Bring an Elephant Sized Appetite

By Jury Guadalajara

I was having very little fun all morning. Then around 1 p.m., my beautiful friend Juanita breezes into the office. "You, me, E-Bar! ... For lunch!" she said, pointing at my head and then out the door. So we went.

That was when my day started getting better. The thought of going to the Elephant Bar for lunch was, as far as I was concerned, a great idea. For I had never been there for lunch.

So we went.

The first thought that will occur to you when you walk into the Elephant Bar is: elephants. Elephants abound on menus, walls and those little cards they put on the tables with drink specials. The door handle is an elephant. Elephants.

The other thing you'll notice when you walk into the E-Bar is all the smiling faces. We were greeted and seated immediately by our hostess Suzanna at a table near the front window.

Our waitress Robin came quickly with our menus. Juanita ordered the smoked turkey melt with the separate dinner salad and I had the sizzling steak fajitas, also with the salad.

The salads were delivered rapidly and were, to quote Juanita, "Delightful. The [honey-mustard] dressing is both tangy and sweet." I found my creamy Italian dressing to be very good also, and the vegetables in both salads were fresh and crisp.

When my fajitas arrived, they were, indeed, sizzling, on a bed of sauteed onions and green and red peppers, along with wonderfully soft flour tortillas and a separate plate of fillings: lettuce, two kinds of cheese, salsa and beans. My subsequent fajita burritos were simply amazingly good. I kept saying throughout our meal, "These are amazingly good."

Juanita's turkey melt came on squaw bread, which she found to be "delightful," and when she pointed to her plate and added, "This is really good," I knew she wasn't lying.

The Elephant Bar is located at 521 Firestone Road, Goleta. Hours: Sun-Thur 11 a.m.-Midnight, Fri & Sat 11 a.m.-2 a.m. Prices range from $5-$11.

Good Food In a Big

HOUSE

By Heddy McFrisco

The Big Yellow House is also a Really Great Restaurant.

Consider its origins. Every appealingly designed menu at the Big Yellow House contains the story of a man named Henry L.

pily and efficiently meet your every request. Expect this, because this is what you'll get.

Forget the house, though, how about the food. The food, quite simply, is great. Great, I said. Mozzarella Marinara, Fried Zucchini and Steamed Mussels are concourse there's a grilled cheese available for kids of all ages.

Which leads us to dinner at the Big Yellow House, a subject I am hesitant to write about for fear I might not do it justice. The Big Yellow House is a restaurant extraordinary, and dinner

ROB FRANCISCO/Daily Nexus

Williams. In 1883, Williams built his own dream house on the coast and renamed the town Summerland. The landmark structure, originally built as a "center for spiritualistic community living," is now known as the Big Yellow House.

But by 1993 the place has become specialized, being more a center for spiritualistic community eating. Does that mean you should go?

You better believe it! Lofty origins aside, let's break down just what makes the Big Yellow House a Really Great Restaurant.

Really, as in the Big Yellow House is really dedicated to service. The very aura of the place — with all those years behind it — will hit you as you walk through the door. You will then be greeted cheerfully, seated immediately and handed one of their engaging menus, complete with story and map. Expect great tips from your waiter on what to order, not to mention insightful knowledge on the Big Yellow House itself. Throughout the meal, expect your waiter to hapsidered mere "teasers," fit only as appetizers in a place like the Big Yellow House.

Then there are home-style breakfast entrees — Huevos Rancheros with corn tortillas, French Toast with Bacon, etc. — which you can enjoy, if you like, with fresh melon or grapefruit. That's fresh melon or grapefruit, not smoky diner fresh but Big Yellow House fresh. Best of all on the breakfast menu, perhaps, is the "Create Your Own" omelette section, with a list of ingredients so long it might carry you over into lunch time.

Did I say lunch at the Big Yellow House? Well sir, they will oblige. How does an "Avocado stuffed with shrimp" salad sound to you? Interesting, yes ... but also creative. It's down-home cooking with a personalized twist that could only come from people who really know what "great food" means. Other lunch favorites at you-know-where include the Famous Fried Chicken, the House Triple Decker Club sandwich, the Sirloin Steak sandwich and of

there was designed to prove it. The aforementioned menu, a pleasure during breakfast or lunch, transforms into an enthralling work of art for dinner. Succulent salads, zesty soups, a variety of fish including shrimp and salmon, Western cuisine, Italian cuisine, fine wines, Good Lord! May I recommend the Chicken Parmesan? This place has a vegetarian lasagna that could quite possibly change your definition of the word "lasagna." Mind your spelling, though.

But the Big Yellow House, aside from its cultural significance, is there to do more than redefine lasagna. The Big Yellow House could make you re-evaluate what you consider to be a good restaurant. Sure, it's a House, and a Big one at that. And it most definitely is Yellow. Tantamount to your eating pleasure, however, the Big Yellow House is a really great (fresh creative) restaurant.

The Big Yellow House is located at is located at 108 Pierpoint in Summerland. Hours: Mon-Sun 7a.m.-10p.m. Price range: Lunch $4.25-$7.95, Dinner $6.95-$13.95.
