The Gauchos fell behind Friday early in game one, as LBSU took a 2-0 lead in the third inning. After being sent down in order during the first three innings, UCSB finally broke through in the fourth for its first run of the game. Sophomore center fielder Skip Schumaker started the UCSB rally, leading off the inning with a double, and eventually coming around to score on a groundball from senior second base man Chad Peshke. "Schumaker gets us started," Brontsema said. "He always gets us going. He doubled and then Kolbach moved him over, and then Peshke drove him home, and that's what you have to do. That's what gets us going." Senior shortstop Jeff Bannon tied the game in the fifth inning with his fifth dinger of the season, a solo _shot. The Gauchos' fifth dinger of the season, a solo home run, tied the game in the fifth inning with a double, and then Peshke drove him home, and that's what you have to do. That's what gets us going. That's what gets us going. "Taking two out of three looks good on Thursday, before the series starts," UCSB Head Coach Bob Brontsema said. "It doesn't look too good on Sunday after winning the first two. [LBSU] is a good team, and they just got more big hits on Sunday."

Register Now for Summer Session Philosophy of Law 143

This course will begin with a reading of the Supreme Court's death penalty cases. We will then turn to the moral justification of capital punishment. We will discuss theories of deterrence, retribution, and evolving standards. The next part of the course will concern the procedural justice of the death penalty. We will then turn to the revisionist theories of capital punishment. The course will conclude with a study of the moral and political issues involved in capital punishment.

2001 Volunteer Recognition Week • May 7-11

“VOLUNTEER!
The true reward is giving.”

Stop By the CAB Tables
Outside the UCen Bookstore this week!

11-1 PM MONDAY, May 7th
The ASAP Cat Demo will be on Monday in front of the UCen. The Animal Shelter Assistants Program (ASAP) will be displaying several cats and provide information regarding adoption and foster care.

11-2 PM TUESDAY, May 8th
The Blue Ribbon Day.
Tuesday Students from CAB will be tabling outside the UCen, educating the campus community regarding CALM (Child Abuse Listening and Mediation). Literature and blue ribbons will be distributed to provide an opportunity to raise awareness of child abuse, its causes and cures. There will also be a Children’s Book Drive during the entire week for children at CALM.

11-2 PM WEDNESDAY, May 9th and THURSDAY, May 10th
Wednesday we will be sponsoring a Paint and Plant-A-Pot Activity outside the UCen, to engage the students, staff and faculty in decorating a pot and planting a flower as a gift to the residents of Friendship Manor.

AS Community Affairs Board is a group of students that volunteer, TOGETHER!
Come join us on Tuesday nights in UCen 2523, at 5 pm - above the MCC!
