The Beachside

All too often Isla Vista residents complain about a lack of quality dining within close proximity to UCSB. Where can a student go for a good meal, in a relaxed atmosphere? The answer is just a stone's throw away at the Beachside Cafe.

Since refurbishing their already well-known patio, the Beachside has become one of the most popular evening dining spots in the area. With a stunning view of the Pacific Ocean just meters away, the patio can be the perfect spot for a romantic evening for two, or for a larger group of good friends looking for a good meal.

With a newly-installed awning and fireplace, the patio also looks to be a favorite dining spot for locals this summer, and with good reason; no other Santa Barbara-area restaurant that I know of offers the sheer dining facilities that the Beachside Cafe does.

Long known for its wide variety of fresh fish entrees, the Beachside offers some of the most unique dining in the area as well. If you're feeling a little adventurous, be sure to try their Pineapple Salsa Ahi fish.

For the more traditional, how about a hefty serving of swordfish with cilantro and lime butter.

With fresh fish deliveries seven days a week, the Beachside keeps a constantly updated special fish menu to supplement a standard menu that includes such favorites as steak, chicken, shellfish, pasta and salads. In addition, each night the restaurant offers two specials, usually involving some kind of fresh fish.

One of my favorite specialties of the Beachside Cafe is their chowder boat. What is a chowder boat, you ask. Picture if you will a round loaf of sourdough bread. Now slice the top off, scoop out the soft inner bread, leaving a crust shell in the form of a bowl. Fill to the rim with delicious clam chowder and you've got yourself a Beachside chowder boat.

Prices at the Beachside are reasonable, and a good meal can be had for under ten dollars. For a little more, and I mean a little, a person can feast.

Places like the Beachside Cafe don't come by very often and it is a truly appreciative Santa Barbara community that enjoys their service. If a quality seafood restaurant is what you're looking for, check it out. And don't forget about the patio. Seating on the patio begins at 5 p.m. Monday through Thursday. Try it and have fun. It is a dining experience that you won't soon forget.

Da Vinci's

Leonardo DaVinci may be famous for his Last Supper, but DaVinci's Pizzeria and Ristarante is always famous for their first supper, which brings customers back again and again. Like the great master himself, DaVinci's takes pride in good taste. Nestled in the corner of the Lucky shopping center at 7127 Hollister Ave., this Italian nook provides a very nearby alternative to the everyday Isla Vista eats. From the moment you step inside, the inviting atmosphere and captivating aroma sets you at ease. The dim lights and mellow music make for a cozy dinner for two, or warm conversation with good friends. And attention is always paid to fine detail, with a slice of lemon in the water and a flower on every table.

DaVinci's is truly the essence of Italy, from the green plants, red brick walls, and white tableclothes, to a complete menu of tasty Italian cuisine. Entrees include chicken parmegian, shrimp fettucini, and eggplant parmegian, aside from your good ol' lasagna and spaghetti dishes. All are served with mouth-watering, buttery garlic bread and a side of veggies. DaVinci's even offers delicious hot sandwiches including pastrami, meatball, and sausage that will satisfy the heartiest of appetites. And let's not forget the fresh salad bar or extraordinary antipasto salad that combines zesty vegetables and jalepenos with rolled ham and cheese in a huge savory mound sprinkled with mozzarella.

Pizza is definitely DaVinci's specialty, and it's as unique as the restaurant itself. They have every topping imaginable, with creative combos that range from the light Vegetarian to the Last Supper, which boasts an extravaganza of almost everything. Highly prized are the gourmet toppings, including original bacon, broccoli, cauliflower and avocado choices.

Coming this May, DaVinci's will be having a Renaissance of their own. They plan to incorporate even more variety into a new menu and offer take-out dinner entrees with free delivery. They have also perfected the ingredients for a special pan pizza that will be available for delivery soon. And for those hot summer days soon to arrive, DaVinci's will be adding frozen yogurt to their delicious dessert list.

So come taste DaVinci's art of Italian cooking. Lunch is served from 11:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. and dinner from 3:00 p.m. until 11:00 p.m.

EL PRESIDENTE

There are few restaurants in Goleta or Santa Barbara that fulfill the special nutritional prerequisites of UCSB students: good food at reasonable prices. And so many of us are caught in the trap of Isla Vista cultural center that we forget what little effort it takes to find a good meal. El Presidente, located at 2921 De la Vina, is a Santa Barbara icon, an unpretentious Mexican restaurant specializing in one thing — good food.

Aldo Vega, El Presidente's owner and manager, is an experienced restaurateur of 25 years, and has been in Santa Barbara for the last 12, making a very special place for himself in the community.

Anyone who is experienced in dining Mexican expects a certain standard treatment, not the least of which begins with friendly service. Well, Aldo himself provided that, and made sure that we were welcome visitors to his house. The restaurant itself has a comfortable simplicity that invites friendliness. And barely a minute passed before there was a basket of fresh chips and salsa on our table which every customer is glad to see.

El Presidente's menu provides ample choices that run in the traditional Mexican vein. Combination plates have two categories, El Poco and El Mediano. El Poco runs about $5.55 and has single entrees, such as Chili Relleno, Tostadas, Tamales and Tacos. El Mediano, for $6.95, includes two entrees from the former menu. Personally, I chose from the "Especialidades," which features popular entrees like crab meat enchiladas (for $8.75), fajitas, and flautas. One of the daily specials, the carne asada, includes two strips of very lean, tender beef and an enchilada, and Aldo expects to add this to the regular menu soon. And most entrees are also accompanied by rice and beans.

Not to be left out are the avocado and taco salads, both $4.25. A la carte specials are also available for the picky customer, and have very reasonable prices, like everything else.

And there's no way to end this story without mentioning the $4.55 lunch specials, offered from Monday to Saturday from 11:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., all of which feature a fresh main entree, and most with rice and beans (surely a must for the student with an anorexic wallet). And did I mention that there are lunch cocktail specials too? Where else can you get a $1.75 Margarita at 12 noon, or a Pina Colada before the other happy hour places open up?

El Presidente, I discovered, never leaves you hungry for anything else. So take a friend — take a whole bunch of friends — and experience what everyone else wants to keep as their own special secret.

— Garrett H. Omata

LOCAL COLOR Harder Stadium

Come one! Come all! To the greatest show on earth. Yes, you too can be a part of the festival which will be talked about for years to come. The setting is Harder Stadium and the air will be filled with Rock 'n Roll throughout the day. Several local bands will be performing along with two bands from Los Angeles (Mary's Danish and Jane's Addiction). Although all the bands are very good, the band to watch for is Jane's Addiction. This is an energetic and original band led by the talented artist Perry Farrell (singer). So bring your roommate, bring your neighbor or bring your dog Spot to the greatest show on earth!
