a repression unknown to younger races," Oland says. "For this reason we introduce unexpected and unbelievable methods in 'The New Adventures of Dr. Fu Manchu,' particularly in my attempts to get the two best lovers out of the way."

The present Fu Manchu sequel combines an eerie element of Far Eastern mystery and diabolical cunning, with a fully developed romance appeal, and it is coming to the California Theatre soon.

SOAKS, SICKS, SWELLS GIVE STUDENTS THRILLS ON ANNUAL ISLAND TRIP

Approximately 100 students, faculty members, alumni, and their friends participated in the annual trip to Santa Cruz island sponsored last Friday, Saturday, and Sunday by the Outing club.

Choppy weather featured the channel crossings both ways. On Friday morning the motor stalled in mid-channel. Other incidents are given in the following article by Doris Rodehaver and Naomi Saunders.

From the very first things began to happen, when a rum-runner burned a mile off shore. This delayed the starting about an hour, as it prevented the Santa Cruz from docking at the scheduled time.

When the ship finally got under way a heavy ground swell was running and Cleave Hillman and Walter Schott spent most of their time visiting the rail. Dean Ashworth managed to maintain his dignity until he caught a whiff of Archie Way's pipe.

Engine Stalls

When the party was about twenty miles out the porcelain on the engine cracked. This was not serious, however, and after about an hour repairs were made and the Santa Cruz resumed her trip. But after spending an hour in a becalmed ship which continuously rolled from side to side, the majority of the party didn't care whether they ever had anything to eat or not.

At about 11:30 the Outing club members and their friends arrived at Valdez Harbor. It took two and one-half hours to unload and by this time the high spirits with which most of the seamen had started out, were at a low ebb and it took two such old salts as Eddie Dundas and Red Misemer to cheer them up again.

Radio Used

Through the invitation of Miss

Van Fossen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wallace, both licensed radio operators, were with the party.

While the students were becalmed in mid-channel Mr. Wallace broadcast word back to reassure the parents and friends of the party.

After camp had been established at Valdez, the operator set up communication with Mr. Lewis, student here, and director of physical education for the Y. M. C. A. in Santa Barbara. Many members of the group sent back messages to their friends while on the island. Wallace tuned in on Philadelphia, Massachusetts, and China.

Friday night the students gathered around a bonfire to listen to Merle Adams play the accordion and Miss Van Fossen the uke. But most of them were tired and by 11:00 all had retired.

Hiking and Fishing

Bad sailing weather prevented the boat trip which had been planned for Saturday and the party contented itself with hiking, fishing and loafing. Bruce Tomlinson, Ted Foss, and Hal Morehead took the honors for the best hikers, and Jim Guest and Merle Adams caught the most fish.

Supper Saturday night consisted of barbecued steaks. Gene Harris and Archie Way were the cooks and received many compliments on their chef d'oeuvre. That night the bonfire was a bigger success than previously and the return trip Sunday proved to be very enjoyable. The water was rough, but only a surface chop, and only four members of the party were sea sick.

The party arrived at Santa Barbara pier at 7:30 in the evening. "I've been going to the island for six years," said Red Misemer, manager of the trip, "But I never saw the weather so rough and I never had a better time."

RUTH CHATTERTON COMING TO THE CALIFORNIA IN "THE LADY OF SCANDAL"
"The Lady of Scandal," starring Ruth Chatterton is a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picturization of Frederick Lonsdale's play, "The High Road."

The heroine is an actress betrothed to the scion of a bulwark of English nobility. The family invites her to the ancestral manor hoping to bore her and break up the proposed match. She introduces a friendly spirit into the mossy old household and changes some of its ideas regarding caste. Basil Rathbone and Ralph Forbes are prominently featured. Sidney Franklin directed.

Billie Dove Has Perfect Silhouette, Expert Declares

Already known as "the screen's most beautiful woman"—although she doesn't like to be called that, believe it or not—Billie Dove has just added another beauty prize to her collection.

Mirpugo, Italy's most noted silhouette-cutter, and an artist and sculptor of note, declares that Miss Dove has the most perfect silhouettes. The plural is right; they come in pairs, one a profile, the other front view.)

Not so long ago, it will be remembered, a visiting delegation of European artists and sculptors, stopping at the Carmel and Laguna art colonies of Southern California, voted Billie (once again!) "the most perfect brunette type of American womanhood."

Letters to Editor:

Editor of The Eagle,
Dear sir:

Last week we paid off the last payment on the motion picture apparatus. I want to take this opportunity of thanking all those who so splendidly helped me in this undertaking: the heads of all departments for their financial help—all those who attended our shows, often at great inconvenience—and lastly, those who helped by long hours of unpaid service with only one thing in view, the successful accomplishment of what had been given us to do.

It would have been impossible for me to have done this without your help; thanks, every one of you.

Let us all continue to give our service for our college that it may be better each year for our having been here.

Sincerely yours,
Wm. L. Rust.

Editor The Eagle:

The staff of La Cumbre wishes to announce publicly that it is not responsible for omissions in this year's book for either pictures or names.

A typed list of names for each division of the book, such as seniors, sororities, etc., was handed to the staff members in charge of the division by the members of the groups and was not compiled by La Cumbre staff.

Neither pictures nor names were omitted unless the persons failed to have their name on the list or their picture taken. Ample warning was given as to the date of the dead line, including a personal note giving a specific day and time for an appointment. The staff is very sorry if there were omissions, but it feels justified in the stand it has taken.

(Signed) La Cumbre Staff.

Dr. Maxwell to Work in Huntington Library on Shakespeare Book

Dr. William Maxwell, instructor in English, in addition to lecturing on current writers during summer session, will spend considerable time before and after the session in the Huntington library, Pasadena, where he will continue to gather material for a book he is writing on "Shakespeare's Use of Costume and Properties."

In addition, Dr. Maxwell will continue to assist Dr. William Engelbach, famous endocrine specialist of St. Louis, who is carrying on research work and preparing five volumes on "Endocrine Medicines." Dr. Maxwell acts as literary editor. Dr. Engelbach is working in local laboratories under a $100,000 fund established by Max Fleischmann and George Owen Knapp.

AN EXAM SCHEDULE

A NUMBER of individual cases in which students during the past two weeks have had from three to five examinations in a single day should serve as a reminder again for the need of an exam schedule.

The system is used extensively in colleges and universities, and its advantages appear to outweigh any possible disadvantages. The benefit of the individual is probably the chief merit of the system. Its adoption at Santa Barbara State would mean a step in advancement.

EAGLE CREDIT

THE need for a system of remuneration of students who devote countless hours of gathering and composing news and advertisements for the Eagle becomes more apparent each year, and the institution of such a plan next semester would undoubtedly represent the correction of an unjust situation and a step towards securing a bigger and better journal.

There are many positions on the campus which call for hours of thankless labor, but the majority of them are given more recognition than those on the Eagle. The plan of paying student publication managers is in effect in a large number of colleges, and in some institutions these managers are given school credit for their work.

A. W. S. Installs New Officers on Tuesday

Next year's officers of the Associated Women Students were installed at a brief meeting held after the regular student body assembly Tuesday morning.

Elizabeth Peacock, president for the past year, turned over her office to Betty Procter, expressing her appreciation for the cooperation shown her by the women during her term of office. Virginia Weber, first vice-president, gave her office over to Mary Camp; Elsie Tietz was introduced by Laura Lou Houghton to succeed her as second vice-president; Helen Nauman presented next year's secretary, Irene O'Leary, and Marlyn Jameson gave her treasurer's books to Phoebe Steer. Helen Nauman received the office of student counselor, held by Dorothy Curtis; and the club chairman, Ann Hegeman, gave her office to Betty Aul. Betty Sherman introduced Carmie Janssens, recently appointed tea chairman.

It is not without a pang of sorrow that the widow sits down at the old typewriter at this last column. But then too, it will be a relief not to be constantly in fear of losing one's life, because of an offense some innocent observation has made. Relief? Yes to the student body too, because now no matter how much dirt the widow sees she can not publish it.

Dave Watson has composed the theme song for this week. The inspiration came to him as he was doing research work for his term papers for Shakespeare.

All the world is but a stage,
Bill Shakespeare did discover.
But now that women's skirts are shorter
The show is almost over.

And still we have bashful boys like George Barth asking his girl, "What must I do to get your heart?" and the clever miss answering, "Be a surgeon."

Collegian's Creed suggested by Allan Ottley: "Neck, drink, and make wisecracks, for tomorrow you may be kicked out of school."

Miss Platte was leaning against a pillar in the quad with a far-away look in her eyes. The widow wonders if it was the nearness of vacation, an attack of spring fever, or the fact that Luke Trimble was just around the corner of the pillar that produced such an effect.

Jim Williamson has discovered after much geneological research that she was only an optician's daughter, but after two glasses she made a spectacle of herself.

According to Betty Procter the parking problem isn't as serious as the problem after parking.

"My son will never set," said the hen, proudly.

"If there is anything in a man," said Miss Van Fossen, "travel will bring it out."

"Yeh," answered Cleve Hillman, "I found that out on the Island trip."

And from all reports, Cleve wasn't the only one.

A couple of coeds were discussing their boy friends, and one said, "Lou Goodfield dresses nately."

"Yeah?" replied the other, "Natile who?"

"I don't want to see you any more," declared the coed.

"Okay, baby," replied the collegian, as he reached over and turned off the light.

PICTURE SHOWN

A picture showing the history of aviation was shown in the auditorium last Wednesday night by Mr. Rust. It was accompanied by a lecture by George E. Irvin. In addition, there was shown, Mongols of Central Asia, and The Story of Steel.

She was only a judge's daughter, but she was tried and found willing.

"Mickey" Webster says she doesn't use tooth paste because her teeth aren't loose.

"There is a motion before the house," said the master of ceremonies, as the dancer started doing her stuff.

And with the pleasant ordeal of exams, comes this little excerpt from an examination paper of the Geography class.

Q.: What are the seven wonders of the world?

A.: I wonder, you wonder, he wonders, we wonder, us wonders, they wonder.

As the girl said when the aviator started fooling around, "Stop or I'll chute."

And with these last few remarks, the widow surrenders the typewriter to her successor, whoever he, or she, may be, and walks out of the old Eagle office, free, white, and try and find out, to start looking for a textbook instead of a sheik.

Yours for higher examination grades, and better vacations.

PAULIN VISITOR

Stewart Paulin, former student of State college, was a visitor on the campus yesterday. Paulin is in the college of commerce, U. S. C., and is a member of the commerce fraternity.

HOME EC. MEET

A meeting of the home economics club was held yesterday in the home economics building. Final business for the year was transacted.
