Nation-wide recognition was given to the local campus this week as fourteen Gauchos were notified of their selection to represent Santa Barbara State in the nation's number one collegiate blue book, "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities."

Nominations for this honor are made each year by an anonymous faculty-student committee at the request of the editors of the publication. Students are selected on the basis of extra-curricular activities and scholastic standing, with character as a pre-eminent consideration.

Purpose of Who's Who, this year in its nineteenth anniversary, is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most from their college careers; as a means for prospective employers to find material for what they have already published, and as a recommendation of the student's ability to work on the state college's contribution to this year's list of college notables throughout America includes Richard H. It is a sad commentary on the democratic way when a man who, according to Drew Pearson, has accepted money from Nazi, who has allowed his congres- sional feelers to be used for the purpose of sending Nazi propa- ganda through the mails, who has been a pinch-hitter all over again to be a lover of not the democratic, but the totalitarian way, gets himself re-elected to congress.

And that is the case with the Honorable (Halaii) Ham il Fish, of the sovereign state of New York, Fish, who consistently voted against all armament mea- sures, who voted against the draft, who attempted to sabot- age all efforts of the United States to prepare for the present war. It was Fish who announced that no one would ever attack the United States, that the for- mations of our islands in the Pacific would be an unnedly act toward the friendly Empire of Japan.

And this is the man who is going to have a say in the run- ning of this war. The seaport cannot change its spots over night. The waving of an American flag will not change the mind and ideas of the Honorable Hamilton Fish.

Two of the victims were 14 year old boys, who were accused of the usual crime of the good people of Mississippi. The children were taken out, hanged under a railroad trestle, accused of the usual crime of the good people of Mississippi. Perhaps the state of Mississippi is different. Perhaps no Negro citizens of Mississippi are serving in the armed forces, would spill their blood with the white citizens of Mississippi so that they can "remain free." If this is so, Mississippi differs from the rest of the union.

The bill now going through congress, with all the riders being attached to this bill, there can be no possible reason for an Anti-Lynch law not being passed. When the government called for men to help preserve democracy, it did not specify whether their skins should be black or white. They just called for them, and those black and white men answered. Is this the thanks the black man gets?

Mississippi, and several other southern states have shown by their acts time and time again that they do not believe in the democratic way. If these states wish to secede to the Axis, let them, and good riddance. If not, let congress pass, and im- mediately, an Anti-Lynch law.
