Prexys Convene at S. B.

Exchange of Ideas
Purpose of Delegates

Lambourne in Charge

Movement Begun at State College by
Marcus Cravens

Convening at Santa Barbara State college, presidents of the surrounding high school student bodies will hold a two day session beginning on February 22 and lasting until Sunday, February 24.

The first session will begin at 12 o'clock with a dinner in the State college cafeteria. At the conclusion of the meeting the visitors will be taken on a short tour of the college campus and the local high school.

Attend Dance and Game

After dinner at the Plantation, the guests will attend the basketball game and the student body dance at Rockwood.

The delegates will stay overnight at the home of the Hi-Y members.

Saturday's meeting will be devoted to exchange of ideas on the various school activities and methods, the object being to establish a closer contact between the schools.

Cravens Founded Movement

This movement was begun last year under the supervision of Marcus Cravens, former student body president, and this year the work is being carried on by "Bud" Lambourne and Al Latham, president of the high school student body.

Delegates from Carpinteria, Ventura, Oxnard, Fillmore, Santa Paula, Santa Maria, Arroyo Grande, San Luis Obispo and Lompoc will attend the convention.

Rust Arranges Film Showing

Projection of the feature film, "Young and Beautiful," which will be shown in the college auditorium the morning and again in the evening of Wednesday, March 6, will be in the care of Mr. William L. Rust, instructor in the industrial education department.

Mr. Rust had perfected both of the projection machine and the loudspeakers on the screen so that they are as good as any machines anywhere, according to officials of the International Relations club who are sponsoring the benefit program.

"Young and Beautiful" features the Wampus Baby Stars, Ted Fio-Rito and his orchestra, Judith Allen, William Haines, and the Hollywood Singers. Four featurettes will be shown on the program as well.

Home Ec. Graduate Accepts Position

Grace Juhl, graduate of Santa Barbara State college, has accepted a position with the Southern California Gas company. Miss Juhl will work under Miss Gladys Price of the home economics department, and will operate in the capacity of home service representative. Her duties will be to keep in contact with the patrons of the company, and to see whether or not the purchased stoves and Electrolux machines are satisfactory.

"The position is something which calls for my home economics training, and is very satisfactory," states Miss Juhl.

Ashworth Discusses Current Stage Plays

Dean William Ashworth, chairman of the English department, led a discussion last Tuesday at the Player's club luncheon on the current New York stage sensations.

It is the custom of the club to devote one meeting a month to discussions of this kind.

ASSIGNED JOB

Arthur Range, English, '33, has secured an appointment to teach journalism, Spanish, Glee club, band and dramatics at the CCC company, 1654, located at Soledad canyon, Saugus, California. Arthur writes that he is enjoying the work and is looking forward to visiting Santa Barbara in the in the near future.

A.M.S. Stages Annual Brawl and Contest

Bigger, better than ever!
What?
The Men's club Annual Hobo Brawl.

This yearly get-away-from-the-binding-conventionalities-of-society will take place after two weeks of energetic efforts on the part of the men to show their manly virility in the whisker growing contest. Critical inspection before hand and minute measurement afterwards by eminent whisker authorities of the faculty will decide the winners of prizes of the whiskerino contest.

The colossal feature of the brawl will be the frosh and soph "tie up" when the lower classmen will attempt to settle the eternal question of superior prowess. As never before the frosh are promising to give the second year men the struggle of their lives.

The committees promise many other exciting and thrilling events to be presented at Tucker's Grove on March 22 from 3 to 6:30 p.m.

"The spirit shown by members of the Men's club and the enthusiastic efforts of the committee members to make this brawl outstanding, predict an event no man of the campus will want to miss," says "Mert" Miller, chairman of the affair.

Present Prizes

The prizes won will be presented to the victors on the following evenings at the Farmer's Formal.

The members of the committee working under "Mert" Miller are Bob Way, general arrangements; Bill Poole, publicity; Bill Hoyt and Goldie Goldsmith, entertainment; and Zerrel Pelgreen, refreshments.

Citizens Rap Stand on Case of Dr. Scanlan

Charging that the constitutional rights of Dr. Ralph Scanlan, social science instructor, have been infringed upon, a group of citizens have protested the action taken by President Clarence L. Phelps in refusing to lighten Scanlan's academic load that he might resume activities as president of the Democratic club.

In a letter dated February 1, 1935, President Phelps pointed out that it had been the policy in the past for teachers to refrain from taking an active part in partisan politics. He quoted a statement from the joint commission on emergency education which upheld this point of view.

On February 14 a letter, written by Dr. Oliver Hart Bronson, Miss Margaret Whittemore and Frederick H. Cowles, was sent to Mr. Phelps. His policy was criticized on the grounds that Scanlan's academic and constitutional rights had been denied.

Until the return of the president from Atlantic City, where he is attending a meeting of the American Association of Teacher's colleges, no further information on his stand can be obtained.

Local Artist Gives Illustrated Lecture

Mr. William Newport, Santa Barbara wood-carver and artist, gave an illustrated lecture yesterday on wrought iron at the art department picnic held at Oak Park.

The department members were shown through the Las Manos Iron Works during the course of the lecture. After the lecture sports and games were played. Dinner was served at 6 o'clock.

Moore and Gumpertz Direct Annual Show

"Gaucha Gambols," formerly the Roadrunner Review, is to be presented early in April, according to "Buppy" Moore. "As yet the place of presentation is indefinite," stated Moore, "but we are hoping to be able to present it at the Fox theater. This is to be a strictly student production, under the direction of 'Buppy' Moore and 'Gump' Gumpertz."

Dancing, comedy, and a general program of entertainment has been planned. Gumpertz handled the show in 1932 and Moore directed the program in 1933.

Any student who desires to help in any capacity is asked to contact either one of the directors.

IMPERIAL VALLEY

Charlotte Webb, elementary education, 1933, is teaching in the Imperial Valley.

Educators Laud Article By Ellison

Dr. William Ellison's parting speech as president of the Pacific Coast branch of the American Historical association, recently printed in the February issue of Social Studies magazine, has incited much discussion and highly favorable comment in historical circles.

In a letter to Dr. Ellison, a distinguished professor in an eastern university writes: "I have just finished reading your presidential address, 'Scholars, Teachers or Actors,' which appears in the February number of Social Studies, and extend herewith my congratulations. It seems to me that you have admirably expressed for many of us what we have had in mind for many years. I hope that this article will receive the wide reading it deserves."

Author Gives Much Praise

Another commends the article even more highly: "I have just read your presidential address as it was printed in Social Studies and although we are unknown to one another I am taking the liberty of thanking you for it. Aside from its being an essay of art, it seems to me to be the best-balanced and most judicious evaluation of the ideals for the historians' guild that I remember reading. It cannot, I think, fail to be widely read. I for one shall get busy spreading its fame."

Coeds Seek He-Men for Choice Dance

Bashful boys beware!
Now is the time for the shrinking violets to withdraw into their corners, for there is nothing like a Co-ed Choice Dance to put the man-hunters on the track.

Rockwood will be the scene of a Co-ed Choice Dance Friday night, February 22, from 9 o'clock to 12. The dance will be sport, and the guests will dance to the music of Fred Lambourne and his orchestra.

A program will be given during the intermission. The evening will be directed by "Dot" Weber, snappy social chairman, who helps to make every dance a success.

So, our fine feathered friends, put on your best bib and tuckers, develop those pleasing blushes, and try-ta-rata-data.

Sound Film Shown at Student Body Meet

"Ford and a Century of Progress," a sound film obtained by Bob Goux, former State college student and operated by Mr. William Rust, was presented for Tuesday's assembly.

The film showed various scenes and demonstrations at the Century of Progress in Chicago, and the Ford factory in the Ford demonstration building. The exhibit pictured the earliest models of the Ford down to present day models. Workmanship and all processes of creating the automobile were shown, as well as improvements in the mechanical workings of the automobile.

COLLEGE GRADUATES HEAD LIST OF OUTSTANDING MEN OF 1934

Los Angeles, California. All but one of the twelve young men selected as the outstanding young men of 1934 are college or university graduates or at one time attended college. The selection of 1934's "best" was made by Duward Howes, editor of "America's Young Men," who's who of the younger generations.

The only one placed on the list who is not a college graduate is Clark Gable, 34-year-old movie actor who was selected for the honor roll for his outstanding performance in the screen hit "It Happened One Night." Following is the complete list:

Walter E. Disney, Chicago Academy of Fine Arts, famed animated cartoonist, and president of the Legion of Honor.

Lewis Douglas, Amherst College, Harvard University, and Massachusetts Institute of Technology. A member of Alpha Delta Phi, and formerly President Roosevelt's director of budget.

Clark Gable, movie actor.

John Edgar Hoover, George Washington University, member of

Player's Plan Production of "Doll's House"

Try-outs for "The Doll's House" by Henrik Ibsen, to be presented by the College players for their semi-annual public production, will be held in the auditorium Thursday afternoon of this week from 2:40 to 5 o'clock.

According to Bill Ogle, manager, the club has been criticized in the past because the plays have been of too light a mood. In presenting the Ibsen play the Players' hope to satisfy those who demand more important plays. "The Doll's House" is an old classic and will be of benefit to both the audience and the players.

If possible the play will be presented the first week after Easter vacation.

Any student may tryout for the play, provided he has maintained a "C" average through the last semester.

New Officers Chosen for Relations Club

New officers elected for the International Relations club at their meeting on Tuesday, February 12 were Jack Murray, president and Lon McLeod, treasurer.

Dr. Frederick W. Ganzert spoke on the business of the past Conference of International Relations clubs and offered suggestions as how to take care of the deficit. Jack Murray gave a report on the expense and benefits to be received from the film "Young and Beautiful," sponsored by the International Relations club.

New membership and types of meetings to be held were discussed. Those present were Margaret Whitford, Laura Fox, Mary Hughes, Jack Murray, James Murray, Don McLeod and Edgar McRae.

W. A. A. to Initiate New Women Students

Initiation of new members will take place at a meeting of the W.A.A. Thursday, February 28, according to Ida Pagliotti, president of the association.

Registrar Seeks Jobs for Grads

In an effort to find possible positions for February graduates Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, registrar, and Mrs. Laura S. Price, head of the elementary education department, interviewed the principals of elementary and high schools in Guadalupe, Betteravia, Santa Maria, Arroyo Grande and Orcutt on Monday.

Mrs. Abraham and Mrs. Price left on their trip at 6:30 a.m. and breakfasted at Buellton. They traveled on to Santa Maria where they interviewed Mr. Robert Bruce, district superintendent of schools at Santa Maria and Mr. A. A. Bowhey, principal of the high school and members of the school board. Mrs. Abraham also interviewed Mr. Frank McCoy, owner and manager of the Santa Maria Inn.

Black Cat

"We had luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce where I became acquainted with a 16-pound coal black Persian cat, called 'Big Boy,'" added Mrs. Abraham who confesses a weakness for beautiful cats and dogs.

Other school principals called on were at Betteravia grade school, Guadalupe schools, Arroyo Grande grade school, Pismo elementary school and Orcutt high school.

"At the different schools we visited we ran across several teachers who graduated from State college," said Mrs. Abraham. "At Guadalupe we visited three 'grads'—Leona Bowers Jordan, Naomi Ruth Kasten and Mary Volli."

Other graduates visited by Mrs. Abraham and Mrs. Price were Rose Cicero at Betteravia, and Glendon Lawson and Edwina Elliot at Orcutt high school.

Dr. Means Loans S. B. Pictures

Dr. Philip C. Means, former chairman of the local school board, and an enthusiastic collector of things related to Santa Barbara's history, has loaned the librarians a few photographs of the city in the last century for the exhibit case.

Many of the pictures have appeared in pamphlets and periodicals of this city and others. There are three interesting views of State street taken from different corners. The only picture of a building standing is one taken of the old adobe on De la Guerra street near Anacapa. The original building of the State college is also pictured, showing as little more than a log cabin.

Other views show West Beach and Castle Rock, the site of Recreation center, the high school and the city hall, the original Rexall Drug store, the adobe apartment house opposite Recreation Center, the first Lobero theater, the Old Mission and its reservoir, the old Catholic church bells on State and Figueroa.

STUDENT TEACHERS

Laura Fox and Joy Stockton are going to teach part time this semester. Miss Fox will teach at Goleta junior high school, and Miss Stockton in a Catholic girl's school in Santa Barbara.

Officers Ask for Housing Volunteers

Student body members are asked to volunteer housing for the visiting musicians who will be here to participate in the Fifth Annual All Southern California symphony, according to Wilma Keisner, chairman of the women's housing committee. There are 90 of the people to provide for.

Any student who can house one or more of the musicians, or knows of anyone who can, is asked to get in touch with Miss Keisner or Tommy Merrill, chairman of men's housing.

Recommendations Necessary

As the orchestra has become very popular in the last few years, all applicants must have high recommendations for technique, musicianship, and must have recommendations from the musical director of their respective institutions.

Fill First Chairs

The first step to be taken by local directors will be to find out which musician is the best in each section in order to determine who will fill the first chairs. All of the first day will be given to this, while the second day will be spent in rehearsal, both sectional and as a whole. There will be one rehearsal on the third and last day, and the concert will be held that night.

Committees

The executive committee is under the direction of Clifford E. Leedy, faculty director and founder; and Betty Hopkins, executive chairman. Student organizations are being managed by Laurence Leslie, business manager; Edward Cole, assistant business manager; Harold Van der Voort, librarian; and Bob McClain, technician.

Ticket sales will again be handled by the Santa Barbara Women's club.

The program includes Symphony No. 1, by Brahms; Navara, du Arbos and Albeniz; and Choral Prelude, by Bach. The fourth number has yet to be decided.

Sororities Rate High in Grades

Sorority members at Santa Barbara State college disprove the old theory that sorority sisters are empty-headed social butterflies. Their grades average 2.79. This places all sororities above the "C" average and several of the sororities near a "B" average. The highest individual grade average was 1.6 scored by Tau Gamma Sigma. This is further and conclusive proof that sorority members, despite their social affiliations, are good students.

Delta Sigma Epsilon leads the sororities in scholastic achievements with an average grade ratio of 2.11 and a grade range of 1.23 to 3.00. There are 16 members in this sorority.

The six other sororities have the following ratings: Areta Gamma, eight members, grade average 2.14, range of grade averages 1.23 to 3.00; Phi Kappa Gamma, seven members, grade average 2.37, range of grade averages 1.70 to 3.18; Tau Gamma Sigma, 12 members, grade average 2.55, range of grade averages 1.6 to 3.88; Delta Zeta Delta, 13 members, grade average 2.57, range of grade averages 1.83 to 3.00; Alpha Theta Chi, 10 members, grade average 2.76, range of grade averages 2.00 to 3.60; Gamma Delta Chi, seven members, grade average 2.82, range of grade averages 1.83 to 3.25.

Registration List to Exceed Last Semester

At present the figures of registration for the spring semester total 774. As students are still registering for some of the Saturday art classes in Mrs. Mary E. T. Crosswell's department, however, this amount will probably be raised. Of this number 77 students registered for the first time.

Players Club Provides for Realistic Setting

In completing arrangements to produce "The Bellamy Trial," a murder mystery, in the superior courtroom of the county court-house, the Lobero Players' club are planning to make this year's annual presentation a realistic and picturesque one.

Dean William Ashworth, chairman of the English department, will play one of the leading roles, that of Mr. Bellamy.

The play will be given March 13, 14, 15 and 16.

"Young and Beautiful"—the gorgeous Wampus Baby Stars, Ted Fio-Rito and his orchestra, William Haines, Judith Allen, Joe Cawthorne, Vince Barnett, the Hudson-Metzger girls, the Hollywood Singers, and a high-powered supporting cast—that's the feature for the all-talking motion picture benefit show that the International Relations club is offering Wednesday, March 6, for the delectation of all who enjoy music, comedy, and drama," exclaim club officials who report that tickets are already going fast.

Premiere Here

"Young and Beautiful," which was released in December, 1934, has never been billed in Santa Barbara. Club representatives say that they were very fortunate in securing so fine a picture released such a short time.

One performance of the show will be given Wednesday morning, March 6, by special arrangement with President Clarence C. Phelps. Classes will be dismissed so all may see the show. Two performances, one at 7 and one at nine, will be shown the evening of March 6.

Short Subjects

Besides the feature, "Young and Beautiful" four short subjects will be included in the program. "New Screen Snapshots," showing the Hollywood stars at work and at play; a "Silly Symphony" cartoon; "That Artist Feller," which shows magnificent color "shots" of Grand and Zion canyons; and "Sportman's Paradise," an exciting film taken during the winter sports in the Bavarian Alps will round out the first all-talking motion picture program ever offered the students at Santa Barbara State college.

Tickets for the morning show are priced at 20 cents while those for the two shows in the evening are 25 cents.

Class Gives One-Act Play

Would any one like a little free entertainment?

Next Monday, February 25, the class in play production will present two one act plays under the direction of Mrs. Hal Davis, class instructor.

In Booth Tarkington's "The Trysting Race" the cast will include Sydney Smith as Lancelot Briggs, Jane Miller as Jessie Briggs, Mary Tone as Mrs. Briggs, Marie Person as Mrs. Curtis, Sydney de Rosa as Rupert Smith, Richard Brothers as Mr. Englebury, and Alfredo Chauve as the mysterious voice.

Phyllis English as Anna, Reva Chandler as Aunt Elvera, and Janine Ruperto as Kate, the maid, complete the cast for "The Rescue."

Any students interested are invited to attend the plays.

A. W. S. Executive Board Holds Meet

A meeting of the executive board of the A.W.S. was held in Dean Lois Bennink's office Thursday, February 14, to elect the following women: Wilma Keisner, secretary; Alberta Greene, chairman of Woman's club room; and Sheila Davidson, program chairman.

At this time the A.W.S. board elected seven new members to Las Esputas, the sophomore service club, including Olive De Motte, Helen Eichelberger, Carolyn Hoefler, Marjorie Mansfield, Dorothy Riche, Clara Ross and Dorothy Taylor.

Miss Bradley Gives Nutrition Lecture

"Newer Things in Nutrition" and "Food, Fads and Fancies" are the subjects on which Miss Alice V. Bradley, of the home economics department, will lecture next Thursday, February 21, at Carpinteria. The lecture will be given before the Study club of the Woman's club in Carpinteria. Mrs. Gordon Ballard is president of the organization.

Justice

A judiciary system that allows one of its juries to accept a stage tour simply because it convicted a man to death is certainly lacking in the vague something which is called justice.

The jury which last week convicted Hauptmann of murder and kidnapping is to begin a tour of vaudeville circuit this evening. The very fact that members of the jury felt it necessary to give a statement to the press to the effect that the appearances were to be carried on in "an absolutely dignified manner" shows that they doubted the propriety of such a proceeding. General public opinion seems to be incensed against this stunt, and yet the public is powerless to stop it.

Some of the more sensation loving American people will attend these "performances" but even most of the sensationalists will have no desire to lend their sanction to a situation which allows a court jury to capitalize on a thoughtless public. This jury seems to have forgotten that their purpose was to deal justice to a suspected criminal and not add a greater shame to a country already disgraced by the kidnapping and murder of a helpless baby.

Surely there is some way that these persons can be reached by law. Or if the need for such a law has never been felt before, now is the time for such things to be stopped. —D.C.

Sororities and Fraternities

Sorority and fraternity membership is an experience the majority of college students can profit from. Aside from the fun of the thing, which is in no way to be denied, there are several other aspects that are worth-while.

One of these is the experience gained in getting along with other people.

Another is in making the nice adjustment of conforming to a group ideal without losing personal individuality. On this score much of the criticism against such secret organizations is directed. The opponents say that membership tends to fit the individual into a mold and turns out one who has lost his individual personality and has become a type.

In some cases this criticism may be warranted. But the good sorority or fraternity member is one who has learned to contribute to and uphold the group ideals and traditions and at the same time to remain, fundamentally, himself.

Another reward is that almost spiritual satisfaction which comes with loyalty to group ideals. The feeling of cooperative enterprise, of mutual appreciation and understanding, of sympathy and tolerance that is found among close friends, is one that lasts long after other college experiences have been forgotten.

Montecito Trees

Taking away much of the charm and grace which had been Santa Barbara's, workmen during the past few weeks have been employed in cutting down the stately eucalyptus trees which grow on both sides of the highway on the entrance to our city.

Santa Barbara has long been noted as one of the few cities which has pioneered in the field of keeping its surroundings as natural as possible and letting nature do the work of beautifying the landscape instead of having man made machinery intrude upon nature's domain, but once again progress has decreed that business shall prevail against beauty and our trees are being cut down in the interest of better highway construction and to further business interests. The state government has promised to see that these trees are replanted as soon as possible, but until then Santa Barbara will be missing something which is very vital and necessary to its peaceful atmosphere. R.M.

The filling station men have improved the manners and courtesy of the American public more than all the colleges in the country.—Robert Millikan, physicist, in the Spartan Daily.

George Washington

Friday, February 22, marks another anniversary of the birth of George Washington, our patriotic father. His has been a paradoxical position in the mind of the public, at once respected and laughed at, praised and maligned, worshipped and humbly admired.

Because of the cherry tree myth, for one thing, he was put on a pedestal, so that he was not one of the people, as Lincoln has always been, but a minor deity. We looked up at him with awe. Or, rationalizing, we belittled him.

Rupert Hughes, in debunking Washington's divine standing, did him a service, in that he made him again a man. Having discovered that Washington had common faults, we can liken ourselves to him, thus establishing a friendly bond that was totally lacking before.

Today we look on Washington, not as a pedestaled god, but as a man, one we can emulate and sincerely admire, one we can understand and be thankful that so strong a mind and heart as his was present in those crucial days so many years ago.

Art—Music—Drama

By MARY TOMLINSON

Shakespearean Opera

The possibility of Shakespeare for opera has been sadly neglected, we have concluded after viewing opera in Los Angeles Saturday by the San Carlos Opera company. Gounod's "Romeo and Juliet" reminded us of the old play master. The time-worn tale of two lovers severed by family relationships, swayed through the Gounod music with a grace not found in the words of the story.

Resemblance to Shakespeare was also noted in Puccini's "La Tosca." The vicious vim of the accompaniment to which Tosca leaped over the terrace to her death brought the spirit of Shakespeare characters to our attention. We have decided Shakespeare could come back with new greatness in musical form. Give us a musical Katherine in "The Taming of the Shrew," storming her suitors as they serenaded her and breaking their mandolines over their pates. Give us a Shylock singing for his pound of flesh in "The Merchant of Venice." Give us Lady Macbeth singing her cursed lines in "Macbeth." Shakespeare has left unlimited characters for operatic use.

Richard Strauss we see clearly as a possible composer to solicit for the creation of Shakespeare. He has already shown himself up to the mark by his superb descriptive work in "Salome" in which he paints the demanding young lady who insisted upon having the head of John the Baptist as a reward for her dancing. Other compositions that qualify him for our needs are the tone poems, "Don Juan" and "Tillulenspiegel," both of which present vivid stories in music. Although Wagner is known as the greatest of dramatic composers, his musical style is highly virtuosic, god-like, and idealistic. What we need is pusillanimity. Shakespeare wrote of humanity in all its weaknesses. We must have that fire in our music. Strauss, we think, can deal with the women, bring in a ghost or two with considerable ease, and kill everybody off with adequately colliding chords.

The field of Shakespearean opera opens the further we think about it. Hamlet would make an admirable operatic figure; in the hands of Maurice Ravel, Cleopatra would bloom into her own slinky self; "As You Like It" done by the Frenchman, Bizet, would make pleasant coquettish music.

Giacomo Puccini, whose "Tosca" we heard Saturday, could handle the Shakespeare moods as well as any one. At least we are grateful to him for giving us the idea. Incidentally the San Carlos Opera company presents an enjoyable performance regardless of Metropolitan perfection which we hear on the radio. San Carlos goes to San Francisco soon.

Gleep, gleep! And other expressions in praise of practically everything. Spring, spring, it's spring — which MIGHT explain why we sit on our balcony overlooking city and ocean on this super, super day, and with feet firmly planted in front of us, hold our typewriter on our lap and hack out this column for you ready readers. (?) Note the?!

Sunday afternoon is the best and worst time to have spring fever.

The greatest temptation of a columnist—printing original verse appearing in the column of an exchange paper—Spartan Daily to be exact.

Paul Engle's "American Song," a recent group of poems published by Doubleday, Doran cannot be done justice to in the feeble powers of criticism possessed by this gal of the lettered keys, but could we move you to fluttering the pages of this small volume if we say the verse is new, modern, imagistic, and holds the reader with its depth of expression and feeling.

"There are more beautiful women in Los Angeles than in any other city on earth. But they all come from somewhere else."

"Hollywood is called the 'City of Happy Homes,' this being caused by the fact that husbands and wives seldom occupy the same house."

The best part of Robert Benchley's writings are the titles of his books. But that doesn't mean that his latest book of humor "From Bed to Worse, or Comforting Thoughts About the Bison" trails in the gulley of mediocrity—that is, if you like Benchley. We do if only for the fact that he is a bosom friend of Dorothy "Men never make passes at girls who wear glasses," Parker and Alexander "This is Woolcott, that bulk of rotundity speaking," Woolcott.

"The houses will have hunched down asleep, their porches in their paws."

Recommendation: that the class meeting under the narrow head of CRITICISM be broadened to CRITICISM or A STUDY IN ASH-WORTH. There is one who taketh the course for the second time. Don't miss it! It is practical and comprehensive — and comprehensible.

Important Announcements

All students who do not have tickets to the International Relations club benefit motion picture show Wednesday morning will be required to attend regular classes, according to Dean Lois M. Ben-nink.

Friday, February 23, is the last day students will be allowed to change programs to add or drop subjects without receiving "F's."

Laboratory fees are due and payable next week to Miss Wilma Lowsley, financial secretary.

Another literary supplement is in the mill. New name, new plans, new ideas! Get your stories, essays, poems, epigrams into the editor's box in El Gaucho office before February 28.

BOOK REVIEW

Mary Ellen Chase: "Mary Peters," Little Brown and Co., September, 1934.

"Mary Peters" is an often reviewed novel, given much praise and little adverse criticism. It does, I believe, live up to its good name, even that enthusiastic recommendation printed by the publishers.

Chronicling the life of Mary Peters from her girlhood in the eighties, to middle age, Miss Chase weaves a delightful, colorful story, expensive if all its details had a price, but as a whole, a trifle slow moving. She gives herself many chances to do ponderous description and then heeds credit upon her pen for doing this adequately, even excellently—a hard thing to do.

Mary is a child of the sea, born on the sea, educated there, and made the woman she became by the sea. After she has to live on land in her home in Maine, the fine traditions and ideals she has unconsciously gained in her childhood stay with her.

She has three great loves in her life—first, her father's chief officer who understood her little girl's mind; then, at 17, a girl of her own age, Hester; and, lastly, her husband, Jim Pendleton. Each dies and leaves place for the next.

The story unfolds naturally and slowly. Crises are approached calmly and left just as peacefully. Vivid description characterizes the whole. Miss Chase reveals some of her own philosophy here, and much deep thought seems to have gone into it. The only unnatural feature is the overabundance of deaths. Everyone Mary loved, or was even a friend to, was killed, she remaining the hardy survivor. This gives the novel a Victorian touch which does not go well with the modern treatment of other points.

Mary is a sympathetic, lovely character, worth getting acquainted with. JEANNE WOOD.

RADIO NOTES

By KEITH LUPTON

The four Lombardo brothers, Guy, Carmen, Lebert and Victor, are back in southern California where they and the orchestra have opened a four weeks' engagement at the Coconut Grove in Los Angeles.

The orchestra may be reached twice each evening on the radio. KFVB presents the early broadcast at 8:30; and KFI the late—11. They may also be heard on a sponsored program over WLW (640 kc.) each Wednesday evening at 7 P.S.T.

Ben Bernie, the old maestro, will open an engagement at Catalina in a few weeks. Following him Jan Garber and his orchestra will be featured. CBS will release these orchestras nightly.

Jack Pearl, the former Baron, is now on the air in his new character, Peter Pfeiffer over KDB each Wednesday evening at 7, taking the place of the Byrd broadcast. Pearl still talks like the Baron but doesn't lie like our old friend Munchausen.

Don't forget our own state college broadcast each Tuesday evening at 9 p.m. It is an educational program and will interest all college students. President Phelps is doing all he can to make these programs a success, and so far he has succeeded very well.

EXCHANGE POSITIONS

Elsie Le Blanc, elementary education department of '26, who formerly taught in the Orcutt elementary school, has been given a position in the Santa Barbara city schools.

Edwina Elliott, elementary education department, of '34, has taken over Miss Le Blanc's position at Orcutt.

Something Important To Think About

State College students will be interested in the details of the Summer School to be offered by Santa Barbara Business College.

This special 12 week session will begin shortly after the close of the present State College semester. Daily sessions will be half-day only—8:00 a.m. 'till noon.

The curriculum will include intensive courses in all commercial subjects—typing, bookkeeping, shorthand, etc. Rates for tuition will be attractive and reasonable.

Begin to think about your plans for next summer now, and the first step to take is to call at the school for further information. No obligation, of course.

GAUCHO GAB

By BILL HOYT

Postponed a week and a day! A rather surprising yet thoroughly warranted move was the postponement of the varsity-junior varsity "Civil War" by the powers that be in the Gauchos' athletic administration. Several plausible reasons were given, headed by the one that "Ye Big Shots" had too tough a schedule this week. A two game series with one of the leading conference teams is a bad week-end for any team, but if you don't mind my saying so Tuesday is separated from Friday by two full days — well, maybe it would be kinda tough after all, Quien Sabe? Anyway next Wednesday will be just as good.

What would you fellows say to an Intramural picnic, to be sort of a combination field day with a feed bag thrown in. "Bun" O'Reilly, Intramural manager suggested it as a means of working off some of our intramural activities that have fallen behind due to the extensive track and spring football programs. If some of these things were out of the way, it would leave afternoons to go swimming too. How about it? Tell "Bun" what you think.

Southern conference was plunged into confusion when Oxy defeated the conference leading Poets twice in a two game series last week-end. Whittier stole the lead from San Diego about two weeks ago when they eked out a close decision over last year's conference champs and this year's favorites till the setback. It's a three way tie now with the Bengals, Aztecs, and Poets in a deadlock, with the Tigers and Indians yet to meet and the literary geniuses helpless to improve their standing.

Aztecs Open Two Night Series Here

San Diego State's powerful casaba tossers, thrown once again into the thick of the Southern conference race by virtue of the downfall of their previous conquerors, the Whittier Poets, will attempt to climb back into the league lead this Friday and Saturday night when they tackle the Santa Barbara Gauchos in a two game series on the local Armory floor.

Although the Gauchos are out of the race they can prove a stumbling block to San Diego, as the Aztecs must take both these games to stay in the running. The southern outfit is a heavy favorite to do just this however as comparative scores rate them many points ahead of the locals.

Coach Hal Davis's men manage to turn in an excellent game every now and then, though, and when they do, as in the Whittier and Cal-Tech games, the opposition finds plenty of hard sledding, so it is not an impossibility for the Gauchos to take at least one of the contests.

In the Aztec lineup will be a pair of flashy forwards Wilson and Moss, who have been a great source of trouble to their opposition all season.

To match the scoring ability of these boys, Coach Davis has Hoffer and Johnson, forward and center respectively who have been causing trouble themselves of late.

In an attempt to gain back some lost prestige, the once powerful State frosh hoopers will do battle with Cal-Poly's Mustangs in the preliminary tilt Friday night.

Coach Harry Killian's men are favored over the northern team as the Gauchos babes have already defeated them once in an early season game played in the burg of San Luis.

leaving, and the third is coming up speedily and with more fire and spirit than the Gaucha track has seen in many a moon. Thanks to Coach Nick Carter. Ten men leave for San Diego Friday for the Fifth Annual Southern California College Relays led by Willis "Tiny" McCullough, holder of the Southern Conference shot put championship. Meets follow in close order after next Saturday, some here and some away, but hear tell now, for we'll be bringing home to "Deah Olde Alma" some bacon and beefsteak this year.

Loud gab and small talk: San Diego State beat Olson's Swedes; Sensational Swedes swamped S. B. State; Intramural track has brought out Larry Bowlus, and Bud Ewing; Bowlus has won first places.

Mahoneyites Claim Varsity Men Are Sissies

Varsity vs. junior varsity.
February 28 is the date!
Eight o'clock is the time!
Armory is the place!

Can the state college varsity take the junior varsity? Can those "meet all comers Mahoneyites" dish it out or will they have to take it from the big shots. These are the questions being asked about the annual grudge battle between the all powerful varsity and the little J.V.'s.

The odds seem to be about evenly divided between the two casaba quintets. Some claim that the strict training schedule of the varsity members will pull them through, while others say that the "shoot a bucket every time" method of the J.V.s. will put them on the top, but whatever everyone says those "Mahoneyites" will be out for blood and should the varsity boys come out on the short end of the score something is bound to happen somewhere.

This game is being sponsored by the associated student body and the proceeds will go to the hospitalization fund. Tickets will be on sale next week and everyone is urged to buy one. Tickets will be 25 cents.

BOXERS PERFORM BEFORE CLUBMEN

Six members of Coach Harold Hart's boxing and wrestling class gave three exhibition bouts of boxing and wrestling last Wednesday night at the University club.

Two three-round exhibitions by Johnny Bowen, Johnny Varner, Jim Monson and Lester Clemons were well accepted by the group and a wrestling match between Doug Oldershaw and Dan Mulloch was also well received.

Mr. Hart stated "We wish to extend our thanks to the University club for the excellent treatment of our athletes, and also for the fine food."

Mr. Fred Allred added, "The boys fought and wrestled hard and did equally well with the cigars."

Joe Maniai, Fordham University halfback, is faster on the gridiron than his brother, Sam, of Columbia, who is intercollegiate 60 yard sprint champion.

VARSITY CLUB WINS TRACKMEET BY LARGE SCORE

Culminating one of the most successful intra-mural track programs in the history of the school, the Varsity club, a group of non-fraternity men, swept to an overwhelming victory in the annual pre-season meet conducted during the past week, on Phelps field.

Larry Bowlus, Varsity club "Iron Man," was high point man of the meet with victories in the mile, 880, 440, and broad jump, as well as a second in the 100 and third in the 220. Joe Nightingale breezed through with firsts in both the century and furlong. "Tiny" McCullough pushed the shot out 39 feet to win that event and Pat McCullough won the hammer throw.

Coach Nick Carter was exceptionally pleased with the early season form of his javelin tossers, Bud Ewing, who got it out 168 feet and Elmer Lee, with 160, should both show up well in conference competition this year.

Lee took a second in the Southern conference meet last year, but has not had a chance to get into condition yet due to basketball activities.

The frosh came through in a number of events. Gene Campbell won the discus. Dave Rumbaugh took the high hurdles and Bill Gray tied with Johnny Bowen in the lows.

Summary:
100 yard dash—Nightingale 1st, Bowlus 2nd, Bowen 3rd, Crow 4th.
220 yard dash—Nightingale 1st, Bowen 2nd, Bowlus 3rd, David 4th.
440 yard dash—Bowlus 1st, Crow 2nd, Nightingale 3rd, Jackson 4th.
Two mile run—Shean 1st, Commons 2nd.

Low hurdles—Gray 1st, Bowen 1st (tie), Oaks 3rd, David 4th.

Broad jump—Bowlus 1st, J. David 2nd, B. David 3rd, Jackson 4th.

Pole vault—Sanderson 1st, Holcomb 2nd, Rezonico 3rd, Murray 4th.

Hammer throw—Pat McCullough 1st, Twadell 2nd, David 3rd, Tiny McCullough 4th.

Javelin throw—Ewing 1st, Lee 2nd, Coultas 3rd.

Campus Coffee Cup Capers

It appears that the best romance of the year involves one Leonard Fisher, he of the artistic leaning, and may be seen budding almost anywhere on the campus. The favorite spot for the two lovebirds seems to be their little room in the quad.

"Buppy" Moore is tingling with excitement! He has been asked by at least a dozen girls to go to the Girls' Choice dance this week. Only, however, after tactful inquiries by the fair damsels concerned how long he will be on crutches. "Buppy," 'twill be recalled, tripped over his mustache in a recent basketball game and tore the ligaments in his ankle.

Rumor has it that the young leddies of the campus have turned on the Jayvee team. Why? Because there are too many "married" men on the team. Try a hamburger supreme at least once a day!

Baseball Men Will Turn Out Monday Night

With four returning lettermen forming the nucleus of the 1935 baseball squad, Head Man Harder issued the call for all baseball men to report to Pershing park Monday afternoon, February 25.

Finding a man to take care of the pitching duties will be the most difficult problem Harder will have to meet this year. "Mert" Miller, Ray Wyant, "Hi" Stanley and Don Fisher are four possible candidates for the hurling position any one of whom might develop well enough to fill the job, although none of these men are of proven quality.

With an 18 game schedule already lined up, this season promises to be the most interesting year for the followers of the national sport that the Gauchos have ever had. The schedule covers a three month period starting with an inter-squad game on March 2 and ending May 4 when the Staters play host to La Verne.

The complete schedule follows:
March 2, inter-squad, March 8, Ventura J. C. here; March 9, Los Prietos CCC, here; March 15, Ventura J. C., there; March 16, Santa Maria J. C., there; March 22, La Verne, there; March 23, Redlands, there; March 27, San Jose, here; March 29, Chapman, there; March 30, Whittier, there; April 5, Chapman, here; April 6, Occidental, here; April 12, Redlands, here; April 13, Whittier, here; April 26, Occidental, there; April 27, Santa Maria J. C., here; May 3, Taft J. C., here, and May 4, La Verne, here.

PING PONG MEET NEARS FINISH

The ping pong tournament sponsored by the W.A.A. is well under way, according to Lucile Gaudin, manager of the tournament.

Girls who have signed to participate in the single matches are: W. Anderson, I. Samson, D. Martin, G. Ross, H. Cooper, M. Brown, L. Gaudin, L. Koehly, E. Maitland, M. Tene, R. Maccianti and G. Slayton. The double teams are E. Maitland and L. Gaudin, G. Slayton and M. Brown, E. Rees and S. Smyth, W. Anderson and K. Bayton, G. Ross and H. Cooper, L. Koehly and I. Samson.

All matches are to be played off by Friday and scores must be reported to Lucile Gaudin.

Track Team Travels to San Diego

Seven trackmen will travel to San Diego this Saturday to represent Santa Barbara State for the first time in the Fifth Annual Southern California College relays, sponsored by the San Diego State college.

The Gauchos will compete in four events, the shot, discus, javelin and the conference four man mile relay.

This meet is the opening gun of the Southern Conference track season and will see plenty of stiff competition in all events. As usual a large number of schools are expected to enter teams. Last year the following schools were entered: Occidental, Redlands, Whittier, La Verne, Riverside, Compton, Chaffee, Pasadena, Long Beach, Pomona, Glendale, Santa Monica, Citrus, Fullerton, Santa Ana, San Bernardino and Ventura. All of these schools are expected to enter men again this year.

An opening and victory ceremony very similar to those used during the Olympic games in Los Angeles will be the order of the day including a flag raising ceremony and a victory stand.

Among those to represent Santa Barbara State are Willis McCullough, shot and discus; Bud Ewing, javelin and Larry Bowlus, Bill Crow, Joe Nightingale and Roland McDonald, four man mile relay.

Stutzman, forward, who scored 11 and 10 points, respectively.

Howie Yeager, in the State lineup after a few weeks absence, again led the attack for his team, garnering 6 points, while Ian Crow and Dave Rumbaugh followed with 4 each.

Second Rushing Parties to be Given at Hotel

Invitations to the second rushing events of the season will be in the boxes at 9 a.m. Friday morning, February 22. All of the events are to be held on Saturday night in the form of formal dinners, at 7 p.m.

Most of the dinners will be held in hotels. Tau Gamma Sigma and Alpha Theta Chi plan to entertain at the Biltmore; Delta Sigma Epsilon and Gamma Delta Chi at the Vista Mar Monte; Areta Gamma at the San Marcos Tea Room; Delta Zeta Delta at El Mirasol hotel; and Phi Kappa Gamma in the Red Room of El Paseo.

Two of the sororities have not yet held their first events. Those are Delta Zeta Delta who will meet tonight and Delta Sigma Epsilon, tomorrow night.

A.W.S. Honors New Women

Donning their kid clothes, about 80 members of the A.W.S. met in Ebbett's hall Friday night, February 8 for their semi-annual spree. New women at State were initiated and introduced.

Following the dinner, a short program was given consisting of several skits by the Delta Zeta Delta, Kappa Delta Chi and Areta Gamma sororities. Mary Frances McKinney gave a reading. After the program, the women danced for a short time.

Julia Lynch was in charge of the occasion.

Areta Gammas Stage Travel Party

In honor of the rushees, Areta Gamma sorority entertained with a party, Monday evening, February 18, at Laguna House. The room was decorated like a ship with life-savers and pennants. The guests, upon entering, were made to sign passports and passenger list. The group made a make-believe voyage to Japan, visiting all the Japanese islands, and playing appropriate games all the way over. On the return trip, the guests ate their sea food dinner in the captain's quarters. The centerpiece of the table depicted the main island of Japan.

Active members present were Myrtle Swanson, Mildred Rohrs, Evelyn Steinmier, Carol Harper, Lola Cooper, Ruth Brubaker, Eileen McCollum. Alumnae attending were Mrs. Alma Watson, and Ramona Able.

Areta Gammas Elect Harper

Officers for the following semester were elected at the regular monthly business meeting of Areta Gamma sorority at the home of Eileen McCollum, on February 11.

Officers installed by the outgoing president were Caryl Harper, president; Mildred Rohrs, vice president; Lola Cooper, secretary; Eileen McCollum, treasurer; Ruth Brubaker, historian; Evelyn Steinmier, chaplain and Myrtle Swanson, rush captain.

Grace Juhl, a February graduate, was presented with the traditional piece of silver for graduation.

Miss Ramona Abel, 1934 graduate, and former member of the sorority, announced her engagement to Lolo DuBois.

Alpha Thetas Don Raggedy-Ann Garb

"Raggedy Ann and Raggedy Andy" entertained rushees of Alpha Theta Chi sorority at a party given last night at the home of Mrs. Arthur Williams, Paso Robles drive, Montecito.

The theme was carried out in dolls, suckers, tallies, invitations, place cards, and the costumes of the hostesses. Bridge was played, and each rushee wore a pansy corsage. Approximately 45 women attended.

Several alumnae motored up from the south to attend the party. Former members present were Bernice Denno, Charlotte Mobley, Constance Bredsteen, Clare Wise, Zoella Mariot, Shirley Mercer, Ellen Voss, Lucille Hall, Carolyn Barr, Virginia Sawyer, Virginia Cook, Catherine Hacking and Margaret Walter.

Hostesses were Ruth Carter, Audrey Gill, Dorothy Weber, Mary Erickson, Mary Bell, Genevieve Jones, Peggy Koepp, Catherine Westaway, Marge Bunch and Louise Funk.

Freshman Club Holds Meeting

The Freshman Knitting club met Saturday afternoon, February 9, at the home of Dorothy Horner, 2101 State street.

This is a newly formed organization, and has held two previous meetings at the homes of Judy Drennen and Jeanne Wood. The next meeting will be held at February 23, at the home of Dorothy Darrow, 622 E. Valerio street.

Members present were Judy Drennen, Irene Minikin, Jeanne Wood, Alice McCray, Jeannette Banks, Neva Doris Freeman, Petie McKinney, Dorothy Darrow, Marion Gallagher, Peggy Pope, Louise Jackson, Elizabeth Denman and Dorothy Horner.

Calendar Tells Coming Events

Wednesday, Feb. 20—College "Y" meeting, 7 a.m.; Delta Zeta Delta first event; Pi Sigma Chi; band practice.
Thursday, Feb. 21—Council meeting; Delta Sigma Epsilon first event; Alpha Phi Omega; W.A.A. meeting.

Friday, Feb. 22—Student body dance at Rockwood; second event invitations in boxes at 9 a.m.

Saturday, Feb. 23—Sorority night, all second events.
Monday, Feb. 25—Sorority and fraternal nights.

Tuesday, Feb. 26—General assembly; A.W.S. board; Delta Phi Epsilon.

Oriental Theme Used at Sorority Party

Ray Harris' studio on Carrillo street was the scene of the Gamma Delta Chi's first rushing event of the season. Gayly decorated in bamboo boughs and Chinese hangings, the room represented an Oriental apartment to carry out the motif of the evening.

The entertainment consisted of dice games, buncos and cootie, and an authentic Chinese lottery. Doris Martin, having accumulated the most points from the games, won the grand prize. Dot Riche carried away the lottery prize.

Alumnae members present were Betty Mercer from El Segundo; Elsie Eckhoff, Los Angeles; Maurine Fisher, El Segundo; Ruth Johnson, Lynwood; Francis Whitmore, Los Angeles; and Margaret Holden, Wandalyne Linker and Idabeth Watkins Porter from Santa Barbara.

Wyllis Anderson, Marguerite Audureau, Francis Warring, Stella Smead and Margaret Brest were active members present; Mrs. Mamie Miller and Mrs. Irene Stewart, sponsors, and Miss Helen Sweet also attended.

Tau Omegas Hold Annual Open House

Staging their annual open house, Tau Omega fraternity last Monday night entertained prospective members in the grill room of the Carrillo hotel. The affair began at 8 o'clock and lasted until 10.

A short welcome speech was given by James Coultas, president of the organization, in which he explained to the guests what the aims and ideals of Tau Omega were. Harrington "Pop" Wells, a former sponsor, also gave a short talk on how one should choose his fraternity and what it meant to the individual.

At the conclusion of the card game refreshments in the form of coffee and cake were served.

Alumni present were Thomas Keating, Dick Waterman, Don Watson, Ed Christensen, Pinky Greeson, Hal Polley, Roger Casier, Douglas Kirkpatrick, Virgil Kirkpatrick, Howard Bush and C. Hillman.

Members there were Jim Coultas, Donald Hickok, Denning McArthur, "Buddy" Moore, Don Fisher, Jack Maloney, Tommy Merrill, Bob Johnson, Dick Lund, Johnnie Ingram, Gilbert Homfeld, Melville Homfeld, Larry Goodell, Clifton Morris, Bob Moore, Howard Van Winkle and Freddy Hendrixson.

Mrs. Davis Chooses Samuel French Plays

Mrs. Harold Davis spent Saturday in Los Angeles reading plays at the Samuel French drama studios. The plays selected will be used for class work in play production.

Phi Kappas Fete With Nautical Party

Phi Kappa Gamma, social sorority, entertained the rushees of the organization at a nautical party held in the grill room of Margaret Baylor Inn.

Decorations featured ship models and yachting pennants. The room was illumined with a blue light, which, with the decorative fish, crabs, and seaweed gave the effect of an undersea cavern.

First prize for the bridge game was awarded to Janet Hilton; second prize to Ruth Hilly. Later in the evening the guests were entertained by Maldo the Magician. In addition, Mrs. Mark Davis sang two selections. Following the program, refreshments were served, carrying out coral and sea-green sorority colors. Favors were glass seals, pelicans, and fish.

Active members present were Tess Williams, Dorothy Allen, Beth Blodgett, Marion Call, Carolyn Hofer, Rosemary Habecker and Mary Melano. Local alumni attending were Mrs. Jack Vince, Mildred Wright, Katharyn Myers, Helen Kooley, and Catherine Coy. Mrs. Edward Parkes Jr., Marjorie McKay, Marian Ek and Katherine Gaines, alumni, motored up from Los Angeles.

Sorority Gives Benefit Bridge for Community

Last Saturday afternoon a benefit bridge party was given by the alumnae association of Delta Zeta Delta sorority at the home of their patroness, Mrs. Byron Abraham. Proceeds of the party, which was under the chairmanship of Miss Nancy Davens, was given to the Community Chest.

Miss Jean Gourley, whose wedding to Phil Nordli will take place on February 23, was presented with a wedding gift of silver from the members of the alumnae association at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Betty Remp on February 11. The valentine motif was carried out in the decoration scheme.

Plans have been made by the association for the annual fashion show which will be held on March 16. Mary Lee Townsend, Lillian Talbot and Georgia Lyons were guests of the alumnae bridge supper.

Done movin'

Smokers of Chesterfield are funny that way, you can hardly move 'em. They evermore like 'em, and they evermore stick to 'em. Chesterfields are milder—they taste better.
