

WALDORF TO SPEAK AT CHARTER DAY ASSEMBLY

Lynn (Pappy) Waldorf, head football coach of the University of California at Berkeley, will be the principal speaker at a special assembly March 21 commemorating the 84th anniversary of granting of the University's charter.

The assembly is the feature attraction of the first part of a two-day celebration of Charter Day.

High point of the second day's program, on March 22, will be a banquet at the Montecito Country Club at which Robert Gordon Sproul president of the university, will speak.

Sharing the spotlight with Waldorf in the Assembly on March 21 will be Jim Davis, president of the Associated Students at UCLA.

During the celebration a Charter Day display is to be set up in the quad area. Organizations on this campus will enter a special competition in displays. Displays representative of the eight campuses of the University will be shown. A trophy will be awarded the most outstanding entry.

Charter Day Chairman Sally

Carter announced that movies from the UCLA Theatre Arts department and from Berkeley will run continuously from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 21 in Pine Hall 100. These movies are open to the public without charge.

A punch bowl will be set up in the Quad by the Associated Women

Students and other women's service organizations.

The Charter Day activities are under the direction of Dr. Theodore Hatlen, chairman of the college committee on special assemblies, and Miss Carter, representing the Associated Students and California Club.

Charter Day celebrates the granting of the charter to the University 84 years ago. The occasion is commemorated each year by each campus of the university. The combined celebration serves as one more instance in which each campus takes note of its heritage and acknowledges a common bond.

SANTA BARBARA COLLEGE

Vol. XXXI SANTA BARBARA, CALIFORNIA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1952 No. 29

HAYRIDE, BARN DANCE FEATURE FROSH-SOPH-SPONSORED 'HEY DAZE'

"Hey Daze," a gala hayride and barn dance sponsored by the Freshman and Sophomore classes, is slated for March 7 at 8 p.m. With the Spurs, Squires and Frosh cabinet in charge, a full evening has been planned for participants. Student chairmen for the dance are Al Glickman, Myra Jaccard, Duane Mittan, Georgia Baciu and Don Sherwin.

Stan Tysell's band of "Local Yokels" from Cal Poly will provide the dance music, including square dances, ballroom dances and variety numbers. Calling the squares will be Paul Sund, and Rusty Buchanan will entertain the group with tunes on his banjo. The night will be highlighted by haywagon trips in a horse-drawn wagon which will make trips every 20 minutes.

The barn-dance theme with hay and trimmings will be used in the decorations, and the dance is to be held at the A & N packing house off the 101 Highway. Directions for reaching the barn are: Go north on the 101, turn right at the overhead bridge on the dirt road and go up and over the bridge to the large white barn.

Informal clothes such as cottons, peasant skirts and levis will be worn and free cokes and doughnuts will be served.

Tickets can be purchased at the ticket booth on the gym lawn, or from any member of the Frosh Cabinet, Spurs or Squires, at 60c per person. No stages are allowed and one member of the couple must be either a Freshman or Sophomore to attend the dance.

ROADRUNNER TICKETS

Ticket sales for the Roadrunner Review, scheduled for March 13, 14 and 15, are now underway. Reserved seats, priced at 60c, are on sale in the Graduate Manager's office and by Greek organizations.

Deadline for ticket sales is March 10 and all money must be turned in at the ASB office by March 11.

Barbara Curtis and Marilyn Ringle are in charge of ticket sales.

Selective Service Test Applications Should Be Made Now

All eligible students who intend to take the Selective Service College Qualification Test in 1952 should file applications at once for the April 24 administration, Selective Service National Headquarters advised today.

An application and a bulletin of information may be obtained at any Selective Service local board. Following instructions in the bulletin, the student should fill out his application immediately and mail it in the special envelope provided. Applications must be postmarked no later than midnight, March 10, 1952. Early filing will be greatly to the student's advantage.

Results will be reported to the student's Selective Service local board of jurisdiction for use in considering his deferment as a student, according to Educational Testing Service, which prepares and administers the College Qualification Test.

Blood Drive Results Prove Disappointing

Last week's Red Cross campus blood drive netted 246 pints of whole blood which amounts to less than 20 per cent of the student body donating blood.

Our competitors, Cal Poly, set a national record recently with 43.1 per cent of the student body donating blood to the Red Cross.

Red Cross facilities will be set up on the Mesa campus Friday from 9 to 4 for those students unable to donate blood last week on the Riviera Campus. Since the sorority and fraternity averages have not yet been tabulated, it is still possible for those groups wishing to increase their percentage to do so this Friday.

VOTING ON CONSTITUTION CHANGES, OFFICERS TO BE CONCLUDED TODAY

Today is the final day for students to vote on the proposed changes to the Associated Students Constitution and for several class offices.

One of the major policy changes concerns the appointment of the Head Yell Leader and Song Leaders by an impartial board composed of the voting members of the Legislative Council, the Graduate Manager, Chairman of the Rally Committee, the Director of Athletics, the Band Manager, a student representative of the football and basketball teams, a member selected by the Legislative Council, and an Alumni representative selected by the President of the Santa Barbara Alumni Association.

Another major policy change concerns the insuring of Mesa Campus representation on the Legislative Council.

A third major policy change concerns the addition of the Editor of El Gaucho as a voting member of the Legislative Council.

These are only three of the major policy changes which have become necessary. There are others, too, and each is important.

Several vacancies in student offices have been created and a special election is necessary in order that these vacancies may be filled.

The candidates for the office of Sophomore Class President are Bill Meyers and Don Sherwin.

The candidates for Freshman Secretary-Treasurer are Diana Harder, Gwen Lanning and Mary Otten.

The candidates for male Representative-at-Large are Ed McCann and Minor Rootes.

Ballot booths have been placed on the Men's Gym lawn and in the Quad. The hours for voting will be from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Biology Department Hosts High School Students, Teachers

Over 100 high school seniors, teachers and advisors from the Santa Barbara and Carpinteria areas attended the college open house Monday, March 3rd, sponsored by the Biological Sciences department.

The open house and High School Day featured in the college Quadrangle biology exhibits and displays of interest to the students and teachers. Welcoming the group were Provost J. Harold Williams and Dr. Garret Hardin, department chairman.

The purpose of the open house was to show the facilities of the college and to demonstrate laboratory procedures employed in biology classes. Coordinator of the affair was Dr. Maynard Moseley. Assisting him were Dr. Elmer Noble, coordinator of demonstrations, Dr. Mary Edickson, refreshments, and members of Tri Beta.

Students wishing to see the remaining exhibits are cordially invited to view them in Q 113 and Q 107 this week.

In Q 113 were luminescent millipeds, Dr. Davenport; marine aquarium demonstrations, Dr. Wootton, and demonstration of blood typing, Barbara Drake.

In Q 107 were native wild flowers, Dr. Moseley; photo-synthesis and chlorophyll extraction, Dr. W. Muller; phase microscopy, Dr. Noble, and mitotic divisions, Dr. Walters.

Job Placement File Has Summer Listings

Among the Summer jobs listed in the Job Placement Committee file are Girl Scout Counselors at Sky Meadow Camp in Redwood State Park in the Santa Cruz Mountains, in various camps in Connecticut, Rhode Island, Vermont and New Hampshire, and in San Diego County.

Lifeguard positions are open for men at swimming pools and beaches in the City of Los Angeles.

A job for a woman between the ages of 21 and 35 is available at the Naval Air Missile Test Center, Point Mugu, where a receptionist-typist-clerk is needed.

Further information concerning these and other jobs, including Federal, State and local Civil Service, may be obtained from the file located in the Associated Student Body Office. All students interested in full-time employment are urged to use it, and are also advised by Sally Carter, chairman of the Job Placement Committee, to check the bulletin board just outside of the ASB Office.

All-College Lecture By Dr. Webb Today

One of the most dramatic stories in University of California history—how the University handled a great influx of veterans after the past war—will be described in an All-College lecture at 4 p.m. today, in Pine Hall 100 Auditorium.

The speaker will be Dr. Robert W. Webb, University-wide Coordinator of Veterans' Affairs. Dr. Webb, directs veterans' affairs on all campuses from his office in Santa Barbara, where he is professor of geology.

The lecture, free to the public, is sponsored by the Committee on Drama, Lectures and Music.

Model United Nations To Convene at USC

A model United Nations Assembly, composed of delegations from various Western colleges and universities, will convene at the campus of the University of Southern California in Los Angeles April 3, 4 and 5.

The announced purpose of this second annual UN conference is to create a better understanding of the parent International Organization among College Students. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will make the keynote address and Warren Austin, delegate to the UN from the United States, is expected to act as chairman at the general assembly.

The Legislative Council of Santa Barbara College has accepted the invitation to participate in the conference and is now accepting applications from any students who are interested in attending.

Since a conference of this type does not directly benefit the college, participants will pay their own expenses, which will include a $3 registration fee per person and transportation. Those desiring housing may procure it for approximately $1 per night.

Applications must be submitted to Bob Christofferson, Associated Students president, before March 11. The application forms may be procured at the Student Body office in Building D.

STAFF MEETING

There will be a meeting of all staff members of El Gaucho tomorrow at Noon in the Gaucho office.

Discussion of new editorial appointments and information regarding assignments will take place at that time.

El Gaucho

Dear Gaucho:

Answering the editorial on the unfortunate Sheng family in the last issue of the Gauche, there appeared in the latest issue of Time Magazine an alarming and ironic report on this affair.

It appears that when the residents of Southwood so graciously consented to vote upon the family's vote to move in and Mr. Sheng sent his letters of pleading to all concerned, another factor entered into the problem in the form of letters from a real estate development which stated that the residence of non-Caucasians in the area would have a decided effect on property values that would not prove advantageous to any "right thinking" home owner. Out of 274 who received these contrasting letters, 174 believers in democracy and all its implications settled the case for Citizen Sheng with a firm note of Nay.

Now the case is closed although not forgotten by some, and unfortunately it is just one more proof of our innate lack of human understanding and emphasis on material security, security which we will lose just as surely as we will lose the fight for democracy on the home front as well as on foreign fields if we proceed to establish our country on selfish principles that make such endeavors as Brotherhood Week and the United Nations projects seem devoid of sincerity.

Sincerely,
Marianne Stafford

COMMITTEE IS OPEN

Due to the graduation of Dick Bowen, member of the Finance Committee, applications for this position are now being accepted by the Legislative Council. Appointment will be made Tuesday evening, March 11. Interested persons should contact Associated Students President Bob Christofferson.

A Question of Genius

An interesting point arises from a perusal of an article published in "This Week" magazine last Sunday. Entitled "You Can Make Your Child a Genius," the story is about a 77-year old psychiatrist and her supposedly revolutionary method of creating geniuses out of normal children.

Santa Barbara College is primarily a teachers' college. Since many of the students on this campus may soon be dealing with the problems attendant to the development of infant and adolescent minds, a brief analysis of this latest theatrical play upon the field of psychology and the word "genius" is perhaps pertinent.

The author of this new "method," Dr. Sarah Sidis, is a retired psychiatrist and lecturer at the University of Miami.

The justification for the "Sidis method" comes from the only child upon whom it was practiced, the son of Dr. Sidis and her late husband, Dr. Boris Sidis. Both were psychiatrists of note and the latter was a professor at Harvard.

The child, Billy, completed the Boston elementary school system in five months when he was seven years old. At eight, he took only six weeks to complete high school. At 11, according to the article, he lectured to the Harvard faculty on the fourth dimension. At 15 he was a teacher at Rice Institute.

The article fails to point out that the young Sidis died at an early age after demonstrating a complete inability to adjust to society.

That he was a genius, there can be no doubt. It is significant, however, that both his parents were exceptional mental products, leading to the belief that his genius was inherited.

But Dr. Sidis claims that his genius was produced and that by following her method other children can become geniuses. She does not define what she means by genius.

Many of the points in the "Sidis method" are merely accepted procedures for raising children, accredited by psychologists. The remaining ones are pure nonsense.

She says, for instance, that a parent, in following the genius-producing pattern, should avoid punishing the child. Reason should be used instead.

Psychologists are of the opinion that the child's ability to reason does not become operative until at least the five-year-old point. Punishment is the only effective method of moulding behavior earlier than that.

A researcher in the Midwest a few years ago claimed to have succeeded in increasing the IQ of her subjects by as much as 40 points. She was later proven to be a fraud and discredited.

Reputable psychologists agree that it is impossible to increase a child's IQ by more than 20 points, and then only under ideal circumstances.

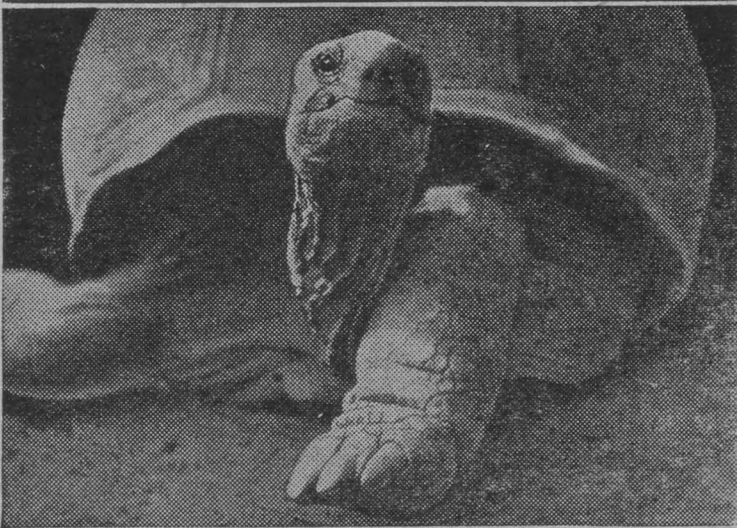

A consideration of the validity of the "Sidis method," however, is in the province of science. What is within our scope is the question of whether or not it is even practical to produce genius. If it can be accomplished, what purpose does it serve? Which is more important—to prepare a human being for a happy adjustment to the society in which he lives or create a citizen of mental pre-eminence?

Normality may not be the most desirable quality in a human being, but it certainly gives more assurance of social adjustment than does genius.

The success of the "Sidis method" is probably pure fabrication, but even if it were not, the desirability of creating a genius is surely open to question.

KOREAN VETERANS
Any Korean veterans enrolled in the Spring semester are requested to call at the office of the Dean of Men so that a record of them may be kept pending the passage of the bill that is now in Congress to extend veterans' benefits to those who served in the Korean conflict.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR SHEEDY was in the soup with a turtle named Myrtle. "I'm in a tortizy," he wailed, "what shell I do?" "Well, it's your messy hare that parts you from all the girls," his roommate said. "Better get Wildroot Cream-Oil!" Non-alcoholic. Contains soothing Lanolin. Relieves dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Paul got Wildroot Cream-Oil and now he's out turtle-necking all the time! So don't stick your neck out... get some terrapin-money and hurry to the nearest drug or toilet goods counter for a bottle or tube of Wildroot Cream-Oil. And ask for it on your hare at your favorite barber shop. Then you'll really be in the swim.

RAZIN' KANE

Today I feel that real, lasting greatness is mine; for now I am a member of the greatest organization in the World, Phi Kappa Alpha. Last Saturday I was put through the solemn and sacred rite of becoming a pledge. It was such an inspiring service that I feel that I must tell you everything that happened.

I was met at the door by the pledge captain who wrung my hand—I've got three broken bones—and showed me into the big room. "Boys, I'm sure you all know What's-his-name here who's going to pledge PKA this year." They all made appropriate noises, something like a hiss or a catcall—I guess it's some special fraternity greeting—and threw various kinds of fruit at me, a symbol of their undying love.

When order was restored and the debris cleaned up, the president spoke. "My boy, you'll never regret this decision as long as you live. We want you to remember this solemn moment forever." And at that instant a bucket of water was poured over me.

After I was wrung dry and my sweater, which was shrinking so fast it was choking me, was cut off, a pledge pin was grafted to my rib. I waited, expecting the congratulations that I knew must follow, when I heard the president

MESA MEMO

By Ken McCoy & Bruce Monroe
The Fall semester has come and gone and those of the Mesa men who swore it would never end take comfort in the fact. The shaking hands that wrote the finals a few weeks ago are quieter now. A rejuvenated faculty is hard at work with their diabolical plans for an equally arduous term, and peace reigns in the land. There are some new faces on campus and others are obvious through their absence. The registration problems of past years were alleviated through the efforts of the Industrial Arts Club with the close cooperation of the administration and faculty, and complete enrollment for classes was completed in a record two and a half hours for all IA department students. Favorable comment was forthcoming from students and faculty which presupposes the system's use in the future. A vote of thanks to those who gave of their time and planning in this effort.

In line with the feeling of co-operation which permeated the last semester on the Mesa, there are certain campus characters who have shown an eagerness to be of service to those of us with problems. The men who can handle your problem, or refer it to someone who can, are:
Ed Dodge: President, Industrial Arts Club.
Bill Toohey: President, Epsilon Pi Tau, national honorary industrial arts fraternity.
Dick DeKoning: President, Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity.
Bob Murray: President, Xi Omicron Xi, national printing fraternity.
Stuart Brockway: President, Epsilon Xi Epsilon, radio electronics fraternity.
Chuck Willis: President, Kappa Delta Pi, national honorary education fraternity.

Judging from the looks of Mr. Ellenwood's woodshop and the Mesa courtyard the marine-minded men from the Mesa should be putting to sea this Summer in a variety of floating craft, including sail boats, a runabout, flatties, paddleboards and water skis.

If any of these water enthusiasts should also be interested in fishing, Dr. Louie Taylor has a collection of eighteen fishing poles, all made by himself and guaranteed to catch fish. He wants to reduce his collection to a smaller number.

Watch for next week's issue for a run-down on all the important events coming up this Spring. We're really loaded this semester, so jump on the band wagon and attend all the functions.

Phrateres Elect Shirley Gaiser as Spring Prexy
Recently elected Spring president of Phrateres was Shirley Gaiser, succeeding Margaret McIlraith, Fall president. Other officers for this semester are Catharin Stuart, vice president; Kay Riisaki, secretary; Roberta Frantz, treasurer, and Virginia Vierra, social chairman.

Business and social meetings are scheduled for the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month in the AWS Room at 7:30 p.m.

Lesser Known Elements Subject of Lecture

Dr. E. L. Bickerdike, Associate Professor of Chemistry at Santa Barbara College will present a lecture on "The Less Familiar Elements, Tantalum, Germanium and Zirconium" at a physical sciences seminar Tuesday at 4:30 p.m. in Ridge Hall 101.

These less familiar elements are becoming more important, especially germanium, which is used both in the manufacture of rectifying diodes and in germanium triodes known as transistors.

Coffee will be served before the talk. The public is invited.

CARNIVAL APPLICATION DEADLINE IS TOMORROW

Applications for the Santa Barbary Coast Carnival are being accepted in the Student Body Office today and tomorrow which starts the ball rolling on the biggest of Spring semester activities. All applications must be in by 4:00 p.m. Thursday accompanied by a $2 entry fee per ten foot frontage desired.

As shown in the diagram above, the men's gym lawn will take on a new appearance from carnivals in the past. This year booths are to be pushed back in a circular fashion with a long food booth in the center. It is hoped this will provide more area in which the crowds can circulate in front of these booths as well as simplify the eating problem.

The quad area will be much the same as in the past. Booths will face inward all around the edge of the pool and the pool itself will again be available for use by any organization applying.

Another new innovation this year is the Whiskerino. All men are urged to grow beards for the occasion and to compete in the contest. A prize will be offered for the best beard and also for the fraternity or men's organization which has the largest percentage of men entering the contest. Men will be able to sign up both on the Mesa and Riviera campuses on

GREAT NEWS, GALS!

There's a man for every woman. All those rumors that there are three girls to every guy on campus are officially squelched. The ratio is exactly one to one.

Early registration totals released by the office of the Deaf of Women indicate that there are 714 men and 714 women. Even though many men are married, the social chances are not seriously out of balance—many women students are also married, and others are pinned or engaged to off-campus men. Last semester's totals were 821 women and 815 men.

Fourteen Junior Women To Be Chosen by Chimes

Junior women eligible to be tapped for Chimes, junior women's national service honorary, were entertained at a tea in the AWS Room recently.

Chimes will choose 14 of these women to fill out their membership and will initiate them in the near future, according to Jean Benjamin, president.

To be eligible for Chimes the woman must be in her junior year, must have achieved a grade average four points above the all-school average, and must have participated in student activities.

At the tea Jean reviewed the achievements and service projects of Chimes for the guests. These include co-sponsoring a women's scholarship with Spurs, working in election booths, selling cokes, ushering at school events, entering a car in the Homecoming Parade, placing a Homecoming display in a downtown store, entering a booth in Barbara Coast, and participating in the senior women's Candlelight Recessional ceremony held at commencement time.

Chimes has recently adopted new uniforms which members wear on campus every Wednesday. The uniform is a brown skirt, white blouse, brown and yellow tie and the Chimes emblem.

Phrateres To Hold Welcome Tea Sunday

The semi-annual Phrateres Welcome Tea will be held this Sunday, March 9th, in the College ASW Room from 3 to 5 p.m. Both old and new women students, regardless of sorority or other organizational affiliations, are cordially invited to attend the dressy afternoon affair.

On hand to welcome guests will be Dean of Women Helen E. Sweet, Phrateres Advisor Miss Ellen E. Powers, Phrateres President Shirley Gaiser and AWS President Margaret Mueller.

Phrateres (pronounced FRATARE-es) is a women's social and service organization with membership open to all students. Events planned for this semester in addition to the Welcome Tea are a party with a campus men's group, entry in Barbary Coast, a trip to the College Cabin in the mountains, and service projects for the college and community. Other events will include a pledging ceremony, a formal initiation, and probably a dinner-dance.

Any woman student wishing to broaden her scope of friends is urged to attend this event whether or not she receives a personal invitation, according to Social Chairman Virginia Vierra. Printed invitations have been sent to all new women students. Those planning to attend are urged to RSVP the Dean of Women's office by 12 noon, Friday, March 7th.

sen, Bernard Weeks, Robert Weithorn, George Kostakis, Daniel Escalera, Joe Maguire, Dave Watson, Kenneth Bernard, Bob Fraundorf, Robert Hallman, William Faris, Chandler Wilcox, Abol Bakhtiar, Richard Leffingwell, William Herold, Robert Cossarek and Dwight Baird.

Hilltop Talk . . .

Friends received word from Mike Carrillo who is now an Air Cadet. He's really thriving on that Southern fried chicken, mashed potatoes, and corn pone that they're feeding him down in North Carolina. Ummmm . . . sure sounds good.

Bet lots of girls are envious of the ADPI's. They really had a great time last Tuesday night when they entertained Diamond King candidates at dinner.

Bob Lahey was back visiting old friends a few weekends ago, waking them up at unearthly hours of the morning.

Spied George Nelson and Dalton Pollard out with girls from the Montecito School. What are they trying to do . . . break down our ration of exactly one to one?

Pi Phi's decided to take matters into their own hands last Friday. Since it was leap year day they got together with the SAE's at Bob Chapman's house. Joyce Bunting, Patsy Hoeven, Kay Johnson, Hank Weber, Don Melvin, Tom Wilson, and Bob Hunter were wandering around in the dark, loud, smoky room. Charades were going strong when Marie Allen, Bob Christofferson, Peggy Havekors, and Jim Stanley walked in. The folks came in at midnight and complained of someone in a red jacket dancing out in the middle of the street. Everyone also said goodbye to Tom Moss, who is heading for the Navy.

Sig Pi's bid farewell to John Popovich and Roger Boedecker at their Founders Day party Saturday night. Helping with the fun were Roger Denny-Carol Funk, Don McIntyre-Marge Adams, Joe Marino-Virginia Cierra, and Barry Hoelscher-Nancy Anthony, as Vince DiFiore sang a few songs.

KAPPA SIGS WIN INTRAMURAL TRACK MEET; RIDDICK, PIERCY, PAGE STAR

Kappa Sigma, paced by three double winners, humbled the opposition in the annual Santa Barbara College intramural track meet at La Playa Stadium last Thursday afternoon. Led by Joe Riddick, Wayne Piercy and Bill Page, the Kappa Sig aggregation scored 70½ points to walk away with the meet. SAE finished second with 50 points and the Sigma Tau Gamma entry was in the show position at the finish line, having scored 20 points.

Three meet records were broken. Hugo Nutini, Chilean middle distance man, lowered the 440 mark to 52.8. The old record of 54.1 was held by Bob Daly. Riddick tossed the javelin 163 feet for a new high and Dick Leffingwell of Sigma Tau Gamma produced a 46-foot effort in the shot put.

Nick Carter Named To Oxy Hall of Fame

Santa Barbara College Track Coach Nick Carter was honored last weekend as one of five men elected to the Occidental College Hall of Fame. Carter, a member of the 1928 Olympic team for the U. S., graduated from Oxy in 1926.

Others honored were Dean Cromwell, former USC and Olympic coach; J. Percy Hegerman, broad jumper on the 1904 team who flew to Los Angeles from Toronto, Canada for the ceremonies Saturday; Cliff Argue, Olympic pentathlon performer in 1924; and Fred Thomson, a member of the 1912 Olympic team.

Carter, whose mile and two mile records stood at Oxy until two years ago, first joined the Santa Barbara coaching staff in 1934. He left the campus twice since that time, once for a three-year coaching stint in Peru and again to serve in World War II.

Gauchos End Cage Season on Sad Note

The Santa Barbara College basketball team closed out the 1951-52 schedule last week on the losing end of a 61-44 score at the hands of an inspired band of Westmont Warriors.

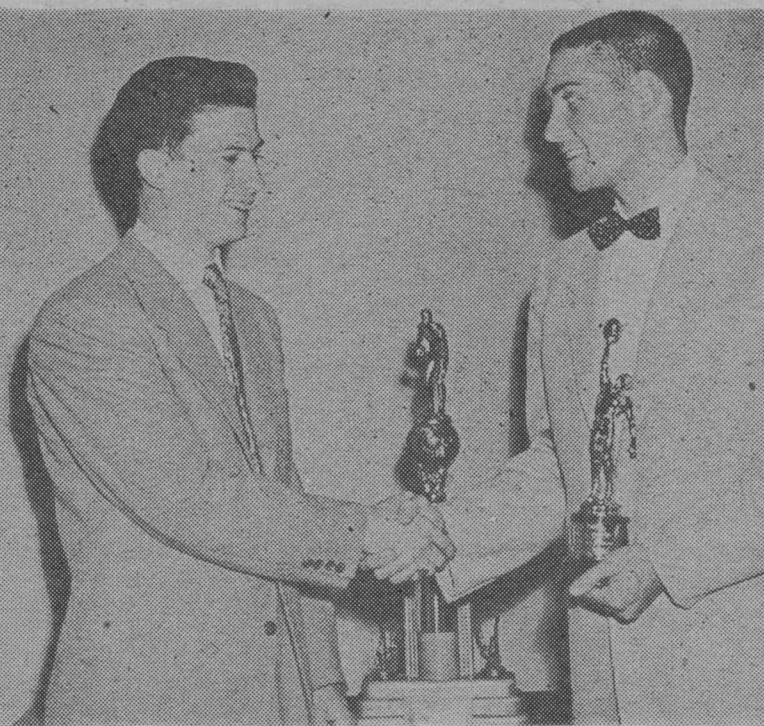

The Gauchos had never lost to Westmont before, but they never looked like a winner against the Warriors this time. The disorganized Gauchos trailed throughout the game and the 28-23 lead the Warriors held at halftime was as close as the score got all evening.

The defeat kept intact the Hilltoppers' record of not winning a game following midwestern tour. They finished out the season with a losing streak of eight games.

The 1951-52 issue of the Gaucho basketball team suffered one of the most disastrous seasons in history with a record of seven wins and 20 losses.

But in spite of the losing record, the Gauchos this year set a new team season scoring record. They scored 1453 points in 27 games for an average of 53.8 per game. This erased the record set last year of 1442 points amassed in 29 games.

Highest individual scorer was Forward Lloyd Heavin with 277 points in 27 games for an average of 10.3. Second on the list was Guard Allan Jacobs with 235 and an average of 8.7.

ALLAN JACOBS, right, is congratulated by Joel Williams, SAE president, after being awarded the Dick Rider Memorial Trophy as the most outstanding player on the Santa Barbara College basketball team.

ALLAN JACOBS UNANIMOUS CHOICE AS OUTSTANDING GAUCHO CAGER

Allan Jacobs, who starred for three years on Gaucho basketball teams, was awarded the Dick Rider Memorial Trophy as the outstanding player on the 1951-52 Santa Barbara College cage squad. The presentation was made at a banquet held last Thursday night honoring the college team. The award is given annually in memory of the late Dick Rider, one of the all-time Gaucho hoop stars, who was killed in action in World War II.

Jack Moore won the trophy last year. Jacobs, unanimous choice of the selection committee, is the son of a former UCSBC professor and a product of the city school system, having played his prep ball at Santa Barbara High.

A stand-out guard in previous seasons, Jake was shifted to a forward position this year where he performed with his usual finesse and spirit.

Gauchos' ears back 26-0.

Since that time La Verne and Santa Barbara College have met on the gridiron 12 times, the Gauchos winning five, losing seven.

INQUIRING REPORTER

QUESTION: WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT THE PROPOSED REVISIONS IN THE ASSOCIATED STUDENT BODY CONSTITUTION?

Patty Benko, Junior, Education major: "I think every student should read the constitution before he votes to be sure he understands the provisions. Much time and conscientious effort has been put into the revisions and I think the student body should fully support them."

Teddy Tye, Sophomore, Speech major: "I feel the additions that have been made are excellent ones and would prove beneficial to the student body."

Judy Cook, Junior, Business Administration major: "The separation of the constitution from the lengthy by-laws is a great improvement. The new provision for the method of appointing the yell and song leaders and the clause making the editor of El Gaucho a voting member of the council are in line with the changing trend in associated student government."

Muriel Adams, Freshman, Social Science major: "The summation that the legislative council makes at the end of the year to pass on to next year's council is a good addition. I feel that one of the chief problems is the inexperience of the new council members each year, and certainly this will aid them in carrying out their duties. Glad to see the importance given to the duties of yell leader. We need spirit! I think rewording of various parts definitely clarifies many duties and objectives. Also glad to see the Mesa Campus will definitely be represented and that the editor of El Gaucho has been added as a member of the voting council."

Sally Carter, Junior, Industrial Arts major: "The clause providing for assurance of a Mesa vote is a step in the right direction. There is no reason why as large a proportion of the ASB should be separated from the rest and not be represented on the council with a vote."

Dr. Nettles to Speak Before History Club

Dr. H. E. Nettles, professor of history at Santa Barbara College, will speak tonight on "Contemporary England" at the first Spring meeting of the History Club. Dr. Nettles has recently returned from a year's sabbatical leave in England.

All interested students are invited to attend the meeting, which will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the AWS Room.

Former Gaucho Student Finds Adventure In Learning to Live in Fairbanks, Alaska

Last November Kathleen Saxe, a junior at Santa Barbara College, flew to Alaska to marry her fiance, Wayne Powers, and accepted the challenge of learning to live in a rugged new country. Mrs. Powers, an Elementary Education major and member of Delta Gamma and Spurs, married her husband in Fairbanks, Alaska, where he is stationed in the Air Force.

It was difficult at first for aKthleen to become accustomed to the weather at 18 degrees below zero. She is now, however, quite used to days of 62 below, and considers 20 below pleasantly warm.

Mrs. Powers describes Fairbanks as a city with few paved streets and where living is expensive. An example of the high prices is the cost of bread at 45c a loaf. The native Alaskans are very friendly, says Kathleen, and always willing to help.

Kathleen has discovered many interesting things, among them the fact that she can't leave coffee and eggs long on a window sill or they'll freeze. After returning home from work one day she found that the heating system was off and the dishes, left soaking in the sink, were frozen solidly to the dishpan. She reported to her sister, Eleanor, a freshman at Santa Barbara, that she was delighted recently to have finally seen the sun for the first time in two months.

The former Gaucho student is employed as a pre-kindergarten teacher at the base nursery, and she and her husband now plan to live in Fairbanks for two years. aKthleen is very happy in this country of abundant game and breath-taking scenery.

New Elmed Officers Assume Spring Duties

Elmeds recently held an executive meeting at the house of Dr. Loretta Byers, where the Fall officers turned over their duties to the new officers. The new president, James Shook, introduced the new officers, and Dick Honrath, Fall president, told of the duties and reviewed last semester's activities.

New officers introduced were: Arden Pemberton, vice president; Joyce Probst, secretary; Mary Kakura, treasurer; Mary Woods, society chairman; Ione Smith, historian; and Pat Mackey, courtesy chairman.

Plans are being made for a square dance, to be held March 20, and a beach party in the Spring. Suggestions for a guest speaker were submitted and plans were discussed for the student-teacher and supervisors tea this Spring.

Colored moving pictures and demonstrations of Indian dances illustrated the lecture, "African, Indian and Arabian Dance Rituals," given by Dr. Norman Gabel, assistant professor of anthropology, on Thursday.

Among the dances described in the lecture were the Cherokee Sun Dance, which marks the advent of a young man as a warrior.

Albert Torres, a sophomore at Santa Barbara High School, demonstrated several dances of his people. Torres, who has studied Cherokee dances for several years, appeared in full Cherokee costume.
