Squires, Sophomore Honor Group, Reactivated Here

Traditionally an honorary men's service unit, Santa Barbara College's sophomore Squires was reactivated Friday, when men of the second year lower division, selected on the basis of scholastic standing and demonstrated interest in campus activities, met at noon.

Dedicated to the orientation of freshmen, the promotion of school spirit, and the furtherance of the interests of the University of California, Santa Barbara College, and the student body, the service unit objective is patterned after that of Squires units on other campuses. The unit has been inactive in local campus affairs since 1942, when, due to a dearth of male students, it was suspended for the duration of World War II.

Officers selected at Friday's meeting were Jerry Rose, president; Frank Mathews, vice-president; Bill Kresich, secretary; Bill Davidson, treasurer; and Walter Zorovich, sergeant-at-arms.

Following the election a committee was appointed, composed of Bob West, Francis Guess, and Bill Davidson, for the purpose of outlining a constitution. Included in the activation membership list were Arnold Fundae, Tom Carter, Willard Reese, Sherman Worth, Tom Daily, Dick Kampman, Mark De Nicolai, George Stephenson, Jerry Tiers, Davidson, Zorovich, Rose, Kresich, Guess, West, and Mathews.

Temporary faculty sponsor for the Squires unit will be Dean Paul A. Jones.

Open Debate Season At Pepperdine

Last Friday morning seven Gauchos embarked upon the opening phases of the forensic season when they journeyed to George Pepperdine College for a two-day meet. This is one of two preparatory contests scheduled for the speakers.

Those attending were Winifred Woods and Lenora Lombard in lower division oratory, Wesley Hervey and Thomas B. Keen in lower division extemporaneous speaking, Maggie Wheeler and Paul Kliss in dramatic team acting, and Herb Cohen in upper division extemp.

Following this conference will be a debaters meet at Los Angeles City College, for which at this time Bob Neustadt, Herb Cohen, Harry Pannor, Wesley Hervey, Tom Keen, Stan Dunn, Ray Wishmeier and Don Groshong are busily preparing. This too, is planned as a warm-up contest. The LACC meet is to be held November 21 and 22.

Although most of the debaters this season are new to Santa Barbara College, they are expected to have a fine season.

CERAMICS TO HAVE QUAD SALE

Examples of ceramics creations, the work of members of Delta Phi Delta, honorary art fraternity, will be offered to the student body and to faculty members in a Quad sale beginning November 19. The sale will continue through the following day.

Objects to be sold at reasonable prices include vases, decorated bowls, ash trays, cigarette dishes, and other interesting creations.

The collection will be on display today in the Quad.

The following women are being pledged:

Warning

Veterans! Warning! If you have any red shirts you had better destroy them!

There is a possibility that Congress might decide, at the special session next month, to pass the bill for increase of subsistence allowances to veterans as an aid to the high cost of living. If so, take notice of an amendment tacked on by the House Veteran's Committee.

The bill, passed by the lower house last June, provides that subsistence allowances will be banned to all Communist veterans or Communist sympathizing veterans. The amendment also includes a penalty provision making acceptance of subsistence by veterans in this category punishable by a $2500 fine or a year's imprisonment or both.

Gads!

The skies of Santa Barbara were overcast last Saturday night, and so were the hearts of all loyal Gaucho rooters, as the highly favored boys in Blue and Gold found themselves lucky to gain a tie with the Fresno State College Bulldogs in their tilt played at La Playa Stadium. This was the last home game, for the Hilltoppers finish their season at Gauchos in check by never letting them get the ball in the open. They punted out of bounds and kicked off "onsides," that is, to the linemen on the opposing 40 yard stripe. Not once did a Gaucho get in the clear for a long gainer.

Undergrad Story Contest Offers $500 to Winner

An annual short story contest for college writers, conducted by "Tomorrow Magazine," will end December 31. All officially enrolled undergraduate students on United States campuses are eligible to enter the contest, the purpose of which is to uncover new writing talent.

First prize will be $500, with the runner-up receiving a $250 award. In the event that the work of other contestants are considered worthy of publication, "Tomorrow Magazine" will pay a minimum of $125 for the story and more, if the value of the work warrants. Judges in the contest will consist of two teachers of advanced writing, and the editors of two publishing houses.

Stories submitted should not exceed 5,000 words in length, should be typed in standard form for publication, and should carry on both manuscript and envelope the phrase, "College Contest," the writer's name, college, and mailing address.

All entries must be accompanied by a self-addressed stamped envelope. Manuscript mailed to "Tomorrow Magazine," 11 East 44 St., New York 17, N. Y.

ROTC SEEKS GAUCHO JUNIORS, SENIORS FOR ADVANCE COURSE

The Reserve Officers Training Corps of Santa Barbara college for advanced course classes. A number of interested men have already applied for the Spring semester course, and according to Colonel R. G. McKee, they have all asked the same questions, for the benefit of other students, here are the answers to those questions:

'Ah Wilderness,' 2nd Speech Dept. Play, Set for December

On the nights of December 5 and 6, "Ah, Wilderness!" will be presented as the second production of the speech department. Due to the vast interest shown by the local town's people in college dramatic productions, the play will also be performed at the Lobero.

"Ah, Wilderness!" is a nostalgic comedy of family life during the period of the Gibson Girl in a small Connecticut town. With gentle quiet humor it peers into the parental problems of newspaper publisher Nat Miller, the fears of his wife, the tragedy of his sister and her drunken sweetheart, the growing pains of his children, especially rebellious maverick Richard. Revived in 1941 by the Theatre Guild as an "affirmation of the tolerance and goodness of the American way of life," the play has enjoyed great success by professional and amateur groups ever since.

Fifteen years ago Eugene O'Neill was America's sole major playwright. Intense, poetic and brooding, he had given new dimensions to the stage with relentless tragedies. The one virtue this Yankee playwright did not apparently have, his admirers all agreed, was a Yankee sense of humor. Perhaps in defense of this criticism or more probably because his attitude was happier, Eugene O'Neill wrote his most successful and delightful comedy "Ah, Wilderness!"

ALL-CAMPUS BOXING TOURNAMENT SET

An all-campus boxing tournament is scheduled for December 4, according to "Doc" Keliher, Gaucho boxing mentor. The tournament is open to all men students and those interested in competing are requested to sign up in the Physical Education Office at once.

NCAA rules will govern all bouts of the tournament. Drawings will be made for preliminary bouts to be held on December 1 and 2. Last year's varsity squad members will be seeded contestants in classes of odd numbers in a particular weight class.

Preliminary contestants are required to use their own trunks and shoes, but robes, trunks, and jerseys will be furnished those reaching the finals. Seconds are to be provided, and no others will be permitted in contestant's corners.

Village Debutante

Amid shouting and the clanging of a cow bell, Tuesday night, University Village witnessed the first 'coming-out' party of the year. The serenity of the study hall was broken as one Nicolas Moropoulos made his appearance as Hoff's foremost debutante.

Moropoulos arrived in cunning pajamas and clean sheets; in fact our debutante was in bed.

'Fun-loving' friends, hoping to make Nick's initiation into society as spectacular as possible, carried him bed et al into the study hall. Congratulations, Moropoulos.

The advanced course in ROTC is an upper division course intended to be taken in the junior and senior academic years. It is open to veterans of more than one year's service who have completed their freshman year, who have at least two academic years remaining to complete, and who have not already passed their twenty-seventh birthday. It is also open to men who are graduates of the Elementary Course in ROTC. Upon enrollment in the Advanced Course, students are exempt from the Draft Act.

Courses Outlined

The Advanced Course meets five hours a week and participants are given four units of credit per semester by the college. Of 160 hours of the Advanced First Work (junior year), 96 hours are devoted to Tactics and Technique, which are broken down into Communications (7 hours), Gunnery, Technique of Fire and Fire Control (23 hours), Motors and Transportation (7 hours), Organization (7 hours), Tactics (35 hours), and the Military Team (10 hours). The remaining hours consist of courses on Military Law and Boards, Geographical Foundations of National Power, Military Leadership, Psychology, and Personnel Management, and 16 hours of drill. Historical examples, usually from World War II, will be used whenever possible to support the teaching of principles and to illustrate their specific application.

The Government furnishes arms and equipment, and pays each individual 79 cents a day from the day of enrollment until completion of the course, approximately 570 days. This is equivalent to about $24.00 a month.

Between the junior and senior years, the ROTC student is expected to attend a summer camp for six weeks during which time he puts to practical use the theory he has studied during the year. In lieu of the 79 cents a day pay during this period, the is at the rate

Music Department Receives Gift Bulletin Board

The Music Department was presented with a bulletin board last week by June Lord, president of the campus chapter of Phi Beta, national professional fraternity of music and speech, as a token to express the interest and willingness of the group to be of service to the Department. George Booth, student chairman of the department, accepted the gift and gave a short speech of thanks.

Several new members, including Grace Gott, Ellen Hendry, and Clair Williamson, were recently pledged into the fraternity at ceremonies held at the home of Mrs. Glenn W. Durlinger.

Members attending the reception following the initiation were Carolyn Blair, Joyce Anderson, Bernice Baker, Vivva Hoobler, Else Jensen, Beth Lang, Patricia Parker, Ravlene Pierce, Irene Schjerven, Nikky Uyehara, Mildred Welch, Miss Blair, and Mrs. Helen Barnett, sponsor.

GAUCHO ROOTING

Dear Editor:
 ... First I shall start by saying, I am one of the earnest rooters in the cheering section, my friends can vouch for me.

The Gauchito rooting section at the Cal Poly was the liveliest that I have ever seen. This is fine, yet I saw something lacking. It isn't lacking at Santa Barbara, but everywhere else, big college and small college alike. Half of the time the yells that our yell leaders lead are started too late, or are too long, or not the right ones for the certain instant in the game...

Suggest Auxiliaries

My suggestion is to set up a committee, they could be auxiliary yell leaders who are watching the game and don't have their backs to the game, to call the yells similar to the quarterback. This committee would know which would be the next proper yell... Not that the yell leaders are not doing a fine job already... but I am sure that they agree in having someone to go find out who just got injured, and/or having some extra yell leaders who would be on this committee to relieve them once in a while in that strenuous job of leading the hep bunch of swell rooters that Santa Barbara college is lucky to have.

One more statement... can someone answer this for me? Why is that if our team is ahead the crowd commences to be quiet, eases up, or if we are losing by a margin we start easing up also, as if we had given up?

F. Martinez

Dear Editor and Automobile Owners;

"I should like to enter a plea for a program of courtesy and consideration among car owners on campus. I agree of course, that parking facilities are abominable what with great pits and boulders in the lots available.

But if some manner of regard for others were exercised there would be a lot more room for all.

"My suggestions are as follows:
 1. Please park your car straight. Don't park slantwise across a space large enough for two.

2. Please park as close as is convenient and proper. Don't leave room on either side or end large enough for a Crosley or the like. Move it over, let a full grown car park there.

3. And above all—please don't treat your neighbor's auto as though it were made of rubber and would bounce back into shape after it is hit. It won't and I have three smashed fenders to prove it.
 "Thank you for your time and space."

This new column will appear occasionally in issues of El Gauchito. The purpose is to acquaint students with function of the Graduate Managers Office, and to discuss items of policy carried out by that office such as the reason for the 25 cent charge made in addition to the Student Body Cards for certain activities, why Student Body Cards must be punched and the value of the card to the student, and other information that is of interest to the student body. The Graduate Managers office is operated by the Associated Students of which you are a part and this column is prepared for you the stockholders.

Graduate Manager Bill Russell in his article appearing in the October 22 issue of "El Gauchito" explained the reason for the additional 25 cent charge on Student Body Cards.

Guzzling Gauchos Litter Campus

"Bottles, bottles, everywhere, And not a drop to drink!"
 The campus has suddenly become a dumping ground for the vestiges of coke sessions and milk meles and the place looks like we're ready to go into competition with the local junk dealer. To the casual observer, the Galloping Gauchos Gauchos might appear to be Guzzling Gauchos.

Eliminating any editorial comment on the last remark it is requested by the powers that be that a general clean-up campaign be introduced—and please, fellas, if you are able to see after your little parties, return your milk and coke bottles to the Cafe—or throw them down on Alameda Padre Serra—just anything to get them off the campus lawns.

 of $74.00 a month. In addition travel allowances are paid for the round trip to summer camp at the rate of five cents a mile. Last year the camp was held at Fort Lewis, Washington, about 35 miles south of Seattle. While no definite word has been received this year as to the location of the camp, it will probably be in the same place.

Rank Automatic

Upon completion of the Advanced Course and graduation from the college, the student is commissioned a second lieutenant in the Reserve. At the present time there are vacancies for officers in the Regular Army. These vacancies are being filled at the rate between 2000 and 3000 a year. The source for these officers is primarily ROTC graduates.

Other ROTC graduates are offered a competitive tour of active duty with pay for one year, and at the completion of the years course, those selected are given a commission in the Regular Army. For those not interested in a permanent commission in the Regular Army the government offers Reserve Officers an opportunity to go on active tours of duty, normally from 15 days to one month, at the option of the Reserve Officers as he volunteers for this duty. The bulk of the Reserve Officers accept this active during their summer vacations, thus augmenting their normal civilian pay. There are opportunities to attend courses at the various Service Schools of from two to three months' duration.

JEANNOT ROADY — off to Europe. GAUCHO TO MAKE TRIP TO EUROPE

Jeannot Roady, Santa Barbara College senior, will leave Santa Barbara for a European business trip on Wednesday, November 19. His ship will sail from New York on November 29.

A native of Marseille, France, he came to Santa Barbara in April 1946. He was active in founding Le Cercle Gaulois, college French Club, of which he has been the president since its beginning last Fall. He was unanimously re-elected this semester. He will return to the United States in time to resume his studies in the Spring semester.

At the last meeting of the club held on November 12 at neighborhood House, he turned the presidency over to Sam-Pearce Pinkerton who has been vice-president. Lucienne Roady former secretary became vice-president. Other officers of the club are Ugo Pezzi, secretary and Helen Kirby Heitfeld, treasurer.

Editor's Note:
 In the November 11 edition of El Gauchito in the Casing the Campus column it was stated that Jean Kaye was blue since Jeannot was gone and had settled down to do a lot of good reading. Jean says that this is only partially correct. She will not be blue until November 19. The books will be French, of course.

SBC ALUM NAMED TO COLLEGE POST

The University of California Blue and Gold banner continues to march afield in the hands of Santa Barbara college alumni. Dr. Edmond O'Reilly, class of '27, was recently named vice-president of the new Sacramento college. The new campus grew out of the Sacramento Junior college and the Gauchito graduate will coordinate the transitional period in establishing the new college.

O'Reilly earned his bachelor of arts degree at SBC, and subsequently received a masters and a doctors degree at Stanford. An outstanding athlete during his student days on the Gauchito campus, he was quarterback on the varsity squad, and played on the basketball, track and baseball teams. During his four year sojourn here, he received a total of 20 letters.

In addition to his athletic activities, O'Reilly was Associated Student Body president, a charter member of Kappa Delta Pi, honorary educational fraternity, and a member of Sigma Alpha fraternity.

Picturesque Views

By Phyllis Pittroff.

Rejection of the anti-discrimination amendment, rightly or wrongly, is a black eye for the University of California, Santa Barbara College. Other schools, even those whose 'scutcheons are as blotted as our own, are apt to take a dim view of the election results. But the decision is made and we're stuck with it.

The most disheartening aspect of the election was the failure of one thousand students to vote. In an issue so close to home, so loaded with moral and social implications to every one of us, one thousand presumably educated and mentally alert people didn't give a damn. What kind of hand-hewn, fur-lined shell have those thousand crawled into, that they can be on the same campus with all this commotion for three weeks, and not itch to express an opinion, one way or another, in a voting booth?

Assuming that the non-voters included all those defeatists who, during pre-election discussion, said "It's a fine idea—but it won't do any good," it is possible that their vote might have carried the amendment. It is a sorry commentary on democratic processes if the measure died of apathy rather than opposition.

The election committee, and particularly Al Rassmussen, did a fine job of organizing and carrying through the countless details of the election. Al had to scour the country-side for voting booths; he missed classes and meals, and wore ruts from the Riviera to the Mesa; on top of everything else, he faced accusations of bias from both factions, in spite of knocking himself out to be completely fair and impartial. Public officials have a thankless job, as any Senator will gladly tell you.

And now that the election is over, what'll we talk about?

Gauchos will refer, in the future, to the sun deck above the cafeteria as El Techo.

The winning name was coined by Carolyn Blair. The prize—a $5.00 meal ticket—collectable at the Graduate Manager's office.

Painting Critique Aids Art Students

A bi-monthly critique of paintings done outside of class by student and faculty members of the Santa Barbara college Art Department was a feature of last Tuesday evening's meeting held in the Art department building. The purpose of the frequent critiques is to offer aspiring artists criticism and suggestion for improvement.

Among those who brought samples of work for criticism were Miss Enid Butler and Mrs. Eleanor Morrissey, faculty members; Ruth Moore, Bill Brown, Bud Beck, Bud

Remick and Dick Sears, art students.

The next critique will be held Tuesday, November 25, at 7 p.m. in room 205. Artists or sculptors are invited to display examples of recent work.

THE MONSTER

by Marie Cornthwaite

With fiendish glee they grimly pounce
 To beat into submission,
 A ranting horde they go hog wild
 And lose all inhibition.
 For many weeks they busy are
 With gory preparation,
 As time draws night their eyes reflect
 Their mad anticipation.
 How can their yet unknowing prey
 Perceive the coming slaughter,
 Yet slow a grim forboding warns
 That time is growing shorter.
 Tis Here! Oh, all ye tortured fools
 Bow down before their power.
 The brutal scourge came and passed
 It lasted but an hour.
 We throw them now a fearless sneer,
 No more the worried squirm,
 The dreaded massacre is through,
 We flunked but one midterm!

Greetings, everyone. The column is dedicated today to the Sig Alph's Bill (Skeeter) Alhouse for his stunt of last week. Poor Bill was talking to someone in the quad as he walked backwards, and all of a sudden—splash!—and there was Bill in the quad pool. Of course this happened at a time when the quad was packed with people and roars of laughter issued forth. Something like that doesn't happen every day!

A Thanksgiving wedding is on the docket for Joe De la Torre and Jackie Ator, they announced last week. And Tau Gam pledge Merikay Graham is to become Mrs. Warren King in June. Ex-Gaucho Ruthie Thompson surprised everyone at the Sadie Hawkins dance by appearing with a sparkling diamond; Gamma Sig Bill Perry is the lucky man. Virginia Hunter has said "yes" to Bob Melvin and they'll be married sometime next year. Best wishes to all Gauchos taking the big step.

SOPH RALLY

The bonfire built by the sophomore class Friday night was attended by a good crowd; it was quite a trick trying to keep warm—you'd freeze in back and practically burn up in front from the fire's warmth. The trick was to rotate to keep the temperature equal. . . . Jim Taylor, George Spanne, Andy Bissachke, Nelson Otis were spied enjoying the firelight, and others there were George Hopping with Gloria Morgan, and Marian Selters and Jimmie White-son.

You couldn't hear yourself think—not that anyone wanted to!—at the Sadie Hawkins Dance Friday night but it certainly was a terrific success in Dogpatch terms. Lights were low, but Larry Sanchez seemed to be having fun taking pictures. Pat Dorward patiently held his flash bulbs and other equipment. Richard Fairchild and Virginia Hunter (the other one, not Bob Melvin's girl-friend), Cynthia Moore with Paul Turner, Paul Hardy with Nancy Lamb, and Bob Matthews with June Vlcheck were among the costumed mob. Leland Keniston was very proud of his bright red socks and Norinne Fidler rolled up his cuffs so everyone could admire them. There wasn't much room to jitterbug but Edna Mae Weeks and Bobby Arnold seemed to manage without crashing into too many people.

Half-time, pardon us—we mean intermission time—rolled around and the gang joined Fletcher Aelone in singing "Hey Bob a Re Bob." Much applause given Nicky Uyehara for her rendition of the hula "Dog Patch Style." Nobody recognized them, but it was Dink and Rosemary Sheehan, portraying girl and fellow respectively, who won second place honors. Joe Constantino, his big keg of "cider," and date Phyllis Cramer with her pigtail which stuck straight up into the air, were first prize winners.

In ending this week's chatter, may we put in a plea to help form lobby groups to do away with that  stop sign on Moreno Road? Enough curses, bent fenders, beat-up bumpers, etc. have been wasted. . . . Let's see what can be done in persuading the Street Department to realize what a menace the stop sign really is.

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By Geo. F. Outland

The Golden Gauchos were certainly mighty leaden last Saturday evening—we've seen high schools with more punch.

That is, the first three cantos from there on in the boys in Blue and Gold played like they usually do. Let's fervently hope they can keep that up against the Aztecs when they journey to San Diego a week from Saturday.

This column has been bemoaning the lack of able line reserves in the past few weeks, but we retract all that here and now. George Harnden can play on our team any old time he desires! So can Bob Hoffman and Fred Lloyd. And there were others. Regulars Crilley and Rossi, Williams and Bowman, Pickarts and Wooldridge—all played their regular fine game. The line took the brunt of the attack when the backs couldn't do anything, and unlike the San Jose game, they came through. Just ask any of those FSC men carried from the field how well. Clean, hard football, but rough too.

Earl Engman, stellar defensive back, got in his licks also. It was this same man who stopped what would have probably been four more COP touchdowns in that game, and it was he who kept the San Jose game from being 100 to 0. Earl Engman, a great defensive back.

Success

Great guns, we're a success! There are at least three people who read this space-filling eye sore called a column. Yes sir, all three of them came up to me and complained about the last one. "LeBaron is not a dud." We are sorry. We did not mean to insinuate that COP'S ace quarterback is not good but rather than the team in front of him was also good. His signal calling, however, is his feature in our eyes. His playing was good, no denying that, but he couldn't have done it alone. He is not a one-man team, as some scribes in his locale would have you believe.

It is the opinion of yours truly that had Ross of Oxy been put in the qb post for the COP crew, he too could have rolled over the Gauchos. LeBaron is good, but it still takes 11 men to win the game, and he had the ten others he needed.

Got a little scoop here. Spud Harder, head of the PE department, has been made chairman of the new constitutional committee for the 2C2A to decide new conference rules.

Nothing thing. When the Golden Gauchos tackled Cal Aggies up there, a meeting was held to decide about a double-header in football next year, with UCLA meeting Cal and UCSBC locking horns with the Mustangs of Cal Aggie. A meeting will be held December

GAUCHO-FRESNO

George Harnden and Bob Hoffman, played bang-up ball. "Little Joe" Rossi made much trouble for the Fresno men. Cy Williams, idol of the baseball world, showed that he could be a nuisance for the visitors also.

The Gauchos could find no cooperation among their backs in the first three stanzas, playing like a high school crew, but they did hit their stride in the final canto. However, it is probable now that they will go into the San Diego game as underdogs.

CC Squad Edged By Caltech, Oxy

In their first intercollegiate meet, held at Tournament Park in Pasadena, the Gauchos Cross Country squad was edged out in dual meets with Cal Tech and Occidental, and in the triangular meet with both schools.

The scoring system for cross country is the total of position numbers held by the first five men from each team, seven men being the minimum for each squad. Oxy beat the Gauchos 27 to 28, while Cal Tech also edged them, 27 to 28, and to thoroughly amaze everyone present, Cal Tech dropped Oxy, 27 to 28.

In the triangular meet, Cal Tech took 39 points, Oxy 40, and the Gauchos 41. Had any one Gauchos finished one more position up, they would have won all three meets, the two dual and the triangular.

Over the three mile course, Marshall of Cal Tech came in first in 17 minutes, 36.3 seconds. John Rowe, winner of all three practice meets at Santa Barbara, came in second for the Gauchos, followed by Peterson of Cal Tech, Miller of Oxy, Skelly of Oxy, Chuck Skidmore of the Gauchos, and Bill Dae of the Blue and Gold.

CORRALING CALIFORNIA

The Golden Bears smothered a hapless Montana crew at Berkeley last weekend, 60 to 14. The U-clan dropped Washington 34 to 7, while the Bruin-babes tied the USC frosh, 13 up. This automatically gave the Stanford the southern division frosh championship. Santa Barbara College eked out a 7 to 7 deadlock with Fresno State College, while Cal Aggie did not play with the PCC schools, and Spud will be there to check this game with the larger two schools, and to see about our entrance into the CIBA for this coming baseball season.

Let's call it "30" for this time.

PROFICIENCY RESULTS

Results of teacher proficiency tests, given the first of the semester, have been reported to heads of departments.

Students who took the tests at that time are requested to report to the chairman of the department in which they are enrolled.

A make-up test, for those who failed in any unit of the test, will be given January 10. Those who failed to pass in any test unit, must erase the failure.
