

SPROUL RECEPTION POSTPONED GOLDEN ARROW POINTS TO POMONA

Claremont Scene of Pomona-Gaucha Gridiron Battle Tonight; Caravan to Follow Golden Arrow

"Follow the Golden Arrow to Pomona" will be the cry of Gauchos tonight when they journey south to Claremont for the Pomona-U. C. S. B. football game on the Sagehen's home field.

The caravan will leave from the parking lot at 3:30 this afternoon, according to Pete Grant, chairman of the Rally committee. He disclosed that the caravan will take the following route:

Highway 101 to Ventura, left on Highway 126 and through Santa Paula and Fillmore to Castaic Junction, right on Highway 99, south to junction with 118 (Foothill Boulevard), follow 118 to the dam, left on Windsor, right on Ventura, left on Fair Oaks Avenue to Foothill Boulevard, follow Foothill to Colorado Boulevard, and take Colorado Boulevard into Claremont.

Pete added that signs indicating the best route will be posted along the road, especially at the turning points.

In order that students who cannot attend the game may still support their team, a rally has been arranged for Friday morning. It will be held at 10:50 a. m. on the lawn in front of the men's gym. Yell leaders and members of the Rally committee will conduct yells and songs.

Orderly, Salesman Other Job Listings In ASSBC Office

Job-hunting students will find some employment opportunities available at the Associate Students Office, West Hall 12, according to Elaine Strobel, Student Employment Director. The following jobs are offered:

Orderly is needed at the Cottage Hospital to work nights. A gentleman wants a man who lives in Montecito to drive for him occasionally. Six or seven men are wanted to sell automobile cleaner and polish on a 30 or 40 per cent commission basis. A salesman is wanted by a local men's clothing store to work afternoons and Saturdays.

A job is available in a gas station or parking lot on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings and all day Saturday. A salesman is wanted to sell household appliances and cosmetics on a commission basis. A local jewelry store wants two campus representatives, a man and a woman. A commission is given on sales sent in. A hotel wants an experienced man to manage its coffee shop at night.

NOTICE TO P.L. 16 VETERANS
Mr. William Fowler, Training Officer for P.L. 16 veterans will have the following schedule for the fall semester beginning September 28:
Riviera Campus: 2nd and 4th Wednesday 10:00 to 12:00 am.
Mesa Campus: 2nd and 4th Wednesday 1:00 to 3:00 pm.

Goodspeed Opens Fall Lecture Series; Asks Investigation Changes

While the good that comes from Congressional investigations far outweighs the evil, certain obvious evils must be remedied.

This was the contention of Dr. Stephen S. Goodspeed, assistant professor of political science, in a speech opening the weekly All-College Lecture series sponsored by the Committee on Drama, Lectures, and Music.

As investigations which had accomplished much good the speaker cited the probing of the Harding administration scandals and the Truman War Investigating Committee.

Commenting on the more pressing evils and abuses which call for correcting, Dr. Goodspeed made the following suggestions:

Some of the fact-finding functions of investigations can be done better by agencies other than Congress—such as the Hoover Commission, for example.

The personnel and staffs of the committees could be improved. Staff investigators might be assigned permanently to the committees to eliminate some of the evils of patronage and political selections.

There ought to be a code of fair procedure adopted by both Houses which would: Guarantee witnesses the right to submit and read prepared statements, to confront other witnesses, and to enjoy the benefits of legal counsel; restrain the use of the search warrant; allow fewer secret sessions; prohibit the release of information to the press unless agreed to by a majority of the committee.

Proficiency Tests Saturday Morning

Proficiency tests for new teacher-credential candidates who have not previously taken the tests will be held in the auditorium Saturday morning, October 1, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Make-up tests will be given at a later date. See your department chairman or adviser for further information.

Proficiency tests are required of all students doing student teaching through this institution regardless of whether student is applying direct to the State Department of Education or being recommended for his credential through this institution.

Proficiency tests are not required for those students who are taking under-graduate education courses in preparation for the general secondary credential and a fifth year of work in a graduate institution.

Bookstore Starts Weekly Football Contest Series

Starting with the second Gaucho football game, the College Bookstore began their weekly contest offering merchandise prizes to students predicting the closest correct score for each Gaucho game. All entries should be in the contest box by 3:00 p. m. on the day of the game to be eligible to win.

Contestants are limited to one guess per game and any additional ballots will result in disqualification from the contest. In the event of a tie or ties, all such tying persons will be asked to draw lots to determine a single winner.

Each winner of the weekly contest will be awarded a five dollar merchandise certificate from the College Bookstore. The store reserves the right to disqualify any contestant and to change these rules at their discretion. Judging the contest will be Harold Cole, manager of the College Bookstore.

Deans Announce Campus Alcohol Restrictions

Regulations specifically prohibiting the possession of or drinking of intoxicating beverages on any University of California property are now in effect and will be strongly enforced hereafter, disclosed Helen E. Sweet, Dean of Women, and William Hayes, acting Dean of Men.

Applying to all the campuses, as well as to the different stadiums and the other athletic areas, the rules apply to all registered students.

Violators of these regulations are warned that they face serious disciplinary action with the threat of dismissal from the University.

In the past, the deans have always found that most students have met this regulation with a spirit of cooperation. Both deans expressed the desire that the students continue to abide with the regulation.

Faculty Endorses Northern Action; Asks Oath Changes

The faculty of the University of California at Santa Barbara College yesterday voted to support the Northern Section of the Academic Senate in its request for modification of the loyalty oath required by the Regents.

At a special meeting called by Vice-Chairman Elmer R. Noble, the faculty adopted the following resolution:

"The faculty of the University of California at Santa Barbara College endorses the action taken by the Northern Section of the Academic Senate at its meeting of September 19, 1949, concerning the loyalty oath.

"In particular, we urge the deletion of the second part of the oath adopted by the Regents of the University of California at its meeting of June 4, 1949. We believe that by affirming loyalty to the constitutions of the United States and the State of California, as embodied in the first part of the oath, we thereby, like other public servants, fully and amply testify to our devotion to the principles of freedom and our repugnance for all forms of totalitarianism—communist, fascist or other."

The action taken by the Northern Section of the Academic Senate on September 19 at Berkeley consisted of two resolutions. The first stated that the faculties assembled "whole-heartedly concur in the University policy set forth in University Regulation No. 5, which prohibits employment of persons whose commitments or obligations to any organization, communist or other, prejudices impartial scholarship and free pursuit of truth."

The second stated that members of the Senate "request the privilege of affirming their loyalty to the principles of free constitutional government by subscribing voluntarily to the oath of loyalty sworn by officers of public trust in the State of California."

The oath in question was adopted by the Regents on June 24, after consultation with the Advisory Committees of both the Northern and Southern Sections of the Academic Senate. Its wording is as follows:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of California, and that I will faithfully discharge the duties of my office according to the best of my ability; that I am not a member of the Communist party or under any oath or a party to any agreement or under any commitment that is in conflict with my obligations under this oath."

The first portion, ending with the semicolon after "ability," has been regularly required of all persons coming into the employ of the University and is similar to the oath taken by all state officials.

San Francisco Regents Meeting Delays Trip to Santa Barbara; New Date to Be Announced Later

Two events originally scheduled for today—the University Meeting at which President Robert G. Sproul was to have been the main speaker and the President's Reception for new students—have been postponed.

The announcement was made by Prof. Harrington Wells, chairman of the Committee on Public Ceremonies, who explained that President Sproul was unable to come to Santa Barbara today because of a special meeting of the Regents held in San Francisco in connection with the loyalty oath question.

The Regents at their regular meeting last Friday, September 23, named a committee to discuss the subject with the faculty advisory committees and report back to the Regents at the special meeting in San Francisco. President Sproul is an ex-officio member of the Regents and he is also ex-officio chairman of the Academic Senate. His presence at this special meeting was necessary in both capacities.

Mr. Wells said the new date for the two events will be announced as soon as word is received from the president as to when he can come to Santa Barbara.

Events for Friday include the crowning of UCLA's Homecoming queen, a giant street rally and float parade, and a Rally dance. Westwood village will overflow with ten bands, eighty floats and thousands of spectators. The rally will include the lighting of a giant C in blue and gold, the playing of "Hail to California" on Royce Hall chimes and a thirty-foot bonfire.

The kickoff for the Santa Barbara-Davis game is scheduled for 11 a. m. Saturday. After between game events which include a float parade, the Cal-UCLA game will take place at 2:30 p. m.

Post game activities will include house parties on the UCLA campus and "doing the town."

Post game activities will include house parties on the UCLA campus and "doing the town."

Students Wanted To Aid Secretariat

Students are needed to help in the newly-formed Secretariat whose purpose is to assist Janie Anderson, Student Body Secretary, and Elaine Strobel, Coordinator of Student Affairs.

Duties will primarily entail working in the Student Body office answering the telephone, taking applications for the calendar, and making appointments. Apply to Janie Anderson, DZD House, or Elaine Strobel, Student Body Office, West Hall 12, between 11:00 and 1:00. The students chosen will have space reserved in La Cumbre as a separate organization.

"The need for these students is urgent, so please get in touch with Elaine or myself as soon as possible if you are interested," Janie Anderson asks.

Students Asked to Check Mail Boxes

All official correspondence from the University offices to students will be placed in the student mail boxes on the south side of the quad, advised Dr. Helen E. Sweet, dean of women.

"Students are responsible for checking these boxes daily," stated Dr. Sweet.

Fan mail between students must be enclosed in an envelope, and if not claimed within a week will be destroyed. University notices over a week old will be returned to the office from which they originated.

ATTENTION FOOTBALLERS
No club entries and only seven entries from fraternities have been received so far for intramural touch football which was slated to begin this week. Director Richard Kaywood is still issuing a call for teams and all those interested should sign up in the intramural office, West Hall 110, at once.

Grin and Beret

I took another painful step with my heavy hob-nailed boot, and stopped; salt tears crept down my cheek and dropped to my convulsively heaving bosom. A car, whining thinly, crept past me, its lone driver staring in grim determination at the upward climb. Fog swirled about me, hiding the sign on the curb, "Pedragosa Hill."

"I'll never," I thought, fanning myself furiously with my Alpine hat, "make it to the meeting of the Hilltoppers Marching and Climbing Society." I sobbed helplessly as three upper-classmen passed me, yodelling lustily in the thin morning air.

The meeting was, as usual divided; the conservatives staunchly clung to the creed of Gaucho spirit while the radicals held forth for escalators up Pedragosa and Valerio. As I entered, the speaker was rapping furiously for order. A red-headed radical was crying disjointedly that "Gaucho spirit was the kind that came in pints and fifths, and that escalator side-walks were of greater importance than parking lots . . ." The conservatives remained silent throughout the tirade, then sensibly offered that "with a little publicity, the Give a Gaucho a Lift program could be renewed with increased vigor and soon the pedestrian problem would be eliminated." The red-headed radical was forcibly restrained from bopping the conservative speaker with her heavy climbing stick. I rose heavily and left by a side door, feeling rather depressed; little would be accomplished as long as we remained divided this way.

Later in the day, I trotted breathlessly down Pedragosa, carrying my books and climbing gear, and meditating on nothing in particular. Below me, parked on a perilous incline, was a car, and laboring at the side was an exasperated Gaucho, fixing a flat tire. The afternoon was pleasantly

Jottings by Jan

Seems everyone had his share of fun over the week-end what with the football game and dance Friday night and parties all over town Saturday. The Chi Delt's are to be congratulated on the swell dance. The decorations carried out the sea theme, the band was fine and here and there having a good time were Nat and Rudy Shafer, Pat Marsden (up for the game) - Dick Gorrie, Al Schab - Bobbie Misson, Sue Spellman - George Outland, Audrey Scott and Don Maier. Yell Leader Vic McCarty and Joan Schegel seemed to be enjoying themselves as were Muriel Reeves - Dick Negus, Maxine and Bob Lagomarsino, Ellie Denholm - Lionel Purcell, Nancy Davis - Bill Neal, and just scads of other people.

Saturday night there were parties here, there and everywhere in town and everyone reports that their's was the party, but then I guess that is only natural. Here's to more week-ends of fun and frolic and more Monday mornings when the most oft-heard expression is "Am I beat!"

Canasta has swept the country but the bridge players still hold the fort in the UCSBC caf. Any time of the day you can walk and observe such bridge fans as Del Jean Palmer, Carol Rhodebarger, Don Tooker, engaged in a game. Canasta may have taken over the beaches but in the caf bridge still reigns supreme.

Shirley Harris (Chi Delt) - is wearing George Machado's Sig Pi pin and Jerry Rose gave his Kappa Sig pin to Joanne Gaylord this summer. Do you know of others who are engaged or pinned? Let the Gaucho know and I'll let everyone know.

Guess that's about all for this week. See you all down at the Pomona game. Let's go, Gauchos.

warm, I thought suddenly, rather nice for walking. As I passed the laboring Gaucho, I whistled an Alpine tune and nodded cheerily in his direction.

Leaves from the Council Notebook

By Don Mills

At the student council meeting Tuesday night, seven members of the eleven voting members were present—one member was there by proxy. It was pointed out that members absent three meetings in succession would be relieved of their duties in accordance with the constitution, and that a member by proxy does not have a vote. In an eleven-man council every member should have (and use) an active vote on all measures. As elected representatives of the student body, it is their duty.

President Hartzell reported on the progress of his project to acquire more student parking. Permission has been granted to use land adjacent to the college; however, permission has not been granted to level off or in any other way revise the topography of that property. Needless to say, parking on a forty-five degree angle is extremely inconvenient—therefore, no positive steps have been taken.

Reference was made by the council chairman to a feature article printed in El Gaucho which allegedly ridiculed the efforts of the council. The press representative at the meeting pointed out that the article was intended as a satirical expose of the new, collegiate spirit being generated on campus by the council's well-integrated efforts toward re-establishing traditions, and as a witty rebuttal of an over-exuberant editorial on the "New Order" of college spirit.

A special appropriation was made to cover the expenses of special student council projects in an effort to curb the necessary practice of acquiring monies from the president's expense account. The amount named was $100.

Letters published in this column are not necessarily the views of the editorial staff of El Gaucho.

In December, 1941, F. D. R. stated: "We will not, under any threat, or in the face of any danger, surrender the guarantees of liberty our forefathers framed for us in the Bill of Rights."

In this light, I view Paul Robeson's right to hold a public concert. His right to sing guarantees our right to speak. The tactics used in the Peekskill disorders have a deadly parallel to events that led to the raise of fascism in Germany. The violence against Robeson was in the main, as I witnessed it, anti-negro and anti-Semitic in nature. The next ones may be directed against Catholics, labor unions, or certain teachings in our textbooks and could possibly occur in our own backyard. This need not happen, for there is yet time. Yours is the decisive voice. We can defeat this attack by the potential fascists, by beating them in the struggle for preservation of our freedoms.

If we remain silent too long, we will have forfeited our right to speak. HARRY PANNOR

PELLY FLIES AGAIN
Gerald Noble, campus representative for the California Pelican, Berkeley, Davis, and Santa Barbara Campi humor magazine, urges students here to contribute to the publication. Short stories, jokes, pictures, and cartoons preferably with a Santa Barbara flavor, will be published if they meet the Pelican's high standards. Material should be submitted to Noble thru student mail box "N" or left in the El Gaucho office. The Pelican is sold on the Santa Barbara Campus during the first week of each month.

Loyalty Oath

The remainder of the oath is the portion to which the faculties have objected as unnecessary and as possibly paving the way for other restrictions interfering with academic freedom.

The Regents have called a special meeting in San Francisco on Friday to hear a report from the Regents' committee which has been discussing the question further with faculty representatives.

San Jose's slipping Spartans lost their second straight game of the season last Saturday as COP slipped by them to the tune of 14-13. After walloping the University of Mexico, 103-0, in a practice game, the Spartans were slaughtered by Stanford, 49-0, and COP on succeeding week-ends.

Harriers Tackle Pomona Saturday

Coach Nick Carter's Gaucho cross country squad will travel to Pomona College for their first meet of the season Saturday, it was announced early this week.

The meet has been confirmed by the athletic board but members of the traveling squad had not been made public by publication. However, the harriers are expected to be led by one of last year's ace runners, Walter Houtz.

Fourteen men, including some track men, have been working out with Carter during the afternoons at La Playa Field. A group of five men is expected to be entered to run against the Sagehens.

Fresno Tops 2C2A by Upsetting Mustangs

The Fresno State Bulldogs started off on the right foot last week-end when they upset the favored Cal Poly Mustangs, 20-7, in a 2C2A conference game played in Fresno. The Mustangs had previously dumped the University of Mexico, 42-2, in a practice game.

Coach Alvin "Pix" Pierson had his lads fired up to revenge the 26-14 pasting handed them by the Mustangs last year. The win gave the Bulldogs a conference edge of seven games won to Cal Poly's one victory, with one tie, in their past nine years of conference competition.

Halfback Morse led the Bulldogs with two touchdowns in the first period, scoring on a line buck from the 9-yard line once, and later returning a Mustang put 56 yards.

Gauchos Racketmen Wanted in Tourney

From all corners of the globe, ranking amateur tennis players will descend on Santa Barbara for an invitational tournament to be held the week-end of October 21-23, according to Coach Lyle Reynolds.

Qualifying rounds will be played off the week-end of October 8-9 and the week-end of October 15-16. The purpose of these qualifying rounds is to allow as many Santa Barbarans as possible a chance to play tennis against the best players in the world; and the purpose of Reynolds' announcement is to get all the college students who are interested in tennis into this elimination round.

If any Gaucho, man or woman, wants to enter the qualifying rounds, he or she may do so merely by contacting Coach Reynolds in his office, West Hall 110.

Every outstanding player in the amateur ranks is expected to be on hand for this, the biggest tourney held here in the Channel City in many a year. The champions of Austria, South Africa, Czechoslovakia, and the Philippines, to mention a few, have been invited. Representing the United States will be Louise Brough and Ted Schroeder. Pancho Gonzales was also on the list but he was automatically eliminated when he turned professional recently.

Gauchos Hope for Repeat Over Sagehens in Claremont Tonight

By Bob Brady

Hoping to bounce into the win column, Santa Barbara's pigskin crew treks south to Claremont for a grid battle with the powerful Pomona College Sagehens. Kickoff time is scheduled for 8:00 p. m. Last fall the Gauchos beat Pomona, 32-14.

Head Coach Roy Engle said that he had profited by last week's defeat from Whittier College, since he now has a gauge

Spud Harder Returns To Direct Athletics

Returning to Santa Barbara College after an absence of 15 months, Theodore "Spud" Harder has taken over his old post of Director of Athletics.

Harder left the Gaucho campus in June, 1948, on sabbatical leave to the University of Oregon. While there, he completed his work toward the Doctor of Education degree.

His thesis for the doctorate analyzed student teaching procedure in physical education at a selected group of institutions.

Currently working on the 1949-50 season basketball schedule, Harder says he plans to continue the stress on truly representative sport from the college. He is also teaching several P. E. classes, and will resume his job of head baseball coach next spring.

Facing him is the problem of furthering relations with the California Collegiate Athletic Association schools, especially Pepperdine, which is replacing College of Pacific on the Gaucho schedule.

Harder is also looking for a continuation of the active relationship with Pacific Coast Conference schools, and a closer tie with the National Collegiate Athletic Association.

Terry Dearborn, who acted as Director of Athletics last year, will assume the position of Chairman of the Physical Education Department.

Hudson Scott has replaced Don Gill as trainer for the Gaucho athletic department, at least during the football season. Huddy is a member of last year's basketball team, where he started at the guard position.

Pepperdine, newest members of the CCAA, started off the season right by whipping Arizona State Teacher's College in a warmup game, 39-0. The Waves replace the College of Pacific, which has dropped from the conference.

with which to estimate the team's future opponents. The Gaucho mentor kept the accent on line defense, with plenty of blocking and tackling. The squad was hard hit with the loss of injured Rollie Brice, defensive fullback, who will be sidelined for about two weeks. Engle praised Brice's performance in the game last Friday, in that he made four of the hardest tackles in the three minutes he played before spraining his elbow.

Augmenting the Gaucho attack tonight will be a reshuffling in the offensive backfield. Captain for tonight's game, Bill French, will fill the fullback's shoes, enabling Russ Bertell to get better shot at open field running at right half. Dick Johnson, who played a fast, hard-hitting halfback against the Whittier team, is back at his usual position at left half. Slingin' Glenn Mullaney completes the backfield at quarter.

Up front on the line comes news of the likely return of Joe Rossi, 200-pound three-year letterman at guard. Joe, brother of football great, Cal Rossi, is well remembered for being the bulwark on the Gaucho forward wall the past three years.

Pomona enters the fray flush from a 34-28 win over the powerful San Diego Marines. Head Coach "Fuzz" Merritt has built the Sagehen assault around two-year, all-conference selection, Johnny McColl, who spearheads the team with his signal calling at quarterback. McColl, brother of Bill McColl, crack Stanford wingman, was practically the whole Pomona team last year, and is definitely triple-threat material. George Colbath plays a line plunging 205-pound fullback with Lloyd Herbener holding down the tailback slot.

Up on the line finds an all-veteran crew from tackle to tackle, averaging 203 pounds per man. Dick Farrand and John Long, two all-conference tackles, supply plenty of ruggedness, along with Ed Chandler, 220-pound pivot man. The wings are the only positions that lack returning lettermen and the left end is capably filled by Roger Reinke, fleet-footed sprint artist, who clips off the hundred in 9.7 seconds. A probable starter for the other flank is Andy Dunlap up from the frosh.

Merritt will shoot a single wing accompanied by the two-platoon system at the invading Santa Barbarans.

DELTA SIGMA EPSILON
Pi chapter of Delta Sigma Epsilon gave four rush parties. The first two were an informal open house and a coke party. The theme party was highlighted by the decoration of the house living room as a football field. The desert party was entitled "Come to the Mardi Gras." An open house for new pledges was held Friday afternoon and these girls were officially pledged Sunday morning.

CHI DELTA CHI
Last night the Chi Deltas gave an Open House to which alumnae of both the local group and the national sorority were invited. This gave the alumnae a chance to meet and to see the house which the girls have just finished redecorating. Tomorrow members and new pledges are invited to a luncheon and swim at the Montecito home of Mrs. Madeline Edwards.

I. A. CLUB
Semester activities for the Industrial Arts Club got an early start September 22, when a stag party for all department members was held on the Mesa Campus. Sports movies and a color cartoon followed by coffee and donuts highlighted the program. Prexy Ed Roberts and his cohorts peddled I. A. Club membership cards which guarantee entrance to a beach picnic, Hallowe'en dance, and Christmas party planned for the fall semester.

SQUIRES
New Squires initiated last night are Jim Beacom, Gordon Hardey, Jim Stanley, Jerry Caldwell, and Bill Tierney. In accordance with the Men's Honoraries decision, Squires have changed their sweater colors from white to dark blue, still retaining the traditional Squire emblem.

Officers for this semester include Jim Mulick, president; Dick Barr, vice-president; Don Fredericksen, secretary; Bill Dunn, treasurer; Bob McColm, C. S. O. representative. Active members besides officers are Dick Bowen, Don Mills, Allen Jacobs, and Bob Christofferson.

KEY AND SCROLL

Key and Scroll, junior women's honorary service group at Santa Barbara College, has begun the new semester with several activities. The girls have sold song-books to new students and have worked at the Associated Women Students information tables during registration week.

Officers this semester are Carolyn Varner, president; Elaine Strobel, vice-president; Mae Cormack, secretary; Elizabeth Erro, treasurer; Peggyrose Urner, publicity.

Other members are Mary Ann Zane, Evelyn Willetts, Doris Kent, Eunice Hartsock Coons, Jan Jones, Doris Spotts, Jean Tahajian, and Peggy Ward. Girls who were eligible for membership but did not return to school this year are Pauline White, Sharlene Kurtz, Annette Hergert, and Dorothy Dodd.

ATTN: VETERANS

All veterans are reminded that, according to Robert W. Webb, Acting Campus Coordinator, October 15 is the deadline for veterans to purchase books and supplies at the bookstore.

Goodspeed Opens Fall Lecture Series

gressmen to misuse this very great power," he said, "not only brings the entire investigatory process into disrepute but the prestige and sanctity of the Congress itself becomes endangered."

Contrary to popular belief, Dr. Goodspeed explained, the Congressional investigation is not a recent development. It is a great deal older than most people imagine. The first inquiry was conducted in 1792 when the House of Representatives appointed a committee to look into the disaster that befell the St. Clair expedition against the Indians.

To show that the power of Congress to conduct investigations is well established, Dr. Goodspeed cited a decision of the Supreme Court in 1927 specifically referring to this point. He also quoted Woodrow Wilson as saying that "the informing function of Congress should be preferred even to its legislative function."

"The most serious criticism that can be levelled at Congressional investigating committees," said Dr. Goodspeed, "is directed against the methods employed. The permitting of irresponsible testimony, malicious gossip, bullying of witnesses, the bungling ineptitude of committee chairmen and investigators are examples that can be cited only too frequently. The investigations often violate the spirit, if not the intent, of the Bill of Rights in failing to employ procedural methods common to a criminal trial in a court."

The practices of the Senate Lobby Committee in 1936, headed by Sen. Hugo L. Black of Alabama, now a justice of the Supreme Court, and those of the Un-American Affairs Committee of the House under J. Parnell Thomas during the 80th Congress are examples of violations of at least the spirit of the Bill of Rights, according to Dr. Goodspeed.

"The Black committee violated the 4th Amendment by using the FCC to gain wholesale access to the telegrams of critics of the administration, conveniently assigned to the broad category of 'lobbyists' it was investigating."

"The Thomas committee refused to allow many of the ordinary procedural methods guaranteed in a court of law. Its chief investigator, Robert Stripling, who was not a trained lawyer but an assistant doorkeeper of the House of Representatives before assuming his duties with the committee, continually stacked evidence, hearsay and innuendo in such a manner as to confuse and mislead the public."

The general success of Senate inquiries in contrast to those of the House, Dr. Goodspeed suggested, can be traced to the greater prestige of the upper body, its greater freedom of debate, the longer terms of its members and the continuity of the Senate as a whole.
