College Holds Rally, Dance Tonight in Honor of Grid Team

Gaucha Band, Pep Talks, Songs Feature Second Program in Series; Orchestra Dedicates Numbers to Harder Eleven

In honor of the football team, a dance will be given tonight in the auditorium at 7 o'clock. This is the second in a series of rally dances which will be given before the home games.

The college band, under the direction of Robert Louis Barron, faculty instructor, and John Austin, student conductor, will be featured at the rally in the auditorium. Football coaches Spud Harder and Willie Wilton are scheduled to speak during the rally.

Songs and Yells
Yell Leaders Bud Burdick, Jack Richards and Redman Beatty, and Song Leaders Harriet Ridenour, Gracie Williams and Beryl Davidson will lead the students in songs and yells, with the aid of slides to be shown on the screen. It is also hoped to have a movie short shown at the rally.

Music for the dance will be played by the Fred Lambourne-Frank Greenough orchestra. Each of the pieces played will be dedicated to a member of the starting line-up, with an extra in honor of Coach Spud Harder. The dance has been scheduled for 8 p. m. for the benefit of the members of the football team who will have to leave by 10.

Joint Sponsorship
The rally-dance has been arranged under the joint leadership of the rally and social committees, headed by Harry Sloan and Betty Palmaymesa, respectively.

Chairmen in charge of the dance include Bill Lambourne, orchestra; Bill Sears, programs and entertainment; Margaret Parks, decorations; Dolly Emmons, publicity; and Betty Palmaymesa, refreshments.

Sponsors for the dance, contrary to previous announcement are Mr. and Mrs. Theo Harder, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Jacobs, Dr. and Mrs. Irving Mather, Mr. and Mrs. Don Follet, and Dr. William Ellison.

Journalists Pledge Six

At a meeting of Alpha Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity, held in the A.W.S. club-room Wednesday night at 7:30 p. m. the members under the direction of Christine MacKellar, president, and Mrs. Margaret Bennett, sponsor, discussed plans for pledging and for the Western division convention which will be held in Santa Barbara on November 12.

The six pledges who were added to the fraternity are James Widman, Walt Bradbury, associate member, Jack Edmondson, Bill Sparrow, Bruce Steele and Ted Joham.

In addition to discussing the convention exhibits, meetings and the Invitational Writers Tournament, plans were completed for an open house which is to be held at 8 p. m. Sunday evening at the home of Mrs. Margaret Bennett, 99 Center avenue and to which all members of the staff of El Gaucho, La Cumbre and the student handbook are invited.

I.E. Group Schedules Overnight Isle Trip

Final plans have been made by the Industrial Education department for an overnight trip to the Santa Barbara islands. The group consisting of Cameron Sellar, Paul Funk, Bruce Steele, Bob Reynolds, Wesley Linda, Walter Firth, Jeff Powell, Dick Chatten, Marcellus Jones, Clarence Mikulasek, Bob Van Noord and Keith Nichols will leave the breakwater early Saturday morning and return Sunday evening.

McKeon Gives Up Finance Chairmanship

Requests for Applicants To Fill Vacant Position Issued by Duckham

The resignation of Richard McKeon from the chairmanship of the finance committee was accepted last night at the bi-weekly meeting of the student council. McKeon, who was appointed last June by Associated

DICK MCKEON

Students' President Doug Duckham to serve during this school year, stated in a letter to the council that the pressure of other duties had forced his action.

Appointment of a new head for the committee has been postponed until next Wednesday so that Duckham may receive applications from students desiring to receive consideration for the position.

The council also voted Don Follet, graduate manager, the authority to borrow $10,000 to conduct running expenses of the Associated Students for the current semester.

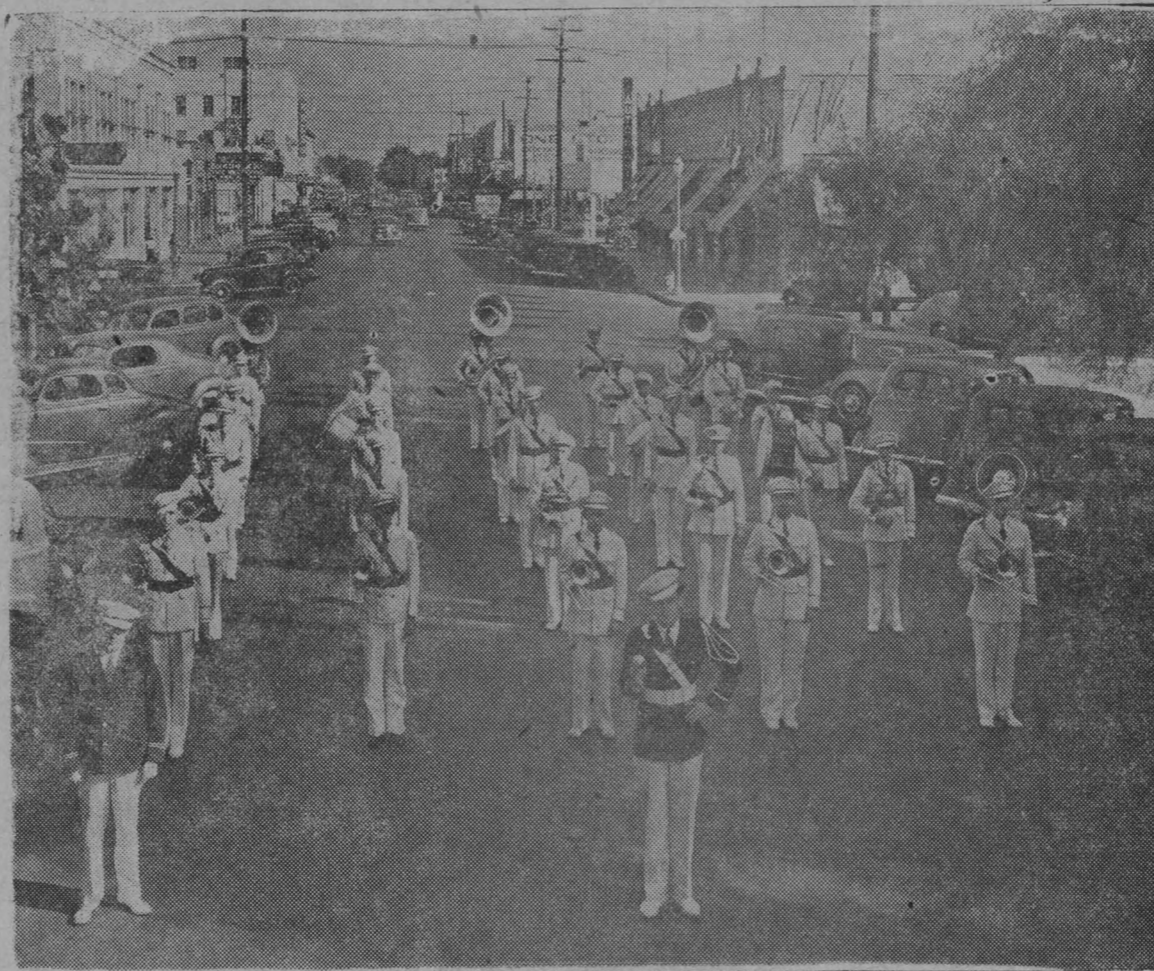

The institution of a new parking plan on the campus for the faculty was okayed on the suggestion of Welfare Chairman Bill Russell, and the appointment of Jesse Lady to succeed Gordon Woosley to the Welfare committee was also given approval.

Russell announced that the validity of the Kangaroo and Student courts had been established at the trial of William Morrissey Wednesday before the Welfare group.

Furniture Arrives For Ridge Hall

Sixty-eight more pieces of the furniture for Ridge hall arrived yesterday afternoon. This makes a total of 123, the other fifty-six desk chairs having arrived Tuesday. Due from San Quentin within the next few days are thirty-seven more pieces.

Gaucha Band Serenades Citizens in Street. . . .

Last year's State College band, above, traveled to Bakersfield and took the town by storm. This year's group, with many of the same members will attempt to raise enough money at Tuesday night's benefit at the Granada theater to take Tempe, Arizona by storm next week.

Junior Class Holds Dance Tomorrow

At the annual junior class dance to be held tomorrow evening in the college cafeteria, the music will be provided in the form of a large variety of recordings of such orchestras as Tommy Dorsey, Glen Gray, Buddy Rogers and others. During intermission a surprise program will be presented.

The dance, which will be a sport affair, will last from 9 to 12 p. m. The junior class has invited all sophomores to whom the admission charge will be 10 cents. If their dues are paid, the members of the junior class will be admitted free; if not they will be charged 25 cents.

Tomorrow evening's affair will be the first time the junior class has held a dance in the fall in addition to the annual spring prom.

Committee in charge of the dance consists of Betty Palmaymesa, chairman; Alice Boeseke, in charge of refreshments; Cliff Romer, in charge of the program; and Norman Becchio, publicity.

APO Holds Open House

Alpha Phi Omega, national honorary service fraternity, will hold its annual open house on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p. m. All men who have had scouting experience and have not received a bid are asked to contact President George Gunterman at once. The open house will be held in the auditorium of the Southern Counties Gas company, located at the corner of Figueroa and Anacapa streets.

A program has been arranged for the men who attend, with Willie Wilton, one of the new sponsors, relating a few of his experiences. Ed Williams, acting Field Scout executive of Santa Barbara, will be on hand to relate a few chapter activities while at U.C.L.A. Other sponsors present, to welcome the guests will include Dean William Ashworth, Dean Paul Jones, and R. F. McFarland. Refreshments will be served at the end of the program.

Weldwold Club Plans Party November 12

Members of Weldwold club, newly formed organization composed of the residents of the school athletic house at 940 Mission Canyon road, have tentatively planned a party to be given on November 12, according to Carl Hallen, chairman of the social committee. This is the first of a series of affairs to be sponsored by the organization.

According to Doug Oldershaw, house manager, the affair is exclusively for members and their "Best Girls."

'IRONMAN' NOW COACH

Murt Miller, former "Ironman" of the Gaucho grid team, is at present occupied with the football destinies of the Santa Barbara High school sophomore griders. Over 50 candidates reported for berths on the soph squad, Miller reported.

Band Gives Benefit at Fox Arlington Tuesday Night

Swing music, marches and college songs will constitute the program of State College band at a benefit at the Fox Arlington theatre Tuesday evening. Proceeds from this benefit will help finance the band's trip to the Tempe, Arizona game on October 29.

"The band's going to Tempe depends upon the success of the benefit and the support of the student body," states Robert Louis Barron, faculty director. John Austin is student director.

"The Arkansas Traveler," with Bob Burns, will run Tuesday for the benefit. Burns is supported by Fay Bainter, John Beal, Irvin S. Cobb, and Jean Parker. Along with this feature will be a preview and news. The band program will be 45 minutes in length.

Tickets are 40 cents each and are on sale in Don Follet's office. They are also being sold on the campus, at the rally Friday night, and at the game Saturday, by members of the band and members of the rally committee.

"This is the only means by which the band will be able to go to the game," said Barron. The 43 piece band has experienced sensational success in recent appearances. In Bakersfield Pioneer day it showed good quality. In San Francisco during the recent game, the band stole all the honors, and Bay City papers gave the band credit for being the best feature of the day. Another appearance was made at the Granada theatre last week.

Yale Lorden Speaks At Senior Breakfast

Yale Lorden, State alumnus, will tell of his recent trip to Europe at a breakfast to be given for members of the senior class in the cafeteria next Tuesday at 7 a. m.

In addition to the talk by Lorden, there will also be group singing. All seniors who have paid their class dues will be admitted free. Others will be charged 50c.

Pi Sigs Induct Seven Pledges

Meeting Tuesday at the Barbara hotel, Pi Sigma Chi, I. E. honorary fraternity, inducted seven pledges.

Under the direction of President Elbert Phelps, the pledges, Terry Boyer, Marian Maaskant, Frank Graves, Harper Ormsby, Melvin Frankel, Paul Funk, and Harvey Hoffman received formal induction following the rites, E. E. Ericson, faculty advisor, gave the list of the fraternity activities for the semester.

Plans were then drawn up for a general I. E. reunion luncheon to be given on November 5, Homecoming day. All the graduate members of the fraternity who return for the San Jose game will be invited to attend the luncheon.

Men, Women Attend Recreation Session

Volley ball was the chief team sport featuring the recreation evening presented by the Women's athletic association Wednesday from 7 until 9:30 p. m. in the gym. Men and women students participated in individual as well as group games.

Wednesday's program was the first in a series of recreations planned by the women, to be given the first and third Wednesday of every month during the semester. Each evening will feature a different team sport. Luella Daetweiler is in charge of arrangements.

Mentors Discuss Problem of Lights. . . .

Football coaches Spud Harder, left, of the Gauchos and Clarence Schutte of the local high school Dons are pictured talking over the light problem. Schutte who is smiling, learned later that the high school's request to purchase the lights was turned down by the solons at Sacramento.

Sacramento Orders Light Removal from High School Stadium

State Rejects Plan for Purchase of Arcs By City; Santa Barbara Sportsman Offers $3840 for Consummation of Purchase

That bothersome question of who gets the stadium lights received a jolting solution Wednesday evening. Word was received from Sacramento through Thomas T. Poage, deputy chief state architect, that the state-owned lights standing in the high school stadium must be moved in fulfillment of the contract signed between the state and the College.

Mathias Opens Organ Recital Series Sunday

First Concert Features Initial Presentation of Works in Santa Barbara

Beginning a series of lecture-recitals, William Mathias, organ instructor will present an organ recital Sunday afternoon at 4 p. m. in the college auditorium. This series, which is free to all students, is for

The rejected plan was for the local high school to buy the lights from the state and then for the state to purchase new ones for the beach stadium with the money received. A $3840 donation by a Santa Barbara sportsman made it possible for the secondary school to offer such a deal.

High School Purchase
Yesterday morning, after hearing of the rejection, the high school signed a contract with the California Electric company for the purchase of an identical set of lights for $4500.

According to the electric company officials, the reduction in price is possible because the equipment for removal of the old lights will be present at the same time as the installation of the new ones.

Remove Lights
Work also began yesterday morning in the high school stadium on the removal of the College lights to the new beach field. The California Electric company has posted $1500 to insure the completion of the job by November 2. On November 5 the Gauchos celebrate homecoming when they face San Jose.

The mounting interest of townpeople for the installation of lights in Peabody stadium has caused the numerous negotiations within the past week.

It was not until Monday, on the receipt of the surprise $3840 contribution, that the high school officials and the city board of education actually foresaw a possibility of obtaining lights.

WILLIAM MATHIAS

the purpose of helping the listener to better acquaint himself with classical organ music. The series will consist of five recitals, one of which is to be given each Sunday afternoon.

The recitals will be played on a new Hammond model "E" electric organ, which is the only one of its kind in the vicinity of Santa Barbara. Several of the selections to be played in the series will be heard for the first time in Santa Barbara.

Mathias, who is a graduate of Yale School of Music, and who studied under Dr. Ernest Douglas, has opened two organ classes to students of State, one on Thursday from 4 to 6, and the other on Saturday from 10 to 12 noon.

The program for the first of the organ series includes Louis Nicolas Clerambault, "Prelude"; Johann Sebastian Bach, "St. Ann Fugue"; Johannes Brahms, "Choral Prelude, Es ist ein' Ros' entsprungen"; Max Reger, "Introduction and Passacaglia in D minor"; Sigfred Karg Elert, "Trios Impressions, Clair de Lune"; Cesar Franck, "Choral in E major."

Players Club Plans Program

Inauguration of a three fold program in the Players club is being introduced to the members states Norman Becchio, president of the organization.

This program institutes an honorary point system, which requires that each member must enter into some dramatic activity or assist in these activities to be eligible to remain in the club. A second feature of the program is the affiliation of the Players with a national fraternity; the third becoming organized with a national publicity organization of dramatic clubs.

The drawing up of a new constitution is being worked on by the various officers and will be presented at the next meeting on Wednesday, November 2. These meetings are to be held once a month and programs are to be presented by the members during the meetings. Only charter members and members with sufficient honor points will be allowed to attend the meetings, according to Becchio.

INTRODUCES CRAWL

Peter Jackson, who was famous as a swimmer before he became a boxer and who fought a 61-round draw with Jim Corbett, introduced the Australian crawl to American swimmers.

World News Bulletin

WASHINGTON, Oct. 20—1,000,000 workers have been put back to work since last June according to reports released today by a leading government economist. As a result of the continued upturn in business the unemployment rolls have decreased from 10,250,000 to 9,250,000, he stated.

CRISTOBAL, C. Z., Oct. 20—The admission of a Nazi representative that he had intentionally trespassed the "no photographing" rule so strictly enforced about the Panama Canal zone, threw a wave of excitement over Cristobal today. Indications pointed towards the affiliation of the Nazi and his four companions with the spy group now on trial in New York.

HONG KONG, Oct. 20—The mobilization of 100,000 Chinese troops today showed possibilities of developing into a major drive today. Observers note that the continuous advance of Japanese troops toward Canton has instilled a greater fighting pitch into the Chinese. The troops are ready to engage the enemy on two fronts.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 20—Conclusion of bay region strike which has thrown 2,500 men out of work during the past four months was foreseen today, when Mediator Paul C. Smith announced that an agreement had been signed by the employers but still needs full consent of labor.

If Flunking Flunk Flat, Says Flunker

So passes the first few weeks of into our gleefully morbid mind to school and as usual the thought pours sweetly remind, the energetic scholastic climber of the many and varied possibilities of failing, or to be cruelly realistic, flatly flunking. By this word "flunk" we do not mean just a single class—any ordinary fluff can do that; but it takes a real honest-to-golly wash-out to flunk clear out of school. So you see that not everyone can be a wash-out . . . it takes practice, diligence, intestinal fortitude, and utter lack of any intelligence, ambition, gumption or inspiration. Oh yes, an absolute wash-out is indeed a very remarkable person indeed.

Let us skip lightly over the usual blah about figures, statistics and quotations dealing with the percentage of college students who "remove" themselves from establishments of scholastic enterprise . . . at the request of various deans, boards and quite an assortment of "big squeezes." We know, you know, and especially the deans know, that this number is indeed appalling, stupefying, and in too, too many cases utterly staggering . . . my, my.

Some embryonic wash-outs really have good intentions of flunking out . . . but something or other intervenes and our wash-out turns out to be a wash-out . . . very bewildering. But by applying one's self to the task at hand one can end up by flunking out in grand style. Various methods for undertaking this have been put forth . . . but the best of them all is a conglomeration consisting of a combination of all of them . . . wild and frivolous week-ends, preferably out of town, dates every school night, constant cutting of classes, ability to garner immense quantities of "Fs" in exams and general struggle toward an unescapable end . . . there you have the qualifications for down and going wash-out.

In spite of the large amount of collegiate fluffs who cover themselves with dust and dishonor semi-annually very few of them do a good job of it. Some of them barely flunk out by "the skin of their teeth." Somebody worth listening to once said something about not doing a thing at all unless it's done well . . . thereafter, if you're contemplating a hasty removal quite soon carry on the upstanding traditions of your fair institution and flunk like flunking should be flunked.

News of Other Colleges

• SYRACUSE, N.Y. (ACP)—Fraternity rushing in the modern mode has made its appearance at Syracuse University.

The Beta Theta Pi fraternity there, in addition to its regular program, of eat, talk and play, has devised a novel photographic identification system that rivals any police record system. Here's how it works: As the rushees enter the house they are ushered into the library to fill out individual cards of information which are filed away for future reference.

Identification cards are pinned to their coat lapels and the rushees are then shown into the cloak room where a candid camera and flood lights are set up. Their pictures are snapped immediately developed, and attached to the file card of each rushee. When the discussion of pledges takes place, these pictures are brought out and if any of the brothers cannot recall a rushee by his name, they can identify him by his picture.

During formal rushing the pictures are inserted in place cards set before each rushee's plate at the dinner table.

• NORMAN, OKLA. (ACP)—Take it from Marjorie Lou Seibs, being a human tuning fork is no fun.

This University of Oklahoma co-ed, one of the few humans in the world who has the rare gift of absolute pitch, can identify vibratory tones and translate them into correct musical notes—but her ability often causes her to groan at concerts, for she can detect the slightest off-key notes.

Few of the singing "greats" satisfy Miss Sieb's ear. Lily Pons "sharps quite often," but Grace Moore "doesn't have much trouble with her tone quality." Miss Sieb's perfect ears for music like Lawrence Tibbett best, but they don't think Bing Crosby is any "panic."

• EL PASO, TEXAS (ACP)—Members of the El Paso Rotary club are at work selling $1 shareholders certificates in the Mucker Band of the College of Mines and Metallurgy, here, a branch of the University of Texas. Rotarians have set as the goal the sale of 1,200 shares for which

From All Sides . . . poor dear Poopydust and the rest of us are being threatened in no uncertain terms, so if we're a bit on the right side of the line for awhile, please, please our two loyal readers, understand.

We Were Peeking . . . at Mr. Jerome Ferris' delightful column before we went to press, this morning and we understand that he has something to wave around over our heads, if we aren't good. BUT! That isn't the half of it, some one of the University of California's radical students has a place in his heart for our Mr. Ferris, also, and has writ the following epistle in care of this office—the first bit of fan mail we have received from off the campus (and on the campus, too, yes, Poopydust).

Here's The Substance . . . after radical censorship. Listen Listen Fullerton!!!

This is the last warning. You lay off Jerry Ferris or I will spill all I know. If you don't take it easy on Ferris I will do any one of all of the following: 1—Disclose the facts of Josephine Carioca. 2—Tell your mother that you smoke. 3—Tell Capt. Jones that you don't intend to use his "Molly" in the Roadrunner Revue. (Yes, PD, we should have censored that, too.) 4—report your conduct to J. Edgar. You will not be warned again. Be sensible! Take it easy! (And this was all signed:) Ferris Wheel. But we know who it was. Ha, ha, ha, ha!

And That Gives . . . us cause for the thumb nose interview of the week. Here's a fellow, who turned down a chance to run for A.S. president last year, just because the rest of us (and probably Poopydust, too) wanted to be his manager. He went to some bush league school to study, if you can imagine. And he got what he went after. If you should wander by his hovel on Bowditch street any night of the week you'd see smoke from the old midnight oil pouring out of his third story window. But don't let this fool you, he's just looking at no more or no less than $1 may be paid by any individual. Proceeds from the sale will be used to purchase new instruments for the band.

• NEW YORK CITY (ACP)—Dictators' promises and regimentations boosters have no appeal for today's college student.

That is the belief of New York University's Dean John T. Madden, who has been observing closely the political thought and action of college students during the rise of the one-man governments.

"Our college students observe that regimentation does not make for a more abundant life and they reason correctly that we here will not be more successful in designing blue prints and constructing from them a perfect planned economy," he reports. "These students reveal a sense of power which puts to shame the defeatist philosophy of some of their elders who still survey the world through poor lenses. But there are significant differences between students now and those of a decade ago. Today, fewer seek to scale the heights, they seek a lower level of attainment and wish rather to have a feeling of security.

Others are looking for a rare beauty to wear our colors in the forthcoming race for Homecoming Queen. We have been looking over the stock on hand and taking a general inventory of the campus during the past few days in anticipation of getting up enough of that viscera that is required to say to one femme, will you be our Queen? So far we have 83 gals on the list and one by one we will eliminate them with the customary "no," and we should be able to land one out of the bunch to wear the purple and pink of Jim Dash.

Of Course, If . . . we should most likely fail to get one out of 83, which is our usual average, we can always ask Jerry Ferris to enter the election for us. That's some consolation anyway.

Now We All . . . know why Hitler got mad at the Brazilians. It seems that Der Fuehrer's undercover men, who were planning to uncover the Brazil government and re-do it in the tradition of the Reich, rhine into some trouble in the attempt to finish off a few of the South American nation's leading citizens. We don't blame you either, dear Adolf, it used to make us awful mad when we were younger and got caught taking something that didn't belong to us. And so Hitler won't talk to you anymore Brazil, and that's terrible. Aren't you glad?

MERRIAM-GREEN COALITION 'OLD MAN' MATHIAS

• Pinning labels on groups of people is a dangerous habit. Especially is it dangerous habit for men in the public eye, men who depend for their positions on the whims of the populace.

We note by the papers that Governor Merriam, running for reelection, received the support of William Green, A.F. of L. head when Green pleaded with Federation unions to support the Republican nominee. When informed of Green's enthusiastic endorsement, Merriam stated that he "appreciated the A.F. of L. compliment more than anything that has ever come to me." He explained further that he had always been able to discuss matters with A.F. of L. leaders, although not always agreeing with the labor union's policies.

On the other hand, "I'm against the C.I.O. when it's communistically led, and in all the controversies I have had with the C.I.O., it has been so."

We are inclined to think that the above would be a bald, rather flat statement for any one to make. For the governor of a state the size of California, with its comparatively large labor population, we might say that the Governor is climbing out on the proverbial limb.

Over 5,000,000 workers in the nation are affiliated with the Committee for Industrial Organization. With a leadership predominantly communistic, as Merriam implies, it would naturally follow that all of the members of the organization are Communists. If this were true, and Merriam should be thankful that it isn't, the corresponding percentage of Communists in California would elect a member of the Communist party to the governorship.

To this corner, it seems that both Merriam and Green are sinking men grasping at straws, who have formed a mutual admiration society. The logic goes that if the A.F. of L. supports Merriam, the incumbent governor will have so much the better chance of remaining in office. If he does, it will naturally follow that the A.F. of L. will receive preference over the C.I.O. in any legal labor disputes. And the law is the powerful weapon held over labor.

To the credit of the A.F. of L., it may be said that the leaders of the California Federation have written Green urging him to withdraw his endorsement.

Under a headline "Late Hours—Sour Music", a local journal carried a story the other day about "music coming from an electric organ in the State College auditorium with an elderly man acting as maestro." A local gendarme, making the rounds of the campus at 1:30 a.m. happened upon the music, accosted the "elderly man" and bid him cease.

The "elderly man" happened to be Bill Mathias, organ instructor and a student himself. Bill, who spends all of his waking hours with his Hammond, is a young fellow who has not been out of Yale too long. As fellow night-owls on the campus we struck up an acquaintance and we can now appreciate why Bill is so devoted to his music. It did seem eerie at first to hear Bill pounding out minor chords after midnight but we went through a gradual process of conditioning.

To appease the good burghers in the neighborhood, however, Bill, henceforth will play "tremolo."—S.C.

To those who think that Fascism is not a real threat to the world, let bloody Spain serve as a warning to their false hopes. The Spanish so-called "civil war" is going on relentlessly because England, France and—yes—the United States have not stopped it. Italy and Germany, who have just successfully throttled Czechoslovakia, are more deterred because they saw their control of the government through illegal

Spanish War Proves Threat of Fascism

mined than ever that the iron ring of Fascism must eventually bind all Europe. The democratically elected government of Spain was challenged by Franco, his feudal landlords, and the remnants of the old monarchists, who rebel-methods was at an end. The people of Spain had spoken through the ballot in no uncertain terms. As proof of that, we need only examine the records. The People's Front was a unification of all Spanish parties, conservative, liberal and radical in an effort to consolidate the democratic forces of Spain against the Fascists. What have the great world democracies done in this conflict, so vitally effecting the welfare of their governments and their peoples? Proud England, long boasting of her unchallenged supremacy of the sea, has actually allowed Italian submarines to sink scores of her merchant ships without any reprisal whatsoever! France, whose future democracy would be doomed with a new Fascist neighbor on her southern border, has steadfastly refused to consider Spain as a democracy fighting for her life. Even the United States through her unjust and unfair neutrality law, has actually aided Fascism, the great enemy of democracy.

This "short-sighted diplomacy," in our opinion, is a shortcut to disaster. Sometime England, so proud of her Chamberlain "peace with honor" may rue that day, if she continues to allow Fascism to crush democracy. For Fascism is a cancerous sore, always growing and spreading, infecting new parts with which it comes into contact. Spain's outcome is Fascism's destiny—Hitler and Mussolini realize this; England, France and the United States would do well to agree.—R.S.

Honor System Would be Aid To Honest Living

Honesty is the best policy. When that great sage and forefather of ours, Benjamin Franklin, uttered these fine sounding words, he spoke too soon. He should have waited about a century and a half in order to view present conditions.

If this had been possible he probably would have changed his mind, especially if he could see the prevalent violations of his statement today. Honesty no longer seems to be the best policy—that is for smart people. Many of the leaders of our country for years now have taught a dishonest lesson. They have shown us how dishonesty so often pays. Youth, in numerous ways, is taking up the cry. Not flagrant dishonesties, but small dishonesties, careful dishonesties are the order of the day for youth—college youth.

An excellent test cheating. It is so widespread that tests on many campuses are classed as jokes.

Although Santa Barbara State college students are not inclined to laugh at exams, it is common knowledge that cheating is by no means absent from this campus. In regard to this problem, not much is ever said about honesty. Perhaps the only thing that has been suggested is that honesty is the most honest policy.

But it is on this basis that students should see that the honest way is the best way to play the game, or take the test—or to live. For this reason the honor system would be a great thing for the College to adopt. The honest way first of all is the safest. Second, though ridiculed, it is the most popular. Third, it is the most intellectual. The introduction of the honor system would be a large step toward teaching the rule of the honest way.

Richards Views Difficulty in Terminology

"The prime obstacle in general education is a feeling of helplessness before the unintelligible. Every problem is new to the mind which first meets it and it is baffling until he can recognize in it that which he has met and dealt with already. The all important difference between the mind which can clear itself by thought and the mind which remains bewildered and can proceed only by burying the obstacle in a formula—retained, at best, by mere rote memory—is in this power to recognize the new problem as in part, an old conquest." This statement appears in a book published this month, "Interpretations in Teaching" by Ivor Armstrong Richards, English literary critic.

The actual significance of this statement is not realized until one learns that Richards is one of the giants of English education at the present day. The statement is the axis upon which hinges entire movements in education. The underlying belief of this movement is that education of any type accompanied by an ignorance of terminology which is void of purpose. Richards makes his plea for an education which in its early paths shall lead to the foundation of common interpretations of knowledge. Yet his plea itself is versed in language over the head of the average student.

Our own view towards any change in this direction is that it must be carefully managed lest it lead to a dogmatic point of view. We do agree, however, as all honest thinkers must, that our present system is confused with the awkward masses of varying interpretations. Some reform must come in our methods but such reform must be made after practical experimentation and not on the basis of any single doctrine.—F.D.

JERRY FERRIS

THUMB

Nose interviews aren't exactly in my line, but someday I'm going to try and describe this "Poopydust and the rest of us" to you people in the green-e-eat unseen audience. All I have to say is that was thumb interview—thumb interview! And listen you half-baked co-and-so that runs around this campus with that beaten down pipe drooping out of your ugly pan, I'll start telling things about last Monday night if you aren't careful.

SOMETHING

To argue about, it seems. Something to give the local esthetes a chance to show what they know about art and artists. Well, I'm a self-styled commentary myself. And I'll have a little to say about this statue of Saint Barbara that is destined to grace the entrance to Santa Barbara. I won't mention any names—not because I'm afraid—because I don't know them.

OVER

On the other side of the page is this much disputed statue. She is a tall, graceful creature. And to me, she looks very sophisticated, i. e., as sophisticated as one could make a stone statue of a sixteenth century saint. She is dominating, sincere, aloof and beautiful. She isn't cluttered up with classical finery and ornamentation. She is a modern Saint Barbara in keeping with the times. She would be the condoling, motherly, pitying kind that everyone would love and admire. Not the retired, self-sufficient, retracting person that saints usually are.

SEEMS

To me that the Chamber of Commerce would want something that would not only depict the city's patroness saint, but would also tell a little of what Santa Barbara itself is. It is a modern city of beauty and grace and charm, which the sculpture certainly radiates. Also, the carved image is superiority and aloofness in the native, which the town itself should exemplify as one of the nation's most beautiful and superior cities.

SOME

Friend of mine, who writes a column (?), immediately found a likeness to Myrna Loy, and while I seemed to note a touch of the Loy in the face of the thing, I checked further and Saint Barbara apparently had none of the characteristics of our glamour girl.

THESES

A little shop on State street, who's name and proprietor I won't mention, that displays the most attractive group of photographs I have ever rested my eyes on. Two in particular are the essence of attraction. An Indian's head and shoulders, and in his face you may read the entire history of his race and life. He is a perfect exemplification of his race. The photograph is perfect, revealing every detail and a few that probably wouldn't appear to the naked eye.

OTHER

Picture is of a horse. Not being a connoisseur of equestrienne flesh, I couldn't name the beast's brand, but it was by far the most beautiful white horse (I guess Arabian) that I have ever laid eyes on and I credit myself with having viewed many, many beauties of the horse family. It may be that the picture taking was overdone, but if you want to see one of God's most gorgeous creatures (off the campus) just go to Elmer's and go right by and you will see the shop with the picture gallery in the window. You can't possibly miss the shots I've talked about.

Pan Hellenic Council Completes Tea Plans

• Pan Hellenic council members completed plans at their monthly dinner and meeting, for the tea for new women which will be given Saturday, October 29 from 3 to 5 p.m. in the A.W.S. club room.

Reports were given by committee heads: Sallie Entz, food; Ellen Seymour, tags and door; Alice Boeseke, decorations; Margaret Jones, serving; Virginia Rogers, hostesses; Ruth Angwin, invitations and Lois Arthur, clean-up.

The Pan Hellenic formal, scheduled for January, was discussed. Arrangements will be made at a later date.

Margaret Jones was appointed chairman of the Welfare committee to cooperate with the A.W.S. and the Neighborhood house in their Christmas programs.

Assembly Features Film

College Slates French Work For Tuesday

'Crime and Punishment' Opens in Auditorium As Second A.S. Meeting

• College's motion picture projection booth has remained dark for nearly one year, but it will open Tuesday morning during the second and third hours when the Associated Students present the second assembly of the year featuring the Columbia release of the French film "Crime and Punishment" an adaptation of the story of the same name by Antoin Dostoievsky.

Featured in the cast are Pierre Blancher, Harry Bauer and Madeleine Ozeray in the leading roles for the famous French novel in celluloid. The film, although several years old has had a steady booking since it was first released and is scheduled for appearance throughout the United States during the coming year.

Educational Film

It is as valuable from its educational value as from the glamour of its plot and characterizations and depicts the art of crime detection and the French surety, police and civil methods of criminals as disclosed by authorities. This is the un-expurgated edition with French dialogue and English subtitles.

Through the cooperation of the College Administration, the director of assemblies allocated funds from the assembly budget to repair the motion picture equipment in order to present this special two-hour assembly. William Rust, instructor in the industrial education department and licensed operator will run the film for the show and repair the equipment.

Second Booking

The same picture was booked for college showing last spring but difficulties arose and it was canceled by Danny D'Alfonso, A.S. president, acting as director of assemblies at the time. Admission to the auditorium will be by A.S. book and both balcony and main floor will be open with members of the Sophomore Squires ushering and seating students who attend. Non student body members will be charged 10 cents admission.

On two weeks from Tuesday the A.S. will present Dr. Ian Campbell, Cal-Tech geologist, who will address the assembly on his recent findings on exploring the Grand Canyon of the Colorado river. He will accompany his lecture with a motion picture that should be of interest to all students.

Special note should be made that the Tuesday assembly is scheduled as a two-hour show and third period classes will not meet on Tuesday morning.

Art Group Holds Dinner

• Monthly dinner meeting of the Art department at State college was held at El Cortijo Tuesday evening. The members, their guests and faculty were entertained by a travel talk on South Africa by Miss Alva Carothers as well as an exhibition of a display which Miss Carothers brought back with her from her trip around the world this summer.

Among those present were Dr. and Mrs. Crowell, Miss Charlotte Ebbets, Miss Elsie Pond, Mrs. Ruth M. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. Fish, Mrs. G. R. Moseley, Miss Ruth Clay, Miss Phoebe Steer, Mrs. Kirell, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. Eichelberger, and Mrs. Price.

Alpha Thetas Fete Instructors at Tea

• Alpha Theta Chi, social sorority, will give a tea for State college faculty members, Sunday from 4 to 6 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Henry Howell, on Cheltenham Road.

Mrs. Lloyd Hitchcock, Mrs. Theo Harder, Margaret Duncan and Ellen Seymour will receive the guests. The flower arrangements and table decorations will be worked out in a blue and silver color scheme. Dorothy Ann Myers is general chairman of the affair. Mary Alice Halferty is in charge of the invitations and Rena Sacconaghi is in charge of the refreshments.

Men, Women Divide in Yell Sections

• All members of the men's and women's rooting sections are expected to be in their individual section at the Santa Barbara-Whittier football game tomorrow afternoon at the new stadium. The men are reminded to wear rooters caps and white shirts, while the women are reminded to bring pompons.

At the game last Saturday the women, according to Harriet Ridenour, head song leader, turned out one of the best rooting section State has ever had. The men's section, according to Jack Richards, yell leader, is still in need of more rooters. If the rooting sections are filled, the Rally committee can prepare stunts with the sections for the coming football games, states Harry Sloan rally committee chairman.

Those who do not have rooters caps or pompons can buy them tomorrow afternoon at the game. The Rally committee is trying to secure megaphones which will be issued to each member of the rooting section.

Frosh Hold First Dance

• First frosh dance will be held in Ebbets hall, October 29, according to Pat Rich, freshman class social chairman.

All freshmen will be admitted free upon the presentation of their class membership cards; charge of ten cents will be made for guests of the freshmen.

The dance, which will be a gingham and cord affair with a Hallo-wen theme, will be from nine to twelve, with a nickelodeon furnishing the music.

Male Chorus Elects Turnbull Manager

• Phil Turnbull was elected manager, Tom Kelly, librarian; and Jack Bedwell, publicity manager of the male chorus at their regular noon meeting Tuesday.

The chorus, under the direction of Robert Louis Barron, is planning many programs for the near future and asks the support of the students.

Local Theater Bills Run of 'Kind Lady'

Associated Students Gain Free Admission to Play By George Chodorov

• "Kind Lady" will open next Thursday evening for a three night run in the College Theater. This three-act mystery melodrama is one of George Chodorov's works, and will be produced and directed by Frederic W. Hile.

The cast has been in rehearsal for several weeks and should give a "finished" performance, according to Hile. Those in the leading roles were guests at an Elk's club dinner Tuesday evening, at which time they presented a few scenes from the play. Included in this group were Jane Ellen Van Wye as Mary Harries, Don Estey as Henry Abbott, Winifred Nichols as Rose, Jean Smith as Mrs. Edwards, Maxine Sudbury as Ada, Violette Glahn as Aggie Edwards, Harry Shunway as Mr. Edwards and Francis Johnson as the doctor.

Free Admission

Associated students of the college will be admitted to this first play of the season free of charge. This is due to an arrangement made by Hile with the financial office last year. Students are urged to take advantage of this offer, and will be admitted to the performance upon presentation of student body cards.

Price of admission for faculty, friends, and townspeople will be 50 cents, and tickets can be purchased at the Owl Drug Co. beginning Monday from 2 to 5 p.m. They are also on sale at the College box-office, and reservations may be made by phoning 7136.

New Personalities

This is the first play of the season and should draw good crowds, as the cast includes new personalities as well as veteran student actors which should interest everyone, according to Norman Beccio, president of the Player's club. The other plays that have been scheduled for this year by the Player's club and the Speech Arts division of the English department are "Craig's Wife" by George Kelly, "Pentecost Fever" by Paul Osborne, and "Julius Caesar" by William Shakespeare.

This full program has been planned with the wish that all students, whether they be "dramatically inclined" or not will enjoy the work of the Speech Arts department, states Hile.

Granada Bills New Comedy

• Reproduced from the Pulitzer prize-winning stage hit by George Kaufman and Moss Hart, "You Can't Take It With You" in its celluloid version is one of the best pictures to come to the screen since "It Happened One Night," which, incidentally, was capably handled by the same director, Frank Capra, of Columbia Pictures.

The picture is in the "drama of family life" class, but in a strangely different way. There is a mixture of pathos, humor and philosophy that is so close to real life that the audience cries as well as laughs along with the cast.

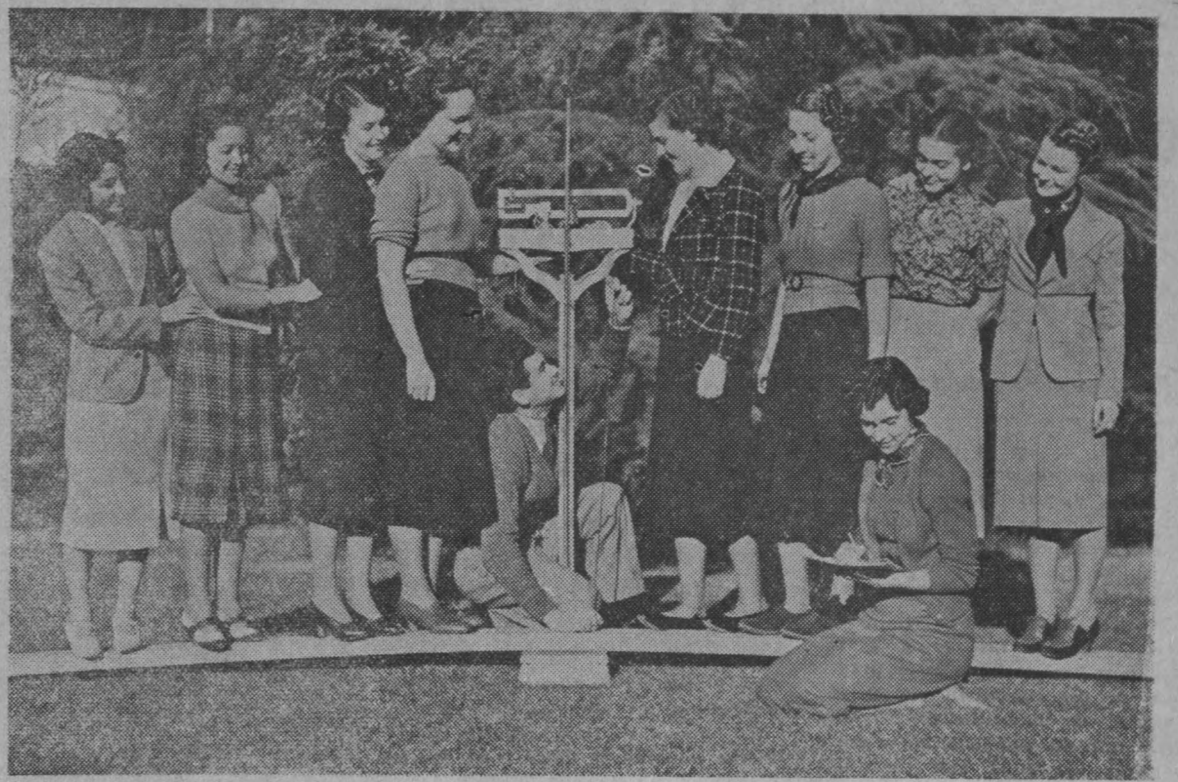

Acting honors are shared by Lionel Barrymore and Edward Arnold, James Stewart and Jean Arthur, with somewhat weaker parts, give very enjoyable performances. In this writer's opinion, Donald Meek also was outstanding in a character bit which was one of the highlights of the picture.

As a whole, the production, which opens at the Granada theater yesterday, is a crazy mixture of nonsense, heartaches and happiness, combined to make a very worth-while two hours of entertainment.

Rated four stars by Liberty, "You Can't Take It With You" is indeed a picture for everyone's "must list.—BRC.

Bevy of Campus Beauties Vie for Queen Honors. . .

• Bob Lyman, Sophomore Squire president in charge of arrangements in the contest to select a campus Homecoming Queen, believes that Monday's deadline in the contest will see as many women nominated as the group above, selected last year.

Kelly Bills Artist Bureau Final Audition

Student Director Receives Call for Entertainer, Fills Job at Association

• Final audition period, for membership in the College Artist Bureau will be Monday at 3 p.m. in the Music hall for instrumentalists and specialty acts, under the direction of Thomas Kelly, director of the bureau, and Robert Louis Barron, newly appointed faculty advisor of the bureau.

Kelly was the first member to represent the organization, when he sang before the Underwriters association last night in the Barbara hotel.

"I'll Take You Home Again Kathleen", "In The Garden of Tomorrow", "Your Heart is Mine" and "My Wild Irish Rose" were the numbers he sang. Mildred Fabing accompanied him at the piano.

"A complete list of the artists will be presented to the Chamber of Commerce and to the heads of all conventions to take place in Santa Barbara," stated Kelly today. "We will also send this list to prominent junior colleges and high schools in the South and as far north as San Luis Obispo, to advertise the bureau," he concluded.

Sophomore Squires Announce Deadline As Monday for Entries In Homecoming Queen Contest

• Deadline for entries in the contest to select a State College Homecoming Queen is Monday at noon, announces Bob Lyman, president of the Sophomore Squires, service organization in charge of arrangements for the election. Voting on the candidates by the Associated Students will take place next Friday.

Each department, class, social and honorary organization on the campus is entitled to run one candidate. Entry blanks should be turned into Lyman. They should contain the candidate's name, organization represented, age, height, weight, color of hair, color of eyes, home town, service record and achievements.

The latter items of information, Lyman states, are necessary because the contest is not limited to the candidate's beauty but takes into consideration all-round accomplishments.

This year, for the first time, women, as well as men will vote for the campus queen. In previous years, women were not permitted to vote on candidates.

To date, Lyman has received no entries. Special meetings of all societies, fraternities, honorary societies and departments have been called to decide upon representatives. Before the deadline is reached, Lyman believes, a number of entries will have been turned in.

Tentative plans for elected Homecoming Queen call for the outstanding woman to lead the Homecoming parade in an organization float and to preside at many of the functions in connection with the return of alumni on November 4 and 5.

Gauchos Seek Upset Win Over Poets Tomorrow

Whittier Favorite In Local Tilt

Peirino Merlo Out Of Lineup; Ellings Star of Invaders

By DAVE EBERTS

• Minus the services of Peirino Merlo, chief ground gainer and all around star for the Gauchos in last week's game, Santa Barbara State will play host to the victory bound Whittier Poets tomorrow in an all important game which should put the Gauchos back on the win trail or shove them down another notch on the gridiron ladder.

Rolling up an impressive array of scores in their season so far the Poets are one of the few undefeated eleven in Southern California. They got off to a flying start in the '38 football campaign by completely smashing the California Aggies, 27-6, in a third quarter scoring spree.

Paced by sophomore Bill Ellings, Whittier's versatile left halfback and former Santa Barbara High school star, the Poets piled up a startling set of statistics both in the running and passing department with Ellings personally accounting for all four touchdowns in this game. He has been the spark plug of the Whittier attack and is at present leading the Southern Conference in scoring.

The San Diego Poets have played four games to date, won three and tied one. Besides beating Cal Aggies, they defeated La Verne 45-0 and Occidental 14-0. They played a 6-6 deadlock with the San Diego Aztecs, last year's Southern Conference champions. Occidental downed the Gauchos 6-0 in the season's opener so on the basis of comparative scores the Poets are heavy favorites to go home with El Gaucho's scalp.

Ellings isn't by any means the only Poet threat, Gene Wineinger, crack quarterback, is considered by scouts to be superior to the former Don flash as an open field runner. His work as field general is highly commendable and as a safety man he is an end's nightmare, usually running wild once he grabs a punt. Ed Nichols, Poet fullback, has shown tremendous power in the line-smashing department and is an excellent defensive man.

Secret Practice

Coach Spud Harder has been holding secret practice the last couple of days, away from the prying eyes of Whittier scouts. He fears the Poets and has made some necessary changes in the line-up. Mickey McArthur, long distance Gaucho punter, has impressed Harder with his hit 'em hard hit 'em often style of play and has worked himself into a first string berth. Mickey is a hard runner and a deadly tackler and has been inserted into the line-up to show the Gauchos the lost art of tackling.

Merlo's injury is scrimmage Tuesday dealt a serious blow to the Gauchos hope of victory. This is the fourth year in a row that Merlo has been laid low by injuries just as he started to hit his stride. It seems to be as regular as clock-work. He played excellent ball last week and was counted on to lead the attack against the Poets. Pickens is still out with a twisted ankle and is not expected to see action.

FROSH PLAY C.C.C. AT 10 O'CLOCK

• An injury hampered Gauchito squad will take Phelps field tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock against a sturdy Lompoc CCC eleven.

Cliff Wrightson, star first string center, will be lost to the Frosh team for about a week, and will not see any action in this Saturday's encounter. He suffered a leg muscle hemorrhage in a gym class Wednesday morning and will be on crutches for a while.

The Lompoc squad is coached by Pete Hathaway, former State star, who also plays fullback for his team. This game will mark the first appearance of the freshman team on the local field, and will give those fans who could not make any trips a chance to see the squad in action.

"Mighty Mite" of Gaucho Line. . . .

• George "Greek" Valos, the "mighty-mite" of the Gaucho forward wall is the Hilltoppers' principal threat against the hard-running Whittier backs. He has been State's outstanding lineman in every game played to date and tomorrow's fray should see no exception to the rule.

Tough Session Held by Grid Selectors in Doping Games

• One of the toughest sessions of the current season was held by the Students' Football Selection committee this week, with several members going out on the proverbial "limb" to pick the underdogs in many of this week-end's leading games.

An innovation of this week's selections is the challenge received by your sports editor from Elmer Schwarzborg of Elmer's Cafe for a battle of wits on doping out grid games. Elmer figures the writer hasn't done so hot in picking 31 winners out of 39 contests for a .795 average.

Separate Issue

The battle between Elmer and your sports editor will be a separate issue from the regular committee selections. Incidentally, Elmer will fete the six highest committeemen at the close of the grid season at a steak dinner. Games tabbed this week are: Arkansas vs. Santa Clara, Oregon U. vs. Fordham, Idaho vs. U.C.L.A., Northwestern vs. Illinois, Carnegie Tech vs. Notre Dame, Wash. State vs. Oregon State, Trojans vs. Stanford, California vs. Washington, Dons vs. Phoenix High, Whittier vs. Gauchos.

Prognostications

George Soule, soph: Arkansas 13-7, Fordham 18-7, Bruins 7-0, Illinois 9-7, Irish 13-7, Oregon State 7-0, Trojans 13-7, Bears 19-7, Dons 20-0, Poets 13-7.

Betty Caldwell, frosh: Broncos 20-0, Fordham 7-6, Bruins 13-0, Northwestern 6 Illinois 6, Irish 7, Carnegie 7, Oregon State 13-0, Stanford 7-6, Bears 13-6, Dons 30-6, Poets 0, Gauchos 0.

Lloyd Borstelmann, ticket sales manager: Broncos 13-6, Fordham 19-7, Bruins 20-7, Northwestern 12-0, Irish 20-0, Oregon State 13-3, Trojans 14-6, Bears 19-0, Dons 19-6, Poets 7-0.

Nancy Fenwick, frosh: Broncos 14-6, Fordham 13-6, Bruins 13-0, Northwestern 6-0, Irish 18-0, Oregon State 14-0, Trojans 7-0, Bears 14-0, Dons 21-6, Poets 14-6.

Charles Noble, senior: Broncos 21-7, Fordham 13-6, Bruins 20-6,

Northwestern 13-6, Irish 19-6, Washington State 14-7, Trojans 14-7, Bears 14-7, Dons 20-13, Poets 0 Gauchos 0.

John Twaddell, special student: Broncos 13-0, Fordham 14-7, Bruins 7 Idaho 7, Northwestern 13-6, Irish 18-0, Wash. State 14-7, Trojans 13-6, Bears 14-6, Dons 20-6, Gauchos 18-7.

Elmer Schwarzborg, just Elmer: Broncos 13-7, Fordham 10-6, Bruins 0 Idaho 0, Illinois 7-6, Irish 14-7, Oregon State 7-0, Trojans 14-7, Bears 7-0, Dons 21-7, Gauchos 13-6.

Francis Becchio, sports editor: Broncos 13-7, Fordham 7-0, Bruins 13-6, Northwestern 14-0, Irish 19-7, Oregon State 7-6, Trojans 13-6, Bears 19-0, Dons 25-6, Gauchos 6-0.

HORSEHIDERS LOSE

• Santa Barbara's recently organized winter league baseball crew nosed out the Gaucho All-Stars in a hard-fought battle last Sunday afternoon at Pershing park by the score of 3-2.

SUMMER CAMPS PROTESTED • Alfred R. Masters, graduate manager of athletics at Stanford university, advocated this week the outlawing of summer football camps, stating that "this sort of thing sets a dangerous precedent."

IMPORTANT TILTS

Two important Pacific coast conference football contests are on tap for the forthcoming weekend, with California's Bears invading Seattle to meet the Huskies and the Trojans engaging Stanford at Palo Alto.

Blynn Wilson Advocate of 'Blind' Center

BLYNN WILSON

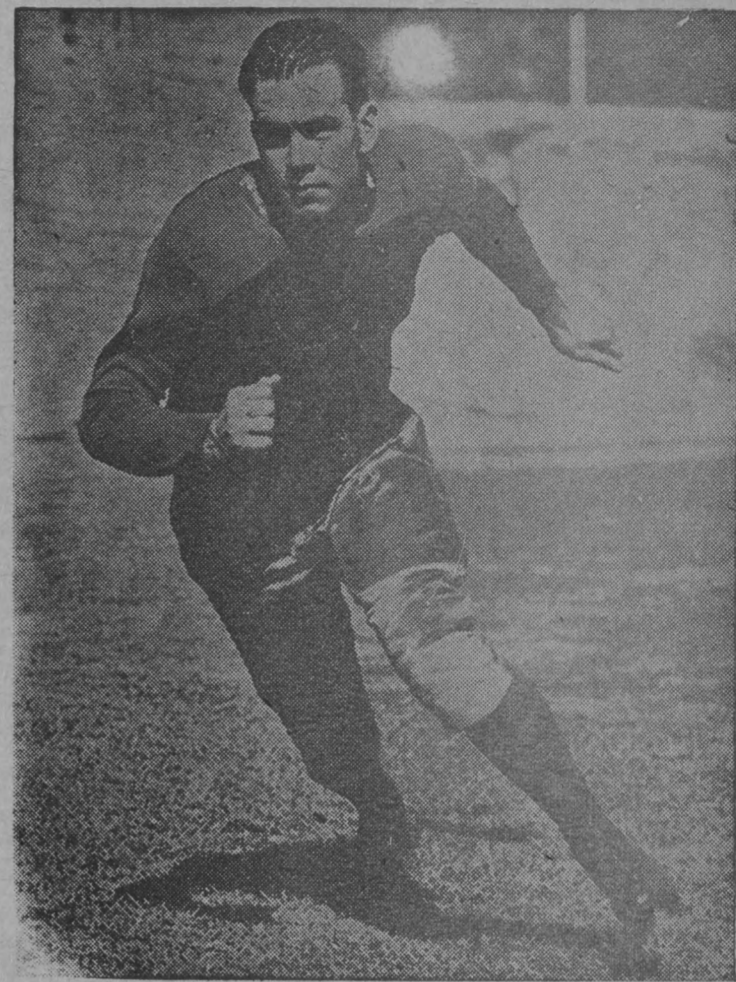

• Blynn Wilson . . . center, at 6 ft. 2 inches and 188 pounds . . . Wilson hails from Breckenridge, Texas, and came to State from Ventura J. C. . . . he was captain and All-Southern California center of the conference winning Ventura team last season . . . a sophomore, Blynn has three years of eligibility at State and is majoring in history and education . . . he has always played the center and backed the line on defense . . . so the fine job he did last Saturday was not a new experience for him . . . Wilson is working on the blind centering idea and expects to develop it in spring practice . . . he could do it in the Notre Dame system but he has to learn all over playing the Warner attack . . . blind centering is a great advantage because the center has to block after shoving the apple back . . . Wilson thinks no coach follows a definite system, but rather fits the system to the material on hand . . . says that Ventura has lots of interest in the Gaucho teams and there are a lot of real supporters down there.

BILL JESSUP

Bill Jessup . . . 6 ft. and 190 pound end . . . arrived at State via Lindsay and played frosh ball with the "Punchin 40" . . . Bill is a sophomore and this is his first year of varsity competition . . . in high he played at the halfback position and at full and half as a frosh . . . this is his first year at the end position . . . Jessup is this season's mystery man because of his potentialities versus his record to date . . . pre-season publicity built up great expectations from him without taking into consideration that this was his first season as an end . . . with a little more experience he hopes to live up to the early season forecasts . . . he changed to end from half because he is better suited and equipped to play that position . . . Bill doesn't mind playing in the daytime, providing the sun isn't working against the players as it did last Saturday for the team going West . . . agrees that the new stadium is better for night ball.

DONS vs. PHOENIX • The Santa Barbara high school Dons entrained yesterday afternoon for Phoenix, Arizona where they will battle with Phoenix High tonight.

All-Coast Prospect Displays Wares Here

• Captain Myron Claxton of the Whittier Poets is the southern team's outstanding candidate for all-coast honors. Aggressive, rugged and displaying a keen football instinct, Captain Claxton is expected to prove a "Gibraltar" against the Gaucho offensive tomorrow afternoon when the Poets will attempt to continue their victory pace at the expense of the Hardermen.

TENNIS PRACTICE

• All those interested in turning out for tennis are urged to report for the initial practice session this Sunday morning at 9 o'clock on the Biltmore hotel courts. Information as to the season's plans and the tennis ladder to be formed later in the season will be given.

By FRANCIS BECCHIO

• Though we are at the height of the gridiron season it isn't out of place to discuss State's basketball prospects for the 1938-39 campaign since the outlook promises the greatest quintet in the history of the school.

Thanks to the efforts of Willie Wilton, who is fast bringing the cage sport here at State to its proper place in the basketball world, the Gauchos will enter the forthcoming season with the best material to grace the gym hardwood and the most comprehensive schedule ever lived up for a Hilltopper five.

Things look bright in a basketball way if the turnout last week is any indication. Besides the returning varsity lettermen, Harold Eastham, Carl Hallen, Bob Ulrich, Bill Russell and others who are yet to report, Coach Wilton will bolster his squad his squad with the following outstanding transfers: Tom Guerrero, "mighty mite" of the L.A.J.C. quintet for two years and high-scoring ace of the junior college conference as well as being unanimously picked on the all-league five.

Paddy Caudillo, captain of the Compton J.C. varsity; Gordon Gray, rangy center; Lawrence Brewster, Long Beach J.C. center. Up from the frosh will be several capable reserves and a few who will make it hot for the upperclassmen to win berths on the first string.

This columnist, knowing Wilton for years, forecasts that he will work unceasingly to give State a basketball team of which to be proud. All he asks in return is support of the team by having organized rooting sections at all games.

SURPRISE OUTCOME

The outcome of the Southern California conference, of which State was a member up to the '38 season, has been a distinct surprise to all pre-season dopsters, who had tabbed San Diego's Aztecs as the repeaters for the conference gridiron crown. Since the Aztecs defeat at the hands of the Pomona Sageshens, the dope bucket has been emptied out and refilled with the following forecasts. Whittier's Poets and Pomona's Sageshens will now decide the title when they clash next week at Whittier, with the Poets tabbed as favorites. If Whittier downs Pomona, they will have clear sailing to the championship since they have only Redlands' Bulldogs to face before clinching the title. On the other hand, should the Sageshens emerge victorious in the Whittier fray, they will still have one more tough hurdle to overcome before clinching the pennant—a game with the tough Occidental Tigers. The Pomonans meet Caltech tonight, but should have no trouble turning back the weakest Engineer team in years.

State's gridiron warriors step out of the coils into a boiling cauldron tomorrow afternoon when they meet the potential Southern conference champions, the Whittier Poets, who amply displayed their power last Saturday afternoon in dumping Oxy 14-0. Because of San Diego's defeat at the hands of Pomona's Sageshens, Whittier has been installed as favorites for the league title, having only the Pomonans to defeat to attain the laurels, since Redlands and Caltech, are the weak sisters of the conference race this year.

The Poets, humiliated by the Gauchos last year, are as equally determined to turn the tables on the Hardermen as they are of winning the conference championship. What a "grudge" battle looms—Whittier eager for revenge and State anxious to redeem an Occidental loss by lashing the Poets.

Pomona Is Host for Southland Play Day

• Pomona College is host this year to the Annual Southern California Play Day on Saturday, October 22. The representatives of the Women's Athletic association of Santa Barbara who will attend are: Lois Arthur, Louella Daetweiler, Sophia Patterson, Betty Ravey, Ethel Clendenen, Julia Rogers, Stella McNulty and Rosie Pagliotti. The faculty members who are to attend are: Mrs. Hodgins, Mrs. Waterman and Mrs. Anderson.

Besides a very interesting sport program there will be a luncheon, entertainment and a tour of the campus.
