SUPREME COURT

The resistance to the reform measure sponsored by Roosevelt in regard to the judiciary is largely where we would expect to find it, to wit, in the Republican camp, and in the impotent voices of rejected and despised Democrats whose tenure of office was ended by voters either last November or in previous elections. The fugalman for the reaction have found Carter Glass on their side, and joyfully cite him as an example of Democratic rebellion. But since Carter hasn't had a drop of progressive blood in his veins for these many years, the tragedy becomes sheer farce.

HAPPENED BEFORE

Up to 1937 the United States has been considered moderately intact, but judging from the outcry against Roosevelt's measure it will soon collapse and no longer will politicians point with pride and view with alarm. However, the history of the Supreme Court is studied with changes. The Judiciary Act of 1789 provided for five members on the Supreme Court Bench, in 1807 it was changed to seven, in 1837 to nine, and in 1863 to ten. Each time the outcry was equally great, the reactionaries moaning the dirge, and yet fundamentally the United States staggered on to new feats of greatness. And out of each struggle the Supreme Court retained its supremacy.

Spinsters' Skip to Reverse Positions of Man and Maiden

By TED HANLEY

Rivaling in its breath-taking suspense and sheer drama the inexorable march of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police, Santa Barbara State's annual manhunt, is on! Daring Amazons and slinking denizens of the local campus are grimly on the trail of their prey. Weapons? Ha! These intrepid females track down the hapless males with their age-old heritage-charm.

To culminate in a savage rite (laughingly termed by the huntresses "The Spinsters' Skip") at Rockwood, Friday night, February 19 from nine to twelve, the hunt goes on apace. Stalking the male in his native habitat and tracing him down through the Date Bureau, these Dianas of the chase daily diminish the number of uncaught males.

Showing a strange willingness to cooperate in the slaughter of the innocent, David Westaway, boss of the Date Bureau, announces, "All ye bashful ones may let the Date Bureau fix you up with Lotharios for the evening. Of course we have no slaves in the bureau, but give us your preferences and we will provide the men."

Dorothy Riche, Chief Huntress and chairman of the social committee asserts, boldly defiant, "We'll nab the men, treat 'em rough, and (Continued on Page 2, Column 4)

Santa Barbara State's aviation club held its first meeting on Friday evening, February 12, with eighteen flying enthusiasts and budding birdmen present. The meeting was presided over by Lawson E. Miller, originator of the club. Regular election of officers will be held at the next meeting. All interested in any phase of aviation are urged to join the club.

Mr. Burton O. Bundy, transport pilot and flying school owner of the local airport at Goleta, gave a talk at the meeting, pointing out the possibilities of aviation, both in the air and on the ground. A cooperative program is under way permitting college students to receive flight training at Goleta Airport.

The new organization will be sponsored by Mr. E. E. Ericson, head of the Industrial Education department. In the opening meeting, Mr. Ericson discussed the possibility of expanding the college curriculum to cover all phases of ground training. He also suggested that the new college site will offer facilities for a landing field, to be used by future students.

Iza Muggin Swings Wedding

Interest Strikes High Note

By DAVIDSON AND RICHE

Of great interest to members of local society was the recent marriage of Miss Grace Note, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clef Note, to Mr. A. Kordian, of the Boston Kordians. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Iza Muggin of the First Baptist church. Miss Note was attended by Miss Vo O'Lynn, who wore several strings, and her beau, Al A. Gretto, was Mr. Kordian's best man. The bride was beautifully dressed in blue, which harmonized with her eyes. She wore a coronet of trumpet flowers and violas. The altar was a symphony in white tuba roses from bass to top.

A slight disturbance occurred once during the ceremony when Miss Clara Nette, feeble-minded cousin of the groom, stanza up harping, "Stop the ceremony! She is beating my time with my O'beau!" Where-upon she took a swing at Grace. The guests, not quite knowing what the score was, were thrown into a zither. While Miss Nette was being conducted out she fell and broke her trombone and alegro, so there was no more treble.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Shendo, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. A buffet supper was served. Among the delicacies were corned beef hash, turkey-in-the-straw, a cup of coffee, a sandwich, and you. After supper, stories and jokes were told by Mr. Phil Harmonic. The guests said, "Sonata very good break," and there was a movement to go home at one minuet to twelve. The bar was soon deserted, except for Fred Tambourine's Collegians, who never know when they've had enough anyway. Oh well, notes to you, too.

It Can Happen Here

"You Can't Park Here" signs on the campus of the Catholic University of America are going to be obeyed in the future—or else.

Annoyed at the frequent parking violations, the chief of the Campus Police Force has listed the following penalties: first offense, air will be let out of one tire; second offense, air will be let out of two tires; and third offense, air will be let out of all tires.

Three years ago the local cops got the idea of chaining and locking the wheels of all illegally parked cars. It worked fine until a faculty member parked carelessly.

This situation is comparable to one existing on our own State territory, at least as far as traffic violations occurring. Perhaps the novel idea used in the C.U.A. could be put in effect here. At least, there's a thought there.—ACP.

Things of Importance

Sorority rushing season officially opened last Thursday night at the first of State's social societies held its annual event at Rockwood

Contrary to the opinion of many, this period of campus activity is not one of "throat-cutting" among members of the seven campus sororities, but one of friendliness and goodwill toward all women

In inviting new students to attend rushing events, it is not the intention of the sorority to require women to suddenly decide, or be forced into joining one group. The main idea belying the custom of rushing is the purpose of a sorority getting acquainted with a great many women, and finally selecting those most congenial and at ease with its particular group

Sorority "hecklers" are definitely out of place, and illegal rushing is definitely taboo. It is not the wish of the sororities in general to hold grudges against one another, or against new women. It is not the desire of the Greek letter organizations to force a choice, but to aid rushees to adapt themselves more quickly to social life at college, and to aid them in adopting an affiliation with one certain campus group.

'Let Your Conscience Be Your Guide'

Officers for the coming year were nominated this morning in the regular meeting of the Associated Women Students in the auditorium. Few women realize the importance of these nominations and the election to follow.

Careful thought and consideration should be given in the choice of those leaders which will represent women and the college as a whole for 1937-38. One of the prime factors to be considered is the collective ability of the candidates to fill the positions for which they have been nominated.

Secondly, although equally important, is the well-known factor, personality. A leader of the A.W.S. must be able to cooperate, not only with the women students, but the administration as well. Social poise and savoir faire are essential requirements. Conscientious service and responsibility must also be included in the desirables.

Too little interest has been shown in elections and campaigns of the past, yet as spirit of goodwill and sportsmanship always prevails. Women, this is your job—to select the candidate best-fitted to serve and represent your half of the campus population. You have a responsibility at the polls in the near future. Petty jealousies and grudges have no place in the selection. The old adage, "Let your conscience be your guide," should serve. Take an interest in the proceedings, and assure a choice for the best.—L.H.

Book Chatter

By ARTHUR H. BATCHELDER
Rating of books reviewed on "Back in the Book Corner" radio program, 8:30 p.m., Thursday, February 11, with Art and Ross, KDB.
"A" Yang and Ying by Alice Teasdale Hobart.
"B" Fog and Men on the Bering Sea by Max Miller.
"C" No Place Like Home by Beverly Nichols.

"Yang and Ying" by Alice Teasdale Hobart deals in a very graphic method with the problem of age versus youth in China.

Mrs. Hobart is exceptionally well-fitted to portray the scenes in an American Missionary hospital, for not only has she lived there, but also her husband is a doctor, so that her medical problems of China are given by an expert.

She cleverly avoids the obvious and overused device of having the doctor return to a former love on tiring of his wife. For not a few chapters, I was holding my breath, but soon I breathed a sigh of relief.

Another book which amazingly enough dovetails—more or less—into the same age versus youth problem, well worth anyone's time is "Fog and Men on the Bering Sea" by Max Miller. Read it for yourself, and see this simile—your time will be well spent.

Six feet, four inches (6' 4") can you qualify? Well at San Jose there are a dozen fellows who will become charter members of this tall lanky group. At present the statistics seem to show that John Knight, 6'6" frosh will be the first president. The tallest member becomes president but the other officers will be elected.

BANNER RETURNED

The lost Gauchito banner which was "lifted" by the Whittier Poets during the 1936 football season, was returned to the campus yesterday, after pressure had been brought to bear by the higher-ups. State now has its flag back, but the general student body fund is out 71 cents; the package was sent collect.

This gloomy view reflected the opinion of America's number one Democrat, practically the only one that Republicans will give a kind word. In the long run, however, Jeffersonian Democracy triumphed. It is unfortunate that the Supreme Court, in these crises, always happens to be on the side of reaction. Its prestige is weakened, and a check, rather than packing, may be placed upon it.

Frosh Whip Tartars in 28-26 Game

Gauchitos Win Game from Compton

'Pittsburg U.S.A.' Stars Too Much for Tartar Basketballmen

By AL BINE

Planting another feather in their muchly battered hat, the local chapter of the fightin Frosh of "40" under the tutelage of the mighty mite, Wilton Wilton; the Tartars of Compton Junior college went down to defeat in a thriller of a casaba game held on the Jaysee's court by a margin of a 28-26 score.

Johnny Bassett, slippery forward, lead the local scorers by ringing the till for nine digits. Eddie Ferrante, latest addition to the squad, dropped enough buckets to add 7 points to the Gaucho cause.

Bobby Burns, elongated Tartar forward, scored 13 points to be high-point man of the contest.

A rabid crowd witnessed the contest as Hershel Smith's Junior collegians are very colorful, to say the least, their smooth play featured the affair which incidently was plenty close, neither team getting ahead or behind by more than a few points.

Bobby Ulrich, third member of the "Pittsburg, U.S.A." contingent, sunk six points with Rego, Main, Davis and "Barrel" Merlo contributing the other markers for the Gauchitos.

Tonight the boys go in action again in the City League by virtue of their mid-night encounter with the Malt Slingers of Routh's candy establishment and again tomorrow night when they meet the Moose club in a return engagement.

The Redlands university Bulldog team will entertain the Wilton outfit over the week-end in a couple of preliminary games to the muchly heralded Varsity shows. It is the firm belief of the writer that the Frosh games will overshadow anything the bigboys will do in the way of flipping the casaba over the hardwood court.

Trackmen Don Spikes

Staters Travel 2,130 Miles to Track Meets in Coming Season

Manager Ed Loudenclos has released the Varsity track schedule for the coming season. The Gauchos will travel a total of 2,130 miles this year, with the first five meets held out of town.

On April 10, Whittier will engage the Gauchos here and on the following week-end Redlands and La Verne are scheduled to participate in a three way meet here at Phelps field.

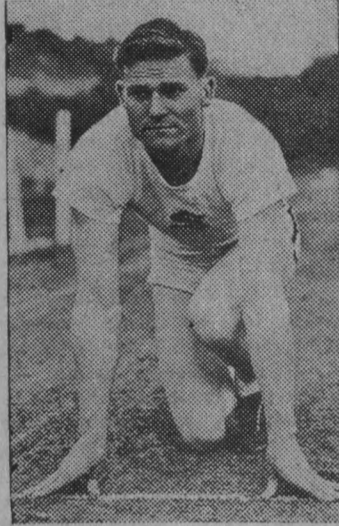

The season will open on the 27th of February at Occidental with Coach Ray Denno scheduled to take the relay team to the meet. One of the season's highlights finds the Gauchos competing in a three way meet with U.C.L.A. and Oxy. The Santa Barbara open meet will be held May 1 and a week later the Gauchos will journey to San Diego, scene of the all-conference meet.

Prospects for the coming season are bright, providing ineligibilities do not take too heavy a toll. The team is well balanced, with stars in most of the events. The hurdles, middle distances, broadjump, and distance events appear to be the strongest. The team is handicapped by lack of workouts due to the heavy rains.

Following is the complete schedule:

Speedster

Howard Yeager, above, holder of the Southern California conference broad jump record at 23 ft. 3 inches, is one of the returning lettermen to bolster the cinder squad of Santa Barbara State college. Yeager also runs the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard low hurdles, holding the school and Santa Barbara Open Meet record at 24.1 seconds. Yeager is expected to run his string of records to include the Gaucho 100 yard dash and probably the 220 yard dash records this year.

HIGH HURDLER STARS FOR STATE

By WALDO PHELPS

On any one of these pleasant, balmy afternoons when you have nothing else to do why not journey over to Phelps Field (or lake as the case may be) and watch the stellar members of the Gaucho track team prepare themselves for the coming season? The time would be well spent. It is very interesting to watch them bend, twist, groan, and sweat as Coaches Ray Denno and "Doc" Kelliher limber them up with exercises.

Most of them work hard on their exercises. One who is most conspicuous for the manner in which he slights this work is Bill Grey, star hurdler. Bill began his career four years ago as a senior at Santa Barbara High school. In his freshman year at State he was a mainstay in both the lows and the highs. He was a constant point getter, and wound up the season by capturing second in the highs and third in the lows at the all-conference meet.

All Legs Man

Bill is six feet one inch—almost all of it legs—which probably accounts for the fact that the high hurdles are his favorite race. He climaxed his work last season by establishing a new school record of 15.5 in that event. The heat bothered him at the All-Conference meet and he ran third in a high hurdle race, which he should have won.

A very fast start, in addition to his long legs make Grey the ideal build for a hurdler. His weight of 160 pounds is light enough to enable him to shine gracefully over the bars. Potentially a much faster hurdler than he has shown to date, Bill is capable of reducing his school record below its present mark and making himself one of the high point getters of the season.

Gauchos Lose Series

San Diego Takes Games From Gauchos in Thrillers

Again on the short end of two basketball scores the Santa Barbara State college Gauchos suffered the San Diego Aztecs to take a 50 to 31 game Friday night and a 49 to 33 game Saturday night. Due to the publicity the game received from the football encounter put on by the teams last fall the attendance at the games broke a record of three years standing at the southern institution.

Friday the Gauchos gave the border city lads all they could handle in the form of casaba play during the first half, but tired later in the game to fall behind the 50 to 31 score. Again Saturday night the Gauchos proved themselves to be a first half team and after the intermission the Aztecs pulled out into the lead to take a 49 to 33 game.

The Aztecs had a team that was able to cope with any situation presented and despite the loss of their first string guard, Alex Goldie, the defense presented was well nigh impassable. Saturday night the game became rather a rough and tumble affair with 36 fouls being called against the players.

Jim Benton put on a performance that proved his qualification for All-conference honors by covering up the weakness of the team play of the Gauchos and leading the Gauchos in scoring on the Saturday night game. The failure of the Gaucho plays to work was responsible for the defeat.

LEATHER LUNGERS AWARDED

Coach Ray Denno has announced the following men to receive Varsity awards for competition in cross country running: Lebnard Dorn, Russell Erikson, Roland McDonald and Ed Loudenclos, manager. Freshmen who will receive their numerals are Elmo Callis, "Yosh" Fujimoto, Bill Parks, Breer Reid, Bill Varner and Marlin Wilbur. The freshmen on the all-conference team will receive gold track shoes from the freshman class at the awards assembly.

First Yearmen Take Strong Team South

Four Man Relay Team to Take in Conference Relays Next Week

With a wealth of material on hand, Frosh Coach Doc Kelliher made plans to arrange to take a relay team of peagreen speedsters to the Southern California Relays held at Patterson Field, Occidental, on the 27th of this month.

Kelliher has made plans to take with him a four man 440 or a four man 880 team. Three of the men who will make up the team will hail from the strong team that represented Woodrow Wilson High school in the prep meets held last year. Bill McArthur, George Grey and Gene Putman will form the trio on which the Gauchitos will base their hopes for victory. The fourth man will be chosen from Stan Wilson, Harry Harris and Harold Fortress.

Well Balanced Team

The Frosh will put on the field a team well balanced in the track events, but as yet few men have shown themselves of adequate ability in the field events to star in those places. Ulrich in the pole vault, Fortress and Callis in the broad jump and Rose in both the pole vault and the high jump.

The weights are the events that will cause plenty of worry to the Frosh mentor. However several men have been seen around the campus and a weight man may be in one of these men.

The Gauchitos will take on the Varsity Friday afternoon in the first public appearance of the two teams. The meet will run very close throughout with the relay probably the deciding factor. The sprints will be dominated by the peagreeners, while the hurdles, distances and weights going over to the varsity.

Passing In Review

By TED JOHAM

The Gaucho basketball team is now going through the worst season in the history of the school for some reason that has not as yet recollection has there been such an been determined. Never before in my abundance of high scores run up against the Staters.

When the team is pulled apart and analyzed man for man it appears that there could be no better team in the Southern California conference, and yet the rest of the schools have thus far made monkeys out of our boys. In Jim Benton we have as good a guard as could be found in the loop. Bill Howsman and Bill Benton are also experienced hoop performers and have shown a great deal of individual prowess on the court. Not far behind these men are Bill Hoyt, Tooley Palmer, Timmy Thomas, "Goof" Gwinnett, Tom Lindquist and Dave Rumbaugh. All of these men are good so to find the cause of this season we must look elsewhere than in the team itself.

It is true that a hoop quintet can not be built in the course of a few weeks, but the teamwork that is needed must be installed into the performance of the squad before a winning combination can be put on the floor. This brings us down to the coaching of our team, always a touchy subject if the team doesn't win and one we sports writers can depend upon to kick about. Now, in Capt. Jones, the Gauchos have a man who is respected around the campus as a man who knows his basketball and his coaching techniques. He has not however had a just chance to prove himself as a college coach, but the team has come a long way since the Occidental series under his teaching and the reviewing stand is going to stick its neck under the axe and predict a victory over the Redlands Bulldogs. Several other men in this fair city have shown their willingness to take over the reins of the "Big Green" hoopsters. Anyhow, give Jones a chance to prove his worth.

Ship Decorations Theme Used for Annual Rush Event

Thirty rushees were entertained by active and alumnae members of Phi Kappa Gamma sorority at its traditional nautical party held last night in the Grill Room of Margaret Baylor Inn. The guests were received by Ruth Hooker, president, and Peggy Flynn, rush captain and general chairman. Miss Elizabeth Sehon acted as sponsor for the evening.

The nautical theme was carried out by the use of ship models and fish nets in the decorations, and one corner of the room was lit with blue-green lights and hung with paper moss, shells, and fish to give the effect of an undersea cavern. The sorority colors of coral and green were used on place cards, tallies and bowls of sweet peas decorating the tables. Favors and bridge prizes also carried out the nautical motif as did the name cards worn by guests and members.

Barbara Stanwyck says: "Luckies make a hit with my throat"

"When talking pictures arrived, my stage experience on Broadway gave me my chance on the screen. Taking care of my throat became serious business with me, so I changed to Luckies—a light smoke. Of course I smoke other cigarettes now and then but sooner or later I come back to Luckies. They make a hit with my throat and also with my taste."

THE FINEST TOBACCO—
"THE CREAM OF THE CROP"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Stanwyck verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
