College Alumni Return for Homecoming Today

Students Celebrate Homecoming With Float Parade, Revue-Rally

Group Floats Compete for Perpetual Cup

Sororities, Fraternities, Departments March in State Street Procession

BULLETIN

Organizations entering floats in the parade must turn in descriptions of the floats explaining what the float represents and the portrayal of characters, according to Jack Richards, grand marshal of the parade.

Tonight at 7:30 p.m. all sororities, fraternities and service clubs of Santa Barbara State college will compete for the prizes which will be awarded for the three outstanding floats that best represent the theme "Sparta" at the annual Homecoming parade which will start at the foot of State street and end at Sola street.

Floats will line up in the following order: Alpha Theta Chi, Beta Sigma Chi, Home Economics department, Sigma Alpha Kappa, Alpha Delta Chi, Phi Kappa Gamma, Gamma Sigma Pi, Tau Gamma Sigma, Las Meninas, Delta Sigma Epsilon, Women's Athletic association, Alpha Phi Omega, Gnome club, and freshman class. Decorated cars will follow the floats.

Float Prizes

Prizes for the floats and cars will be awarded between the two sections of the Revue-Rally program held in the college auditorium after the parade.

The floats will be judged by Dr. Elmer Noble, science instructor, Mrs. Ida Sands, cafeteria manager, Howard Ralston, manager of the Granada theater, Mrs. Mary Crosswell, art department head, and Roy E. Gammill, local merchant.

7 p.m. Time Limit

Jack Richards, grand marshal of the parade, urges that all participants in the parade, including the band and officials, be at the foot of State street by 7 p.m. at the latest.

Highest award to the best float in the parade in the opinion of the judges will consist of a Sweepstakes cup, a perpetual trophy awarded by the Orr Hardware company. Last year, the trophy was won by Alpha Theta Chi sorority. In addition to the cup, first and second prizes will be awarded the next best floats.

For the best decorated car, in which event any one is eligible to compete, prizes will be given, Richards states.

All of the trophies will be displayed in the coffee shop today and tomorrow.

Service Group Plans Homecoming Unit

Alpha Delta Chi, honorary elementary service organization, met Tuesday evening at the home of Pauline Michael. The group resumed the progress to date of their unit for the Homecoming parade. Plans were made for final work on the unit. The organization will take charge of the checkroom at the Homecoming dance.

The News in Brief

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3—Reconstruction Finance corporation Chairman Jesse H. Jones today announced that $250,000,000 was being distributed in the form of loans to private utility companies in the first step of the government's program to aid the utilities' expansion program. Of this amount, a large percentage will go to railroads in an attempt to carry them over their present difficulties.

LONDON, Nov. 3—The house of lords voted 55-6 today to enforce the British government's new trade agreement with Italy. The action came as an aftermath to yesterday's hot session in the house of commons which saw Prime Minister Chamberlain subjected to sharp criticism. The lower house vote also ratified the enforcement, 345 to 138.

Rally Head

Committee Bills Dance After Game

Greenough-Lambourne Band Furnishes Music For Homecoming Hop

Santa Barbara State students and alumni will hold their annual Homecoming dance in the national guard armory tomorrow evening from 11 p.m. to 1 a.m. The dance will follow the Homecoming game, at the new beach stadium, and the music will be furnished by the eleven piece Greenough-Lambourne orchestra.

The social committee has charge of all the arrangements, and guest cards may be obtained in Dean Lois Bennink's office. These cards are priced at 50 cents, and must be purchased today as they will not be available at the dance, states Miss Bennink. The dance is to be a regular student body affair, and the students will be admitted upon presentation of student body cards. The cost of tickets for the alumni will be 25 cents. Dress for the dance will be sport.

The social committee announces that unless otherwise stated, wearing of coats and ties will be required of all men attending school dances, according to a regulation recently established.

Patrons and patronesses of the dance will be President and Mrs. Clarence L. Phelps; Dr. and Mrs. Charles L. Jacobs; Dean and Mrs. William Ashworth; Dean and Mrs. Paul Jones; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Abraham and Dean Lois M. Bennink.

Social committee chairman Betty Palmayessa states that the dance will be open to rosters from San Jose who attend the football game between the Gauchos and Spartans.

OAKLAND, Nov. 3—The German steamer Vancouver was the object today of an investigation into the unusual explosion which took place this morning on the ship as it was steaming out of San Francisco bay. No one was hurt.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 3—Japan's request for a fundamental revision of United States' attitude toward the increase of Nippon influence in China was rejected today, according to International News service dispatches. Official recognition, however, had not yet been given to the proclamation.

MADRID, Nov. 3—An Insurgent shell struck and badly damaged the United States embassy in Madrid today. Although no one was injured in the embassy, the day's shelling took a toll of fifteen civilians.

Talent Show Bills Variety Entertainers

Pep Talks, Songs, Yells Feature Initial Program In College Auditorium

Homecoming Revue-Rally, combination pep-fest and fun-frolic, will be introduced in the College auditorium tonight at 8:30 p.m. immediately following the annual Homecoming parade. Comedy, yells, pep-talks, songs, gags and swing are included on the program, which from advance sales shows promises of enthusiastic reception. The 35c tickets are on sale today on campus and tonight at the box-office.

Queen Betty Howell and her two ladies-in-waiting, Patsy Bass and Margaret Parks will hold the center spot on the stage, backgrounded by the 12 piece swing band, "The Collegians."

Guest Speakers

Head Coach Theo "Spud" Harder, assistant Willie Wilton, President Clarence Phelps, and Dr. Charles Jacobs will discuss the merits of the team and the possible outcome of the game.

The Revue part of the rally presents entertainers from the student body including Jeanne Duran singing "The Girl Friend of the Whirling Dervish," accompanied by the Stooze chorus; Jean McArthur giving "Could You Pass in Love"; Gerry Pilling doing "When I Go Dreaming"; Ed McCloskey singing "The Donkey Serenade"; Tom Kelly vocalizing "Love Here is My Heart"; Vernon Duncan presenting "Short-nin's Bread"; and a picked quartet harmonizing on college songs.

Three Stoozes

The stoozes of last year's revue, Lloyd Borstelmann, Bud Burdick and Pat Kelly are prepared to add to the general fun with some fresh fooleries that have promise of hysteria. Carlos Bee and Jean Smith present a burlesque on vodvil and Harry "F.D.R." Sloan will imitate President Roosevelt's famed "Fireside Chats." Lloyd Herziger will present a novelty musical act, while Trent Bessent will perform acts of magic and ventriloquism.

This Revue-Rally, the first of its kind to be given at the College since Homecoming was started 20 years ago, is a preview of the 1938 Roadrunner Revue, annual student production, according to Harry Sloan, who is head of the rally committee and general director of the Revue-Rally.

Stadium Gets New Title

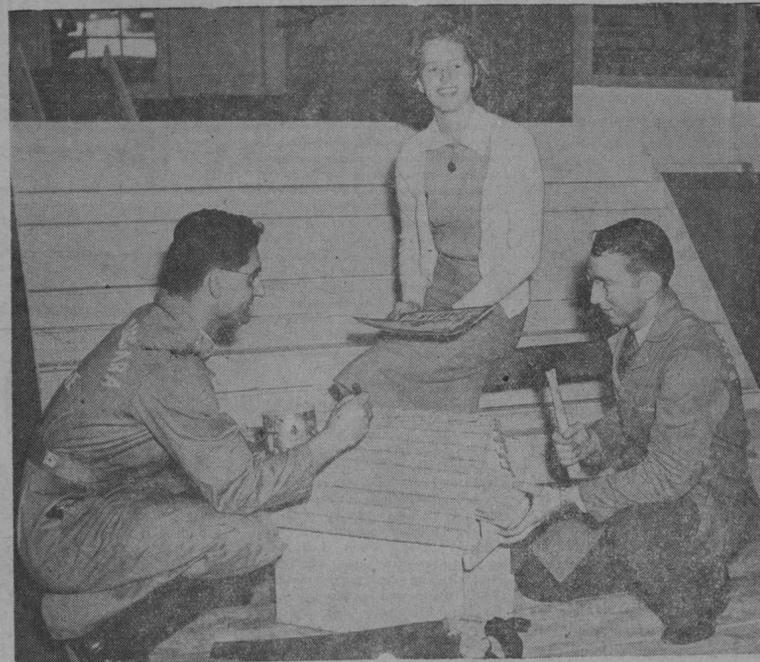

State's new stadium will receive its official title chosen in a naming contest participated in by townspeople and students between the halves of the Santa Barbara-San Jose game tomorrow night. T. M. Storke of the News-Press will announce the decision of the judging committee, composed of Storke, President Clarence Phelps and Dr. Charles L. Jacobs, and will formally name the stadium.

The San Jose game is the second to be played in the new stadium under lights, which were transferred from Peabody stadium in time for the Los Amigos-State freshmen game last night. The lighting system does not cast shadows or reflections, according to Coach Spud Harder, who feels that the playing conditions are excellent.

K. P. Department Plans 'Pied Piper'

Plans for a Christmas production of "Pied Piper" to be presented at the Lobero theater were made at a meeting of the Kindergarten-Primary department Tuesday evening at the home of Helen Andrews. The production, under the sponsorship of the Players' club, will be a benefit performance for the children of Santa Barbara and will take place December 11.

Featured on the program was Betty Howell, Homecoming queen, who gave a brief talk. President Clarence Phelps was interviewed as was Wilton Wilton, chief football scout and assistant varsity coach. Wilton also discussed the Gaucho and San Jose teams and told of some unusual plays used by the undefeated northern team.

John Twaddell, State graduate and football scout, told of his most thrilling experience in football and of amusing things that have happened to the Gauchos.

A quiz concerning college activities was won by Bill Hoyt. Other contestants were Syd Cohen, who was runner up for second place; Rea McPeak and Miss Helen Murphy.

Harry Sloan, rally chairman, announced the schedule of the Homecoming activities, and music was furnished by the Men's chorus which sang several college tunes.

Alumni Director Anticipates Large Turnout for Dinner

I. E. Schedules Alumni Meet

Nearly one hundred reservations have been made for the industrial education Homecoming luncheon to be held tomorrow noon in the college cafeteria, honoring I. E. alumni, E. E. Ericson, department head said today.

J. C. Beswick, chief of the bureau of industrial education for the state, visited the college I. E. department Wednesday and was received at a luncheon in the cafeteria dining room by the department faculty.

A conference with President Clarence L. Phelps and Ericson concerning I. E. expansion plans followed the luncheon. Beswick commented enthusiastically on the college department, saying it was one of the best in the state.

Beswick toured the campus and visited the new shop buildings, leaving later for Goleta municipal airport where the state official saw the reconstructed airplane built by Ernest Smith, Elmer Jeffries, and Alvin Kleinhample.

What Can We Show the Former Student?

A good time at rally, parade and game are the evident activities but do they constitute all of homecoming. It seems to us that there must be something more to this event than having a good time...

Our single hope should be that when the alumni leave after their festivities here that they will be satisfied. We should desire that they be pleased with the pep meetings and the Spartan game...

Prime Minister Becomes Man to Watch in Britain

him to be bitten with the bug that bites absolute rulers remains to be seen, but certain occurrences may prove that he is tending in that direction.

Ever since the introduction of cabinet government in England it has been an accepted tradition that the ministry goes out of office when an important measure is defeated in Parliament.

It is admitted that Chamberlain and his followers received a vote of confidence by the Parliament following the unusual concessions made to the Nazis. However, this is a problem that vitally affects every citizen of England...

Several days ago Chamberlain took an even greater step into the realm of dictatorship. This time he defied outright the opposition group in the house of commons. He stated that he would "force" his opponents to ratify a hurried enforcement of a trade treaty with Italy.

Evidently England must watch her step from now on, and the main object of her attention must be Chamberlain. Through his leadership, the Clivedon Fascist group has slowly been gaining more and more power in Britain...

Public Shows Tendency to Poor Hearing

Listen, my children, or you shall fear.

But you will not listen. All that makes an impression on your mind through your ears are the catch phrases, the old trite words, or the old familiar quotations that are included in the ordinary run of conversation.

Last Sunday evening, you probably know, there was a radio program which set the more glib persons in the nation on their respective ears, so to speak.

People had not listened. They had heard and had assumed its veracity. Then they proceeded to go wild. Had they listened more carefully, the program would have been only one more enjoyable bit of radio broadcasting.

One well known man in the selling field, tired of the ritual and dull monotony of selling to the public, set out to have some fun at the expense of his prospective customer.

Then the prepared speech was presented to a stranger as a build of a sale. Do you know that only one out of ten noticed any variation from any other sales talk.

Trailer Life Collegiate Hermit Enjoys Life Alone

"Live Alone and Like It" has one of its staunch supporters in Ben Gautier, sophomore, Alpha Phi Omega member, and blue-eyed.

"Jacob and I pulled stakes from Montebello around two years ago after I had bought him from a friend," states Ben. "Jacob" incidentally, is a fifteen-foot black trailer which is now propped up with stones for living purposes.

He settled down in his unusual home on Phelps field after trying out many other scenes and neighborhoods. "Anytime you don't like the surroundings, you can get up and go," he points out.

The purpose in writing such a letter is to: (a) create a defense mechanism for some inhibited moron, (b) give someone a chance to tryout a new typewriter ribbon, (c) take care of the two cents left over in the budget (it was mailed to us), (d) keep his pants up.

A "hand to mouth existence" is his mode of living, for he does not measure his life with a budget. Quite proud of his domestic abilities he is, too, stating that "I find the best way is to get a variety of food and stock up—while the stocking up is good."

Ben was born in Milledgeville, Georgia, but hasn't a trace of accent. He does his own cooking, of course, but when it comes to washing, that is a different matter—he sends it home to mother.

U.S. Colleges Show Large Increase

A new high in college and university enrollments has been set this fall with an increase over last year of 4.8 per cent, preliminary registration surveys reveal.

Most colleges and universities also received a larger number of applications than heretofore, but many have set up rigid requirements that limit the number of those accepted.

Homecoming Bib and Tuckers Wilton Picks the Gauchos

State college gets a preview of Christmas cheer this weekend when a goodly number of alumni return to reunion. Although none of the advertising boys have, as yet, counted the number of shopping days, we feel that the local celebration offers the same spirit as that of the holiday season.

The few days slated for local exhibitionism for the returning grads have been packed full with entertainment and events by the people in charge. Everyone who heard the opening event, the radio rally over KTMS Wednesday was enthusiastic about this method of officially opening festivities.

Walt Bradbury, however, who is an ace publicity director, in our opinion, sized up the situation and proceeded to put over a smash program anyway.

Mr. Harry Sloan, he of the Rooseveltian greeting and the ostentatious backslap, promises us that the parade tonight and the Revue-Rally following will hit a new high for State college Homecoming events. Sloan and the rally committee, who have been accused of laxity at intervals, seem to be really inspired about this event and have attempted to instill the proper Homecoming spirit into indifferent freshmen all week.

The freshmen, naturally enough, feel that the whole show is for fraternity and sorority members and their guests. We, on the other hand, who are not affiliated fraternally, feel that we will have just as good a time as some of the brotherhood boys.

Most of the campus "experts" feel that what ought to be the climax to Homecoming will turn out to be the bad news, namely, the tussle tomorrow night between the Spartans of San Jose and Mr. Spud Harder's bright green young men. If football games were won on theory, the Gauchos would probably have no cause to worry, because Mr. Wilton Wilton, who scouts the opposition knows precisely everything about the Spartans.

For the game tomorrow, Mr. Wilton ditto has gone out on a limb and picked the decidedly underdog Gauchos. Common sense seems to warn against such judgement, in face of both teams' scores to date, but Willie, who is no Pollyanna, never makes a statement without something to back it up.

Ostensibly, the Gauchos haven't a chance against the Spartans, who average 200 pounds in weight, are undefeated this season, and are the highest scoring team in the country. Scratching below the surface, however, we find that the Gauchos have performed best, to date, against the strongest opposition. Witness the goal line stands against the Dons of San Francisco.

"A woman's college is not concerned with the war between men and women . . . The notion that women's colleges were designed to gear women to fight men is out of date."

Wellesley college's youthful president, Mildred H. McAfee, discusses her hope of training young women to take their places in society, not militantly, but intelligently aware of their responsibilities as citizens.

"I assume that vocational and professional training, weighed in and rightly proportioned with other phases of education and daily living, is worth doing. But I do quarrel with overstraining such training to the exclusion of all other life values."

University of Minnesota's Dean Malcolm MacLean okehhs vocational education—with reservations.

SOMEONE Has been very subtle in suggesting that I quit nincompoopydusting around and get down to brass tacks and do what this column is supposed to do. That's exactly what we're going to do. Fullerton's got enough hecklers without me taking in my part.

LOOKS Like the freshmen one act plays are really going to shape into something worthwhile on the campus. A dream dreamed up by Mr. Fred Hile of the speech arts branch it will take on the form of a semesterly activity with a series of three or more of these neophyte one acts being presented each season.

REVIEWING The script of the plays, it seems to me that Bob Hatcher's "Blood On My Hands" is really something to pass on the good word about. It is purely and simply a pacifistic dream, but it has a secondary purpose for those of you who give a care about theology and religion—there is a deep moral tinge to it. It has an expressive emotionalism that will even move a college audience, providing the director is able to steer his thespians through the proper channels to the port of proper expression of emotional differences and attacks.

REST Of them will get their break, also, and one by one each one-act will be reviewed in brief form by myself. But for the present let us talk about "Peter Pan." This story, which I know was enjoyed by me when I was first old enough to read and young enough to enjoy, is to be presented on the Lobero theater stage beginning Monday evening. Primarily for children, I'm willing to bet it is attended by as much of a population of adults. The show is casted and played by the Clare Tree Major players, which tour the country presenting children's plays that are applauded by the adults.

FIRST Time in the history of the play, a man will play the part of Pan. His name is Leslie Gorall and he comes from Broadway to join the players for his unique role. Wendy of the play will be Jewel Morse, who won a prize out of 5,000 women for her beauty. Her beauty is incidental to her acting ability, it would seem.

FUNNIEST Show of the year will be George Kelly's "The Torchbearers" which will be presented at the Lobero one week from tonight for a two night run. It is the story of an amateur theatrical presentation and all the queer back stage happenings that make up so amusing a part of amateur theatricals. Of special interest it should be to Gauchos, as the next play in the Little theater locally will be George Kelly's "Craig's Wife" and will give you an opportunity to see what to expect from the College's show.

Orchestra Bills First Concert

Featured on the State college symphony orchestra's first concert to be presented on Thursday evening, December 8, in the auditorium, will be Mrs. Anita Cochrane Priest, pianist and music instructor.

Mrs. Priest's solo will be "Hungarian Fantasy" by Liszt. Mozart's "Symphony in G Minor" and the "Meistersinger Prelude" by Wagner, in addition to several other selections, will be included on the program.

Charles Crow is concert master of the orchestra, coming to State from Compton junior college, where he was a member of that school's orchestra. Robert L. Barron is the director of the orchestra, and Gene Flanagan is publicity chairman.

Co-ordinator

In charge of arranging the calendar of alumni activities is Mrs. Jane Miller Abraham, above, who anticipates a record turnout for the Homecoming celebrations this week-end, and for the alumni dinner to-day.

Journalists Bill Tourney At Convention

Alpha Phi Gamma Plans Writing Contest During National Fraternity Meet

Main feature of the Alpha Phi Gamma western section journalists' convention on November 11, 12 and 13 at Santa Barbara State college will be an invitational writers' tournament being sponsored by the local chapter of the co-educational fraternity. According to Dorothy Hornor, who is making plans for the affair, it will surpass any contest of this sort that has been held at past conventions.

All entrants will be required to enter four out of five classes in the contest. The classes will be divided into editorial, feature, sport, news, and society stories. Each entrant must write an editorial, leaving him a free choice of three of the other four classes.

Professionals Judge Five minute interviews in each of the classifications will be given to the contestants and twenty minutes will be allowed for the writing of each story. The results will be judged by several prominent Santa Barbara newspapermen and winners announced the same day.

Present plans list the first prize as a new typewriter, with second and third awards yet to be decided. Invitations have been extended to all schools that are members of the Southern California Press association and to numerous other colleges in California. All local college students have also been granted the privilege of entering. Entrance fee is set at two dollars. The tournament is to be held in the morning of November 12.

Dinner in Evening All the convention delegates will gather at a semi-formal dinner-dance at 7:30 the same evening. President Christina MacKellar of the College chapter of the fraternity states that this is one of the outstanding events of the entire convention. Entrants in the writers' tournament who are not official delegates are invited to attend.

Chief speaker at the dinner will be James Schiller, executive from M.G.M. studios in Hollywood, who will discuss the phases in which newspaper work is tied up with motion pictures.

Campbell Speaks at Assembly

Petrologist Talks On Grand Canyon At Third Meeting

At the third regular Associated Students assembly Tuesday during second period, Dr. Ian Campbell, associate professor of Petrology at the California Institute of Technology, will present a lecture on the "Geological Exploration of the Grand Canyon." His talk will be built around a trip he made down the Grand Canyon last fall to investigate the oldest rocks of the Colorado canyons. Previous to this expedition Dr. Campbell had spent several field seasons in studying these rocks from camps in the Inner Gorge and on the Tonto Platform; the river trip being necessary in order to complete the investigations.

Dr. Campbell's lecture will be illustrated with natural color lantern slides. He will present a preview of his talk Monday night to the assembly committee.

Biography

Dr. Campbell was born in Bismark, North Dakota, but grew up in Oregon. During the World War he was overseas with the 91st Division. From 1916-17 and 1919 to 1923 he attended the University of Oregon where he received his B.A. and M.A. degrees in geology.

At Louisiana State university, he was assistant professor of geology from 1925-28. As instructor in mineralogy, he remained at Harvard university from 1928-31. While he was at Harvard he received his Ph. D. in Geology. He was made assistant professor of petrology at the California Institute of Technology in 1931-34, and in 1934 he was made an associate professor, his present position.

Research in Canyon

He has been a research associate of the Carnegie Institution of Washington since 1935. It was in this capacity that he, with his colleague, Dr. John H. Maxson, made their trip down the Grand Canyon.

Two previous assemblies presented this semester were a vaudeville show by the Sadie Halperin Theatrical agency and a presentation of the film "Crime and Punishment."

Mathias Bills Third Concert

Sunday at 4 p.m. will see the third of a series of organ recitals given in the auditorium by William Mathias, organ instructor, on the new Hammond model "E" electrical organ.

Mathias played to an audience twice the size of the first Sunday at his second recital and expects an even larger crowd for his third. There are two programs to be presented after the third.

The program for the coming event will include -Dietrich Buxtehude, "Giacosa;" Henry Purcell, "Trumpet Tune, Called the Ceblel;" Johann Sebastian Bach, "Sonata No. 1;" Charles Marie Widor, "Symphonic VI," adagio; Sigfrid Karg-Elert "O Gott, du frommer Gott;" Marcel Dupre, "Prelude Fugue" in G minor.

BECKETS

By FRANCIS BECCIO

Welcome former Gaucho athletic stars and may your return to the campus and town where you achieved fame on the gridiron, court, track and diamond be a pleasant one.

If the Gauchos play as they have in their last few games you are in for a disappointment, but if they exhibit the brand of ball which this writer feels they are capable of, we will go so far as to predict one of the hardest fought battles of the current season and it is not an impossibility for the Hilltoppers to register the biggest upset of the day.

Only a few years back, a national championship St. Mary's eleven was halted by a vastly inferior Nevada crew, 9-7, and Nevada never won another game that season. No, indeed, we're not licked and the writer's hunch is that the Gauchos will put up their best game to date, win or lose.

SPORTS PICTURE

Though football is the principal interest in collegiate circles at present, other sports activities have not been slighted, particularly here on our own campus. Out on Phelps field every afternoon, the cross-country men can be seen going through their paces in preparation for their opening meet with Caltech next Thursday.

On the court in the gym, Coach Willie Wilton has been drilling his basketball hopefuls in the fundamentals of the cage game in preparation for State's most comprehensive hoop schedule.

Women students are busily engaged in hockey contests and the competition this year is of the keenest variety. Coach Marlin Nelson's fencers are brushing up on the finer points of the sport, following their first competition at Los Angeles City college last Saturday.

Sunday afternoon at Cabrillo field the Gaucho All-Stars will meet the Goleta Merchants in what looms as an evenly matched diamond contest.

The tennis and golf prospects are keeping in trim and wrestling aspirants are "grunt and groaning" in the gym.

VALUABLE PLAYERS Baseball news of interest this past week was the awarding of the most valuable player awards in the National and American leagues.

For the first time, in baseball history, James Emory Fox, Boston Red Sox slugger, received the American league honor for the third consecutive time, while Ernie Lombardi, classy Cincinnati Reds' backstop, captured the National league award.

Fox, who made a gallant comeback after being considered on the downgrade a year ago, and bothered by a sinus infection, was overwhelmingly accorded the honors. Lombardi led the National league in batting as well as being the best defensive catcher.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN GOOD T.C.U.'s football machine is regarded by the so-called experts as the best produced in the southwest in the past decade.

IN SHAPE Coach Dimmie Mather has been pleased with the work of his cross-country prospects and states that they are in fair shape for next Thursday's meet with Caltech.

INTERSECTIONAL TILT The big intersectional game of tomorrow's grid menu pits the colorful St. Mary's Gaels against the powerful Fordham Rams in New York tomorrow afternoon, with the Rams rating the favorites role because of their great stand against Pittsburgh last Saturday.

Unbeaten San Jose Eleven Battles Gaucho Squad

Los Amigos Spartan Trio Who Expect To Go Places Tomorrow . . . Hold Frosh Scoreless

Gauchitos Threaten In Final Period, Outplay Opponents

Outplayed in almost every department, the Los Amigos club held a powerful Santa Barbara State college freshman football squad to a scoreless tie last night in the new Leadbetter field before a crowd of about 600 people.

In the closing minutes of play the stands arose to witness a fluke play that almost won the game for the Gauchitos. Al Zapata, Amigan halfback, faded back to throw a prayer pass, but an alert Frosh forward wall broke through and blocked the toss, causing it to float straight up in the air and come down into the waiting arms of Nick Heesey, Gaucho guard. Heesey grabbed the ball and headed goalward, but was caught from behind on a beautiful shoestring tackle by Anthony Cordeiro on the Amigan 25 yard strip as the game ended.

Amigan Threats The Los Amigos squad penetrated into Gaucho territory only twice during the whole game. At the opening of the second half, the Amigans drove deep into Gaucho territory before punting to Garcia on the 10 yard line. Then late in the fourth quarter Garcia fumbled a long punt and put the Amigans in a scoring position until Heesey intercepted Zapata's pass and carried the ball to the Amigan 25 yard line.

The biggest Gaucho threat of the evening was a long power drive, late in the second quarter. The drive started on the Los Amigos 49 yard line when Goyette tossed a pass to Earl Clayton who lateralized the ball back to Goyette on a play that was good for eleven yards. Goyette then made three and McKeever plunged through for a first down. The Gauchitos crossed the Los Amigans up by having Clayton pass to Goyette for 20 yards. Plunges by McKeever and Goyette put the ball on the club 12 yard line and from there McKeever fought his way up to the 3 yard stripe, but an offside penalty nullified the play. Cleo Goyette faded back and threw an incomplete pass to end the scoring threat.

Mexicans Outplayed The Gauchitos piled up 10 first downs to the Amigan three, and rolled up a total of 130 yards to 36 for the Los Amigos club. The Gaucho Powerhouse, Don Ricker, made two nice runs of 16 and 19 yards by bowling the Mexican grid-sters over.

Donk Hart, former varsity center for Santa Barbara State college bore the brunt of the Amigan defensive work, but little Stan Soto, Amigan left end was in on many nice tackles behind the Gaucho line of scrimmage.

Cleo Goyette was the outstanding Gaucho both on offense and defense. He threw passes, ripped off some good yardage and also made some beautiful tackles, but his best achievement was a long punt that traveled almost 60 yards through the air.

Unbeaten Dons Play Fullerton Tonight

The undefeated and untied Dons of Santa Barbara High school journey to Fullerton today to clash with the Fullerton Indians in an official C.I.F. encounter.

Coach Clarence Schutte's Vaqueros are favored to take the Indians into camp, but close games between the southerners and Schuttemen in the past indicates another hard fought battle tonight.

The Dons are back at full strength with every man on the first three teams reported in good shape. Coach Schutte hopes to keep his charges this way for next week, the Dons play one of their big games against the undefeated Whittier High squad.

Oracles Set To Eliminate Borstelmann

The prognosticators are gunning for Lloyd Borstelmann and plan to eliminate the successful grid dooper from the Students' Football Selection committee this week. If Borstelmann remains on the committee for another week, he will take undisputed lead for final honors.

Not one of the men gives the Gauchos a chance against the strong San Jose Spartans. Three give the Trojans a victory over California, while one concedes U.S.F. strong enough to hold the unbeaten Santa Clara Broncos to a 7-7 tie. But here's the surprise of this week's meeting, Rosalind Bradbury picks the Gaucho game a 0-0 tie and the Gaels to beat Fordham, 10-6.

Following are the games tabulated: California vs. Trojans, Notre Dame vs. Navy, Pittsburgh vs. Carnegie Tech, Washington vs. Stanford, U.C.L.A. vs. Washington State, St. Mary's vs. Fordham, Idaho vs. Oregon U., Santa Clara vs. U.S.F. Dons vs. Fullerton, San Jose vs. Gauchos.

The committee members' selections, with winners named, are: Lloyd Borstelmann, chairman: Trojans 13-10, Irish 14-0, Pitt 26-0, Huskies 6-0, Bruins 13-6, Fordham 20-13, Idaho 13-10, Broncos 14-0, Dons 13-0, Spartans 13-3.

Bear Halfbacks Lead in Scoring

Vic Bottari, University of California halfback, leads the Pacific Coast conference scorers with a total of 31 points in seven games. Bottari obtained his total by scoring seven touchdowns and nine conversions.

Another California halfback is in second place with 44 points. He is Tony Firpo, who also tallied seven touchdowns but only two conversions. In third place, Louis Smith of California and Kenny Washington are tied at 30 points, each having made five touchdowns.

Other leaders are Hirshon, U.C.L.A., 18; Higgins, O.S.C., 18; Lansdell, S.C., 18; Nicholson, Oregon, 15; and Overlin, U.C.L.A., 14.

Frank Douglas, junior: Bears 7-6, Irish 7-0, Pitt 27-0, Huskies 7-0, Bruins 12-7, Fordham 14-0, Oregon 7-0, Broncos 7-6, Dons 14-0, Spartans 7-0.

Francis Becchio, sports editor: Bears 14-7, Irish 19-6, Pitt 13-7, Huskies 7-6, Bruins 13-0, Fordham 13-7, Oregon 7-0, Broncos 13-7, Dons 20-6, Spartans 20-6.

"CLIMAX" GAME Both the Trojans of the University of Southern California and the Golden Bears of the University of California at Berkeley are on edge for their big "climax" game of the Pacific coast conference tomorrow afternoon in the Los Angeles coliseum.

Horsehiders Meet Goleta Here Sunday

Santa Barbara State college students will get a chance to preview the '39 Gaucho baseball team Sunday afternoon at 2:15 at Cabrillo field when the Gaucho All-Stars battle with the Goleta Merchants.

The All-Stars are batting .500 so far this season. They have defeated the Brown Derby nine 9-6, but lost a close one to the Coast League All-Stars 3-2. The Gaucho team has been practicing since school got under way and are aiming for a summer baseball tour to Australia. The members of the squad promise a swell game so all rooters are urged to turn out Sunday afternoon and "Follow the Gauchos."

The probable starting line-up for the Gauchos will be: Wilson, catcher; Fitzgerald, pitcher; Graham, 1st base; Markham, 2nd base; Ripsch, 3rd base; Jack Fitzgerald, short stop; Hallen, left field; Morgan, center field; and West, right field. Reserves include Russell, Gray, Goyete, Ashby, Wrightson, and Fujimoto. Freddy Monson and Mel Dennis will officiate.

CAGE DRILLS Basketball hopefuls have been working out three nights each week for the past three weeks and the results of informal practice games reveal promise of a better-than-average quintet for the 1938-39 campaign.

Not Gentlemen A noted European doctor has discovered that light haired women eat less than their darker sisters. Now we know why college fellows prefer blondes!

Spartans Rule as Heavy Favorites To Win Over Hilltop Crew Tomorrow

Invaders Boast Most Experienced Team On Pacific Coast; Larry Pickens Shifts To Halfback to Bolster Harder Attack

By DAVE EBERTS

San Jose State's undefeated, untied and unscored upon eleven will invade Santa Barbara tomorrow night and attempt to add the Gauchos to their growing list of victims. The game, Santa Barbara's Homecoming affair, is scheduled to start at 8 p.m.

Amassing a grand total of 229 points in seven games played so far this season, the Spartans top the list of the nation's high scoring football machines. Their last two games against College of Pacific and San Diego State were their toughest.

The Spartans boast one of the most experienced teams on the coast, having eight seniors and three juniors in the starting line-up. Coach Dad de Groot, team-mate of Spud Harder at Stanford, is two deep with able replacements in all positions

Sprague Moves To End, Knows New Position

AL SPRAGUE

Al Sprague . . . carrying on the tradition of the big, strong men from Bakersfield . . . 6 feet, 2 inches and 195 pounds . . . attended high and Junior College in the Oil city . . . this is his second year of varsity competition . . . Harder's move of Sprague to end from the center position surprised a lot of people but Al has played end in high . . . he also played tackle in high and J. C. . . Sprague knows the duties of the end position, but he says it will be a while to get back into the swing of things . . . State fans are waiting to see how he can hold down the wing spot . . . when he goes in at center, Al uses the blind center . . . as a disciple of the blind method, he says it must be used all through the game to be effective . . . says that the foundation for next year is being laid this season so keep that in mind when watching the Gauchos in action.

JACK SMITH

Jack Smith . . . from what he claims to be the best little town in the country; Santa Maria (80 miles north) . . . a senior this year makes this the last season of competition for Jackie . . . he has played at the halfback position all through his career . . . the first time he ever carried the ball for Santa Maria high, he broke away for a long touchdown run . . . at State his fame has rested chiefly on his blocking ability and he can really mow them down . . . Smith is well-known up and down State for his boxing powers . . . boxing is his favorite sport . . . says that regardless of the Sunday morning quarterbacks' opinion of State, they are a d—n good team with a swell attitude.

and most of them have seen a lot of action due to the large scores run up by the Spartans.

Even Captain Walt McPherson, veteran 190 pound fullback, must divide his playing time. He alternates with LeRoy Zimmerman, the lanky 195 pound passing and kicking sensation from Arcadia, who made Spartan grid history last fall as a sophomore.

Seasoned Quarterback

Gene Rocchi, their 150 pound halfback, has been compared with Cotton Warburton who used to roam the gridiron for Troy. Directing the attack from the quarterback or "up man" position is Keith Bilem, a seasoned 196 pound veteran of two campaigns. He is a former San Mateo high flash and is being rated as a Little All-American prospect. Herm Zetterquist takes care of the right halfback or blocking spot. He seldom carries the ball except to pass and when he cuts loose with the ball it travels 50 or 60 yards. He is their ace long distance heaver.

Coach Harder has been sending a crippled Gaucho team through their paces every day this week in stiff practice sessions and as the old saying goes every cloud has a silver lining. Larry Pickens, ace Gaucho wingman, proves to be the silver lining in the Harder plan of attack. He has been shifted from end to right halfback to give the ailing backfield the punch that is needed to push over a touchdown. Pickens, a great blocker, paved the way for huge gains by fast stepping Bill McArthur and dependable Freddie Monson in recent scrimmages.

Pickens Blocks

Down field blocking is the difference between a great ball club and just another team. This phase of play has been entirely lacking in Gaucho play this season and Pickens looks to have this problem well in hand. Howard Joham, Forrest Gardenhire and Peirino Merlo are still out of commission due to injuries and probably will not see action. Joham has been confined to the St. Francis hospital and the extent of the injuries he suffered in the Tempe game are unknown at present. He was hurt when he caught a pass and was knocked out of bounds on the Tempe four-yard line.
